Red Devil shooters go cold against stingy Rayder defense

CHARLEVOIX 53, EAST JORDAN 34

EAST JORDAN — A tough defensive effort by the Charlevoix Rayders boys basketball held the strong offensive minded East Jordan team to 27 percent shooting from the floor, as they downed the Red Devils 53-34 on January 21.

While the Red Devils kept it close for the first quarter, only trailing 11-8, both teams struggled from the field in the second, with Charlevoix only managing nine points, but they did limit EJ to only three, for a 20-11 halftime lead.

"Charlevoix just did a great job of taking us out of everything we wanted to do and keeping us pretty one dimensional as far, especially Evan (Solomon) who had 27 on the night on some a great shooting performance." East Jordan coach Nate Dzwik said. "Because of their pressure defense we only shot (27 percent) from the field. I thought our kids played really hard and we gave a ton of effort. We just had some mental mistakes on defense and that they made us pay for."

The Rayders outscored the Red Devils 33-23 over the final 16 minutes of play.

East Jordan did an excellent job on Rayder star, Jacob Mueller, holding him scoreless in the contest.

"I thought Jackson (Raymond) did a great job on Jacob Mueller, who he kept from scoring and did a great job of keeping him off the glass."

Cooper Stevenson paced EJ with 15 points, five rebounds, two assists and two steals, while Raymond added nine points, nine rebounds, two steals and an assist.

"This was definitely a lesson for the kids on how you can't take possessions off against good teams as they will make you pay as well as that we really need to run our offense, play together and be really hard to guard or we are going to struggle," coach Dzwik added.

Ramblers overcome slow start, click in 2nd half against Vikings

BOYNE CITY 47, GRAYLING 18

BOYNE CITY — The Boyne City girls basketball team recovered from a slow start as they handed the visiting Grayling Vikings a 47-18 Lake Michigan Conference loss on January 24.

The Ramblers were able to overcome a slim 8-4 first quarter lead, pouring it on in both the second and fourth quarters, where they outscored their opponent 29-11 in those two quarters alone.

Boyne, playing without senior leader, Avery Stadt due to illness, struggled to get into the flow of the offense early on and didn't pick the defensive intensity that we are used to seeing until the first quarter had ended.

