BOYNE CITY 66, HARBOR SPRINGS 53

HARBOR SPRINGS — With the game knotted at 50-50 with just over 4:30 to play in the contest, the Boyne City Ramblers boys basketball team went on a 13-0 run, creating more than enough breathing room as they went on to beat Harbor Springs 66-53 on February 22 in a Lake Michigan Conference contest. "Really happy with resiliency team showed tonight," Rambler coach Nick Redman said. "Guys gave it everything they had in fourth, finished strong with a 24 point quarter."

Up until that point, the game was pretty tight throughout a majority of the night as the Rams took a 12-6 first quarter lead, only to see Boyne storm back with a 25 point second quarter and grab a 31-24 advantage at the half.

Harbor wouldn't go quietly as they raced out of the third quarter on fire and would eventually carry a 43-42 lead into the final eight minutes of regulation.

"Harbor did great job offensive rebounding we need to improve in blocking out," Redman added. "TK (Trevor King) and Shu (Dillon Sulak) really changed game with their defensive pressure."

Pete Calcaterra led the Ramblers with 17 points, scoring 13 in the first half, while King would finish the night with 16 points and six steals and Sulak added 13, with Max Vondra netting seven and Aidan Brehm chipping in six.

"Nice to finish season with win on road against good team," the coach noted.

The Rams got 15 points from David Harrell, while Tyler Rushing added 10.

Boyne offense shows up early against Rams

BOYNE CITY 46, HARBOR SPRINGS 27

HARBOR SPRING — The Boyne City girls basketball team got off to a fast start and never looked back as they rolled to a convincing Lake Michigan Conference win over Harbor Springs on February 22.

The Ramblers used a 18-6 first quarter to set the tone early on both ends of the floor as they got offensive contributions from nine different players, with five girls scoring six or more points.

Junior Avery Stadt finished with nine points to lead the team, while fellow juniors Josee Behling and Brooklyn Fitzpatrick had eight and sophomore Jordan Noble added eight as well, with junior Katelyn Gabos chipping in six.

The Ramblers kept the Rams off balance throughout the entire contest, but especially the first half as their full court pressure defense did not allow Harbor to get into any sort of rhythm.

Boyne would lead the Rams 28-7 at halftime, as the Ramblers held Harbor to only one point in the second stanza.

Despite their leading scorer and point guard Madi Bazilla leaving the game in the second quarter with an ankle injury, Harbor Springs would outscore the Ramblers 20-17 in the second half, but unable to overcome the massive lead that Boyne had built.

Emma Wagner would finish with 11 points to lead Harbor.

Lady Lancers pull through against Harbor Light

ELLSWORTH 57, HARBOR LIGHT 45

HARBOR SPRINGS — On a night where the whistles weren't quite going their way, the Ellsworth girls basketball team dug deep and pulled out a 57-45 Northern Lakes Conference win over Harbor Light Christian on February 22.

"We experienced a little foul trouble, but fought through that," Ellsworth coach Hannah Reynolds said.

Senior, Abby Nachazel finished with 19 points to lead the Lancers, while sophomore Alexis Danforth managed 17 points in just over three quarters of play and sophomore Judy Veldboom added nine points.

Celia Dhillon chipped in with a four point, seven rebound effort.

Lady Red Devils defeated in pair of LMC

KALKASKA 60, EAST JORDAN 44

KALKASKA — A slow start by the East Jordan girls basketball team was just enough for the Blazers to build a lead that made it difficult to overcome as Kalkaska defeated the Red Devils 60-44 on February 22 in Lake Michigan Conference play.

The Blazers led 11-4, 30-18 and 51-29 at the quarter breaks.

"We got off to a slow start but in the first quarter but had three good quarters offensively to finish the game," EJ coach Steve Hines said. "Madeline (Malpass) had a very good game tonight as she was a presence inside and hit 7-of-9 free throws."

Malpass would lead EJ in scoring with 15 points, while Jayden Weber added 13, with both ladies hauling in eight rebounds.

Molly Kitson added four assists and Lilly Black three.

"Of all facets of the game to be off, tonight it was our defense," Hines added.

