New city, county EDC's hope to spur more economic growth

BY TRISH WRIGHT

Economic growth and business expansion in the private sector is being given a boost by the city government's approval of the Boyne City Economic Development Corporation (EDC).

And the idea is appealing enough to at least one resident in each of the three cities in the county to form a Charlevoix County EDC.

The EDC of Boyne City was approved by the city council in January of 1980. County commissioners have yet to receive written request for approval from Charlevoix County EDC incorporators, Denny Jason of East Jordan, John Kujawski of Boyne City and Lee Moerland of Charlevoix.

"The purpose of an Economic Development Corporation is to provide a mechanism for commercial or industrial growth. It's a non-profit organization that is designed to aid business expansion or bring in industry that would provide more employment in the area," explains Richard May, an attorney who is chairman of the Boyne City EDC.

Once an economic development corporation is approved by its local unit of government, it is constituted as a non-profit organization that encourages economic growth by issuing tax free bonds. According to May, banks are the usual lending sources for EDC financing.

"The bonds are tax exempt, so the bank can lend money at a lower rate of interest. The interest that the bank would earn on the bonds is not considered taxable income. Therefore, there is the incentive of lower interest rates to make EDC financing attractive to the borrower."

May adds that the lending bank would have a mortgage on the property and would be in the same position as a conventional lender in the case of a default.

"The city has no liability. The corporation is liable on the bonds as well as the developer who borrowed the money. The EDC secures the bonds and buys assignment of the lease on the property," he says.

The Boyne City EDC is restricted to financing projects within the city limits. May explains that for a project to be cost effective, a request of about $250,000 would be necessary. To date the EDC has received no applications. Applications from industry owners may depend on the establishment of an industrial park.

Once an application is approved by the EDC, the applying corporation must submit it to the planning commission and the city commission.

There are no costs to the city, says May. "Any costs incurred in the process of the project would be paid for by the applicant. EDC directors have received no compensation so far and there are no plans for them to receive compensation in the future, even though statutory law allows a per diem rate of not more than $50."

State statutes have made economic development corporations possible as a vehicle to service industrial and commercial enterprise. The corporation should be used to alleviate and prevent unemployment. Under Public Act 388 of 1974, "...It is accordingly necessary to assist and retain local industries and commercial enterprises to strengthen and revitalize the economy of this state and its municipalities."

Boyne City EDC chairman Richard May thinks the natural attractions of living in Northern Michigan will help the EDC's recruit new industries to the area.

Because of the federal law, the dollar amount of a project that can be financed by industrial revenue bonds is limited to: $1 million dollars free of any restrictions on capital expenditures, or $10 million dollars, subject to the limitation that the company's expenditures over a period of three years before and three years after the date of issuance may not exceed $10 million. Capital expenditures exceeding this primary function of the IDC is to acquire land and then make that property available to industry at a nominal cost.

Charles Burleigh is an expert in this area. He is an attorney with the Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone firm of Detroit, which handled the revenue bonds for Medusa Cement Company's expansion project. Burleigh says, "In economically hard times there is pressure to do something to alleviate a disadvantaged climate. An EDC can offer assistance when the opportunity for more employment presents itself."

Burleigh, who would like to represent the Charlevoix County EDC as bond counsel adds, "It's nice to have an EDC

"Anything we can do to entice tourists or small manufacturers to the area is beneficial to the county as a whole," says county commissioner John Haggard.

limit will cause the bonds to lose their tax exempt status.

Although economic development corporations are relatively new to the area, industrial development corporations are not. Charlevoix and East Jordan have had active IDC's which have been responsible for bringing industry to the area and making land available and suitable for industrial purposes.

Walter Thorsen, president of the East Jordan IDC, says, "The East Jordan IDC was formed to bring Mt. Clemens Metal Products to East Jordan in 1954. We have been active since then."

The IDC was responsible for bringing ITT Circuit Control to East Jordan in 1961. In 1963 an industrial park was completed. Due to the efforts of IDC, Whit-Son Carbide and WRW Stamping Plant are now located in the park.

There are no tax free advantages to buyers of bonds from industrial development corporations such as the existing corporations in East Jordan and Charlevoix.

The IDC is a non-profit organization not regulated by local government. The even if it is not aggressive. It may make the difference in the welfare of a community."

According to Burleigh, some economic development corporations in the state have proven to be quite successful.

"Some have financed millions and even hundreds of millions of dollars for business expansion in their areas. The EDC in Port Huron has recently issued $15 million in bonds for a plant that manufactures production equipment."

"Many times, when economic development corporations are incorporated, you'll find projects coming out of the woodwork," Burleigh concludes.

Scott Beatty, Charlevoix County prosecutor, says that he has looked over the legal mechanism for formation. "Speaking as a citizen, I think having an EDC for the county is a good idea. No money comes out of the treasury and it gives industry an incentive to settle in Charlevoix County."

Beatty adds that the articles for incorporation are in the process of being signed.

The three petitioners for the Charlevoix County EDC include John Kujawski, a county road commissioner, Denny Jason, a member of the county planning commission; and Lee Moerland, a county commissioner.

According to Jason, the articles for incorporation have been signed by Kujawski and himself. After Moerland signs the articles they will be submitted to the county commission for approval.

"The initiators may not be appointed to serve as commissioners of the Charlevoix County EDC. Personally, I don't care if I'm appointed. I just think that it's important that the county have one. A county EDC can represent the townships that may not be included by a city's EDC," says Jason.

He adds that a county EDC would not really be competing with a city EDC's. It should profit the entire area, he feels.

