News Briefs

A Boyne City morel mushroom was awarded first place in the first annual "largest morel" contest sponsored by Malfred Ferndock. Bob Chaney of Chillicothe, Ohio found the 11½ inch morel near the state park. The contest was sponsored by the Ferndock firm, which is providing morel hunting items through a mail order business.

The Charlevoix County Humane Society will be offering a 25 percent discount on the price of neutering coupons for the next three months. The coupons can be purchased at the Shelter Monday through Friday between 1 and 6 p.m. The regular prices for neutering with a coupon, good at any veterinarian hospital, range from $15 for a male cat to $45 for a large female dog. The coupons will be good for anyone who adopts an animal from the shelter.

Several Michigan residents are being looked for by the IRS. Not to collect money, but to refund it.

If you are due a refund and you haven't yet received it from the IRS, call 1-800-424-1040 for more information.

At a time when the Census Bureau reports a 25 percent increase in the number of persons without health insurance, U.S. Senator Don Riegle introduces another nail in the coffin of socialized medicine. He wants legislation that would provide health care for the estimated 35 million Americans currently without protection.

Tom's Mom's Cookies, based in Charlevoix, will be trying to establish a new market in West Germany and hopes to open restaurant franchises for their products. They will be participating in the Michigan Department of Agriculture's exhibit at the largest trade-only food fair in Europe.

Boyne City re-affirms salmon stand

Reacting to the implied threat of removal of future salmon plantings to improve the sports fishing in the area, Boyne City commissioners as well as other governmental units were asked to re-endorse the DNR's salmon fish planting program that was started several years ago with the first planting of salmon in the Jordan River.

A group recently had asked the Charlevoix County commissioners to urge the DNR to remove what they thought was an illegally installed weir in the Jordan River and the county commissioners told the county prosecutor to send a letter to the DNR asking them to remove the allegedly illegal weir.

After the fisheries management people in the area received the letter, they informed the commissioners that if their program wasn't wanted, they would stop planting in the Lake Charlevoix area and take the fish to other places in the state where they can receive the support of the community.

Because of the DNR action, sportsfishermen in the area became vocal on a problem they thought was taken care of years ago when they asked for the fisheries' program to be expanded in the lake.

They appeared in front of the Boyne City commissioners at the Tuesday noon meeting to ask for a re-affirmation of support for the salmon fishery that has been started in the Charlevoix County area.

The commissioners agreed, saying that they would like to see the plants continued, although Commissioner Cass Toton asked about the weir committee that was set up several years ago and what was the status of that committee.

When told the DNR had backed off on the placing of a weir in the Boyne River until they could determine some more impact statements as to the result, Toton asked if the committee could meet with Steve Swan, the regional head of the fisheries' division in the area, to learn what was going on as far as the future placement of a lamprey barrier and weir in the river.

The city had agreed to the placement of a weir in 1983 and suggested that it be placed somewhere along Old City Park, between Park and East Street.

In other action, the city commissioners authorized the purchase of equipment to monitor the effluent from the waste water treatment plant.

The city would be spending $3,290 for the equipment which will sample the water and tell the operators how good of a job the waste water treatment plant is doing before the water enters Lake Charlevoix.

City Manager Randy Frykberg told the commissioners that the water presently going into the lake is cleaner than the lake itself, but this equipment was needed in order to comply with regulations concerning waste water treatment plants.

The water sampler was on a list of items thought necessary for the treatment plant for some years, as the DNR, which oversees the operation of the plant, had asked for a sample to be taken on a regular basis.

Presently, samples are taken by operators of the plant taking "grab samples" to determine the condition of the water going into the lake.

Frykberg then told the commissioners that the formal groundbreaking ceremonies for the Air/Industrial Park would be held Nov. 7, in the early afternoon with dignitaries from the state in presence.

Citizens were reminded that the free leaf pick-ups will be started next week and those who are interested in burning leaves have to get a burning permit from the city offices before starting to burn leaves. The public was also reminded that burning of leaves on asphalt or tarred roads was not allowed.

Little Halloween creatures may safely clown around and otherwise delight their neighbors but they are advised to follow a few safety rules to avoid injury. Face makeup rather than masks and bright costumes make youngsters such as Detroiters Kyle Brodbeck, left, 4, and his brother Luke, 2, highly visible to motorists.

Trick-or-treaters also are advised by AAA Michigan to wear costumes short enough to prevent tripping, carry flashlights, cross streets at corners and look all ways before stepping off curbs. Youngsters should keep to well-lighted streets and walk facing traffic if there is no sidewalk. All treats should be checked before children eat them.

Beware, little creatures may bump in the night

Tomorrow night is one of the most favored nights in many children's eyes as they go from door to door collecting Halloween treats, but a few cautions are advised by the District Health Department that could save a lot of trouble.

They include: Warning the children not to eat any of their treats until they get home. Parents should carefully examine all treats before allowing the children to eat them.

In trying to find a costume both the child and the parent agree on, look for a warning that says the item is flame resistant. Although these items may still catch on fire, such labeling indicates that they will resist burning and should extinguish quickly once removed from the ignition source. Big billowing skirts or baggy outfits should be avoided because of the risk of contact with candles or other sources of ignition.

Costumes should be made of bright material. For greater visibility, decorate the costume with reflective tape. Children should also carry flashlights to see, and be seen, more easily.

Costumes should be short enough to allow the child to walk without tripping and falling. Wearing mother's high heels is not a good idea for safe walking, good well-fitting shoes are best.

Apply a natural mask of cosmetics rather than a mask. Masks which are loose fitting, may cause a problem of sight and breathing. If a mask is used, make sure it fits securely and has eyeholes large enough to allow full vision.

Swords, knives and similar costume accessories should be of soft or flexible material.

Smaller children should always be accompanied by an adult or an older responsible child. All children should use the sidewalks rather than walking in the street and they should walk from house to house, not run. Children should also be told to not run out from between parked cars, or across lawns and where ornaments, furniture or clotheslines may be present.

Children should also go only to homes where the residents have outside lights on as a sign of welcome. In this area, police are trying to discourage visiting houses after 8:30 p.m.

EJ Snowmobile Council holding annual auction

Did you know that the Charlevoix County Snowmobile Council built 8 bridges, spanning from 8' to 40' lengths last year? Did you know they also bought two SkiDoo Alpine Groomers and groomed, marked and maintained the trail from East Jordan to Elmira? All this and more are the plans of the Council, according to President Jeff Streelman. This year they hope to begin the next phase of grooming a trail, which will run from East Jordan to Charlevoix. Eventually, they plan trails to connect Boyne City, East Jordan and Charlevoix.

