Boyne City 43, Mancelona 37

MANCELONA — Sometimes, all it takes is giving teams a different look.

That's exactly what the Boyne City girls basketball team did to the host Ironmen in the second half of play, turning a four-point halftime deficit into a 43-37 non-conference victory on December 30.

Mancelona's Eileene Naniseni seemed to own the inside for the Lady Ironmen in the first half, scoring almost at will and racking up 13 points in the process.

A switch at the half by the Ramblers to a box-and-one defense, resulted in slowing down the Mancelona offense and forcing Naniseni to the perimeter.

"We thought we could play (Naniseni) her with man and some help in the first half, and we couldn't," Rambler coach Kevin Fitzpatrick said. "We've never played a box-and-one in our life, so we took a zone defense we've played before and tweaked it a bit and fronted her everywhere."

"The girls did it exactly how we asked, Avery Stadt did an outstanding job on her," coach Fitzpatrick noted. "The two or three girls that played the top (of the zone) did a great job rotating as well as the girls at the back end did an excellent job rotating."

That switch in defense also helped get the Rambler offense going, as they reeled off 22 second half points, including going 8-of-12 from the charity stripe down the stretch as they held off a late rally from Mancelona.

Boyne City was led by Katie Hoth with 17 points, as she was also a perfect from the free throw line, hitting all five of her attempts in the fourth quarter.

Olivia Looze finished with 12 points, while Katelyn Gabos and Stadt each chipped in with four. Anika Bergquist added three and Reagan May dropped in two.

The Ramblers finished 13-of-18 from the free throw line in the contest.

Niseni had 21 points to lead Mancelona, while Abby Dunne added 12.

Boyne City (2-3 overall) returns to action on January 6, when they host Harbor Springs. Game time is 5:30pm.

Real Estate Corner

What Do Home Buyers Want?

According to AVID Ratings Co., some of the must-have amenities in a new house are home offices and green features.

Home buyers are willing to give up devoted space to home theaters and other specialized media rooms in order to have a home office. In fact, they'd be willing to forego a formal dining room altogether in order to have a home office or study.

And they want energy-efficiency in their appliances, windows and insulation.

Other desirable features are large kitchens with an island, though granite countertops aren't necessarily important to all buyers.

Must features also include a main-floor master suite; an outdoor living room - considered more popular than an outdoor cooking area; ceiling fans; master suite soaker tubs and oversize showers with seating areas; stone and brick exteriors; community landscaping with walking paths and playgrounds; and two-car garages.

Spacious home on over three acres in amazing location

By Jim Akans

This classic two-story home in Boyne City has been renovated with lots of great updates and is ready and waiting for a new homeowner.

With three-bedrooms and two full baths, this home has approximately 1,450 square feet of nicely updated living space. Among those are a new roof, furnace, hot water heater, cabinetry, countertops and carpet. A vapor barrier has also been installed in the crawl space area of the home, and there is a Michigan basement under the rest of the main floor. The interior also has wood flooring in the large kitchen and dining area, which also comes with a full compliment of appliances.

Outdoors there is covered front porch and an open deck on the back. A detached two-car garage keeps vehicles safe and out of the weather. Downtown Boyne City and area schools are close by, making this a great location for a family. This home is also a part of the MSHDA/Northern Homes program.
