Defense propels Lady Rayders to victory

Charlevoix 39, Grayling 28

After a slow going first quarter, resulting in a 6-6 deadlock, the Rayders went ahead 16-10 at halftime and 23-18 entering the fourth quarter.

“Grayling played tough defense and we struggled on the offensive end,” Charlevoix coach Liz Shaw said. “I thought we could have done a better job of taking care of the ball tonight, but we were solid on the defensive end.”

Elise Stuck finished with a near triple-double, scoring 20 points, grabbing 15 rebounds and making eight steals.

Natalie Nesburg added eight points, nine boards and five steals, Beth Veenstra had seven points and seven rebounds and Rachel Nesburg made nine steals.

HARBOR SPRINGS — The Boyne City girls basketball team gave themselves a chance against the Rams, but were unable to score as their defense slowed Harbor's offense to a near standstill late in the contest and ultimately fell in the Lake Michigan Conference contest 47-36 on February 3.

Harbor led at the quarter breaks, 15-10, 25-17 and 38-26.

Olivia Looze and Katie Hoth each finished with eight points to lead the Ramblers, while Hailey Fogo added six and Annika Bergquist chipped in with four.

Freshman Avery Stadt and Reagan May both added three points, Molly Burch and Katelyn Gabos each had two points.

The Rams were paced by 13 points from Madi Bezilla.

Boyne slips to 3-11 overall, 0-8 LMC.

Lancers earn key conference win over Vikings

Ellsworth 58, Alanson 42

ELLSWORTH — The Ellsworth girls basketball team earned a key victory in their pursuit of a Northern Lakes Conference title, knocking off Alanson 58-42 on February 2.

The Lancers got 23 points from Addie Nagel, while Lani Sundelius chipped in with 18 points and 15 rebounds and Marie Groenink added 13 points and 13 rebounds.

“Our girls knew how important this game was and they played like it,” Lancer coach Doug Nitchman said. “Lani Sundelius broke a finger in Tuesdays game at Boyne Falls, but she convinced us that she could play through it. She made me a believer.”

Coach Nitchman also credited Nagel's ability to run the Ellsworth offense ran the floor near perfect with only one turnover and Groenink recording her third double-double in a row.

“Rebounding played a huge roll in our win tonight, coach Nitchman noted. “There were very few times Alanson got off more than one shot on their end of the floor. After only beating Alanson by one in our first game with them this year, winning this one by 16 is a huge boost for us.”

Ramblers bounce back with win over Rams

Boyer City 53, Harbor Springs 40

HARBOR SPRINGS — Following a two game skid by the Ramblers, where they fell in the closing seconds at each contest, Boyer City bounced back with a 53-40 Lake Michigan Conference victory over Harbor Springs on February 3.

“Really proud of how guys responded after two tough road losses,” Boyer coach Nick Redman said. “Everyone was focused and played hard, big road win, Harbor was hot off beating TCSF we knew they would play tough.”

After the Rams jumped out to a 13-8 first quarter lead, the Ramblers clamped down on defense and turned the offense up a notch outscoring Harbor 17-4 in the second, taking a 25-17 lead at halftime and extended that to a 39-25 advantage headed into the fourth quarter.

“We stepped our defense up in the second quarter and played real good basketball on both ends for most of the game tonight,” coach Redman added.

Boyer got 16 points from Kane McPherson, while Mason Gardner added 11.

“Really proud of how guys responded after two tough road losses,” Boyer coach Nick Redman said.

Rayders unable to close out Vikings

Grayling 72, Charlevoix 71 OT

CHARLEVOIX — The Charlevoix boys basketball team left it all on the floor once again against the Vikings, holding a lead throughout regulation as well as in overtime, but were unable to knock off Grayling, falling 72-71 in OT on February 3.

Leading 71-70 with 13.5 seconds remaining in the extra session, the Rayders were fouled and sent to the free throw line for a chance to extend their lead, but were unable to connect on either attempt, giving Grayling a chance.

The Vikings were able to get the ball inside and hit the go-ahead basket at the buzzer for the win, their only lead of the game.

Kevin Pearl kept his red-hot scoring streak going, knocking down a career-high 27 points to lead the Rayders, while Colin Smith added 22.

The Rayders drop to 3-9 overall, 2-6 conference with the loss.