County commissioner John Haggard says, "Anything we can do to entice tourists or small manufacturers to the area is beneficial to the county as a whole. Economic development may be needed more in the Boyne City and East Jordan areas of the county. The city of Charlevoix is less than the state average, however, the east side of the county is far more depressed economically than Charlevoix."

"Any measure taken to stimulate growth in the eastern half of the county will help the county as a whole," Haggard concludes.

A request for EDC financing will be brought before the county commissioners at their next meeting on Dec. 23, despite the fact that the Charlevoix County EDC has not yet been approved.

Richard Georgi, one of the developers of the proposed addition to the Weatherlane Terrace Hotel in Charlevoix says, "If we don't make a formal request now it may preclude us from receiving EDC financing at a later date."

The Boyne City EDC has not received any financing requests. Its incorporators have been accumulating community data pertinent to economic growth in Boyne City.

An information booklet that the Boyne City EDC plans to publish and circulate will include services available to industry, tax base information, current earning levels, existing labor organizations, site data and transportation routes. "We are waiting for accurate census data before we publish," says May.

"At this time we are educating ourselves by getting familiar with other economic development corporations. We are learning by observing their mistakes and success," adds May.

He believes that the people who request Boyne City EDC loans will be those who enjoy and wish to live in northern Michigan. "We don't have the transportation facilities for large manufacturers. The industries here now are assembly oriented auto or defense plants."

May concludes that if there is a diversification of industry that moves into Boyne City, the community will experience a much more beneficial and stable economy.

Dry run

Boyne City residents may have thought there was a fire last week at the old railroad roundhouse but it was just a practice run as members and visiting firemen took a run up the ladder.

When frost is deep, faucets will go on

BOYNE CITY - That time of year is coming when once again a number of kitchen faucets will run a thread of water day and night.

City Hall will announce to the media as soon as the frost goes deep enough to endanger the flow of water through mains at a number of points around the city. Then the old north country remedy to prevent frozen water pipes will go into action.

The old mains, laid four feet under the streets, freeze—possibly because of modern proficiency in clearing snow from the streets.

More likely, according to City Manager Tim Clifton, they freeze up because the build-up inside the old mains leaves a smaller tunnel for water flow, making a freeze more likely then when the pipes were first laid down.

Pipes also freeze up where builders occasionally connected water service to homes and did not bury pipes deep enough.

Customers ask why not dig up the old mains, but Clifton says it would cost a fortune. Mains, however, are being replaced gradually, starting with those in the worst condition.

He says the new ones are put in along the side of the street, for less expensive repair in future years. And they are laid six, not four feet down. Besides that, drifts of snow from street clearance pile another insulating layer on top of them.

Water lines for the Harborage condominiums, being built on the old Tannery property on Front Street, will be incorporated into the city system, replacing old, decaying four-inch pipes now in the area.

The city commission voted to ask the Harborage to use eight-inch instead of the six-inch pipes needed for service to their condominiums. The additional two inches, which the city will pay for, will better take care of present and future development and will save the city from having to lay lines at a future date.

To give this advantage to the city, Harborage is running the pipes up Front Street to Pine and then east to Lake Street.

Small crowd for nuclear evacuation hearing

BY KATHY JOHNSON

"I thought maybe there'd be more people there," said Earl Muma, emergency services director for Charlevoix County.

Muma was referring to the small turnout on Monday night to acquaint the public with the details of the state and local off-site plans for responding to any potential emergency situation connected with the Big Rock Point Nuclear Plant near Charlevoix.

Muma went on to say, "My concern is how to make the people realize that we have a problem. And the problem isn't the plant."

He explained that the emergency plan which has been written for the counties of Charlevoix and Emmet is one that would be used in the case of a tornado, a severe winter storm or many other types of emergency situations. The people need to be aware of the problems and the plan, Muma explained.

While the turnout for the Monday night meeting was only about 20 persons, Muma explained that he would personally be happy to go out to speak to any small groups and make them aware of the plan. He explained that he didn't want to discuss the advisability of having a nuclear plant, but how the emergency plan would work.

"If a group of three or four families wanted to get together and talk about it," Muma said, "I'd be glad to come out."

The emergency plan is a combined effort on the part of the local county agencies.

Department heads met with Muma and Jim Tyler of the Michigan State Police and discussed what would be required and how each department would participate. After that, the department heads wrote their portion and then this was evaluated in a group session and the final plan was written.

While the turnout for the public meeting was small, those who attended had a variety of suggestions and questions regarding the plan.

Probably the question asked most often, which dealt with the proposed subject of the meeting, was whether or not another exercise was planned which would involve the general public more.

Muma stated that he hoped to involve the public in the next exercise—not involvement to the extent of actually trying to evacuate people, but to involve them in the alert process through local radio stations and by having those citizens in a five mile area near the plant place red cards in their windows.

These cards indicate that a home has been evacuated and police cars could evaluate response to the radio messages by visually checking for these cards.

While no exercise is currently planned, Muma said that since Big Rock was one of the first plants to have an emergency test, "I wouldn't be surprised if we weren't one of the plants tested again next year."

He said that when these tests occur, he would have no idea what the scenario is going to be. It could involve an overturned truck, as did a test last summer, or it might involve some other accident.

"We're going to have to cut the time on some things," Muma said. Last year's overturned truck alert went first to the public information center and then to the radio stations to be disseminated to the public.

In the next test Muma hopes that information like that will go first to the radio stations and then to the information office.

