Solid team play leads Ramblers past Blazers

BOYNE CITY 59,
KALKASKA 44

BOYNE CITY — The Ramblers were looking for some offense from other players.

On February 5, Katelyn Gabos stepped right up and gave it to them.

Gabos finished with a season high 21 points as she led Boyne City to a convincing 59-44 Lake Michigan Conference win over Kalkaska.

The Ramblers and Blazers ended the first quarter knotted at 14-14, before Boyne pulled ahead in the second with a 26-8 scoring advantage as Gabos led the way with 12 points during the run, taking a 40-22 lead into the half.

“Great team win,” Boyne coach Julie Redman said. “The girls are playing well together.”

Josee Behling also had 11 points and eight boards for the Ramblers, Avery Stadt finished with seven points, Brooklyn Fitzpatrick had six and Reagan May added five.

Coach Redman also noted the play of Jordan Noble as the sophomore put constant pressure on the Kalkaska guards, resulting in five steals, while also chipping in five assists on the offensive end and scoring three points.

Lady Rayders roll past Glads 57-30

CHARLEVOIX 57,
TCSF 30

TRAVERSE CITY — Another team that keeps on rolling.

Despite all of the setbacks over the last few weeks, between games having to be rescheduled and school and practices being cancelled due to the weather, the Charlevoix girls basketball team never seems to miss a beat.

On February 5, when they were able to get back on the hardwood, it looked as if nothing had affected their normal routine as the Rayders rolled to a 57-30 Lake Michigan Conference victory over visiting TC St. Francis.

With the win, the Rayders improved to 10-2 on the season, including 9-0 in league play.

Charlevoix jumped out to a 12-3 advantage following the first eight minutes of play and opened the game up 29-13 at halftime and were in full control 42-22 as the team entered the fourth quarter.

Leading the Rayders on the night was Elise Stuck with 23 points, four steals and four assists, while Taylor Petrosky added 15 points and five boards.

Addie Nagel also chipped in with six points, eight rebounds and five assist.

Offense clicks as East Jordan beats Grayling

EAST JORDAN 47,
GRAYLING 29

EAST JORDAN — On Tuesday, February 5, the East Jordan girls basketball team got things going early and often as they cruised to a 47-29 Lake Michigan Conference victory over Grayling.

“We did a lot of things better tonight which was led by our effort at the defensive end,” East Jordan coach Steve Hines said. “We were able to control the boards and limit Grayling’s second chance opportunities.”

The Red Devils were out in front 10-5 after one quarter and 26-13 at the half, before taking a 35-25 advantage into the fourth quarter.

Everyone got into the scorebook scored for the Lady Red Devils, led by Gabby Snyder with 12 points, while Jayden Weber added 10 and Tia Spence had eight.

“We got off to a good start as five different players scored in the first quarter, we were a little better balanced at the offensive end tonight,” Hines noted. “Gabby Snyder came off the bench tonight and played a complete game at both ends of the floor. Gabby shot the ball well from inside the arc, outside and at the free throw line.”

Weber also grabbed 12 boards, while Madeline Malpass had seven and Lauren Peterson and Spence had five each. Angie Rowbotham also made three steals for EJ.

With the win, EJ improves to 9-6 overall, 3-6 in league play.

Boys Basketball

Lancers continue to dominate Northern Lakes

ELLSWORTH 85, MACKINAW CITY 57

MACKINAW CITY — Another game, another Lancer boys basketball victory.

On February 5, the Ellsworth boys basketball team traveled to Mackinaw City and after a tight first eight minutes of play, the Lancers got things under control and went on to an 85-57 Northern Lakes Conference basketball victory.

