Rayders battle tough competition at Roscommon team tournament

Mick Hinkle reaches 100 wins

ROSCOMMON -- The new year is off to a good start for the Charlevoix wrestling team as they faced some great competition at the annual Roscommon team tournament on January 2.

The Rayders, who compete in Division IV, defeated Lake City, 42-33 and Manistique, 48-18 and initially tied Division II Ogemaw Heights, 39-39, but the win was awarded to Ogemaw Heights based on the MHSAA tie-breaker.

Charlevoix fell to Division II Sault Ste. Marie 36-34 in a close match and lost to Division III (ranked number 10) Roscommon, 60-24.

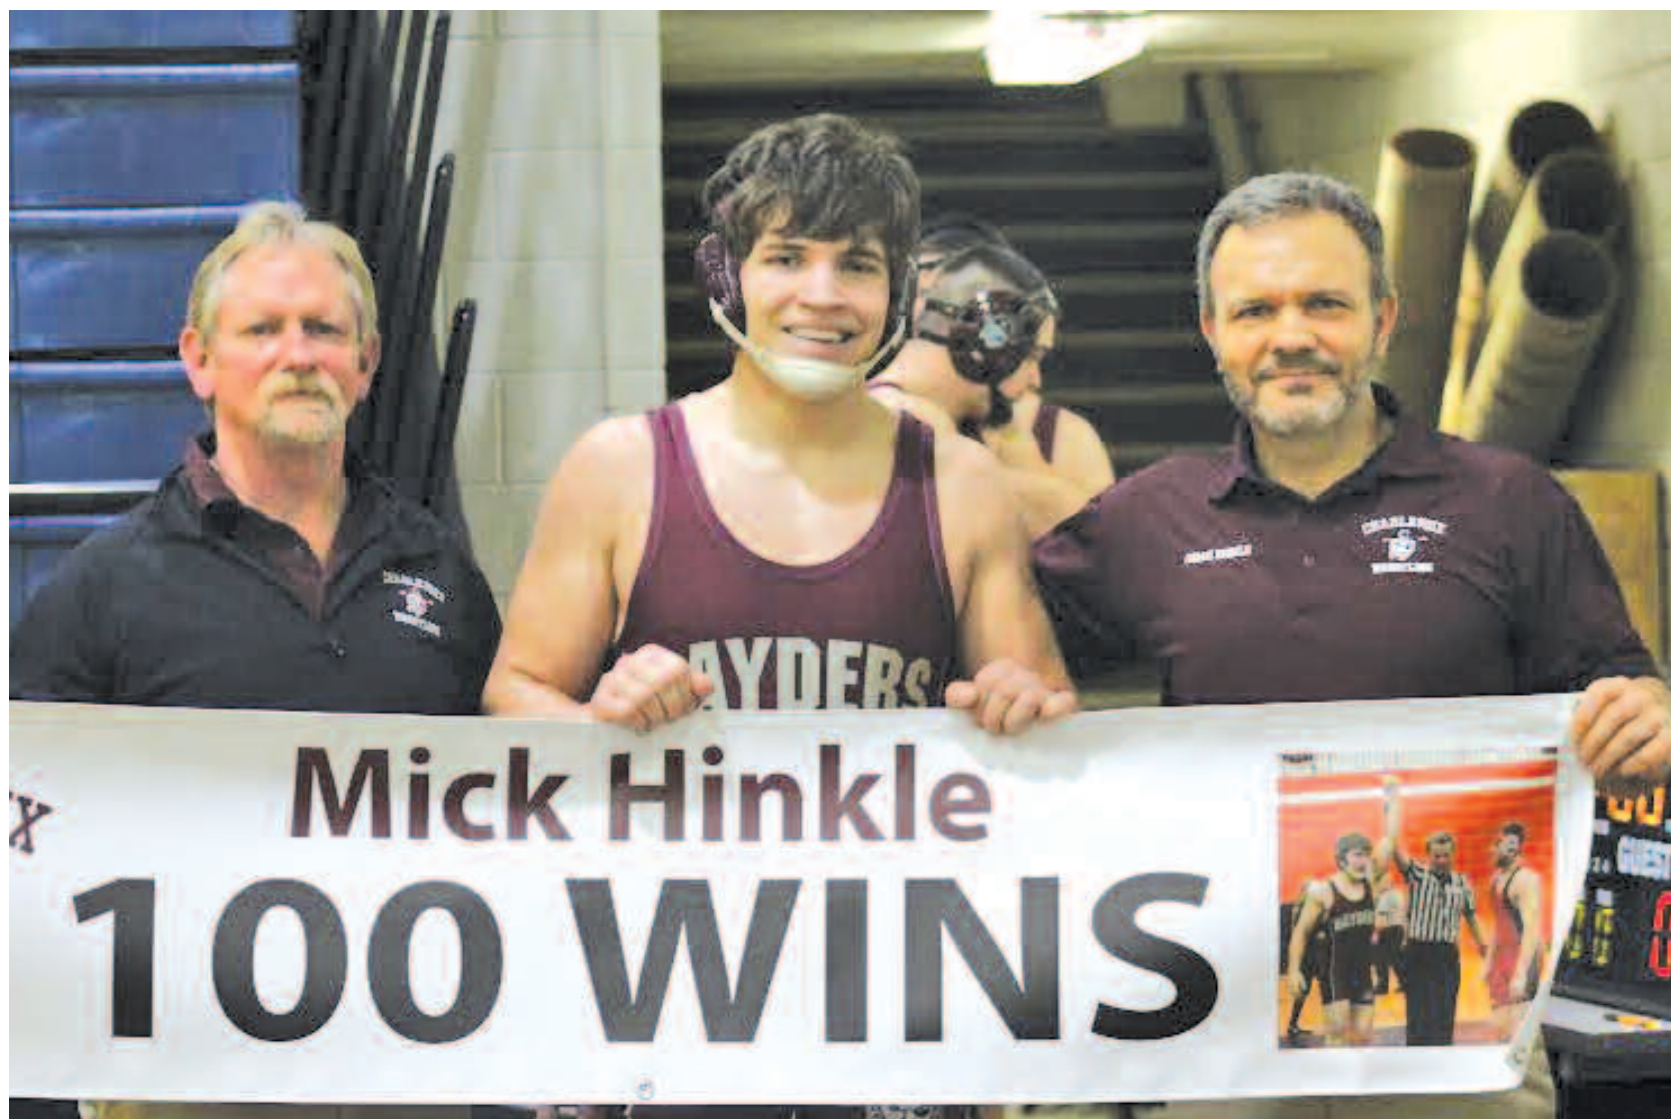

There would be three Rayders that would finish 5-0 on the day, Mick Hinkle (189 and 215lbs); Camden Alden (135 and 140lbs); and Tyler McCallum (130 and 135lbs). Hinkle, a senior, improved to 19-0 on the season and in the process reached the 100 career win plateau. Hinkle was also voted outstanding wrestler in the upper weight classes for the tournament. Mick is currently ranked seventh in Division IV by Michigan Grappler.

Alden, a junior, upped his record to 18-0 and earned the outstanding wrestler for the lower weight classes. Camden is currently ranked sixth by Michigan Grappler.

McCallum improved his record to 17-1 overall with his only loss coming to state medalist Isaac Nave of Onaway.

"The Chernauckas brothers are also having a good year," coach Mick Hinkle said, while also noting that McCallum is having a banner season.

Sophomore Jeremy Chernauckas (112 lbs.) and junior Jordan Chernauckas (119 and 125 lbs.) each went 4-1 on the day, with Jeremy improving to 13-3 overall, while Jordan stands at 14-4. Sophomore Jake Petrosky (215 lbs. and Hwt.) went 3-2; senior Justin Adkins (145 lbs.) was 2-3; senior Jake Seger (152 lbs.) and a pair of freshmen, Trevor McCallum (160 lbs.) and Max Hinkle (171 lbs.) each went 1-4; while junior Justin Bond was 1-1 at 189 and 215 lbs.

