Red Devils run out of time

Late inning surge comes up short

INLAND LAKES 8,
EAST JORDAN 5

INDIAN RIVER — Play until the end.

While that statement is what every coach wants to see from their respective squad, not every squad is able to follow through.

The East Jordan softball team is one of those that teams that do just that. Game in and game out, the Red Devils play until the final out is recorded, whether they have the lead or not.

"Again, I love that my girls fought until the end," EJ coach Meg Kitson said. "We really made the game exciting in the top of the seventh."

East Jordan would fall 8-5 in the Division 4 regional semifinal to defending state champion Inland Lakes on June 9.

Trailing by six runs (8-2) headed into the final inning and with two outs, the Red Devils started to chip away at the Bulldogs lead as Madeline Malpass got things going with a single and one batter later, on the first pitch she saw, senior Karah Dunson sent a moonshot over the outfield wall in straightway center field, cutting the Inland Lakes lead in half.

4-year players and seniors, Abby Peterson, followed by future Lansing Community College commit, Chelsea Gibson connected with back-to-back doubles, to pull East Jordan to within three runs, but that is as close as the Red Devils would get as the Bulldogs recorded the final out to preserve their victory.

The loss would end the Red Devils season, as the team finished the season 20-10, and in the process, helped coach Kitson reach the 400 career win mark.

Inland Lakes held a 3-0 advantage the fourth before added another run on a homer from Lindsay Van Daele for a 4-0 lead. The Red Devils would finally get their first run on the board off the bat of Dunson, as she doubled home Kendall Raymond in the top of the fifth.

The Bulldogs would get that run back in the bottom half of the inning. EJ however, would not go away as they clawed their way for another run in their portion of the sixth, only to have Inland Lakes score three times in the bottom of the frame for an 8-2 lead, setting the stage for a wild and exciting top of the seventh.

had three RBIs to go with her homer run and double; Gibson added three hits, including a pair of doubles and an RBI; Peterson and Raymond both added two-base hits, while Malpass singled and Katelyn Crawford chipped in with an RBI.

The Red Devils graduate eight seniors, including three that have spent their entire career on the varsity, Peterson, Gibson and Dunson.

"We played well and represented our program and school with integrity," coach Kitson added,

Ramblers bow to Braves again

Early deficit too much to overcome

GLADSTONE 6, BOYNE CITY 1

CHARLEVOIX — Fresh off their sixth straight district title, the Boyne City softball team had visions of their first regional crown.

But for the sixth straight season, the Ramblers would not be able to accomplish that feat.

Boyne would fall to Gladstone 6-1 on Saturday, June 9 in the Division 3 regional semifinal in Charlevoix.

It would be the fourth time during the six season span that the Braves would outst the Ramblers in regional play.

Gladstone would jump out early, scoring four times in the first inning, forcing Boyne into early changes and not allowing the Ramblers to gather any momentum throughout the remainder of the contest.

Madison Rosenow took the loss in the circle, with relief help from Josee Behling.

Boyne would load the bases in the top of the final inning and with the heart of the order coming to the plate, were unable to get the key hit as Gladstone closed the door on the game and the season for the Ramblers.

"We had runners on in the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th and 7th innings," BC coach Sandy Clausen said. "We just couldn't get that one more hit to score some runs."

Behling hit a fifth inning solo home run for the Ramblers, while Grace Wells Madison Rosenow each singled.

"We didn't do our job at the plate," Clausen added. "We are a team that hits and today, we didn't/couldn't get the ball away from people, Gladstone played pretty solid defense."

Boyne will graduate key contributors Katie Hoth and Kelsey Hubbard, along with Grace Wells and Taylor Delaney.

Miscues plague Ramblers in regional play

GLADSTONE 6,
BOYNE CITY 4

CHARLEVOIX — The Boyne City baseball team battled back from an early deficit, only to run out of innings as they fell to Gladstone in the Division 4 regional semifinal 6-4 on Saturday, June 9 in Charlevoix.

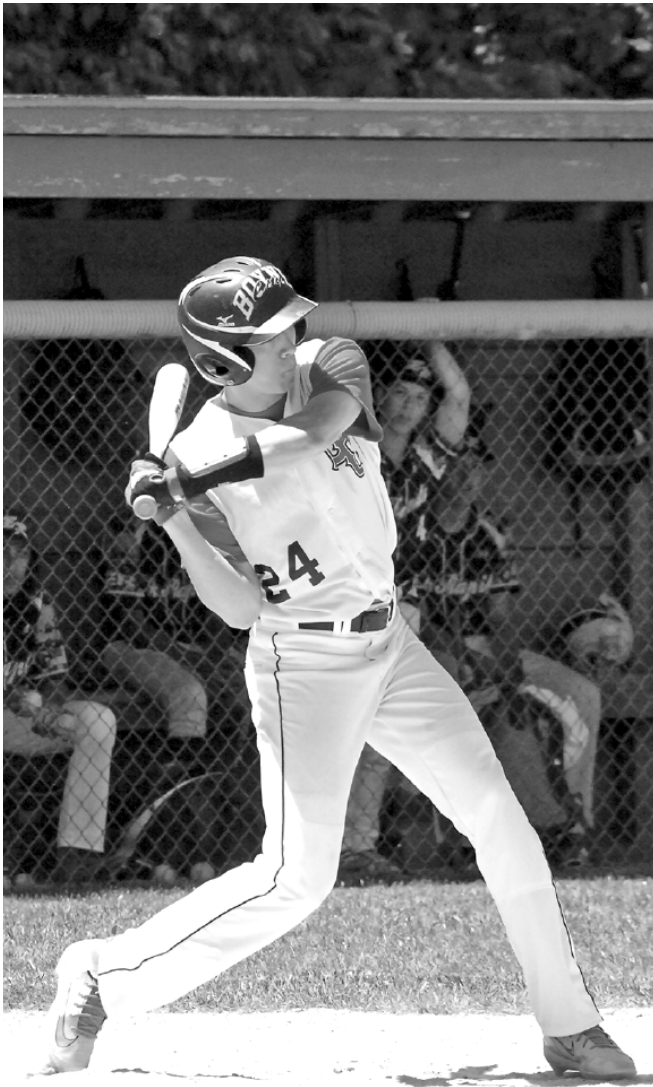

While the Rambler pitchers did what they needed to do, allowing only three hits in the contest, it would be the defense that would allow the Braves to put up five unearned runs against Boyne, too much to overcome.

Gladstone would take an early 4-0 lead through three innings, but a three-run blast off the bat of sophomore Nick Aown in the fourth, would trim that advantage to one.

The Braves would add a pair of runs over the next few innings, taking a 6-3 advantage into the seventh, when Boyne strung together a couple of hits to make things interesting, as junior, Corbin Wilhelm had a base hit, followed by and RBI double off the bat of senior Ethan Hewitt, trimming their deficit to a pair of runs, but Gladstone would get the next batter to pop up and end the threat and the contest.

Boyne will say goodbye to four seniors in Hewitt, Eric Carson, Connor Gabos and Jacob Kelts.

The Ramblers finish the 2018 season with a 18-13 record.
