LexaMar gets site approved, construction to start Oct. 10

LexaMar, the new plant to start

News Briefs

New drivers' licenses for minors will now carry the words "Under 21." The new wording will help in identifying age quicker for those establishments that require people to be of age. The wording will come off automatically when the license holder reaches his or her 21st birthday.

According to a letter sent out to Senator Levin by our state senator, Mitch Irwin asked that the federal government designate U. S. 131 as a National Defense Highway, could be one way of increasing the expressway to the northwest Michigan area. Irwin asked that the section of road going from Cadillac to Kalkaska be designated, citing that many National Guard units from the state and neighboring states use the highway to get to Camp Grayling. It is just one more way to get the funds to continue building the expressway further north.

Boyer Falls school is looking for a volunteer to be the eighth grade class advisor. Those who may be interested are asked to call Mike Wallace, the school principal.

Also in Boyer Falls, senior citizens are being asked if they would be interested in living in subsidized housing. The Boyer Falls Housing Commission is asking so they could help determine the need for such a project in Boyer Falls. Seniors are asked to call one of the commission members, Yvonne Metzger at 549-2072 or Betsy Blondin at 549-2114 if they are interested.

Char-Em is looking for that someone who has demonstrated a commitment to the understanding and education of the gifted child. They want names of those who have participated in developing a program. If you want to send in a name, send it to Kathy Martinchek, Char-Em, Box 318, Charlevoix, MI.

The building boom in the new Air-Industrial Park in Boyne City, came off the drawing boards and went through the site plan approval at Monday night's special planning meeting.

The approval was almost "cut and dried," due to a new form that has been developed by city officials to help the planners. LexaMar was the first to use the form which cut down the work required to determine whether a site was being used appropriately and according to the zoning rules by the developer or owner of a proposed project.

The LexaMar facility is the first of five companies proposed so far for the 80 acre site within the park that the Magna of America company purchased from the city and a local investment group.

The factory will be a 60,000 square foot building with an additional 12,000 square foot mezzanine located on about seven acres of the property. Entrance to the property will be off a new road that the city is planning to construct. That road will be off of M-75 between the First National Bank and Top O' Michigan.

While the building will be located in the southwest corner of the property, it will have 75 parking spaces for the employees and a 33 feet drive into the site. The area surrounding the plant will be about two acres of lawn and will have trees and berms and shrubs.

Construction is expected to get started Oct. 10, with completion to be by Aug. 1, 1986. The firm intends to start moving equipment into the plant by April 15 with production to start around the first of June.

Initially, the plant will start with 45 employees and will be up to about 75 by July of 1987.

Answering questions for the project was Jim Kline, the new plant manager, as the construction firm has not yet been decided. That will be determined yet this week, Kline said.

He also told the planners that everything exceeds the city requirements because of the corporate philosophy of Magna, which is to build a campus-like setting for their plants and to provide recreation facilities for the employees on the property.

City manager Randy Frykberg told the planners this plant is the cornerstone of the park and is a "rather major project" for the community. He also told the board that working with the firm was exciting, and hopes that they enjoy working with the city as much.

Negotiations with the utilities and other firms are continuing for other parts of the park.

Anishinabe gets $10,000 grant

A $10,000 grant from the Michigan Council of the Arts will fund the hiring of elders of the Anishinabe InterTribal Council as teachers, allowing them to share knowledge of their heritage.

The classes, which are entirely oral, deal with the culture and language of the Odawa (Ottawa) people, according to Gigi Antoine, executive director of the tribal council.

Antoine said the classes, held at the Title IV (Indian Education) office at the East Jordan Schools or on the tribal land at the end of Mill Street in East Jordan, are open to anyone who is interested in learning the rich heritage of the natives.

Some of the money will also be used to help finance the annual Day of the Eagle Powwow.

Antoine added that the grant monies will also help the organization reach its goal of self-sufficiency.

"Every little bit of money helps," she said. "It also promotes our visibility."

This is the third and last year of funding by the Michigan Council of the Arts through a pilot grant under the Elder's Heritage Program.

Antoine is awaiting word on a grant request for more state funding which would fund the council's Buck-uh-tah program.

Buck-uh-tah is the Odawa word for "I am hungry" and the monies would be used to purchase a concession wagon that would serve traditional Odawa foods.

The Anishinabe, which means "original man," also hope to obtain money to purchase more land on which to construct a museum and replica village.

Antoine said they hope to purchase the land by next fall and have a tribal center built by 1987. The tribal center will house artifacts, be a rain site for powwows and other ceremonies and serve as an office and bunkhouse.

The Anishinabe, which is primarily made up of ancestors of the Ottawa and Chippewa (Ojibway) bands and their families, have members from across the area they call Zing-gwak Beeng Akeh (Pine Lake Land)—the Lake Charlevoix area.

The group gets no money from the federal government, Antoine said, noting that the organization of some 600 tribal and honorary members is not political.