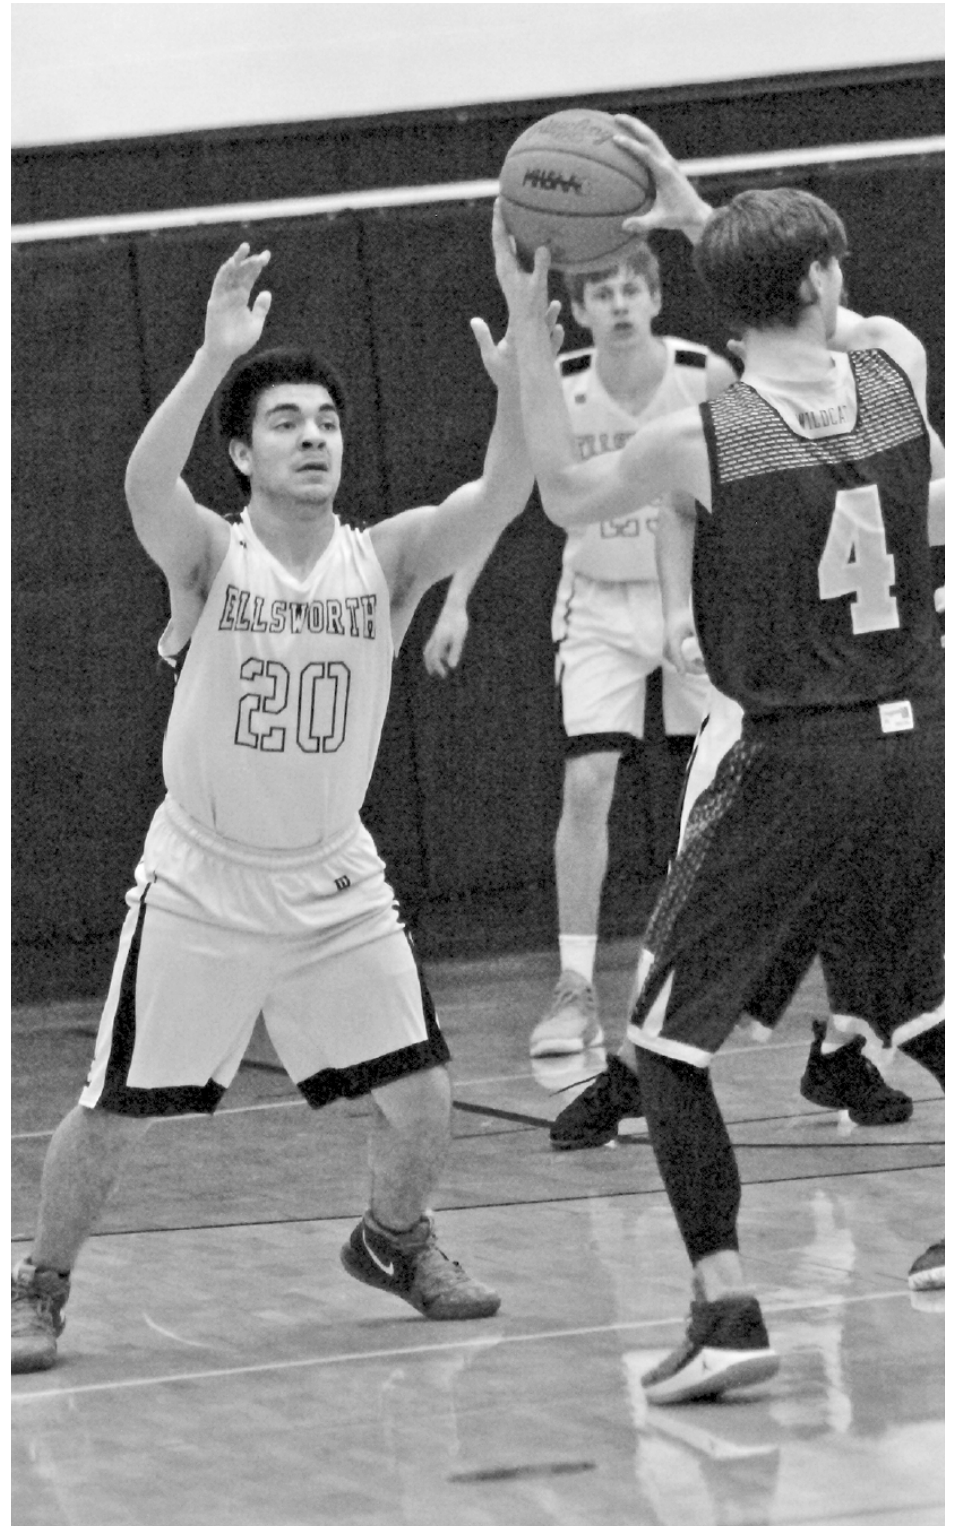

“Good game tonight, tough first quarter, (before we were) able to gap out to 13 at half,” Lancer coach Jarrod Steenwyk said. “(It was) back and forth in the third, with us able to make a good run and more of the same I’m the fourth.”

