Park scene

City workers have set up the nativity scene in the GAR Park on Main St. in East Jordan, a sure sign that Christmas is fast approaching.

January opening set for industrial park plant

EAST JORDAN - The industrial forecast isn't all negative for East Jordan despite layoffs at three of the community's biggest plants, Gulf and Western, ITT and the Iron Works.

Altair Tool and Engineering, which has four plants near Mount Clemens and one in Boyne City, will be opening a plant in the Industrial Park off M-32 right after the first of the year.

"We've just about completed our building and plan to move machinery right after the first of the year," Gil Redmer, plant manager of the Boyne City facility and third in command for the Altair company, said Tuesday.

The company is involved with terminal production, tool and die and light steel stamping, Redmer explained. Much of Altair's production is in areas of advanced technology, computer switches for the automotive, appliance and communications industries.

The company hasn't decided how many people it will employ yet. This follows Altair's philosophy, Redmer said.

"We get into lines that we can watch and see how they sell," he explained. "We've done it in other areas and it's worked real well. We judge it and see if we want to go big."

The initial work force will be around four or five people, Redmer said. Should the business warrant it, the number of employees will be increased.

Down the road a few years Altair is considering establishing an assembly plant in northern Michigan. The Boyne City plant is, and the new East Jordan facility will be, a source for parts assembled at a Mount Clemens assembly plant and by outside industries such as automotive or appliance plants.

Should Altair choose to assemble products in the area, approximately 25-30 people would be employed.

Altair is a heavily automated production operation, Redmer explained, turning out 60 to 70 million terminals a month during peak periods.

Unlike many auto-related companies, Altair hasn't felt the pinch of a slowdown in auto sales.

"We haven't been hurt too much by the auto slowdown," Redmer said. "It looks like it's gearing for smaller cars and we're able to handle that. We're looking for a real good year to come!"

The strong suit of the company is its forward thinking, Redmer said. "We are an advanced company," he explained.

"We're not one of those companies living in the past."

"We have a lot of new work right now," Redmer said. "We already have some real good orders for January and February."

The company's small size hasn't prevented it from making some technological breakthroughs, Redmer said.

"Ford told us our new computer switch was one of the biggest switches to come out of a small operation," he said.

Some 250,000 to 300,000 Fords are on the road with Altair's switch monitoring their engine. In 1982 the firm will have another switch in use to monitor automobile lights and engines.

The firm does about 70 percent of its business in the automotive industry and the other 30 percent in appliances.

The new 12,000 square foot East Jordan plant sits on four and a half to five acres of land, providing room for future expansion.

Redmer is a native of East Jordan who moved back north to Boyne City ten years ago after working several different places. He owns the Altair physical plant in Boyne City.

The two principal owners of Altair are Cliff Cloutier and Chuck Henritz.

Field trips galore in EJ

EAST JORDAN - Three field trips were approved, an update on a fourth trip was given, an elementary school cross-country ski program was approved, a $60,000 loan was approved and summer school taxes were talked about at the Tuesday night East Jordan Board of Education meeting.

Field trips approved were the senior English class going to the Stratford, Ontario Shakespearean Festival in January; a trip involving 25 learning center students staying at an outdoor education site near Mancelona; and a fourth grade trip to the Shrine Circus in Grand Rapids. The 22 students in the English class will cover the costs of their trip themselves and will be using a rented bus, not a school bus. The group will leave early on a Friday and return on Sunday.

The learning center trip will cost the school $2 for each of the 25 pupils and the students will raise money to take care of an $8 per person room and board fee. The group will go in private cars.

The trip to the Shrine Circus will be made in school buses but the Shriners will assume the transportation and ticket costs. The students have fund raising projects to pay for a meal on the trip.

The fifth grade trip to Greenfield Village may have some changes from previous years because of a package plan now offered by the Village. Details are being worked out.

The elementary cross-country program will be at Windmill Farms on the Boyne City - Charlevoix Road. The program will be Tuesdays from 3:30 to 7:30 p.m. and offer students a chance to ski for low rates.

Business manager Ruby Dipzinski told the board that the school system is out of cash. To tide the system over until state aid money arrives the board decided to borrow $60,000 from Northwestern State Bank at 7 per cent interest per annum.

The system had borrowed $275,000 at 5 1/2 percent in September against the anticipated revenues which total more than $600,000.

Four bands will play

EAST JORDAN - Four bands will share the spotlight at the East Jordan band concert Monday, Dec. 17, at 8 p.m. in the high school gym.

The seventh grade band, the eighth grade band, the freshman band and the high school concert band will all play

The borrowing brought on discussion about the possibility of a summer school tax collection. Dipzinski was instructed by the board to arrange a meeting between the board and the city council to discuss the matter.

The board also approved the concept of having baccalaureate services combined with graduation exercises on a Sunday. The date will be discussed between faculty and the administration.

The board also discussed its policy about allowing staff members to be on the city's fire department, saying "we have to have firemen." The board didn't make formal action on the matter but agreed that it was an asset to have trained firemen on the staff.

selections of Christmas music.

Traditional and pop Christmas music will be featured.

The cost for the concert will be $1.25 for adults, $.75 for students and free for senior citizens and children under five.

ITT to close Dec. 19

EAST JORDAN - ITT Electrical Products Division has disclosed plans to shut down its East Jordan plant. Dec. 19 will be the last day of operations.

VFW plans installation

EAST JORDAN - The newly organized Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 7580 is planning to install its officers Jan. 13 at 2:30 p.m. at an open house to be held at the SnoMobile Club's clubhouse on Mt. Bliss Road.

The post had a meeting Tuesday, Dec. 4, with several officers from other area posts attending.

Mike Master, district commander from Indian River, was present to aid the new post as was the quartermaster from Indian River's Post 7439, Al Harrington. Wilbur McKernan and Frank Cham from Central Lake offered their experience at the meeting as did Earl Elliot of Post 3623 in Cheboygan.

A meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 18, at 7:30 p.m. at the clubhouse that prospective members are encouraged to attend.

Tom Mathis, personnel director for the company's northern Michigan region, said uncertain conditions in the automotive industry made it impossible to project a re-opening date for the plant.

The company has said that if possible it will transfer employees from the East Jordan plant to ITT plants in Bellaire or Petoskey. Before that happens though, workers currently laid off at those plants will have to be already called back. Approximately 45 workers are laid off at the other two plants.

The East Jordan plant makes automotive wiring harnesses and slumping auto sales had slowed demand for the harnesses.

When it was at its peak production the plant employed some 175 hourly workers. When the plant closing was announced the company had cut back to 30 to 35 hourly employees.

Plant manager Bob Shaw is being transferred to an ITT facility in Texas.

Recreation committee needs new members

EAST JORDAN - Anyone interested in having a voice in the recreational future of the city is urged to join the newly formed recreational committee.

The recreation committee is an advisory body designed to help the city council's parks and recreation committee make decisions about the community's recreation activities. Members are appointed by the mayor the first of every year and the committee is lacking a few members.

The committee is currently working on the city tourist park, reviewing bids for work planned for the park. The tourist park is a priority item now because grant money for the park's renovation is in the process of being applied for.

Everything to do with parks and recreation in the city is included in the committee's area of advisement.

When the community center is completed the committee will offer input on how it's used.

Beal bound over to Circuit Court

EAST JORDAN - Karl Beal stood mute to a charge of negligent homicide in connection with the Aug. 19 death of William Hilden, 18, of East Jordan. Appearing in 87th District Court the last week in November, Beal waived preliminary examination and was bound over to Circuit Court.

Beal, 19, of East Jordan, will appear in court in Bellaire Monday, Dec. 17.

The Antrim County prosecutor's office issued a negligent homicide warrant following two months investigation of an automobile crash resulting in Hilden's death.

A car driven by Beal ran off Mt. Bliss Road, near Webster Bridge Road in Antrim County, hit several trees and rolled over. Hilden, a passenger in the car was pronounced dead at the scene.

Beal and another passenger in the car, Dale Bayster, 18, of East Jordan, were hospitalized with injuries received in the crash.

Umlor's cause of death determined

EAST JORDAN - The Charlevoix County Sheriff's Department has released the cause of death in the case of James Michael Umlor, 21, of South Arm Township.

Umlor, whose body was found in his car by hunters Nov. 21, apparently died from fumes given off when he burned charcoal in his car trying to keep warm.

The date of his death wasn't released. Umlor had been missing for about three months before his body was discovered.

Fire department re-elects officers

EAST JORDAN - Officers for the next year were elected at the Monday night meeting of the East Jordan Fire Department. All of the current officers were reelected.

Dick Barnett will continue as chief, Jack Brown remains assistant chief, Butch Breakay is still the captain, Jerry Chak keeps his lieutenant's position and Don Saganev was reelected secretary.

'County did nothing on dumps'

BY JON DENISON

Confused and concerned residents of Evangeline Township heard Department of Natural Resources district engineer Arthur Caden place blame on Charlevoix County's board of commissioners for not addressing the problem of licensed landfills on a county-wide basis.