Seed monies were contributed last year by the East Jordan Snowmobile Club, The Trailblazers Snowmobile Club, The East Jordan Chamber of Commerce, the East Jordan Iron Works, and the Northwestern State Bank. The second annual auction will be held Sunday, Nov. 3 at 2:00 p.m. in the East Jordan Civic Center to raise funds to continue the trail grooming. The Council has also applied for a Department of Natural Resources grant, which will secure monies and trail markers. Two "deer hunter" special breakfasts will be sponsored to raise funds also on November 17 and 24. Eat a hearty breakfast before setting out after the elusive white tail, or if you are a late riser, come on out for some flapjacks and bacon. Serving times will be approximately 5:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. at the East Jordan Snowmobile Club House.

The Council will happily accept any donations for the auction. The items need not be related to snowmobiling, so do some fall clearance and get rid of some of those extra items. To make a donation, please call one of these people: Vern Stark 536-7565; Ellen Cihak, 536-3384; Harold Downing, 536-7976. The only clothing that can be used is snowmobiling related clothing.

Items may also be given on a consignment basis to the auction. If you wish to do this, please contact one of the people named above.

The East Jordan Public Library will be having a large book sale of usable books at the same time as the auction. These proceeds will go to the Library's funding. Stop by and pick up some reading material for those blizzard days when snowmobiles won't go!

The Snowmobile Council became an entity of its own in recent years after being a fledgling of the East Jordan Chamber of Commerce. When its activities began to increase greatly, the Council formed on its own, but maintains close ties with the Chamber. Both organizations are striving to promote snowmobiling in this area of the state and make winter even more fun for the residents.

Jeff Streelman and Cele Malpass, Chamber of Commerce Director, are both excited about the prospects of more snowmobilers getting better acquainted with Charlevoix County and the Jordan Valley. Both of them are working hard to make this auction a success. Why don't you join their efforts and donate some items and then go and buy something someone else donated! Mark November 3 in large red letters on your calendar!

Bay Marine hearing draws complaints

If the neighbors had the control, it would appear that Bay Marine, located just north of Advance on Lake Charlevoix, would not be allowed to dredge the area in front of the marina and add a boat launching ramp.

The neighbors spoke at a hearing in front of the DNR last Thursday night as part of the process for granting permits to do work in the water or on the shorelines of inland lakes.

The permit for Bay Marine, explained by George Moulton, owner of the marina, would allow the firm to expand into servicing larger sized boats as they are becoming popular on the lake. The dredging to a depth of 10 feet would allow at least six feet of depth at low water periods and would allow sailboats and larger power boats to come into the dock for gas and other services.

Jottings

BY JIM SILBAR

Attention!
All you folks going down South for the winter.

Now that I have your interest perked, let me tell you about the latest device designed to keep you up here where the snow flies horizontally quite a few times each winter.

Now you have to beware of the road-crossing "Pocket Dinosaur." Around here, we only have to worry about the rampaging-road-running deer.

According to one of the Knight-Ridder Newspapers, the "pocket Dinosaur" is really just a silly little armadillo. You know, one of the creatures you can find in this world that rolls up into an armored ball when it is threatened.

Except in the case of Florida. Seems that these little creatures are so adaptable that they can live almost anywhere, city, slum, swamp, or what is called the Florida highlands.

Sure the little creature was native to Florida some eons ago, but just recently have they migrated back to the area, coming across the gulf states from Mexico.

Where the danger lies though, is when these little creatures, in their continual quest for food, get into the roadway. Especially at night.

These animals have a strange sense about themselves. When they see danger, unlike many other creatures who just hunker down and grip the roadway to let the car pass over them, the armadillo jumps straight up.

About high enough to be splattered by the bumper.

Deer will jump. I had one once jump over the top of the hood of the car when I surprised a few coming around a curve. But jumping high enough to splatter into a bumper isn't my idea of a good survival tactic.

No matter if the animal has more armor than a 285 offensive lineman for the Detroit Lions.

No amount of armor can save something when it meets something else like a car traveling along the road at 55 mph.

Of course these little creatures aren't exactly protected from other aspects of nature. Man has slaughtered thousands of them to make baskets and lampshades.

Up here, we take the hide of the deer and make something a little more useful. Gloves, coats, shoes, and more. But we legally have to hunt the deer we use for those items.

Down in Florida, I guess they just run them over with their cars.

Someone told me that guys like Andy Rooney, currently in fame because of his work on "60 Minutes" and a newspaper column, three times a week, 650 words, topical, satirical and other, would grow into the average "Joe" type of guy who can find something wrong with everything.

Like, why is it that they always package hot dogs in packages of 10, and the hot dog buns in packages of eight? Who is the lucky, or unlucky one who has to eat their hotdog without a bread wrapper.

Why do television companies always try to put the most scary movies on the air on Halloween? To scare the little kids into not going out to collect the candy pieces? Or is it to make sure that they stay awake because they are afraid of the whole night and they know that daddy and mommy have to work the next day.

Do they do it on purpose?

A certain city manager of a rather small town in the area, no names mentioned but he is building a house in town to become legal, told me that he was asked to make a report to one of the service clubs in Charlevoix.