BC drive gets underway

Boyer City kicked off their United Way program Tuesday with a breakfast meeting at the Depot Restaurant where Lindsay Adams, the 1985 Drive Chairman explained the goals that the program hopes to reach this fall.

The community program is looking for a total of $25,000 to operate all of the local programs the United Way funds.

According to Adams, the drive workers will be going to businesses between Oct. 1 and Oct. 19 to ask for support for the drive.

Last year, the drive successfully met its goal and officials are expecting the drive to again meet the goal.

New health code starts Oct. 26

Technical research and new methodologies will be reflected in Charlevoix County's updated sanitary code that will take effect on October 26.

According to Gerald Chase, Health Department administrator, the code allows for new, innovative methods of sewage disposal, including mounding.

"That's probably the biggest change in the code," he said.

Chase said that significance of allowing mound septic systems is that many areas of the county were eliminated by the former requirements which called for four feet of permeable soil above the water table at a septic system site.

He added that mounding will allow more flexibility and the shallower amount of permeable soil at the site. This will open up more lots for development, he said.

Research shows that no environmental controls are endangered under the new system, but Chase added that the new systems will be closely inspected.

"We will be looking at those a lot harder," Chase said. He added that health department officials are concerned that the mound type are not put in on a "wholesale basis" and noted that the specifications must be followed rigidly.

The new code, which updates a 1968 code that had some technical revisions in 1975, has many other technical changes, but it is also simplified because of legislation that protects water and wetlands.

"Wetland acts and other legislation now protect lakes, so our codes can be more technically correct," he explained. Before the environmental legislation, health department codes were among the only legal safeguards for surface and ground water.

He added that the new code is designed to protect sewage control only but is compatible with other environmental control actions.

LexaMar will be the first plant in the proposed development of the Magna of America property in the Air-Industrial Park. The plant, labeled number one on the site, is enlarged to show how it will sit on a portion of the property. The other plants are to be developed in the future on the 80 acres the company bought from the city.

Boyer City okays design work

Boyer City is moving ahead with plans for the engineering of the water and sewer and streets for the new Industrial Park after agreeing to have Granger Engineering of Gaylord start work on the proposed water lines, sewers and roads at their noon meeting Tuesday.

The engineering cost of the project will run as much as $124,000 for the work that will get started yet this year and be completed next spring.

Involved are roads into the park for LexaMar, water lines looped to serve the area as well as along Division Street and sewer lines for the industrial complex.

The city expects to let the bids for the construction as soon as the details are available from the engineering firm.

The commissioners also agreed to re-roof the waste water plant roof when they awarded a bid for a new "Trocal" type of roof to Bloxom Roofing and Siding Company of Traverse City. The roof will cost the city $6,225 and will be guaranteed against failure for 10 years.

In other discussions, the commissioners heard a report and update from Loton Wilson covering the proposed city historical museum. The city heard that the group still hasn't found a location for the museum, but is still looking at different options that have been presented.

DAIRY PRODUCTS

This is a little bit of nostalgia from a dairy farm during the twenties. It was before electricity came to the farm land. No milking machines, no electric coolers and refrigeration were yet available to the farmers without electric power. I remember my father milking the cows, pouring some into a dish for the barn cats, carrying two full pails of milk at a time to the house to put through the cream separator. Papa milked about eight cows in the morning while Mama made coffee and fried meat and pancakes or cooked oatmeal. She helped him milk at night after supper. That was when "the kids" had to do the dishes and Mama got "away from it all" for a little while. I do not suppose that it was very romantic, yet it was one small part of their busy days when they could be alone together.

Before the time that he sold his milk, Papa separated the milk from the cream, sold the cream and fed the skim milk to the young calves and pigs. At that time it was necessary to have "rich" milk for butter. He hauled the cream in those cream cans, that are now so popular in the antique shops, in the back seat of our model T to the local creamery or store where they tested it for butterfat. The more butterfat the better price for the cream.

Of course, Mother made her own butter. Milk was not considered good unless rich in butterfat. How different from our modern society where we try to eliminate all fats. I wonder why we did not have over-weight problems, perhaps it was because we "worked it off". We walked two miles to school, went after the cows at night and had lots of time to play, especially in summer. We ate all of that cholesterol and were in good health except for those childhood diseases of measles, chickenpox, etc.

Mother made cottage cheese as well as our butter and cooked with cream, which went into our cakes, cookies, bread puddings, cream pies, rice puddings, scalloped potatoes; she never took us to drink our milk, we just did it.

Nearly all of the recipes in the old cookbooks used lots of cream, butter and rich milk, and they were delicious; though I believe that they taste just as good adapted to our more modern ingredients using less fat. The following was no doubt true before our margarines were perfected. I remember the oleos and their taste was nothing to be desired. This is a quote from "White House Cookbook" 1926. "Butter is indispensable in almost all culinary preparations. Good fresh butter, used in moderation, is easily digested; it is softening, nutritious and fattening, and is far more easily digested than any other of the oleaginous substances used in its place."