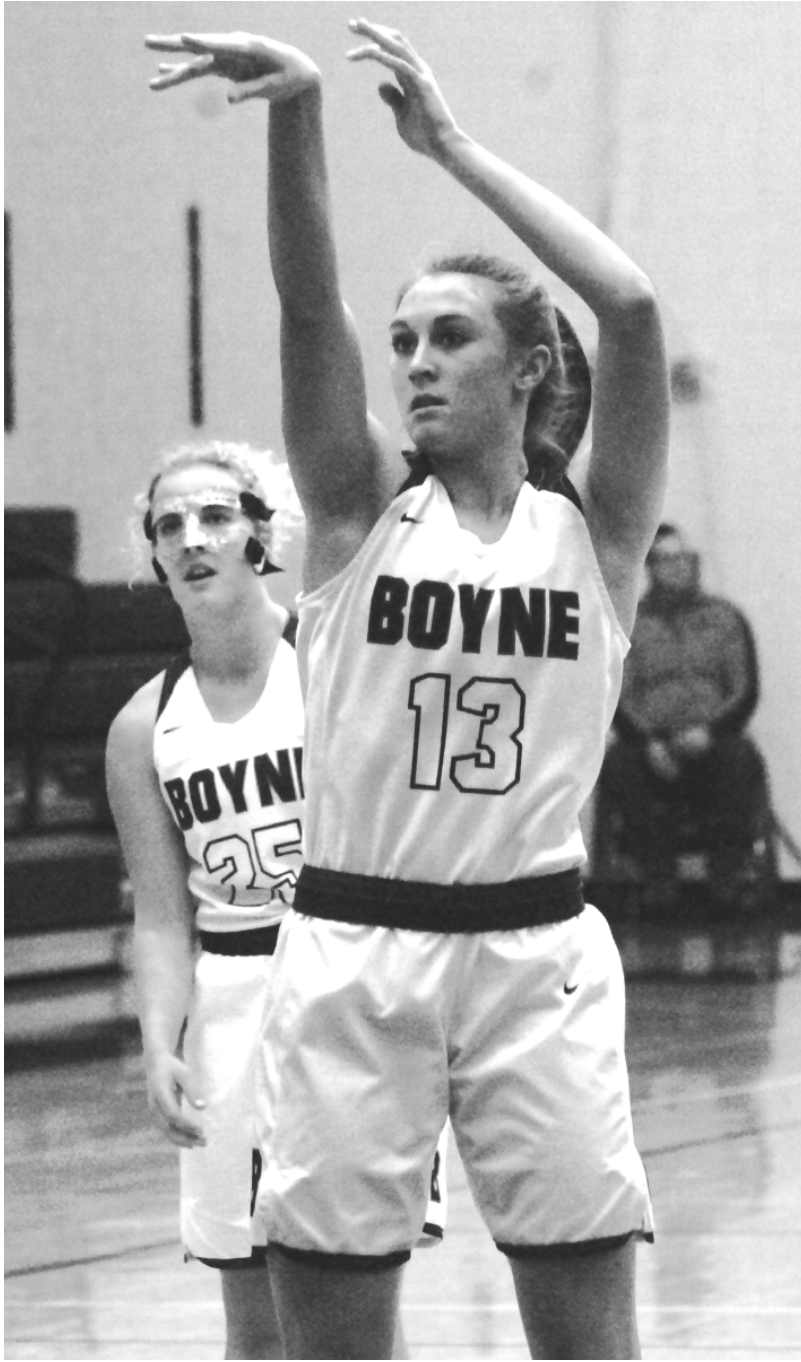

A Jordan Noble triple as the clock ticked down in the second quarter allowed Boyne to take a 21-10 advantage into the intermission.

The Ramblers also came out of the halftime break with their coach Julie Redman exiting the building for medical reasons, requiring assistant Myra Bryant to take the reigns.

"Great effort from the girls tonight, all around," Bryant said. "We were short a senior starter and everyone stepped up and handled the change well."

Senior Katelyn Gabos led the charge in the fourth, scoring six of her game-high 10 points during that span.

Noble and Kari Day each added eight points for the Ramblers, while Brooklyn Fitzpatrick, Josee Behling, Ally Herrick and Reagan May all chipped in with four points apiece.

Earlier in the week, Boyne defeated Elk Rapids 47-34, behind a 13 point effort by Gabos, while May, Stadt and Jordan Noble added eight points each.

Rayder girls too much for Red Devils

CHARLEVOIX 53, EAST JORDAN 36

EAST JORDAN — The Charlevoix girls basketball team closed out both halves strong, in defeating East Jordan 53-36 in Lake Michigan Conference action on January 21.

The Rayders outscored the Red Devils 12-5 in the second quarter and 18-11 in the fourth to open up an otherwise tight contest.

Charlevoix was ahead 13-7 after one, 25-12 at the half and 35-25 at the end of three quarters.

"We were down 10 points entering the last quarter and missed too many inside shots," East Jordan coach Steve Hines said. "We really need to capitalize on those opportunities."

With the loss, EJ slips to 5-5 overall, 1-3 LMC.

Charlevoix takes care of Rams with little problem

CHARLEVOIX 51, HARBOR SPRINGS 23

CHARLEVOIX — The Rayder girls basketball team improved to 6-4 overall and now stand 5-0 in the Lake Michigan Conference, following a 51-23 on January 24. Charlevoix got 18 points from Taylor Petrosky and another 10 from Lizzy Petrosky, while Addie Nagel and Abby Cunningham finished with eight points each to lead the Rayders.

Ramblers take flight over Vikings

BOYNE CITY 68, GRAYLING 26

BOYNE CITY — A fast start, led to a convincing 68-26 Lake Michigan Conference victory for the Boyne City boys basketball team over Grayling on January 24, on a night where they inducted the newest member into the Boyne City School Boosters Hall of Fame.

Following a 23-2 first quarter explosion by the Ramblers and a 37-9 lead at the half, it was time for the induction ceremony for alumni, Kevin Crandell.

After the family and close friends made their way to midcourt, Booster president, Scott McKenzie gave a short background on Crandell, and when his name was announced, no one came forward. Crandell, who joined the U.S. Marine Corps in 1983 and served active duty for over 30 years before retiring.

Thanks to the Boyne City Schools visual imaging class teacher, Randy Calcaterra, Crandell was able to make a live appearance, some 6000 miles away at the U.S. Consulate in Iraq, on the newly installed "Ramblertron," a huge video screen that now resides in the far corner of the gymnasium.

Crandell, a 1982 graduate of Boyne City, is in Iraq working as a Worldwide

Protective Specialist.

While attending Boyne, he participated in football, basketball and track. During his live feed, he thanked the Boosters for the honor and answered a few questions that McKenzie asked and had made arrangements for some of the current Rambler seniors to present flowers to his wife, Sheila and adult children Kyle and Breanne.

From the opening tip though, you just knew it was going to be the Ramblers night as shots fell and the defense looked poised to stop the Vikings each and every trip down the court.

The first quarter had Boyne rolling as Aiden

Brehm, Jakob Steinhoff and Pete Calcaterra each scored six points each in the opening eight minutes of play, but it was at the 6:30 minute mark and again at just over five minutes that set the tone for the evening as Calcaterra took an alley-oop pass from Devon Hayden and threw down a one handed slam and just over a minute later, received an off the backboard toss from Steinhoff in transition for a two-handed dunk, prompting the Grayling bench to call a timeout.

