CHARLEVOIX — On Saturday, April 20, the Charlevoix Rayder softball team hosted a tournament in honor of one of their own.

The team and community came together to host the first annual Caili Mueller Memorial Tournament in honor of Mueller, 14, a Charlevoix high school student, who passed away on March 28.

The event featured the host Rayders, Inland Lakes, Cheboygan and St. Ignace. In addition to the tournament, there was a home run derby as well as an egg toss and egg hunt. Charlevoix wore special blue jersey tops for the event. All proceeds from the event went to support the family.

Charlevoix would defeat St. Ignace in their first game of the day, defeating the Saints 10-2 as the bats came to life and the team pounded out 11 hits. The Rayders took the lead in the first as Zoe Brodin singled on a 0-2 pitch and in the process drove in two runs.

The Rayders then added to their lead with a three-run fourth, as Lily Woodgate and Hannah Solomon added RBIs.

Grace Lentz would finish with three hits and Sam Parrish added one. Solomon stole six bases as the team racked up 10 in the contest.

Madelyn Sandison allowed two runs on three hits in the circle, striking out 12 in seven innings of work.

In the title game, Inland Lakes used a seven run fourth inning to create enough room between the two teams en route to a 13-6 victory over the Rayders.

Kate Klinger took the pitching loss, allowing 12 runs on eight hits in 3 1/3 innings, striking out three.

At the plate, Brodin finished with three hits and Lentz added two.

Abby Nachazel earned the pitching victory in game one, allowing one run on two hits, while striking out 10.

Samantha Montgomery led the way for the Lancer offense, picking up three hits, McKenzie Essenberg had a home run and a triple, and Gabby Glynn had one hit and Bahley Glynn scored twice.

In the nightcap, Nachazel once again took to the circle, allowing four runs on four hits and fanned seven. She helped her own cause at the plate, going 3-for-4 with a home run and scored three times.

Montgomery scores three times Jasmine Adams had a double and two RBIs.

Rayders shutout Vikings 6-0 in Conference Play

CHARLEVOIX 6, GRAYLING 0

GRAYLING — The Charlevoix Girls Soccer team defeated Grayling 6-0 on April 18 in a Lake Michigan Conference matchup.

The Rayders got on the board with 21:09 left in the first half when freshman Kyri Titus drew a foul in the box and Megan Scholten converted for the goal. Minutes later at the 19:14 mark Megan Scholten sent a ripper at the Grayling goal which deflected off the Grayling goalie and freshman Camryn Turkelson was there to send the ball into the back of the net. At the 10:40 mark of the first half, Scholten sent a pass to Emma Lemerand who connected for the score, making it 3-0 Charlevoix, headed into the half.

Just seven minutes into the second half Maya Whitley sent a beautiful pass to Scholten who buried the kick for goal. The Rayders fifth goal came off the foot of Lemerand on a pass from Alison Wojan with 20:16 left in the game. The final score of the night with 12:20 left in the contest, Anna Kate Smith found an open Scholten, who sent a bullet from 20 yards into the upper left corner of the net to complete the hat trick. Emily Hinkley earned the shutout making three saves on the night in goal. With the win, Charlevoix improves to 2-3 overall and 1-2 in the LMC.

"I was especially pleased with our passing tonight," Rayder coach Pete Scholten said. "We were able to work together to develop more sophisticated passing combinations and play a possession game. We are working through a fair amount of injuries on the team. It was great to see girls come off the bench and do great things. We were able to get everyone in the game and everyone contributed in this one."

East Jordan uses longball, but still falls to Hillman

HILLMAN 15, EAST JORDAN 13

EAST JORDAN — The East Jordan baseball team battled back from a large deficit, but could not manage pull even, falling 15-13 in a non-conference battle with Hillman on April 17, game two was cancelled due to rain.

After allowing the Tigers two runs in the opening half of the first, the Red Devils bounced back with four runs of their own in the bottom of the inning on back-to-back home runs by Jackson Raymond and Tommy Reid.

From that point, Hillman marched ahead to a 14-6 advantage through four and a half innings when EJ started to battle back in the bottom of the fifth, scoring three times, two of those coming off the bat of Raymond as he hit his second home run of the night.

The Red Devils picked up four more in the 6th, aided by a three-run home run by Chandler Bartig, but that's as close as they would get.

At the plate, Raymond led the way with a pair of homers and four RBIs, Bartig added two hits, including his home run and three RBIs, Reid homered and singled with two RBIs, Justin Barnett had two hits, including a double and two RBIs, Adam Skrocki singled and had an RBI double, AJ Bartlett had a pair of singles and drove in a run, and three others singled.

Sawyer Thomas took the pitching loss with Joseph Atwood and Reid pitching in relief.

"We definitely hit well tonight with 15 hits and 4 dingers but we just couldn't keep the scrappy Hillman team off the board," EJ coach Tom Reid said. "We had some control issues and didn't play very stellar defensively. We definitely gave the home crowd some excitement though! Those were the first high school home runs hit by all three of those young men and the smiles as they rounded second base to my coaching box at third base were priceless...I'm very happy for them!"

