Rayders continue hot streak, down Ramblers

Charlevoix 57, Boyne City 34

CHARLEVOIX — A strong defensive effort matched with a solid offensive game is what the Charlevoix girls basketball team delivered on February 9, as they defeated Boyne City 57-34 in a Lake Michigan Conference contest.

Elise Stuck scored a game-high 23 points and Olivia Jeakle added 15, as the Rayders won for the 12th time this season, including the last seven in a row.

Charlevoix improved to 12-3 overall, 8-1 LMC on the season as the team jumped out to a 15-8 first quarter lead, behind a 12 point effort by Stuck in the quarter. The Rayders would extend their lead to 27-11 at the half and 49-17 at the end of three quarters.

While Stuck opened the contest on a tear, it was Jeakle that supplied the hot hand in the third quarter as she knocked down three triples, in scoring 13 points in the frame.

Avery Stadt finished with 13 points to lead Boyne, while Brooklyn Fitzpatrick and Molly Burch added six points apiece.

The Ramblers slip to 6-10, 2-8 LMC with the loss.

The Ramblers were up 38-34 as time ticked away before Harbor's Madi Bazilla connected for a triple with just under five seconds to go and Boyne was able to run the clock out and preserve the victory.

Boyne improves to 6-9 overall, 2-7 LMC.

The Rams were led by Maggie Bailey with 18 points, while Bezilla added 11.

team controlled most of the game and then held on late in picking up a Lake Michigan Conference contest, 38-37 over Harbor Springs on February 6.

Rambler sophomore, Brooklyn Fitzpatrick finished with a team-high 14 points and nine rebounds, while Avery Stadt added nine points and Katie Hoth chipped in with seven points and five boards.

"The girls played really well as a TEAM!" Boyne coach Julie Redman said. "I was so happy for them."

Red Devils click on all cylinders as they roll past Elks

East Jordan 65, Elk Rapids 24

EAST JORDAN — When it's going well, everything seems to click.

That would be the case on February 9, as the East Jordan girls basketball team rolled to a convincing 65-24 Lake Michigan Conference victory over Elk Rapids.

"We started this game as focused as we have all season and we played at a high level of intensity," East Jordan coach Steve Hines said. "Jayden (Weber) had a great first quarter as she scored 14 and Abby (Peterson) added seven. The second quarter looked almost like a carbon copy of the first quarter as we scored from the outside, from offensive rebounds, from our press and capitalized at the free throw line."

With the Red Devils firing on all cylinders, there wasn't much that the Elks could do to stop them as EJ took a 26-8 first quarter lead, and added a 19-4 run in the second quarter and took a 45-12 lead into the half.

Weber finished with a game-high 25 points and 15 boards to lead EJ, while Kendall McNitt chipped in with nine points and Peterson and Lilly Black added seven points each.

Gabby Snyder pulled down six rebounds and McNitt added three assists.

"I was very proud of the way we started the game tonight and it was good to see us bounce back from a cold shooting night last Tuesday (vs Kalkaska)," Hines added. "Our defense was very aggressive and we were able to control the boards tonight."

The Red Devils record improved to 8-8 overall, 5-5 LMC.

Cold shooting does Red Devils in against Blazers

Kalkaska 60, East Jordan 42

EAST JORDAN — A cold shooting second and fourth quarter was the difference as the visiting Blazers escaped East Jordan with a 60-42 Lake Michigan Conference win on February 6.

"Tough loss tonight as we played so much better this time against Kalkaska," EJ coach Steve Hines said. "We handled their press with minimal turnovers, rebounds were almost even but, the biggest difference was our shooting percentage was way down."

The Blazers led 7-6 after one quarter and were up 24-13 at the break and 37-29 at the end of the third quarter.

Jayden Weber led the Red Devils with 21 points and 12 rebounds, while Karah Dunson chipped in with nine points and six rebounds.

Abby Peterson chipped in with seven points and Kendall McNitt had five boards.

Kalkaska was led by MacKenzie Wilkinson with 26 points.

"We shot 28 percent from inside the arc and 3-of-18 from outside," Hines noted. "We were down eight going into the last quarter, which we were capable of overcoming, but Kalkaska hit back to back three-pointers which put them up 14 instantly, we weren't able to overcome that."

Ramblers pull away from Rayders in second half for win

Boyne City 48, Charlevoix 33

CHARLEVOIX — Records never seem to come into play when rivals meet.

That was very evident the first time the Rayders and Ramblers met in early January, and that would be the case this time around as well through two and a half quarters of play, before Boyne City closed the third quarter on an 8-0 run, en route to a 48-33 Lake Michigan Conference boys basketball victory on February 9.

It was nip and tuck for during the first and second quarters, a low scoring affair, much like the two teams first encounter, with Charlevoix taking a 9-5 advantage after eight minutes of play, but it would be Boyne City pulling ahead just before intermission, 15-13, highlighted by a two-handed dropstep dunk by Dylon Williams.

The two teams would continue the same back and forth chess match through the early part of the second half, but with the teams knotted at 20-20, the Ramblers went on their run to close the quarter and carried that momentum into the final eight minutes of regulation.

Williams would lead Boyne City (12-3 overall, 8-2 LMC) with 13 points and eight boards, while Trevor King added eight points and Mason Gardner chipped in with six.

Charlevoix (4-10, 2-7) would get a game-high 16 points from senior Josh Carlson.

Red Devils closing in on victory

Elk Rapids 56, East Jordan 42

EAST JORDAN — The East Jordan boys basketball team continues to improve as the season hits the final stretch.

Consistent play is what the Red Devils are giving coach Nate Dzwik, as E.J fell just short against Elk Rapids, 56-42 in Lake Michigan Conference play on February 9.