While many questions asked at the meeting related to why there had to be a nuclear power plant and whether having it was worth the risk to thousands of lives, Jim Tyler, who moderated the meeting, managed to keep the topic limited to discussion of the plan.

Following the meeting, Muma indicated that assistance was needed from the public in order to provide the sheriff's department with a complete list of handicapped persons in Charlevoix County.

The sheriff's department and emergency service department need a complete list of those persons in order to plan for them in the event of an emergency.

Muma asked that handicapped persons send a card or letter to either emergency services or the sheriff indicating where they live, what type of handicap they have, what kind of transportation or special treatment they would require, and any other assistance they might need.

New real estate office in Boyne City

BOYNE CITY - Real Estate One is now in Boyne City.

The former Dick Fish home which is located at 311 Water St., next to the post office, has been purchased by Arthur Poineau. The house, which is in the process of complete renovation, will be occupied by the Real Estate One staff.

According to Mary J. Nickels, the Real Estate One broker, the franchised real estate office is licensed to do business now, although the office will not be open until the Christmas holidays.

"We are hoping that renovation will be completed in enough time to allow for a Dec. 22 opening," said Nickels. The new office contains over 4,000 sq.

Business beat

ft. of area and will include seven private offices, reception area, lounge, conference room and a recreation room for children and adults.

A turfstone parking lot will be added to the rear of the building and will be installed in the spring.

Nickels says she thinks the Real Estate One franchise will be successful in Boyne City because, "A very large percentage of real estate business being done in our area is with people from downstate.

"Real Estate One is a national firm with 80 offices in Michigan. We feel that a good number of prospective clients will stop in our office simply because they are familiar with the name."

Other advantages of the franchise, she said, are programs for national relocation services, sales training and national advertising.

At present, although Poineau has purchased the new office building for Real Estate One, he is still affiliated with the Boyne City office of Colwell and Company. Poineau expects to join Real Estate One at a future date which has yet to be determined.

New music shop opens

Hess Furniture's "The Music Shop" has opened in Charlevoix. Located next to the furniture store, the shop will be carrying sheet music, drums, harmonicas, electric pianos, amplifiers, public announcement systems and some band instruments, according to owner Dennis McLelland.

"There will be three experienced musicians at the store to help answer questions," McLelland said. "Bob Best Shawn McLelland and myself are all musicians and we'll be happy to help anyone with questions or to special order instruments for them."

McLelland also indicated that plans included carrying records and tapes eventually.

Giant battery for co-op

Two northern Michigan electric cooperatives have entered into an agreement with the federal government to finance a new source of energy, according to Congressman Bob Davis.

The parties involved are the Northern Michigan Electric Cooperative in Boyne City, the Wolverine Electric Cooperative in Big Rapids and the U.S. Department of Energy. Together they will construct and operate a giant battery that will be used during peak energy-use periods.

The storage battery will be located in Hershey and is scheduled to be on-line in 1994.

The federal funding for the project amounts to $11.3 million while the two cooperatives will contribute a total of $8 million.

New owners for lounge

Duff's Lounge, located on the Charlevoix-Boyne City Road has new owners. Walt and Mildred Ritter from Ypsilanti purchased the lounge, effective Nov. 26, from Bob and Byllie Joe Duff.

The Ritters will have a happy hour Monday through Friday from 4 to 6 p.m. at the club, which will continue its country and western music and atmosphere. Plans are for the club to include food as soon as some remodeling is completed.

Yesterday's Treasures expands

Yesterday's Treasures, 207 Main St., in East Jordan, has expanded up from their basement location to include a new first floor location with window showcase.

Pat and Jerry Sweet, owners of the shop, said the expansion was necessary after three years in the basement location. Pat Sweet said their son, Brian, is now in charge of the furniture stripping and refinishing which has taken over the basement location.

Yesterday's Treasures carries a general line of antiques with some emphasis on primitives and Victorians.

Boyne blood drive Monday

BOYNE CITY - Monday, Dec. 22, the American Red Cross will sponsor a blood drive from 2 to 8 p.m. at Christ Lutheran Church. The group is attempting to raise 110 pints of blood.

Local volunteer, Shirley Bauer, indicated there is a special need for O positive and O negative this year, and that blood is especially needed at this time of the year because of the highway traffic and holiday accidents.

There are over 400 volunteers in the area that donate time to the American Red Cross to work on the blood-mobility, CPR and swim classes, and working on emergency aid. The Red Cross arranges emergency clothing and housing for burned out families and provides for emergency leave for personnel.

Anyone interested in joining these volunteers in working for the Red Cross or anyone with questions concerning the blood drive, should contact Shirley Bauer at 582-6029.

Michelle Bos, a junior leader in 4-H, assists Beverly Walker's East Jordan horseless horse club by pretending to be a nice little filly and giving the young 4-H'ers a chance to try their hand at mounting and dismounting.

4-H; more than farming

BY KATHY JOHNSON

4-H does not stand for Horses, Hogs, Herefords and Homemaking. The youth who participate in 4-H are doing more than raising animals and baking cakes.

The 4-H youths vows say, "I pledge my HEAD to clearer thinking, my HEART to greater loyalty, my HANDS to larger service, and my HEALTH to better living, for my Club, my Community, my Country, and my World."

High ideals for any individual or group.

Charlevoix County has good participation in 4-H and last year's figures showed nearly 600 participants in 4-H. "This year looks real good so far," says Leah Green, 4-H program assistant for Charlevoix County. "All of our groups haven't filled reports yet for this year," she explained.

