Mrs. Hugh Juday was elected to the advisory board of the Leader Dogs for the Blind in Rochester, Michigan at the annual meeting of the school. The advisory board is composed of men and women who have proven by doing, in her case, the outstanding work in preparing dogs for the school that the family has done over the years. She will be replacing her husband on the board.

Boyne City Nursery School announced they are participating in the Child Care Food Program. The program is designed to provide meals to children in child care centers. The meals are available to those children 12 years old and under who are enrolled in the school and meet certain criteria.

A program on teen drug use and parenting will be presented this Thursday, Sept. 17 at 7 p.m. in the Boyne City Hall by BAC-PAC. There is no charge for the informative meeting which will have several members of the community as well as county law representatives on a panel to help share common goals and concerns about drugs and area youth.

A drive has started that supports a position that would allow the taxation of mobile homes in mobile home parks. Currently, mobile homes are charged $3 per month fee in lieu of property taxes. The $3 fee has been in effect since 1959 and should be eliminated due to the changes within the mobile home industry. Those changes include the fact that most homes are not "mobile" and their values are increasing steadily. Proponents also argue that conventional housing pays on taxes based on both the land and the value of the home.

Boyne board finally okays steel HS roof

The several month debate by the Boyne City School board concerning a new roof for Boyne City High School is over after the board finally decided to go with a standing seam steel roof that will look almost like the first sketch from their architect.

The debate centered on whether to go with a steel roof that would be angled over the classrooms and around part of the gymnasium, or to go with a single membrane roofing system.

The roof committee decided in a meeting held earlier Monday, that because of the variables of a membrane roof, they would recommend to the full board, going with the steel roofing system that would cover most of the school.

They said the steel roof would bring the entire roof up to present day codes as far as snow loads are concerned, and would be able to provide some long term energy savings.

As board member Gary Winter explained to the rest of the board, going to a single membrane system would involve too many variables that the contractor would not have control over.

One of the variables is the amount of damaged gypsum based panels that water may have damaged and would have to be replaced. Other variables were the amount of welding and other upgrading of the steel beams the school would need to have a 40 pound per square foot snowload capacity.

Winter said parts of the roof presently only have a load capacity of 26 pounds. "Because of the obvious difference in the code, and what we have, I don't want to put my name on resurfacing a roof that only meets 25 percent of the present code," he added.

Board member Bill Christensen, meanwhile, wondered if the roof could be repaired without having the extra expense of the steel roofing. "It seems a shame," he continued, to spend twice the money...I don't know if it is necessary.

The school passed a bond issue last spring to pay for the new roof, but the first try on getting bids to build the project failed when no bids were received. The board has struggled with finding a solution to the problem and ordered the architectural firm, MJK, to do some structural analysis to determine what may be the best course to follow.

In the analysis, it was found several areas were far below snow load requirements. They also determined that strengthening the structure may not be cost effective, due to the unknown condition of the present roof.

Board members heard enough and agreed to go with the steel roofing system over all of the school except the media center, gym, lockerroom addition and the shop areas. Those will have a single membrane roofing system that may have a double layer in areas where snow buildup may occur.

With the approval, work will now get started on getting detailed drawings of the work needed. Bids are expected to be obtained after the first of the year and work is expected to start next summer.

The board then went on to other business and rejected all bids that would have allowed the borrowing of money until tax monies come into the system. They only received one bid on the tax anticipation note from an area bank, but there was a problem with that bid in that the numbers did not add up. Board President Richard May asked the board to reject the bids and hold a special meeting later this week to ask for new bids.

