BOYNE CITY — In the Boyne City girls basketball team's final regular season home game this season, the team put it all together, leading from the opening tip through the final buzzer as they defeated the visiting Red Devils 47-40 on February 16 in Lake Michigan Conference play.

The win for the Ramblers, helped erase the memory of a 23 point loss to East Jordan earlier this season.

"We controlled the ball better offensively, this time, where we didn't the first time we played," Rambler coach Julie Redman said. "Defensively, we played stronger and fought through their screen better, and just played good man (defense)."

The Ramblers jumped out early, taking an 8-0 lead before cruising to an 11-5 first quarter advantage and extended that lead to 27-16 at the half.

East Jordan was able to get their shots going in the third quarter as they closed the gap to five points (36-31) as the teams entered the fourth quarter.

"Boyne City came ready to play basketball tonight,"

Boyne City's Katie Hoth (21) crosses over as she prepares to go around the defense of East Jordan's Jayden Weber (24). (PHOTO BY CHRIS FIEL)

East Jordan coach Steve Hines said. "We didn't take care of the ball very well and we struggled to put it in the basket...not a good combination."

The Ramblers would take care of the ball, chewing up valuable time off of the clock and converting easy looks at the basket when they were able to do so.

"We talked alot about slowing the game down and not rush any of our plays,"

Boyne senior Katie Hoth said after playing in her final regular season home game. "I expected myself to have a good game and go out with a bang, and it's exciting that the team came through and we worked together."

Hoth would finish with a team-high 13 points and grabbed four boards, Reagan May added 10 points and six rebounds and Brooklyn Fitzpatrick chipped in with nine points and nine boards.

Annika Bergquist added six steals and was credited with outstanding an defensive effort and her vocal leadership.

"As a whole, everything clicked with the team and we were able to control the game we wanted to play,"

Bergquist noted. "Communication is huge in the sport of basketball and knowing that and who I am, allows me to take on that leadership role."

Jayden Weber finished with 13 points and 15 rebounds for East Jordan, while Kendall McNitt added eight and Abby Peterson had seven. Madeline Malpass also had four rebounds.

Red Devils start slow, unable to come back against Rams

Harbor Springs 51,

EAST JORDAN — After finding themselves down 12 after the first quarter, the Red Devils chipped away over the next two quarters before running out of steam, in falling 51-44 to Harbor Springs in a Lake Michigan Conference contest on February 13.

East Jordan closed the gap to two points (37-35) entering the fourth quarter and took a brief lead, but were unable to close the game out.

"Wrong way to start the game as we were flat and didn't match the intensity of our opponents," Red Devils coach Steve Hines said. "We battled back and eventually took the lead, which was awesome, unfortunately we couldn't sustain it."

Abby Peterson would score 11 to pace EJ, while Jayden Weber had eight and 10 rebounds and Kendall McNitt chipped in with seven points.

Rebecca Drenth would add six rebounds for the Red Devils.

Ramblers uptempo too much for Red Devils

Boyne City 72,
East Jordan 44

BOYNE CITY — The Boyne City boys basketball team responded from a loss to Traverse City St. Francis by coming out and firing on all cylinders.

The Ramblers jumped out early and never looked back as they defeated East Jordan 72-44 on February 16.

Boyne assisted on 23 of their 29 baskets in the contest.

"We passed better and dribbled less," Boyne coach Nick Redman said. "You can tell a lot about a team the way they respond after a loss. Proud of them, we really did a nice job playing together and with great effort tonight and it was nice to get four guys in double figures."

Boyne led 18-7 after the first quarter and was up 39-23 at the half, before taking a 49-30 lead into the fourth quarter.

"Boyne jumped out early and pressured us which sped us up," EJ coach Nate Dzwik said. "Every time we come down and get a bucket it seemed like the would answer with at least a bucket of their own and usually two."

"We really got hurt by missing free throws and turning the ball over in live ball situations- both of which lead to easy points for them," coach Dzwik added. "I thought that Boyne played really well and we had moments and possessions where we looked good on both ends of the floor but couldn't sustain that for the longer stretches."

Cooper Stevenson finished with 10 points and 10 rebounds to lead the Red Devils, while Jackson Raymond added nine points, four rebounds and three blocked shots, and Keegan McDuffie had seven points.

seven assists and three steals from Mason Gardner, while Dillon Sulak added 14 points and two assists; Dylon Williams added 14 points on 6-of-6 shooting and two assists; Max Vondra chipped in with 11 points and five assists and Aiden Brehm had five points and three assists. John-Paul Moody led the team in rebounding with five.