Caden reeled off a list of northern Michigan counties that have solved landfill problems and added, "Cheboygan, Presque Isle and Charlevoix counties have done nothing to attack the problem of what to do with solid waste."

Public Act 641 of the Public Acts of 1978 taking over from Act 87 in regulating landfills in the state has been the catalyst in landfill controversy in the north.

Under the old act, enforcement of the act's rules wasn't clearly defined. The new act provides for the DNR to work through the state attorney general's office to enforce Act 641's regulations.

Caden said he was at the Evangeline Township meeting to answer two questions primarily - why the DNR is requesting dumps in Charlevoix County to shut down, and what effect landfills closing will have on the township.

The Boyne City landfill is in Evangeline Township and many of the residents attending Monday night's meeting registered complaints about its operation.

Claims of garbage being littered on property along the road leading to the landfill and stories of rats thriving at the fill were aired.

Boyne City City Manager Tim Clifton urged anyone with a complaint about the operation of the facility to contact him immediately so he could check out the complaints.

Caden expressed doubts that Boyne City's landfill could ever be licensed under Act 641. That prompted questions from refuse haulers about what they would do with their loads if and when the Boyne City landfill was closed.

"Can I construct a landfill on my property?" a contractor asked. "Would you be willing to go through the application process?" Caden responded.

Act 641 imposes regulations on landfill operators that will make it expensive for an individual to operate a landfill, Caden explained. The cost for filing an application for a construction permit is between $300 and $700.

The equipment needed to maintain the landfill in accordance with the act is expensive too, Caden continued. A compactor of the type recommended by the DNR runs in the neighborhood of $70,000.

The contractor asked about tree stumps and what disposal alternatives there were for them.

A chipper could be used for them, Caden offered. The cost for such a machine is greater than $400,000, the contractor replied.

Caden pointed out that a type three landfill for non-domestic refuse, such as stumps, logs and brush, could be established much easier than a general landfill could be.

Caden said that the revised rules of Act 641 weren't yet in effect, pending more public hearings. A public hearing on the act will be held Jan. 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Traverse City State Hospital's chapel social room, Caden said.

"I do believe the rules will be passed," Caden said.

The district engineer's comments favored the landfill responsibility being assumed by the county.

We're glad you asked!

BENEFITS OF MOURNING CUSTOMS

Attending a funeral service, making a condolence call, offering help to the bereaved -- all are two-way acts of care-giving.

These mourning practices directly benefit the bereaved family and one's self. In her book, "Death, the Final Stage of Growth," Dr. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross advises that the purpose of mourning should be to allow for a full outpouring of grief. Mourning becomes the opportunity for the family to re-group after the loss of a member, especially to be able, then, to continue living, working and enjoying one and other.

By getting this outpouring of grief early, we help to prevent pent-up feelings of guilt and regret from blossoming later with psychologically unhealthy repercussions. "getting it out of your system" as soon as possible is appropriate therapy in most instances, experts agree.

This is one of a series of brief articles we hope will be helpful. You may ask us questions for yourself and of public interest.

ZIRCON

The striking characteristics of the Zircon are its brilliancy and fire. Among the popular gems outshone only by the Diamond, it is a vibrant and beautiful stone.

As a birthstone, this gem was thought to cure insomnia, apparently not a uniquely century affliction.

Zircons come in many colors, the most popular and exciting being a rich blue. Other colors include pale honey, golden yellow, flame red and leaf green. Certain colors are improved by the careful application of heat. Usually the beautiful blue ones are the result of such treatment.

This brilliant gem makes a handsome cocktail ring. And, as gems of good size can be bought for moderate prices, they are an excellent choice for dramatic designs in bracelets and earrings, clips and pins.

Today the chief sources of Zircons are the gravel-beds of Cambodia and Ceylon. There they are usually found in exalted company, with rubies, sapphires, spinels and garnets.

For your selection of fine Zircons, visit one of our Reusch Jewelry Stores today.

Detective for a month shows position needed

BY DIANNE MURRAY

Charlevoix County Sheriff George T. Lasater says he assigned a deputy sheriff to a detective's position for one month in order to give a better understanding of what "this position can provide the citizens of Charlevoix County."

Deputy Sheriff Dave Burris was taken off his road patrol duties and assigned the detective's position for the month of October, Lasater reports. "In order to obtain statistics on how productive this detective position would be in the sheriff's department."

Lasater said two alternatives are available to him as far as where he could take the data collected by Burris, but he would not comment on what his next step would be.

Prosecutor Scott Beatty, who also requested and was turned down funding for an investigator under his jurisdiction, said he and Lasater will be working with the county board of commissioners to establish a position in one of their two departments.

Beatty said they have not approached any commissioners and are not expecting funding until the 1981 budget year.

Top O'Michigan appoints manager

BOYNE CITY - At a meeting of the Top O'Michigan Rural Electric Company's Board of Directors Saturday, Thomas G. Hanna was appointed general manager.

"I hope to carry on as we have in the past," Hanna said Tuesday. "We have plans to serve our membership better. That's our basic commitment."

Hanna joined Top O'Michigan on Nov. 18, 1974 as Executive Manager and has served in that capacity until last July when he was appointed Acting General Manager. He assumed that position when

"although it would be nice to get the position funded earlier," he said.

"It is not a dead issue," Lasater said.

"Former sheriff (Philo) Sumner had this position and no question of duplication of services was ever mentioned. I am confused at this point because of the present questions the county commissioners are raising," Lasater said.

Ways and Means Committee member Keith Annear of East Jordan told The Press last week that the committee did not approve the detective's position because of fear of duplicating services.

Three pages of investigations conducted and money recovered are in the report Lasater made of his reasons for needing a detective under his position.

Burris was selected as a trial detective because of his instruction in evidence collecting and because of his credentials, Lasater said. Burris has been with the sheriff's department for six years and has been to over 20 investigative schools.

Most of a detective's time is spent assisting the original officer working on a case, Burris said. In the case of a city police department calling to Petoskey or Traverse City for assistance, Burris said the evidence could easily be mishandled, or even gone by the time it takes a state police detective or the crime lab to arrive.

"Evidence should be processed as soon as possible because it does not stay there forever. In the winter, a footprint might be in the snow, but 15 minutes later that snow may melt or the wind may blow and cover up the tracks. We need to collect the evidence at a scene of a crime as soon as possible and not waste any time waiting for someone from another part of the county or outside the county to arrive," he said.

Lasater said the number of investigations conducted and closed by Burris during the month of October brought his department up to date. Not all of the crimes investigated took place during October. Many of the investigations conducted were backlogged from investigations which the road patrol officers did not have time to conduct, Lasater said.

Burris conducted 41 felony investigations, including 22 breaking and enterings, seven larcenies, five malicious destruction of property, one forgery, one fraud, two assaults and three stolen car investigations, according to Lasater's report. He closed 35 of the 41 investigations conducted.

He conducted and closed two misdemeanor investigations - one hit and run incident and one larceny incident, the report shows.

He also helped investigate and close three non-criminal investigations - one drowning, one suicide and one fire.

Thirty-nine felony warrants and two misdemeanor warrants are being sought as a result of his work. The total amount of property recovered due to his work is $4,540, the study indicates.

"This is only what I accomplished off the cuff in 30 days without any background," Burris commented, "so you can imagine what accomplishments the statistics could show if we had a full-time detective."

The citizens of Charlevoix County want all the protection and service they are rightfully due, Burris said and he did not think cost factors should interfere in a job whose motto is "to serve and protect."

Lasater said he would consider Burris' application for the position along with other qualified officers, if the position had been approved by the county board of commissioners.

Boyne man charged with felonious assault

BOYNE CITY - Paul Edward Thackaberry, 27, of the Boyne City area was arrested Saturday at 4:30 a.m. on Ferry Road in Eveline Township. Thackaberry was armed with a .45 caliber semi-automatic rifle when apprehended.

Thackaberry was charged with felonious assault and is currently out on $5,000 cash bond.

general manager Roger Westenbroek resigned for health reasons.

A native of Ohio, Hanna graduated from Cleveland State University with a Bachelor of Science degree.

He came to Charlevoix in 1965 as resident engineer with Medusa Portland Cement Company and later served as Charlevoix's City Administrator.

Hanna and his wife Ann are parents of two sons, Tim and Chris and reside at 707 E. Dixon St., Charlevoix.

The subject was allegedly enroute to carry out a threat to kill a Boyne City businessman living in that area, Sheriff George Lasater said. The arrest was made by Sheriff Deputy Dale Boehm, Jr., Boyne City patrolman Don Hawkins and Sheriff Lasater.

The incident followed an argument earlier at The Dilworth Hotel in Boyne City, Lasater said.

Don't perpetuate ghost organization

It is unfortunate, but the Boyne Area Jaycees have become a ghost organization.