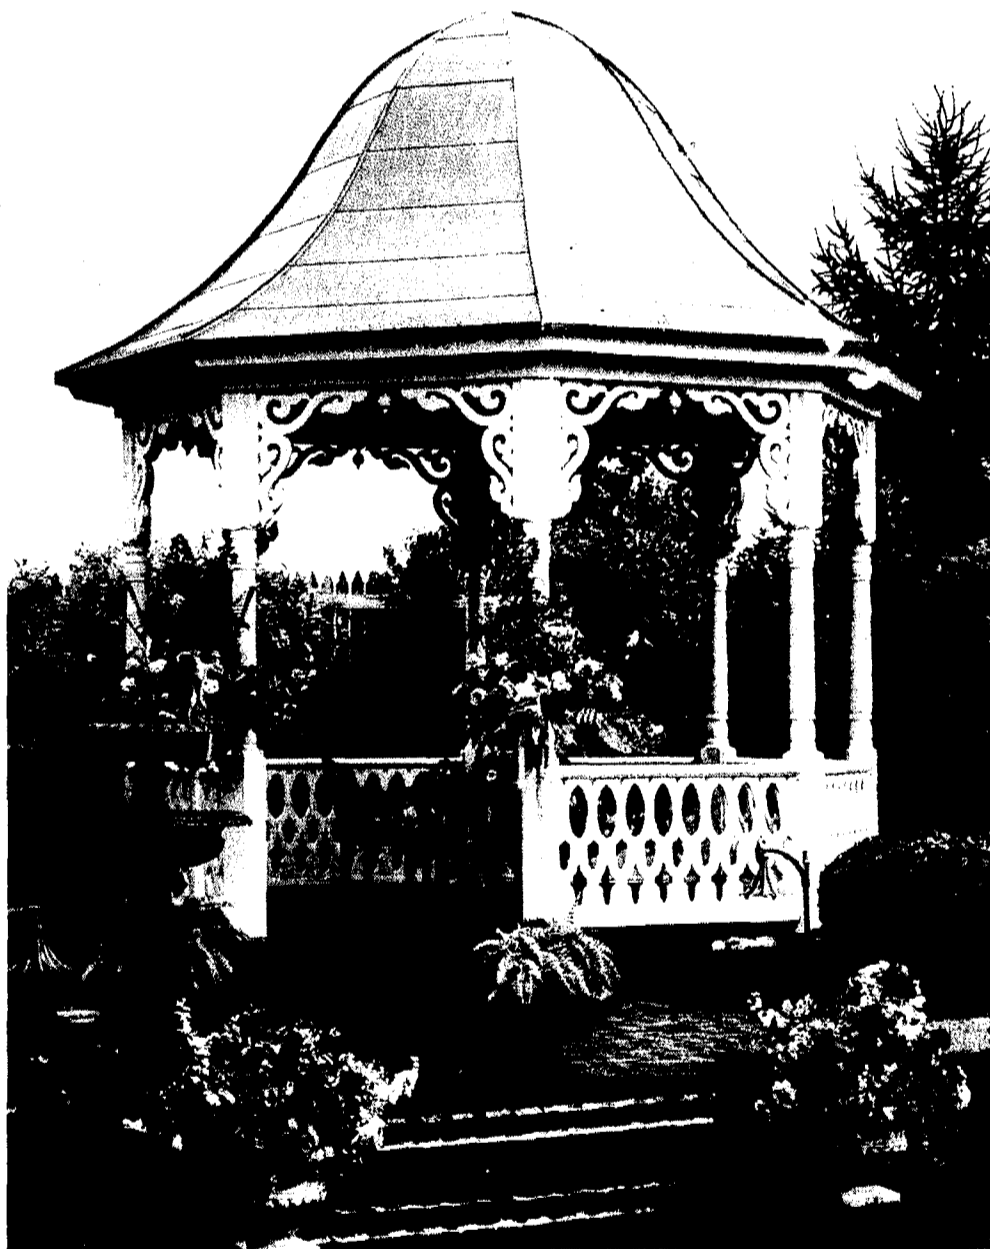

In other action, the board accepted resignations and retirement from a teacher and an aide. That made for several changes in assignments within the aide group, and those were approved.

They also approved the naming of Fred Rice as the tennis coach, and several coaches for the Middle School programs.

Also approved with a few changes were faculty and student handbooks for the Middle School. The High School handbooks will be approved after Principal Warren Wade gets approval for some changes the board wanted in those handbooks.

They heard an updated enrollment figure which showed the school system is growing. As of Monday, the system has 537 students in the Elementary School, 324 in the Middle School and 349 in the High School.

The board then approved having a special meeting this coming Thursday where they will consider the tax loans, and will also be going into a closed session to work on negotiation details concerning the teaching and support personnel.

Boyne City's gazebo will look similar to this picture when it is finished being constructed in Old City Park next year. City Commissioners approved of the construction at Tuesday's noon meeting. The gazebo, a gift in the memory of Nellie Flodquist by her husband Gordon to the city, is expected to start under construction in the spring. Members of the Garden Club will be overseeing the construction along with the city and will provide the finishing touches of flowers and plantings.

