Rayders unable to overcome Gladiators

Fall in regional finals

BOYNE CITY — The Charlevoix volleyball team rolled into the Class C regional finals on a high note, following their sweep of Joburg earlier in the week. The Rayders knew they would need to continue that solid play against Lake Michigan Conference rival and regional final foe, Traverse City St. Francis to continue their tournament run on November 10.

Charlevoix came out of the gate focused, playing at a high level, using their momentum to pull out an energetic and intense first set, winning 28-26.

The Rayders however, could not carry that level of play over the next three sets, falling to the Lady Glads 12-25, 15, 25 and 19-25.

“We came out with great energy and intensity in the first set and had a great start, but we just couldn’t maintain it,” Charlevoix coach Audra Randall said. “We made some unforced errors in the second game that really hurt our momentum, and while I thought our focus and desire were there, we just didn’t have the energy level we needed to capitalize on that first set win.”

Down one set, the Class C fifth ranked Gladiators picked up their game, forcing the Rayders to match their level of play, and while Charlevoix gave their best effort, St. Francis had just a little more as their size and ability were enough to take the next two sets.

“We did play better in the third set but TCSF was picking hits defensively and we were not finding the holes in their defense,” coach Randall added.

In the fourth set of the evening, Charlevoix jumped out early to a four point lead, and after some back and forth play, the teams found themselves knotted at 18-all. St. Francis was then able to capitalize on a few mistakes and close out the set with a 7-1 scoring advantage to capture the regional crown.

“It’s just unfortunate timing, because in a lot of cases you can overcome a couple of mistakes like that, but at that point it just really put us in a tough spot,” Randall said. “I was really proud of the way we came back and fought hard in that set, but that comeback was something I was expecting because of who these girls are and the work they’ve put in this season.

The Rayders were led by senior Becca Moon who finished her career with seven kills, 12 assists, 20 digs and an ace, senior Mackenzy O’Leary added seven kills, nine digs and eight assists, and freshman Elise Stuck recorded seven kills, four blocks and 13 digs.

Seniors Ali Jarema, Julia Doskoch and junior Kelsey Crandell-Marfuta all combined for 18 digs; senior Beth Veenstra added three kills and two digs and sophomore Ellie Lousielle chipped in with three blocks and two digs.

While Charlevoix will graduate some key players, including Moon, O’Leary, Veenstra, Doskoch, Jarema, Danielle Prate and Nichole Hart, the future looks bright for the Rayders as they will return a solid core of young talent that will look to look to keep their streak of district titles rolling.

Semifinal results

BOYNE CITY — The Rayder volleyball team made quick work of the Cardinals in their regional semifinal contest in Boyne City on November 8.

Charlevoix sent Joburg packing in three straight sets, winning 26-24, 25-13 and 25-13.

“The adrenaline was high and it was a very exciting match for the girls, especially all of the seniors who dropped their regional semifinal match last year,” Rayder coach Audra Randall said. “To make it to the finals is a special feeling.”

The Rayders were led by Becca

Moon with 16 kills, five aces, 11 assists and 13 digs, while Elise Stuck recorded 11 kills, one ace, nine digs and five blocks.

Julia Doskoch and Ali Jarema combined to go 20-for-20 on serve receive and added 15 digs; Kelsey Crandell-Marfuta added four digs and was 5-of-6 on serve receive.

Also for Charlevoix, Mackenzy O’Leary had 15 assists, five kills, two aces and 15 digs and Beth Veenstra added four kills, three aces and three blocks.

Conservation officers request hunters to buy their license before going out to pursue bucks like the one shown here, and also to not loan kill tags. (COURTESY OF DNR)

Be an ethical hunter: buy your license

Conservation officers with the Michigan Department of Natural Resources urge deer hunters to engage in an ethical hunt: Buy a license before going out and don't loan kill tags.

Every deer hunting season, DNR conservation officers encounter individuals engaged in unethical hunting practices. These officers tackle many cases of individuals buying hunting licenses after harvesting deer or loaning kill tags to friends or relatives.

"Each year, we see cases of individuals waiting to buy licenses until after they have shot a deer," said Dean Molnar, assistant chief of the DNR's Law Enforcement Division. "We remind all hunters that you must buy your license before you go out to hunt and have it in your possession when afield. Buying a license is not only the ethical and responsible thing to do, it is the law. Harvesting a deer without a license is poaching."

