BOYNE CITY – Very cute and quaint home set at the south end of Lake Street, and just around the corner from Avalanche Preserve. This 2 bed. 1 bath home packs a lot into a little, but would make a great starter home, or your second home in paradise here in Boyne! The lot is larger being 105 x 90, and offers a nice backyard, that with some privacy fencing could be a great little private haven. You won't want to miss your opportunity to see this one, as it is priced well and ready to move into! $169,900

Governor Gretchen Whitmer donates shoes to East Jordan Shoe Club

Governor visited East Jordan Middle School Tuesday

BY KATE DELANEY

One solitary pair of Stuart Weitzman pumps can sometimes make the biggest difference on election day.

Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer arrived at the East Jordan Middle/ High School on August 6 at 12:20 p.m. to present a personal pair of shoes to the East Jordan Shoe Club.

Matt Hamilton, founder of the club and a teacher at the middle school, met her with a few of his students and the press in a class-

After the students presented some of the projects they had completed, Hamilton showed Governor Whitmer around the room to look at the extensive collection of shoes that had been donated to the club, from athletes like Michael Jordan, Usain Bolt and Arnold Palmer to celebrities like Dolly Parton and Oprah Winfrey.

Hamilton had contacted Governor Whitmer to ask if she could donate a pair of shoes in March of 2024, but he didn't think that she would be able to visit the school. A week-and-a-half ago, he got an email saying that she would be coming to East Jordan on August 6.

"I just want to put people in front of my students to inspire them to dream big, set goals, work hard and give back at the end of the day," he said. "That's pretty much it."

Hamilton added that the kids were used to having shoes sent to the club from famous people, but they had not often had those people deliver the shoes themselves.

Mailey Hamilton, a 19-year-old beginning her second year at the University of Michigan, was one of the students who presented a recent project to Whitmer. During her middle school years, she was involved in the club. When she became a high school junior, she shifted to being a mentor for the kids, helping them with chores and presentations.

Hamilton talked about how her involvement with the East Jordan Solar Spark Project influenced her to minor in sustainability at college.

"I didn't really know what sustainability was before the Solar Spark Project," she said. "And then, after learning so much about solar energy and renewable energy and learning about the benefits of that and how much it impacts the world, it was an incredible experience and something that my eyes were opened to."

Hamilton added that she has felt that rural areas don't get much attention or traction, and that it was great to see an influential person like Governor Whitmer be genuinely interested in what the students had to Whitmer did a presentation for the middle school club members, commenting that she had never given her shoes to a school before and hoped that they didn't look quite as big as Shaquille O'Neil's pair on display.

During her Q&A session ith the students. Whitmer responded with a call to be active in the community, revealing that what she had learned the most during her terms as governor was the art of listening.

"Whether it's policy here at school, or it is policy and state government, or the national government, your generation is going to live with the consequences longer than any of the rest of us are," she said. "And that's why I hope that you guys are bold and that you jump in."

Whitmer said she has been writing down three positive things that happen each day, even after the difficult ones. She added that it has been helpful to be intentional about seeking the good out, and that this conversation she had with East Jordan's middle schoolers would be on the list.

Whitmer addressed how her recent signing of the $23 billion education budget for 2025 could affect a student's work ethic.

"I think potential is everywhere, but opportunity is not, and that's why leveling those barriers is so important," she said. "At the end of the day, the individual is going to be the one who earns the job or not."

The East Jordan Shoe Club's recent undertaking was the Honor and Service Project, where they partnered with The American Legion and raised 163,000 dollars to honor veterans. Among other things, they were able to create a Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) Veteran's Park and write a 300-page commemorative book with the help of local veterans survey answers.

Hamilton said that the club has a more relaxed year between every big project to follow up on it and ensure its success. This year, he said the kids will be engaging with the community through taking trips and doing smaller projects, as well as starting a podcast.