4-H groups vary in size from one member to as many as 21. They vary in interests from service groups, raising money for some worthy cause, to groups that are primarily interested in crafting...and yes, there are groups that cook, study horses, and raise animals.

On Dec. 10, a horseless horse group met in East Jordan to begin their study of horses. This club is comprised of youth, ages nine to 12, who are going to be studying horses from the basics. One of their exercises at this meeting was a little quiz about horses. It asked the youth to "find a person with sorrel colored hair?" that's red.

There were other questions where they related people to horse shoe sizes, foretops, and socks. These questions were designed to teach as well as determine what knowledge they already possessed regarding horses. Their meetings are conducted in parliamentary style and they have officers, Lori Héaley is the president of this horseless horse club, and she called the meeting to order and conducted it.

After the quiz and business portion of the meeting, the youth all had the opportunity of learning how to properly mount a horse, where to put their feet and how to hold the reins. There were three junior leaders who assisted in this portion of the program. These were older girls from other 4-H groups who do own horses.

This group is led by Beverly Walker and much of her teaching will be done with the aid of 4-H manuals for members and much allied material from the 4-H office.

Another type of group is led by Nancy Brooks in Boyne Falls. Called the City Slickers, this group is interested in a variety of projects. There are about a dozen youth in this group and many of their projects are short term so they move from project to project. They do crafting, baking, gardening, candy and cake decorating. Mrs. Brooks' own children each began in 4-H at about age 5. Apparently 4-H is a good place to find things to interest all ages.

Robert Schmidt is the leader of the North Bay Market Livestock Club and has more than a dozen children in his group, from nine to 16 years of age. This group will raise 4-H steers, lambs and hogs. The ultimate goal for these youth will be the showing and sale of their animals at the Emmet County Fair next August.

"A 4-H club is what the leaders and members want it to be," Green said. She went on to explain that the leaders do not have to be experienced and that 4-H provides materials and expertise on a wide variety of subjects. "If anyone has an idea for a 4-H club or is interested in an established club, either as a leader or member, please let me know at the extension office. The 4-H year is just getting underway, there's still time to get started," said Green.

Anyone interested in contacting her can reach her at 582-6232.

Boyne Falls teachers get contract

BOYNE FALLS - The 18 teachers at the Boyne Falls School now have a teaching contract for the school years, 1980-81 and 1981-82. At the Monday, Dec. 13 meeting of the school board, Tom Oakley, negotiator for the board of education, met with school board members in an executive session.

school superintendent. "Both sides are happy with the agreement."

According to Tom Oakley of the Michigan Association of School Boards, the contract is a fair settlement. It draws the Boyne Falls teachers into line with similar size school districts in regard to salary and benefits.

Under the new contract, a teacher with a bachelor's degree and no experience will be paid $11,584 in the 1980-81 school year. During the 1981-82 school year, that teacher will earn $12,627. A bachelor's degree and 12 years of teaching experience will earn $16,834 in 1980-81 and $18,349 in 1981-82.

A teacher that has a master's degree and no experience will make $12,859 during the 1980-81 school year and $14,016 during the 1981-82 school year. A master's degree and 12 years of teaching experience will earn $18,405 in 1980-81 and $20,061, the highest salary paid, in the school year of 1981-82.

Nutcracker Suite

The Nutcracker Suite will be presented to the public at the Boyne City Elementary School auditorium on Wednesday, Dec. 17. ## EDC's could help in competitive era

In an era of intense competition for industries that will create jobs, we are glad to see the City of Boyne City and the County of Charlevoix in various stages of organizing economic development corporations.

The city EDC is already formed, but organizers are waiting for the release of census data to complete their informational/promotional material.

The county EDC is on the verge of approval and has done less background work, but it has already received a request for aid.

EDC's have two major functions, both of which are quite needed in our area—promoting our strong points and making low-interest loans available. We also think it's helpful that EDC's can make loans available for existing businesses that want to expand.

There is obviously no guarantee that forming an EDC is going to result in hundreds of new jobs for our county. Some communities in Michigan and elsewhere offer lower taxes, cheaper energy, better transportation services and even free land to prospective industries.

Editorial

But every little bit helps in competitive situations.

The Boyne City EDC is contacting other EDC's to learn what should and shouldn't be done. That's smart. How did other EDC's find prospects and what did they do to lure them to a particular area?

From our conversations with industrial leaders who have already located in Charlevoix County, it is apparent that the natural attractions of the area are one of our best features for attracting new industry.

The manufacturing plant owner who enjoys skiing, hunting or sailing would be more easily convinced to consider moving to Charlevoix County.

We hope that those who are recruiting industries to move to our area try to get those that are clean and non-polluting.

We hope that they focus on industries that are not closely tied to the automotive industry, to give our area more diversification and economic stability.

We hope they work cooperatively with area governmental bodies in planning for industrial parks or other good locations for new industries.

Saved 'em right out of town!

Have you read, heard or dreamt that Consumers Power Company will close its Boyne City office? They blame increasing operating costs and the fact that we are on a money-saving kick, using less and less electricity. Now look what you've done. You have saved the Consumers Power office right out of Boyne City.

Right along that line I'd like to say this: For want of a nail the shoe was lost, for want of a shoe the horse was lost, for want of a horse I'm paying $1.36 a gallon for gasoline.

As the new administration takes over in Washington, let us drink and be merry and dance and joke and rejoice. We've got to, for the Republicans sure ain't going to do it for us.

When Ronald Reagan was elected president I sat up all night wondering what in the world he was going to do about that great volume of typographical errors called the dollar bill.