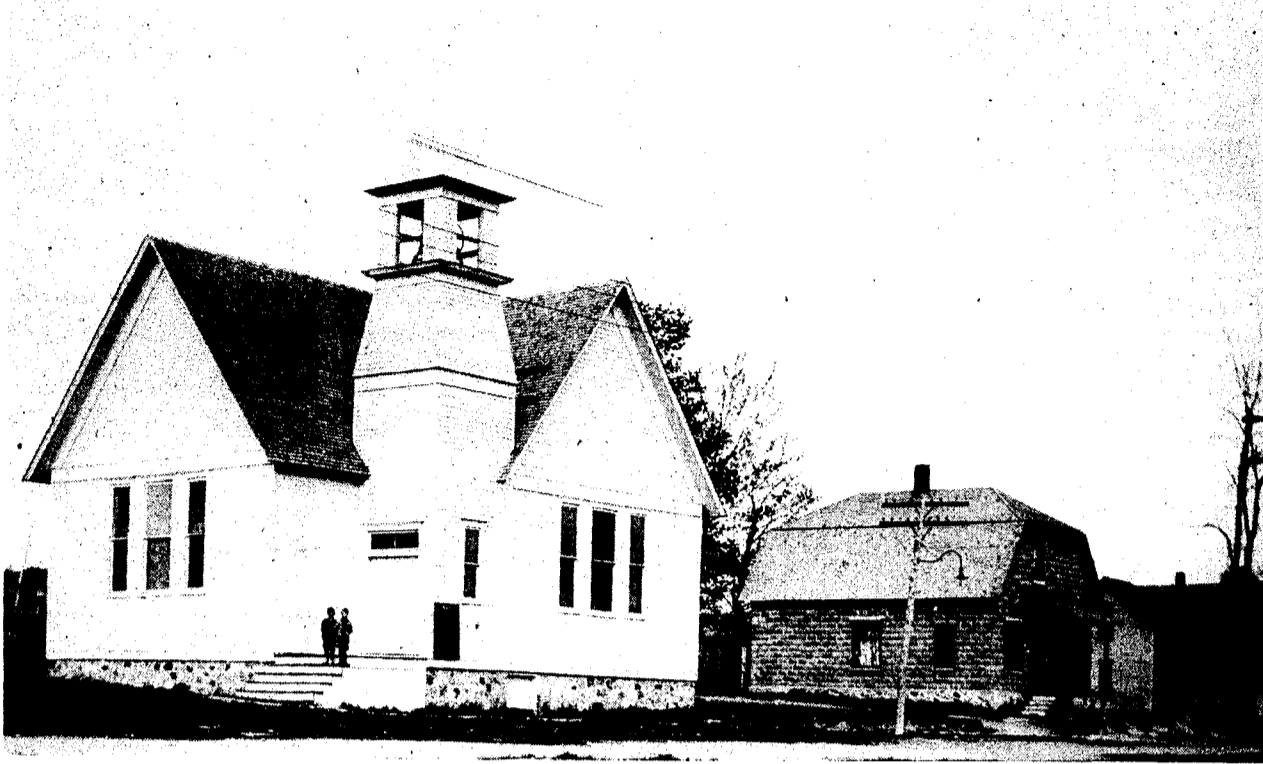

His report was to try to explain why Boyne City is making all of this progress that the area keeps hearing about, and why all the growth is happening at this end of the lake.

As we were sitting talking, he was trying to think of all the things that show some kind of progress in the community. He mentally listed such things as the new manufacturing facilities, the proposed hotel complex, the completion of the Dilworth, the airport expansion, the new apartment housing project, the continued development of the waterfront with the proposed beach project and a few more that he said he had a hard time trying to remember.

I wanted to have him add the development of an industrial harbor project, the bringing in of the new airline for the airport, the expansion of the road joints between the cold patches because of all the digging in the roadway to fix up the watermain breaks, and a whole host of others to bring him back to the ground.

While we are all high on the continued development of the city, we should also be reminded that other towns are developing, too.

Baptist Church, Boyne City.

Back in 1910, the First Baptist Church was completed. Although during the years since then the building, across the street from the Charlevoix County Press, has seen some additions, this is how the original building looked. The building is no longer used as a church, it

Marshall Sayles

Science is now capable of bringing the future to us before it happens.

Viz: Many of us who have stumbled down the nights and down the days for the last half century find ourselves fidgeting in the shadows of sensible things past. Modern times seem to be bringing us an unwanted barrel of fat monkeys.

The push button age can be blamed and the jet age and a fast changing society; and mayhap an odd mixture of Republicans and Democrats. Yes, life is moving so rapidly these days one must check history books to see when America took the sheep from the meadows and the cows from the corn. Only yesterday a member of the jet set referred to last week as the good old days.

When I stop to think where we've been and where science seems to be dragging us, I sometimes want to rise and clutch; or cry out that my life-long dream of an idiot-proof America is being dashed against the rocks of our changing times.

Young folks are hanging in there, enjoying the fantastic ride of heart on a weeping willow and follow a scientist to the moon.

My longing for the good life of far gone days is like having a belly full of ham with the well gone dry.

This, of course, is fuddy duddy thinking, understood only by a clutch of foot dragging seniors.

Sometimes when I get to thinking about these things, I become sick and grumpy; and if I get to dwelling upon them too strongly I get grump and sick.

I've said that before and I say it again because it applies so well here.

Wouldn't thou have me say something that does not apply here?

Pshaw! A good, old well used word of the past, now over run in our frantic plunge into the future.

BY GAIL WARE

The thing about autumn is she tries so hard to make her days exciting. Or maybe she gets bored with being just herself. At any rate, whenever her days fall into too much sameness, she borrows weather from the other seasons. And then she uses it for pretending she's something that she's not.

Autumn's always game for mimicking any of the season. There's spring, for instance. She can't bring back the soft green glow of it, but she shows off what green she has. Dreamers who aren't picky about details can catch the quickening modd of April on a warm October day.

And fall plays often at being summer days. She does well because she's close enough to watch the ways of summer. With her own autumn flowers plus some late-blooming mosquitoes, she almost manages an authentic summer feeling.

Autumn's not so good at pseudo-winter days. She can dab around the white to decorate the scenery. But the hard, tight mood of winter only comes when the earth is frozen deep and solid. Still, her act is good enough to trigger sales in snow shovels.

But autumn's at her best being herself. The colors of her brightest days are sharp, especially the color of the sky. The blue's so keen it hurts. It makes you wonder if the fuzzy clouds are really big erasers charged with moving back and forth to keep the clear, true color free from taint. And all the leaves on trees stand out as if someone had thought to take the time to outline all the edges.

Autumn does have some inactive moments; times she doesn't air for startling effects. Those times she settles for a few well-studied poses. There's the big orange moon that she hangs out at harvest time for those who want to celebrate good crops or just good fortune. Or she can set a broody mood, the best of any season. Her dull grey skies and chilly drizzle are a fitting setting for those who look back with regret at chances that were missed or timing that was a little off.

When autumn isn't showing off or setting up companionable moods, she works on touching up the colors of her leaves. Her russets, reds and yellows get better every year. It's as if she hopes that if she makes them dazzling enough, you'll not take note of the pathetic greyish brown that they all come to in the end.

The calendar shows clearly that fall is allotted no longer time than any other season; it only seems longer. That's probably because she spends so much time calling attention to herself. With winds that are insistent and rains that are splashy, she's hard to ignore. And when she's not putting on any other show, there's always a few leaves letting loose of their branches and hang-gliding their way to the ground.

Since she clearly lacks sedateness, autumn couldn't be considered a ladylike season. But it's hard to imagine that she wants to be. It's more likely she sees herself as an entertaining season and in that she's an outstanding success.

the march of progress; and perhaps it is well they should. But to we, the fine, old group of has beens who are fast making up the majority of our population, the future should be something that's ahead of us, not something that's right now.

Well I, for one, shall not succumb to the great rush to tomorrow. I shall not hang my

Ma Bell awards $4,000 grant to C.A.B.I.G.A.