Coach Steenwyk credited Michael Clees with a great defensive game, recording three steals and grabbing nine rebounds while scoring eight points.

Atlas Marlatt netted 30 points, while hauling in four rebounds, making four assists and adding three steals. Ethan Tornga chipped in with 14 points, 10 boards and four assists and Kevin Dickinson added 10 points and seven rebounds as nine Lancers reached the scoring column.

“Atlas had the offensive game we knew he was capable of and found some rhythm!” coach Steenwyk noted. “Great team win with guys like Brayden (Steenwyk) and Lucas (Sweet) coming off the bench and the Adams boys (Richards and Alex) along with Isaiah (Romeyn) putting on some pressure. Ethan (Tornga) and Kevin (Dickinson) brought the consistency with big boards and put backs when needed.”

The Lancers led at the quarter breaks, 19-14, 43-30 and 64-45.

Ramblers escape Kalkaska on O.T. winner by Calcaterra

BOYNE CITY 70, KALKASKA 68 OT

KALKASKA — A win is a win. But an overtime win somehow seems a little more satisfying, especially on the road.

That is exactly what the Boyne City boys basketball team got on February 5 as Dillon Sulak made a steal and pushed the ball ahead to fellow guard Pete Calcaterra, and the junior pulled up and connected on a midrange jumper with one tick left on the clock, giving the Ramblers a two point advantage and ultimately as 70-68 Lake Michigan Conference victory over the host Blazers.

“Pete is really starting to step up and play tougher,” Boyne coach Nick Redman said. “He had a great game I’m happy for him.”

Kalkaska led 10-9 after the first quarter and were up 31-23 at the half, before heading into the fourth up 48-45.

“The team showed great mental toughness tonight coming back from down eight at half,” coach Redman noted. “Really proud of them for the way they fought in second half, outstanding team effort again tonight. We had A LOT of guys step up.”

After battling back the entire night, the Ramblers took a 60-58 lead with five seconds to go in regulation, but the Blazers were able to tie the game on a pair of tosses from the charity stripe and send the contest into the extra session.

Calcaterra would finish with 19 points to lead Boyne, while Trevor King had 14, Max Vondra added 11, Aidan Brehm and Jakob Steinhoff chipped in with eight and seven points, respectively.

“John Paul Moody, King, Vondra, Brehm, Steinhoff and Sulak all played very well,” the coach added.

With the win, Boyne improved to 9-6 overall, 5-4 in league play.

Rayders fall to Gladiators

TCSF 61, CHARLEVOIX 57

CHARLEVOIX — Despite a strong second half effort, the Charlevoix boys basketball team could not overcome a first half deficit and fell to Traverse City St. Francis 61-57 on February 5.

Coach Matt Stuck noted the team got off to a slow start and fell behind by 16 after the opening quarter and even though they battled hard in the second frame, they still trailed by 17 entering the half.

Following some half-time adjustments, the Rayders cut the St. Francis lead to 13 headed into the final eight minutes of regulation before outscoring St. Francis by nine in the final quarter, coming up just shy of a complete comeback.

Ben Lentz and Evan Solomon each finished with 14 points to lead Charlevoix, while Jacob Mueller had 11, Caleb Stuck added seven, Moose Mueller had four, Alan Ritter three and Cole Wright and Nate Pearl each added a basket.

With the loss, the Rayders slip to 7-7 overall on the season.

Red Devils falter at hand of Vikings 50-31

GRAYLING 50, EAST JORDAN 31

GRAYLING — When you travel to Grayling, everyone knows they will be in for a physical battle.

That would be no different for the East Jordan boys basketball team as the Red Devils were beat by the Vikings 50-31 on February 5 in a Lake Michigan Conference contest.

“This was a tough and physical game that you expect when you go to Grayling,” East Jordan coach Nate Dzwik said. “They played really hard and with a ton of energy and we didn’t match that early on. We got down big early and fought to get the game back to a single possession with two minutes left in first half and they went on a run to end the half that really deflated us.”

