Red Devils showing improvement

Bellaire 58, East Jordan 45

EAST JORDAN — The East Jordan boys basketball team is closing in on competing for their first victory.

For three quarters, the Red Devils played right with a tough Bellaire team, but it was the second quarter that did them in as they fell to the Eagles, 58-45 on December 14.

The Eagles led at the quarter breaks, 20-11, 32-17 and 46-29.

“We struggled to execute our offense in that stretch and we did nothing to disrupt their offense during that time,” Red Devils coach Nate Dzwik said. “We made a couple of adjustments to how we wanted to defend at the half and came out with a little bit of pressure and that was effective for us overall.”

Dzwik noted that every time EJ cut the lead to single digits, Bellaire would push the margin back up to 14-15.

Cooper Stevenson led East Jordan with 13 points and seven rebounds, while Keegan McDuffie and Ethan Zeeryp each added nine points.

Jackson Raymond had six boards, while Jack Cross had five and Chandler Bartig had four assists.

“While the scoreboard didn’t show it we really took strides in this game to improve and it started with our effort and energy,” Dzwik added. “The kids responded well to some coaching and adjustments and with this young and inexperienced of a team I hope that we can take that and at some point soon convert that competing and effort into a win and not just a win in the second half.”

Blazers too much for EJ

Kalkaska 83, East Jordan 42

EAST JORDAN — When you run into a good team, you know it.

That would be the case for the Red Devils on December 12 when they hosted Kalkaska, as the Blazers powered their way past EJ, 83-42.

East Jordan trailed 17-5, 40-16 and 64-32 at the quarter breaks.

“We got behind early and could never get settled in during the game,” EJ coach

Nate Dzwik said. “We had 43 turnovers as a team and that lead to a ton of fast break points for them. It was the first time we had seen that intense and constant pressure and they really took advantage of our guards.”

Coach Dzwik added that the Blazers gave them a hard time on the glass, out rebounding the Red Devils 43-26 on the night.

“Neither their pressure, speed or rebounding were a surprise to us but they did a great job and took us out of everything!” the coach added. “Cooper (Stevenson) was a bright spot as his effort and energy in the second half got the team playing hard and excited for stretches.”

Stevenson led the Red Devils with 12 points and eight rebounds, while Keegan McDuffie had seven points and Jackson Raymond, five boards.

Ramblers girls unable to get past Cedarville

Cedarville 42, Boyne City 30

BOYNE CITY — The Boyne City girls basketball team had plenty of offensive looks, but on December 12, those shots would just not fall as the Ramblers drop a non-conference contest to Cedarville, 42-30.

“Offensively, we missed shots, but I want the girls to keep shooting and they’re going to fall,” coach Julie Redman said. “Defensively, we played hard.”

The Ramblers trailed 11-3 after the first quarter, 21-16 at the half and 33-24 at the end of the third.

Katelyn Gabos led BC with eight points and six rebounds, while Avery Stadt and Reagan May had seven and six respectively.

Katie Hoth added five rebounds and was credited with playing hard all of the time and being a big asset to the team. Brooklyn Fitzpatrick also chipped in with five boards.

Late push give Lancers girls the win

Ellsworth 38, Pellston 34

PELLSTON — The Lady Lancers overcame a seven point deficit in the final eight minutes of play to pull out a 38-34 victory over the host Hornets on December 18.

Ellsworth trailed 31-24 entering the fourth quarter, and also trailed by one after the first and were behind 24-

17 at the half.

Addie Nagel paced the winners with 21 points, including nine in the final stanza, while Mckenzie Esenberg and Brenda Eggers each added five apiece.

The combination of tough defense and Pellston unable to put the ball in the hoop aided in the Lancer comeback.

Lancers boys roll, Stay perfect in NLC

Ellsworth 67, Alanson 32

ELLSWORTH — The Ellsworth boys basketball team jumped out early on the Vikings as they rolled to a 67-32 Northern Lakes Conference victory on December 14.

“Everyone got playing time and scored for us,” Lancer coach Jarrod Steenwyk said as Ellsworth improved to 3-0 on the season, 2-0 in league play.