DNR NEWS

DNR officer academy has 24 recruits

LANSING – Twenty-four potential new conservation officers reported Sunday, Jan. 3, in Lansing to attend the Department of Natural Resources' conservation officer training academy. The Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards-sanctioned academy will be led by the DNR's Law Enforcement Division employment and training section.

The 24 recruits will complete a 22-week training academy that includes 14 weeks of basic police training and eight weeks of more specialized conservation officer training. Following graduation, the probationary conservation officers will then complete 18 weeks of field training. During the first two years after field training completion, the conservation officers will complete four additional weeks of specialized training, including search and rescue training and marine, waterfowl, snowmobile and trapping enforcement training.

There are 22 men and two women in Recruit School No. 7. Seven of the new recruits are military veterans and three are previous law enforcement officers. Upon academy graduation, the recruits will range in age from 21 to 45.

DNR conservation officers serve a distinct role in Michigan's law enforcement community. They are certified police officers with the authority to enforce all of Michigan's criminal laws. As conservation officers, they also have unique training in a wide variety of other areas related to the protection of Michigan's citizens and natural resources.

Michigan currently has 213 conservation officers, which doesn't account for upcoming attrition through retirements.

"Our goal is to establish and maintain appropriate conservation officer coverage for every Michigan county, and this recruit school furthers that goal," said Gary Hagler, chief of the DNR's Law Enforcement Division. "In addition to protecting the state's natural resources and assisting in rural and urban community policing, conservation officers often serve as first responders."

Conservation officers routinely conduct lifesaving operations such as ice rescue and search and rescue.

In 2015, conservation officers performed a number of lifesaving operations, including a November rescue of a lost hunter in Mackinac County and a lost hunter and deer tracker in Gladwin County, an October rescue of a lost and injured Gladwin County woman, a September lifesaving operation during a Pentwater fire, an August apprehension of an escaped

Isosco County prisoner, and a March ice rescue on the Detroit River, among many more.

First Lieutenant Steven Burton, supervisor of the DNR's Law Enforcement Division employment and training section, noted that the DNR is actively recruiting for future recruit schools.

"Men and women interested in a career as a conservation officer should start the process now by taking the Michigan Civil Service exam and completing an on-line application for a future academy," Burton said.

Michigan conservation officers are fully commissioned state peace officers who provide natural resources protection, ensure recreational safety and protect citizens by providing general law enforcement duties and lifesaving operations in the communities they serve. Learn more about Michigan conservation officers at www.michigan.gov/conservationofficers.

The Michigan Department of Natural Resources is committed to the conservation, protection, management, use and enjoyment of the state's natural and cultural resources for current and future generations. For more information, go to www.michigan.gov/dnr.

Sensational Skinny Skiing!

By Patrick W. C. Bevier

Now that we have some of that marvelous fluffy frozen water it's time to think cross country skiing!

The knowledgeable folks at The Outfitter of Harbor Springs are once again partnering with Nubs Nob to support a cross country ski series. The press release reads, "Calling all skinny skiers! The Nordic Ski Series is back by popular demand and better than ever for the 2016 ski season! In its third winter, the series brings together skiers of all ages and abilities every Wednesday night at Nub's Nob for an evening of fun, fundamentals, and food. Co-hosted by The Outfitter of Harbor Springs and Nub's Nob, the series begins Wednesday, January 6 (snowpack permitting) at 6 p.m. with a focus on classic skiing. The focus will alternate each week between classic and skate skiing and continue every Wednesday night through March 9, 2016. Skiers meet at 6:00PM in the Brown Bagger Room at Nub's Nob ski area."