IRISH POTATO SOUP

Peel and boil eight medium sized potatoes with a large onion sliced, some herbs, one teaspoon salt and a dash of a pepper. Press all through a colander; then thin it with rich milk and add 2 table-spoons butter; more seasoning if necessary. Let it heat well and serve. Now, we would most likely put it through the blender and use a non-cholesterol margarine to replace the butter. This is a very delicious soup. It could even be mad with 2% milk if one is calorie counting.

I would like to give you this recipe for bread sauce as served to us at our last supper at the Oig Hotel on Isle of Skye. This sauce accompanied roast chicken with a sweet dressing.

BREAD SAUCE

1 cup milk
1 cup bread crumbs
1 onion
4 Tablespoons butter
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon mace

Cut onion finely and cook with milk in a heavy pan or double boiler for about 20 minutes. Strain milk into bread crumbs and let stand an hour. Add butter and seasonings, bring to boiling point and serve at once. This sauce should be quite thick, like a dip. If it is real thick, however, thin it slightly with a little more milk. If thin add a few bread crumbs.

Virginia Burns has received a check from Glen's Save/Share for the Charlevoix County Hospice in the amount of $141.06.

This is one example of a non-profit group making use of the Save-Share Program to help raise funds. There are many more groups using it, too. Glen's wants everyone in Boyne City to know about Save-Share and hopes more groups will use it to raise funds.

All a group has to do is register with the store manager and begin saving the green cash register tapes. Glen's will pay 1 percent of the total qualified amount of all tapes brought in by any registered group; and not just once, but each time a group brings in $25.00 worth of slips or more.

Jottings

BY JIM SILBAR

"But I don't want to write a column this week," the brain moaned. "I just want to take a vacation for a week or three."

"In fact, all these people coming in to tell us to change their address to Florida is really making me jealous. After all, the new Almanac says that we are supposed to get an early and snowy winter and I don't want to be around to control the muscles that shovel the snow."

"But you have to," said another part of the brain. "Readers have told you many times that they enjoy what you write about although many times I think it is dribble."

"So stop procrastinating and get with the program. And don't tell me you can't think of anything to write about. After all, you just have to look around the area to find something."

"What about writing that piece on how you are supposed to be the official watchman watching over the construction of the Dilworth. Or, what about that story idea you had last week on those folks who will get their dog's picture on a bag of dogfood if their dog is chosen the most photogenic."

"But I am tired of racking my cells every week."

"You could write a column on picking your nose like that guy did in Pennsylvania. He won a national award with that one."

"But I just don't think my readers would appreciate such a thing as digging around an old schnooze."

"You may be right on that one, but with all the reading that you do you should be able to come up with something that would be award winning, maybe even a Pulitzer."

"Go on, nobody on the committee even reads this newspaper, although we did get a mention in the Congressional Record the other day."

"Anyway, I have been trying for years to get my brother nominated for a Nobel in Physics, and I haven't had much luck there either."

"It might help if you could understand just what he does in physics."

"I tried to once. He told me what he was working on and it went so far over my head that the latest spy plane had to change course. No, I can really say that I don't know what he does, so I can't tell the Nobel committee to give him the award. I do know that he spends a lot of time with a calculator though."

"Yeh, so do you, only you're trying to figure out how much money came in through the door so you can keep this newspaper going for another week or two."

"That is one of the jobs that a publisher has to worry about, just like writing that column every week. It has to get done. You know, I live by the deadline."

"I know, in fact, I know it too well. You've lived by a deadline for as long as I can remember."

"Well, what about that column you wanted to do on the Boyne City Football Team?"

"You mean the one where I was going to compare this year's team with one of those in the past? If that is what you are thinking about, forget it. I looked far and wide in the past and I couldn't find a team to compare them with. I even tried to find coaches to compare and about the only comparison I could find was between the present track coach and the coach they had a couple of years ago."

"But, wasn't it the same guy?"

"Uhuh, that's why it's so tough."

"Well, I am just sure you could find something else to write about. Why don't you think about it and procrastinate until next week."

"Sounds like a good idea, see you in the newspaper then."

Ware-withal

BY GAIL WARE

In households across this great land of ours are stored millions of collapsed grocery sacks, durable and ready for any assignment at a moment's notice. It's grand to contemplate such a national reserve held in private hands. But it's quite another thing for the keepers of the bags to find enough uses for these sturdy containers to keep the reserve down to reasonable levels.

Grocery sacks are a part of a group of containers that we save because they're barely used, can house or carry most of our possessions except goldfish and they're free. With such credentials, it's improper, maybe even immoral, to throw them away.

