BOYNE CITY 62, CHARLEVOIX 49

BOYNE CITY — The Boyne City boys basketball team jumped out early and never looked back on February 1, downing Charlevoix 62-49, as they avenged an earlier loss this season to the Rayders.

"Great atmosphere tonight in another great rivalry game," Boyne City coach Nick Redman said. "The last time we played, I felt like Charlevoix wanted it more so I was proud of our guys because they responded and wanted it more tonight. Happy for the team, they are working hard and improving and playing good basketball."

Boyne took a 16-9 lead after the first quarter as Pete Calcaterra scored seven of his 13 points, before the Ramblers extended their lead to 26-15 at half-time and were comfortably ahead 44-26 as the two teams headed into the final eight minutes of regulation.

Trevor King led Boyne with 15 points and played outstanding defense on the Rayder perimeter players, while Dillon Sulak added 13 and Aidan Brehm scored 10.

"Pete (Calcaterra) played tough tonight, he got us going in first half," coach Redman added. "Max Vondra did a great job on the boards tonight. Outstanding (team) defensive effort."

Jacob Mueller who was limited in the first half do to foul trouble, finished with a game-high 22 points, including 10 in the fourth quarter as he single-handedly attempted to bring the Rayders back. Ben Lentz added 11 and Evan Solomon finished with nine.

Rayders get big night from Stuck as they hold off Ramblers

CHARLEVOIX 57, BOYNE CITY 44

BOYNE CITY — Charlevoix junior, Elise Stuck scored a game-high 34 points to lead the visiting Rayders to a 57-44 Lake Michigan Conference victory over Boyne City on February 1.

The Rayders weren't able to shake the Ramblers for the first 16 minutes of play and held only a 30-22 lead at the half, with both teams making runs back and forth at each other as neither team would allow the other to get into any type of flow.

In the third quarter, the Rayders would change their game plan and establish Stuck on the inside and it worked as she scored the first eight points of the quarter from the the paint.

Charlevoix would take their largest lead of the game at 20 points during the fourth quarter, but Boyne City just wouldn't quit, battling back.

The Ramblers got nine points from Reagan May, while Josee Behling added eight points, Avery Stadt added six; Molly Day five, and Jordan Noble and Katelyn Gabos each added four.

"We were down eight at the half and they only outscored us by five in the second half," Boyne coach Julie Redman said. "We need to eliminate turnovers."

Addie Nagel and Abby Cunningham both scored eight points for the Rayders, while Emma Lemerand had four.

Red Devils fall at Elk Rapids 40-28

ELK RAPIDS 40, EAST JORDAN 28

ELK RAPIDS — A slow start for the East Jordan girls basketball team was too much to overcome as they fell to Elk Rapids 40-28 in Lake Michigan Conference play on February 1.

The Elks led 12-3 at the end of the first quarter and were up 16-10 at the half and 26-19 after three quarters of play.

"Our defense kept us in the game as we struggled at the offensive end," Red Devils coach Steve Hines said. "We just couldn't seem to get it going offensively tonight, Elk Rapids defense contributed to some of that." Jayden Weber finished with 15 points and four rebounds, while Molly Kitson added five points.

Tia Spence laured in six rebounds and Lauren Peterson had four. "We shot 23 percent from the field and less than 50 percent from the (free throw) line and we were still in it thanks to our defense. We are back home this next week and looking forward to turning things around and playing a little better basketball."

Kendall Brown scored 10 for the Elks, with Shelby Scott adding eight and Olivia Travis seven.

The Red Devils slip to 8-6 overall, 2-6 league.

Elk offense too much for Red Devils

ELK RAPIDS 73, EAST JORDAN 33

ELK RAPIDS — Too much fire power for the home team was too much too much to handle for East Jordan as they fell at Elk Rapids 73-33 in a Lake Michigan Conference game on February 1.

After a relatively even first half, the Elks turned it up in the final 16 minutes of play, outscoring the Red Devils 43-10 over the final two frames to come away with the victory.

Even though EJ only trailed 30-23 at the half, Red Devils coach Nate Dzwik thought they could have done better.

"A tough night, we started slow in the first quarter and lacked energy," Dzwik said. "They did everything that we expected with pressuring us and pushing the tempo and we didn't do a really good job of executing our press break and got beat back for a few easy buckets. We did a good job of cutting the lead to seven headed into the half with some solid defense and moved the ball around offense. We struggled in the first half with foul trouble because we were always one step late in our rotations."

The Elks raced out of the gates in the second half with a quick 7-0 run and never looked back.

"We tried to speed up and play at their pace and that is not our style and we struggle when we have to play quick," the coach added. "We had guys that tried to do too much and we lost our focus. I think we played hard throughout the game but we need to play smart and hard."

Jackson Raymond finished with nine points, 12 rebounds and two blocks, while Jack Cross added nine and five rebounds.

Ethan Zeeryp chipped in with seven points, rebounds and two assists.

Ellsworth led 17-11 after the first quarter of play and then opened the game up with a 23-8 run in the second quarter for a 40-19 advantage at the half and were in full control 52-31 headed into the fourth.

Atlas Marlatt paced the Lancers with 17 points, six rebounds and five assists, while Ethan Tornga added 13 points and 11 boards.

Michael Clees added six points, five assists and four steals and Kevin Dickinson chipped in with six points and five rebounds.

ELLSWORTH 65, BOYNE FALLS 21