I was a participant in the program last year and am looking forward to being involved this year. Particularly gratifying is that it caters to participants of all ages and ability levels. If you have children I strongly recommend getting them involved in this program. Every week, experts teach topics including classic and skate skiing techniques, stretching and conditioning, and proper ski waxing processes. For more information go to www.outfitterharborsprings.com or call (231) 526-2621.

Another place to ply your cross country ski skills is Aspen Park in Gaylord. This forested, 100-acre property features several miles of groomed trails including 2-miles that are lighted for nighttime cross country enthusiasts. The park is easily accessed just blocks from downtown Gaylord on Commerce Blvd. A bonus is that if you ski over to the enclosures you can view majestic elk, fallow deer, wild turkeys and other wildlife.

Also near Gaylord is the Louis M. Groen Nature Preserve at Echo Valley Ranch consists of almost 800 acres of property located in Johannesburg. The property contains Kujawa and Johannesburg Lakes, along with being the former home to both the Johannesburg Manufacturing Company as well as Echo Valley Resort. The preserve has groomed trails for cross country skiing and is open to the public at no charge.

If you enjoy shoe shoeing, the Louis M. Groen Nature Preserve has 23 pairs of youth snowshoes and 2 pairs of adult snowshoes available for group outings for Schools, Churches, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and others for no charge. To make group reservations, please call the Otsego County Community Center at (989) 732-6521.

Boyne Mountain and Boyne Highlands also offer miles of groomed cross country ski paths for beginner and intermediate striders. Wildwood Hills Pathway, located on Wildwood Road off of Mitchell and east of Petoskey, boasts groomed classic cross country loops ranging from 4.5 to 9-miles through picturesque rolling hills. Also in the Petoskey area are the trails behind North Central Michigan College and at the River Road Sports Complex off of Emmet Street. Another exciting development is that the Little Traverse Conservancy has obtained a grant that will support the grooming of cross country trails on several of their properties.

If you are in the market for inexpensive used cross country gear, and also looking to give to more charities this New Year, start your shopping at the Challenge Mountain resale shops in Petoskey or Boyne City, the Bergmann Center in Charlevoix, Habitat for Humanity Restore in Harbor Springs, or the Goodwill stores in Petoskey and Charlevoix. Combined, they have dozens of sets of cross country skis from the older 75-mm 3-peg variety to the more modern bindings. Prices are excellent and you can score a complete set, including poles, for about the same price as one rental ski package.

Regardless of which area you choose, get outdoors and enjoy cross country skiing. It's an invigorating cardio and strength building endeavor!

Ram 1500 named Fleet Truck of the Year by Automotive Fleet Magazine

Automotive Fleet magazine announced that the Ram 1500 truck has been named its 2015 Fleet Truck of the Year, an award driven by reader input. The announcement marks the second time in three years Ram Truck has earned the publication's top honor.

"There is little doubt, looking at the ballots, that the Ram 1500 is resonating with our readers — commercial fleet managers of the largest fleets in nation," said Sherb Brown, vice president and group publisher of Automotive Fleet magazine. "Competition in this segment is really tough, but the Ram 1500 edged out the other brands in this year's voting by delivering the capabilities fleets need for their day-to-day operations."

The winner of the Fleet Truck of the Year award is selected by readers of Automotive Fleet magazine. Those readers are comprised of more than 20,000 operators and owners of truck fleets.

"An award from Automotive

Fleet magazine is recognition of what we have accomplished as we continue to develop the Ram Commercial brand," said Bob Hegbloom, Head of Ram Brand, FCA - North America. "Receiving an award based on such an experienced audience truly gives Ram Truck more momentum and confirms we are delivering the features most important to business owners."

Readers were asked to consider which models best fit their fleet requirements, including application effectiveness, durability, quality, servicing, maintenance and lifecycle costs. Forty different trucks qualified for this year's Fleet Truck of the Year ballot.

Creating a distinct identity for Ram Trucks has allowed the brand to concentrate on core customers and features they find valuable. Whether focusing on a family that uses a Ram 1500 day in and day out, a hard-working Ram 3500 Heavy Duty owner or a business that depends on its Ram ProMaster commercial van every day for deliveries, Ram has the truck market covered.