Big paper bags are most appreciated in households with small children. Pre-schoolers wear the sacks as costumes, lay them end to end as rivers or boundaries, keep their treasures in them and use them for crayon creations. Mothers of 2-to-5-year-olds wouldn't consider living through a rainy day without grocery sacks.

Little kids go on using the bags in the early grade school years for carrying costumes and "show and tells" back and forth to school. Then suddenly children shun the bags. About the time the young begin taking in enormous amounts of groceries, their interest in taking abroad the grocery conveyers plummets. From that time on, a reserve starts building.

Akin to paper bags are cardboard boxes. And we save them with the same zeal. When my family moved to our present house eighteen years ago, we started out saving boxes under my husband's and my bed. The space filled rapidly so we took to our present storage center, the garage. We use some of the boxes for things we buy as gifts that don't come packaged, like sweaters or jeans. And gifts of pajamas or underwear definitely call for a box in order to qualify as presents. But our need has fallen farther and farther behind the continuing supply. We've watched our garage space grow smaller. Even after nesting the boxes inside each other and straightening up the collection, the pile is unsightly. Seen at twilight, though, on a hazy day, it almost resembles an Egyptian pyramid. If you squint a little and think hard about camels.

Beside cardboard boxes and paper bags, there are styrofoam boxes and plastic bowls and sacks that we hang on to. It isn't that we doubt the adage, "You can't take it with you". But we act like a logbook of our saving habits is being kept. It's as if we think St. Peter is standing at the Pearly Gates making the final judgment of our acceptability on the basis of that record, particularly the record of saving container kinds of things.

That's ridiculous, of course. But I cling to a secret hope that there's at least some particle of truth in it.

Marshall Sayles

Ten years ago this month I became the only person in northern Michigan to see a UFO. A real UFO, mind you! And I told about it in this newspaper. People are still bugging me about it and, to bring them up to date, I hereby re-tell the strange and exciting experience that happened on that unforgettable night back in 1975.

"I've got to," I said. "It goes along with my long standing belief that he who can and doesn't is a boob."

"That reminds me. Does the newspaper tell the truth to your people?"

"Well," I said, "%#&!%#&%" and added, "%!#&?;!%$."

"That bad, eh," he said, misunderstanding my carefully thought out answer.

He made as if to leave and I begged him to stay. "Look," I said, "I'll dump my entire kingdom into a gunny sack and swap the whole thing for a little more of your time," thinking maybe I'd pad the story a little and sell it to Grit Magazine.

Suddenly he jumped into the saucer and soared away, yelling,

"If you are a typical American, we'll never be back!"

Driving through Advance on the way home, I knew that nobody in East Jordan and only half of the people in Boyne City were going to believe this story; and when I finally sat down to my desk to write, I wondered:

How in the world was I going to dig this pit without falling into it?

BC Landfill has busy last day

Emptying the last load at the Boyne City Landfill Company. The last customer to use the landfill was Monday was this truck load from the Boyneland Refuse Freida Judkins who brought in three bags of refuse.

After a day's worth of refuse is dropped, the front-end loader compacts it and moves the refuse into the pit. Then it is covered with about a foot or so of dirt so that rats and other animals will not be able to find a home.

Locking the gate for the last time to users was Ed Gay, who was operating the landfill under the direction of the C.H. Smith Company on a contract for the city.

Dinner theatre in Chx. opens this week with "I Do, I Do"

Pritchard Productions is bringing a series of dinner theatre evenings to Charlevoix at 218 Bridge Street, restaurant Tom Warth and producer David Pritchard announced this week.

Warth, owner of 218 Bridge Street, who announced his association with chef Dave Phillips last week, has already begun renovations to transform 218's third floor banquet room into an intimate dinner theatre with a seating capacity of 46.

The dinner theatre season will open with "I Do, I Do," on Thursday, October 3, to run through October 20. That production will be followed by the musical revue "The Gay Nineties," Thursday, October 25 and through November 7. Scheduled for a special Christmas production is "The Christmas Show," a jubilant David Pritchard, the 31 year old founder of the theatre company, is Simon's "I Ought to be in Pictures," December 27th, playing through January 5. The season will close with the musical production of "Sing, Sing America," from February 6 through March 2.

Show schedules call for performances Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings. Thursdays, dinner is at 6:00 p.m. with curtain time 7:30. Fridays and Saturdays, dinner is 7 p.m. and curtain 8:30. Sunday, supper at 4:30 followed by curtain at 6:00 p.m.

Warth, who is excited about the possibilities of developing a year-round calendar of theatrical events in Charlevoix, says he plans to offer tickets for the dinner-theatre package or theatre alone. There will be reduced prices for children at matinee performances and some special performances.

David Pritchard, the 31 year old founder of the theatre company, is bringing dinner theatre to Charlevoix after several years' experience at Caberfae and McGuire's in Cadillac, as well as his summer theatre in Petoskey at the Ross Stokes Theatre in the Virginia McCune Art Center.