Edward John Hara, 79

April 17, 1945 ~ Aug. 2, 2024 BOYNE CITY

Edward John Hara of Boyne City, and Venice, Florida, died in Charlevoix on August 2, 2024 from complications after heart surgery. He died peacefully with his wife, Sally Jo Hara, next to him as she had been for 57 years of marriage.

Ed was born on April 17, 1945, in Syracuse, New York. His family moved around a bit, but he grew up mostly in Pike County, Ohio, where he met his wife, Sally (Cunningham), in high school. He married Sally in 1966, with Sally in a homemade dress, and Ed in his horn-rimmed glasses. Ed taught high school in Oakland County, Michigan for many years and then earned a PhD in Education from Michigan State University. He then taught English at Oakland Community College for many years before retiring Post-retirement, he earned his Personal Training certification to share his love of fitness and weight lifting with others. He taught his love of the gym to his son and his grandsons, all of whom love working out as much as Ed did.

Ed was an avid reader, and family members could count on a book for a Christmas gift. He also loved nimble cars and took great joy in caring for his many Miatas and Subaru WRXs. He had warm relationships with car dealerships and gifted car wax often for birthdays. A summer tradition was for him to roll into his son's driveway, top down in the Miata, to pick up Mark or a grandson for ice cream or to get lunch. If you saw Ed, he was probably driving around town, stopping for a coffee and, mostly, for a chat. He thrived on connections, and he would remember small details about the people he met and ask them follow-up questions the next time they ran into one another. At family dinners, he grilled way too much meat and urged everyone to eat more, just like his mother did in southern Ohio so many years ago. He wanted everyone else to live their best lives and was happy to do everything he could to support them. When Sally wanted to change jobs, study yoga, get a new degree, or anything else, he would encourage her to do it and assure her they'd figure out how to make it work. He tried to attend every band concert, sports event, and awards ceremony his son and grandsons ever participated in, and he encouraged them with advice and support at every turn. He was a model of how to be a great father for his son, and he welcomed his daughter-in-law to the family with open arms. Whenever anyone was struggling, he tried to think of ways he could help.

of ways he could help.

Ed loved music, especially if it had big guitars and great lyrics. Near the end of his life, he sat in his hospital bed and quoted Bruce Springsteen and Social Distortion lyrics from memory to his son, as well as offering thoughts on Neil Young's latest album

Young's latest album.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Midred (Tackett) Neihart; stepfather, Bill Neihart; and his father, Edward Hara, Sr. He became interested in his genealogy as he grew older and would delight his family with old photos he would find of family from Appalachia Appalachia.

He is survived by Sally and his son and daughter-in-law, Mark and Jami Blaauw-Hara, and grandsons Joad and Harper.

His sister, Nancy, lives in Waverly, Ohio, where they grew up; he has two nephews (Nathan and Ryan) and a niece (Jennifer). His sister-in-law, Judy, lives in Columbus, Ohio, and thought of him as a brother.

The family is grateful to the staff at Mary Free Bed in Traverse City and the folks at University of Michigan's Cardiac and Neurology units for their thoughtful care. Munson Hospice provided excellent and welcome endof-life care. A memorial is planned for a future time.

planned for a future time.

For now, any gifts or donations can be sent to Boyne City Public Schools. Ed would see coats on sale and buy them for any area youth who needed them. He was exceptionally generous and worried about people staying warm. Or, well-wishers are encouraged to support their local public library; Ed was very engaged with the Boyne District Library.

Ed loved many good authors, but one of his favorites was Wendell Berry, who wrote:

"But the mercy of the world is time. Time does not stop for love, but it does not stop for death and grief, either. After death and grief that (it seems) ought to have stopped the world, the world goes on. More things happen. And some of the things that happen are good."

Ed would want us to appreciate the good in our lives, to talk to friends, to revel in the air in our hair on a summer night driving, to enjoy big plates of food with a lot of ketchup, and to support each other.