The Red Devils trailed 13-7 after the first quarter and were behind 28-17 at intermission.

“We had too many turnovers that led to layups, credit to them for pressuring us and we just didn’t handle it well,” the coach added. “We made a couple of runs in the third quarter but never got the lead under seven and started to force shots and passes that weren’t there and led to more easy shots and layups for them. This was a game that we knew we had to play well and together, we did neither and that was disappointing.”

The Vikings continued to build on their halftime lead and led 40-24 at the end of the third.

Jackson Raymond paced the Red Devils with 13 points, eight rebounds, three assists and three blocks, while AJ Bartlett added nine points, five boards and two assists and Cooper Stevenson chipped in with four points and nine rebounds.

With the weather in Northern Michigan being less than cooperative over the past three weeks, many games have had to be rescheduled and the Red Devils Friday night matchup with the Rams would be no different.

“We were really looking forward to a rematch with Harbor on Friday (Feb 8) - the kids were focused and were working really hard after the game,” Dzwik noted. “I hope that carries over the weekend. We were excited for these next three games as they were going to be really tough and an exciting week of basketball but with the weather changing Harbor to Monday and traveling to Boyne on Tuesday, both of whom are playing great right now, it’s going to be an absolute grind for two days and hopefully recover to get ready for another grind out game with Charlevoix on Friday.”

“The kids are going to have to play really hard and smart while the coaching staff is going to have manage minutes and rotations as we try to find a rhythm and rotation as we enter the stretch run of the season.”

MUNISING — The MHSAA held their Individual District Tournament in Munising on Saturday, February 9.

The Charlevoix Rayders watched as three wrestlers advanced to regionals.

At 171 lbs. senior Max Hinkle defeated Gabe Cole of Munising in the first round in a 9-4 decision to advance to the semi-finals where he defeated Greg Paquin of St. Ignace by fall in 4:51. In the finals Hinkle lost a close match to Ishpeming's Aleric Martin 4-0, earning a second place finish.

At 160 lbs. Seth Migda won his first match in the single-elimination rat-tail round defeating Gabriel Latour-Tovers of Rudyard to continue on in the championship bracket. He then defeated Cameron DePew of Newberry by fall in 2:42. Migda then lost in the Semi-Finals to Isaiah Crawford of Pellston moving him to the consolation bracket where he defeated Myles Carey of Iron Mountain by fall in 4:26 and then defeated Cameron Depew of Newberry a second time 17-11 to take third place.

At 112 lbs. Jordan Cebulski initially lost to Joe De-rocha of Ishpeming Westwood moving to the consolation bracket where he defeated Robert Phillips of Newberry 7-4 and Matt Valletta of St. Ignace 9-1 to advance to the consolation finals where he lost to Aiden Fry of Onaway to take fourth place.

"Proud of all of the wrestlers, many lost in the blood round in close matches to have their season brought to an end," coach Mike Hinkle said. "As for the regional qualifiers, Max Hinkle is getting back to form after being injured for a significant part of the season. Defeating first-seed Greg Paquin was big moment. Seth Migda had a great day and showed significant fortitude, making it out of the rat-tail to the semi-finals, then working through the consolation bracket to eventually place third. Jordan Cebulski a sophomore continues to grow and earned a regional slot for the second time, a big accomplishment for a sophomore with only two years of wrestling experience."

Individual results were as follows:

Jordan Cebulski, 112 lbs. 2-2, Fourth Place
Hayden Prevo, 130 lbs. 0-2
Trevor McCallum, 145 lbs. 0-1
Dimitri Bell, 152 lbs. 1-2
Seth Migda, 160 lbs. 4-1, Third Place
Max Hinkle, 171 lbs. 2-1, Second Place
Ryan Henry, 215 lbs. 1-2
Alex Kwapisz, 285 lbs. 1-2

On February 16th the Qualifiers will be competing in the regional tournament right at Charlevoix High School. The event begins at 9:30 a.m.

College Signings

Five Ramblers to take their talents to the collegiate level

BOYNE CITY — Another signing day, and another group of Boyne City athletes that will be taking their talents to the next level as they will be continuing their athletic and academic careers.

On Wednesday, February 6, Ethan Hills, Corben Wilhelm, Emily Sterling, Jacob Dean and Sophia Morais signed their letters of intent to play collegiately.