Pritchard, a strong advocate of dinner theatre, talks with enthusiasm about the intimacy of a dinner theatre experience.

"This is an exciting business. Right now there is an increase in interest in the entertainment industry," the 31 year old producer maintains, crediting the surge in the video business with awakening new interest in theatre.

Dimes March Auction nets $1739

The Fourth Annual March of Dimes Auction-Jamboree held at the Nordic Bar in Boyne City on Sunday, Sept. 22, was declared a success.

"We are thrilled with the response of the people in our area to the Auction Jamboree which raised $1739 to help prevent birth defects. We are especially grateful to Dick and Noreen Selissen of the Nordic Bar for the great support they gave in hosting the event and to the many businesses and individuals who donated items for the auction. Everyone—waitresses, bartenders, bands, the auctioneer, canvassers, including those who helped make the whole event run smoothly—donated their time freely to make this the best year yet," said Mrs. Sweet.

Paula Sweet was presented with a hand-crafted clock by Harry Pearsall, in recognition of her years of service for March of Dimes. Special guests at the auction were three-year-old local poster child Russell Benz and his mother Jane Benz of East Jordan.

Money is used locally to support the Char-Em Alternative Program for Teen-age Parents; Health Career Award for student nurse program at nmc; Childbirth classes at Charlevoix Area Hospital and Antrim County; ongoing eduation for health professionals in the area; and public health materials to all organizations requesting them. Nationally, monies are used for research and producing educational materials to help prevent birth defects and assure that healthy babies are born to healthy mothers.

In other business the City Manager reported on a pre-bid meeting, held August 26 between the City and potential refuse haulers who expected to bid Sept. 5 for serving the City for refuse collection. He reported transfer stations were discussed as well as the City getting completely out of the refuse business and let trash collection be opened to strictly private enterprise and competition. It was decided that the City landfill should be closed as quickly as possible.

Cebert Gillespie, of Boyneland Refuse expressed his opinion that he should get a franchise to pick up refuse within the City. He said if he didn't he would have no protection from others to come to town and compete with him.

The City Commission stated that trash pick up should be left up to free enterprise and they discussed rescinding the Ordinance which deals with licen-

Commercial Facilities Exemption Certificate for the east one-half of the former Schafer Building for a duration of 12 years.

Ruth (Pat) Wulff and John Kujawski were re-appointed to the Airport Advisory Board.

WEEKLY MEETING, SEPTEMBER 17, 1985 11:30 a.m.: All Commissioners present except for Commissioner Behling. There were 14 people in attendance at the meeting.

New Police Officer Jeffrey Gettel was introduced to the Commission.

An engineering contract was awarded to United Design Associates for the complete design of the Peninsula Beach Project at an amount not to exceed $16,000.

It was announced that fire protection will continue to the residents of Evangeline Township through February 28, 1986, even though the landfill is being closed.

Discussion was held on the razing of the old burned out section of the Locker Plant to eliminate the unsightliness of that area. The County Building Inspector is working on that project.

It needs to be registered before its driven on public roads

Whatever it is called, if it has a motor and two or three wheels, it has to be registered before it can be driven on public highways, roads and streets.

If it has two horsepower or less, no gears, and a top speed under 30 miles per hour, it's a moped and the operator has to have either a driver license or a special moped license to operate on public highways. The minimum age for a special moped license is 15.

If it has more than two horsepower, a gear shift, and a top speed of over 30 miles per hour, it is a motorcycle. The operator must have a driver license with a motorcycle endorsement.

According to Secretary of State Richard Austin this distinction is not clearly understood by many parents who purchase mopeds for their children. "Some dealers apparently are not aware of the laws that apply to moped operation," Austin said. The sharp rise in the number of these new two and three wheeled vehicles has contributed to the confusion.

Austin said the law requires all motorcycle riders and all moped operators under 19 years of age to wear helmets, but for safety sake, all moped operators regardless of their age should wear helmets.

Businesses selling mopeds must make application for a moped registration with the Secretary of State for their customers. This requirement was added to the law in 1983 in order to insure that mopeds are properly registered when sold by moped dealers.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING CITY OF BOYNE CITY

Pursuant to Rules and Regulations as outlined the Boyne City Zoning Ordinance A-28, Section 2.40, please take notice that a Public Hearing will be held by the Boyne City Planning Board on Monday, October 21, 1985, at 5:00 p.m. in the Commission Chambers, City Hall, 319 North Lake Street, to consider the request by the First Baptist Church, for a Conditional Use Permit.

The Church wishes to purchase this residential home, known on the tax roll as 1551-236-0660-00 and was formerly owned by Rev. John Breard. It is located just east of Call Street, near the First Baptist Church complex of property.

The house is presently zoned R-1. The church wishes to purchase this house and petition for a Conditional Use Permit to use this home as a church activities building such as a Sunday School or in the future a day care center. Such a use is permitted as a Conditional Use in R-1 Zoning.