In order to be the best, it takes a commitment to innovation, capability, efficiency and durability. Ram Truck invests substantially in its products, infusing them with great looks, refined interiors, durable engines and exclusive features that further enhance their capabilities.

Moving into the 2016 model year, Ram continues to beat the competition in the most sought-after titles, fuel economy, payload and towing capacity:

- Best-in-class fuel economy with exclusive EcoDiesel – 29 mpg with Ram 1500
- Best-in-class towing capability – 31,210 pounds with Ram 3500
- Best-in-class payload – 7,390 pounds with Ram 3500
- Best-in-class torque – 900 lb.-ft. with Ram 3500 Cummins Turbo Diesel

Truck customers, from half-ton to commercial, have a demanding range of needs and require their vehicles to provide high levels of capability. Ram trucks are de-

What You Should Look for When House Hunting

If you're shopping for a home and can afford to buy one, you couldn't be in a better position right now. In many parts of the country, housing inventory is high and both home prices and interest rates are low and as a buyer, you can take advantage of that.

With so many properties on the market, you can probably take a more leisurely approach to house hunting without getting into a fast-paced bidding war. There is a caveat, however. The best homes priced properly for the market conditions will always be in higher demand.

As you begin your search for the right home for you, it pays to keep in mind things you need to check carefully so that they don't cost you big bucks in the long run.

Kitchen

If kitchens matter to you, you might want to be fairly selective about them when looking for a new home. The 2009 average price for a minor kitchen remodel for a

Compliments of Mike Stark,
Coldwell Banker Schmidt Realtors
East Jordan. (231) 536-7700

midrange home is more than $21,000 and the cost for a major remodel is more than $57,000 and the costs are substantially more for higher-end homes.

Look carefully at the appliances, cabinetry, counters and floor. Those are the elements that cost more to replace. If possible, you want newer appliances to save money on repairs and energy costs; solid-wood cabinets; and solid-surface counters, such as granite, stainless steel, butcher block or engineered stone. Your floor choices include wood, cork, laminates and tile and it's a matter of what's comfortable and durable for your lifestyle.

Bathrooms

Following kitchens, bathrooms are also expensive rooms to remodel at a 2009 national average of more than $16,000 because of the fixtures and plumbing. Make sure you see no leaks or evidence of leaks in tubs, toilets and flooring. Sharing bathrooms can be one of those pain points for families so make sure you get what you need.

Roof

A roof is a big-ticket item with an average 2009 replacement cost of more than $19,000 although adding a second layer to a roof is not nearly as expensive as replacing the entire thing. Inside the house, you can check the attic, ceilings and skylights for signs of water damage, look for places where the roof deck is sagging, and see if you can detect any light coming through. If you do see light coming through, it is likely not a problem if the roof is made of shake shingles. Outside, inspect for cracked, ripped, curling or missing shingles and damaged flashing. Also look for rotting, buckling, blistering or algae growth, which could also be signs of trouble.

HVAC

An old heater can be hard to repair and eats up energy at a pace faster than newer units. Furnaces can start at about $5,000 to replace and if you buy a combined unit with the air conditioner, add on several thousand dollars. You may need to replace the heat pump or air conditioner if it's older than 10 years and a furnace or boiler if it's more than 15 years old.

Basement

The extra room you gain may be a huge headache if the basement floods. Look for water marks and find out if the house has a system for removing water.

Other areas of concern that might cost money down the line are the driveways and sidewalks, chimneys, insulation and windows.

If you find a house and your offer is accepted, you'll be dealing with a home inspector who can fill in the gaps with a professional's eye. The thing is, if you really want the home, you don't have to let problems deter you. You are in position to negotiate a price reduction with the seller or insist repairs be made to the property before your offer is finalized.

If you can afford a house, you can afford the luxury of taking your time to find the right one for you.