"This is the most points we have given up all year but, Kalkaska shot the ball extremely well tonight. (Jordyn) Disbrow had a career night as she hit seven three pointers. She shot the ball very well tonight!! Rough way to end the regular season but a new season starts with tournament play and everyone has a chance to step up and make some noise. We look forward to that challenge!"

Disbrow finished with 27 to lead the Blazers, while Kayla Cavanaugh and Margaret Stosio each had 13.

TCSF 39, EAST JORDAN 37 OT

TRAVERSE CITY — Sometimes opportunities slip away.

That's what happened to the East Jordan girls basketball team on February 19 as they fell in overtime to the St. Francis Gladiators 39-37.

"Tough game to lose," EJ coach Steve Hines said. "Jayden (Weber) played another great game for us scoring 21 and pulling down 13 rebounds. We had our chances as we missed some free throws that would have made a difference, missed some easy shots inside and turned the ball over at inopportune times. I was very proud of our defensive effort again tonight as we held SF to under 40 points."

The Red Devils led 9-8 after the first quarter, were ahead 21-18 at halftime, but St. Francis pulled past in the third quarter, taking a 29-28 advantage into the fourth, before EJ knotted the game to send it into the extra session.

"The overtime ended with score tied and SF in-bounding the ball from just inside half court with nine seconds left," Hines noted. "St. Francis attempted a shot from the left wing with about five seconds left which bounced off the rim, caromed off of one SF player fell to the floor fight under the basket, was then picked up by (Kam) Schaub, shot and rolled over the rim as the horn went off. We played hard and came back in regulation to tie but came up just one play shy!"

In addition to Webber's performance, Molly Kitson added five points, while Gabby Snyder, Lauren Peterson and Tia Spence each had six boards and Ellie Skrocki added three steals.

"Ellie (Skrocki) came up with some big steals on defense," Hines added. "Another game where we outscored our opponents from inside the arc, outscored them from the free throw line and out rebounded them."

Maddy Wierda led the Glads with 11 points and Schaub had 10.

Lancers close out perfect NLC campaign

ELLSWORTH 81,
HARBOR LIGHT 42

HARBOR SPRINGS — Another Northern Lakes Conference contest, another Northern Lakes Conference victory!

That has been the case all season for the Ellsworth boys basketball team as the Lancers as they downed the Swordsmen 81-42 on February 22.

"Put the cherry on top tonight to cap the undefeated conference championship!" Ellsworth coach Jarrod Steenwyk said. "Good game rolling into districts, big start with a 26 point first quarter. From there just kept at it, (we had) five guys in double digits, distributed the ball well and got out and ran."

The Lancers were never in any jeopardy of not finishing league play unbeaten as they rolled to a 26-11 first quarter lead and were in full control at the half, up 51-27 and 68-32 after three quarters of play.

Ethan Tornga finished with 16 points, 12 rebounds, six assists and three steals, while Brayden Steenwyk added 12 points, Atlas Marlatt and Kevin Dickinson each chipped in with 11 points and Michael Clees added 10.

Marlatt also had five rebounds, four steals and three assists and Dickinson hauled in five boards.

Red Devils close regular season ready for tournament play

KALKASKA 59,
EAST JORDAN 56

KALKASKA — For the better part of the first 16 minutes of play, the East Jordan boys basketball team looked ready to hand another Lake Michigan Conference opponent a defeat.

But the Red Devils found themselves a little rattled at the beginning of the second half, allowing Kalkaska to pull ahead and despite a late EJ charge, the Blazers were able to hold them off for a 59-56 victory on February 22.

With 7.5 seconds to play, East Jordan's Cooper Stevenson knocked down a free throw, cutting the Kalkaska lead to one point, but the Blazers executed a great out of bounds play to get the ball into their best shooter who was fouled and connected on both charity stripe tosses to push the lead back to three.

"We came down and Jackson (Raymond) was able to penetrate and kick to Cooper who had a decent look at the basket but didn't make it," East Jordan coach Nate Dzwik said. "As we talk about end of game plays we didn't take a timeout because we trust the kids to make the plays and they need to and this was no different, as a team we are content with Cooper getting that shot as he has made those consistently this year in practice and the few in games he has taken."

