Rayders take down Ramblers

CHARLEVOIX 62, BOYNE CITY 50

BOYNE CITY — A late surge by the Rayders, which included a trio of triples in the fourth quarter alone was enough to halt a tough Boyne City boys basketball team as Charlevoix defeated their rival 62-50 on February 11. The two teams traded baskets early and it stayed that way throughout the opening eight minutes of play as the teams were deadlocked 13-13 headed into the second. Charlevoix would get a slight advantage during the quarter, as Evan Solomon scored eight of his game-high 27 points, and the Rayders headed into the break with a 29-27 lead.

Pete Calcaterra scored eight points in the third to put the Ramblers ahead 42-41 going into the final eight minutes of regulation.

In the fourth, Charlevoix would open things up as the quarter went on, outscoring the home team 21-8 over that span as four different players scored four or more points in the frame.

Jacob Mueller recorded 11 points, despite being in foul trouble early on, Caleb Stuck added nine points for the Rayders, while Ben Lentz had six.

"We did some good things through three quarters," Boyne City coach Nick Redman said. "Give Charlevoix credit, they shot it well and executed better and really wanted it down the stretch. Solomon played great, we struggled to guard him tonight."

The Ramblers struggled from beyond the arc, going 3-of-17.

Aidan Brehm finished with 15 points to lead Boyne, while Calcaterra added 14 and Jakob Steinhoff had eight and eight rebounds.

Max Vondra added seven boards and three assists.

CHARLEVOIX 55, ELK RAPIDS 36

CHARLEVOIX — And the wins just keep coming.

The Charlevoix boys basketball team picked up their second Lake Michigan Conference victory over the past week, downing Elk Rapids, 55-36 on February 14.

A 12-2 first quarter lead by the Rayders 10 from sophomore guard, Evan Solomon, quickly turned that into a 29-19 advantage at the half and 44-23 after three quarters of play.

Solomon would finish with 18 points for the winners, while Jacob Mueller netted a game-high 21 and Luke Stuck recorded a double-double with 12 points and 11 boards.

Preston Ball had 12 points for the Elks.

Charlevoix improved to 12-3 on the season, 8-2 in league play.

BOYNE CITY 74, EAST JORDAN 46

EAST JORDAN — The Boyne City boys basketball team rebounded from a loss earlier in the week to route East Jordan 74-46 in Lake Michigan Conference play on February 14.

The Ramblers jumped out early, taking a 20-10 opening quarter lead behind six points from freshman Jack Neer and another five from senior, Jakob Steinhoff, which offset the seven points poured in from Red Devil senior, AJ Bartlett during the same span.

Boyne would really open it up in the second and third quarters as Pete Calcaterra scored eighteen of his game-high 20 during the two quarters, while also hauling in 10 rebounds.

The Ramblers were in control 38-20 at the half and 59-37 at the end of the third.

“Credit to Boyne, as they did a great job of taking us out of our game plan and we didn’t execute at all,” EJ coach Nate Dzwik said. “We played through foul trouble in the first half and that hurt us as we couldn’t find a rhythm to the game. Unfortunately when you are playing one of your rivals and they play with an energy that we didn’t have we don’t deserve to win that game.”

“Although we didn’t match their energy I think the kids fought all night,” coach Dzwik added. “They did a really good job of making us pay for every mistake and made free throws at the end of the game.”

Jackson Raymond paced the Red Devils with five boards and 18 points, two of which came on an alley-oop dunk on an assist from Bartlett during third quarter action, that brought the crowd to their feet.

Bartlett finished with 13 points and five rebounds for EJ, while Cooper Stevenson added seven, while Chandler Bartig added four boards and three assists.

“Really proud of the guys, the way they responded this week, having our best effort in practice and see that carry over to the game tonight,” Boyne coach Nick Redman said. “Says a lot about the character of this team, we played 32 minutes and rebounded well.”

Aidan Brehm added 15 points, eight boards and five assists, Neer scored 13 and Steinhoff had 11 points and 12 rebounds and Max Vondra chipped in with six points and eight boards.

“Jack Neer had his best game and gave us a big lift off the bench tonight,” Redman added.