The two most powerful agencies in Michigan are the Department of Natural Resources and the Department of Health. Their power is more frightening than that of the man who takes up the collection at church. They used their power to change the name of our city dump to "sanitary landfill." When we dump our trash where they say, they use the word "sanitary." But when we don't they call it "garbage." Some city councils have taken to calling these dictatorial regulations "rubbish."

Marshall Sayles

Remember when the tanning and extract company cluttered up Front Street? Remember how they dumped stinky chemicals and stringy hair into the lake? Remember how we kids enjoyed swimming there? Remember how it killed us all off?

Any day now I expect the Department of Health to come up with a regulation that will stop me from wearing this pork rind around my neck to ease my sore throat.

When I was 24 I was very handsome, when I was 30 I was very strong, when I was 40 I thought myself quite rich, when I was 50 I was full of wit and wisdom. But now that I am a senior citizen, I can't see where any of that stuff has done me one darn bit of good.

From our house out here on the hill down to the corner at Moore's Hardware it is two miles in the summer.... and four miles in the winter.

As kids we lived on a farm on the Charlevoix road a couple of miles the other side of Horton Bay. Our barn had a large haymow. On nice summer nights my brother and I would burrow down into the hay and sleep standing up. According to a talkative member of the Department of Natural Resources it was part of my background for becoming a hayseed newspaper columnist.

Less than one percent care about nuclear evacuation

On Monday night I attended the "public" meeting which was scheduled to discuss state and local off-site plans for responding to any potential emergency situation connected with the Big Rock Point Fixed Nuclear Power Facility owned by Consumers Power.

The intended purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the "public" with the contents of these plans and to answer questions about them.

This meeting was held for Emmet and Charlevoix Counties and the plans covered both counties. Sergeant Jim Tyler of the Michigan State Police conducted the meeting and did an excellent job of keeping everyone on the subject of the plans and off the discussion of "nukes or no nukes."

In attendance were some 25 persons and seven speakers. Of the 25 in the audience, at least three were from area radio stations and newspapers and another two or three were employed by Consumers Power or the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

The remaining audience was apparently filled with the 20 persons interested in the nuclear emergency plans for Charlevoix and Emmet Counties.

As the meeting progressed I realized how very little I know about the plant, nuclear power, and the situations surrounding them. Most in the audience were better informed than I.

But what you will read about the meeting will come from me...or one of the other media representatives. In the next few weeks I plan on learning a lot more about the situation, but for now what you'll get will come from my current knowledge and my prejudices.

It is fine to say that a good reporter writes about the situation and presents both sides, but all of us have biases and it is very difficult to keep them completely out of our writing. In the quotes I use, the things I see as being important to the story, I end up selecting things that may have my biases attached, even when I want to be impartial.

What concerns me is that we are allowing too few to make the decisions for so many. Twenty concerned citizens representing a two-county area is a very small number.

I think that as citizens we are relying on the media (newspaper and broadcast) too much. We expect them to tell us what is happening and if it is good for us without our having to actively participate.

The nuclear situation is not the only issue. School taxes, teacher strikes, closing Front Street, water rate hikes, are all part of the issue. The issue is allowing too few to speak for the mass and depending too much on the media to provide information.

Earl Muma, Emergency Services Director for Charlevoix County indicated that there are 55,000 brochures on emergency planning. "One for every person in the county," he said.

In reality, it is more than one per person. With approximately 42,000 residents in the two-county area, there is 13,000 left for distribution to tourists and visitors to the area.

With 20 interested citizens for the two-county, 42,000 population area, there was a representation of only .04761 of one percent.

Boyer's Title I program

Parents get some extra training, too

Education becomes mysteriously braided together like the braided outer ring of Saturn.

Parents were given projects, ideas, and games to take home to try on their children. In doing so, Sheldon reports, the parents got results that delighted them. New relationships with their children developed.

Other topics were: Nutrition, How It Affects Learning; Parenting; The Situation for Handicapped Children.

Carol Hague, the Title I math teacher, "bowed the parents over," Sheldon said, when she showed them the concepts children deal with in math. Hague works with children who are a year or more behind in math.

One lively discussion took place on Principal Ed Snyder's day with the in-service class. He talked about his philosophy and of how education is planned at the school. Parents next observed for half an hour or so in their children's classroom, and then reconvened to talk about what they had seen.

Throughout the course, baby-sitting was no problem, because during the in-service sessions, a side-bar course was also going on which involved the toddlers!

Supervised by their teacher, Carol Lauterbach, students, who were studying "Child Development" in high school, studied the toddlers first hand as they took care of them for the in-service parents. Also half of these high school students would attend "Parents In-service" and then the other half would have a turn.

Parents of children in kindergarten, first or second grades signed up in the fall for the in-service, and it ran from

Short of change, out of gas

Until I attended this week's Boyne Falls School Board meeting, I did not realize the full impact that state budget cuts can have on schools.

A letter addressed to the school board was read by school superintendent Ray Mouch. The letter contained bad news. Now that the school board has determined the district's budget, the state is going to drastically reduce the amount of dollars it had previously allocated.

A bill that Governor Milliken recently signed will decrease aid to in-formula schools by 30 percent. Out-of-formula schools like Boyne Falls will suffer another 50 of the original 30 percent state aid cut. This means that the amount of money Boyne Falls received from the state for last year will be reduced to approximately one third for the 1980-81 school year.

In-formula and out-of-formula schools are determined by property valuations.