Bess started for the Ramblers, worked three innings of two hit ball, allowing three runs, and struck out five.

The Ramblers stole seven bases as a team with Bess recording two.

Loggers fall to Atlanta in marathon game

ATLANTA 34, BOYNE FALLS 19

BOYNE FALLS — The Boyne Falls baseball team, along with Atlanta, combined to score 53 runs on April 16, with the Huskies coming out on top 34-19 in a five inning contest.

"It was a strange night, I don't know if I've seen that many runs scored in a game before," Boyne Falls coach Allen Telgenhof said. "We struggled to throw strikes but did some good things offensively. C.J. (Cousinearu) really had a huge night with some clutch hits."

Cousinearu had four hits and seven RBIs to lead the Loggers. Josh Herman added a hit and scored four runs, while Roy Cool scored three runs and added three RBIs, while also stealing four bases.

J.T. Greenier chipped in with a hit and scored three times and swiped two bases

FISHING

Trout season opens statewide this Saturday

Walleye and northern pike season also in Lower Peninsula

It's time to put that new fishing license to good use. Saturday, April 27, is the statewide trout opener, as well as the start of the Lower Peninsula inland walleye and northern pike seasons. The DNR encourages everyone heading out this weekend to take along someone new and share the fun of Michigan's world-class fishing opportunities.

A few reminders: In Upper Peninsula waters, the walleye and northern pike possession seasons open Wednesday, May 15.

Michigan's muskellunge possession season on all Great Lakes, inland waters, the St. Marys River, Lake St. Clair, and the St. Clair and

Many anglers will hit Michigan waters April 27, 2019, for the start of several statewide fishing openers, including for trout and inland walleye and northern pike. (COURTESY OF DNR)

Detroit rivers opens Saturday, June 1 – though catch-and-release fishing for muskellunge is open all year. Catch-and-immediate-release season for largemouth and smallmouth bass is open all year on nearly all waters (unless otherwise closed to fishing; check the current Michigan Fishing Guide for specifics).

The possession season for bass opens statewide Saturday, May 25, except for Lake St. Clair and the St. Clair and Detroit rivers, which open Saturday, June 15.

Before hitting the water, be sure to have the new fishing license for the current season, which opened April 1. The 2019 fishing licenses are valid through March 31, 2020.

The 2019 Michigan Fishing Guide and inland trout and salmon maps, along with plenty of other useful information, are available at Michigan.gov/Fishing. See the complete guide online or download it to your device for later use.

DNR Fishing Tip

Catch-and-release bass season is always here

Don't forget that in Michigan you can catch-and-immediate-release bass all year long – and spring can be a great time to do so.

Bass can be caught with a wide range of artificial lures, as well as live bait.

There are numerous locations across the state that provide prime smallmouth and largemouth bass fishing. Get ready to head out this spring for some excellent bass fishing.

As a reminder, the possession seasons for bass don't open for a bit (May 25 on all waters, including the Great Lakes and June 15 on Lake St. Clair, St. Clair and Detroit rivers).

Additional information on angling for this species can be found on their page at Michigan.gov/Fishing.

DNR stocking brook trout in eastern Upper Peninsula waters

For many people, brook trout fishing in Michigan's Upper Peninsula is an unrivaled pastime. In some cases, anglers here have found their lucky "go to" waters where the fish are large and the catch is plentiful.

To support opportunities in the U.P., the DNR stocks these fish in several waterbodies. Hatchery-reared brook trout in Michigan come from the Marquette State Fish Hatchery. Depending on stocking needs, fish at different life stages can be pulled from the hatcheries. This variety has given fisheries managers the option to stock spring and fall fingerlings and yearlings with much success over many decades.

However, some locations where younger life stages of brook trout are stocked have had to withstand overwintering in harsh conditions at smaller sizes, making it difficult to build a fishery. When production was available and where possible, the DNR has stocked yearling brook trout to try and alleviate those survival concerns.

"Following a review of this practice – including available rearing space at Marquette State Fish Hatchery – it's been determined we can now use yearling brook trout at all locations within the Eastern Lake Superior Management Unit," said Cory Kovacs, a fisheries biologist out of Newberry. "Anywhere we previously stocked spring and fall fingerlings we will now replace those stockings with yearlings."

This new practice will affect 13 waterbodies, including Brockies Pond, Deer Lake, Holland Lake, Moon Lake, Sid Lake, Silver Creek Pond, Syphon Lake, Ward Lake and Youngs Lake (Luca County); Addis Lake and West Johns Lake (Alger County), and Naomikong Lake and Naomikong Pond (Chippewa County).

Managers expect that stocking yearling brook trout in this area should only improve the already popular eastern U.P. brook trout fisheries.

For more information on where the DNR stocks fish, visit MichiganDNR.com/FishStock.