The Ramblers then just kept piling on the points for the remainder of the evening, as assistant coach Tim Hardy took the reigns due to the absence of head coach Nick Redman who had left during intermission of the girls varsity contest to accompany wife, Julie to the hospital.

With Redman's assistants in charge, the team didn't miss a beat, they only continued to pour it on in the second half, closing out the third quarter with a 59-20 lead.

During that frame, Boyne City once again took to the air for a few of their points, that would indeed, send the Rambler faithful through the roof.

Brehm would make a steal and two step it in for a powerful slam, and just under thirty seconds later, Calcaterra would throw down a thunderous windmill dunk to make it 47-16 at the time.

Brehm paced the Ramblers with 19 points, while Steinhoff and Max Vondra each added nine and Calcaterra dropped in eight.

Stephen Orban also added seven and Jack Neer six for the winner, now 7-2 overall, 3-2 in the LMC.

Earlier in the week, the Ramblers fell to Elk Rapids 71-69 in overtime in LMC play. Boyne got 28 points from Calcaterra and 21 from Steinhoff in the loss.

Lancers keep rolling, down both Loggers and Wildcats

ELLSWORTH 57, BOYNE FALLS 27

BOYNE FALLS — And they keep on rolling.

The Ellsworth boys basketball team continued their winning ways when they made the short road trip to Boyne Falls, coming away with a 57-27 Northern Lakes Conference victory on January 24.

The Lancers put three players in double figures, led by Ethan Tornga's 18 points and nine rebounds, while Kelan Pletcher added 17 and Jamal Cebulski with 10 points and four steals.

Ellsworth put the game out of reach in the first eight minutes of play, as they outscored Boyne Falls 23-6 in the first and were in full command at the half, up 38-15, before cruising to a 19-12 second half against the Loggers.

Also for the Lancers, Brayden Steenwyk hauled in eight boards and made four steals, Jaeger Griswold added six steals and six rebounds and Cebulski also had four steals.

ELLSWORTH 70, WOLVERINE 40

WOLVERINE — A strong second quarter proved to be a major difference in the outcome, as the Ellsworth boys basketball team used a 27-5 advantage during that time frame to defeat Wolverine 70-40 on January 21.

A 23 point, 10 rebound effort from Ethan Tornga helped lead a late first half charge for the Lancers in the Northern Lakes Conference contest.

After a 16-11 first quarter lead, Ellsworth clamped down on defense and turned up the heat on the offensive end, turning a close contest into a blowout.

Brayden Steenwyk and Jamal Cebulski each chipped in with 13 points, with Cebulski hauling in seven boards and Steenwyk dishing out seven assists.

Cebulski also made five steals and had four assists, while Jaeger Griswold added four.

REAL ESTATE CORNER

BROUGHT TO YOU BY
HOLLY STARK
EXP REAL ESTATE

Here are some tips to help you sell your home faster.

- A well-manicured lawn, neatly trimmed shrubs and a clutter-free porch welcome prospects. So does a freshly painted or freshly scrubbed front door. If it's autumn, rake the leaves. If it's winter, shovel the walkways. The fewer obstacles between prospects and the true appeal of your home, the better.

- Clean up the living room, the bathroom, and the kitchen. If your woodwork is scuffed or the paint is fading, consider some minor redecoration. Fresh wallpaper adds charm and value to your property. If you're worried about time, hire professional cleaners or painters to get your house ready. Remember, prospects would rather see how great your home really looks than hear how great it could look "with a little work."

- Dripping water rattles the nerves, discolors sinks, and suggests faulty or worn-out plumbing. Burned out bulbs or faulty wiring leave prospects in the dark. Don't let little problems detract from what's right with your home.

- If cabinets or closet doors stick in your home, you can be sure they will also stick in a prospect's mind.

- Homeowners learn to live with all kinds of self-set booby traps: roller skates on the stairs, extension cords, slippery throw rugs and low hanging overhead lights. Make your residence as non-perilous as possible for visitors.

- Organize and clean out your closets and storage space. It helps them appear open and large. This is a good time to rent a mini-warehouse space to store things you don't need for a while.

- Bathrooms sell homes. Check and repair damaged or unsightly caulking in the tubs and showers. For added allure, display your best towels, mats, and shower curtains.

- For a spacious look in the bedrooms, get rid of excess furniture. Colorful bedspreads and fresh curtains are a must.

- Turn on all your lights - both inside and outside - when showing your home in the evening.

- When a showing is scheduled have a minimum amount of people in the home. Plan to be away from your home if your real estate agent is showing the home.

- Watch Your Pets. Keep them out of sight when showing your home