Larry Duane Peck, 71

Oct. 6, 1952 - Aug. 1, 2024 BOYNE CITY

Larry Duane Peck was born on October 6, 1952 in Petoskey, and passed away on August 1, at the age of 71 in Boyne City. Known for his humor and caring nature, Larry was a character who brought joy and laughter to those around him.

After graduating from Boyne City High School, Larry proudly served in the Army from 1972-1974, dedicating himself to his country during his years of service. After his military service, he pursued a career as a heavy equipment operator for H & D, where he was respected for his strong work ethic and expertise.

Larry's passions included hunting, fishing, and supporting the Detroit Tigers; activities he enjoyed sharing with friends and family.

Larry leaves behind his loving wife of 47 years, Bridget (Belford) and sons Travis (Amy) Peck and Jeremy (Heather) Peck. He was a cherished grandfather to Jagger, Rider, Sayler, Colter, Emerson, and Gracen. He is also survived by his mother Kathleen; brother Dennis (Kathy) Peck; sister Doreen (PC) Christensen; many loving in-laws, and nieces and nephews. Larry was preceded in death by his father, Floyd Peck.

A burial service will be held at Maple Lawn Cemetery at 12:00 PM, followed by a Celebration of Life at the City Hall in Boyne City on August 24 from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM.

Larry will be remembered as a devoted family man, a jokester, and a true friend whose legacy will continue to live on through his family and the many lives he touched.

Family is suggesting that memorials be directed to Charlevoix Area Humane Society.

Arrangements are in the care of Stackus Funeral Home.

Richard "Dick" Joseph, 67 d. July 30, 2024 CHARLEVOIX

Richard ("Dick") Joseph of Charlevoix passed away July 30, surrounded by family, after a courageous struggle against years of complications following a 2002 accident that had left him paralyzed from the waist down. Both before and after becoming paralyzed, Dick was a leader in his community, especially in business and education, and after his accident he became an inspiration to everyone who knew him. Time and again, he battled back against seemingly impossible odds. Over many years and right through to the end, his will to keep fighting never left him. Nor did his devotion to his family and community.

Dick was born in Grayling in 1957 and graduated from Grayling High School in 1975. He competed on the ski team and served as class president while in high school, in addition to being a member of the National Honor Society.

In 1979, he received a Bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan, where he was a member of the Psi U fraternity. Dick attended law school at Detroit College of Law, graduating in 1985.

He began his legal career at Simpson and Moran in Birmingham, MI and then moved to the firm's Charlevoix office, as he wanted to get back to northern Michigan.

He married Allison Townsend in 1989, and they made their home in Charlevoix. Dick quickly became one of the leading business attorneys in Charlevoix and actively practiced until a few years ago when health issues began taking a toll. He also owned Charlevoix Abstract and Title Company.

Dick was admired for his leadership in the community. He served for years as president of the Charlevoix Chamber of Commerce and was an early member of the board of trustees of the Charlevoix County Community Foundation, serving from 1999-2005.

Dick believed strongly in public education, and he gave countless hours in support of school millage campaigns. He was elected to the Charlevoix School Board, serving from 2012 to 2024.

The kind of business and community leadership Dick believed in was associated with his family's history in Grayling. In fact, Dick remained proud throughout his life of his family's connection to Grayling and their long history as business owners there who cared about and were involved in the community.

Between college and law school, Dick moved home to manage the Grayling Mercantile Co. ("The Merc"), a department store in downtown Grayling that his family had owned and operated since the 1880s.

Not surprisingly, Dick was among the first group of inductees into the Grayling High School Hall of Fame.

Dick loved his family, his community, and his profession. He was also a skilled debater and a tough fighter when it came to politics. He defended his liberal values with creativity and passion, but always argued against his many conservative friends with respect and wit.

Dick had a rare force of attraction about him, so that even those he debated -- even if they didn't share his liberal politics or root for U-M sports -- liked, respected, and admired him. He was loved for his warmth, his inimitable sense of humor, his intelligence, his willingness to stand up for his beliefs. and the irreplaceable part he played in his family as a loving father, husband, brother, and uncle. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him, and he made so many lives so much richer.

