Kalkaska 45, East Jordan 39

EAST JORDAN — Another close contest for the Lady Red Devils. For the fourth straight game, the East Jordan girls basketball team just seemed to run out of time as they fell for the fourth time in as many games in Lake Michigan Conference action, falling to Kalkaska 45-39 on January 25. The Red Devils led the Blazers 11-10 and then 21-19 at the half, before the Blazers tied the game at 32-32 at the end of the third quarter. "Another game in which we led after the first two quarters and let it slip away in the last stanza," Red Devils coach Steve Hines said. "The last quarter was a tough one for us both offensively and defensively. We couldn't get a defensive stop when we needed it and we became a little stagnant on offense." Jayden Weber would finish with 18 points and five rebounds to lead EJ, while Lilly Black added six. Madeline Malpass grabbed five boards, while Ellie Skrocki, Black and Tia Spence each hauled in four. Molly Kitson dished out four assists for EJ. "We were down late in the game and had to foul and Kalkaska made all four of their final free throws," Hines added. Margaret Stosio led Kalkaska with 22 points, while Kayla Cavanaugh had 11. With the loss, East Jordan slips to 8-5 overall, 2-5 league.

TCSF 47, East Jordan 45

EAST JORDAN — It looked after a fast, first quarter start by the East Jordan girls basketball team, that the Red Devils would be rolling. But in the end, it would be the TC St. Francis girls basketball team walking off the court with a 47-45 Lake Michigan Conference victory on January 22. That fast start, a 16-8 lead after the first quarter, was followed by a solid second quarter that saw EJ up 24-19 at halftime. It would be a 28-21 second half advantage by the visiting Gladiators that was the difference in the contest and kept the Red Devils from their ninth victory of the season. "We started the game really well and seemed to be in control as the first quarter came to an end. A mediocre second quarter still gave us a five point lead at halftime," Red Devils coach Steve Hines said. "Our defense wasn't the same in the second half as TCSF began to heat up and we just didn't execute well enough on the offensive end."

Jayden Weber scored 29 points for East Jordan and Molly Kitson added nine to lead the Red Devils. Weber added 10 rebounds, while Tia Spence had six and Lauren Peterson grabbed five. Kitson finished with three assists and Weber added two. "Jayden (Weber) played a great game and keep us in it down the stretch," Hines noted. "We got the ball back with 15 seconds left and down by two. We had two good shots to end the game but both of them missed as the second one bounced on the rim twice and rolled off as the final horn sounded." "This was a tough one to lose as we led for most of the game, we just seemed to run out of energy as the game progressed." The Gladiators were led by Kam Schaub with 14 points, while Maddy Wierda had 11 and Lauren Tocco added 10.

Ramblers bounce back with convincing win over Grayling

Boyne City 45, Grayling 27

BOYNE CITY — The Boyne City basketball team ended a four game skid on January 22, with a convincing 45-27 Lake Michigan Conference win over Grayling.

Ramblers sophomore Aidan Brehm had the hot hand, hitting four triples from downtown on his way to dropping 20 points against the Vikings.

"Aidan played great," Boyne City coach Nick Redman said. "He had an off night last night and asked if he could shoot before school today with Coach (Tim) Hardy. I texted him last night and told him I believed in him and the team needed him to make plays, (I'm) happy for him."

The final score didn't come easy as the Ramblers struggled to find the bottom of the net early on, only able to connect on two free throws the entire first quarter as they trailed 6-2 as the horn sounded.

Boyne would find an offensive groove once the ball was inbounded in the second quarter, as Brehm caught fire, leading the charge and scoring 10 points during the frame and also help lead a defensive charge that saw the Ramblers outscore Grayling 19-2 in the quarter for a 21-8 advantage at the half.

"I was worried about our legs after playing last night (in Elk Rapids)," coach Redman noted. "it showed early offensively, we couldn't make a shot in the first quarter. Our team defensive effort was outstanding and was difference in game."

Following the intermission, the Ramblers would outscore the Vikings 24-19 over the final two quarters, as they ran away with the victory.

"Really happy for the guys they worked their butts off to earn that win," Redman added. "Proud of team for the way they stuck together."

Also for the Ramblers, Max Vondra finished with nine points and Trevor King chipped in with seven.

Mason Manning led Grayling with nine points.

gan Conference game in the scorebook, the two teams were able to meet on January 21.

The contest was nip and tuck for the first eight minutes of the game, with the teams battling to an 8-8 deadlock at the end of the first quarter.