Michigan Bell awarded a grant of $4,000 to the Charlevoix Antrim Business and Industrial Growth Alliance to assist the agency's business expansion and retention programs.

Michigan Bell as committed a total of $100,000 for similar grants to all qualified Community Growth Alliances (CGAs) around the state to enhance their data processing capabilities, said John Currie at Michigan Bell.

"With computer capabilities, the Charlevoix Antrim Business and Industrial Growth Alliance will easily be able to develop and store such data as industrial site inventories and industrial relocation prospects, and efficiently exchange data with other CGAs and the Michigan Department of Commerce," Currie said.

CGAs were proposed last year by Governor James Blanchard and now are being formed as "umbrella" agencies to coordinate the activities of local economic development groups in a geographic area, he said.

"We're committed to doing all we can to assure continued economic growth and jobs in Michigan because a healthy business climate benefits everyone—workers communities and businesses," Currie said. "This is one way we can help."

Peter Walters, deputy director of the Michigan Department of Commerce, said the Michigan Bell grants would "go a long way" toward helping expand the CGAs ability to gather and use information and provide efficient services.

"Just as important, the company is demonstrating its interest in business retention and development in this state by supporting the concept of Community Growth Alliances," Walters said.

Michigan Bell established an economic development program in 1984 to assist communities in developing business and industrial retention and expansion action plans. So far, the company is working with more than a dozen local development groups, Currie said.

"Our funding for CGA data processing is one more way we feel we can contribute to the great economic development efforts being made in the state," he said.

EJ sixth graders have nature outing at Daggett

Sixth graders at East Jordan had a different type of educational experience with overnight outings at Camp Daggett recently.

Three groups of about 25 sixth graders each spent 24 hour stays at the nature camp on the northern edge of Walloon Lake.

According to sixth grade teacher Mike Farrimond, who served as the "chief cook and bottle washer" for the group, the students studied fungus and niches in nature, took a nature walk through a swamp, meadows, upland areas and other habitat, conducted a star watch and went owling, all under the supervision of Paul Bennington, outdoor education director at the camp.

The students also had time to enjoy some music and dancing and have a campfire sing.

One of the more unusual activities was a survival game in which the children were given the identities of various forest animals—deer, wolves, mice, etc. Students were also chosen to represent the elements, disease and man.

In the game, those given identities as herbivores searched for cards that would represent their food plants, while the carnivorous animal designated students attempted to touch the plant eaters to represent a kill.

All of the "animals" were subject to the effects of being exposed to disease, the elements and man.

Farrimond said that this is the second year a class at East Jordan has used the camp for an outing, but the first for sixth graders.

He said the experience is very well received by the students and hopes it can be continued.

We're trying to make things simple for you again.

Starting with your new phone bill.

When all those changes happened in the telephone business a while back, some things got more complicated. Including your phone bill. Ever since we've been looking for ways to simplify it, so it's easier to read and understand. And after a lot of research and listening hard to customers like you, we think we've done it.

For starters, we've cut out some duplication, so the new bill you'll be getting could have as few as three or four pages.

From now on, you'll just mail in the Payment Page with your payment. The Payment Page is the top page of your bill. We've done away with the computer card you used to have to send in. (If you pay in person, you should bring the whole bill with you.) The Total Amount Due will be easy to find because it's shaded in a box on the Payment Page.

You'll find the new appearance and wording of the bill help make it a whole lot easier to understand.

We think you'll agree that a confusing phone bill is just one more little problem none of us wants to muddle through. That's why we hope our new shorter version will be easier for you.

Drama Dept. fundraiser to offer Trifles

Some of the members of the Drama Club look over the newest game in town, a Trivia game that features questions concerning Boyne City. The drama club will be selling the game to interested people after they sell all the spaces for ads on the playing board. Paula Forton, sitting, looks at one of the spaces that is available while Yvonne Hulett, Dan McGeorge, and Dave Roberts look over her shoulder. The club hopes to sell and deliver the games before Christmas, if possible.

The Boyne City High School Drama Department will soon offer residents of Boyne City an opportunity not only to aid a local fund raising effort but to purchase a unique gift as well.

The B.C.H.S. Drama Department hopes to raise money for sets and props to be used on the upcoming spring musicals through the sale of a new educational trivia game called "Trifles." Today there is more enthusiasm towards games than ever before. However, nothing has caught the imagination of the nation like trivia games. "Trifles" includes questions about history, geography, science, entertainment and the arts. The game also includes a special feature—local trivia. The game board will not only be customized with local sponsorship, but one category of questions will be customized for Boyne City, Michigan!

Only 32 positions for ads are available on the game board. Those positions are on sale now, project chairpersons, Bob and Jackie Wollenberg said, and they will be sold on a first come-first served basis. Please contact these chairpersons to reserve an ad on the board. Each advertiser will receive a free "Trifles-Boyne Trivia" game for their participation.

"Trifles-Boyne Trivia" will be manufactured in limited edition and will be sold starting Nov. 1. (They are trying to have the games by Christmas!)

Games will cost $15 and will be produced by Henco, Inc.; marketed strictly for the fund raising purposes of non-profit organizations.

Sample questions—Who was the first mayor of Boyne City? How many flagpoles are there on Water Street?

EJ Co-op Nursery has new logo, sign, projects

Already into its second month, the East Jordan Co-Op Nursery School is in full swing with a new school sign and logo, presented to the school and teacher Marilyn Hughes by Kelly and Alan Peterson.

The two have also contributed a white dropcloth with roads and highways of the downtown section of East Jordan, all mapped out so the children can play going downtown and shopping just like their parents.

The school also had their first annual inspection by the Michigan Child Welfare Department and passed with flying colors. "This is perhaps the best Co-Operative Nursery I have seen," commented Hobb Ingall after the morning session was dismissed. Ingall is the inspection agent for the department and covers 400-500 centers throughout the Upper Peninsula and the top five counties in the Lower Peninsula for the state.

The non-profit group, headed this year by Barb Malpass as president, Ruth Gee as vice-president, Donna Drenth as secretary and Laurie McNeil as treasurer, said they will be holding a used toy sale in the basement of the Presbyterian Church in November as well as a puppet show with crafts and music on Nov. 18.

Showing off the new logo and sign for the East Jordan Co-op Nursery School to some of the children are the sign's designers Kelly and Alan Peterson. Holding the sign is teacher Marilyn Hughes.

Winsome Women to feature Hepburn

Final plans are being made for the 14th annual Win-Some Women retreat which will be held at the beautiful Boyne Mountain Convention Center in Boyne Falls. Dates for the retreat are Friday, November 8th and Saturday, November 9th.