Deer poaching in Michigan carries a restitution payment of $1,000 per deer, a $200 to $1,000 fine and jail time up to 90 days. In addition, a violator's hunting privileges are suspended for three years. Under the new law that took effect in 2014, antlered deer are assessed an additional $1,000 in restitution plus the standard $1,000 for illegally killing any deer. In addition, deer with eight points but not more than 10 are $500 a point, while deer with 11 points or more are assessed a penalty of $750 per point.

Additional years of hunting privileges will be revoked for violators. This includes an additional two years of revoked hunting privileges for the first offense and an additional seven years for a second or subsequent offenses. Michigan also participates in the Wildlife Violator Compact, which includes hunting revocation in participating states.

Another unethical practice encountered frequently each hunting season in Michigan is the loaning of kill tags to an unlicensed individual who has harvested a deer.

"Loaning kill tags is among the top violations we see while on patrol, and is often done for friends or relatives who are from out of state to avoid paying the nonresident license fee," said Molnar. "Kill tags must be validated and attached immediately to your harvested deer and visible for inspection. It is unlawful to loan out or borrow kill tags."

For more information on deer hunting in Michigan, go to www.michigan.gov/deer.

Real Estate Corner

Do You Have Buyer's Paralysis?

Part 3 of 3

Fear of the future
Fear takes the fun out of a lot of things, but there is reasonable fear and unreasonable fear. Unreasonable fears have no basis in reality, so there is little you can do beyond getting professional help for your anxiety. Reasonable fears you can handle on your own with a little common sense.

Fear can be tamed by looking at the worst case scenarios compared to the best case scenarios. So examine the questions that are really bothering you.

What if we can't make our payments? This question can be balanced by a best case. What if we manage our money so well that we can make double payments? So the fear here is manageable - it comes down to how confident you are about managing your money. If you aren't sure of yourself, get help. Ask someone whose money management style you admire for advice on how to manage your money better. Then stick with it.

What if the value of our home goes down in value? Would you feel as fearful if you asked yourself whether your property will go up in value? Property can go up or down, but all property requires maintenance or it surely will deteriorate in value. This can be easily prevented by having enough budgeted or in your reserves to perform scheduled and unscheduled maintenance. Look at the properties surrounding the home you are considering. Are they maintained with pride? Are they being updated? Then your chances are good that the neighborhood and your home will retain its value. Rest assured that there will always be a buyer for an attractive, well-maintained property.

Because it is not a liquid asset, real estate is not as volatile as you think. It goes down slowly and rises comparatively slowly. And home values even when depressed may get a resuscitation after a few years. Your best hedge against the future is to keep your property in desirable condition.

You can't predict the future. The only thing you can do is prepare yourself to handle what may happen.

So money isn't the root of all evil, but it is the root of indecision - at least when you are paralyzed about buying a home. Thinking through the money issues can help you get moving one direction or the other. For some of you, just reading this article will put your jitters to rest. For others, you may realize that a home isn't in the cards for you right now, and that's OK. Wait a few days or weeks if you need to. Use the time to regroup. It is far better for you to work through a few obstacles than to jump into the largest investment of your life without confidence. If you can work through your fears, get your finances in tip top shape and proceed, you'll find buying a home doesn't have to be a paralyzing decision. In fact, it can be one of the most exhilarating things you'll ever do.

If you are worried about cash flow, then making disproportionately large house payments will tarnish the joy of home ownership, unless you can find ways to cut down the other pie pieces. Work to improve your cash flow. Accelerate your credit card pay -offs Don't incur new debt. Re-budget your expenses and eliminate unnecessary expenditures. Make compromises - vow to cut down if you can't cut something out. Be willing to move timelines for meeting your goals. Don't be influenced by others to live beyond your means. Set your sights on an affordable home, and you may find your dream home will appear right before your very eyes.

What a fantastic location! This three-unit "triplex" is situated just one block away from a public access to fabulous Lake Charlevoix.

Offering three separated 2-bedroom units encompassing a total of approximately 2,400 square feet of space, this property is great opportunity for an owner-occupied primary or second home with another two units to rent to cover mortgage and utility payments. The units are all sharp, and include hardwood flooring, nice kitchens with appliances and more. Two of the units are connected and the third is freestanding. There is even a one-and-a-half car garage and Michigan style basement to accommodate storage needs.

As already mentioned, the location is outstanding. The nearby Lake Charlevoix public access is just a short walk away offering plenty of chances for boating, fishing and bathing in the sun. Downtown Boyne City is also within easy reach and there is a brand new bike path right in front of the home.