We hope that in the coming month, the group can be revived as an active community service organization.

If that seems impossible due to lack of interest from members, we hope that the remnants of the group will face the music and disband the organization.

Leaving the group in limbo has caused problems and raised questions in the community, and we hope that will be resolved soon.

The internal workings of community groups don't often come to light, and this one wouldn't have if the group hadn't announced that it was disbanding around the end of October.

The organization was reduced to less than five active members, did not have meetings and did not have officers. A handful of remaining members and their wives were running a weekly bingo game - and that was virtually the only thing the group was doing other than operating a beer tent on July 4th.

Despite the fact that membership was dropping, the Boyne Area Jaycees' official membership roster showed 24 members. But the group had paid most, if not all of the so-called members' dues itself - with proceeds from the bingo games.

We'd rather see that money going to community projects, which is the intention of strict state regulations governing the operation of bingo games.

The fact that some of the Jaycees out later that he was actually listed as one of the dues-paying Jaycee members. He had attended one meeting more than two years ago.

The Jaycees were interested in letting the chamber take over bingo because that would give them a buyer for about $3,000 worth of tables, chairs and other equipment they used for the game.

Several chamber members helped out at a bingo game in the interest of keeping it running continuously. They also paid $100 for a bingo license.

But then the Jaycees decided not to drop the game, and they are apparently looking into revitalizing the organization. Representatives of another Jaycee chapter and the state Jaycee organization are helping with the effort.

If they can succeed in getting a viable group operating, the community will benefit and we wish them well in their efforts.

If not, we'd rather see one of the many functioning civic groups in the community take over the Jaycee fundraising projects, run them properly and put the money to good use.

Editorial

and their families were being paid (although not large amounts) to run the bingo game also raises questions about why the game and the organization were being continued.

When the Jaycees were thinking about dissolving their group, Chamber of Commerce board member Gary Schafer approached one of the Jaycees and inquired about the possibility of the chamber taking over the bingo game.

It is ironic to note that Schafer found

School sports squabble-- is it a big deal or not?

"It's no big deal."

I've never heard that phrase from so many people concerning one subject. The attention alone makes it a big deal, whether that's the intention or not.

What's not a big deal? East Jordan and Boyne City dropping each other in athletics next year.

Some people from the Boyne City camp felt that The Press' headline "You cancel us, we'll cancel you" was inflammatory. It blew things out of proportion and made it seem like a feud was developing between the neighboring schools, they claimed.

The headline only put into words the sentiment that was evident to observers of the situation. East Jordan didn't renew its contract with Boyne City for football next season and in response Boyne City dropped East Jordan from the schedule in all other sports for next year.

The position of each school has to be studied to understand the nature of the situation.

East Jordan is riding the crest of a wave of football success. The Devils went undefeated this fall, but because of some weak teams like Boyne City on the schedule they failed to qualify for the state high school football playoffs.

East Jordan coach and athletic director Frank Holes decided to schedule two strong teams from about 70 miles away - Roscommon and Houghton Lake - and drop Boyne City and Hillman.

The schedule changes will result in the Devils getting recognition from other parts of the state and possibly provide enough points in the complicated computer rating system to qualify East Jordan for post-season competition.

But it also means that a sure-fire sell-out for the East Jordan-Boyne City game, which would've been played in Boyne City next year, will be lost.

the play might drop at the same time, though.

This is where the question has to be asked - "Is success the chief goal in a high school athletic program?"

The large sums of money devoted to athletics is always justified with claims of character building, sportsmanship and teamwork.

Better citizens emerged from athletic programs, according to their proponents. I fail to see the principles of sportsmanship and character building being exercised by the athletic departments of East Jordan and Boyne City in eliminating each other from next year's schedules.

I fail to see how long trips for games can be justified in times of cost-cutting for all schools.

Boyne City won't be down forever in football and East Jordan won't always be up. All in all, the two schools seem to be about equal in sports success, when all sports are considered, and it seems a shame that they won't be playing each other.

Unfortunately the "no big deal" could prevent the neighboring rivals from playing each other in football or other sports even after East Jordan is no longer a state playoff contender.

Jon Denison

Boyne City had planned on cutting down travel costs by dropping Tawas and playing nearby Harbor Springs instead. With East Jordan choosing to not renew the football contract, Boyne had to keep Tawas on next fall's schedule.

The travel factor is an important thing to consider in times of tight school budgets and spiraling fuel costs.

There are enough schools in the area for both Boyne City and East Jordan to play a localized schedule. The caliber of

Hobby show -- a mind boggler

Editor,
When it was all over and we were cleaning up, there was at last a time to reflect. It had been a mind boggler, a great success, and an indication of what can be done when you have people willing to volunteer their time and talent.

It was far more than I had anticipated and already there are plans being made for next year.

A very special thank you to Stephanie Moody and her crew, Gail Fortune, Paul Skornia, Fran Wicker, Sheri Drake, Mary Drake, Jerry Cosier, and the media (especially The Charlevoix County Press and WCIX) for their help in advertising ing and making things run smoothly.

Arlene Collins, Mark Guitard and the people that brought their wares, and YOU the people of Boyne City made the Holiday Hobby Craft Show Saturday something to be proud of. Thank you.

I'll challenge Boyne elections

Editor,
I have spent the last few days looking for some mitigating circumstances that would soften my position on the last two Boyne City elections. No luck.

There are just too many unanswered questions. The Mangloses say they were trying to help the people understand the new punch card ballots. What is their excuse for the first election when the ballots used were the familiar paper ones?

Did they distribute the applications for absentee ballots at the same time as the ballots?

Was anyone else involved in any way in either election?

Why were the irregularities of the first election kept quiet until after the second one?

It is only reasonable to assume that the irregularities of both elections would now be well under wraps at City Hall if the State Election Board had not entered the picture.

It is significant to note that nobody got candid, honest or sorry about anything until the irregularities surfaced.

The first election (Front Street) was without a doubt the most important one Boyne City has had in a good many years, and I believe a lot of people are now beginning to realize just how much they and the city have lost.

I have never considered myself to be a poor loser but it is pretty hard to be a good loser under these circumstances.

After the response to my letter to the editor in last week's Press I have been in contact with the State Election Board and intend to formally challenge both elections. It will then be up to the court to decide what further action will be taken.

50 years of rotten advice

"Don't eat those, they'll make you sick."

That was the advice given to me when I was picking cherries in a nearby orchard to earn enough money to return to junior high school in the fall.

The cherries had been sprayed with Paris green to kill the bugs or something. I ate them anyway. One for the lug and one for my mouth. And I never got sick.

Marshall Sayles

"You can't go swimming, you just ate your dinner. If you go swimming on a full stomach, you'll get cramps."

I went anyway. Dove in, splashed and yelled in glee. No cramps.

"Come in out of the night air. You'll catch your death of cold."

I ran around the yard, fought with other kids and laid on the wet grass to watch the stars fall. No catching cold.

"Don't put those cherries in your ice cream. You'll get sick as a dog."

The cherries went into the ice cream and I downed the whole thing. The next day I felt as fit as a fiddle.

"You boys and girls come out from behind that barn and stop that this minute. You'll go blind."

Instead of going blind our eyesight improved immeasurably.

"Look what you are feeding that kid! Beans, potatoes, bread. All that starch will have an effect on him when he's older."

Ha! I grew up as abnormal as the best of 'em.

"My God, look what he's doing. He's putting his tongue on that cold railroad track. Hey, you! Stop that. Your tongue will stick to the track and you'll never get it off."

I licked the frost off the track and then stuck my tongue out, wiggling it. The railroad track was still on the ground.

"Don't eat those green crab apples, you'll get terrible stomach cramps."

I ate four or five green apples. No stomach cramps.

Fifty years later:

"My nurse will give you a couple of shots," the doctor was saying. "You should feel a lot better this winter."

I took the shots and two days later I damn near died.

How to use the power of technology?

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the 14th in a series of 15 articles exploring "Connections: Technology and Change." This series was written for COURSES BY NEWSPAPER, a program developed by University Extension, University of California, San Diego, and funded by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

CONNECTIONS TECHNOLOGY AND CHANGE

Copyright © 1979 by the Regents of the University of California.

BY BERTRAM MORRIS

Modern technology has had a revolutionary impact upon society, upon nature, and upon human beings themselves.

Technology today has presented us with an unprecedented range of material goods and degree of control over nature. Yet the sheer power let loose by this technology with insufficient respect to human needs has created new ethical dilemmas of ends and means and raised new questions about freedom, justice, and peace in our world.

To what ends will we use the new powers of technology, and what values will guide us in our choices?

EARLY VS. MODERN TECHNOLOGIES

The question of how humans can come to terms with nature has troubled them since Adam and Eve had to fend for themselves outside the Garden of Eden. Technology, primitive in the beginning, provided the indispensable means to secure food, clothing, shelter, and fuel.

