CHARLEVOIX COUNTY — Another girls basketball season in the books and another one for area coaches to be proud of as their respective teams continue to improve, star players stepped up their games and newcomers did not shy away from the spotlight.

Once again, Charlevoix was the dominant team in the area, finishing with an overall record of 19-3 overall, 14-0 in the Lake Michigan Conference, earning the league title and once the post-season began, the Rayders captured their third straight Division 3 district title and finished runner-up to Ishpeming Westwood in the regional.

Boyne City improved once again this season, finishing 13-8, 9-5, while the Red Devils of East Jordan came in at 10-12 overall, 3-11 LMC, with both teams showing promises of outstanding play, and with young teams, look for each of the schools to only get better.

In the Northern Lakes Conference, the Lady Lancers of Ellsworth came in at 10-8 overall, 9-3 in conference play and will return a solid nucleus next season to challenge for the league.

The Charlevoix County News is proud to announce the annual All-Area Girls Basketball "Dream Team".

In reviewing statistical information, coaches nominations, team success and adversity each time they took the court. In narrowing it down to a number of deserving individuals, the selection of Player of the Year once again goes to Charlevoix's Elise Stuck.

Rounding out the team are Addie Nagel, Taylor Petrosky and Emma Lemerand from Charlevoix; Avery Stadt, Brooklyn Fitzpatrick and Jordan Noble of Boyne City; Jayden Weber, Molly Kitson and Tia Spence from East Jordan and Alexis Danforth and Abby Nachazel of Ellsworth.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

(#30) ELISE STUCK, JUNIOR, CHARLEVOIX.

Following a pair of standout seasons during her first two years of high school action, Stuck elevated her game once again this year, in helping lead a young group of Rayders to an undefeated conference

Ramblers open season with a pair of wins

Boyne City 3-13, Gaylord 2-10

BOYNE CITY — Picking up where they left off last season.

The Boyne City softball team opened their season on April 8, taking a double-header from visiting Gaylord, 3-2 and 13-10.

In the opener, senior Madison Rosenow earned the win in the circle.

The Ramblers scored once in the first and tacked on two more runs in the fourth for their total.

Rosenow finished with two hits, while Maggee Behling added two hits, including a triple and Leona Follette, Brooklyn Fitzpatrick, Sophia Morias and Josee Behling added one each.

In the nightcap, Zoe Harmon started for the Ramblers, with relief help from Josee Behling.

Boyne started strong, scoring eight runs in the opening two innings for an 8-1 lead, but the Blue Devils rallied to push five runs across in the fourth and four more the following inning for a 10-8 advantage.

The Ramblers responded in the bottom of the fifth with a pair of runs to tie the game.

Fitzpatrick tripled among her three hits to lead Boyne, while Josee Behling and Maggee Behling each added two hits, with Josee hitting a home run and Maggee adding a double.

Harmon, Emily Mansfield each singled with two RBIs, and Follette and Kayleigh

Alger added one hit each.

Rayders sweep Ewart to begin their season

Charlevoix 6-14, Ewart 5-6

EWART — The Charlevoix softball team got off to a great start on April 6, picking up two wins to open their 2019 season, winning 6-5 and 14-6 over Ewart.

The Rayders, outside for just the third time this spring, found themselves down early, 4-1 after two innings of play.

Madelyn Sandison went seven innings, allowing only four hits, fanning 10 in the process. Charlevoix finished with eight hits on the game, led by two from senior Hannah Solomon, as she added two RBIs.

In game two, the Rayder bats got going early and often.

"Great team effort," Rayder coach Tom Zipp said. "(We) started off where we ended game one, hitting the ball hard."

