Ellsworth rolls past Vikings

ELLSWORTH 16-9, ALANSON 1-2

ELLSWORTH — On May 11, both Ellsworth and Alanson brought their entire high school student body to the diamonds as they had a special noon start time to showcase the skills of their respective teams.

The Lancers would take advantage of the home field as they picked up a pair of wins over their Northern Lakes Conference rivals, 16-1 and 9-2.

In game one, Kolby Krosnicki picked up the pitching victory, allowing two hits and striking out eight in the process.

At the plate, Bill Stevens doubled twice with four RBIs, while Jesse Hersha had a double among two hits to go with six RBIs, Malcolm Marlett singled, doubled and knocked in a pair.

Krosnicki, Alex Adams and Collin Ingalls added two hits each and TJ Shultz and Richard Adams singled once apiece.

In game two, Shultz provided the big blow, blasting out a homerun to go with a double and a pair of RBIs, Stevens had two RBIs to go with a two hits, including a double, Alex Adams had a single, double and knocked in three, while Richard Adams, David Nichols and Krosnicki added one hit each.

Stevens earned the pitching win, fanning four, while limiting Alanson to one hit.

Red Devils fall to Sabers

EAST JORDAN 2-5, TC CHRISTIAN 8-6

EAST JORDAN — The East Jordan baseball team dropped a pair of non-league baseball games on May 11, falling 8-2 and 6-5 to TC Christian.

In the opener, Gus Scheier took the loss in relief of Chandler Bartig, who went five strong innings of five hit ball with nine strikeouts. Joe Atwood also found some time on the mound n relief. Bartig was 3-for-3 at the plate with a double, Justin Barnett added an RBI single and AJ Bartlett and Sawyer Thomas each singled.

In game two, Adam Skrocki paced EJ with a single and double with a pair of RBIs, Thomas had a pair of hits with an RBI, Scheier had a pair of hits, Jackson Raymond singled, Freshman Colby Ferguson doubled, freshman Caleb Boyer had an RBI single, and freshman Dawson Olstrom singled in his only at bat.

"We rallied from a 5-2 deficit in the last two innings to tie the game with the winning run stranded on third in the sixth before falling in the seventh inning. Atwood pitched a strong 3 1/3 innings allowing four runs, allowing six hits and striking out four. Bartlett pitched the final 3 2/3, not allowing a hit while striking out five and walking one," East Jordan coach Tom Reid said. "The eventual winning run scored on a curveball that skirted to the backstop that our catcher just couldn't knock down.

"We came into this game not knowing anything about the team we were playing and I knew very little about the JV boys we brought along to fill in for us. By the end of the night, I had two freshmen batting 1.000 and found out that these boys don't have "quit" in their vocabulary. Bartig pitched phenomenally before I had to lift him due to the pitch count rule," Reid added. "Atwood showed a lot of grit on the mound as did AJ. I'd say the future looks pretty bright for us in the next couple years after watching our young guys play. TC was a good ball team and they proved worthy of the challenge!"
