CHARLEVOIX COUNTY — With the close of the 2017-18 girls basketball season recently, the level of local competition keeps improving and the individual play continues to increase.

Once again, the Charlevoix Rayders were the dominant team in the area, finishing with an overall record of 19-5 overall, 12-2 in the Lake Michigan Conference, captured a second straight Class C district title and finished runner-up to Maple City Glen Lake in the regional.

The Red Devils of East Jordan came in at 9-13 overall, 5-9 LMC, showed glimpses of outstanding play, while Boyne City improved five games from a year ago, finishing with an 8-13 overall record, while going 4-10 in league play.

In the Northern Lakes Conference, the Lady Lancers of Ellsworth came in at 8-12 overall, 6-6 in conference play, despite playing with a youthful roster.

The Charlevoix County News is proud to announce the annual All-Area Girls Basketball "Dream Team".

In reviewing statistical information, coaches nominations, team success and adversity each time they took the court. In narrowing it down to a number of deserving individuals, the selection of Player of the Year once again goes to Charlevoix's Elise Stuck.

Rounding out the team are Rachel Nesburg, Natalie Nesburg and Olivia Jeakle from Charlevoix; Avery Stadt, Katie Hoth and Brooklyn Fitzpatrick of Boyne City; Jayden Weber, Abby Peterson and Kendall McNitt from East Jordan and Brenda Eggers and Chloe Nagel of Ellsworth.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

(#30) Elise Stuck, sophomore, Charlevoix.

After a standout season during her first year of high school play, there was no surprising anyone with the level of talent and athletic play the Rayder sophomore brought to the hardwood each night.

During her second season on the Charlevoix varsity, Elise once again led the team in numerous categories, scoring 537 points for a 23.4 ppg average, hauled in 218 boards for a 9.5 average, made 73 steals, dished out 69 assists and shot 72 percent from the charity stripe, making 102 of 141 attempts.

Stuck also eclipsed the 1000 point career total during the MHSAA tournament.

CHARLEVOIX

(#4) Rachel Nesburg, senior.

Nesburg was one of the top defenders in the area and a key to getting the Rayder pressure defense going.

Rachel led the Rayders with 81 steals, and grabbed 65 rebounds from her guard position.

She also scored 91 points on the year and dished out 69 assists.

(#10) Natalie Nesburg, senior.

Once again, Natalie was a key in getting the team going with her super high energy and continuous effort throughout each contest.

Nesburg grabbed 61 rebounds, dished out 40 assists, made 48 steals and scored 77 points on the season.

One of the highlights of the season came against Traverse City St. Francis, when Natalie hit a game winning floater at the buzzer to give Charlevoix the victory over the Gladiators.

(#24) Olivia Jeakle, senior

The hot shooting Jeakle was a threat from long-range scoring 167 points on the year for a 7.3 ppg average and shot 58 percent from the free throw line (19/33).

She also grabbed 72 rebounds, made 22 steals and had 46 assists.

Jeakle helped key the comeback against the Gladiators, knocking down triples to pull the team to within range.

BOYNE CITY

(#10) Avery Stadt, sophomore

Stadt was one of the team members that got the Rambler offense going and often times drew the defensive assignment of the opponents top perimeter player.

Avery scored 131 points for Boyne (6.9 ppg). Grabbed 53 rebounds, made 39 steals and dished out 34 assists.

(#21) Katie Hoth, senior

In her third season on the varsity, Hoth continued to be a leader for Boyne, matching up with top front court and backcourt players, using her strength and quickness to defend different styles of play.

Katie scored 124 points on the year, hauled in 81 rebounds, made 36 steals and had 19 assists in her senior campaign.

(#5) Brooklyn Fitzpatrick, sophomore

Brooklyn came on strong for the Ramblers midway through the season, using her height and knowledge of the game to her advantage.

She would finish with 130 points on the season, grabbing 174 rebounds, making 29 steals and adding 12 assists and shot 60 percent from the free throw line.

EAST JORDAN

(#24) Jayden Weber, sophomore.

In her second year on the Red Devil varsity, Weber quickly became an inside threat and go-to player for East Jordan when the team needed a good look at a shot.

Jayden finished with a scoring average of 14.2 points per game, up eight points from her freshman season, while hauling in 9.6 boards and she once again leading the team in shooting at 51 percent and shot 71 percent from the charity stripe.

Weber led the Red Devils in nearly every statistical category.

(#12) Abby Peterson,

The senior point guard led the team in assists and also second in steals, while averaging 5.7 points per game.

Abby was a four-year starter for East Jordan and credited as a true team player and dedicated student/athlete by coach Steve Hines.

(#14) Kendall McNitt, senior

McNitt was another four-year starter for the Red Devils.

During her senior campaign, Kendall set the school record for three-pointers in her career, and finished the season with 123 points for an average of six points per game.

ELLSWORTH

(#12) Chloe Nagel,

Chloe stepped up her game once her sister Addie transferred schools and took over the leadership role.

Nagel upped her scoring from the mid single digits to nearly double figures as the season progressed and was credited by coach Hannah Hybl as a player that had outstanding quickness, heart and determination as well as being an unselfish teammate.

(#33) Brenda Eggers, senior

One of the biggest leaders on the Lancer team, Eggers speed is her strength, averaging nearly four steals per game.

She also picked up her offensive game with the departure of the younger Nagel.

Credited by coach Hybl as "by far the easiest girl to coach. She listens, asks questions and is always willing to learn and be better."

COACH OF THE YEAR

The 2017-8 Coach of the Year honors again, go Charlevoix's Liz Shaw. In her sixth season for the Rayders, Coach Shaw helped the team improve two more wins from a year ago and continues to help turn Charlevoix into a Northern Michigan powerhouse, finishing with 19 wins on the season.

Charlevoix continues to set the bar high for area teams and from the looks of it, has no intention of slowing down anytime soon as the Rayder youth program through the varsity level always has the gymnasium full.

The Charlevoix County News would like to thank East Jordan Public School and athletic director Phyllis Olszewski for the use of the school gym for the photos as well as thank the student athletes for all of their hard work this season and over their careers and the coaches for providing the statistical information. We are already looking forward to next season!

EXCEPTIONAL PROFESSIONAL BUILDING IN EAST JORDAN

BY JIM AKANS

This week's feature listing is a great opportunity to obtain an exceptional professional building located in East Jordan.

The building features approximately 1,714 square feet of space. There is plenty of room to accommodate nearly any professional office need and a partial basement for storage space. Previously utilized as a dental facility, the main floor features five sectioned rooms, three of which are plumbed for water. There is a reception area, waiting room, each darkroom, workroom, large kitchen, and two rest rooms. The interior looks sharp, up to date and windows fill the public areas with welcoming natural light.

The exterior of the building also has great curb appeal, and it own parking lot area. The East Jordan location is highly visible.

Please note that dental equipment and office furniture are excluded from the listed price, however, the dental equipment is negotiable.

What a great opportunity to obtain a top-notch professional building with a great location at 306 Main Street in East Jordan. It is listed at just $114,900. For additional information or to arrange for a tour, please call Mike Stark, Broker, or Holly Nierman, Agent at Coldwell Banker Schmidt - East Jordan at 231-536-7700 or email mike.stark@cbgreatlakes.com