Gazebo for park announced

Boyne City will have a gazebo in Old City Park after City Commissioners graciously accepted a gift of a gazebo from Gordon Flodquist who is donating the cost of the gazebo in honor of his wife.

His wife, Nellie, a long time member of the Garden Club, felt strongly that this was a project that was needed within the city and was hopeful that the city could develop one. She passed away in August.

The gazebo would be similar to the picture shown above and would have a cement block foundation. It would stand about 27 inches above the ground in a location within the park near where the former gazebo was placed.

The Victorian structure will be 16 feet in diameter and will have a copper roof as well as the typical Victorian style of gingerbread.

Saying the city was more than happy to accept the gift, members of the commission overwhelmingly approved the placement of the gazebo within the park.

The city will be donating new topsoil and other materials to go along with the bequest. Members of the Boyne Valley Garden Club will be taking on the job of seeing the project through to completion and providing the flowers and plantings.

The Garden Club is also hoping to find other donations to help rebuild some of the sidewalks that will lead to the gazebo and has been talking with area service clubs and groups.

They noted that the city will have to remove some unhealthy trees and provide water and lighting to the proposed site.

The city agreed to accept the gazebo but withheld the amount of money it could spend on the gift until details could be worked

Charlevoix Hospital given $25,000

A partnership aimed at making travel safer for all residents and visitors in Northwest Lower Michigan was strengthened today (Sept. 14) when the Charlevoix Area Hospital was presented with a $25,000 grant for emergency room medical equipment by AAA Michigan.

The 44-bed non-profit community hospital, located on Lakeshore Drive, will use the funds for an automated blood gas analyzer. The machine measures how well the lungs are performing by analyzing the blood chemistry. It is the size of a small desk photocopier and had been a hospital priority replacement item.

The hospital's emergency room—the only one in Charlevoix County—treats many patients injured during the summer in highway accidents as well as other residents and vacationers requiring medical help year-round. Last year, the 24-hour round-the-clock facility treated more than 6,200 patients.

"By helping the Charlevoix Area Hospital continue its high quality emergency care, we are benefiting the many persons who live in and visit this growing resort area and who one day may require medical help," stated Thomas A. Duke, AAA Michigan Board of Director member, in presenting the check to hospital officials.

"We believe tourism is a key growth industry in Michigan's future and this gift will help keep our roads safer by assisting with top-quality medical equipment," Duke added. "As a con-

The Positive Side

"Be humble enough to accept help."

Jottings

BY JIM SILBAR

Wanted: One Puffball mushroom. Will give lots of thanks for a fresh one brought into the office. The bigger, the better as it would make for a picture of some of the other types of mushrooms that grow around this area.

Besides, maybe I can get a piece of it for eating myself.

On to other matters of some concern.

It seems that a northern Michigan democrat is "mystified by the silence from the environmentalist lobby over the loss of millions of acres of timber in the recent disastrous forest fires on the west coast."

The democrat, Joseph Mack, the state senator from Ironwood, said he was saddened by the amount of loss of the timber and the wildlife that could have been avoided by proper land management.

He said the land that burned was in federally legislated wildlife areas and that the firefighters could not get at the source of the fires because of limited access of roads and other means.

He said that problem and the policies that environmentalists advocate are resulting in the destruction of natural resources. "Any idiot that knows good management provides both ingress and egress and firelanes that can be used to combat a serious forest fire," he added in a press release sent out to newspapers.

We have a tendency to agree with him. The environmentalists want to set up areas that would be free from land management. That means that if a fire starts, it would be allowed to burn.

"What nature started, nature can finish," they say.

Well, we saw what happens when that policy is allowed. We spent tons of money to fight the fire in the Seney Forest Preserve several years ago, when a fire was allowed to burn until it overran the wilderness area and started out in the "real world."

The blaze could have been put out with a few gallons of water if the land were not in the preserve system. But since it was, it was allowed to burn. It was also allowed to burn thousands of acres of irreplaceable peat moss, thousands of acres of forest, and possibly did more damage to the wildlife and the forest than if one hundred "wetland rappers" were allowed to run amok in the swamps.

Mack said that if roads were in place out west, then the loss would be less. He likened the way the U.S. Forest Service has managed the U.P. forests, with the enlightened firelanes and roads providing the necessary protection to those fires.

He also called the environmentalists for allowing the insanity and said he was glad much of the forest in the U.P. that is federally controlled has those safeguards of roads and firelanes.