That's an unanticipated reduction. When the school board members determined their budget, they allowed for some cuts. But now the budget will be even thinner. "We have no alternative but to operate as best we can. We'll have to shave the budget," is the ineluctable response from Mouch.

The Troy School District communicated with other Michigan out-of-formula schools and asked them to express interest in a class action suit which the Troy district would initiate. However, since the time the letters were addressed, Troy's attorneys have expressed a great deal of uncertainty about the possible success of the class action suit. They have now decided not to pursue litigation.

So where does this leave the Boyne Falls School District? Let's hope that in these inflationary times it doesn't leave them short of change and out of gas.

Presently the Boyne Falls School receives state aid for transportation and their hot lunch program. The reimbursement on lunches will not be cut, but the $27,233 awarded for transportation costs will be slashed to $9,531.80.

Fire dept. starts safety decal project

BOYNE CITY - The fire department is launching a new fire safety project which involves placing decals in bedroom windows of homes.

The red and white stickers say "Ici," which has a double meaning. "Ici" is the French word for "here," and it is also an acronym which stands for "Invalid or Child Inside."

An ICI sticker on the front of a house will alert firemen to the presence of people who might need special assistance, and additional stickers on bedroom windows will pinpoint their locations. In other words, ICI means "here is where help is needed."

According to Fire Chief Butch Erber, most fatal fires occur between midnight and 6 a.m., while a household sleeps. And more than half the victims of these fires are children and the elderly who become confused or simply can't move quickly enough to escape.

The ICI stickers and a folder telling how to use them are available free from Boyne City Hall, the police department, E&M Standard Service and Tom Smith Insurance.

Christmas is a time for sharing

Christmas to most families means a time for trees, bright lights, loved ones, ornaments, big Christmas dinners and lots of presents. Many families find this vision impossible to live up to with no family or friends and sometimes a lack of money.

The Community Christmas Group, which is comprised of many local churches, service organizations, and individuals, is working hard this year to see that Boyne City area needy families and elderly shut-ins have a happier Christmas.

Co-chairwomen Thelma Behling, Jewel Bryan, and Gerry Williams want everyone to know that they would be very happy to have their participation. Help is needed in the line of food or money to help buy the chickens and fruit.

Any names and addresses of families and shut-ins could be sent to them. These do not have to be needy people. They want to call on shut-ins with fruit baskets just to let them know they are part of a Christian community and remembered by friends and neighbors.

Those collecting canned or packaged foods and gifts of toys should deliver all these to the area Jaycees' office of at the back of the unemployment office, 210 S. Lake St. on Dec. 23 between noon and 2 p.m.

Those wishing to help pack will be most welcome by the group. Packing will start at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 23. Help will be needed from the men in service clubs, American Legion and V.F.W. to deliver baskets anytime after 4 p.m.

If you have names to suggest or any questions, contact any of the co-chairwomen, Mrs. Garth Bryan, 582-6674, Thelma Behling, 582-6587 or 582-6870, or Gerry Williams at 582-9963.

The Mayor opened the Public Hearing at 7:10 p.m. to consider a request from Lakewood Savings and Loan to close the northerly portion of the alley located east of the Lakewood Office running north and south of State Street to the Southeast Corner of the Old City Garage.

A letter was read from Consumers Power Company consenting to the closing, while reserving an easement to perform work on their service lines within the vicinity of the vacated portion of the alley.

The following people spoke in opposition to the closure: John Rohe, attorney, representing Northwestern State Bank, Elmer Crain, Cebert Gillespie, Kathie Allen and Jim Allen.

The following people spoke for enactment of the closure: Nellie Floadquist, Kate Schaffer, Cindy Place, Everett Sables.

David Weaver, representing Michigan Bell Telephone Company, asked that Michigan Bell be given consideration in any closure, but noted they were not opposed to it.

Arch Wright, representing Lakewood, presented his views and pointed out the advantages the closure would create for his company and the community.

The Mayor closed the Public Hearing at 7:40 p.m.

Moved by Paul, seconded by Jessup to table the closure of said alley and refer the matter back to the Planning Commission to attempt to develop a more compatible solution to the closure of the alley among the parties involved and to report back to the City Commission.

There was no communication received in opposition to the closure.

The Mayor closed the Public Hearing at 8:03 p.m.

The following people presented their views on the relocation: Elmer Crain, Marvin Loding, Rudy Florenski, Carl Boris, Jim Daniels and Louie Manglos.

Mr. Loding asked Lake Associates if they would consider leaving 950 feet of south Front Street, rather than the planned 645 feet. Lake Associates responded that to alter the alignment of the road would require major changes in the Site Plan which has already been approved.

The Mayor closed the Public Hearing at 8:35 p.m.

Moved by Moody, seconded by Behling to adopt the following Resolution:

RESOLUTION FOR THE RELOCATION OF FRONT STREET

Mary's Song

Pull that blanket
 closer, Mary dear
 All the world waits with you for your day
 But for now the wind is cold and it's drear
 And Bethlehem is still so far away
 Do you remember the way you felt back
 then?
 Joy and wonder filled your soul, and when
 The angel slipped away, you knew your Life would never be the same.

Chorus

But now you're traveling, traveling down the road to Bethlehem
 Wandering thoughts
 fly away if you knew the road that
 lay ahead of him,
 Would you break down and cry?
 Your child is born to die.

II

Feel that hand of strength upon your own

A husband's love that guides along the way.
 And as his understanding has grown
 His hopes, too, are centered on that day.
 For do you remember the way he looked back then?
 Pain and sorrow filled
 his eyes, till when
 The angel came to say, "the Savior's birth was meant to be this way."