Dick Joseph is survived by his wife, Allison, their two daughters Alyssia (Gary Pawson) and Savannah (Collin Bajko), their granddaughter Lilliana, brother William (Bill) and sister-in-law Linda Joseph, his faithful dog Oakley, and many, many friends, relatives and caregivers who were always there for him along his brave journey.

In honor of Dick's service to the Charlevoix County Community Foundation, memorial contributions can be made to the Trustees Fund for the Community using the following link: https://cthreef.fcsuite.com/erp/donate/create/fund?funit id=1426

A Celebration of Life will be held at The Boathouse in East Jordan on Sunday, September 1, from 3-6pm.

Arrangements are in the care of the Charlevoix Chapel of Mortensen Funeral Homes. Please sign his online guestbook www. mortensenfuneralhomes. com.

Impact 100 Little Traverse Bay Launches Newest Chapter In Charlevoix and Emmet Counties

BY JOHN KEYSER

Impact100 Little Traverse Bay is a new women's member giving collective awarding $100,000 grants in Charlevoix and Emmet Counties. Impact100's global founder, Wendy H. Steele gave the keynote speech at the Launch Celebration on June 28, 2024, at the Bay Harbor Yacht Club where 240 women attended. She was voted one of USA Today's most influential women in 2024. Her model is to be an inclusive women's group and was built with member flexibility in mind as women's roles needed new and more flexible ways of making an impact together. Women have the power to transform their communities through collective giving. This was the premise for Impact100. In our area, we have local and seasonal women making contributions to help our nonprofits in both Charlevoix and Emmet Counties.

The Impact100 model awards high-impact, sustainable grants. Members pool their $1000 annual dues to award $100,000 grants to area nonprofits in five Focus Areas: Arts & amp; Culture, Education, Family, Health & Wellness and Environment. One membership is one vote, $1000 and one meeting per year. There are many ways to get more involved if the member so chooses. Every dollar given goes directly to the nonprofits. We raise administrative fees separately. Lloyann Curtis, Impact100

LTB's founding president explains, "What makes Impact100 Little Traverse Bay relevant to the community and different is that our grants will never be below $100,000 for the worthy nonprofit(s) that are selected. The membership itself votes on where the grants get awarded with the five focus areas we fund. Our $100,000 grants are designed to get the non-profits to think outside

"Because the smallest grant we give is $100,000, we need at least 100 women to join us as founding members". Right now, we already have 140 members, the box, dream big and propose projects that will be transformational and sustainable."

with our goal being 200 at the end of August. This means we have already funded one $100,000 gift, and we are well on our way to funding a second one. Founding membership closes on December 31, 2024. In October, workshops for nonprofits will be held in Charlevoix and Harbor Springs. Grant applications open in January 2025.

Impact100 Little Traverse Bay is part of the Global Impact100 movement 73 chapters strong, 50 chapters in development, and 30,000 members who have collectively given $140,000,000.

Says...

By Dave Ramsey

What's Best for Me?

Dear Dave,

I was talking to some friends the other day about wills and trusts. They seemed to have a variety of opinions, so can you straighten things out for me? I don't have a will or a trust, and my financial situation is pretty simple. I just want to make sure I do the right thing.

-William

Dear William,

This is a great question. I'm sure your friends are smart folks, but I'm glad you're looking for more answers. I'm not a lawyer, so I'm just going to give you a few simple things to think about. Also, I'd strongly suggest you talk to an experienced will and trust lawyer, one with the heart of a teacher, who will give you all the facts and put your best interests

Basically, a will is a legal document that explains what you want to happen with your stuff when you die and puts it all in writing. There are many different types of wills, but for most people a simple will is all you need to establish a solid estate plan that protects your family if something happens to you.