We also have those safeguards in this area. Those who have taken some of the two-tracks out to a favored mushroom hunting ground in the spring, have used what could be called an access-road for fire protection vehicles.

One of the last things we need, is a major forest fire that would destroy much of the wildlife and other forest products we have growing in the woods.

Appreciates fast fire action

Editor: Please print the following letter of appreciation.

Dear Mr. Schroeder: My wife, mother, and I want to extend our appreciation to you, your fire fighters and their wives for the wonderful job you did with our fire on June 29th.

I still can't imagine how your response time can be so fast. I don't think it was more than five or six minutes from my phone call until you were on the scene. We were all very impressed with the efficiency and the professional way that everyone went about their task. There was no confusion, all the equipment worked and you were well equipped. You did a great job of containing the fire, using care not to destroy anything that wasn't necessary, and even coming back frequently through

Marshall Sayles

All my life I have heard that you can't get something for nothing.

With today's high grocery bills, and with ever rising inflation and the sticker price on automobiles, the saying now is: "You can't get nothing for something."

He: Have you ever noticed that cemetery on Boyne Avenue across from the high school?

Me: Of course. My folks are there and a good many of my old time friends.

He: What's its name?

Me: Why, It's Maple Lawn. Everyone knows that.

He: How do you know it's Maple Lawn?

Me: Because everyone calls it that.

He: Where's the sign that says it is Maple Lawn?

Me: You are right. Maple Lawn has no sign at the entrance; never has had as far as I know; and I know a lot of far things.

He: Every other town in northern Michigan has a well established name at the entrance of their cemeteries. What do you think is wrong with Boyne City?

Me: If I knew that I'd be the smartest man in town.

He: No you wouldn't. You live in Wilson Township.

Me: Oh, I forgot. I guess there isn't a smartest man in Boyne City.

He: You don't have to be too smart to put up a nice sign at the entrance of a cemetery.

Me: Well, not really. But you do have to be smart enough to know that there isn't one there before you can think about putting one up.

He: Oh, oh. You have just spoke stuff that may curl the hair of a number of Boyne City's intelligent heads. Aren't you afraid that the city will come a running to wring your neck?

Me: I would rather have a wrung neck than no sign at Maple Lawn Cemetery.

He: You, my friend, have just spoken the first lie ever to come out of Wilson Township. I'll bet when your bucket is kicked you will go down in history and be buried in that cemetery up there across from the high school.

During the above conversation I had it in mind to stay out here thumping my pumpkins and trading in Advance until a blast of wind blew the frightening part of the talk up the river toward Boyne Falls.

Cooking

BY GAIL WARE

Ware-withal

John Milton (1608-1674) once wrote, "God sends meat but cooks work their will." I am sure that Mr. Milton loved his English roast beef and was probably critical of how it was cooked. He was blind and no doubt his taste buds were active. I've often pondered about his poem "On His Blindness" when he says, "Doth God exact day labor light denied?" He felt that "They also serve who only stand and wait." Bearing God's mild yoke.

I am sure that John Milton would like his roast beef cooked this way. A special method to cook that roast from the freezer. Our fast food restaurants and freezers have made beef America's favorite meat. I wonder sometimes if some American classics are slipping; like roast beef for Sunday dinner.

ROAST BEEF

FROM THE FREEZER

Buy the size of roast you want when beef is on sale and freeze it this way. Remove plastic wrap and place roast in center of large sheet of heavy duty foil. Bring foil up over meat and double fold, pressing down tightly to remove air. This keeps the air out, moisture in. After you fold ends tight freeze until ready to roast; do not thaw.

1-Remove foil wrapped meat from freezer and place in a foil lined roasting pan. Preheat oven to 400°; loosen foil along top and ends of meat to allow heat to circulate.

2-For a 4 lb. roast allow 45 minutes per lb. for rare; 52 minutes for medium and 60 minutes for well done.

3-During final 1/2 hour turn foil back from meat completely to brown. Meat comes out beautifully brown, actually tastier than if you had thawed it.

Beef short ribs have long been a family favorite. I especially like this next recipe because of the way it eliminates the fat.

