Rayders open season with pair of victories

MUSKEGON W. MICHIGAN CHRISTIAN 0

GRANDVILLE — The Charlevoix Girls Soccer team finally opened their season on Saturday, April 21 when they traveled to Grandville, where they took on host Grandville Calvin Christian Squires along with Muskegon West Michigan Warriors.

In game one Charlevoix defeated Grandville with a 3-0 victory.

Senior Natalie Nesburg assisted for Charlevoix with 15:03 left in the first half when she crossed the ball to junior Jenna Good for the first Rayder goal of the season and with 59 seconds left on the clock, senior Rachel Nesburg drew a foul in the box and sophomore Megan Scholten converted on the penalty kick to make it 2-0 Rayders at the half.

Once the second half began Charlevoix was awarded a direct kick and Scholten sent a bullet from 30 yards out to make a 3-0 game and the first win of the season for the Rayders.

Junior keeper Emily Hinkley had nine saves in the goal and was credited with playing an outstanding game by coach Pete Scholten.

In the second game, Charlevoix downed Muskegon WMC with the final score of 3-0.

Rachel Nesburg was first to get the Rayders on the board when she made an unassisted run through several Warriors to find the back of the net, giving Charlevoix a 1-0 lead that they would carry into the half.

Once the second half go underway, it didn't take the Rayders long to tack on goal number two, just three minutes in as senior Raigan Novotny would find Megan Scholten who found the back of the net from about 30 yards out.

Junior Payton Novotny would find Rachel Nesburg with 19:54 left on the clock, and she would bury the ball in the net to make it a 3-0 advantage.

Sitting at 2-0 to begin the season, Charlevoix now travels to Kingsley for a 2017 district final rematch against the Stags on Wednesday, April 25.

"We were pleased with our passing today. The girls were able to put together some sophisticated passing combinations starting from our defensive end with freshman defender Paige Carson," Rayder coach Pete Scholten said. "Carson along with senior Alex Snabes were very solid in defense. Junior keeper Emily Hinkley was chal-incredible to finally get outside and get out of the snow for the day!"

BASEBALL

Ramblers finally able to lace up the cleats and earn a pair of victories

BOYNE CITY 12,

BOYNE CITY 3,
EAST JACKSON 0

EAST JACKSON — The Boyne City boys baseball team was finally able to get on the diamond and play some ball over the weekend, coming away with a pair of victories in the East Jackson Baseball Tournament.

The Ramblers downed Whitmore Lake 12-2 in the opener, and then won a pitcher's duel in the second game, 3-0.

In game one, Boyne overcame some early miscues and then got some timely hitting as they rolled past Whitmore Lake 12-2. Both runs allowed were unearned.

Nick Aown picked up the pitching victory for the Ramblers, going five innings, allowing one hit, fanning six and walking one.

Carter Binkley and Devon Hayden each had two hits to lead Boyne, Binkley had one RBI and Hayden had two.

Corbin Wilhelm, Ethan Hewitt and Jake Kelts all had one hit and an RBI, with Wilhelm recording two.

Eric Carson also added a sac fly RBI.

"The kids did good for the first time out of the gym," Rambler coach Todd Shumaker said. "It was nice to see us on the field and have that big inning in the 5th to earn the mercy."

Game two featured a pitchers duel as both hurlers took no-hitters into the fifth inning. The Ramblers were able to break into the scoring column in their portion of the inning behind three walks and a passed ball for a 1-0 lead.

Ethan Hills was in control on the mound for Boyne, going 5 innings before he reached his pitch count limit, allowing two hits, striking out 13 and walking four, while Ethan Hewitt came on in relief over the final 1 innings to earn the save, allowing one hit, one K and walked three.

Alex McGeorge had the lone Rambler hit, a bases loaded RBI single in the top of the sixth, and Boyne scored their final run on a passed ball.

"Our defense helped us work out of a couple of jams," Shumaker noted. "Our pitching was were I hoped it would be early in the year, Hills, Aown and Hewitt all pitched well today."

"It's nice to have a senior like Hewitt, he's been there before, he's able to come in and work out of jams and give us what we want," the coach added. "Every mistake we made today is easily fixed and will get better as were able to get outside. I really like the character of this team, everyone gets along, they are always hustling and it's a fun group to be with."