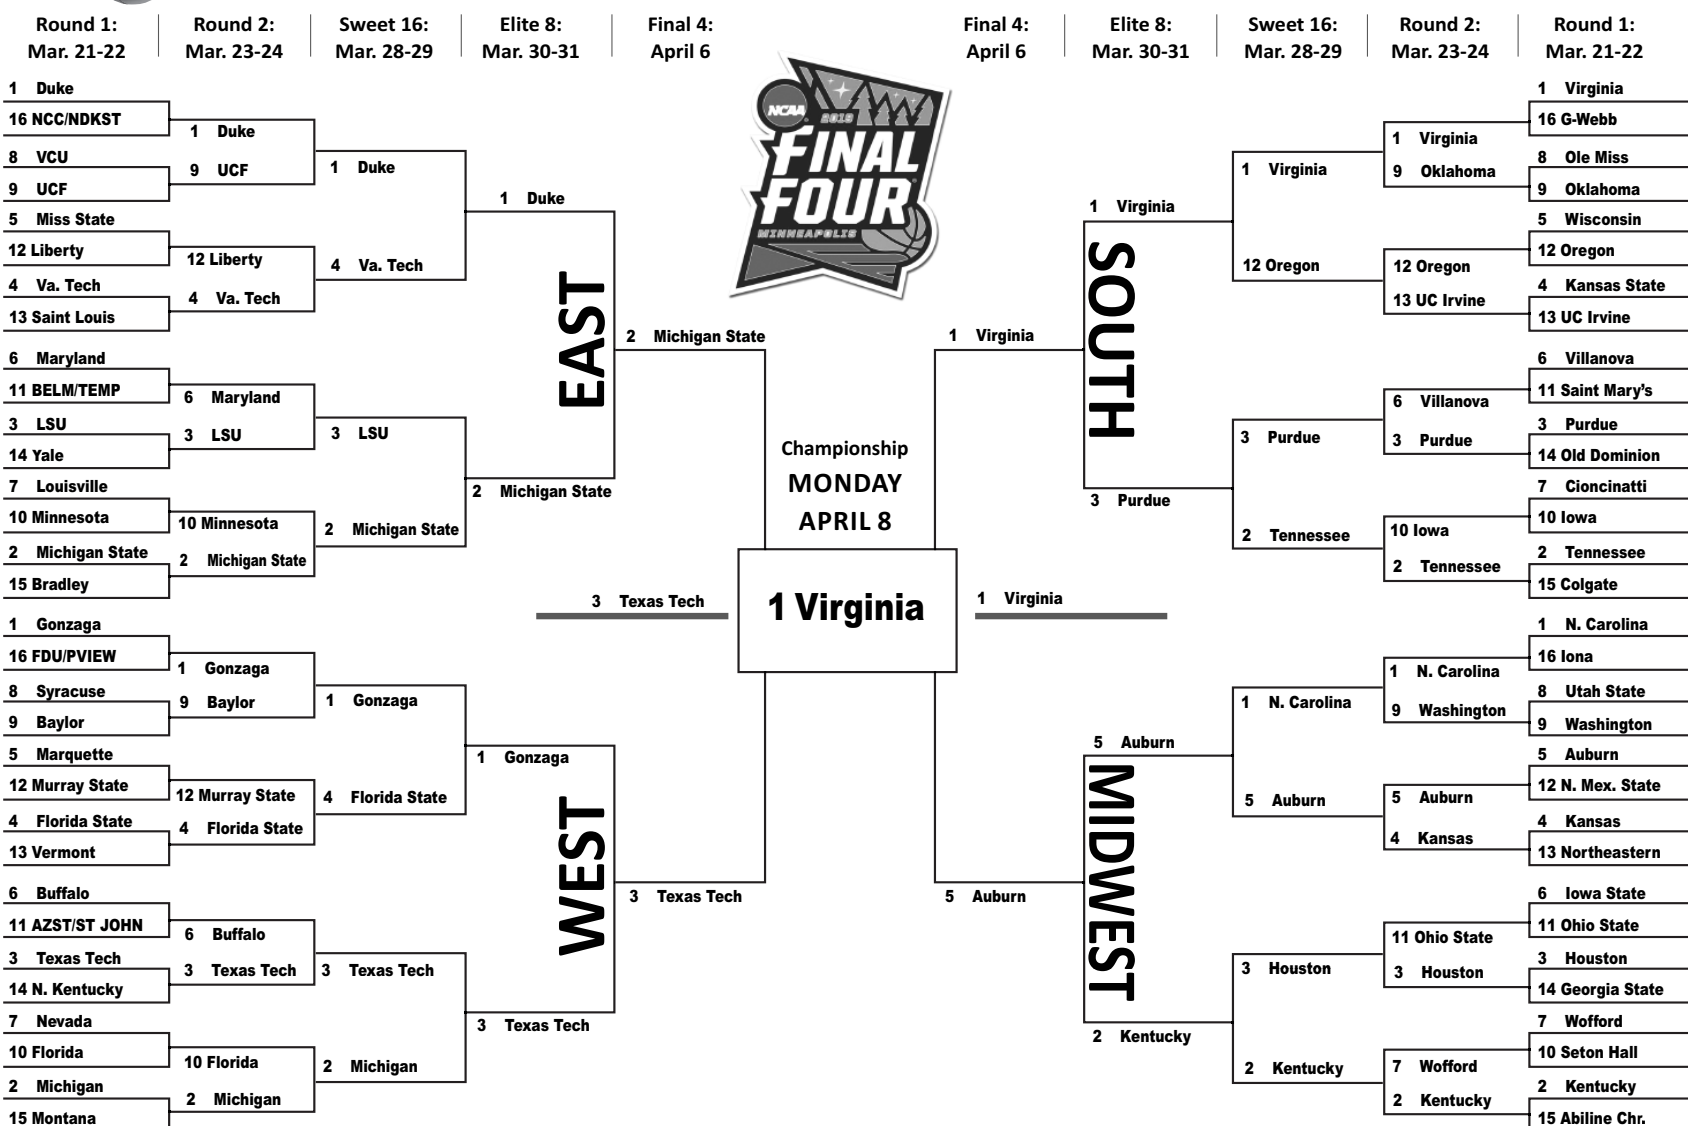

Kate Klinger worked seven innings for the Rayders, allowing seven hits and striking out six.

Solomon continued her hot start to the season, going 4-for-4 with a double, while Grace Lentz had a triple among three hits, Zoe Brodin doubled in her three hits, Sam Parrish and Avery Zipp each added three hits as well.

Klinger helped her own cause by adding two hits, including a home run.

Loggers drop two to start season

Boyne Falls 0-1, Burton Bentley 15-16

BURTON - The Boyne Falls baseball team fell in their season opening double header on April 5 to Burton Bentley 15-0 and 16-1 in a pair of three inning games.

Josh Herman had the lone Boyne Falls hit of the day, a single in the first inning of game 1.

"We had a tough day results-wise against a much larger school," coach Allen Telgenhof said. "But it was just great to get outside, we haven't been on our infield yet at home. We've got a lot of things to work on."

"Josh (Herman) and J.T. Greenier did a nice job for us pitching in that they threw strikes and didn't beat themselves. Ashton Spang and Daniel Powers did well defensively."

Roy Cool had a stolen base for the Loggers and scored the lone run of the day.

night, dished out 59 assists, 44 blocks and tied for the team lead in steals with 49.

The junior also became the school's all-time scoring leader with (1,494), passing coach Liz Grunch in the process.

CHARLEVOIX

(#13) ADDIE NAGEL, JUNIOR.

One of the top ball handlers in Northern Michigan and throughout the state, the first year Rayder took over a majority of the ball handling duties and helped run the Charlevoix offense.