But the necessities of sustenance were not all of life. Myth and story and ritual gave meaning to those primitive technologies and relief from an arduous existence. By inventing gods -- fire gods, rain gods, sun gods, and other deities -- and by interpreting their arts, such as that of the blacksmith, in terms of divine gifts -- in such ways myth provided primitives with peace of mind and explanations for those happenings of life beyond human control.

Modern technology relies not on myth but on science and rational engineering methods. The result has been more effective inventions for meeting social and political demands, the machine, the steam (and internal combustion) engine, the hydraulic (and atomic) generator, vaccine and antibiotics, lasers and "smart weapons," and the computer are among its products.

However, science, in replacing myth as the rationale for technology, has not produced a comparable value system, one that really makes us feel comfortable in the world.

REVOLUTIONARY IMPACT

In its reliance on science, modern technology differs from primitive technology both in its revolutionary impact upon all aspects of society and in its stand in relation to nature.

The methods of providing food, drink, clothes, shelter, and fuel are revolutionary -- and abundant -- from soft drinks to polyester to freeway motels.

Goods have never been so profuse; people have never moved about so much and so far; leisure has never been so widespread; education never so available; and a world of people never so closely tied together.

Modern technology is responsible for the creation of mass society -- a society of large-scale industry, massive transportation, worldwide commerce, and a multitude of cities.

The results of technology show also on nature. Atomic bombs, strip-mining, asphalt roads, indiscriminate use of fertilizers and pesticides -- these and other techniques have taken their toll on nature.

Mountains have been levelled, the countryside -- has been industrialized, water has turned green, the air brown -- all this and more on a worldwide scale.

In consequence, nature has increasingly become an artifact, a creation of man -- or if not man-made, at least man-modified.

But the effects of technology go even further: they show on man himself. While modern technology offers new options, a new spirit of doing things, a challenge to old ways of life, it also offers countless hazards and perils of life -- physical and spiritual.

Thus technology, by its very power, creates tragic dilemmas. These dilemmas are questions of ends and means, among which we may single out the crucial ones of freedom, justice, and peace. Together, they constitute the humanistic dilemmas of technology.

FREEDOM AND CHOICE

Freedom appears to be the legacy of the new technology. Our range of choices is endlessly multiplied by the technology that underlies our tools, our goods, our livelihood.

But this freedom may be more apparent than real. Our cheap pleasures, our reliance on gadgetry, our luxuriant excesses still have to be paid for according to what David Lilienthal called "nature's remorseless arithmetic." The price includes pollution, destruction of the environment, depletion of limited natural resources.

We exert our technological power not only on nature but also on ourselves. The tools we use and the machines we operate make us tools of our tools and robots of our machines. Inexorably-moving assembly lines give us little freedom of choice -- or satisfaction from work.

Ironically, we become prisoners of our work, of our baubles, of our debilitating fantasies about them. Increasingly we work not just for the age-old necessities of food, clothing, and shelter, but for luxuries -- the color TV, the fancy car, the larger house -- which now seem necessary for happiness.

In course, do we not lose our authentic freedom? The dilemma we face is that of how to enjoy the fruits of technology without losing the freedom that is initiated within us. Can technology feed this freedom or does it simply dissolve it? Freedom is to be measured not by the number of options one has but by the meaning they give to life.

JUSTICE

Should freedom be limited? If one is to be free, should not all be free? This question turns out to be one of justice -- namely, that we fashion technology to make available real opportunities for all, not just more for the rich or the powerful.

If our technology denies some of us equality, not just in a formal sense but concretely, then it is a poor thing. A life that concerns the whole society, not one of ease or mediocrity -- this is the sort of justice technology needs to serve. It is a technology that is reconcilable with justice -- and with an intelligent and compassionate, an exacting and exciting existence -- which is its own justification. Technology does not make inevitable

Pros will judge recipes Friday

Professional cooks from The Dilworth Hotel in Boyne City and Fat Clarence's Calorie Factory in East Jordan will have the difficult job of picking the best entries in The Press Holiday Recipe Contest this Friday.

Dennis Crisman of The Dilworth and "Fats" Clarence Weaver of the Calorie Factory will be doing the judging. They will also be assisted by Rosalind Stump, business manager of The Press.

A few hours before the 5 p.m. Tuesday entry deadline, 31 cooks from all over Charlevoix County had entered the recipe contest. Many entered more than one recipe, but the cooks are being asked to submit only one for judging on Friday afternoon.

The cooks are being contacted by phone or letter. Any of the entrants we have been unable to contact are asked to call The Press at 582-6761 for judging instructions.

Winners of the contest will be announced in next week's Press, and the top recipes will be printed or reprinted. Prizes include dinners at area restaurants, bottles of wine for Christmas dinner and subscriptions to The Press.

CRANBERRY BREAD

I like this recipe because it is simple to make, attractive to serve (especially at holiday season) and has a delightful tangy taste.

- 2 cups sifted flour
- 1 cup sugar
- 1½ tsp. baking powder
- ½ tsp. salt
- ½ can frozen orange juice.

Directions: Sift dry ingredients twice. Place in towel, making a well in center. Add juice, 2 T. butter (soft), boiling water to make ¼ cup, ¼ cup of nuts, 1 egg, 1 cup cranberries, (heaping) sliced.

Fold in dry ingredients for best results. Not too much handling - just enough to take up flour.

Bake in well-buttered pan for 1 hour at 350°.

BANANA "CREAM" TORTE

I like to make this ahead of time and with all the busy things you have to do to get ready for Christmas, this is handy to take along with you when you're out on a shopping spree. This recipe is made for the "weight watcher" conscious person. With all the sweet goodie recipes submitted, I thought this would be a neat one for us "weight watcher creatures". Very tasty! Simple to make too!

- 2 med. eggs
- ¾ cup nonfat dry milk
- 1 med. banana
- 1 slice enriched white bread
- Artificial sweetener (4 tsp.)
- 1½ tsp. vanilla
- ½ tsp. each - soda & cream of tartar

Oven 350°

Put above ingredients in blender and process until smooth. Pour into a non-stick pan 15½" x 10½" shallow pan. Bake 10 minutes. Cool.

Cream Filling

- ½ cup cottage cheese
- artificial sweetener (4 tsp.)
- 2 tsp. vanilla

In blender combine filling ingredients. Process until smooth. With spatula remove "torte" from baking pan and spread evenly with filling and roll from narrow end. Cut in half and wrap each in tin foil. Freeze. Remove from freezer 2-3 hrs. Makes 2 servings.

Varied program slated for Boyne Falls show

BOYNE FALLS - Students from kindergarten through 12th grade will be involved in the Boyne Falls School Christmas program scheduled for 7 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 20, in the high school gym.

A multitude of performances are scheduled under the "Santa with a twinkle in his eye" theme. A play by the same name will be performed by the sixth grade class.

The senior band will play five numbers and the beginning band, in its first year, will perform two numbers.

A choir, with members from the seventh through twelfth grades, will do two songs alone and join all the other performers for a mass number at the end of the program.

Other classes will be singing songs centered around the Santa theme. Old St. Nick himself will be at the program.

Nancy Dunham will accompany the different classes' singing.

The background for the program is being made by the art classes. Art students are also decorating the school's windows and making other Christmas art to be displayed around the school.

This is one example of a non-profit group making use of the Save-Share Program to help raise funds. There are many more groups using it too and there will be a picture of one each week in this paper.

Glen's wants everyone in East Jordan to know about Save-Share and hopes more groups will use it to raise funds.

All a group has to do is register with the Store Manager and begin saving the green cash register tapes. Glen's will pay 1 percent of the total qualified amount of all tapes brought in by any registered group; and not just once. But each time a group brings in $25.00 worth of slips or more.

SURVEY QUESTION
East Jordan dropped Boyne City from its football schedule for next year because the Devils wanted to play a better team so they would have a better chance to make the state finals. Do you think it was right to do that?

Really I think it's great. We have a good team and why should we play teams that aren't as great.

I love it. Boyne now knows that we are the best.

The best will always go to the top. What more is there to say?

East Jordan having a season like we did last year was fantastic and something to be proud of. Many records were broken, it's good our team can go play better teams.

Boyne will just have to shape up their team.

Why play a team they know they can beat?

I don't think it's that good. Boyne has been our rival for years and it will take away the competition.

A new organ will be dedicated at the Dec. 23, 10 a.m. service at the East Jordan United Methodist Church, corner of Fourth and Esterly Streets.

New organ at Methodist Church

A new organ will be dedicated at the East Jordan United Methodist Church, corner of Fourth and Esterly Streets, during the regular 10 a.m. worship hour Christmas Sunday, Dec. 23. The recently purchased organ has been paid for with gifts by members and friends of the congregation.

An organ recital will precede the regular worship hour with the following selections by Mrs. Duane Thomson, church organist: "In Excelsis Deo",

"The Silent Night", "Sheep May Safely Graze", "The Rejoicing", "Festival Toccato", "Gloria" and Mozart's Mass No. 12.