A 27-13 scoring advantage during the second quarter by the Elks would create enough separation, that the Ramblers would have to attempt to play catch-up the remainder of the contest as Elk Rapids led 35-22 at the break.

"We got off to another good start but our missed layups and free throws in second quarter hurt us," Boyne coach Nick Redman said. "Elk played a great second quarter, (Preston) Ball and (Jack) Hawkins made a LOT of plays."

The Elks would carry a 53-37 lead into the fourth quarter.

Ball led Elk Rapids with 22, while Hawkins added 19. "Proud of our effort and attitude and the way the guys kept fighting," coach Redman added. "Pete Calcaterra and Trevor King had good all around games tonight."

King would finish with 13 points, while Calcaterra chipped in with 12 to lead the Ramblers. Max Vondra added 10 and Jakob Steinhoff had six.

Red Devils go 1-2 over week

Kalkaska 49,
East Jordan 36

EAST JORDAN — A slow start to the game by the Red Devils didn't help as they tried to battle back in the second half, falling to the visiting Blazers 49-36 in Lake Michigan Conference play on January 25.

"We started slow and had to play from behind the whole game," Red Devils coach Nate Dzwik said. "We played a step slow in the first half and didn't do what we needed to do to score some buckets and fouled entirely too much. (We) came out with some great energy and effort in the second half but had to expend so much energy trying to get even that we didn't have anything left at the end."

Kalkaska led at the quarter breaks 11-8, 24-17 and 34-30.

Jackson Raymond finished with 11 points, six rebounds and three assists to lead EJ, while Levi Pepin added eight points and five rebounds and Jack Cross had five points and six boards.

"We didn't do a great job of executing at the end of the game, we missed a bunch of shots, had a couple of poorly timed turnovers and got lost on defense at really pivotal times," coach Dzwik added. "Kalkaska did a great job of making free throws and taking care of the ball. In all reality as a team when we go 4-11 from the free throw line and they 25-41, that really was the difference in the game."

"Jackson (Raymond) carried us again, Jack (Cross) did a great job of working hard in the post and Colby Ferguson continued to give some really quality minutes. Colby is a really smart player that tends to be in the right spot and in the past week has started to get more and more confidence."

TCSF 55,
East Jordan 31

TRAVERSE CITY — An early deficit to Traverse City St. Francis had the Red Devils scrambling, as EJ fell to the Gladiators 55-31 in Lake Michigan Conference play, ending East Jordan's three game winning streak.

TCSF led at the quarter breaks 14-6, 33-12 and 47-22.

"St. Francis is really good and that is a really tough trip on the second night of a back to back," East Jordan coach Nate Dzwik said. "They presented some really tough match ups for us, but headed into the night we felt pretty good about them. We were able to handle their pressure to the point of we won the battle of turnovers 25-19."

AJ Bartlett finished with nine points and four rebounds to pace the Red Devils, while Jackson Raymond and Colby Ferguson added five points each.

Raymond chipped in with seven boards and three assists.

"While we didn't turn the ball over a bunch they forced us into a whole lot of quick shots that were not what we really wanted in our game plan," Dzwik noted. "They were able to beat us to spots on both ends of the floor and we really struggled to get execute anything we wanted.

East Jordan 62,
Gaylord St. Mary 50

EAST JORDAN — The East Jordan boys basketball team won for the third time in as many outings, as they turned a close contest into a non-conference victory, defeating Gaylord St. Mary 62-50 on January 21.

A big 20 point, seven rebound effort by Cooper Stevenson paced the Red Devils, while AJ Bartlett added 16 points and four boards and Jackson Raymond chipped in with a seven point, eight rebound five assist effort.

"We started really slow which we had talked to the team about and tried to get them prepared for a Monday game with TCSF the next day," EJ coach Nate Dzwik said. "We did a really good job of taking control in the second and third quarters but St. Mary's did a really good job of hanging around and keeping the game really competitive and close."

Stevenson played one of his best games of the season, controlling the inside for East Jordan before going down late in the contest with a severe ankle injury.

"AJ (Bartlett) did a great job of knocking down shots and getting to the free throw line and went 4-6 from the line in the fourth quarter to help lock up the game."

St. Mary held a 17-14 advantage after the first quarter, before East Jordan responded with a 30-17 run over the two middle frames and finished the game with an 18-16 edge in the final quarter.