Hills (Saginaw Valley State) Wilhelm (Olivet) and Morias (Alma) will all be playing on their respective sports (baseball/softball) diamonds, Sterling (Cross Country) will be running through the woods and open fields, and Dean (Soccer) will be weaving his way through opponents on a manicured lawn.

Emily Sterling, Cross Country, Northern Michigan University

When asked what attracted her to NMU, Sterling answered, "I love the area and all the hiking and biking opportunities that are around there. I never really considered the possibility that I could be running on their team until I saw them compete at a meet our cross country team went to and I realized that I had the potential to be able to run at the next level."

Sterling took the opportunity to talk to their coach and some of the team and she felt comfortable right away and knew it was the place for her.

Emily credited her teammates for their support over the last few years in helping her get to where she is at today, especially Avery Stadt who would join her for 6am runs during the summer months and pushing her during races. She also thanked coach Andy Place for taking the CC team to larger meets, giving the team the opportunity to see college teams, including NMU compete.

Sterling hit a goal of hers this past CC season, qualifying for the state meet with a 5th place regional finish, and her spring will be filled with double duty as she runs track and plays soccer.

While at NMU, she currently plans to go into the Pre-Vet program and majoring in Biology.

Corben Wilhelm, Baseball, Olivet College

The senior infielder also choose his school based on the fact that "it instantly felt like a second home. When I toured they made me feel like I was already part of their family, even though I still had a year until I would be there."

Wilhelm credited his parents with driving him to achieve his dream. "They would take me down to the fields almost every night in the summer or if not the field, they would play catch with me in our backyard every night."

Corben has been a fixture on the Rambler diamond the last few seasons, getting moved up to the varsity during his freshman year. His .425 average last season and solid defensive play earned him Charlevoix County News Player of the Year honors and his goal for this season is to eclipse the .400 mark.

At this time, Wilhelm plans on studying Biology with concentration on Pre-med as he works towards his goal of a physical therapy degree.

Corben also wanted to thank everyone that helped get him to where he is at this point, all of his coaches, his parents and fellow players that pushed him to worker harder in practice.

Sophia Morais, Softball, Alma College

With the recent success of the Rambler softball program and with many alumni already taking their talents to the next level, Morais becomes the next player in the program to follow in their footsteps.

I've played with a majority of the varsity team (both past and present) since elementary school, Morais gave credit to those before her. "Seeing all of these great athletes go on to the next level had solidified my goal of wanting to get there, which I have finally accomplished."

Morais fell extremely accomplished to have aided the winning of two consecutive district titles (during her varsity time) and with some more hard work, the Ramblers will be gunning for another.

Sophia has a goal this season of being an All-State selection, surpassing her honorable mention nod this past season.

Her plan of study while attending Alma will become a physical therapist, earning her bachelor's degree, majoring in Biology.

Jacob Dean, Soccer, Alma College

Dean choose Alma due to the fact that he wanted to play soccer at the collegiate level, but more importantly, he wanted to get the highest education possible.

Jacob plays soccer during both the spring and fall seasons for Petoskey and Boyne, and credits the coaches for pushing him to be his very best.

He earned All-conference, district, region and All-State honors this past year, boosting his confidence. "The sky's the limit for accomplishments for me to achieve."

At this time, Jacob is undecided as to what field he plans to direct his studies.

Ethan Hills, Saginaw Valley State University

Hills became a name that most opposing coaches grew to know quite rapidly as his overpowering fastball and game management skills since his sophomore season.

He led the area over the past two years with ERA's of 0.91 and 0.54, striking out a combined 208 batters in the process.

"My biggest accomplishment in high school was holding a 0.54 ERA throughout the season, but I couldn't have done it without the guys behind me," Hills said. "I expect to do the same this year and become even more efficient on the mound and at bat."

"There are so many people that have helped me along this journey and they will never know how much they have helped me to become a better player, but most importantly a better man."

Hills was drawn to SVSU, not only for the program, but the family atmosphere as well as the facilities.

"It reminded me alot like home," Ethan noted. "Everybody was friendly and the coaches and players treated me like any other kid on the team."

At this time Hills is looking to major in a branch of pre-med or secondary education.
