Ramblers earn split in season opening twinbill

BOYNE CITY 5-15, EATON RAPIDS 9-5

EATON RAPIDS — Taking the diamond for the first time this season and only their second time being outdoors this spring, the Boyne City softball team discovered a few things that worked and some other things they need to work on.

Boyne traveled to Eaton Rapids on April 13 and split a doubleheader with the hosts, kicking off their season.

A 15-5 game two victory by the Ramblers would avenge their 9-5 game one loss, as Boyne got the bats going early and often in the night-cap, taking a 5-2 lead after one inning of play, before extending that with a five spot in each of the third and fourth innings, while the Greyhounds picked up a solo run in the third and two in the bottom of the fifth.

"Hit the ball well," Rambler coach Sandy Clausen said. "It was definitely worth the long bus ride to get a couple games in and realize some things we need to work on. Looking forward to playing again."

Boyne seniors, Grace Wells and Katie Hoth, supplied a lot of the offensive power for the team as Wells blasted a three-run shot over the right center wall, and also added a single.

Hoth finished 4-for-4 on in the contest, just missing the cycle, as she singled, doubled twice and legged out a triple, adding three RBIs as well.

Sophomore, Katelyn Gabos added three hits, including a double, while Jose Behling and Sophia Morais had two hits each and Maggee Behling doubled.

Junior, Madison Rosenow earned the pitching victory in the circle, allowing eight hits, while fanning seven and not giving up a walk.

In the opener, Boyne and Eaton Rapids both put up a pair of runs in their first innings, and added one run each in the second for a 3-3 tie. The Greyhounds would then break through in the third and fourth inning, scoring three times in each frame to pull ahead 9-3.

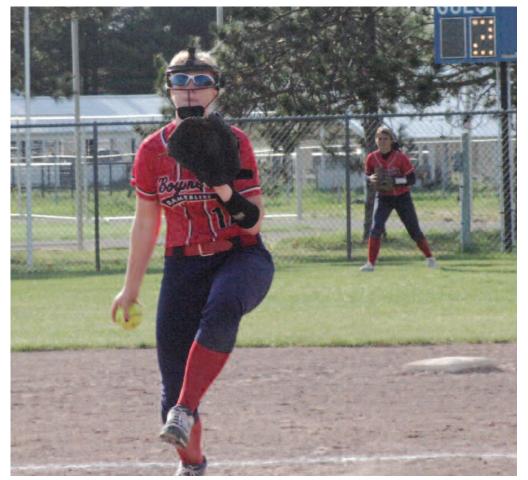

A two-run home run to straight away centerfield off the bat of Hoth in the top of the fifth would pull the Ramblers to within 9-5, but they would get no closer.

Hoth took the loss in the circle for BC, allowing five hits, striking out three and walking four.

The Rambler offense struggled to get things going in the opener, striking out 17 times as a team.

Wells hit a home run over the right center wall in her first at-bat of the season, while Hoth also added an RBI single and eventually scored a run on a steal of home.

Senior Kelsey Hubbard doubled, while Morais and Josee Behling both added singles.

Rambler junior pitcher, Maddie Rosenow pitched Boyne to a game two victory at Eaton Rapids. (CCNEWS

"Having been outside for practice only one day I feel like we played okay," coach Clausen noted. "Too many strikeouts, and a few other things to work on. Not bad for first game. Room for improvement." The Ramblers will return to action (weather permitting) on April 23, when they host Cheboygan.

Life Lessons for Little Ones

Outdoor activities teach kids patience, preparedness

Then 12-year old Sophie Cranney of Harbor Springs is proud of this 6-point buck she arrowed. Dozens of hours of target shooting with professional archer mom, Angie Cranney, and extensive study of habitats and hunting locations made it possible. (COURTESY PHOTO)

In 2015 Time.com published results from a Microsoft Corp. study claiming that, on average, American adults have shorter attention spans than goldfish.

But that sort of concerning statistic is not reserved for adults only. Some recent studies indicate that the average amount of time modern children can wait without getting impatient is less than two minutes! Couple that with the fact that U.S. children, aged 5 to 16, spend an average of six and a half hours a day in front of a screen compared to around three hours in 1995,

I'd say we have a bit of a crisis on our hands. Fortunately, there are outdoor activities that help to combat this crisis in our children. In fact, some studies demonstrate considerable reduction in ADHD symptoms after only a small amount of time spent in nature. Particularly, teach your kids to fish and hunt. And then take them to do both as much as possible.

What these pastimes weave into the fabric of a young person is an essential life lesson—that the delayed gratification associated with fishing and hunting result in some of the most satisfying experiences in life. And in the process they develop the important attributes of patience, persistence, and persever-

Those of us who are devoted anglers or hunters know that countless hours are spent pursuing that troance within the child.

phy trout, wall hanging buck, or tasty grouse. Besides the time spent in the field a great deal of preparation is involved to be successful at these endeavors. Adults should be great role models when teaching their children how to be properly prepared to be successful in the field. These preparations include wearing proper clothing, learning safety guidelines, discussing etiquette and ethics, choosing the proper gear, and practicing shooting or casting techniques. It's important that adults demonstrate and model these aspects for their chil-

Now that I think about it birding, nature photography, and mushroom hunting all fall into the same category. All of these outdoor adventures reinforce delayed gratification, patience, preparedness, and the satisfaction one takes from an outdoor job well done.

For that matter hiking, biking, and cross country skiing can reinforce delayed gratification in children if the destination is a desirable one. A hike to a scenic overlook or refreshing swimming hole, a cross country ski outing leading to the perfect winter campsite, or a bike ride-like the one from Spring Lake Park to Alanson - that ends at a Dairy Queen are examples!

As parents, or other mentors, the goal doesn't need to be grandiose in terms of what you are pursuing. Any type of fishing or huntingeven angling for sunfish or hunting for squirrels-can reinforce these lifelong skills in our children.

I'm convinced that the attributes discussed in this piece are a big reason why outdoors people tend to be happy people! So, get outdoors with your kiddos and I promise they'll be happier, healthier, and, above-all. more patient participants!