"Great having Eric (Carson) back out there," coach Redman noted in reference to Carson returning from an injury. "Hopefully he keeps getting healthier throughout the rest of the season."

Red Devils closing in on first win

Harbor Springs 62,
East Jordan 49

EAST JORDAN — The Red Devil boys basketball team continues to close the gap in search of their first victory.

As the season progresses, so do the efforts of the EJ team as they keep pace with opponents. On February 13, the Red Devils were engaged in a back and forth contest with the visiting Harbor Springs Rams, were in the end, it was Harbor that used their slight edge in experience to pull off a 62-49 Lake Michigan Conference win.

"A really good game in which we got down 18-7 in the first quarter and battled back to cut their lead to five," EJ coach Nate Dzwik said. "Back and forth all game until the 3:25 mark when we had the lead, then they hit a shot to tie and then scored the next 13 points at the free throw line."

"Credit to them for being able to execute at the end of the game, we struggled to get good looks at the end of the game and when we did get a look they didn't go in, the coach added. "I felt like it was a game that we lacked a sense of energy and urgency and despite the kids playing hard we never really got that level energy needed for us to go get that win."

The Red Devils were led by a double-double from Cooper Stevenson with 17 points and 11 rebounds, while Ethan Zeeryp added 10 points and five boards and Keegan McDuffie chipped in with eight points.

Ellsworth downs Boyne Falls 55-11

Ellsworth 55, Boyne Falls 11

BOYNE FALLS — A quick start on offense and a lock tight effort on defense was all that Ellsworth needed in beating Boyne Falls 55-11 on February 19 in Northern Lakes Conference action.

"Good defense the first quarter for a shutout and quick offense," coach Jarrod Steenwyk said. "One more conference game Friday at Vanderbilt, fingers crossed for Harbor Light at Wolverine Friday, a loss for Wolverine would give it (conference title) to us outright."

Collin Ingalls finished with 11 points and five rebounds to lead the Lancers, while Micheal Clees added nine, Ethan Torgna had eight and Josh Light added seven points.

Isaiah Romeyn grabbed six rebounds and Caleb Godwin had six assists.

Lancers roll past Wildcats 64-18

Ellsworth 64, Alba 18

ALBA — The Lancer boys basketball team came ready to play.

After taking a 28-15 lead into the half, Ellsworth exploded for 28 third quarter points as they rolled to a 64-18 Northern Lakes Conference victory over the Wildcats on February 16.

"Slow start to the game for us compared to the last few. Cole Essenberg and Micheal Clees lead our defensive effort to get the game rolling for us," Lancer coach Jarrod Steenwyk said. "Our bigs had good numbers down low against Alba's 2-3 zone."

Collin Ingalls, Clees each finished with 12 points, while Essenberg added 11 and five assists for Ellsworth.

Ethan Torgna grabbed 10 rebounds, Clees added eight steals and Caleb Godwin had six.

CHARLEVOIX — On February 17, Charlevoix was represented by three of their own in the MHSAA regional tournament on their home mat.

Jeremy Chernauckas (145 lbs.) went 2-2 to qualify for the State Finals for the second time in his career.

In the first round Chernauckas lost 4-2 in a very close match to Andrew Simaz of T.C.S.F. (the ultimate winner of the tournament). Chernauckas then pinned both Devin Moore of Munising and Seth Enos of Onaway to make it to the consolation finals. In the consolation finals Chernauckas lost to Hunter Eurich of Mio 10-2.

Junior Max Hinkle (215 lbs.) went 0-2 for the day. After leading the majority of his first match with Max Thomas of Roscommon, Hinkle lost by pin and sustained a back injury. Hinkle received a bye in the first round of the consolations as Nick Toth of Rogers City had withdrawn from the tournament and ultimately lost by pin to Thomas Miller of Lake City in the consolation semi-finals.

Freshman Jordan Cebulski (103 lbs.) also went 0-2 for the day losing by pin in the first round to Caleb Nolf of Pine River. In the first round of consolations Cebulski lost by pin to Bradley Hall of Rudyard.

Coach Hinkle commented: "I am proud of all three wrestlers. Jeremy Chernauckas has been running neck and neck with all four qualifiers from the region. He has beaten Eurich, and came very close to beating Simaz today. Anything can happen at state. It's going to boil down to who wants it most. Max Hinkle had lost to Thomas earlier in the season, and was giving him a great match today until one mistake, cost him the win, and contributed to a back injury that hampered him the rest of the day. As for Jordan Cebulski he is freshman and first-year wrestler. He had already surpassed the expectations we had for him for a first-year kid, just making it to regionals was a bonus."