Daisy Hepburn, wife, mother, and author of the "Life with Spice" Bible studies, will be a featured speaker at the retreat. In the ministry of encouraging women, Daisy has become involved in speaking for retreats, work shops, conferences, and leadership seminars, in the United States and Canada.

The books, "Look! You're a Leader!" and "Why Doesn't Somebody Do Something?" written by Daisy in her own dynamic style, offer motivating and encouraging ideas to women. At the present time she is writing the book "How to Grow a Women's Minis-Tree".

Daisy and her husband David live in San Francisco, California, and are parents of two grown children. David is president of the Bridgemont Christian High School and Center, and Daisy has convened an Auxiliary for this ministry.

As founder/director of the Hope of our Heritage Conferences, Daisy brings women together with well-known Christian speakers and teachers to address current issues for living as God's women today.

Also featured as speaker and teacher of the seminar "What It Means to Love God", will be Bilquis Sheikh of Thousand Oaks, California. Her international best-seller, "I Dared To Call Him Father", tells the amazing story of her conversion from Moslem religion to Christianity. Other seminars will be developing the retreat theme, "Knowing and Loving God". Elaine Tan, M.D. from Rochester Hills will share about "Christian Parenting". Peter and Connie Vellenga of Boyne City will speak on "Restoring Broken Relationships", and Doyce Laffoon from Liberty, Missouri will teach on "Awareness of Singleness in Today's World". Ministering about "Spiritual Authority Over Satan" will be the Rev. Warren Arndt of Troy. The multi-image presentation, "His Last Days" by Son Ray will be shown at the close of the Friday evening assembly.

A special Community Banquet for men and women of all ages will be a closing highlight of the retreat. The dinner and program will be held at the Boyne Mt. Convention Center, Saturday, November 9th, at 7:00 p.m. Daisy Hepburn will be the guest speaker. Lucia Simmons of Royal Oak, former soloist with Youth for Christ and the Spurlow organization will present special music.

By decree of Congress, November is National Hospice Month and the Charlevoix County Hospice is marking the observance with a unique fundraiser entitled "Come On...Make My Day!"

This special program for women featuring health, beauty and fashion presentations will be held Saturday, November 9 from noon to 4 p.m. at the United Methodist Church, 104 State St. in Charlevoix.

Tickets for the event are $10 each. According to event chairman Joan Strawbridge, all goods and services for "Come On...Make My Day!" have been donated so 100 percent of the ticket proceeds will be turned over to the Charlevoix County Hospice.

The hospice provides support and care for Charlevoix County residents in the final phase of an incurable disease so they may live as fully and comfortably as possible.

Among the activities planned for the November 9 program are the following:

- Light lunch provided by Oleson's Food Store.
- Style show with model and fashions from the Bahnhof.
- Exercise demonstration by the Charlevoix Health and Fitness Center including pre-ski season tips.
- Demonstration haircut and hair care advice from the Head Shop.

November is a significant month for the hospice concept because it marks the second anniversary of the Medicare hospice option, making hospice a viable alternative to traditional acute care for many elderly individuals.

Since its establishment three years ago, Charlevoix County Hospice has proven to be an excellent way for area patients and their families to cope with the stress of terminal illness.

Moulton said he "wants to serve the public and with this dredging he would be able to continue to serve it." Moulton anticipates that with the growth of the boating interests on the lake, his firm should be growing along with the interest to be able to offer what the public wants.

Moulton plans on displacing 6600 cubic feet of material in a dredge area 102 feet wide out to the drop-off point. He also wants to install a 10 foot by 30 foot ramp so boats can be pulled out or put into the lake.

Of the 30 people at the hearing, most were not in favor of Moulton's expansion plans saying that the dredging would or could cause the "long shore transport to fill in the dredge trench and make it easier for sand to slide down the trench into the bottom of the lake."

Others said the dredging would cause harm to their riparian rights while still others told the hearing officers that with the proposed dock, there would not be enough room for boats to maneuver into the slips without endangering other property owners' riparian rights.

A few told the hearing the proposed work was fine with them, as they appreciated any expansion of business in the area.

Some of the questions concerning the dredge and the proposed dock were raised by Eveline Township Supervisor Dave Wilson who wondered why the permit would be granted because of the fish breeding grounds off the front of the proposed work. Wilson also asked Moulton why the expansion on property that was recently rezoned only for boat storage.

Mrs. Lee Moore told the hearing officer that the proposed work was "a nice dream but had too many technicalities to be done without harm. So far, it's a very ambiguous plan."

While the hearing was only one stage of the permitting process, the final determination will be made sometime in the future according to the hearing officer Ron Brown of the Department of Natural Resources.

EJ manufacturer changes name

Gulf and Western Stamping Division recently underwent a name change to Mechanical Components Division, Wickes Manufacturing Company after the Wickes Company purchased the Consumer and Industrial Products Group of Gulf and Western.

"The new name also identifies our division more accurately with the type of products we produce."

Boyer Ramblers drop eighth game 44-12 with McGeorge having big night

BY JERRY FROATS

It was a long way to go, and a hard one to take, the Boyne City varsity football team suffered their eighth loss in a row Friday night to the Rogers City Hurons 44-12.

The Ramblers had their bright spots in the game, but were plagued with sudden surprises that led to Huron scores. Boyne saw one of the best performances of the season from Dan McGeorge who easily rushed for over 100 yards, scored both Rambler TD's, and was super on defense. McGeorge was injured early in the game, but continued to play as he racked up yardage and stretched short gains to first downs.

The Ramblers ran just eight plays in the entire first quarter. After receiving the opening kick-off, Boyne went to the air with their double pass play, but the reception was fumbled on the tackle and the Hurons recovered at the B.C. 43. The Hurons moved down the field and scored from the Rambler 24 for an early lead.

Boyer's second possession was lost on the first play by way of an interception at their own 42. Rogers City moved down the field to score from the Rambler six for a 14-0 lead with 6:04 in the period.

McGeorge rushed for 11 yards in two plays for a first down, but a quarterback sack on third and long set up a Rambler punt.

The punt was returned 40 yards to the Rambler 11 and two plays later Rogers City led 21-0.

One of the biggest plays of the Rambler season came on the following kick-off, when McGeorge took the ball from near the 10 yard line to a wall of Rambler blockers. From there McGeorge turned on the power and raced to the endzone for a TD. The conversion attempt failed and with 2:03 in the quarter the score stood at 21-6.

The Hurons weren't satisfied with a 21-6 lead and connected on two pass plays that went to the Rambler 15. Boyne held Rogers City within the 10 yard line for nearly two minutes, but on repeated attempts the Hurons scored from the B.C. one foot mark for a 27-6 advantage.