Boyer City drops 4th game to Charlevoix

Boyer City's varsity football squad dropped their fourth game Friday night 40-8, against another Michigan Huron Shores Conference power team, the Charlevoix Red Raiders. The Raiders were the fourth team that Boyer has faced this year that were mentioned as possible conference powers, so the worst seems to be over for the young Ramblers as the remainder of their schedule entails Sault Ste. Marie, Onaway, and Grayling, who are not to be taken too lightly.

The final two games of this year are against other conference power teams, Rogers City and Petoskey. If the Ramblers make a good showing in their next five games, next year's situation could very well be a different story, as was indicated Friday night in the fourth quarter when Charlevoix fielded some of their reserves and the Ramblers held them scoreless, while scoring themselves.

The Ramblers have also made other adjustments in their line-up, as they pulled some of the javees to varsity status and anticipate the return of first string quarterback Pat Weeks. With Weeks at the helm, Dan McGeorge could be inserted to one of the running back positions for a new angle in the Ramblers' offense.

The Ramblers looked as if they would give the Raiders a good fight Friday as they repealed Charlevoix's first possession. Tom Lasater and Darren Everest teamed up on the first play of the game to put the Raider ball-carrier down on a one yard gain. The Raiders managed five yards on the next play, but Everest broke into Charlevoix's backfield on third down and got to the passing arm of the Raider quarterback. With fourth and long to go, Charlevoix punted, but the Ramblers' offense could only gain a couple of yards before they too were forced to punt.

After another exchange of punts the Raiders got a good punt return that set themselves up at the B.C. 35 and three plays later were into the endzone on a quarterback keeper from the five. Brandon Billings broke up the pass conversion attempt.

Boyer received the ensuing kick-off deep in their own territory at the 19 and gained three yards running before a bad snap went into the Rambler endzone and Boyer covered up for an 8-0 Raider lead.

Even after disaster had struck, the Rambler defense remained strong as they got big plays on two downs from Norm Hadix, Everest, and Lasater, forcing a Raider punt. A six yard run by JV recruit Tim Hennessey was nullified by two Rambler downs that went fruitless, and Boyer punted from their own 13 to the C45.

Three and one-half minutes later Charlevoix was into the Rambler endzone for a 14-0 lead, passing from the B.C. 41. The Ramblers punted three more times before halftime, while Charlevoix scored on running plays from the B.C. 38, and the B.C. 4. The Raiders held a 28-0 lead when time expired.

Boyer received the second half kick-off and pulled off a quick kick on third and 18 from their own 17, but the Rambler defense was to see trouble very soon. After two runs for 10 yards or more a sure-fire Raider TD was stopped by Kevin Hunt, but the Raiders kept the pressure up and rolled into the endzone from the B.C. 15. The Ramblers blocked the point after attempt for a score of 34-0 with 8:00 remaining in the period.

The Ramblers made good yardage on their next possession, but two penalties halted a first down and Boyer called on the defense again. Greg Webb, Matt Speltz, and Lasater put up a good fight, causing the Raiders to lose yardage, but Charlevoix broke away for a first down and followed up on the next play with a 17 yard TD run by James Bartlett, previously of East Jordan.

With a comfortable lead Charlevoix filtered their reserves into the game and the Raider penalties began to pile up, and the Rambler defense sacked the quarterback, forcing a turnover to the Ramblers.

After a deliberated time-out, Boyer scored when Dan McGeorge broke away from the line and outran everyone on the field to the endzone. A pass from McGeorge to Lasater gave the Ramblers eight points and their defense went to work again.

In the remaining time Hennessey recovered a fumble, while Steve Sutton, Webb, and Bill Wicker nailed a Raider runner with extreme gusto. Charlevoix broke away on one more play, but the Ramblers caught the fugitive Raider to stop any further damage.

The Ramblers travel to the Soo for a Saturday afternoon game against a team who has fared no better than the Ramblers so far this year.

Falls' girls find winning key, take two

The Boyer Falls girls' basketball teams won both games Thursday evening against the Vanderbilt Yellowjackets, 36-31 in the jayvee game and 56-53 in varsity action.

In junior varsity action the Loggers took a one point lead into period two and had it turned around less than a minute into the quarter 11-12. The Loggers began to double team the ball and utilized a full press late in the period for a 23-16 lead at the half.

With six minutes remaining in the half the score was tied at 14-all when Kelly Payton popped from the left side of the key for the Logger advantage. In the following two minutes Payton blocked two Yellowjacket shots while Linda Koe-man and Cheryl Sparks got a hot streak going to preserve the lead. Koeman's shot from the right side broke a 16 point tie, and Sparks hit on an offensive rebound for a 19-16 lead after Payton hit a free throw. Claudine Crego upped the margin when she stole the ball on the Logger press for a score of 21-16. After controlling a lead the Loggers dropped their press to close the half.

