Ramblers, Red Devils split key LMC match-up

Boyne City 4-4, East Jordan 2-5

BOYNE CITY -- Two good ball teams, two good games.

The Boyne City and East Jordan baseball teams each took turns shutting down the other teams offense as the Ramblers took game one 4-2, behind the pitching of Derek Willis and the Red Devils responded with a solid pitching performance from Colin Shepard in the nightcap for a 5-4 victory on

In game one, Willis continued his wizardry on the mound, running his record to 4-0 on the season, by tossing a complete game 1-hitter, including a 1-2-3 sixth inning. Willis has only allowed eight hits in 24 innings of work this season and has an ERA of 0.81.

"Derek is having one of those seasons most kids dream about," BC coach Mark Pontoni said. "He wasn't his usual sharp self tonight, but great pitchers find ways to win even when they are not at the top of their game.'

Boyne got things going early in the first inning as Tanner Kruzel chased in a pair of runs on his RBI single.

Ethan Hewitt added an RBI single in the second inning and Willis helped his own cause with an RBI single in the fourth.

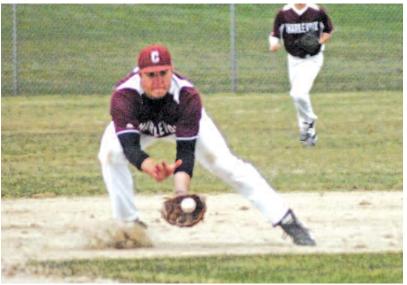

Colton Sieradski paced the Rambler attack with three hits and accounted for three of the East Jordan was able to get on the board in the fifth inning, scoring two runs (both unearned), but left a pair stranded.

Colin Petrie took the pitching loss for the Red Devils, allowing four runs, walking five and fanning three. He also had the lone save, going the final two innings, allowing two runs (one earned) on three hits and walked one.

Weber finished with two hits and an RBI at the plate for East Jordan, while Ryan LaVanway doubled among his two hits.

Also for the Red Devils, Colin Bajko had an RBI single, while Petrie, Shepard, and Keegan Mc-Duffie all added one hit. Trey Peterson added an RBI sacrifice fly in the fifth which would be the game-winning run.

"Coach Pontoni's got a goodlooking team and we are happy to have taken one from them tonight," East Jordan coach Tom Reid said. "Our boys couldn't quite figure out (Derek) Willis in game one and Boyne seemed to find a hole every time they needed a big at-bat. Shep (Colin Shepard) really stymied their bats in game two for us and we scrapped for every run we were able to put on the board. Two very good ballgames between two pretty good squads!"

For the Ramblers, whose late inning comeback fell short, the eight hit attack was led by Willis and Dylan Hutterer with two each and Willis picking up a pair of RBIs. Boyne also swiped 10 bases in the game and 17 for the night.

Sophomore Mason Gardner took the loss despite allowing only one earned run through four innings of work.

"The boys dug a hole in game two giving up four unearned runs," coach Pontoni said. "But when we came to the plate in the bottom of the 6th, down a run, we were very confident we were going to walk off again. After getting two guys on with no outs, it seemed just like a matter of time, but Jordan Weber got two quick outs."

"When Tanner sent the first pitch he saw to the gap in right center, I though we had won, but Collin Baiko ran it down to end the game. While very exciting, we have to stop digging ourselves into these big holes if we want to have the kind of year we expect."

Boyne City sits at 9-10 on the season (2-2 in LMC), while the Red Devils are (8-7-1, 1-3).

DEERFIELD -- The Red Devils took to the road over the weekend, traveling four and a half hours south to take part in the Britton-Deerfield baseball tournament on April 30. East Jordan went 2-0 on the day, and came home with a runner-up trophy as the championship game was cancelled due to rain. Tournament tie-breaking rules were by fewest runs allowed, which awarded first place to Monroe St. Mary Catholic Central.

Game one featured the Red Devils against Ypsilanti Arbor Prep, with EJ coming away with an 11-1 victory as Colin Shepard held Gators to a pair of hits, while fanning seven.

Shepard also delivered three hits, including a double and three RBIs to lead the offense. Jake Skrocki also chipped in with three hits, Jordan Weber added two hits and an RBI and Colin Petrie and Owen Diller each added an RBI single.

In game two, Petrie pounded out four hits and a pair of RBIs to pace the Red Devil 15-hit attack as EJ downed host Britton-Deerfield 10-3.

Also for East Jordan, Weber added two hits and three RBIs, Skrocki had two hits and an RBI, Keegan McDuffie added two hits, Ryan LaVanway and Trey Peterson each chipped in two run singles, while Payton Loviska had an RBI single, and Shepard and James Brown each singled.

The Red Devils, got solid outings from a trio of JV pitchers as Justin Barnett, Diller and Jared Piechan worked the first four innings against the Patriots, limiting them to one run on two hits, before Skrocki closed out the final three innings, allowing two runs striking out four and walking two.

"We started the championship game but it didn't last an inning before the umps decided the field was unsafe to continue," coach Tom Reid said. "We played extremely well and I was pretty bummed the boys weren't able to get the chance to play out the championship game. I felt as though we were probably the strongest team there. Regardless, an unbeaten record at the end of any day is a darn good day of baseball."

In the opener, the Blazers managed to push across runs in the second and fifth innings and were able to make it stand as the Red Devils battled back for one in the top of the sixth but were unable to score anymore as the tying run was left stranded on second base.

Kalkaska pitcher, Robin Van Orden had a perfect game going through 5 2/3 innings when Red Devil Matt Berish hit a dribbler to second and beat it out for a single. Colin Petrie then doubled to drive him in. That would be the only two hits EJ would manage though.

ELLSWORTH -- The host Lancers squeaked out a pair of one-run games against visiting Mackinaw City, 9-8 and 4-3 on April 29 to open up Northern Lakes Conference play.

Ellsworth jumped out to an early 5-0 lead after one inning of play and were riding the pitching of Abby Nachazel through four innings before she left the game with an ankle injury.

Samantha Miller came on in relief and kept the Comets from making a comeback.

At the plate for the Lancers, Miller and Mckenzie Essenberg each finished 2-for-2 with a pair of RBIs, and Essenberg scoring three runs. In the nightcap, Nachazel returned to the circle for Ellsworth, picking up the win, allowing five hits and striking out five.

Shaptol Pottor had two hits to lead the Lancers, while Samantha Rasmussen and Nachazel each added a 2-RBI base hit in the victory.
