GIRLS DISTRICT BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Charlevoix stakes claim to District title

Charlevoix 56, Harbor Springs 36

HARBOR SPRINGS -- It's tough to beat a team three times in a season, a feat that stood in the way of the Charlevoix girls basketball team, as they faced the Class C district host, Harbor Springs in the title game on March 3.

Throw in the fact that the last time these two schools meet for the championship in 2015, the Rams went on to defeat the Rayders 53-41 in that contest.

This time it would be different as Charlevoix slowly pulled away from the opening tip, holding an 11-6 lead after the first and leading by 11, 26-15 at halftime and kept right on going after the intermission for a 40-24 advantage headed into the final quarter.

A pair of freshmen would lead the Rayders in scoring, as Elise Stuck finished with 19 points, 16 rebounds, four steals and three blocks and Abby Cunningham chipped in with 10 points and eight boards.

Rachel Nesburg would add nine points, three steals and three blocks for Charlevoix, while Natalie Nesburg added seven points, six steals and five assists and Beth Veenstra contributed five points.

"Good scoring balance with a tenacious defensive effort," Rayder coach Liz Shaw noted. "It was a great feeling of satisfaction. Last year we struggled to put points on the board and were constantly out worked by our much older opponents."

Charlevoix improves to 17-6 overall on the season.

"This year, although not old in age, but older and wiser in game experience, it showed tonight," Shaw added. "We struggled at times in getting flow, but we were able to rebound fast and take care of the ball when we needed to secure the win."

Harbor Springs would get 13 points from Libby Garver in the losing effort.

Ramblers and Rayders come down to the wire

Boyne City 41, Charlevoix 38

CHARLEVOIX — When Boyne City and Charlevoix get together, fans are always in for a treat.

Playing in the Class C district opener on March 6, the Ramblers and host Rayders delivered once again, as the two evenly matched teams went down to the wire once again, with Boyne City pulling out a 41-38 victory to advance to the semifinal contest against East Jordan.

The Rayders had a chance at pulling even with 7.4 seconds to go in the fourth. Following a timeout, Charlevoix senior Kevin Pearl weaved his way through traffic, coming off a couple of screens and got a clean look at a triple from the right wing, only to have it go just off the mark, but teammate, Luke Buday would gather the rebound and found an open teammate for another look, only to have Boyne City's Mason Gardner block the shot and tip the ball to halfcourt as the horn sounded, sending the Rambler bench and stands into a frenzy.

"That was another hard fought rivalry game," Boyne City coach Nick Redman said. "Typical Boyne-Charlevoix, both teams played incredibly hard! Both teams played great defense tonight."

Leading 31-30 after three quarters of play, Boyne City would go on a 6-0 run to begin fourth on three straight Jacob Ager baskets from inside the paint, as the Ramblers pulled ahead 37-30 with just under five minutes to play.

"That was another hard fought rivalry game," Boyne City coach Nick Redman said. "Typical Boyne-Charlevoix, both teams played incredibly hard! Both teams played great defense tonight."

"We changed up offensive in fourth to force Ager to be aggressive in post and he stepped up and scored six straight points for us," coach Redman added. "Really proud with teams attitude and effort especially the last six games we've really played well with outstanding enthusiasm."

Charlevoix, however, was not ready to hang it up as Pearl drew a foul with 3:32 to play and would hit both ends of a 1-and-1, followed by a Buday steal and layup to bring the Rayders within three, 37-34.

After a Rambler turnover, Rayder senior Brad Klinger would grab a rebound off an errant shot and put it back in, cutting the BC lead to one with a minute and a half to play.

Boyne City would get four straight free throws down the stretch, as Eric Carson and Gardner would both calmly sink their attempts, both as the game clock came to a stop with 31.1 and 10.6 seconds to go, sandwiched around a Pearl layup.

Gardner would lead the Ramblers with 13 points, while Ager chipped in with 11 and Carson added nine.

"Mason (Gardner) and Eric (Carson) were huge down the stretch making plays on both ends and sealing win at free throw line," Redman noted. "Big win, Charlevoix was playing good ball to end season, we knew records meant nothing it would be tough game."

Charlevoix closes out an 8-13 season, as Pearl led the way with a game-high 19 points, while Buday added five for the Rayders.

Lancers roll in district opener past Loggers

Ellsworth 64, Boyne Falls 26

BELLAIRE — The Ellsworth boys basketball team has been playing at a high level all season, and even higher as of late, including their 64-26, Class D district opening victory over Boyne Falls on March 6.

The Lancers got 17 points from Atlas Marlatt, while Justin Higbee added 12 as 10 players got into the scoring column.

"Had a great start and took the lead from the get go," Ellsworth coach Jarod Steenwyk said. "We subbed through the entire bench with lots of guys contributing in the win."

The Lancers led at the quarter breaks 21-4, 39-8 and 56-15.