In the third period the Yellowjackets threw a press at the Loggers, but it was not effective as the girls followed their coach's instructions and easily rolled down the court for scores. At the close of the quarter Boyer Falls led 30-20, scoring eight points in the two minute stretch.

Fourth period action saw Vandy keep the Loggers from scoring much, but failed to hit their shot attempts in the process. Late in the quarter Vandy scored on a string of free throws, but the Loggers' defense kept their opponents from getting too close as Patty Bearss and Sparks prevented any second shot attempts by controlling the boards.

High scorer for the Loggers was Payton with 11 points. Sparks totaled 8 points, Koeman had 6, Nikki Kerridge had 4, Kelly McNew hit for five, and Bearss had 2 points. Kerridge played most of the game on an injured knee, but maintained her high intensity style of defense despite the handicap.

In the varsity game the Loggers trailed through the entire half and part of the third period, but a Logger press gained the lead for Boyer Falls and the action got hotter and hotter until late in the fourth period when Boyer Falls utilized man-to-man defense to maintain the lead for the win.

In period one the Loggers got balanced scoring combined with some timely assists that brought a 6-6 tie. Trailing 6-2 the Loggers got their first assist from Sandy Towne to Pam Grubaugh for a 6-4 score, and another from Renee Reynolds to Dianne Massey tied the score.

Vandy ran off two more buckets against the Logger press for a 10-6 advantage and added three more points by quarter's end. Hoops from Towne and Grubaugh kept the Loggers within striking distance for a 13-10 Vandy lead going into period two.

Vandy took a commanding 20-14 lead by mid-quarter, getting both ends of one and one opportunities on several occasions, but the Loggers went to their press and evened the score in the closing minutes. Near the end of the half Vandy led 24-20 and Collette Sparks came through with a big bucket from the left baseline to keep the game as close as possible.

Boyer Falls opened the half playing a 2-1-2 defense and took four minutes to tie the game at 34-all. Lisa Topolinski scored a bucket that tied the score again at 34-all, and later Debbie Gillespie re-tied the score at 38-all. Grubaugh put her team on top to begin the two minute stretch and the Loggers maintained the lead for one minute when a string of Logger fouls enabled Vandy to take a 43-42 advantage into the final period.

The Loggers had trouble getting rebounds early in the period as Vandy took a 49-44 lead and the Loggers called for time-out. Boyer Falls went to a man-to-man full court press and began to knock points off the margin.

Sparks and Topolinski put a pair of offensive rebounds through the hoop for a 50-51 score, and Topolinski connected on a charity toss to tie the score at 51-all.

Nicky Sparks gave the Loggers a 54-51 lead when she got a steal on the press, taking the ball down the key for a hoop. After that all Vandy could muster was a couple of free throws while the Loggers continued to press for the win.

The Loggers put

Deep in Rambler territory Dan McGeorge [23] gets hit on the five yard line as Bill Wicker [42] gets ready to throw a block on a Raider. One play later, the Ramblers gave up two points when a bad snap carried into the endzone and the Ramblers covered the ball.

EJ overcomes penalties, wins 14-8

The East Jordan Red Devils upped their record to 2-2 with a 14-8 win over the Bellaire Eagles. Ted Snowden's strong running for the Devils helped East Jordan overcome 170 yards in penalties.

The Devils committed 15 penalties to Bellaire's five. Two of East Jordan's penalties gave Bellaire another chance after they had been forced to punt.

East Jordan stopped Bellaire on fourth down and fifteen when Shannon Olstrom made a nice tackle at the East Jordan 18 yard line. East Jordan then started their assault toward the goal line. A big play of the drive was an 11 yard pickup on fourth down by Snowden. But like so many times this year, a fumble at the five yard line turned the ball over.

Neither team scored in the first half, but five minutes into the third stanza, Snowden rushed 46 yards for his first touchdown. The score was made possible when Dale Schroeder recovered a Bellaire fumble. Bill Lytle threw a strike to Mike Goebel, but Goebel was unable to get into the endzone for the two point conversion. At the end of the third quarter, the Red Devils led 6-0.

East Jordan scored again early in the fourth quarter when Snowden broke through the line and ran 53 yards to pay dirt, the pass from Lytle to Goebel for the two point conversion and the Devils led 14-0.

Bellaire's only points came on a 11-yard touchdown pass. The two point conversion was good, but the Red Devils held on to win 14-8.

East Jordan's defensive secondary had been getting walked all over in previous games, but coach Ted Jeffery may have found a new pair of safeties in Greg Kitson and Lytle. The two broke up many plays and played good strong defense all night.

Leading the rushing attack for the Devils was Snowden who gained 165 yards on 16 carries. Steve Dionne contributed 34 yards, while Dave Russell totaled 24 and Darren Graham chipped in with 24.

Lytle completed three of eight passes for eight yards. Goebel pulled down two receptions and Snowden had the other.