BEEF SHORT RIBS

4 lbs. beef short ribs, cut into 2-inch lengths; season with salt and pepper

1 tsp. dry mustard
1 tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
1/2 cup ketchup
1/2 cup water
1/4 cup cider vinegar
1 med. onion, chopped medium fine

1 to 1 1/2 tbsp. dark brown sugar
Sprinkle ribs with salt and pepper, arrange on a rack in a foil lined roasting pan, (12x9x1 inches). Roast uncovered in a preheated 425° oven until browned, about 30 minutes; reduce oven temperature to 350°, discard fat in roasting pan; return ribs to pan without rack. In a medium bowl stir together mustard, Worcestershire sauce, ketchup, water, vinegar, onion and sugar; pour over ribs; cover tightly with foil and bake in 350° oven until tender, turning once midway, about 2 hours. Remove ribs and keep warm in a low oven; pour sauce into a small bowl and skim off fat; reheat and pour over ribs.

A new friend, Marguerite Bird, entertains frequently in her beautiful home on Hilton Head Island. Her children and grandchildren live nearby and she cooks meals like the following for family and friends. She has doubled this recipe to serve 25 people.

BEEF BURGUNDY

1/2 cup shortening
4 lbs. cubed beef
4 tbsps. flour
2 tps. each salt and pepper
3/4 tsp. thyme
1 can beef broth
2 cups Burgundy wine

1-8 oz. can sliced mushrooms
2 cans pearl onions
4 carrots
In heavy pot, brown meat in shortening; stir in flour, seasonings, broth, wine and carrots; cover tightly and simmer 2 hours on low heat; add mushrooms and onions; cook 30 minutes more. Serve with rice or noodles.

Here is another recipe from Marguerite. A tasty colorful dessert to serve with the beef burgundy dinner.

MARGUERITE'S CRANBERRY DESSERT

1 pkg. cranberries, you might need to use the frozen kind
4 large apples sliced, not peeled
1/2 cup sugar
Put in casserole.

Topping:

Mix 1 stick butter or margarine with 1/2 cup brown sugar, 1/3 cup flour, 1 1/3 cups oatmeal, 1/2 cup chopped pecans; put on top of fruit; cover and bake 1 hr. at 350°.

These recipes are time-consuming to prepare and are worth it; however, if you are in a hurry make this dish for your family in "no time flat." For a quick, though super, supper try

YANKEE BEEF SKILLET

3/4 lb. ground beef
1 pkg. (10 oz.) Bird's Eye New England style vegetables
1/2 cup water
2 tps. Worcestershire sauce
Brown beef in skillet, leaving meat in large chunks; set aside packet of topping. Add vegetables, water and Worcestershire sauce to skillet; bring to a full boil over medium heat; separating vegetables with a fork and stirring occasionally. Reduce heat; cover and simmer 5 minutes. Sprinkle with topping. Makes 3 servings.

TV reporters, at least some of the big network star reporters, have not been their usual zippy selves lately. And that comes as a surprise considering that ordinarily no species gets so charged up by a good scandal as newsmen. It gives them a chance to work up a full-blown case of righteous indignation, especially if the scandal's one that involves the Administration right up out with contractors and the garden club.

The work is expected to be started next spring, according to garden club members.

In other action the city commissioners approved a work change order to allow for the paying of cement work that was done on Pearl, "R", and Stewart Streets.

When the city replaced the water and sewer lines, they did not want to go down the center of the streets so they installed the lines under the former sidewalks. The change order covers the cost of replacing the sidewalks, driveway aprons and driveways on those streets.

They also named September 21-26, 1987 as Boyne City Community Child Watch Week in conjunction with the rest of the communities throughout the state. Boyne City will be especially honored because of the growth of the program which started last year.

It was learned that the city workers wanted to donate their time to move and build a city ice skating rink to Avalanche Preserve. The matter was brought up at a recent parks and rec meeting and was brought to the commissioners by Tim Hawley, a member of the group. The city was asked to allow the workers to use city equipment to build the rink.

City Manager Randy Fryberg asked to look into the matter before letting the city make the move of the rink from the present location, on the corner of Jefferson and North Streets.

In a discussion after the meeting, a commissioner said that possibly one of the portable units from the Courter-Bendix operation could be moved to the new site to be used as a warming house.

The matter will be looked at this week and will be an agenda item at next Tuesday's noon meeting.

East Jordan takes shellacking by Rayders 54-0

BY DENNIS SKROCKI
After topping Elk Rapids 25-16 in their season opener, the East Jordan Varsity football team took one on the chin last Friday night as they were blasted 54-0 by the Charlevoix Red Rayders.