This tri-plex in a fantastic Boyne City area location is at 414 West Michigan near Boyne City and it is listed at just $159,900. BOYNE FALLS: Enjoy 6 Acres of wooded property. The 4 bedroom two bath home offers plenty of options for a family or two. The home features two kitchens, which allows for a mother in law apartment with private entrance. There is a four car garage with extra depth for a workshop and additional storage along the back of the building. Streetable Trail 70 runs along the property as well. Centrally located between Boyne City, Gaylord and Petoskey. This would make a great get away home or even the family homestead. $139,900

East Jordan State of the Community Luncheon

By Tina Sundelius

EAST JORDAN—East Jordan is heading in the right direction and its future is bright was the message members of the community walked away with after hearing four keynote speakers discuss the status of the city, schools, and DDA at East Jordan's State of the Community Luncheon Tuesday, November 11. An air of optimism filled the Harvest Barn hall as 26 East Jordan High School seniors and other members of the community listened intently to Mayor Russell Peck whose speech focused on the challenges and infrastructure improvements that still lie ahead for the city. "All in all things are looking up, we're heading in the right direction. Together we will position our community for a resilient and sustainable future. Indeed, East Jordan's future is bright," he concluded. Peck not only talked about all that the city has accomplished but emphasized the infrastructure improvements needed to accommodate new growth. "We are very optimistic about the future of our community and that optimism comes from the exciting new direction we have been heading," he said. He cited the city's sewer system that is already operating at 98% capacity, sidewalks, and sea-pilings to be installed at the southwest side of the harbor next to the bridge intended to stop silt from filling the harbor (construction to begin in December) as projects that will further enable the city to grow. He mentioned the new well house (already up and running), the now open 24/7 recycling center and the $12,000 Kayak facility in the park which he stated presently "looks like an art project." "We are developing the kind of community we have envisioned for future generations. There is a positive up beat energy," he said.

DDA Chairman Tom Teske, Entrepreneur Director with the Northern Lakes Economic Alliance Tom Erhart, Chamber of Commerce Director Mary Faculik, East Jordan Mayor Russell Peck and EJ schools Superintendent Matt Stevenson addressed an audience of community leaders at the third annual State of the Community Address Tuesday, November 11. "East Jordan's future is bright," said Peck.

Jeep® Wrangler earns 'Hottest 4x4-SUV' SEMA Award

The Mopar brand isn't alone in choosing the Jeep® Wrangler and Dodge Charger as perfect canvases for customization. At the Specialty Equipment Market Association (SEMA) Show Awards Breakfast, Jeep Wrangler was recognized as "Hottest 4x4-SUV" on the trade show floor for the seventh consecutive year, while Dodge Charger took home inaugural honors as "Hottest Sedan."

Pietro Gorlier, Head of Parts and Service (Mopar), FCA - Global, attended the breakfast to accept the two SEMA Awards. The brand's booth at SEMA features Mopar-modified Jeep Wrangler and Dodge Charger vehicles among a total of 14 customized Mopar rides and hundreds of Mopar products in the brand's 15,345-square-foot exhibit.

"The SEMA Show and SEMA members play a critical role in identifying the hottest trends and rides in the vehicle customization industry, which is why winning a SEMA Award

represents an important recognition for our company," said Pietro Gorlier, Head of Parts and Service

(Mopar), FCA - Global. "Enthusiasts customize vehicles

they love and feel passionate about, and we at Mopar are lucky to have such a great portfolio of vehicles within the FCA umbrella. FCA vehicles are the perfect canvas for our accessories and performance parts."

Jeep Wrangler is the most Mopar-modified vehicle, with nearly all Wrangler owners customizing their ride with at least one Mopar accessory or part. On average, U.S. customers spent more than $850 in personalizing their Jeep Wrangler vehicle, up from $700 the previous year. For the Dodge Charger, Mopar has nearly 150 accessories and performance parts available to personalize the world's only four-door muscle car.

Mopar has also established 11 Mopar Custom Shops in four different countries to enable owners to personalize all FCA US vehicles even before they are delivered.

"Jeep is one of the most accessory-friendly vehicles available, having won the SEMA Award as the 'Hottest 4x4-SUV' repeatedly," said SEMA President and CEO Chris Kersting. "Given the vehicle's versatility as a daily driver and for off-road use, it comes as no surprise that the Jeep remains so popular among the automotive community."

"The Dodge Charger is an iconic vehicle among muscle cars and is an example of how an already great vehicle can be made even greater through personalization and customization. There are hundreds of products available for consumers to enhance the performance and styling of their Dodge Chargers."

The SEMA Awards, launched in 2010, have become the SEMA Show's definitive OEM award, shining a light on the hottest vehicles that showcase and launch aftermarket parts. For more information on the SEMA Show, visit www.SEMASHOW.com.