In the remaining 10 minutes of play both teams fought it out on the defensive sides. Boyne ground out a first and 10 with Weeks and McGeorge running the ball, but an incomplete pass and a sack forced the Ramblers into punt formation. The punt carried well and took a B.C. bounce to the Hurons 35. From there, Boyne's defense held fairly well, the exception being a 50 yard pass play to the Rambler 14. The Hurons gave up a TD on a penalty and wound up turning the ball over on downs at the Rambler 16.

Three plays later the Hurons had the ball and were into the Rambler endzone for a 34-6 score. Boyne lost the return kick-off to the greedy hands of the Huron defense and Rogers City ran out the clock.

After the halftime intermission the Ramblers took the field with a subdued look, but when the action commenced, looked as if they were there for business. Boyne attempted to get the ball on a squib kick, but the Hurons covered the ball at their own 40. Weeks stopped a pitch-out play for no gain, the Hurons fumbled for no gain, and Steve Sutton and Tom Lasater teamed up for a tackle that allowed one yard. Rogers City elected to punt the ball on fourth and nine to go.

The Ramblers earned a first and 10 with two carries from McGeorge that went for eight yards and Weeks converted with a three yard carry. Boyne was hit for a short loss, but a pass from Weeks to Tom Lasater went for 18 yards to the R.C. 47 to sustain the drive.

The following first and 10 was earned by McGeorge who gained five yards on a pitch, two yards up the middle and six yards off-tackle. McGeorge took two more plays to the R.C. 26 and Keoki Kuheana carried to the 20. Jeff Fineout followed up with two yards on first down and Weeks rolled out around the right end for five yards to the R.C. 13. McGeorge's early injury had prompted the referee to sideline him for a play, but upon re-entry to the game, carried for another first down to the R.C. seven yard line.

After two attempts from McGeorge and one from Weeks, McGeorge scored for the second time in the game. The Rambler conversion attempt was halted and the score stood at 34-12.

The Ramblers had used nearly the entire third period in their scoring drive and kicked the ball to the Hurons with :55 left.

Shortly into period four the Hurons could only advance to the Rambler 14 and kicked a field goal for a 37-12 lead. The final Huron TD came with 6:58 on the clock and had been repeated twice already on a goal-line-stand.

Boyer came up with excellent field position on the kick-off when Brandon Billings carried from the 10 to the 45, but a flag was thrown on the play, setting the Ramblers back on their own 25. After coming up short on fourth and five, the ball was turned over on downs.

The remainder of the game was hard fought with the Ramblers attempting to steal the ball on each Huron carry. They succeeded once, but the ball was given back to Rogers City on a supposed dead play and the Hurons ran out the clock.

This Friday night the Ramblers will host the Petoskey Northmen in the traditional last game of the season. Each year the meetings of the two teams is quite a battle even though Boyne has always been rated to take a big fall. Close scores have not been the issue in these games, rather a test of wills and determination to perform well.

On the biggest play of the evening Dan McGeorge returned this kick-off 90 yards for a touchdown.

Boyne seventh grade girls still winning, BC eighth grade drops close one 28-29

In varsity girls action these East Jordan Red Devils, Brenda Drenth [42], and Kristy Miller [20], struggle for a rebound against the Harbor Springs Rams.

BY JERRY FROATS
At Boyne City Middle School, the Rambler girls' basketball teams took on the Petoskey Northmen Monday night. The seventh grade game was won by the Ramblers 39-15, and Petoskey took the eighth grade game 29-28.

In the early game the Rambler seventh graders held Petoskey scoreless through the entire first period while scoring heavily on the Rambler trap press. The 14-0 lead was built by Kristin Harvey, Crissy Gervassi, Dawn Archambault, and Kim Stadt. Boyne's first four buckets were scored on the press and later in the period three offensive rebounds were put through the hoop by Archambault and Brooke Coveyou. Earlier in the quarter Coveyou had a nice assist to Harvey on a fast break.

In the second period Boyne put a second team on the court and came up with one point, a free throw by April Silbar. The Northmen scored 8 points after the Ramblers began to get sloppy with high arching passes that were picked off by Petoskey for six of their second period points.

The third quarter was more exciting as coach Greg Hardy inserted the remainder of his reserves into the action. Petoskey closed the gap to a 13-19 score when Boyne threw the press on again to take a 31-13 lead into the final quarter.

The Ramblers played man-to-man defense through the entire fourth period, while Petoskey was overwhelmed and threw the ball away frequently.

Hardy was pleased with the fact that Archambault chalked up courtless assists in the game. She is a regular contender for high scorer, but came up with four points Monday. Harvey was the Ramblers' spark plug as she canned 16 points, most of which resulted from the Rambler fast break. Gervassi scored six points, Stadt totaled six points also. Coveyou finished with four points, and Silbar had three.

Eighth grade action was touch and go for the game's entirety. The Ramblers mounted a 9-6 first period lead with Marti Bragg netting six points, four of them on offensive rebounds. Karin Wolff hit for the other three points, her first hoop breaking a 2-2 tie on a fast break.

Petoskey took advantage of poor ball handling to take a 16-11 lead at the half. The Northmen were well trained in boxing out for the rebound on offense, and that fact was their biggest asset in the game.

The Ramblers opened the second half by getting more rebounds on offense, but the return shots failed to fall through until two minutes remained in the period. Trailing 13-20 in the fourth quarter the Ramblers saw Trina Zimmer score on an offensive rebound and Andrea Behling took the example to heart as she pulled Boyne within four points 19-22. An assist from Tammy Grunch to Trish Fanning pulled the game to a one point margin 21-22, and another from Toni Toton to Bragg made the score 23-24.

With time running short in the game Boyne committed untimely fouls that led to Petoskey points for a 26-23 Northmen advantage. Boyne pulled within one point after Fanning hit two at the charity stripe, but earlier Rambler fouls put the Northmen into the bonus which they used as the game clincher.

High scorer for the Ramblers was Bragg with 10 points, Fanning totaled seven points, Behling had six, Wolff was good for three, and Zimmer had two points.

Char. JVs cut down Grayling 30-14

Charlevoix's defense helped to bring them a 30-14 victory over the Grayling Vikings during last Thursday evening's junior varsity football game. The young Rayders' record now stands at 5-3, and their final game will be Oct. 31 at St. Ignace, at 6:30 p.m.

The first half got off to a 22-8 lead for Charlevoix with Derek Dutcher and Marvin Witt-hoef as the Rayders' main ball carriers. Dan Drury intercepted a pass by Grayling and rushed into the end-zone for a TD.