"Credit to Kalkaska as they did a good job executing on defense to get a hand on Coop and really make the pass to AJ (Bartlett) in the corner not an option."

The contest started out in the Red Devils favor as they were ahead 19-16 at the end of the first quarter and 36-33 at intermission. It was a 16-9 third quarter Kalkaska advantage that was the difference in the contest, propelling the Blazers to the hard-fought victory.

"We got in big foul trouble in the first half as Raymond, Stevenson, Bartlett and Levi Pepin all had two fouls early in the second quarter," coach Dzwik noted. "I thought when we got to the half with the lead we would be ok. They (Kalkaska) changed presses on us and we struggled to stay calm and patient with it. We forced to many passes that lead to easy buckets for them and when we did break it we forced quick three's where we shot eight percent from on the night."

"A game that we let slip away in the first 12 minutes of the second half," coach Nate Dzwik said. "We did what we wanted to do offensively early on but would go on streaks were we turned the ball over way to much."

Stevenson led the Red Devils with 23 points and five boards, while Raymond added 10 points, nine rebounds, five assists, four steals and three blocks.

Also for EJ, Ethan Zeeryp had 10 points, four rebounds and Pepin hauled in six rebounds.

"The positive take-away from the night is that we executed our end of game situations really well and that started with a Jackson (Raymond) dunk on a steal with about two minutes left to cut the game to 10." Dzwik added. "We did a nice job of getting traps and steals early to cut the lead without them making free throws and then we fouled the right people when we needed to."

TCSF 58,
EAST JORDAN 36

EAST JORDAN — For the first 10-14 minutes of the game, the East Jordan boys basketball team gave Lake Michigan Conference leading Traverse City St. Francis all they could handle.

"We played hard with a ton of energy to start the game, the turning point of the game was really the last two possessions of the first half, we had the ball down eight with 20 seconds left and didn't execute an end of quarter situation," Red Devils coach Nate Dzwik said. "We turned the ball over and they hit a shot at the to take the lead out to 11."

The Gladiators held a 14-12 advantage after the first eight minutes of play and were up 33-22 at the half, before pulling away 45-29 by the end of the third.

"It was a huge momentum shift that we can't have against a team that is as good as St. Francis. Although the score wasn't good I liked that we fought the whole game and didn't back down as we had the score down to 10 with the ball a few times in the fourth quarter but missed shots and then they executed."

AJ Bartlett led East Jordan with a 12 point, three rebound effort, while Jackson Raymond added nine points, three rebounds, three assists and two blocks and Cooper Stevenson chipped in with eight points, eight rebounds and a block.

Fishing

State's annual netting seasons set to begin

Spring fishing is right around the corner, and that means Michigan's annual netting seasons are about to get under way. The hand-netting season opens Friday, March 1, while the dip-netting season starts up Wednesday, March 20. Both seasons close May 31. A Michigan fishing license is required.

The following species can be taken during both seasons: bowfin, carp, gizzard shad, goldfish, longnose gar, smelt and suckers. Waters open to hand netting include all Great Lakes, Lake St. Clair, the St. Clair River, the Detroit River and the St. Marys River, including all tributaries to those waters from the mouth to a half-mile upstream. Waters open to dip netting include all Lower Peninsula and Upper Peninsula streams, except designated trout streams and other streams, as noted.

All other waters are closed to these activities. Full season details, as well as descriptions of dip netting and hand netting, are available on page 23 of both the Hand dipping for gizzard shad such as this one begins in streams across Lower Peninsula this weekend. (courtesy of DNR)

2018 (available now) and 2019 Michigan Fishing Guide (available March 1), posted at Michigan.gov/Fishing.

The use of seines, hand nets and dip nets for minnows is allowed all year on all waters (except designated trout streams and those waters closed to minnow harvest), while cast nets can be used for alewives, gizzard shad, minnows and smelt all year on the Great Lakes, Lake St. Clair, the St. Clair River, the Detroit River and the St. Marys River.

For those interested in dipping for smelt later this spring, visit the DNR's smelt dipping and fishing opportunities webpage.