The senior choir will sing "Carol of the Bells" and "Heaven Sent Us A Miracle". A service of Holy Baptism will also be conducted during the worship hour. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

A Christmas Eve Service is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

How to use our technology?

PEACE AND POWER

Thus, our most far-reaching moral problem is the tragic dilemma of peace versus naked power. This was first clearly posed by the Greek poet Aeschylus in the 5th century B.C. in his mythical tragedy, "Prometheus Bound."

Aeschylus contrasted the immoral, warlike and deathmaking force of the omnipotent deity, Zeus, with the peaceful practices of Prometheus, who gave mankind fire -- the knowledge of technical crafts and other arts that make life livable, make memory memorable, and distinguish waking vision from idle dream. These ends hold good for guiding us as they did for the ancient Greeks.

Technology is at its best today when it contributes to the arts of civilization. It does this through the advancement of the practical arts, such as those that revivify cities, purify air and water, rationalize transportation, employ solar energy, and invent an architecture measured to the human dimension.

Complementing the practical arts are the arts of expression, the song, the colored shapes, the dance, in their endlessly creative forms that supply the kind of vitality to a modern culture that myth did for primitive times.

How to establish these new arts, consonant with the new technology for a new age -- this is the dilemma that technology faces in a world of turbulence, despair, and discontent. We need a genuine culture in which humans become an integral part of the seamless web of nature.

The destruction of this web is conflict, whether between nations or between groups of a single society. Only the arts of peace can combat those of warfare, and in the process make technology a fitting expression of human well-being.

NEXT WEEK: In the final article in the series, Melvin Kranzberg of the Georgia Institute of Technology explores the problem of assessing and directing technology in a democratic society.

The apportionment Committee met October 30, 1979 to review the various certification, statements, papers and records submitted showing the millages to be levied in the several townships and cities for school, township and county purposes.

The taxing jurisdictions have certified that the requested tax levy rates have been established in compliance with Section 31 of Article 9 of the State Constitution of 1963 as required by Section 211.34d of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

Therefore, we recommend that the millages be apportioned and spread against the State Equalized value of the property in the various township and cities for the year 1979 as set forth in the schedule with the exception of the Cheboygan-Otsego-Presque Isle Intermediate School District, as there is currently a County Equalization appeal in Cheboygan County.

RESOLUTION - ANNUAL MEETINGS OF COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS (#79-124)

Moved by Commissioner Matthew and supported by Commissioner Ward that the following resolution be adopted:

WHEREAS, Section 46.1 of the Michigan Compiled Laws (MCLA 46.1: MSA 5.321) states: The annual meetings of a County Board of Commissioners shall be held at the Courthouse in its County. and

WHEREAS, many urban counties in Michigan provide modern accommodations for committee meetings of the Board of County Commissioners and also provide an auditorium or hall wherein the entire Board of County Commissioners meet to debate and adopt resolutions and conduct the normal business of the County, and to hear comments from the public; and

WHEREAS, said regular meeting places are in buildings other than the "County Courthouse" and

WHEREAS, in many counties of this State, the holding of the annual meeting in the "Courthouse" greatly inconveniences the public for the reason that there simply is not sufficient room or space to accommodate the often-times great number of residents who appear at said annual meeting; and

WHEREAS, the said appearance of great numbers of residents at said annual meeting at the "Courthouse" often greatly disrupts the normal and orderly proceedings of trials, motions, hearings, and other County business normally in process in said Courthouse at the same time as said annual meeting.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by this Board of Commissioners of Charlevoix County, Michigan, that the members of the State Legislature representing areas of Charlevoix County are hereby requested to introduce legislation which would amend said statute, to eliminate the statutory requirement that "the annual meeting of a County Board of Commissioners shall be held at the Courthouse in its county," so that the said annual meeting may permissibly be held at the regular and normal place whereat meetings of the County Board of Commissioners ordinarily take place, for the conduct of county business.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent by the County Clerk, to State Representatives Steve Andrews and Ralph Ostling, State Senator Mitch Irwin, Governor William Milliken and the Michigan Association of Counties.

RESOLUTION - SOVEREIGNTY OF THE PEOPLE (#79-125) CONTINUED

WHEREAS, the Governors County Home Rule Bill being forced on Wayne County in order for them to receive funds -- could ultimately lead to all counties who having to seek state aid -- being blackmailed into accepting a dictatorial government,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Charlevoix County Board of Commissioners urges all responsible leadership in the 83 counties of the State of Michigan to vigorously oppose a home rule which would eliminate all county elected officials with the exception of the Courts and the Prosecuting Attorney and which would undoubtedly put the electorate in the hands of appointed or dictatorial personnel.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Charlevoix County Board of Commissioners know and believe that during the American Revolution a concept was produced that the sovereignty of the people would be retained. That the doctrine of virtual representation meant that the sovereignty of the people rested in the hands of their representatives and returned to them only during election. Further, that the Constitution was a deliberate move to bind down government in order that the rights of the people would not be abused, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Charlevoix County Board of Commissioners believing that the people should at all times, in every phase of government, be able to elect all County, State, and Federal Officials who are representative of them, and their tax dollars, do send copies of this resolution to Governor Milliken, Senator Mitch Irwin, Representatives Steve Andrews and Ralph Ostling, Michigan Association of Counties, and Mayor Coleman Young.

Respectfully submitted, Commissioners Matthew and Ward.
ROLL CALL VOTE: Yeas, 11. Nays, None. Absent, Commissioners Toton and Sutliff, 2. Excused, Commissioners Haggard and Meggison, 2. Motion Carried.

RESOLUTION - AMENDMENT TO BYLAWS OF M.A.C. (#79-126)

Moved by Commissioner Matthew and supported by Commissioner Ward that the following resolution be adopted:

WHEREAS, the Michigan Association of Counties is an organization formed for the purpose of improving County Government; and

WHEREAS, it is through its various Committees, that the Michigan Association of Counties formulates a united policy on issues and concerns relative to County Government and the services and programs that County Government provides its citizens; and

WHEREAS, while it is vitally important for Michigan Association of Counties Committees to have adequate resource persons available for input, the final decisions on County Platform and policy should be left to those County Officials elected and responsible to the people who elect them; and

WHEREAS, the present Committee structure permits the appointment of non-elected persons and persons not affiliated with County Government to Michigan Association of Counties Committees; then

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Charlevoix County Board of Commissioners hereby goes on record supporting an amendment to the Bylaws of the Michigan Association of Counties which would permit only elected county officials to serve as official voting members of the Michigan Association of Counties Committees; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the Michigan Association of Counties.

Respectfully submitted, Commissioners Matthew and Ward.
ROLL CALL VOTE: Yeas, 11. Nays, None. Absent, Commissioners Toton and Sutliff, 2. Excused, Commissioners Haggard and Meggison, 2. Motion Carried.

Moved by Commissioner Annear and supported by Commissioner Matthew that the meeting be recessed to the Call of the Chairman. The next regular meeting to be Tuesday, November 13, 1979 at 9:30 a.m.

Gas-Saving Gadget Sold Locally

A fuel saving device that shows more promise in stretching a tank of gas a few more miles per gallon than many others offered on the market is attracting attention locally and across the U.S.

The patented device is called "Scotsman Fuel Energizer," currently marketed through NAPA at BOYNE AUTO SUPPLY.

A claim of improved fuel economy in the range of 8 to 15 percent is made for the energizer.

The energizer employs a stainless steel wire mesh with a brass ringed center port. Fuel particles are borne on the air stream entering the manifold and propelled against the screen. Impact on the screen breaks the particles into smaller units. This provides, the company says, more equal distribution to the combustion chambers. If screen capacity is exceeded because of a fuel surge required for sudden additional power, the excess is forced through the central port.

This results in the fuel air mixture being emulsified by quick expansion as the pressure is released in the vacuum-like area below.

Three cars operated by the Indiana General Service Division showed increases in fuel efficiency of 13.62 percent for a 1978 Pontiac Catalina with a 400-cubic-inch four-barrel carburetor, 13.57 percent for a 1979 Plymouth Volare with a 225-cubic-inch two-barrel carburetor and 14.39 percent for a Ford LTD II with a 351-cubic-inch two-barrel carburetor.

Summer tax okayed

BOYNE CITY -- City property owners will now pay half of their school taxes in the summer instead of paying the full amount in the winter.

The city commission Tuesday night adopted a resolution initiating a summer school tax collection. School and city officials say that the split of taxes will benefit both the school district and the taxpayer.

The summer tax collection will save the school money by reducing the amount of money the school would have to borrow each year to meet its operating expenses.

The taxpayer will benefit because the heavier tax bill will be due in the summer when taxpayers are in a better financial position to pay.

Commissioners relayed notices from citizens who were in favor of the summer tax collection and unanimously adopted the resolution.