Trusts tend to be geared toward people with more assets and unique or complex estate issues. They also come in lots of different forms like, living trusts, revocable and irrevocable trusts and special needs trusts, just to name a few. In my mind, if you have less than $1 million in assets-and your financial world is pretty simple and straightforward—a will gets the job done just fine.

One of the most important differences between wills and trusts is the ability to name a guardian for your minor children. You can name a legal guardian in your will, but you can't in a trust. So, even if you have a trust, you'll still need a will to make sure your kids are taken care of after you die.

Another important distinction between the two is that a trust lets you skip probate court—a will doesn't. Probate court cases can drag on forever. Plus, they can be expensive. If your estate gets mixed up in probate court because someone challenges the will, it could mean your family has to spend months in court while grieving. No one wants to go through that. While we're on the subject of probate court, let's talk about another sticky

There's a little bit of crazy in every family. You probably know who they are in your family, but if you don't, it might be you. Seriously, though, we all know some families that seem to have more than their fair share of crazy and drama, and wills are best for families that struggle with these issues and tension between family members. Probate court can resolve those problems. On the other hand. families who can handle healthy conflict, and who trust each other, are better off with a trust, since they don't need a probate court to babysit them.

And if you're wondering if you can have both a trust and a will, the answer is yes. In fact, most people who have a trust have a will, too.

I hope this little bit helps!

Charlevoix Rotary Club Welcomes Rotary International Leaders

BY LAURA JASURDA

This past Thursday, the Charlevoix Rotary Club had the honor of hosting two distinguished guests: Stephanie Urchick, the 2024-25 President of Rotary International, and Brianna Scott, the 2024-25 District Governor. Brianna Scott took the stage and delivered a heartfelt address, filled with recognition, encouragement, and a shared vision for the future.

Brianna Scott acknowledged the Charlevoix Rotary Club for being only $8,000 away from reaching the financial goal for the community project at Mt. McSauba Beach. This project, which involves installing a new playground, is a testament to the commitment to enhancing the community. In an exciting announcement, Brianna pledged to return in May to assist with the playground build, reinforcing Rotary's hands-on approach to service.

The club was also praised for embodying all four quadrants of Rotary International's new Action Plan:

- Increasing Impact: Through initiatives like the Mt. McSauba Beach playground project, making tangible improvements in the community.
- Expanding Reach: By engaging with a broader audience and building connections, spreading the values and mission of Rotary further than ever before.
- Enhancing Participant Engagement: The vibrant meetings and active participation showcase a dedication to keeping members involved and motivated.
- Increasing Ability to Adapt: Through partnerships and collaborations, demonstrating flexibility and willingness to innovate to meet community needs.

For more information about the new Rotary International Action Plan, visit www.rotary.org/actionplan. Brianna's challenge for the club was clear: to increase membership. She highlighted the unique benefits the club offers, including a great breakfast at the Happy Troll every Thursday morning from 7:30-8:30am, breathtaking views of Lake Charlevoix, and a lineup of amazing speakers. It's an invitation to all community members to experience the camaraderie and sense of purpose that comes with being a part of the Charlevoix Rotary Club.

As efforts continue to serve and improve the community, the club looks forward to welcoming new members and achieving new milestones together. Join us next Thursday morning and see firsthand the positive impact being made. Your presence and participation can help achieve goals and make Charlevoix an even better place to live.

LEADERSHIP

Being An Excellent Communicator

BY JOHN KEYSER

Being an excellent communicator, of course as well as being a very good listener, are vitally important to positively influencing people. Well, why do so many struggle with communication?

A great many are unaware that their communication could be improved. They assume they are timely, thorough, and clear while others do not think they are.

We could rationalize, e.g., the busyness of our lives, endless information coming at us, and distraction by the internet and our smart phones. These surely make it difficult for us to focus on our team members and others. Yet, leadership – and good communication – stem from our attitude, and our attitude must be based on connecting with and serving others!

Serving others means helping others be successful and feeling good about themselves.