East Jordan put together a solid four quarters of play, only to be undone by a slight margin in the first half against the Elks.

The Elks led 14-10 after one quarter, 32-20 at the half and 40-31 headed into the fourth quarter.

"Another great effort from the team, the score doesn't reflect it but we made great strides in the game," coach Dzwik said. "Overall their full court pressure wasn't a big issue for us, it sped us a little bit but as we progressed through the game we were able to get more comfortable and get into some our half court offense. We made a couple of defensive adjustments at halftime and really took their three big scorers out of the game in the second half."

Cooper Stevenson paced the Red Devils with 19 points and 15 rebounds, while Nick Norton added eight points and Jackson Raymond had seven.

Chandler Bartig and Keegan McDuffie both hauled in eight rebounds for E.J.

"Elk Rapids made free throws at the end and capitalized on a couple of turnovers and the few missed box outs we had on the night," Dzwik added. "I was impressed with how hard the kids played and the intensity that they played with in front of a great loud crowd and student section on a Friday night."

Late rally comes up short for Red Devils

Kalkaska 62, East Jordan 51

KALKASKA — An offensive burst in the fourth quarter by the Red Devils came up a little short as East Jordan fell to Kalkaska 62-51 in a Lake Michigan Conference game on February 6.

The Blazers led at the quarter breaks 16-7, 38-15 and 46-30.

"We were down big at the half but had missed eight layups and a bunch of free throws," E.J coach Nate Dzwik said. "They (Kalkaska) were pressuring us but we had done a nice job of breaking the pressure and getting looks we wanted. As we got through the third quarter the kids started really working the ball inside and that led to a great game for Cooper (Stevenson) but also led to a lot of inside out shots that were able to make."

Stevenson would finish with a double-double, scoring 17 points and grabbing 12 rebounds, while Nick Norton added 11 points and Jackson Raymond had nine.

Ethan Zeeryp had 11 rebounds, and Chandler Bartig dished out four assists and added three steals.

"The guys did a real nice job of taking care of the glass in the second half. With 1:28 left in the game we had free throws and the lead down to seven, we missed it (8-22 from the line on the game) rebounded it missed again and rebounded it again. Truly a great effort from the seven kids who dressed considering we got beat by 42 when we played them at home."

Lancers continue to control own destiny

Ellsworth 70, Harbor Light 42

ELLSWORTH — The Lancer boys basketball team downed the visiting Swordsmen 70-42 on February 9, keeping them on track towards the Northern Lakes Conference championship.

"We started the half strong again with good defense leading to good offense," Ellsworth coach Jarrod Steenwyk said. "Pretty evenly distributed on the points tonight, several guys contributing and distributing the ball on offense. Great defensive effort got us the lead and we kept it going all game long."

The Lancers led 26-10 following the first quarter and were in complete command at the half, leading 49-19 and cruised to a 57-26 lead after three quarters of play.

Kevin Dickinson and Collin Ingalls each scored 11 points to lead Ellsworth, while Richard Adams added 10 points and Ingalls hauled in nine rebounds.

Cole Essenberg added five assists and Michael Clees had five steals.

Loggers fall to Comets

Mackinaw City 76, Boyne Falls 28

BOYNE FALLS — The Loggers got 11 points from Blake Brunmeier and nine from Tyler Gellis, but it was not enough as the visiting Comets downed Boyne Falls 76-28 on February 9.

Mackinaw City got 23 points from Kal O'Brien

Moving on!

Trio of Rayders advance to Regionals

MUNISING — On February 10, the Charlevoix wrestling team took part in the MHSAA District Tournament, with three individuals advancing to the next round.

Senior Jeremy Chernauckas at 145 lbs; junior Max Hinkle at 215 lbs, each earned a district championship with first place finishes, while freshman Jordan Cebulski placed 4th, as the top four in each class of the 12-team event advance to regional competition in Charlevoix on February 17.

Individual results were as follows:

Jeremy Chernauckas (145 lbs) and Max Hinkle (215 lbs), both 3-0, for first place finishes.

Jordan Cebulski (103 lbs) went 2-2 for his fourth place finish.

Hayden Prevo (135 lbs); Trever McCallum (152 lbs); Eric Staph (160 lbs); Seth Migda (171 lbs); Ryan Henry (189 lbs); and Alex Kwapisz (Hwt.) all finished 1-2 and Riley Jensen (171 lbs) went 0-1.

Boyne edges Harbor Springs in 3 OT

Boyne City 55, Harbor Springs 53

BOYNE CITY — After the first 32 minutes of play, it seemed as if neither team wanted to call it a night. It would take an additional 12 minutes of play to decide a winner as Boyne City pulled out a 55-53 overtime Lake Michigan Conference victory over Harbor Springs on February 6.

The first extra session was a mirror image of the first four quarters of play as neither team shot well and each squad managed just two points.

As the second OT was winding down, the Ramblers held a 48-45 advantage, but the Rams Joe Claramunt would take the inbounds pass with just under four seconds to play and maneuver his way to just beyond the arc and drop in what would be a tying triple as time expired, extending the game for an additional four minutes.

“That was a crazy game,” Boyne coach Nick Redman said. “Proud of the guys for finding a way to win on a night that we did not shoot well. Harbor really fought and rebounded well.”

Boyne City (11-3 overall, 7-2 LMC) came out in the third extra session and halted the Rams momentum right from the get go as the Ramblers would reel off five straight points and then held off another Harbor comeback down the stretch, escaping with a victory as the Rams missed a layup attempt that would tie the game as the horn sounded.

“It was a hard fought game by both teams,” Redman added. “Great learning experience for us, luckily we can learn with a win.”

Dillon Sulak scored 15 points to lead the Ramblers, while Mason Gardner added 12 points and Dayton McPherson had 10.