Addie finished the season with a 7.2 point per game average, while grabbing 72 rebounds from her point guard position, dished out 49 assists and made 23 steals.

(#24) TAYLOR PETROSKY, FRESHMEN.

A player who stepped right in and filled some big shoes for the Rayders as their top three perimeter players graduated following last season.

Petrosky's confidence only grew as she logged more minutes on the hardwood, really stepping up her play once the post season began.

Taylor scored 121 points on the season for a 6.7 average, had 66 boards, made 34 assists and recorded 42 steals.

(#5) EMMA LEMERAND, JUNIOR

Another newer face to the Rayders this season, Emma utilized her quickness and court sense to her advantage against opponents. Lemerand was a key defensive stopper for Charlevoix while scoring and handling the ball when needed. Emma scored 76 points (4.2ppg), had 38 rebounds, 39 assists and made 26 steals.

BOYNE CITY

(#10) AVERY STADT, JUNIOR

Stadt continued to run the Rambler offense in her junior campaign and continued to draw the defensive assignment of the opponents top perimeter player. Avery scored 6.4 points per game this season, hauled in 2.8 rebounds per night, made 45 steals and dished out 63 assists.

Stadt shot 55 percent from the charity stripe and nearly 30 percent from the floor.

(#2) BROOKLYN FITZPATRICK, JUNIOR

Brooklyn was the leading scorer for the Ramblers this season, often times drawing different looks from opponents, but with her unselfish play, she would find the open teammates and get the ball to them for a better opportunity.