Yes, feeling good about themselves is key. Everyone wants to feel:

- ☐ Appreciated and valued
- \square They are heard
- ☐ Their ideas matter☐ They are an important
- member of the team

 ☐ They are kept informed

This means that they feel connected, cared for and supported.

Being a good communicator, sharing information, and feelings, completely and honestly – on a timely basis – make an important positive difference...as does being an active listener. Being truly interested and listening to understand and learn, without a personal agenda, are key to effective communication.

Our timely responsiveness and being accessible are critically important!

I have encountered a surprising number of situations when people simply were not responsive. They are people who should be leaders, but definitely fall short in timely responsiveness.

Also, bear in mind that clarity is a strength!

John and his wife, Kerry, live in Charlevoix, was a senior executive in the corporate world in NYC, Chicago and DC, then founded Common Sense Leadership, a leadership coaching and consulting practice, helping senior people in the business, academic, and religious worlds improve leadership, their own and their team's. John is a graduate of Georgetown's Institute for Transformational Leadership and Life Purpose Institute. Kerry teaches at St. Mary School in Charlevoix and heads Encounter School of Ministry, Charlevoix campus.

STUFF THE BUS!

Help the Salvation Army 'Stuff the Bus' with school supplies for local children

PETOSKEY - The Salvation Army will be at Petoskey's Walmart on Friday, August 9th and Saturday, August 10th from 10AM-6PM to Stuff the Bus with school supplies for children of low-income families. Lite 96.3 will be there to kick off the event and bring awareness to the community. Flyers with needed supply items will be handed out at each door by volunteers from community organizations such as the Emmet County Republican party and Little Traverse Bay Kiwanis Club.

Summer "fun in the sun" will quickly be morphing "back to school" and this year more than ever, low-income families need help affording the high cost of school supplies that have nearly doubled in cost over the last couple of years due to inflation. While some children are anxiously awaiting seeing their friends again and fun shopping trips for the latest trends, some children are dreading the return because their parents are simply unable to afford items that are vital to their education.

This not only puts more stress on children who already have stress from maintaining busy schedules between homework, sports and other activities, but also on parents who are trying their best to provide while rushing to the next event and on teachers managing under-equipped crowded classrooms.

"When one child has highlighters, sticky notes and colored pencils and another child doesn't, it makes it more difficult for them to navigate through the curriculum being taught" says Jenni Hand, Pellston Middle School Teacher. When asked, a local high schooler said he would not only feed ill-prepared, but also feel embarrassed if he didn't have access to the supplies his peers had and that he needs to succeed.

Stuff the Bus donations are distributed to local schools in Emmet, Charlevoix and Antrim Counties. Two school districts are chosen to be the recipients each year on a rotating basis. For example, last year Mackinaw Public Schools and Boyne Falls Public Schools were chosen while the year prior they were distributed to Pellston Public Schools and Alanson Public Schools. By allowing schools to have the supplies on hand, they are immediately accessible to the children who need them and because they are given confidentially, children do not experience a feeling of shame because their family cannot afford the same items their peers

If you are unable to get to Walmart you can find Walmart's online "Registry for Good" and purchase supplies that will be shipped to The Salvation Army of Petoskey. You may also drop supplies off Monday-Friday 9AM-4PM (closed noon to 1PM) at The Salvation Army's new Community Center located at 2350 Mitchell Park Drive in Petoskey from now through Friday, August

The Salvation Army, an international movement, is an evangelical part of the Universal Christian Church. Its message is based on the Bible. Its ministry is motivated by the love of God. Its mission is to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and to meet human needs in His name without discrimination. For more information about our ministries, programs or services or to donate, please visit www.sapetoskey.org or call (231)347-3531.

ASK LAURA F POSITIVITY AND INSPIRATI

Meet the Moment

Dear Readers, "Decision" is a word we use often, but have you ever considered its Latin roots? "De" meaning "off" and "cision" meaning "cut." To make a decision is to cut off all other options. This idea has resonated deeply with me, especially as I reflect on my journey and the twists and turns that have brought me to this very moment.

