Ramblers return to District final

Strong defensive play, keys offense in 55-20 victory over Oscoda

By Chris Fiel

Boyne City 55, Oscoda 20

BOYNE CITY -- It took one drive for the Boyne City defense to make adjustments, and after that, the Ramblers took control of the game, en route to a 55-20, Division 6 playoff opening win over Oscoda on October 30.

The opening possession by the Owls resulted in a five play, 78 yard drive, capped by a 67-yard keeper by Oscoda quarterback, Jacob Malak, just over two minutes into the contest, giving the Owls a 7-0 lead.

Boyne would take the ensuing kickoff and march it downfield in an 11 play drive of their own, with senior Malik Smith hitting paydirt from one yard out at the 4:59 mark, and after a successful Magnus Joeker point after, the score was knotted at 7-7.

That would be the first of 55 straight points the Ramblers would reel off over the next two and a half quarters, as Boyne carried a 41-7 advantage into the half, putting the game firmly out of reach as the defense locked down and made it difficult for the Owls to get anything going.

"We made some simple shifts on our defensive line and it helped free up our linebackers and it seemed to work real well," Boyne City senior linebacker, Luke Sage said. "We also implemented some stunts into our game plan which caused their line to keep guessing."

To finish out the first quarter, Rambler junior, Tarin Bell would take it in for a score, running off right tackle, covering 24 yards in the process.

One the second quarter began, the Rambler defense seemed to kick it up a notch as the Owls took to the air to try and catch Boyne's run defense off guard. Carter Wilmot would put a stop to that as he jumped a route near the home sideline, and picked off a Malak pass and raced 50 yards to into the North endzone at 11:04 and a 21-7 BC lead.

Smith would add his second TD of the game with just over five minutes to play in the half, and not to be outdone, Tanner Kruzal would add a 45-yard tackle breaking touchdown run of his own and Colton Sieradski would return a pick-six 42 yards to the house, giving the Ramblers their 41-7 margin at intermission.

The Rambler offense would tally 346 total yards on the night, with 310 coming on the ground.

Smith led the rushing attack with 119 yards on 15 carries and two scores, while Kruzal added 81 yards on five attempts. Bell chipped in with 44 yards and a

TD, while Luke Sage added 38 yards on five carries with a score, and Joseph Baugh had 20 yards on four rushes.

Mason Gardner finished 2-of-3 passing for 36 yards, including a 25-yard touchdown pass to Dominik Archey to open up the second half.

Archey and Sage had the receptions for Boyne.

Defensively for Boyne, Sage finished with 12 stops, including three for a loss, while Jacob Ager had 10. Kruzal and Wilmot each finished with seven tackles, with Kruzal recording a sack and two tackles for a loss, while Wilmot had the interception return for a TD.

Sieradski and Baugh each added six tackles, with Sieradski picking off a pass for a score.

The Ramblers (9-1) advance to the district finals, where they will host Calumet (8-2) who knocked off Negaunee 24-14 last week to move on. Game time is set for Saturday, November 7 at 1 p.m. at Earl Brotherston Field in Boyne City.

Charlevoix Area Hospital announces 5th Annual 5K run/walk Turkey Trot Registration has begun for the 5th Annual Charlevoix Area Hospital Turkey Trot on Thanksgiving morning, November 26th. The annual 5K run/walk starts and ends at the hospital parking lot (at 14700 Lake Shore Drive in Charlevoix). A route map is posted on their website at cah.org, where convenient online pre-registration is available.

"We encourage this year's runners and walkers to take advantage of our online pre-registration," said Heather Parrish, one of the event's organizers. "Not only is it quick and easy, but it guarantees you a t-shirt." Registration forms are also available at the hospital's Emergency Department admission desk.

"Day-of-the-trot" registration begins Thanksgiving morning at 7:30 a.m. with the 5K walk/run starting at 8:30 a.m. Registration will take place in the Charlevoix Area Hospital cafeteria; come in the hospital's main entrance and follow the signs.

The online registration fee ($15 for adults/$10 for children) guarantees you a colorful long-sleeved t-shirt. But if you prefer, for $10 more, adults can choose an adult hooded sweat-shirt instead. If you prefer to register on the day of the race, t-shirts will only be available on a first come, first served basis until they run out. Children in strollers and pets on a leash are free.

Each runner and walker is being asked to bring a non-perishable food item to donate to the local food pantry, helping to stock their shelves for the holiday season ahead.

