East Jordan State of the Community Luncheon By Tina Sundali

EAST JORDAN—East Jordan is heading in the right direction and its future is bright was the message members of the community walked members of the community walked away with after hearing four key-note speakers discuss the status of the city, schools, and DDA at East Jordan's State of the Community Luncheon Tuesday, November 11.

Luncheon Tuesday, November 11. An air of optimism filled the Harvest Barn hall as 26 East Jordan High School seniors and other members of the community lis-tened intently to Mayor Russell Peck whose speech focused on the challenges and infrastructure improvements that still lie ahead for the city. "All in all things are look-ing up, we're heading in the right direction. Together we will position our community for a resilient and sustainable future. Indeed, East Jordan's future is bright," he con-cluded.

cluded. Peck not only talked about all that the city has accomplished but emphasized the infrastructure im-provements needed to accommo-date new growth. "We are very optimistic about the future of our community and that optimism comses from the exciting new direc-tion we have been heading." he said. He cited the city's sewer sys-tem that is already operating at 98% capacity, sidewalks, and sea-pilings to be installed at the southwest side of the harbor next to the bridge in-tended to stop silt from filling the harbor (construction to begin in December) as projects that will fur-ther enable the city to grow. He mentioned the new well house (al-ready up and running), the now open 24/7 recycling center and the $12,000 Kayak facility in the park which he stated presently "looks like an art project." "We are devel-oping the kind of community we have envisioned for future genera-tions. There is a positive up beat entions. There is a positive up beat en-ergy," he said.

ADVICE FROM GOD

You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven. __Matthew__5:14-16__NIV_