Life is full of unexpected challenges and opportunities. Each high and low, each success and setback, has a purpose. They shape us, teach us, and prepare us for the moments that matter most. I've had my share of ups and downs, each one a stepping stone, guiding me closer to my true path.

Recently, as I shared last week, I faced a significant change that could have easily been a devastating blow. Instead, I chose to see it as a pivotal moment, a chance to realign and refocus. In those challenging times, I leaned into my faith, trusting that every twist and turn was part of a greater plan. I remembered the whisper I heard in my heart: "Just wait until you see what I do next."

When we embrace the unknown with an open heart, we allow ourselves to grow and evolve. "This isn't happening to me; it's happening for me" are words I tell myself. It's in these moments of uncertainty that we discover our true strength and resilience. We learn to pivot, adapt, and ultimately thrive.

My journey has taught me that we are never alone.

Laura Jasurda

There is always a greater force guiding us, whether we recognize it or not. Each step, whether forward or backward, is part of a larger dance that leads us to our destiny. I've found that by embracing this perspective, I'm able to meet each moment with grace and gratitude, knowing that everything is unfolding exactly as it should.

So, dear readers, when life throws you a curveball, remember to meet the moment. Trust that every decision, every twist and turn, is preparing you for something greater. Embrace the journey, and you'll find that each step brings you closer to your true purpose.

Laura Jasurda is not just a writer and columnist; she's also a certified John Maxwell Leadership Trainer and Mentor, as well as a highly accomplished global business development executive and entrepreneur. Her passion lies in spreading positivity, nurturing personal growth, and fortifying our community bonds. Laura's mission is to empower you to unlock your full potential and lead your best life, both individually and as an integral part of your community.

The Weekly Choice and Charlevoix County News are locally owned newspapers We are independently owned newspapers based in Gaylord, Michigan

Dave Baragrey and the staff of news writers, sports writers, photographers, graphic designers, delivery people and sales people all live and work here and care about our local communities we serve.

We hear from readers every week how much they appreciate all the local coverage. We appreciate all the positive response from both readers and advertisers to our newspapers that we hear so frequently.

So many newspapers in the area have dropped 30% and as much as 50% in circulation over the past year. Our newspaper distribution has remained steady and in many towns has grown in circulation.

We of course REALLY appreciate the advertisers. That is our primary source of revenue that allows us to publish our popular newspapers every week covering all over Northern Michigan.

If you are an advertiser that has become disappointed with the results of your newspaper advertising that is costing you way too much while reaching way fewer readers, you should try our newspapers. You will likely pay less money for far more circulation and reach readers in a much larger area.

The Weekly Choice is distributed free every Thursday at almost 600 locations around Northern Michigan.

The Charlevoix County News is distributed every Thursday in Boyne City, Boyne Falls, Charlevoix, East Jordan and Ellsworth to subscribers and on newsstands and wherever newspapers are sold. Cost is still just 75 cents (not $1.25 or $2.00).

PET OF THE WEEK

ANNA MAY

Hi guys!! I'm Anna May and I'm SO excited to meet you! I just love people! I am still learning manners and how to control my excitement so you may see me quite literally jump for joy at times, I promise it's something I'm working on though. I just need a nice human to come along and teach me some basic etiquette. I'm still young and very eager to learn! You may wonder why I'm a year old and don't have much training, well, I have spent almost my whole life in shelters. I was brought to a shelter out of town at about 4 months old and that's all I've ever known or been exposed to. I'm learning to go on walks now and how to walk nicely and the people here say I'm a quick learner! Unfortunately since shelter life is all I know, I can be standoffish with other dogs. Who wouldn't be a little reactive to a bunch of strangers barking at you though? I'm sure with the right human and some patience we could work through this. I haven't experienced those little fuzzy things called cats so I'm not sure I'd want to coexist with any, but again, maybe it's something I could learn to live with. Give me a chance and I promise to be the best girl I can be!

