CHARLEVOIX COUNTY — With another competitive season of volleyball in the books by all of our area teams, challenging each other night in and night out on the court.

With each respective team battling towards league titles, it would be the East Jordan Red Devils that would put together everything in the postseason, coming up just short of a Division 3 district title, but with that result, they would set the bar for future teams in the process.

It's that time of year again when we look to recognize the top area volleyball players across the county, having the opportunity to witness those individuals that put in the extra time in the offseason and with new student-athletes coming into their own, along with the return of veterans that continued to lead both on and off the court, the Charlevoix County News is proud to announce the annual All-Area Volleyball "Dream Team".

As always, after much deliberation, the top area performer was three year varsity member and captain for the Boyne City Ramblers, junior, Annabelle Seelye.

Offensive Player of the Year honors go to Ellie Louiselle of Charlevoix, while Defensive Player of the Year is Jaden McCoy of East Jordan.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Annabelle Seelye, Boyne City #2

Top honors this season go to Rambler junior, Annabelle Seelye. If you had the opportunity to attend a Boyne City match is season, you would see #2 all over the court, directing traffic as needed and helping lead the team.

Primarily as the teams setter, Seelye played in 113 games, delivering 576 assists (a career high). She had 1894 serving attempts, serving at a 91 percent clip, with 45 aces.

Annabelle had 93 kills, attacked at 91 percent, contributed 274 digs, 14 blocks and was voted the Ramblers Most Valuable Player, along with earning first team All-Lake Michigan Conference honors.

"Annaelle is a leader both on and off the court. Being on Varsity since she was a Freshmen in the setting position which is one of the most important roles on the floor has helped her become the leader she is today. She is extremely motivated both on and off the court and does whatever it takes to help her team succeed. Due to the hours that she spend in the gym, she has become a very versatile player that can play anywhere on the court. I am extremely excited to have one last season with her. She is a player that will be leaving a positive impact on our program and will be extremely hard to replace." -Coach Mal-lory Slate

"I couldn't have asked for a more supportive community to grow up in than Boyne City. I started to play volleyball in 5th grade when I was 10 and I have grown so much as a player," Seelye said. "My love for this sport has expanded tremendously. Having good supportive teammates can make a huge difference in the way you play, and over the past three years of high school I have had many different teammates that have all helped me in different aspects of the game."

"The summer going into my freshman year of high school is when I met coach Mal-lory (Slate). She was the person that saw potential in me and wanted to see where I could go, and I couldn't thank her enough for the opportunities she's given me over the years."

"We ended the season only graduating one senior which means we will all be back together again for our final season of our high school career," Seelye added. "I am grateful that I am able to play AAU volleyball so that I can continue to keep playing this amazing sport. A huge thanks to everyone and anyone who has helped me this far!"

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Ellie Louiselle, Charlevoix #15

The 6'3" left-handed senior captain was a four-year varsity player for the Rayders. Ellie has been a force at the net, especially during her senior season. She was primarily hitting left side this season but has been moving to right side as well making a big im-pact with big swings. If you have seen Ellie play, you are aware that she does not get cheated on her powerful attempts.

Louiselle led the Rayders with 403 kills (and averaged over 17 per match during a stretch this season), while making 55 blocks, many of them solo.

Ellie also recorded 55 aces, was 70-of-93 on serve receptions and had 156 digs.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Jaden McCoy, East Jordan #7

McCoy took over the Red Devils libero position this season, following the graduation of former EJ standout, Abby Peterson. The result? McCoy didn't miss a beat.

"In the first days of the season I feared that position, libero, would be a weakness for us but it turned into a strength," coach Gregg Swanson said. "I called her my "Back row Quarterback" and gave her a lot of free rein to position the back row defense. She also perfected the back row hit (spike), one of the hardest things to do in volleyball."

Jaden had 1221 good passes (88 percent accuracy) along with 25 kills from backrow. She also served at 85 percent with 17 aces.

"It means alot (to be recognized), for all of the hard work during the offseason," McCoy said. "I put in the time and effort to become and excel as a volleyball player both physically and mentally."

"Without the support of the team (EJ and coaches) along with my travel team (Avalanche volleyball and coach Kyle Crandell) they all pushed me to be the player I am today, so I thank them all," she added.

"As for the future, I will be playing AAU volleyball once again, putting in the effort to get recognized by as many colleges as I can. After graduation, I plan on attending Grand Valley State University (academically) but will look to tryout for their travel team."

Boyerne City

Brooklyn Fitzpatrick, #4

Another captain for BC, the outside hitter and all-around player took part in 102 contests, managing 210 kills, served at 93 percent, including 49 aces.

Brooklyn also had 218 digs, 10 blocks, 164 serve receptions and passed at an 81 percent clip.

Fitzpatrick was also recognized as a first team All-Lake Michigan Conference member.