Defensively for the Devils, Dionne led the team with nine tackles, Schroeder made eight, Russell, Graham, and Bill Kraemer each totaled six, and Goebel and Jeff Gee each added four. Olstrom had East Jordan's only pass interception.

East Jordan will host the Pellston Hornets on Friday.

EJ girls lose to Mancy Ironmen and Harbor Rams EJ jvs lose heartbreaker 14-8

BY STEVE GEE

The East Jordan girls lost numbers five and six of the season at the hands of the Mancelona Ironmen and the Harbor Springs Rams.

On Tuesday, Mancelona defeated the Red Devils 29-20. The Devils trailed 8-0, 17-7, and 23-11 at the end of the first three periods. East Jordan pulled to within three in the final quarter, but Mancelona built up their lead.

Jody McDermott led the scoring for the Devils with eight points. Chris Nietupski totaled six while Brenda Drenth, Jari Chanda, and Billi Jo Crawford each added two points.

East Jordan's J.V. team won their second game of the year by defeating Mancelona 31-12. They led 9-0, 14-2, and 25-4 at the end of the periods. Monica Olstrom led the scoring with eight points; Erin Snyder and Jill Burt each totaled seven; Kris Burt, Amanda Clark, and Dawn Leach each scored two; while Jennifer Moreau added one.

On Thursday, Harbor Springs defeated East Jordan's Varsity squad by a score of 43-15. East Jordan trailed by four, 10-6, at the end of the first quarter, but Harbor built leads of 20-10 and 31-11 at the end of the next two.

Sophomore Kristy Miller scored six points for the Devils, Jody McDermott totaled four, Chris Nietupski scored three, and Cyndy Merrill added two.

East Jordan's J.V. team also lost, but a score was not available.

The Red Devils will host Pellston on Thursday.

BY STEVE GEE

East Jordan's junior varsity football team lost a heartbreaker 14-8 to Bellaire on Wednesday, and slipped to 1-3 on the season.

Dennis Skrocki scored East Jordan's only points on a quarterback sneak in the second quarter.

Skrocki then connected with Curtis Weidler for the two point conversion. The two teams were deadlocked at 8-8 at halftime.

Bellaire scored the winning touchdown in the third stanza. The Devils had a couple of scoring opportunities, but couldn't manage to score again.

Matt Bishop led the Devils rushing attack with 66 yards. Skrocki completed four of six passes for 86 yards. Defensively, Dave Freel had 11 tackles and Mike Root had eight. Bishop had the teams only pass interception and Rick Clark and Bill Mathers each had a fumble recovery for the Devils.

East Jordan will travel to Pellston tonight.

BC girls drop two

The Boyne City girls' basketball team dropped a pair of games this week against two schools who are always major forces to be reconed with, Charlevoix and Grayling.

Tuesday's score against the Charlevoix Red Rayders was 32-22 and Thursday's score ran 41-21 for Grayling.

Boyne had a hard time hitting the hoop in both games as is indicated by the quarter scores and number of Rambler girls in the scoring brackets. Against Charlevoix Boyne hit 13 points in the first half to 14 for the Rayders, but in the second half Charlevoix outscored the Rambler 17-9.

In the game with Grayling it was 11-5 in the first period and 19-11 at the half. Third period action saw the Blue Devils outscore the Ramblers 12-4 and the fourth quarter ran 10-6 against Boyne.

Scoring for the Ram-lers in game one were Julie Montgomery with 10 points, and Kerry Harvey with 6, while Linda Bieganowski, Jill Harris, and Karen DeSchryver all contributed a bucket each.

Wellness Center now open in Boyne City with services for weight loss

BY LESLIE DAILY
Independent practice of health care maintenance with close supervision is the mode at the new Wellness Center on State St. in Boyne City. The easily accessible center is designed to promote greater fitness and well being of its clients. Dr. Richard Mansfield, osteopathic physician, owns and directs the center. He also serves as the advisor of physical therapy for Northern Michigan Hospitals and is aligned with the college of sports medicine. Throughout his years of medical practice Dr. Mansfield maintains a consistent and active interest in helping clients gain more personal control of their own health status. This strong dedication to the processes of healing has given Mansfield the vision of a health care center providing facilities for people to exercise to their capacity. When this activity takes place it increases the body's supply of endorphins which facilitates the healing process and increases the entire well-being of the individual. The instructors and supervisors at the Wellness Center are trained to assist in promoting the physical, emotional and mental aspects of their clients. A registered nutritionist, certified instructors, Northern Michigan Health Care and a massage therapist are all staffed here. Dr. Mansfield is on hand during regular office hours for special concerns the staff may feel require his attention. The center is also specializing in the field of sports medicine, inhalation therapy, and addresses nutritional and dietary concerns of its clients. The Wellness Center, a division of Total Health, Inc. was officially opened about September 1, 1985.
