HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL WEEKLY RESULTS

Pitching dominates EJ/Harbor matchup

East Jordan 0-2, Harbor Springs 2-0

HARBOR SPRINGS — Pitching was at a premium once again as the Red Devils and Rams each earned a 2-0 victory in the Lake Michigan Conference twinbill on May 8, with Harbor winning the opener and East Jordan taking game two.

In game one, East Jordan freshman Chandler Bartig got the call for his first varsity start, working five innings, allowing two runs (both unearned) on five hits, striking out six and not issuing a walk.

Chris Erxleben pitched a two-hitter for the Rams, recording 11 strikeouts for the shutout victory.

A Keegan McDuffie double and Owen Diller single, were the only Red Devil hits.

In the nightcap, EJ senior Colin Shepard tossed a one-hit, complete game shutout, fanning 10 and walking three in the process.

"Both games were dominated by the pitching," Red Devil coach Tom Reid said. "Chandler (Bartig) and Colin (Shepard) were both terrific for us and (Harbor) coach Brey had a couple terrific outings from his guys as well. It was a fun night of baseball!"

Kaleb Raymond had an RBI double among his two hits, while Trey Peterson singled for the Red Devils.

Rayder offense takes down TC Christian

Charlevoix 13-25, T.C. Christian 8-6

CHARLEVOIX — Sometimes you just need a good night of offense. For coaches, that is the game plan every on the diamond, but in reality, sometimes, it comes sporadically and others, it comes in bunches. It would be the latter of the two for the Charlevoix baseball team on May 5, as the Rayder bats came to life against the Sabres, delivering a pair of non-conference wins, 13-8 and 25-6.

Garrett Seese got the win in both games, closing out game one in relief of Brad Klinger and working two innings in the mercy run-shortened game two.

The offense was led by Christian Matye as he recorded four hits on the night, including a triple, double and seven RBIs.

Rayders sweep Red Devils in LMC play

CHARLEVOIX 1-7, East Jordan 0-1

In the opener, Smith held the Red Devils to three hits, while striking out four in a complete game victory.

The only run of the fast-paced contest came in the fourth inning, as Charlevoix's Christian Matye singled and eventually came around on an error.

game one on May 5 in a non-conference matchup.

Tristan Stackus and Dom Archey had three hits apiece to pace the Ramblers at the plate, while Nick Aown and Ethan Hills added two each.