III

Think back on that promise you've received
 For "He" in whom the Prophets long believed
 Now belongs to you,
 you've been chosen
 too
 But He's the one who's gonna shine
 Call His name Jesus,
 Emmanuel

He will save his people from sin
 and hell
 And of His Kingdom,
 there will be no
 end.

The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us....

Jn.-1:14

Christmas is the most beautiful time of the year. It is the time of giving to others to commemorate the birth of Christ. Everybody knows this, but there are those who do not really know why Jesus had to come to earth as a baby or even why he came at all.

God the Father sent His Son to be the Saviour of the world to save mankind from their sins. That is the simple truth of Christmas, but why did He come as a baby?

First, we must understand that Adam, the first man, lost dominion of the earth that we live in. He also lost his communion with God...all because of sin. When God put him in the garden, he also tested him to see if he would be obedient to him. He failed and lost his right to the tree of life.

All through the Old Testament we read of one who would be sent to redeem sinful man. Until then man would have to make atonement for sin by the animal sacrifice.

In Hebrews 9:22 we read, "And almost all things are by the law purged with blood: and without shedding of blood is no remission." Jesus was to become the supreme sacrifice.

There would never be a need for any other sacrifice after Calvary. In order to accomplish this Jesus would live and walk on this earth, as Adam was meant to, without sin.

When he went back to the Father they sent the Holy Spirit to dwell in us so that we might live in that same power.

He lived a life above reproach and became the sin offering for us (Heb. 2:14) that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage...and again in 1 Jn. 3:8: For this purpose the Son of God was manifest (born) that he might destroy the works of the devil. And what were the works of the devil? (Jn. 10:10) The thief (devil) cometh not but for to steal and to kill and to destroy.

Jesus lived his life in the shadow of the cross, knowing it was there.

He would finish the work for which he came. Men could now choose to become sons of God by the new birth and renew a right relationship to the Father and receive eternal redemption through the shed blood of Jesus Christ who put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. It cost the Father dearly to give this gift of life.

It cost Jesus everything he owned to become Man...he became poor, that we might become rich.

This Christmas, let us remember his birth and why he came. HE CAME THAT WE MIGHT HAVE LIFE.

Luke 1:30 - And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

Luke 1:35 - The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

Luke 2:7 - And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

Luke 2:10 and 11 - And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

It's time for holiday cookies

Now is the time to make cookies for the holidays. I am sure that most everyone has her own special cookies.

I like to make them and give them to young working mothers who do not have time to do much baking. Here is a sample of some of my favorites.

My children loved these gum drop cookies. The recipe is a small one but it is very easy to double all of the ingredients if you wish.

GUM DROP COOKIES

- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup white sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 cup flour
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup grated coconut or nut meats
- 1/2 cup small gum drops
- 1 cup quick cooking oatmeal
- 1 beaten egg.

Use any color gum drops except black. They should be cut into small pieces (1/4 to 1/2 in.). Kitchen shears are best for this. Dip the shears in hot water occasionally if they get too sticky. Cream shortening, sugars and vanilla until light and fluffy, add the flour mixed with the soda, baking powder and salt alternately with the beaten egg. Add the coconut or nut meats, gum drops and oatmeal. Stir to mix and drop by teaspoonfuls on to greased cookie sheets. Bake 10 minutes at 350 degrees.

A very dear neighbor made these for us one Christmas. This is her recipe as she wrote it out for me. These cookies are heavenly!

Cooking Yesterday & Today

with Bea Smith

COCONUT DATE COOKIES

[No Bake]

- 1/2 cup oleo
- 1 egg slightly beaten
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 lb. of dates, cut
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 1/2 cups rice crispies
- 1/2 cup nut meats, chopped
- coconut
- Boil oleo, egg, sugar and dates over low heat until thick (can use double boiler). Add remaining ingredients. Let cool. Form into balls the size of walnuts and roll in flaked coconut. Store in refrigerator or freezer for longer keeping.

These were my husband's favorite cookies, as he loved molasses and raisins. I made these often.

SOFT MOLASSES JUMBALS

- 2 1/4 cups sifted flour
- 1 teaspoon ginger
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 2 tablespoons hot water
- 1/2 cup soft shortening

- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup raisins
- 1/2 cup chopped nut meats (optional)
- 1/2 cup molasses
- 1 egg
- 6 tablespoons cold water

Start heating oven to 375 degrees. Sift flour with ginger, cinnamon and salt. Dissolve soda in hot water.

In large bowl at medium speed, blend shortening, sugar, molasses and egg until very light and fluffy, blend in flour mixture alternately with cold water, then mix in soda and water, raisins and nut meats. Drop by rounded tablespoons onto greased cookie sheet. Put about three raisins in the center of each cookie and bake about 12 minutes.

Oatmeal cookies are always good. These have an add yumminess, and they're so easy to make.

BUTTERSCOTCH WALNUT COOKIES

- 1 1/2 cups flour
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup margarine or butter
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 2 eggs
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 1 cup chopped walnuts
- 2 cups rolled oats
- 1 1/2 oz. package butterscotch morsels
- Sift flour, measure and sift again with soda and salt. In large bowl cream margarine and both sugars, then beat in the eggs. Add vanilla and mix well. Stir in dry ingredients. Add nuts, oats, butterscotch morsels and drop by tablespoon on greased cookie sheet. Bake 350 degrees for 12 to 15 minutes until light brown.