Elk Rapids Downs East Jordan

ELK RAPIDS 60, EAST JORDAN 53

EAST JORDAN — The East Jordan boys basketball team was unable to sustain their first quarter momentum in falling to the host Elks 60-53 on February 11.

A fast start by the Red Devils was soon over, as they cooled off in the second quarter and the Elk capitalized, overcoming an 18-9 first quarter EJ lead, as the Elks outscored the Red Devils 23-3 in the eight minutes just before the half, taking a 32-21 lead at the break.

“A tough game that came down to us failing to execute when we really need to,” EJ coach Nate Dzwik said. “A great end to the first quarter in which we got them to turn it over a few times but that really just got them back into their game.”

Jackson Raymond and Cooper Stevenson scored 17 points each, with Raymond adding 14 rebounds and four assists and Stevenson 10 boards.

AJ Bartlett chipped in with 12 points and Chandler Bartig finished with four points, four boards and four assists.

“We again had it down to two points and the ball at 53-51 and we turned it over and then didn’t execute a defensive plan coming out of the timeout,” coach Dzwik noted. “They did a really good job of making us pay for every mistake and made free throws at the end of the game.”

Cross Country

East Jordan senior, Caleb Carson has signed his National Letter of Intent to run cross country for Rochester University next fall. Carson is a four year letter winner for the Red Devils, participating in both cross country and track and field at East Jordan High School, while also participating as a member of the basketball team. Caleb has earned postseason awards in both cross country and track. Pictured are, front L-R: father Bill Carson, Caleb, mother Kris Carson, sister Holley LaLonde. ## Red Devils down Elks, fall short to Ramblers

BOYNE CITY 41,
EAST JORDAN 37

EAST JORDAN — In a Valentine's Day contest, Boyne City visited East Jordan and both girls basketball teams played hard as they battled right down to the last minute of the contest, where the Ramblers prevailed 41-37 in Lake Michigan Conference action on February 14.

In a contest that neither team seemed able to pull away, Boyne City was able to take a late game lead and then hold off a comeback effort by the Red Devils.

Boyne led 12-7 after one quarter and were ahead 24-17 at the half, before seeing their lead shrink to 32-29 entering the fourth.

Jayden Weber finished with a game-high 19 points and eight boards, while Lauren Peterson added five points, two steals and five rebounds for East Jordan.

Lindsey Cross added five rebounds and Molly Kitson dished out four assists for the Red Devils, now 9-7 overall, 5-5 LMC.

"We played a much better game against Boyne this time but just couldn't get over the hump," EJ coach Steve Hines said.

Boyne City was led by Katelyn Gabos with 10 points, while Laurin Fitzpatrick and Taylor Noble dropped in seven points each as the Ramblers improved to 10-5, 6-4.

EAST JORDAN 41,
ELK RAPIDS 32

ELK RAPIDS — Jayden Weber recorded another double-double in leading East Jordan to a 41-32 Lake Michigan Conference victory over Elk Rapids on February 11.

Devils jump out to a 10-4 first quarter advantage before extending that to 24-16 at the half and 30-21 at the close of the third.

Freshman Lindsey Cross added eight points, while Lauren Peterson had six points and seven rebounds and three steals and Molly Kitson handed out three assists.

Lauren Bingham scored 16 points for the Elks.

"Free throws were the difference again, (going 11-of-13) in the fourth quarter," EJ coach Steve Hines noted. "All of our points in the last quarter came from the free throw line!"

Rayders stay perfect in Lake Michigan Conference

CHARLEVOIX 36,
ELK RAPIDS 22

CHARLEVOIX — For the 10th time in 10 Lake Michigan Conference outings, the Charlevoix girls basketball team came away victorious.

On February 14, the Rayders defeated visiting Elk Rapids 36-22.

A slow moving first quarter saw Charlevoix take a 7-5 lead, but then they stepped it up on both sides of the ball, scoring 13 points in the second quarter and then held the Elks without a point during that same span for a 20-5 cushion headed into half-time.

Neither team came out on fire after the break, but the Rayders outscored Elk Rapids 6-4 during the third and then held on for the win.

Sophomore Taylor Petrosky finished with 14 points, while senior Addie Nagel added seven for Charlevoix, now 11-5 overall, 10-0 league.