"The hospital sponsors this popular event to encourage the community to get out and exercise with family and friends before sitting down to that 'big meal' of the year," said Amanda Evans, another of the event's organizers. "Join your friends and neighbors for a morning of Thanksgiving exercise - fun for the whole family!"

Volleyball Roundup

Rayders host Tri-Meet

CHARLEVOIX -- The Charlevoix volleyball team hosted a tri-meet on October 29, with Leland and Northport coming to town.

The Rayders defeated Northport 25-19, 25-12 before falling to Leland 25-11, 25-11.

"The girls played a better pace game which is very close to our goal by post season play," coach Audra Randall said. "We played well against both teams but the experience of Leland showed itself again in our match. We had generous rallies and many girls had a solid night that they should be proud as a team. They are putting it together."

Emily Zabowa led the way with eight kills, 11 assists, 12 digs, three blocks and was perfect on serve receive, while Ali Jarema and Julia Doskoch each chipped in with 13 digs. Hannah Zipp added eight blocks (3 solo), four kills and four aces.

Also for Charlevoix, Beth Veenstra had four aces, two blocks and five digs; Becca Moon added 11 kills, five digs, six assists and three blocks; Grace Sutherland, seven digs; Kenzie O'Leary, three kills, four digs; Nichole Hart two kills; Ellie Louiselle, one block; and Kelsey Crandell, one dig.

Rayders rally to down Ramblers

BOYNE CITY -- The visiting Rayders played catch-up most of the night, but it would be the final score that mattered as Charlevoix defeated Boyne City in four sets, 15-25, 25-21, 25-20, 25-19 on October 28.

Charlevoix dropped the first set and then reeled off three straight against the host Ramblers. Boyne held advantages in each match, only to see the Rayders overcome the deficit in the final three.

Rayder senior Emily Zabowa recorded another strong showing with 11 kills, eight digs and 19 assists, while junior Kenzy O'Leary added seven kills.

Becca Moon chipped in with seven kills, nine assists and seven digs; Grace Sutherland added 21 digs and three assists, and Julia Doskoch and Ali Jarema both had 13 digs.

Hannah Hoth led the Ramblers with seven kills, while setter Nicole Swadling had 16 assists. Madison Reynolds also had two blocks.

Ultimate Trailhead to Become a Reality!

By Patrick W. C. Bevier

It was an idea inspired last February at a Top of Michigan Trails Council (TOMTC) board meeting by president Steve Diggs. And, it took a truly collaborative effort to make it a reality. The "it" was an ambitious fundraiser with the goal of purchasing the perfect property for the future TOMTC headquarters. The gorgeous, historic limestone building is located just north of the M-119 and US-31 intersection on M-119. Better yet, it's situated right at the junction of the Little Traverse Wheelway and North Western State Trail and will be transformed into an education and activities center.

The Little Traverse Wheelway is a 26-mile trail that hosts hundreds of thousands of bikers, hikers, runners, and in-line skaters each year. My favorite section to bike is the North Western State Trail that starts at Spring Lake Park on M-119 and travels about 8 miles into Alanson. This journey passes Round and Crooked Lakes, the Oden Fish Hatchery that offers an informative stop, several artesian wells to fill your water bottle, and ends at the Dairy Queen in

Just a whisker away. The purchase of this amazing stone building as the, "Ultimate Trailhead" for the Top of Michigan Trails Council headquarters is very close to becoming a reality.

Alanson! Bicycling accounts for over 2/3 of the usage but other activities are common also. The Wheelway travels right past my house and I enjoy in-line skating during the warm months and stride on my cross country skis once that lovely frozen water covers the ground. The mission of TOMTC is to establish a network of multiple-use recreation trails in Northern Michigan. These trails offer safe recreation and alternative transportation routes for all residents and visitors to the area. They oversee 288 miles of existing or soon-to-be constructed trails, of which about 180 run along old railroad corridors. As of this writing the fundraiser - whose goal was to raise a remarkable $350,000.00 to purchase what is being dubbed, "The Ultimate Trailhead" - is just $10,000.00 shy of the mark. A huge chunk of this total was generated by the noon Petoskey Rotary Club at their annual, "Diamonds and Denim" dinner dance. This function raised $54,000.00 toward the cause! Another significant contribution came from a Patronicity.com campaign that raised $38,150.00 that will be matched by the Michigan Economic Development Corporation's Public Spaces Community Places program. TOMTC executive director, Jeff Winegard, said, "We saw it as a once in a lifetime opportunity to have a presence at the intersection of two major trails in northern Michigan. It was a big project for a small organization and the community really came together to help us out. We are very appreciative of the Petoskey Rotary and many other partners!" The group has made an offer on the property and, once inspections and title work is completed, expect to be in the new trail headquarters by mid-December. I say BRAVO to this coordinated and successful undertaking that will result in an informative and necessary Ultimate Trailhead for this very important recreational trail system. Yet another reason to get out and experience Northern Michigan Outdoors! You can help the TOMTC reach the goal by making a donation at patronicity.com/ultimate-trailhead. For more information, including maps and directions of all trails, visit www.trailsCouncil.org or phone (231) 348-8280.