The Devils only bright spot was in their opening possession. Starting at his own 20 yard line, junior quarterback Dan Pepin successfully engineered four running plays and a sixteen yard pass to punt but they gave them the ball right back by fumbling on the first play from scrimmage. A few plays later the Red Rayders put it into the end zone to break the scoring ice and capture a lead that they would never lose.

The Rayders scored one more TD before the end of the first period and with the extra point took a 14-0 lead.

The Devils saw Charlevoix pick the defense apart for two more scores in the second quarter to extend the already commanding edge to 28-0 at the half.

Four more TD's were added by the Rayders in the second half with the last coming at the 10:11 mark of the fourth quarter.

The Devils threatened to score in the closing minutes as Scott Diller recovered a fumble at the Charlevoix 19 yard line. But once again they were stopped by the tough Rayder defense and mistakes, thus bowing by the final score of 54-0.

Devil rushers combined for a mere 108 yards as Dave Freel picked up 34 yards on seven carries; Matt Bishop, 25 on nine carries; Curtis "The Wildman" Weidler, 27 on six carries; and Alvin Merrill gained 22 in six attempts.

In the passing department Pepin hit on three of 14 attempts for 31 yards. Clark hauled down two passes good for 28 yards as Dennis Skrocki grabbed a 15 yarder.

Defensively Shannon Gee,

Pepin, Skrocki, and Weidler led the way with six tackles each. Also collecting tackles were: Merrill(5), Bishop (4), Freel (3), Diller (3), Scott Nachazel (3), Clark (2), Jeff Olstrom (2), "Alt" LaBeau (1), and Ken Thornton (1).

EJ boys 5th, girls 2nd at Kingsley

BY DENNIS SKROCKI
On Saturday, September 12 the East Jordan boys' and girls' cross country teams competed in the Kingsley Invitational at Kingsley.

The boys' squad finished fifth out of the fifteen participating schools. Running for East Jordan were: Tim Brennan, Garrett Bieshlag, Tracy Reich, Keith Harchis and Kevin Cordova.

The ladies' team consisting of Jody Cordova, Renee Spence, Theresa Brennan, Chris Jankowski, Jamie Dunson and Carol Clark brought home the runner-up trophy with a tremendous team effort.

Boyerne busted by Bulldogs as time runs out

A week after Boyne City had developed high hopes for winning another game, the thought was dashed by two Rudyard plays that caused two touchdowns in the first half of an exciting game ended with Boyne losing to the Bulldogs 16-12.

The Friday night game showed Boyne City could play with a top rated team, Rudyard was a playoff team last year, as they outgained them on stats 278 yards to 167. By the end of the game, the Ramblers were causing the Bulldogs to lose yardage on almost every play as they continually were able to shutdown their offensive line.

But, the two plays, one a 48 yard pass from the quarterback Steikar to halfback Bickel, and the other, a 67 yard run off tackle by Sparkman made the difference by setting up the point after that marked the doom of the Rambler effort for the evening.

The Bulldogs went for the two point conversions and both worked, giving them a four point lead they carried home with them.

Boyerne's coach "Shorty" Smith said that someone forgot their assignment on both occasions and the slips cost them the game. Smith did say he was encouraged with the way the team played in the later stages of the game.

It was the second half where the team showed what they were made of, when the defensive efforts kept driving the Bulldogs back on their heels.

A blocked punt by Boyne City started a drive that almost succeeded in being a game winning effort during the first half after the Bulldogs scored on the pass.

The drive, which lasted for 90 yards and 17 plays or almost nine minutes, culminated in a fourth and four on the Bulldog 17 with the goal line in sight. Quarterback Troy Heierman rolled out of the pocket, threw a pass to Scott Patton. The try for the conversion failed and the score was 8 to 6.

After the kickoff, Bulldog Sparkman took off down the field and beat out all the Boyne defenders to the goal line. Rudyards attempt for another two points made the score 16-6.

The second half started almost like the first, but a Bulldog pass that seemed an apparent score was called back for a holding penalty.

Then Boyne regained the momentum of teams from the fifties when Chuck Vondra snubbed down a Bulldog punt attempt and the Ramblers recovered on the Bulldog 26.

A couple of minutes later, Patton ran around right end and scored six for the Ramblers.

The two point attempt again failed, but the Boyne hopes were high with about four and a half minutes left.