Lancers roll past Vikings

Ellsworth 63, Alanson 39

ELLSWORTH — The Ellsworth boys basketball team rolled past defending Northern Lakes Conference champion Alanson 63-39 on February 3.

“Big win for us to maintain a chance at a conference title,” Ellsworth coach Jarod Steenwyk said. “We need to take care of business at Mackinaw City this coming Friday to keep our hopes alive. Alanson came into the game with five players, foul trouble plagued them early in the third quarter, their leading scorer fouled out and we played 5-4 from there and sealed the deal.”

Collin Ingalls had a monster night for the Lancers, scoring 21 points and grabbing eight rebounds, while Atlas Marlatt added 13 points, nine boards and four steals.

Also for Ellsworth, Michael Clees added five steals and five rebounds and the Lancers dished out 18 assists as a team.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Lady Red Devils rally to beat Eagles

East Jordan 40, Bellaire 34

BELLAIRE — The East Jordan girls basketball team overcame a slow start and halftime deficit to pull out a 40-34 non-conference victory over Bellaire on February 3.

The Red Devils, 7-5 overall, led 5-3 after the first quarter, but trailed 13-12 at intermission, but regained the lead and headed into the fourth quarter up 27-20.

“Our defense kept us in the game until the second half when our offense finally came to life,” Red Devils coach Steve Hines said. “Important win for us after coming up short in our previous game. Karah Dunson came off the bench and gave us a big boost offensively.”

Coach Hines noted that Mazzy Pepin hit a pair of big buckets in the fourth quarter

East Jordan got 10 points from junior Karah Dunson, while senior Miranda Burks chipped in with eight, including six in the final eight minutes, knocking down 4-of-4 tosses from the charity stripe in the fourth quarter; hauled in eight boards and dished out five assists.

Also for the Red Devils, Pepin added six points, while Kassey Wojan grabbed nine rebounds.

Lexi Niepoth led the Eagles with 13 points.

Blazers outlast Red Devils

Kalkaska 59, East Jordan 50

KALKASKA — The Lady Red

Devils gave Lake Michigan Conference front runner, Kalkaska all they could handle, coming up short 59-50 on January 30.

East Jordan was up 18-17 after the first quarter and the two squads went into the half knotted at 28-28. The Blazers used a strong third quarter to pull ahead 48-33 and had to hold off a 17-11 Red Devil run in the fourth to come away with the win.

“We played a good first half and shot the ball quite well specifically in the first quarter when we made six threes. Kendall McNitt (five threes) and Abby Peterson (four threes), both played good games,” EJ coach Steve Hines said. “The third quarter was a rough one as we lost our focus for a few minutes and found ourselves trailing by 15 entering the last quarter. We kept playing hard but ran out of time. We still have a few areas to shore up but, I was very proud of our effort tonight against one of the better teams in the area.”

McNitt led the Red Devils with 17 points and six rebounds, while Peterson had 12 points and three assists.

Also for East Jordan, 6-5 overall, 3-4 LMC, Miranda Burks and Karah Dunson finished with six points apiece, with Burks hauling in seven rebounds. Kassey Wojan added 11 boards and three assists.

Rare home find with Six Mile Lake frontage

By Jim Akans

This week's feature listing is truly a rare find; a wonderful two-story home situated on nearly nine acres with over 300 feet of Six Mile Lake frontage plus frontage along Scott's Creek.

This three-bedroom, two-bath home has just over 1,100 square feet of living space on two levels. The main living area features the warmth of tongue and groove wood wall finishes and has a great, open floor plan that is ideal for entertaining. Other highlights include a beautiful wood burning fireplace, a large kitchen with a huge center island, main level master bedroom and gorgeous views of the water throughout.

Outdoors, a large covered deck not only offers spectacular views of Six Mile Lake, but of Scott's Creek as well. There is also an open front deck, and a detached one-and-a-half car garage provides the perfect solution for storage of vehicle, yard and lake toys. There is also an additional storage building on the property. Mother Nature and wild life abound on the nearly nine acre grounds.

Located at 4563 Murray Lane between Central Lake and East Jordan, the listing price for this extraordinary home find is just $199,900. For additional information or to arrange for a tour, please call Holly Nierman, Associate Broker/Manager or Mike Stark, Associate Broker at Coldwell Banker Schmidt - Charlevoix, 710 Bridge Street, 231-547-4444, or email hollynierman@gmail.com