Ramblers host Gaylord Friday

BC coach tells team to relax

BOYNE CITY - Coach Bob Taylor thinks this basketball team may be trying too hard to live up to expectations that they might be one of the best teams in their conference this year. The pressure is affecting their play, he thinks.

So after their second loss in their first three games, Taylor told his troops to relax.

"From now on, we're not going to worry what the score is or what place we are in the standings," Taylor said. "We're just going to do our best, and at the end of the season we'll see where that puts us."

"There's too much pressure on the kids right now. We've got a great group of fans, and I think the players are trying so hard to show their appreciation that they're almost over-trying."

"We're getting shot after shot after shot inside 10 ft., but they're just not falling into the basket," Taylor said.

A tough early season schedule hasn't helped much, either. Three of the first four games were on the road, and all were important conference games.

The Ramblers have their final game before a 2½-week Christmas vacation this Friday on their home court against Gaylord. Varsity game time is about 8 p.m.

The Blue Devils were winless after their first three games with the most recent defeat being to Grayling by a 12 point margin. Boyne lost to Grayling by one point in the season opener.

Standouts for the Blue Devils have been Ron Sides and Gary Prusakiewicz, who had 22 and 18 points, respectively, against Grayling.

Leading scorer for the Ramblers has been 6-3 junior Brian Vroman, who is averaging 21 points per game in his first three games.

At Petoskey, the Ramblers trailed by six after three quarters, tied the score midway through the fourth, but went cold at the end to lose, 65-58.

The Northmen shot 48 percent from the field to Boyne's 39 percent, and that was the difference.

Vroman had 23 points in the game, followed by Larry Jarema with 12, Kerry Kruzel with six and John Tompkins and Darryl Tims with four each. Tims had nine rebounds and Vroman seven.

The junior varsity lost a 79-49 decision with Mike Harris getting 14 points, Darrel Johnson 12 and Tim Wandrie nine.

Big game: Harbor comes to EJ

EAST JORDAN - The always powerful Harbor Springs Rams come to town Friday night, and the outcome could provide a clue to the Ski Valley League race this winter.

The Devils edged out the Rams for the league title last year for their first crown in many years.

Harbor is 3-0 this year, but could be more vulnerable than usual. The Rams got a scare from Inland Lakes and won by only six points last Friday. They are hurting with one of their top players, Rich Kowalski, injured and out of action for about five more weeks.

Top scorers for the Rams so far have been Dave McRoberts, who had 23

Devils in Christmas tourney

For the first time in quite a few years, East Jordan will be participating in a Christmas basketball tournament.

The Red Devils will play Saturday, Dec. 27, and Tuesday, Dec. 30, although tournament pairings have not been announced yet.

Traverse City St. Francis, a perennial state basketball power, is hosting the tourney. Other participants are Maple City Glen Lake, another powerful school, and Suttons Bay.

hit only 33 percent of their shots.

"A couple of our kids were kind of sick, but I thought we played pretty well against Bellaire except for our shooting," Chase said.

"That one really hurt, because we led most of the way," Chase said. "We really went cold in the beginning of the fourth quarter. We must have gone four or five minutes without scoring a point."

In that stretch, Bellaire went from a 39-38 deficit to a 47-39 lead.

Ingalls and guard Randy Morris shared scoring honors with 12 points each. Todd Root added eight, Mike Spence seven, and Bill Spence and Tom Peters had four each.

Great Lakes wins first half men's title

BOYNE CITY - Great Lakes Energy Systems has finished the first half of men's basketball league action with a perfect 5-0 record.

Great Lakes beat Northwestern State Bank/Boyne City Lanes, 100-82, to finish the first half schedule. Al Looze scored 25 points and Tony Williams had 18 to lead the victory. For the losers, Jeff Kruzel had 19 points and Jim Baumann 18.

Country Star Market took second place by stopping Pavton's Well

Drilling, 101-97. Pavton's came back from a 15-point halftime deficit to make the game close. Dave Peck had 28 points and Bob Taylor 21 to lead the winners. For Pavton's, Tim Crego hit 23 and Terry Erber 20.

Boyne River Inn whipped Schafer's for its second win, 84-71. Mark Long and Kevin Griffin led the way with 18 and 17 points, respectively. Dean Hicks had 31 to lead Schafer's, and Dale Tims added 11.

Second round action will begin this Sunday with Pavton's vs. Bank/Lanes at 12:30 p.m., Great Lakes vs. Schafer's at 1:45, and Country Star vs. BRI at 3.

Upton named player of week

BOYNE CITY - Gregg Upton, whose 19 second half points lifted northern Michigan to an 88-54 win over Lake Superior State on Dec. 6, has been named basketball Wildcat-of-the-Week.

The 6-9 senior came off the bench for a 7-for-11 performance from the field, a 5-for-5 effort from the free throw line and nine rebounds in 13 minutes of second half play.

In two other games in a five day span, a 66-57 loss at Michigan Tech and a 60-48 win over St. Norbert, Upton was 6-of-11 from the field, 6-of-8 from the charity stripe, scored 18 points and had six rebounds.

"Gregg had been in a bit of a slump as a starter, so we moved him to our sixth man position," explained head coach Glenn Brown. "He's the kind of player who can come in off the bench and get us going."

Kerry Kruzel

Kerry, a 5-10 senior guard, is one of Boyne City basketball team's tri-captains this winter. Coach Bob Taylor said Kerry played "a great defensive game against Petoskey last week. He does everything we ask, and he always has the job of guarding the other team's top guard." Kerry, was the leading runner and an all-conference selection on the Rambler football team this fall.