Ellsworth will face Alba on March 8 in the semifinal contest.

BOYS REGULAR SEASON BASKETBALL

Ramblers end regular season on high note

Boyne City 57, Cedarville 45

CEDARVILLE — A tough week of basketball for the Boyne City boys basketball team finished on a high note as they prepared for district play, picking up a 57-45 road victory over Cedarville on March 2.

The Ramblers took a 15-9 opening quarter lead and extended that to 23-12 at the halfway point due to some outstanding defense, and Boyne was able to maintain that throughout the second half as they improved their season record to 13-7.

Kane McPherson finished with 18 points and Mason Gardner chipped in with a respectable 13 to lead Boyne City over the Trojans.

"We really played well defensively again tonight, proud of our effort," Rambler coach Nick Redman said. "Great bench play with outstanding enthusiasm and it is great to see us playing really good basketball three games in row against good competition to end regular season."

Dylon Williams added eight points for the Ramblers and was on the receiving end of an alley-oop, while Eric Carson and Dillon Sulak each had six points apiece and Jacob Ager tallied four.

Coach Redman credited Williams with an outstanding effort, as his hard work is paying dividends on the court, and also noted that Ager and freshman Max Vondra did a great job controlling the boards against Cedarville.

Northmen edge Ramblers

Petoskey 49, Boyne City 43

BOYNE CITY — The Boyne City boys basketball team took on the Petoskey Northmen in their annual end of season showdown of close neighbors, and it was the Northmen pulling out a hard-fought 49-43 win on February 28.

A close battle throughout the night, Petoskey led 12-9 and 26-19 after the 16 minutes of play. A strong effort in the third by Boyne, pulled the Ramblers to within 31-29 headed into the fourth quarter.

Boyne would take the lead in the fourth on a Mason Gardner triple, but the Northmen would answer right back and keep the Ramblers, who would simply not go away and pulled within one point with three minutes to play, at an arms length for the remainder of the quarter to pull out the victory.

Kane McPherson would pace

Boyne City with a game-high 22 points, but found little room to work in the fourth quarter against Petoskey's defense, while Gardner added 11, and Eric Carson chipped in with five.

"Great game, both teams played really hard and we gave an outstanding effort after big overtime win last night," Rambler coach Nick Redman said. "They are biggest most talented team we've played all year, we got better tonight playing them."

Petoskey was led by Dan Kolp and Seth Mann, as both finished with 15 points on the night.

Charlevoix cruises into districts with win over Chiefs

Charlevoix 59, Cheboygan 31

CHEBOYGAN — A big second half is just how teams want to finish their game.

That's exactly what the Charlevoix boys basketball team did for coach Matt Stuck against Cheboygan on March 2, turning a halftime deficit into a convincing 59-31 non-conference victory, as the Rayders prepared for district play.

With the win, Charlevoix closed out the regular season at 8-12, but have reeled off four wins over their last five games and the team seems to be clicking on both ends of the floor as they head to postseason play.

Senior Kevin Pearl continued his hot shooting, pouring in 19 points and making eight steals to lead the Rayders, while Josh Carlson added 14.

Saints shot their way to victory over Red Devils

St. Ignace 63, East Jordan 56

ST. IGNACE — The St. Ignace-LaSalle Saints basketball team found their shooting groove as they edged visiting East Jordan 63-56 in the regular season finale for both schools on March 2.

The Red Devils were unable to match the Saints hot shooting and execution down the stretch as they closed out a 3-17 campaign.

Despite the loss, East Jordan got 23 points from Jackson Robbins, while John Roehrig added a near double-double, pouring in 10 points and grabbing nine rebounds

The Red Devils are off until March 8, when they face the winner of the Charlevoix/Boyne City district opening contest on March 6.

Lancers nipped by Eagles

Bellaire 45, Ellsworth 43

ELLSWORTH — The Ellsworth Lancers gave a very tough Bellaire team all they could handle, before dropping a 45-43 non-conference contest to the Eagles on March 3.

After an even first quarter, where the teams finished with 14 points apiece, the Eagles pulled ahead 28-23 at intermission. The Lancers chipped away at the Bellaire lead over the second half, outscoring the Eagles 20-17 over the final two quarters, coming up just one basket short.

"The guys played tough, scored the first bucket of the night, but never led again, only able to tie the game up," Ellsworth coach Jarod Steenwyk said.

The Lancers were led by Atlas Marlatt of the bench with 10 points and seven rebounds, while Zach Drenth, Collin Ingalls and Ethan Tornga all chipped in with six points.

Ingalls led the team with eight boards, while Cole Essen and Marlatt each recorded a pair of steals.

GIRLS DISTRICT BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Rayders able to overcome Red Devils

Charlevoix 65, East Jordan 43

HARBOR SPRINGS — Usually if you take away an opponent's strength, the team will struggle.