"We had a season low 12 turnovers which was key for us as St. Mary's does a great job of valuing each possession," coach Dzwik noted. "This was a game in which everything we have been working was put to the test and the kids passed. They went out and finished the game from the free throw line, made shots throughout the game, won the rebounding battle and controlled the tempo all night long."

GRAYLING — Coach Julie Redman was a little concerned coming into the contest with having played the previous night.

But the Rambler girls basketball team came out ready to play, running out to a 23-0 first quarter lead as they defeated the Vikings 57-32 in Lake Michigan Conference play on January 22.

"I was a little worried after having a game Monday night, but the girls came out on fire defensively," coach Redman noted.

Boyer would extend their first quarter lead to 35-4 at the half and cruised over the final two frames to the win.

Brooklyn Fitzpatrick and Josee Behling finished with 13 points each, with Fitzpatrick grabbing eight rebounds and Behling adding seven.

ELLSWORTH — The Ellsworth girls basketball team capped off a big week with their second straight route, this time defeating Wolverine 56-26 in front of the home crowd on January 24.

The Lancers held an 18-12 lead after one quarter of play and extended that to a 38-21 advantage at the half and were up 44-28 as they entered the fourth quarter.

Alexis Danforth finished with 17 points and 11 rebounds to lead Ellsworth, while Abby Nachazel had 14 points and six boards and McKenzie Essenberg added 11 points and 10 rebounds.

Judy Veldboom grabbed six boards and made three steals.

Ellsworth 52,
Vanderbilt 10

VANDERBILT — A 16-2 first quarter scoring advantage was all it took to get the Lancer girls basketball team rolling as they cruised to a 52-10 Northern Lakes Conference win over Vanderbilt on January 22.

Alexis Danforth scored 10 of her 20 points in the first eight minutes of play to help Ellsworth to the victory. Judy Veldboom also added 20 points for the Lancers.

Ellsworth outscored the YellowJackets 36-8 over the final three quarters of play.

Danforth also grabbed 10 rebounds, while Abby Nachazel had eight boards and McKenzie Essenberg added six, while Veldboom made three steals for the Lancers.

DNR's Piccolo earns Conservationist award

The Michigan State Chapter of the National Wild Turkey Federation has named Brian Piccolo, a 15-year employee with the Michigan Department of Natural Resources Wildlife Division, as Outstanding Conservationist of the Year for 2018.

"I can't think of a better person than Brian Piccolo for the 2018 Outstanding Conservationist of the Year," said DNR Wildlife Division Chief Russ Mason. "Along with hard work and results, Brian brings passion to his job." Piccolo has worked as a wildlife biologist in the northeast Lower Peninsula for 15 years.

reach its goals to conserve habitat for the wild turkey and preserve turkey hunting heritage. "Brian has gone above and beyond throughout the last few years to ensure that our collaborative projects, partially funded through the DNR's Wildlife Habitat Grant Program, have been successful," said NWTF

Michigan/Indiana district biologist Ryan Boyer. "Our partnerships, projects and successes wouldn't have been possible without him. He is well-deserving of this award." Piccolo's work to lead workshop planting days, reach out to partners and willingness to meet contractors on site to answer questions was noticed and appreciated, according to Boyer. He worked after hours, assisted on weekends and was pivotal in helping the NWTF develop a list of projects to propose for the DNR Wildlife Habitat Grant Program.

As a result, NWTF received three Wildlife Habitat Grants that touched over 1,044 acres of habitat. The work included annual food plot and hunter walking trail plantings; hundreds of mast trees like crabapple, serviceberry and white oak planted; and acres of young forest created through completed timber sales.

"This is such an honor to have one of our employees recognized for his contributions by a major conservation partner such as the National Wild Turkey Federation," said Al Stewart, upland game bird specialist for the DNR. "This award reflects positively on the employee, and it confirms that key organizations appreciate quality employees who get work done at the ground level like Brian Piccolo." Art Pelon, president of the Michigan State Chapter of the NWTF, also talked about the significance of this award. "This is an especially important tribute to bestow upon a wildlife professional because recipients are chosen for this award by NWTF members in conjunction with recommendations from their wildlife employee peers," Pelon said. "We feel privileged to be able to partner with Michigan's internationally recognized biologists and wildlife management leaders on conservation programs in this state." The National Wild Turkey Federation, an international organization involved in such recognitions of notable wildlife professionals in natural resources agencies, is dedicated to the conservation of wild turkeys and the preservation of hunting heritage.