Boyne City ace, Ethan Hills started the season strong with a 2-hit, 13 strikeout performance in game two of Boyne's opening weekend play. (CCNEWS/FILE PHOTO)

NORTHERN MICHIGAN OUTDOORS

Local angling experts name their top fly patterns

The Essential Six: Part 1

BY PATRICK BEVIER

"I fish because I love to, because I love the environs where trout are found, which are invariably beautiful."
~Robert Traver

In preparation for a sacred day in the lives of many northern Michigan outdoors-people-that being opening day of trout season on April 28-I asked several Up North fly fishing fanatics what six flies they would start with if they only had that many to choose from. Of course, that's no small task when you consider there are now thousands of creative patterns that have been crafted by folks all over the globe. But when challenged with this task here's what they said:

Brian Kozminski, owner of True North Trout Guide Service (www.truenorthtrout.com) and Elite Ambassador at Temple Fork "Koz" is as knowledgeable about northern Michigan fly fishing as they come. He guides on rivers from the Manistee to the U.P. Here are his six "go to" fly patterns with comments and quotes:

Bear's Iso/ Drake Pattern: Koz recommends you never be without Iso patterns because these flies hatch throughout the season and this is his favorite imitation. A close second is Dave's Oh-So Iso.

Jerry Regan Hairy Drake: is another favorite mayfly imitation that are often absolutely hammered by all of the Mitten State's three riverine trout species-browns, brookies, and rainbows.

Purple Haze and Patriot Fly: Koz writes in his blog, "These flies are in the category of not replicating a certain insect per se, but curious trout will inhale them without inquiry."

Kelly Galloup's Zoo Cougar: This popular streamer pattern is a killer for coaxing big brown trout out of their deepest lairs. Koz said, "I like the Zoo Cougar in black, olive, or ginger."

Tim Neal's The Skopper: Is a terrestrial insect imitating fly that, "combines the criss-cross legginess of the Chironomid Ant and the double buoyancy of stacked deer hair, similar to the Skunk. Koz added, "Madsen's Skunk is a multi-purpose fly that can be used as a terrestrial or dunked and work as a wet fly- subsurface."

Hippie Stomper by Andrew Grillos: Koz mentioned this is a favorite for, "Little stream brook trout aficionados."

As far as nymphs go Brian tipped his fishing cap to Egan's Rainbow Warrior, Walt's Sexy Worm, and the Tungsten Surveyor.

"Koz" Kozminski displays a mammoth brown trout he caught on a Zoo Cougar streamer fly in the upper Manistee River.

I've got it on my bucket list to fish for behemoth browns with Koz this Hex / Mouse season on the Jordan River. His guiding dates are booking up fast so cast a call to (231) 675-1237 if you're interested in learning from this personable angling authority.

Ethan Winchester, the Director of Operations at Boyne Outfitters shop and guide service at Boyne Mountain (www.boyneoutfitters.com), is an avid angler in our area and a very creative fly-tier. He fishes many local streams and proposes the following non-"old school" patterns-many that he has creatively modified-for his essential six:

Roberts Yellow Drake: in a wide variety of sizes-from #4 to #18-this dry fly covers a wide spectrum for matching many light colored mayflies including sulfurs and hennies. Winchester said, "This is likely one of my top flies throughout the year."

E's Cryo Skunk - this is Ethan's variation on the Madsen Skunk pattern and is a wet variety with more flash due to its synthetic components. You can purchase through Catch Fly Fishing dealers including Boyne Outfitters. Black McClain's Drake aka Sweater Fly. Ethan ties a variation of this that floats higher and has a better profile for a dun. It's one of the first out of his fly box for trout on all local streams.

Lynch's Drunk & Disorderly Streamer in burnt orange: Ethan says, "It's easily one of the most responsive articulated streamers available!"

Lynch's White Bellied Mouse: Yes, fly anglers use mouse imitating flies! Winchester said, "This is an absolutely great fly for trophy brown trout at night. Nuff said!"

Chubby Chernobyl in Purple: This is a great late season fly for fishing the headwaters for brook trout. Plenty of nice brown trout taken on this pattern as well.

Speaking of those tremendous trout don't forget the family-friendly 82nd Annual National Trout Festival in Kalkaska from April 25-29. A creel-full of information is available at www.national-troutfestival.com.

Give us a gander next week for Part 2 of the essential six fly patterns for northern Michigan including input from experts who fish the Holy and Trophy water sections of the Au Sable River! Until then, tight lines!