The Rayders' conversion was complete, giving them an 8 to 0 lead over the Vikings during the first quarter.

After being knocked out of bounds by the Rayders, the Vikings' offense came back and scored, making it a tied game of 8-8. Witt-hoef was able to score two touchdowns, thanks to offensive power, and brought the score up to 22-8.

The second half proved to be a fierce battle between the Rayders and the Vikings. Drury scored another TD for Charlevoix, raising the score to 30-8. A series of penalties hurt Grayling, as they were capitalized on by Charlevoix. Freshman Matt Cunningham stopped a member of the Viking offense while Drury's punt had been grounded.

The Rayders had their own share of penalties, but they didn't set them back hard enough to damage their efforts. Dave Miller, also a freshman, helped to bring down Grayling's offense, but thanks to a Rayder fumble, Grayling recovered the ball and rushed for a TD, making the score 30 to 14. Sophomore Jeff Arnold fielded the Viking kick-off.

The rest of the fourth quarter was a series of fumbles and timeouts made by the Rayders and the Vikings. It ended with the Vikings throwing an incomplete pass, and Charlevoix winning it 30-14.

Chad Thorp and Roger Smith were the Rayders' offensive leaders while on defense. Coach Brian Certa pointed out Witt-hoef, Miller and Knight.

Northern ski operators banking on big business rise to continue in upcoming season

Michigan's public ski facility operators are banking on good weather and improvements to help continue a two-year upward trend in business, according to AAA Michigan.

Lift tickets sold last season at 26 facilities surveyed by the Michigan Travel Bureau were nearly 9 percent above the 1983-84 season and rose 37 percent over the 1982-83 season, which was plagued with below average snowfall and warm temperatures. If that trend continues, ski revenues could match or exceed the record $145 million collected during the 1978-79 season.

AAA Michigan's 1985-86 guide to downhill ski areas lists 51 facilities, four less than last year. Closed this year are Timberlee Mt. near Traverse City, Black Forest near Port Huron, Mt. Grampian in Oxford and Big Valley at Newberry.

Lift ticket fees for weekend skiing range from $3.00 to $22.00 and average $12.66 per day at the 43 facilities reporting prices in AAA Michigan's pre-season survey. The price range was $2.00 to $20.00 last season.

One-third of Michigan's downhill public ski facility operators reported improvements for the upcoming year in an AAA

Michigan pre-season survey. Though the $6.6 million in projects includes major renovation and expansion of ski facilities, some of the projects are aimed at luring visitors throughout the year.

A $300,000 project at Swiss Valley in Jones includes a cocktail lounge and new rental skis. In Buchanan at Ski World, formerly Royal Valley, operators are investing $225,000 to add a barbecue pit, carpet the lodge, expand a cocktail lounge and cafeteria and add rental skis.

Pine Knob has redesigned a slope, added snow cannons and will open a year-round restaurant at the Clarkston facility. Milford's Alpine Valley has improved snowmaking capacity, expanded the lodge and added rental skis. Highland Recreation Area at Highland has added lighting for night skiing and has cut new trails.

Rayder girls defeat Northmen twice

The Rayders' strong defensive line kept both the varsity and jayvee Charlevoix Rayders doubly triumphant over the Petoskey Northmen girls last Tuesday evening, giving the Rayders an 8-3 record.

Combining for 23 of Charlevoix's 47 points were Michelle Gagnon, guard, and Cindy Boss, forward.

For the Rayders, Gagnon had 12 points and Boss had 11 while Amy Pischner, center, and Ellen Pearl, forward, gave them as many as 4 free throws.

For Petoskey, Sherry Maxwell had more than 14 points which kept the Northmen in close range with Charlevoix.

The first quarter ended with a score of 11-4, Charlevoix's favor, but the Rayders' defense prevented Petoskey from scoring freely in the second period.

Fouls had set the Rayders back some but not enough to ruin the offensive efforts. They came back with Pischner and Pearl each scoring 2 points a piece. Charlevoix and Petoskey had a furious battle for the ball until the clock ran out, leaving the Rayders with a 47-40 victory.

Charlevoix took the J.V. game against Petoskey 36-24. Stacy Gebott, forward for the Rayders, had 8 points.

Nearly half of the other improvements are being made in West Michigan. They include another of the state's most expensive projects, costing $1.2 million, underway at Boyne Mt. in Boyne Falls. Owners are renovating public rooms and have added a golf course, which will be used for cross-country skiing.

At Cedar, Sugar Loaf's $1.1 million project includes remodeling lodge rooms and building condominiums. Thompsonville's Crystal Mt. will open deluxe condominium Hilton Shanty Creek at Bellaire is constructing a $100,000 health club. Caberfae at Cadillac has a partially recontoured race hill and a new 3/4 mile run served by an express triple chair lift. In Lake City, Missaukee Mt.'s ice skating rink is being refurbished.

In Southeast Michigan, $500,000 is being invested at Mt. Holly for a triple chair lift, improved snowmaking equipment and enlarged rest rooms. Riverview Highlands has invested $45,000 to improve snowmaking equipment, to add a rental shop and for new equipment and expanding the ticket sale area.

Mt. Brighton has installed a 1,500-foot triple-chair lift to serve a recarved back bowl, Brenda Drenth [42] of the East Jordan Red Devils varsity girls' basketball team sank this shot from near the top of the key. The Harbor Springs Rams were unable to stop her from scoring these two of her five game points. Drenth led her team in rebounding against the Rams with 12. Harbor won the game 62-35 as they maintained at least a ten point lead through the first half. Harbor built their early lead with a full court press.

BC girls try new game approach on Grayling and Rogers City

Boyne City's varsity girls' basketball team came up short twice in games against Grayling 54-45, and Rogers City 51-37.

Coach Jack Caverly was elated though, noting that his girls are beginning to get more shots off. Against Rogers City the Ramblers put up 81 shots from the floor, but the majority of them were off the mark as Boyne hit 12 of them in the first half, and eight in the second half. Now 20 of 81 is not a good percentage, but this new style of offense is not something you learn to do in one season, it takes many seasons of practice to hit that many shots.

The Rambler strategy against the Hurons keyed on holding the conference high scorer to 12 points, but their efforts were nullified when a Huron guard took up the slack to score 23 points.

The Ramblers were also plagued with foul trouble that led to trouble late in the game. Boyne's starting forwards both had three personals before half time.

The Ramblers did get balanced scoring against the Hurons with Jill Harris scoring 11 points, Kerry Harvey went to double figures with 10 points, and Julie Montgomery had 9 points. Harris pulled down 12 rebounds while Montgomery had 14 from the boards.