Boyerne tried an onside kickoff and held the Bulldogs until a pass interference call put the ball on the Rambler 48 and gave the Bulldogs a first down.

The Bulldogs then worked the middle of the line and wore the clock down, finally kicking the ball deep into Rambler territory.

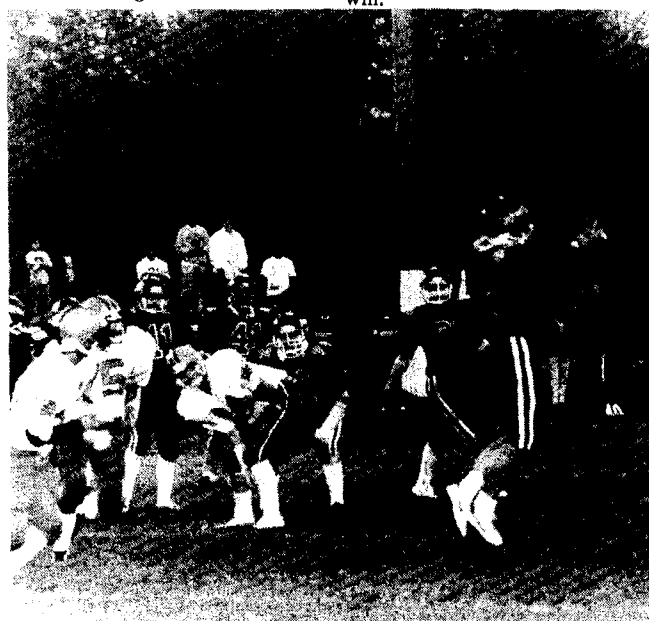

Boyerne, with the slashing attack behind Pete Smith's running, brought the ball back to the midfield, but time had run out for the game.

Boyerne fans applauded the effort of the team and were saying that the second half was one of the most exciting games they have seen in a long time.

Smith led the Ramblers with 83 yards on 17 carries, Patton had 65 yards on seven carries and scored both TD's. Jeff Fineout added 14 carries and 53 yards. Heierman hit on four of 16 passes for 47 yards and one TD.

Defensively, Vondra, Bill Wicker and Brian Napont were the standout performers.

This Friday, the Ramblers will host St. Ignace with game time at 7:30 p.m. St. Ignace is another powerhouse team in the Huron Shores Conference and Smith said the team will have to play consistent ball in order to win.

Tom Miller has his hands on the ball after receiving a pass from quarterback Troy Heierman. He gained about 13 yards with his catch.

Kowalske repeats in Advance Open

Lon Kowalske, Boyne City, a former champion of the Ye Nynne Olde Holes in 1985, won back his title for 1987 with a low round of 72 during the Advance Open held this past weekend at the local golf course.

The Open was sponsored this year by the Advance General Store and $2,500 in cash and prizes was given away to the participants.

Other flight winners included Russ Harvey, Boyne City, Dick Raymond, East Jordan, with low net scores of 69. Harvey won the championship flight on the third hole of a sudden death playoff from Raymond.

The first flight was also decided in a sudden death playoff, when Mick Kane of Boyne City, beat Bob Ruhs, also of Boyne City, on the second hole. They both finished the tournament with 67's. For his prize, Kane won a membership to the course for the 1988 season.

The second flight was a family affair when Pat Price defeated his father-in-law, Art Young in a playoff. Both were from Boyne City and had rounds of 67.

The third flight was taken by John Buckmaster of Boyne who was participating in his first tourney. Buckmaster carded a 70 for his win. Ivan Sulak of Boyne finished second with a 72.

In the fourth flight, Larry Youman of East Jordan took the honors with a fine round of 69. Lance Johnson of Boyne City finished second with a 71.

Other winners included Jim Kaufman and Sid Stott in the long drive contest. They had drives of 320 yards and 260 yards respectively. Dennis Christensen just missed a hole-in-one by 12 inches and took the prize for the closest to the pin during the open.

EJ jv's settle for 8-8 tie

BY DENNIS SKROCKI

After winning big in their season opener against Elk Rapids, the East Jordan jayvee football squad hosted Charlevoix in their final non-conference game.

Neither team could mount a successful offensive attack in the first period as defenses stood strong.

The Red Devils drew first blood midway through the second quarter on a one yard plunge into the endzone by Pat Russell. The extra point conversion pass from Bill Gotts to Steve Shepard was complete and the Devils took an 8-0 lead which lasted for the remainder of the half.