Ethan Tonga paced three

Lancers in double figures as he netted 14 points on 7-of-7 shooting from the floor. Josh Light added 12 points and Collin Ingalls chipped in with 10, including a gym rocking dunk late in the first quarter.

David Nichols hauled in eight rebounds to lead the team, while Lucas Sweet handed out three assists. Michael Clees had five steals, while Isiah Romeyn and Alex Adams each added three steals.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Red Devils can't overcome Blazer first quarter

Kalkaska 67, East Jordan 45

KALKASKA — The East Jordan girls basketball team played right along side a tough Kalkaska Blazer team for three quarters, but it was the opening quarter advantage that was just too much to overcome as Kalkaska downed the Red Devils 67-45 on December 12.

The Blazers led at the quarter breaks 27-8, 36-17 and 50-31. Despite a second straight game double-double from sophomore Jayden Weber (21 points, 10 rebounds), the Red Devils could not match the fire power of Kalkaska. Abby Peterson chipped in with nine points, while Rebecca Drenth and Tia Spence added four rebounds apiece, with Spence dishing out three assists.

"First quarter really put us in a hole against a good team," Red Devil coach Steve Hines said.

The Blazers were led by McKenzie Wilkinson with 21 and Margaret Stosio had 20.

EJ slips to 1-3 overall, 0-1 Lake Michigan Conference with the loss.

NORTHERN MICHIGAN OUTDOORS

Skinny Ski for Free

by Patrick W. C. Bevier

Now that Father Winter has deposited a foot or more of that wonderful white stuff it's time to wax up those skinny skis.

Many places in northern Michigan provide either oft-used or groomed cross country trails open to the public free of charge. Stride on over to:

Aspen Park: Featuring over 100 acres of natural splendor this Gaylord location is a terrific place to skinny ski. Two miles of groomed trails are also lighted for night skiing. You'll also have the opportunity to view elk, turkey, and other wildlife in the park. Access is from Commerce Blvd.

Wildwood Hills Pathway: East of Petoskey this area boasts 9.3 miles of groomed classic skiing trails for beginners to intermediates. You can choose loops ranging from 4.5 to 9 miles. Take C-58 (Mitchell Road) east for 9 1/2 miles then 3 miles on Wildwood Rd.

Hartwick Pines State Park (Grayling): Rare old-growth forests make this place a favorite. The Weary Legs trail provides 7.5 miles of groomed cross country ski trails from easy to difficult. Take exit 259 off I-75 and then north on M-93 (Hartwick Pines Rd.).

Birchwood Farms Golf and Country Club: Several miles of easy to moderate groomed trails meander through this lovely setting north of Harbor Springs. Travel on M-119 and

When snow covered, skiing amongst the beach dunes is exhilarating at Petoskey State Park

Aspen Park is next to a city owned elk park in Gaylord turn east on Middle Rd. The trailhead is adjacent to the clubhouse.

Petoskey State Park: The well-blazed trails and paved roads make for a smooth glide at the park on M-119. When snow covered, skiing amongst the beach dunes is exhilarating, especially in the glittering moonlight. An almost 2-mile loop is possible if you ski the campground trail from the Dunes Campground to the Tannery Creek campground. You can also access the Little Traverse Wheelway via the short bike trail. The restrooms are a bonus!

Louis M. Groen Nature Preserve: This almost 800 acre nature preserve is operated by Otsego County Parks and Recreation. The preserve was donated by Louis M. Groen. There are 8 miles of groomed trails and is free to use. Entrance is located of Gingell Road just west of Johannesburg.

Little Traverse Conservancy Preserves: The LTC has significantly broadened their groomed cross country trail offerings. Their website (www.landtrust.org) has a vast amount of information and interactive maps, or you can upload the smart phone app, LTC Explorer. A favorite cross country destination is the fabulously forested 600-acre Goodhart Farms Nature Preserve on Robinson Rd. in Goodhart.

Regardless of which area you choose few things are more exhilarating, yet tranquil, than shushing down a trail on cross country skis in Up North Michigan!