Jillian Cain, #7

The Rambler junior came into her own this season as one of Boyne's top offensive and defensive players from her middle hitter position.

Cain played in 111 games, recording 128 kills on offense, but it was the defense that made her a game changer, with 61 blocks, including 47 solo and 55 digs.

Look for big things from her during her senior season.

Gabby Musser, #8

Another member of the Rambler junior class, Gabby played in 112 games, recording 182 kills as an outside hitter.

She served at 94 percent with 47 aces. On defense, she had 258 digs, 24 blocks and 241 serve receptions. Musser finished the season as an 80 percent passer.

Katelyn Gabos #15

The junior libero co-captain played in 113 games for the Rammers this season and earned honorable mention in the Lake Michigan Conference.

Gabos had 324 digs, 364 serve receptions, five blocks and passed at an 84 percent rate.

Katelyn also contributed 67 kills, 29 assists and served at 92 percent with 35 aces.

Charlevoix

Zoe Brodin, #9

Just a sophomore, Brodin is a natural leader on the court.

"Zoe runs the floor in a 5-1 rotation," coach Audra Randall said. "She celebrates with her team on points and then gets back to work on the court. Always trying to improve her game"

Brodin had 502 assists on the season and recorded 43 aces, while also contributing 62 kills.

Defensively she had 243 digs from the right back position.

Abby Paramo, #13

The Rayder junior libero was the main receiver for the team, recording 431 for an 85 percent accuracy. She also had 435 digs.

At the serve line she Charlevoix's biggest server and earned 58 aces, and had 68 kills.

"A very driven and balanced player," coach Randall noted.

East Jordan

Madeline Malpass, #12

Madeline, a senior, came into her own this year, dominating as a middle hitter for the Red Devils.

She had 256 hits with 90 kills to go along with 103 blocks.

"She worked hard over the summer to become the middle hitter we needed," coach Gregg Swanson said.

Amber Gibson, #16

Gibson, the Red Devils setter, had 405 assists with 93 percent setting accuracy to lead the team.

Amber also supplied a little offense with 22 kills.

From the service line, she was a model of consistency at 85 percent with 20 aces.

Jayden Weber, #24

Weber became on the best outside hitters in the area in the last half of the season, as she continued to attack the net.

"She is a natural athlete with an incredible work ethic," coach

Swanson said.

Jayden had 175 hits with 76 kills and five blocks. She also had a serve percentage of 91 with nine aces.

Ellsworth

McKenzie Essenberg, #4

Essenberg, was an outside hitter for Ellsworth. She had 175 serving opportunities, with a 72 percent success rating, while adding 57 aces.

McKenzie had 75 kills to go with 40 digs.

"McKenzie is an all-around good player," coach Yvonne Nachazel said. "She's good on the court with good movement and covering lots of area."

Bahley Glynn, #5

Even though Glynn missed a portion of the season with an injury, she made an impact when on the court.

Bahley served at 75 percent, with 152 total serves and had 49 aces.

She had 165 assists in 548 sets and only committed 10 errors.

"She was a spot on setter," coach Nachazel said. "She definitely was missed by our team after she had her surgery."

Abby Nachazel, #8

A senior, Nachazel made the transition from a setter to a hitter to for a majority of the season until a teammate went down with an injury.

Abby served at 98 percent, with 237 total servers, 56 aces, and only two errors.

Her move to a hitter also paid off for the Lancers as she had 113 kills on the year. Defensively, she made 69 digs.

COACHES OF THE YEAR

Gregg and Janice Swanson, East Jordan

Earning coach of the year honors are co-coaches, Gregg and Jan Swanson of East Jordan. The pair have spent a majority of their time (about 30 years) coaching at the junior varsity level in Boyne City and Charlevoix, before taking over in East Jordan.

In their second season as varsity coaches, the duo took over a team that had only won five games the previous season.

"Thankfully the previous coach left us a lot to build on, in the form of good, well-coached seniors," Gregg said. "With the mix of those seniors and new juniors we were able to double our win total, our record was 10-19-4."

This season, the Red Devils added to that in total, improving their total wins to 15, finishing the season at 15-23-6, with most of their defeats coming at the hands of larger schools or highly ranked Class D teams.

"Most games, regardless of the school, we would be very competitive. In every tournament we played in we made it out of pool play. Overall, what I really liked is the way we improved," Swanson added. "One thing I really enjoyed this year was the fan support our team received from students, family, school staff and the East Jordan community. So many times, no matter where we were, it felt like a home game."

"It's all about the players, I'm not coach of the day without good players. My kids have told me that I'm more like the little dog yapping at the workhorses heels," he added.

Congratulations to all those earning All-Area recognition, and to all student-athletes for putting in the time and effort each time your take the court, we look forward to covering you next fall.