The East Jordan girls basketball team was able to get not one, but three key Charlevoix players in foul trouble early on in their district semifinal contest. The Rayders however, were able to overcome that disadvantage and go on to win the game, 65-43 on March 2.

Charlevoix, with Elise Stuck, Rachel and Natalie Nesburg picking up early fouls and sending them to the bench, the Rayder reserves stepped to the forefront and delivered what coach Liz Shaw knew they were capable of.

The Red Devils kept things even throughout the first quarter, as both teams finished in a 9-9 deadlock, but the second and third quarters are where Charlevoix created some breathing room, outscoring EJ 23-2 over that time period.

"Slow offensive first quarter, but we picked up momentum and saw contributions from many people," Rayder coach Liz Shaw said. "Defense contributed to be a bright spot, as we held East Jordan to 28 points in three quarters. We talked about setting the tone

Rams top Ramblers

Harbor Springs 64, Boyne City 41

HARBOR SPRINGS — The Boyne City girls basketball team was unable to stop or even slow down a determined Harbor Springs team that was hosting the district tournament on their home floor, resulting in a 64-41 Rams victory on March 2.

Harbor was in full control by intermission, leading 32-18 and were up 44-24 with just under four minutes to play in the third quarter and increased that to a 30 point margin before the Ramblers were able to put a dent in that lead, but it would come too late against the Ram reserves.

The Ramblers were led by freshman Avery Stadt with 11 points, while Reagan May added eight.

Boyne closes out a 3-18 season. Harbor Springs was led by Libby Garver with 23 points.

at halftime, and we came out on fire in the second half."

Stuck, the team's leading scorer throughout the regular season, would still manage to have a big night, scoring 20 points and hauling in 11 boards, also blocking five shots, handing out four assists and making three steals, while Olivia Jeakle finished with 11 points and Rachel Nesburg added 11 points, six rebounds, five assists and four steals from her guard position.

Beth Veenstra had seven as did Natalie Nesburg, Natalie would also add four assists and four steals, before fouling out of the contest.

Abby Cunningham also added a six point, seven rebound effort.

"It was a great team effort for the semifinal win," coach Shaw added.

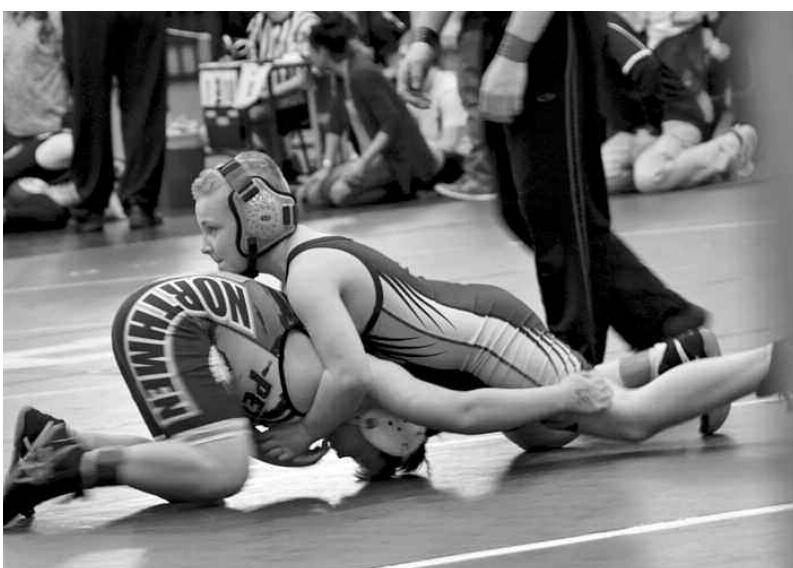

East Jordan would get 12 points from junior Kendall McNitt, while freshman Jayden Weber had 11 and senior Kassey Wojan added nine points for the Red Devils that close out a 12-9 season.

Renovated Charlevoix home near Lake Michigan beach

By Jim Akans

Ready and waiting for a new homeowner, this beautifully renovated Charlevoix home also has a great location...just a few blocks from Lake Michigan beach.

This four-bedroom, two-bath home has just under 1,600 square feet of living space on two main levels. The floor plan is refreshingly open, with generously sized rooms throughout. Among the many recent renovations is a new kitchen with granite countertops and stainless steel appliances, new carpeting and ceramic tile throughout the home, new roof in 2016, and a freshly painted interior.

The yard is nicely treed and welcoming...a great spot to relax. Just five blocks away is the Lake Michigan beach, or for dining, shopping and entertainment downtown Charlevoix is also close at hand.

Located at 309 West Hurlbut in Charlevoix, the listing price for this wonderfully renovated home is just $194,900. For additional information or to arrange for a tour, please call Holly Nierman, Associate Broker/Manager or Mike Stark, Associate Broker at Coldwell Banker Schmidt - Charlevoix, 710 Bridge Street, 231-547-4444, or email hollynierman@gmail.com