ADVERTISING FUNDS THE CHARLEVOIX COUNTY NEWS

We love to run community announcements and news releases about all the things happening in Northern Michigan in the Charlevoix County News. We help publicize hundreds of events and activities all across our area. Readers love the fact that the Charlevoix County News is distributed by mailed subscription or at tons of locations throughout Boyne City, Boyne Falls, Charlevoix, East Jordan, Ellsworth and Petoskey. However, it is expensive to publish this newspaper each week filled with tons of local news and sports. Our main source of revenue comes from advertising. If your business or organization has an advertising budget, be sure to include the Charlevoix County News in your plans. While other newspapers in the area are quickly fading, the Charlevoix County News is growing. Our newsstand prices and advertising rates are far less than any other paper and your message will reach readers all across the area. ADVICE FROM GOD

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above vourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others. In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. Philippians 2:3-7 NIV

RANCH STYLE HOME WITH VERSATILE LAYOUT ON THREE LOTS IN BOYNE CITY

BY JIM AKANS

This week's feature listing is a ranch style home with a versatile layout, situated on three city lots just four blocks from downtown Boyne City.

This three bedroom, two-and-a-half bath home has just over 1,900 feet of finished space. The layout offers two bedrooms and one-and-a-half baths on one side and the third bedroom with bath and a second kitchen on the other side off the garage. This provides great versatility for the growing family or for an in-law suite just off the main home. Interior amenities include a large living room with bay window, dining area with sliding door access to the outdoor deck, a good sized kitchen that opens to the dining and living areas, and much more.

The large deck is covered and offers great views of the huge property.

The location is conveniently located near parks, schools and is on the bike trail to Boyne Mountain. There is a one-and-a-half car garage to keep your vehicle out of the weather and a partially finished full basement for extra storage needs and workspace.

This ranch style home on three city lots is located at 1029 East Main Street in Boyne City and it is listed at $375,000. For more information or to arrange a home tour, call Marty Moody, Associate Broker or Christopher Christensen, Associate Broker, at Lynda's Real Estate Service in Boyne City at 231-582-9555 or email at Marty@lyndasrealestateservice.com or Chris@lyndasrealestateservice.com.

with love.

Family Photos also do the magic - Instead of buying expensive wall hangings, print some cool family photos and get them ready in simple wooden frames. You can hang them all around the corridor for a royal look.

Say it with Nature - Nature is the best thing, when it comes decorating your home frugally. So bring in some shade loving plants and nurture them in beautiful self-painted cases. You can also use pebbles, rocks and shells around them to create a beautiful look indoors.

Mirrors on the Wall - So what if your home is a little small, you can create a wide spacious effect by using mirrors. Yes, mirrors are great to make your home look spacious. So use mirrors all around your home.

Sweet Little Things Vases look charming, with or without flowers, and the best vases that you can place are your antique perfume bottles!
Why go to market to spend dollars on vases. Just grab those empty perfume bottles, you've been hiding in drawers for years and use them.

Pretty Fabrics & Frills
- Frills are the best thing to give your home a soft and romantic effect. So use lots of soft pillows with frills. Buy bed sheets in soft colors and frills to create an effeminate look

Creative Handmade crafts - Believe me, there is nothing more powerfully appealing then handmade crafts. If you have that artist eye, you can create creative hand crafts, if not, use the internet and books to spice you up with ideas. You can use cute little button on cushions. Grab large pieces of checkered or polka dot clothes to create cute handcrafted items.

Sparkle it up with Candles
- Candles are the best thing to decorate your home. You can reserve a special shelf for candles and fill it up with different colored candles for a tranquil soothing environment.

Be yourself - Well, decorating a home is all about you and how you do it! Just don't copy other's ideas, instead get inspiration and also add sparks of your own personal taste to decorate your home frugally

Whether you choose to visit us for days or move here for years, you will not be without a lack of activities, dining choices, retail offerings, educational opportunities, plus much more!