Other Rambler scorers include Colleen Toton with three points, while Sue Bieganowski and Karen DeSchryver added two points each.

In action against Grayling, the Ramblers shooting percentage rose a little as they sank 15 of 62 shots from the floor, and were 15 of 23 at the charity stripe.

Montgomery broke a long cold streak in the game, scoring 24 points. Harris was good for nine points, Harvey scored 4 points in the third period, while Sue Bieganowski, Linda Bieganowski, Lisa Caverly, and Michelle Vroman all had two points each.

Turnovers help Rogers City take Boyne jayvees 36-14

BY JERRY FROATS

The Boyne City jayvee football team played host to the Rogers City Hurons Thursday evening, dropping their record to 0-7-1 with a 36-14 defeat. The game was never out of reach for the Ramblers until late in the fourth period when things got away from Boyne. Four of the Hurons' touchdowns were virtually gifts as they were directly related to Rambler turnovers.

Rogers City's first TD came after Boyne had thrown up a goal-line stand at their own yard line to repel a scoring threat. The Ramblers took over possession of the ball and promptly fumbled in the endzone. The Hurons fell on the ball to lead 6-0.

The Ramblers held the Hurons to short yardage and began a drive down the field to tie the game. Troy Hierman evened the score at 6-6 on a 15 yard run to paydirt. The conversion pass was completed from Rich Tarpy to Phill Hayes for an 8-6 Rambler lead.

The score remained the same until late in the second period when the Hurons took advantage of a Rambler turnover to lead 14-8.

The Rambler defense held for the entire third quarter, but their offense was unable to score either. Rogers City scored twice more on Rambler turnovers, a fumble and an intercepttion, before Boyne connected from Tarpy to Greg Talberg for a 25 yard TD pass.

Coach Dave Bricker said the game was "sloppily played on both sides," adding that some of the young Ramblers played very well.

20,000 deer will be killed ...by cars

More than 20,000 deer will be killed this year in Michigan—not by arrows and guns but by collisions on roads and highways, warns the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT).

People will die, too. Last year, five persons were killed and 1,299 were injured in deer-traffic accidents. The highway deer kill totaled 25,276. The toll has risen. Two persons died in 1983, 1,141 were injured and 20,459 deer were killed.

The number of highway deer accidents rose from 21,509 to 26,420, a record high.

Records also show the cost of these accidents totaled more than $43 million dollars, including more than $30 million in property damage.

Most deer-traffic accidents occur in October and November, the deer mating season.

MDOT safety officials urge motorists to stay alert, to watch for deer especially during the first few hours before sunrise and after sunset, and particularly after passing a "Deer Crossing" sign. They advise drivers to slow down, use high-beam lights when possible, watch for "shiny eyes" and be prepared to stop. Since deer often move in numbers, motorists should watch for the "trailers."

Drivers also are reminded to use seat belts, as the law requires.

If a deer is hit, the motorist should notify the state police or sheriff.

Red Devils fall to no. 2 in Ski Valley Conference

BY STEVE GEE

The East Jordan Red Devils (5-3) fell to second place in the Ski Valley Conference by dropping to the first place Gaylord St. Mary's Snowbirds by a score of 34-18. East Jordan and Gaylord were tied for the number one slot coming into the game.

As was the case early in the year, the Devils were plagued with turnovers. Last week, against Mancelona, the Devils didn't turn the ball over once; but this week they lost the ball five times (three fumbles and two interceptions). The Devils were lucky to get away with only five turnovers, for they fumbled the ball seven times, but only lost it three times.

Gaylord St. Mary's scored first after recovering an East Jordan fumble at the EJ 26 yard line. The Snowbirds connected on an 18 yard touchdown pass to take an early 6-0 lead.

East Jordan came right back and scored on an eight yard run by Ted Snowden. Fine rushes from Snowden and Darren Graham set up the score.

The Snowbirds then marched 81 yards and scored with 43 seconds left in the first quarter on a four yard run. The extra point pass was completed and the Snowbirds led 14-6 at the end of the first stanza.

East Jordan was driving late in the second quarter, but their second turnover led to another St. Mary's touchdown. The Snowbirds scored on a 53 yard pass play. The two point conversion was successful and the Devils trailed 22-6 at halftime.

The Snowbirds scored the only touchdown of the third quarter after picking off a Greg Kitson pass. Gaylord gave East Jordan's secondary another test, which the Devils failed, when they scored on a 55 yard pass.

Gaylord's last touchdown came in the fourth quarter after East Jordan's third fumble. The Snowbirds scored on a six yard run. With 10:41 remaining in the game, the Devils trailed 34-6.

East Jordan then traveled 60 yards on five plays for their second touchdown of the game. A 20 yard pass from Kitson to Mike Goebel and a 27 yard run from Darren Graham set up a one yard plunge by Graham.

The Devils then forced the Snowbirds to punt and took over at the Gaylord St. Mary 45 yard line. With 5:39 remaining, Kitson hit Goebel for a 45 yard touchdown pass. Goebel made a great move at the 10 yard line to make it in to the endzone.

The Devils made a nice comeback try, but fell short 34-18.

In the rushing department, the Devils managed only 144 yards (the lowest total since the third game of the year). Graham led the attack with 89 yards on 13 carries. Snowden handled the ball nine times for 49 yards while Dave Russell gained 22 yards and Gerald Clark collected six. East Jordan quarterbacks were sacked five times for a loss of 22 yards.

Junior quarterback, Greg Kitson, replaced Bill Lytle after Lytle was knocked around by the Snowbirds. Kitson completed five of nine passes for 118 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. While Lytle was in there, he completed his only pass attempt for 12 yards.

Mike Goebel pulled down five receptions for 121 yards. Goebel has 24 receptions for 418 yards on the season. Ted Snowden had the other reception for nine yards.

Defensively for the Devils, Terry Burt led the way with 12 tackles. Dave Russell totaled nine while Dale Schroeder, Darren Graham, and Shannon Olstrom had seven, Jeff Gee collected five, Steve Smith had four, and Mike Goebel and Bill Lytle each had three. Also receiving tackles for the Devils were Bill Kraemer, Darrin Bishop, Jim Raymond, Greg Kitson, Kim McKinnon, Dan Swanson, and Carl Knop with two each and Aaron Spence and Jim Testa with one. The Devils had four sacks for 41 yards with Graham getting two and Goebel and Raymond each receiving one. Greg Kitson and Shannon Olstrom each had an interception for the Red Devils.

The Devils will travel to Central Lake for their last game of the year on Friday.

Dave Russell receives a good block on this Red Devil play and looks to gain some yardage through a gap in the Snowbirds defensive line.