East Jordan State of the Community Luncheon

By Tina Sundelius

EAST JORDAN—East Jordan is heading in the right direction and its future is bright was the message members of the community walked away with after hearing four keynote speakers discuss the status of the city, schools, and DDA at East Jordan's State of the Community Luncheon Tuesday, November 11.

An air of optimism filled the Harvest Barn hall as 26 East Jordan High School seniors and other members of the community listened intently to Mayor Russell Peck whose speech focused on the challenges and infrastructure improvements that still lie ahead for the city. "All in all things are looking up, we're heading in the right direction. Together we will position our community for a resilient and sustainable future. Indeed, East Jordan's future is bright," he concluded.

Peck not only talked about all that the city has accomplished but emphasized the infrastructure improvements needed to accommodate new growth. "We are very optimistic about the future of our community and that optimism comes from the exciting new direction we have been heading," he said. He cited the city's sewer system that is already operating at 98% capacity, sidewalks, and sea-pilings to be installed at the southwest side of the harbor next to the bridge intended to stop silt from filling the harbor (construction to begin in December) as projects that will further enable the city to grow. He mentioned the new well house (already up and running), the now open 24/7 recycling center and the $12,000 Kayak facility in the park which he stated presently "looks like an art project." "We are developing the kind of community we have envisioned for future generations. There is a positive up beat energy," he said.

DDA Chairman Tom Teske, Entrepreneur Director with the Northern Lakes Economic Alliance Tom Ehart, Chamber of Commerce Director Mary Fackel, East Jordan Mayor Russell Peck and EJ schools Superintendent Matt Stevenson addressed an audience of community leaders at the third annual State of the Community Address Tuesday, November 11. "East Jordan's future is bright," said Peck.

2016 Chrysler 200 Sedan: A value customers will appreciate

The 2016 Chrysler 200 provides drivers and passengers a beautifully crafted car with an elegantly simple style, an exhilarating driving experience, state-of-the-art and easy-to-use technology, 60 advanced safety and security features and fuel economy ratings of up to 36 miles per gallon (mpg.) The 2016 Chrysler 200 is the mid-size sedan for customers who have earned a little luxury in their life, but demand value for their money.

2016 is the 90th year of Chrysler as a brand. To celebrate, a 90th Anniversary Package is being produced for the 2016 Chrysler 200 Limited model. The special edition package reflects the tenets of the Chrysler brand – a car that is packed with features that customers value, at a price they appreciate.

In addition to the standard features on the 2016 Chrysler 200 Limited model, the 90th Anniversary Package adds as standard equipment: 8.4-in. touchscreen radio with Uconnect Access and SiriusXM Radio, a sunroof, Convenience Group (one-year SiriusXM Radio, body-color power heated mirrors, leather-wrapped steering wheel, power four-way driver lumbar adjust, power eight-way driver seat and sun visors with illuminating vanity mirrors), front floor mats with Chrysler Anniversary logo and unique Chrysler Anniversary screen logo on the 8.4-inch touchscreen.

Also new for the 2016 model year, Chrysler fine-tunes the 200 lineup in response to customer feedback. Changes include:

- Rear backup camera is now standard equipment on the Limited and S models
 - Blind-spot Monitoring and Rear Cross Path detection are available as a standalone option on the Limited models
 - The 3.6-liter Pentastar V-6 engine is now optional for Limited models
 - Heated steering wheel is a standard feature on 200C models
 - Front driver and passenger seat firmness has been improved
 - Three new exterior paint color choices for the 2016 model year
- Since the introduction of the all-new Chrysler 200 in the spring of 2014, the car has resonated with consumers with steadily increasing sales. Sales of the all-new Chrysler 200 are outpacing the combined sales of the outgoing Chrysler 200 and Dodge Avenger.