In other action, the commission: --Accepted an application for the creation of the Economic Development Corporation of Boyne City, and scheduled a public hearing to consider establishment of the corporation or any competing applications. The hearing was set for the next regular commission meeting on Jan. 8;

--Heard a five-year alternative energy plan for the city hall office complex and maintenance garage presented by Phil Armstrong of Great Lakes Energy Systems. Armstrong outlined passive energy alternatives available to heat and light city hall and the garage. Great Lakes was awarded a $700 contract in August to do an energy study of city hall;

--Purchased 25 remote reading water meters to replace older water meters. The meters were purchased from Badger, Inc. for $900;

--Rented the vacant office space in city hall to the Charlevoix County Public Transportation for three years;

--Established a $25 filing fee for applications to be reviewed by the zoning board of appeals. This fee is intended to pay for mailing, posting and advertising costs borne by the zoning board when reviewing an application;

--Decided not to use the Veterans Rifle Range on M-75 South since there is no lease agreement between the city and the VFW Post. If the V.F.W. wishes to maintain a rifle range at the site, they will have to apply for a permit from the Boyne City Police Department and present acceptable rules, regulations and hours for its use.

Elections may be contested

BOYNE CITY - A Boyne City man is trying to get an attorney to contest the Aug. 7 Front Street election and the Nov. 7 city election.

Everett K. Sayles, 68, a retired building contractor, said he will contest the elections because of the way the city administration and Louie and Violet Manglos handled absentee ballots.

A Boyne City attorney would not take the case and suggested Sayles contact an attorney in Charlevoix.

"Both elections are illegal," Sayles said. "The fact that it (contesting the elections) may not change the outcome of either election does not change the illegality or immoral handling of absentee ballots during the elections," he said.

Sayles said he decided to contest the election because "if nobody did, it would be like saying to the city that they can do anything they please and get away with it." There has to be some way to hold city officials responsible for their actions," Sayles said, and by contesting the election he hopes to make the city administration admit that the mishandling of the ballots was "a big deal like it is."

Questions arose about the legality of the Nov. 7 election to elect two people to city commission seats, when City Clerk Tom Garlock allowed the Mangloses to deliver absentee ballots to elderly voters. State election law states that the clerk should either deliver the ballots himself, deputize someone to deliver the ballots or mail the ballots to a voter.

The Mangloses admitted that while they were delivering and showing elderly voters how to use the punch card voting ballots, they were campaigning for candidates Thelma Behling and Martin Paul. Those two candidates beat four others in the election and are now in office.

The Mangloses turned in an estimated 170 of a total 200 absentee ballots cast in the November city election. Paul and Behling had a victory margin of at least 203 votes over the other candidates.

They had distributed about 200 ballots in the same manner during the Front Street election.

The vote to close Front Street was defeated by 304 votes.

City Manager Tim Clifton said he and the City Clerk Tom Garlock have been reprimanded for the handling of the ballots. They admitted that Garlock's handling of the ballots was improper, but said it was not intentional.

Taking orders

"All I want for Christmas is my two front teeth," is what Jimmy Hellebuyc, 7, son of James and Jeanne Hellebuyc of Boyne City, seems to be saying to Santa Claus. Santa was at The Dilworth Hotel last weekend taking Christmas gift orders from all good little boys and girls.

Ramblers, Loggers both fall

Both local teams in action in boys basketball Tuesday night fell to 0-2 on the young season. Boyne City was defeated by Rogers City 56-39 in a Michigan-Huron Shores Conference game and Boyne Falls fell 107-75.

The Ramblers fell behind 14-8 at the end of the first quarter and trailed 22-14 at the half. The third quarter was an even battle with the Hurons taking a 36-26 lead into the final period.

Mark Harris was the only Rambler to score in double figures, hitting ten points in Boyne's second conference loss. The Rambler junior varsity kept its season winning streak intact, dropping Rogers City 63-39.

In Boyne Falls, the Loggers managed to stay close through the first period and only trailed by one, 17-16 at the end of the first quarter. Alanson exploded in the second quarter and took a 50-26 lead into the locker room at the half.

The visitors outscored Boyne Falls 28-18 in the third quarter. Boyne Falls outscored Alanson 31-29 in the fourth period but it wasn't enough of a comeback to win.

Jimmy Spencer and Brian Bell each scored 12 for the Loggers while Bell had 11 rebounds and Tom Mons nine to lead the team in that category.

Winona Howard, head cook at Boyne Falls School, smiles as she displays two certificates she recently received. One is from the Michigan Department of Public Health and the other is from the National Institute for the Food Service Industry. The certificates recognize Howard's completion of a program for food service program managers.

Imagine feeding 170 kids a day

BY JON DENISON

BOYNE FALLS - Feeding a large family can be a real problem at times. Shopping, planning, and preparing meals is time consuming and requires imagination to keep everybody happy. But can you imagine trying to feed 170 kids a day?

That's the task that Winona Howard and Marge Kaufman are faced with five days a week at Boyne Falls School.

Howard, the head cook for a year at the school, recently completed a training program that will help her accomplish the awesome chore more easily and with greater assurance of the purity of the food.

The division of food service sanitation of the Michigan Department of public health certified Howard after she attended three sessions in Gaylord, passing tests each time.

Certification isn't a requirement for school food service personnel yet, but it eventually will be, Howard explained. Of the 15 people in the program in Gaylord Howard and one other person were the only participants from school food programs.

The text and classes covered different types of bacteria and food born illnesses plus management of food service programs. Federal state and local laws pertaining to food service establishments were covered.

"I thought it was very beneficial,"

People at work

Howard said after receiving one certificate of completion from the department of public health and another from the National Institute for the Food Service Industry.

"We're very pleased with the way the kitchen's going," school principal Carl Moser said. "We're serving between 170 and 180 kids a day. Both Winona and Marge take an interest in the kids. We're very very pleased."

Howard has been with the school system for five years, serving in a variety of capacities before taking charge of the kitchen. She's the first head cook at Boyne Falls to be certified by the department of public health.

Winter Fun

A special section of
The Charlevoix County Press
December 13, 1979

Snow sports in full swing

BY DIANNE MURRAY

Warm up to Winter!

Our Winter Fun section starts this week and will continue through March 13.

This is the second season of Winter Fun, which tells about winter-time recreation and entertainment, geared both toward local residents and visitors.

Each issue will have a theme - downhill skiing, snowmobiling, cross country skiing, indoor recreation, entertainment, ice fishing and more. Stories will be consumer oriented, emphasizing how readers can participate - where to go, what to see, and what it costs.

If you have a special winter-time activity which you participate in, please give me a call at 582-6761. I'm interested in not only reporting the sport but I'd also like to feature the people who participate in Winter Fun.

Don't forget to check our Out & About for information on where to find the winter fun activities and area bars, restaurants, and theatres or entertainment.

Dianne Murray

Here's entertainment outlook for winter

Is your idea of winter fun pulling up a chair close to a fire, sipping on your favorite brandy and listening to some nice sounds, to take your mind away from all the snow outside?

If so, then The Press has done you a favor by outlining some of the entertainment which will be playing the entire winter months at local bars and restaurants.

For some easy listening of many popular tunes, visit folksinger Sean Ryan at Duffy's on Pleasantview Road between Petoskey and Harbor Springs. Ryan plays Wednesday through Saturday starting at 9 p.m.

Also at Duffy's are the Payton Brothers. They will be playing their array of mellow tunes starting Dec. 20 during happy hour.

If disco is more your line, Little Caesar's Pizza Parlor on Bay View Road has disco with a DJ Wednesday, Friday and Saturday nights. Your favorite dancing tunes by Donna Summers, are spun starting at 9 p.m. Thursday night is rock and roll night. The crowd at Little Caesar's is great for young adults.

At the piano bar in The Weathervane, Greg Smith can be found playing everyone's favorite old time songs. Smith plays contemporary songs on both the piano and guitar Thursday through Saturday evenings. The Weathervane is located on Bridge Street in Charlevoix.

The four-piece show group Harvest, at Brownwood Acres Farmhouse near Eastwood is guaranteed to keep you feet tapping. Not only are they good listening, playing favorite show tunes, but they are also excellent to watch. Also at Brownwood are the Honey Bees, two singing waitresses. Catch Harvest Wednesday through Sunday nights.

At Mr. Jon's in Conway, guitarist and singer Bob Kevoian is entertaining audiences every Saturday starting at 9 p.m. Kevoian used to be with the Young Americans. The Epsilon Jass Band is tentatively scheduled to play the month of January at Mr. Jon's. Mr. Jon's is located five miles north of Petoskey on U.S. 31 on Crooked Lake.

In Ivan's Attic at Schuss Mountain, the six-piece band W.A.R.D. will be playing for the remainder of December and New Year's Eve. They play rock and roll and are a good dancing band.

Other upcoming groups at Schuss Mountain include Trend, on Jan. 4, 5, 11 and 12; Ceyx on Jan. 18 and 19; and

Whatever your winter recreation interest is - cross-country or downhill skiing, yodeling from a mountain top, snowmobiling, skating or sipping on your favorite drink in front of a fireplace - northern Michigan is an exciting area for snow-time fun.

