

athlete of the week

Jacob Ager, Boyne City

The senior linebacker continued to let offensive teams know that he, along with the rest of the Rambler defense, welcome any team to try and run or pass against them. For the second straight week, Ager recorded seven tackles and scored a defensive touchdown, this time, picking off a pass and returning it for a score in Boyne City's 46-0 victory over Charlevoix.

Ramblers roll past rival Rayders

Boyne City 46, Charlevoix 0

CHARLEVOIX -- What a difference a year makes. Boyne City capitalized on their size and experience, despite missing a key contributor, by dominating pretty much every aspect of the game, as they rolled to a 46-0 victory over the rival Rayders at Kipke Field on August 31, avenging a six point overtime loss from a year ago.

Missing from the Rambler lineup was their starting and leading tailback, Joseph Baugh, who was out with a foot injury, but stepping in Baugh was junior Dillon Sulak and to say he took advantage of the opportunity would be a slight understatement.

Sulak found opening after opening behind the big and physical offensive line, weaving through the holes and when the Rayders would get a hand or two on him, it seemed that he would just tear himself away and pick up extra yardage.

The junior finished his night with three touchdowns, totaling 176 yards on 13 attempts as Boyne exploded for 33 first half points and Charlevoix only threatened one time to score, but an interception by Trevor Wilcox near the goal line that he returned to near the end zone.

Taking the kickoff to open the second half, Boyne would march down the field and Ethan Hills would take it in from 1-yard out to put the Ramblers up 39-0 after a conversion attempt was unsuccessful.

Ethan Hewitt would score the final TD for Boyne from 32-yards out with 48 ticks remaining on the clock in the third quarter as the two teams played to a stalemate over the final quarter. He would finish with 53 yards rushing.

Hewitt would also haul in an 8-yard touchdown reception from Hills, while Mason Gardner had two receptions for 18 yards. On the other side of the ball, senior linebacker Jacob Ager kept extended his scoring streak to two games as he picked off a pass with 7:35 remaining in the opening quarter and took it to the house for an early 7-0 BC lead. Ager was a monster on defense as he finished with seven stops, including two for a loss and applied several big hits, stopping the Rayder attack.

Teammate and defensive end, Dylon Williams also recorded seven tackles and added two tackles for a loss. Linemen Jacob Robinson and Jared Hausler also chipped in, as each added a tackle for loss.

The Rayder offense was held at a standstill for most of the night, but there were some positives as QB Cole

Wright connected with senior wideout, Colin Smith for a 51-yard pass, setting up their only real scoring opportunity of the night.

Wright also found Robby Morgridge with four passes, totaling 39 yards.

Wright was also the leading rusher for Charlevoix, as he rumbled for a hard-fought 33 yards.

Boyne City (2-0) travels to Cheboygan on September for a 7pm non-league matchup, while Charlevoix goes to Clare on September 9 and faces, Waterford Our Lady Lakes at 1pm.

Fast start not enough for Red Devils

Elk Rapids 48, East Jordan 12

ELK RAPIDS -- A great start is one key element to winning any sporting contest, as is a great finish.

But what happens in between can be said to matter even more.

East Jordan did in fact get off to a good start, taking a 6-0 lead over the host Elks, but ultimately fell to Elk Rapids 48-12 on August 31 in non-conference play.

The early Red Devil score came courtesy of a 72-yard touchdown reception by Nick Norton from Jared Piechan. The point after attempt was no good. That would be the most noise that EJ would make for the quite a while as the Elks racked up 48 straight points, including 20 in the first quarter, and were up 27-6 at intermission.

Elk Rapids would score 21

more points in the second half before the Piechan would connect with Norton for the games final score.

East Jordan slips to 0-2 on the young season, but return home on September 8, when they welcome Mancelona, game time is 7pm.