Fitzpatrick would finish with an 8.4 ppg scoring average and grabbed 7.2 rebounds each game as well.

She also shot a team high 46 percent from the floor, 54 percent from the free throw line, made 1.55 steals and 1.15 assists per contest.

(#5) JORDAN NOBLE, SOPHOMORE

Noble, in her first full season on the Rambler varsity, continued her aggressive style of play, creating havoc against opponents top guards.

Jordan also looked more for her shot this season, scoring 4.3 ppg,

Hoth, Gibson helping Lansing Community College

LANSING — Former Boyne City standout Katie Hoth is taking advantage of more playing time for the Stars softball team. The former Rambler picked up five hits in LCC's contest last week against Glen Oaks and Ancilla. Hoth went 3-for-3 against GO, including a home run and two doubles, while picking up four RBIs, and against Ancilla, she was 2-for-3 with another homer and a triple to go with four RBIs. Gibson, an East Jordan grad, picked up her first collegiate hit against Glen Oaks, which was a double, while also knocking in a run. Against Ancilla, Chelsea had a single and scored a run.

Hoth camps under a fly ball during game action.

grabbing 2.8 rpg, dishing out 2.4 assists and making 3 steals each night.

EAST JORDAN

(#24) JAYDEN WEBER, JUNIOR

In her third year on the Red Devil varsity, Weber continued to be the go-to and team leader that East Jordan needed. Her game as an inside threat continued to improve and her ability to close out games from the charity stripe would often times keep her opponents away from fouling her.

Jayden finished with a scoring average of 16.9 points per game, while hauling in 9.1 boards and she once again leading the team in shooting at 44 percent from the field and shot 74 percent from the free throw line.

Weber was recently named honorable mention All-State Division 3.

(#10) MOLLY KITSON, JUNIOR

The junior point guard led the team in assists and tied in steals, while averaging 6.0 points per game.

Kitson stepped right in and started for East Jordan, helping replace four-year starter and graduate Abby Peterson.

Kitson was credited with being a very unselfish player and very coachable by coach Steve Hines.

(#21) TIA SPENCE, SENIOR

Spence was rewarded with her outstanding effort each night by having to guard the Red Devil opponents best player.

She played multiple positions for EJ, averaging four points per game and five boards, while shooting 38 percent from the floor.

Highlights for the season came against rival Charlevoix, where Spence led the charge against Elise Stuck, helping hold her to single digits in both regular season contests.

ELLSWORTH

(#4) ABBY NACHAZEL, SENIOR

After taking a season off Nachazel had 145 points for an 8.0 ppg average on the regular season, while also bringing in nine defensive rebounds a game.

Coach Hannah Reynolds noted a highlight from the season was Abby starting the season as the leading scorer in the opener against Harbor Light. "She fueled the fire in the game and set the pace when she banked in three triples pointers. Strong athlete and a leader on the court."

(#23) ALEXIS DANFORTH, SOPHOMORE

One of the Lancer team captains, had 233 points (12.9 ppg) on the regular season and also averaged nine rebounds per game, often times putting back her own misses.

Had a career high 34 point game against Alba this season.

"Her height is definitely her advantage and has two more seasons to go," Coach Reynolds noted. "I am excited to see what she will do in future."

COACH OF THE YEAR

LIZ GRUNCH, CHARLEVOIX

The 2018-19 Coach of the Year honors again, go Charlevoix's Liz Grunch. In her seventh season for the Rayders, Coach Grunch helped the team improve two more wins from a year ago and has turned Charlevoix into a Northern Michigan powerhouse, finishing with a 19-3 record on the season.

Along the way, Grunch has led the Rayders to an 87-71 record, including three straight district titles and four overall to go along with a Lake Michigan Conference crown this season, running the table with a 14-0 record.

Charlevoix will look to continue their run next season as the core group is only getting better and with the caliber of opponents on the schedule, matched with the experience they have gained through their tournament runs, look for Charlevoix to take the next step in their pursuit of a state title.

The Charlevoix County News would like to thank Boyne City Public School for the use of the school gym for the photos as well as thank the student athletes for all of their hard work this season and over their careers and the coaches for providing the statistical information. We are already looking forward to next season!