From Christmas to Easter it's a place of quiet, snow white beauty, crisp temperatures and winter sports fun galore.

Outdoor facilities include challenging ski slopes, cross country trails, skating rinks and hundreds of miles of trails for snowmobiling.

If your interest is on the passive side, there are several spectator events including downhill and cross-country races, winter carnivals and plenty of bars and restaurants to keep you entertained. (See related story.)

DOWNHILL SKIING

Whether you're a beginner or advanced skier, now is the time to test your skill and patience with the white stuff.

Lift ticket rates haven't increased much, if any, from last year. And with mid-week reduced rates, the skiing industry is trying to make it easier than ever to get you out on the slopes.

Every ski resort will be packed on the weekends. It's estimated that for every 1,000 skiers on the slopes in the peak weekend periods, only about 250 smart ones are clomping around the place on Monday morning. That's a 25 percent occupancy - or to put it another way, a 75 percent drop in attendance.

If you're unfamiliar with the slopes, your skis or how to get up, let alone down the hill, better check in with the ski instructors first. Most ski resorts have qualified instructors who for a minimal charge will give you a few lessons on the ups and downs of the hills.

Nobody can guarantee you'll be an expert in five easy lessons, but maybe that confidence will be up to get you past the beginner's hill.

Listed below are some of the ski hills in the area. Call the resort for more information or to find out lift ticket prices and hours open. Also check our Out & About for additional information.

Boyne Highlands, near Harbor Springs; Boyne Mountain, in Boyne Falls; Nub's Nob, in Harbor Springs; Schuss Mountain, near Mancelona; Thunder Mountain, near Boyne Falls; and Mt. McSauba, Charlevoix.

Skiers at Boyne Mountain in Boyne Falls last weekend enjoyed good skiing conditions. As can be seen, the skiers at the slopes range from beginners to advanced. Out & About gives skiers a complete rundown of the area slopes and other winter recreation activities.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross-country skiing is probably the fastest growing winter sport. Accessibility, the low cost of the sport, and the high cost of transportation have drawn people into cross-country skiing rather than downhill or other winter sports, according to Tim Fisher, owner of Le Cycliste in Petoskey.

The beauty and popularity of being out in the woods either alone or with a group has led ski resorts to add this Nordic style of skiing to their operations this winter. Many of the trails from last year will also be in use.

Listed below are some of the cross-country ski trails around the area. Most of them are free, with the exception of those privately owned trails. The Department of Natural Resources field office on North Street in Boyne City has maps available. Young State Park, Boyne City; Charlevoix Trails, three new trails in Charlevoix; Boyne Mountain, Boyne Falls; Bell's Bay State Campground, near Charlevoix; Springbrook Pathway, near Boyne Falls; Windmill Farm, Horton Bay area; Warner Creek Pathway, south of M-32 and west of U.S. 131; Schuss Mountain, Mancelona; and Nub's Nob, Harbor Springs.

SKATING

Many ski resorts have skating rinks available free of charge, but if you want to try some outdoor ice skating the East Jordan and Boyne City Fire Depart-

New date, sponsor for ski race

BOYNE CITY - The date for the third annual Avalanche Ski Classic has been moved up a week to Jan. 19, and a major new sponsor has been added to the race.

Race organizers decided to change the date last week when they discovered that the previously scheduled Jan. 26 date would conflict with a major race in Traverse City.

The race committee last week also secured some major financial assistance when it was learned that Budweiser Natural Light beer will be sponsoring the race.

"Budweiser's sponsorship will enable us to promote the race much better this year," race committee chairman Tim Clifton commented.

Another change for this year's edition of the race is that a five kilometer race will be offered in addition to the 10 kilometer (approximately 6.2 mile) race which was held last year.

"We feel the addition of the five kilometer race will draw more skiers who will enter just for the fun of it," Clifton said. "And keeping the six-mile race will still provide a challenge to the more serious racers."

Olympic style medals will be awarded to the first three finishers in each of 24 classes. These classes will be divided according to age and sex for both the 5 and 10 km. races.

A grand prize, a set of Asnes skis, boots and poles, will be awarded to the overall fastest finisher of the 10 km race by Schaefer's Store and Dartmouth Outdoor Sports. Special prizes will also be awarded to the family with the most entrants in the race and to the racer wearing the most humorous costume.

Even those who don't finish near the top of their racing class will still get something for their effort. Race T-shirts and bibs will be given to every entry in the race.

About 100 people entered last year's race, and with the addition of the 5 km race, the organizers expect to more than double that figure this year.

Entry fee for the race is $6 by Jan. 7, and $10 from Jan. 8 through 19. Registration forms are reprinted each week in The Charlevoix County Press and will be available throughout the area soon. More registration information and entry blanks is available by writing PO Box 23, Boyne City 49712.

Last year's Avalanche Ski Class drew about 100 cross-country skiers to Boyne City. This year, organizers are hoping for twice that many.

The race will be held at Avalanche Mountain Preserve, a 300-acre recreation area in Boyne City. The race course takes a gradual climb to the top of Avalanche, a former downhill ski area, and then follows a ridge overlooking Lake Charlevoix and Boyne City before proceeding down the hill, through woods and fields and back to the starting line at the base of the mountain.

Afterwards, a lunch will be available and an awards ceremony will be held at race headquarters in the Dilworth Hotel.

In addition to Budweiser Natural Light, local sponsors of the race are The Charlevoix County Press, The Dilworth Hotel, The City of Boyne City, and Schaefer's Store.

Senior guard Mitch Moore unloads a jumper from the top of the key in the first half of the Ramblers' 84-39 loss to Grayling Friday. Moore and his teammates were cold early in the game and didn't score until four minutes into the contest. Petoskey visits Boyne's gym Friday for a Michigan-Huron Shores Conference game.

Ramblers crushed in opener

BOYNE CITY - Rambler basketball coach Russ Harvey said before Friday's game that Grayling was an unknown team. The visiting Vikings showed their talent in style enroute to a 84-39 season-opening Michigan-Huron Shore Conference win.

"It's the best overall Grayling team I've seen in the years that I've been here," Harvey described the Vikings. "They were hot, they took control."

Take control the visitors did, establishing a 25-8 first period lead. Two Mitch Moore layups half-way through the first quarter were the first scores for Boyne. Grayling was up 7-0 before those scores.

The first half was all Grayling. The visitors shot 54 percent from the floor while the Ramblers on the other hand shot a miserable 18 percent in the first two quarters.

Grayling controlled the boards against Boyne, outmuscling the Ramblers 60 rebounds to 45.

"They played tremendous defense too," Harvey said about Grayling.

Harvey doesn't think the 45 point loss was a true indicator of his squad's potential.

"I didn't expect us to play like that," Harvey admitted. "I'm hoping it was just a bad game."

Junior guards Kerry Kruzel and Larry Jarema led the Rambler scoring effort in the loss with nine and eight points respectively. Center Daryl Tims was the top rebounder with 11.

The Petoskey Northmen are scheduled to invade Boyne's gym Friday and Harvey looks for a good game from the visitors.

"Petoskey is always a good game," Harvey said. "They're kind of our cross-town rivalry."

"We see it as a pretty good ball game. They've got some good returning players," Harvey said.

The Northmen won their first game of the season, beating Kalkaska last Friday night.

"Statistics would give the edge to them," Harvey said. "Records go out the window when we play though."

Harvey doesn't plan any drastic changes as a result of the big loss Friday, explaining that the game really wasn't a true measure of his team's caliber.

"It wasn't a fair game to evaluate anybody," Harvey said.

Boyne's junior varsity team fared much better, winning by 20 points 65-45.

John Tompkins led the JVs with 23 points while Todd Rickard also scored in double figures. Tompkins, Bob Christy and Ken Wilson were the junior Ramblers leading rebounders.

"I was very, very pleased with the way they played," coach John McGeorge said of his charges.

This year's sophomore class was undefeated as freshmen and McGeorge explained that the JVs are under some pressure because of the win streak.

"They played an overtime before winning by two at Grayling last year," McGeorge said. The relatively easy win Friday both surprised and pleased the junior varsity coach.

Tall Alcona ends Boyne girls' season

BOYNE CITY - A scrappy Rambler girls basketball team couldn't contain a taller Alcona squad in Roscommon last Thursday night, losing 52-34. Alcona beat Traverse City St. Francis in the regional finals to advance to quarterfinal play in Gaylord.

Fouls were a problem for the Ramblers as four starters finished the game with four fouls each. In the first half Boyne had more field goals than Alcona but still trailed by seven points at the half.

Despite the final 18 point margin the Ramblers only made four less shots from the floor than the winners. Alcona's leading scorer had 21 points and 11 of them were from the free throw line.

"They did us in on free throws," coach Steph Moody explained the loss.