The 2016 Chrysler 200 delivers a beautiful exterior design, a thoughtful, exquisitely crafted interior and an exceptional driving experience, complements of a segment-first nine-speed automatic transmission and the Compact U.S. Wide (CUS-wide) chassis. With the choice of two world-class engines, an innovative all-wheel-drive system, available sport mode and paddle shifters for an engaged driving experience, and estimated highway fuel economy of 36 mpg, the 2016 Chrysler 200 makes the commute something drivers will look forward to.

The 2016 Chrysler 200 is designed, engineered and built with pride in Michigan. With a major investment of more than $1 billion, FCA US Sterling Heights (Michigan) Assembly Plant (SHAP), once slated for closure, sports an all-new paint shop using leading-edge technology, a new, fully robotic body shop and an upgraded assembly area, setting the stage for the world-class craftsmanship found in the all-new 200.

The 2016 Chrysler 200 will arrive in dealer showrooms in the third quarter, 2015.

Real Estate Corner

Lifestyle Choices Affect Bottom Line

Compliments of Mike Stark, Coldwell Banker Schmidt Realtors East Jordan. (231) 536-7700

SCHMIDT REALTORS

When it comes to eventually moving into that dream home you've always wanted, keep in mind that many of the choices we make on a house are really driven by lifestyle desires, rather than lifestyle needs.

More bedrooms means more time to clean, more expensive to repaint and carpet/floor in the future. The bigger the house and the larger the lot, the more you're going to pay for it both in time and financial resources. The main three decision factors are larger lot, more space and more staff. Each of these come with a price tag.

Larger lot

Depending on the acreage, this is going to cost the owner in regards to acquisition, monthly payment, and upkeep. First is the acquisition. Larger lot means larger price, thus larger down payment and monthly payment. In metropolitan areas, the closer in to the epicenter of town, the more the extra space is going to cost you. If you decide to get it cheaper by moving out of town, then you'll be paying more for gas and be losing the ever elusive minutes of your life.

A friend of mine is dying for a couple of acres. He's moving into the area from a community where houses with 2 acres are common and they are within minutes of the job centers. No problem. In this market, however, it means possibly driving 30 miles or more for what he's looking for. It also means a longer commute -- upwards to 90 minutes -- in morning and evening rush hour. If that's 30 minutes longer per day than what he does now, that's 2.5 hours per week longer on the road -- folks that's 125 hours per year just on the road to work and back per year -- MORE -- than living closer in. (That's three weeks worth of working hours.)

The larger lot also means more upkeep. If you have teenagers, maybe it's not your problem, you think with a wry grin. Nevertheless, the larger lot that is cleared off and landscaped will take longer to mow, require more gas and possibly even more equipment. In addition, there's the landscaping that you may not have needed to fret about before.

Even in a wooded lot, you'll now have to start watching the trees that border your house. A neighbor told me before he was moving that he was spending about $500 per year taking down trees that were threatening his house. Once he did move, the new owners had a tree fall on their home within a few weeks, causing damage to the roof and patio.

More space

For most move up buyers, this is the No. 1 reason they are shopping for a home. The 3-bedroom townhouse isn't cutting it for the growing family and it's time for a yard. Let's get the 4th bedroom, or 4th bedroom with a "bonus" room in the basement.

More space creates more expenses for paint, accessories, flooring, etc., every time the room is repainted, remodeled, etc. It's no rocket science calculation to see that the 1,800 square foot home is going to be cheaper to care for than the 2,800 square foot home. Remember, percentage wise, we're talking 55 percent more home -- which will interpret into 55 percent more flooring cost, 55 percent more paint, 55 percent more utilities, etc. When purchasing, don't forget to ask the owner for a rundown of monthly or annual expenses for upkeep of the property. (Most likely, it will be an estimate, but a good indicator of your true costs of the property.)

More stuff

Don't forget that once you get a larger place, it usually is compounded with a decision to replace older furnishings or purchase new furnishings to put into your new areas.

A recent home moving survey revealed that:

57 percent of owners and 37 percent of renters bought furniture within the 12 weeks surrounding their move; owners spent an average of $3,500 and renters spent $1,220.

55 percent of moving homeowners purchase at least one appliance when they move, and 57 percent of homeowners buy furniture.

35 percent of owners and 40 percent of renters bought bedding; of these individuals, 72 percent did so within three after their move. Owners spent an average of $420 and renters $240.