"We had a good aggressive defense," she continued, "the biggest difference was their height."

"They controlled our offense boards. We did a pretty good job on the defensive boards but were only getting one shot on offense."

My heart dropped when they announced the starting lineups," Moody responded when asked how tall Alcona was. "They had us by two or three inches at every position."

"It was especially hard on our guards trying to shoot over them," the Rambler coach said. The usually high scoring backcourt combination of Linda Sarasin and Becky Aimesbury was limited to ten points.

Moody had good words for the defensive efforts of her backcourt though.

"Becky and Linda as usual played super defense," Moody said. "They held one of their guards to 12 points and she'd been averaging around 20."

Looking back on the 14-9 season Moody has mixed emotions.

"I'm disappointed we lost but proud of our season," Moody said. "I felt we gave them a good game. Next year we'll have to work a little harder."

The Ramblers will have to work to fill the spots being vacated by the six seniors who'll be leaving the team.

Starters Nancy Lentz, Penny Grunow and Sarasin will be graduating as will key substitutes Kim Wandrie, Bardell Aimesbury and Jane Camburn.

Country Star falls from first place tie

Country Star got slapped with three technical fouls and had to forfeit its game with Payton's Well Drilling in men's basketball league play Sunday. The loss dropped Country Star from first place and created a tie for second between Country Star and Payton's.

The Boyne River Inn was idle this week and is alone in first place with a 5-0 record.

Payton's won twice last week. In a Wednesday game in East Jordan, EJ Patterns was Payton's victim. In the Sunday game against Country Star the score was tied at 77 with five and a half minutes to play.

The score had been tied at the end of each of the three periods completed in the game.

John Skop paced Payton's with 31 points. Terry Erber added 20 points for Payton's and Greg Groboski had 10. Dave Peck and Terry Urman had 15 points for Country Star. Scott Paquette and Julius Kowalski each added 14 points while Tim Hardy had 11.

In the first game Sunday, Great Lakes Energy Systems edged the Gold Nugget Bar 79-77. Al Looze paced the winners in the close game with 21 points.

Dan Osmer added 16 points, Howard Neal had 14 and Tony Williams and Mark Guitard each scored 11.

John Nachazel's 26 points led the Gold Nugget. Ike Boss and Jim Danbert chipped-in with 16 and 14 points respectively. Wednesday the Gold Nugget team defeated Ski & Shore in a game played in East Jordan.

Ski & Shore topped Victorian AFC 96-86 Sunday behind a balanced scoring attack. Lon Kowalski led the winners with 18 points; Jack Wingo, Tim Markham and Ken Doty each scored 16 and Jeff Kruzel added 10 points.

Fred Waybrant paced Victorian AFC with 27 points. Brad Rullman scored 20, Eric Brown had 18 and Dave Pritchitt added 13.

Dec. 12 games scheduled for East Jordan are EJ Patterns against Schafer's at 7:15 p.m. and the Boyne River Inn against Steven's Concrete at 8:30 p.m.

Sunday, Dec. 16 in Boyne City the BRI will face second place Payton's at 12:30 p.m.; Schafer's and Country Star play at 1:45 p.m. and Great Lakes Energy meets Ski & Shore at 3 p.m.

Bench provides the spark in Devils' win

EAST JORDAN - Inexperienced reserves were a question mark going into the Red Devils' basketball opener against Charlevoix last Friday. The young bench turned out to be heroes in East Jordan's 70-58 win.

"We started out bad," Devils coach Steve VanderHyde said about the game. "We were down 10-0."

At that point, according to VanderHyde, the young bench came through. "Brent Sweet and Tim Vermillion came in and scored our first six points," VanderHyde said.

Charlevoix had a 12-8 lead at the quarter's end but by then East Jordan's starters had begun to calm down. "We were tight and nervous at the start," VanderHyde said. "In the second quarter the starters were calmed down."

East Jordan outscored Charlevoix 21-14 in the second quarter to take a 29-26 lead into the locker room at halftime. "The kids really held together," VanderHyde said. "They played good defensive."

Free throws helped the Devils in the win. East Jordan canned 26 of 35 free throw attempts. VanderHyde was also pleased with the team's low number of turnovers.

"Once they settled down it wasn't bad for a first game," VanderHyde said. "We only had 15 turnovers."

Ski Valley Congerence pre-season favorite Gaylord St. Mary is the next opponent for East Jordan. VanderHyde expects the Snow Birds to be a tough foe. St. Mary has 6-9 Kurt David, the second leading scorer in the league last year, back this season.

"We have to work on little things," VanderHyde outlined his team's emphasis for practice this week.

An area that is meeting pre-season expectations is the Devils' defense. "The defense was good," VanderHyde said. "We like to hold teams under 60 points."

Hyde said. "We like to hold teams under 60 points."

East Jordan started out in a man to man defense but switched to a two-three zone in the second period. When the Devils were trailing 10-0, Sweet and Vermillion led a press to spark the comeback.

"I was real happy with the bench," VanderHyde said. Danny Goebel played good defense, ran well and really hustled."

East Jordan didn't fast-break as much as VanderHyde would've liked to.

"We tried to fast-break," the second year coach said. "We need some work on that."

The break will have to be working better and the Devils can't afford another slow start against the Snow Birds Friday.

"It's going to be a tough game," VanderHyde predicted. "Anytime you have a 6-9 guy against you it's tough."

Center Duane Carpenter paced East Jordan's scoring attack with 20 points. Don Trojanek added 13. Del Ingalls and Tim Vermillion each scored 10.

Trojanek's 12 rebounds led the Devils while Carpenter and Duane Cutler had eight rebounds apiece.

Cutler was making his first appearance at guard, pleasing VanderHyde with his performance.

"He did a really good job for us," VanderHyde said of Cutler. "Eight rebounds, four assists, he ran the break well and brought it up under pressure well."

The junior varsity Devils couldn't maintain the even pace they played in the first period Friday. A 14-14 first quarter tie erupted into a 43-23 Charlevoix halftime lead. The Rayders won 86-50.

"We went cold," junior varsity coach Bill Chase said. "We didn't shoot enough. We kind of fell apart."

"I'm sure they're going to win their share of games," Chase said of his charges.

Tom Peters and Mike Brennan each scored eight points to lead the junior Devils' scoring. Todd Ingalls pulled down seven rebounds to lead the team in that category.

Loggers optimistic despite loss

BOYNE FALLS - Logger varsity basketball coach Joel Donaldson may be an incurable optimist. The first year varsity coach saw promising things in his squad's 34 point loss to Central Lake Friday.

The visiting Central Lake team jumped to a 21-8 lead in the first period Friday but had its scoring limited the following three stanzas.

"I was happy we were able to limit their scoring," Donaldson said after the 63-29 season-opening loss.

"Things didn't go as I expected," Donaldson said, citing mental errors as his team's nemesis in the loss.

"We made some silly mistakes giving them easy baskets," Donaldson said. "No one was back on defense a couple of times."

In comparison with last year's loss to Central Lake, when the Ski-Valley Conference team scored more than 100 points, Donaldson was pleased with some aspects of the loss.

"I thought we did well against their full-court pressure," Donaldson said. "And I thought we did well in packing up what they were doing on offense."

A Northern Lakes Conference game with Wolverine Friday is next for the Loggers and Donaldson doesn't really know what to expect.

"Last year Boyne Falls fell twice to them," Donaldson said of Friday's fore. "They lost their one big scorer. I don't know what to expect."

Donaldson thinks that his squad has a good chance for a win in the game to be played in Boyne Falls.

"I saw enough good things against Central Lake that I'm sure we can win some ballgames," Donaldson said. "I don't expect to bite everything off in one chunk."

"I expect to take it in bits and pieces. You can't do it all in one shot," he added.

Don Greene was the top scorer and rebounder for the Loggers in Friday's loss. He scored eight points and gathered eight rebounds. Dan Christensen added six points and Mark Crego contributed eight rebounds.

In the junior varsity contest Central Lake topped Boyne Falls 73-40. The Loggers have a small team to begin with - seven players - and had one man out sick.

The score was close at the half, 26-20, but in the second half the Loggers were down. Norman Mahanke scored 14 points for the Loggers and Ervin Moyer added 12. Bruce Crouterfield led the rebounding effort with 19.

Who are the buyers?

Basically, there are three classes of people who look at homes. The first kind is in a hurry to move. They may have been transferred or already sold their present home or just want to make a quick decision.

The second kind has no sense or urgency. They are looking for a real bargain. They think that by buying directly from an owner they can save the commission, or worse, they want to find someone who is desperate to sell and buy the home for thousands of dollars under fair market value.

The third kind will never buy, they can't afford to or just don't want to - but they enjoy looking at homes for a pastime.

Studies show that 86% of classified home sale ads are run by REALTORS. This means that the second and third groups of non-buyers will be compressed into viewing only 14% of the ads. If you're serious about selling your home instead of just showing it, doesn't it make sense to list it with a REALTOR?