The third quarter saw the Rayders put points of their own on the board and with a controversial extra point conversion being called good, the contest was at an 8-8 deadlock.

EJ suffered a big disappointment in the final stanza as a Ted Sherman touchdown run was called back on clipping penalty. The Devil defense shut down a late Rayder threat and settled for the 8-8 standoff.

Offensively Sherman led in the rushing department as he picked up 44 yards on 11 carries. Russell gained 20 yards on six attempts including the lone Devil touchdown.

Bill Gotts led the way on defense with eight tackles as Mike Rebec, Sherman, and Russell had six each and Ryan Clark, Don Cutler, and Pete Inman all added five.

The Devils will get underway in conference action this week against Gaylord St. Mary's.

Deer hunters to benefit from new DNR rules

Michigan firearm deer hunters will benefit from liberalized hunting regulations this fall, as the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) launches programs aimed at providing new opportunities for hunters and solving crop and silvicultural damage problems.

New hunting opportunities include:

1. a limited bonus deer option
2. more hunters choice licenses available
3. expanded areas open for hunters choice
4. more landowner limited hunting licenses
5. an extended season in Menominee County, in the Upper Peninsula
6. the availability of leftover hunters choice licenses

And again this fall, hunters will be permitted to purchase a second buck license after the September 24 deadline for hunters choice license applications.

The limited bonus deer option allows hunters who possess a regular hunters choice or landowner limited license to take an additional antlerless deer in specified deer harvest units.

Bonus units open to regular hunters choice license holders and landowner limited license holders are: 37, 47, 49, 50, 51, 52, 112, 139 and 155. Bonus units open to landowner limited license holders are: Units 79, 81, 99 and 102.

A total of 38,245 bonus antlerless only tags will be available.

BC girls open with loss, win, at Central Lake

BY SCOTT KNIPE

Boyerne City's varsity basketball squad opened their fall season in the Central Lake tournaments last week. In pre-game warm-up on Tuesday the 8th, Boyerne looked good, but by the end of the night they not only were defeated at the hands of Central Lake by a score of 27 to 34, one of their starters will be sitting on the bench for the next four weeks due to a knee injury on the floor.

For most of the first half Central Lake kept a stable lead while Boyerne kept it just close enough to make a game of it for the hosting team.

Nothing changed at the start of the second half, but midway into the third quarter, Marci Center went to the floor with a bad knee, and had to be helped off the floor.

Marci's trouble seemed to ignite a spark in the Ramblers though. Quickly, Coach Harvey put his team into a full course press, and for the rest of the second half the Ramblers made a steady, climbing comeback from a considerable Central Lake lead.

In the end it wasn't quite enough and Boyerne fell short by seven points and placed the Ramblers into the consolation game which took place Thursday.

Totaling out the game for the Ramblers with high score was Mary Beth Archambault with nine points. On the boards, Tysh Crozier had 11 rebounds, followed closely by Archambault with 8. In other scores, Colleen Williams added four points, Crozier had three, Center finished with 4, Mindy Stadt added five, and Patty Schmoldt contributed two.

At the line, Boyerne City shot 28%, in comparison to Central Lake's 35%. In field goal attempts, Boyerne hit for 22% while their rivals did little better at 25%.

But Boyerne did not let the minor upset discourage them, and came out ready in the second game in the tourney against Ellsworth, who also dropped their game the previous Tuesday.

Not waiting to see Ellsworth's offense, Boyerne immediately went into a full court press against the team, and although it stalled Ellsworth's inside shooting, they proved to be more of a match outside the perimeter than what Boyerne could handle, at first.

Hot off the bench, taking Marci Center's spot, Mindy Stadt proved to be a major part of this game. She came out, scrambling at the ball whichever direction it went, and not giving up when all seemed lost. It didn't take long, less than a quarter, and the rest of the team caught on, and soon pulled the game back into perspective.

By the half, Ellsworth still led, but not by enough. The Ramblers returned in the third quarter as if they were on fire, and soon took the lead. But it may have been this overanxiousness that put two starters, Mary Beth Archambault and Tysh Crozier, on the bench with four fouls each.

Taking over the center spot, Lorie Knight came off the bench, wanting to prove herself worthy, and by the end of the third quarter, Boyerne, with the help of the fairly tall Knight, not only shut down Ellsworth's inside shooting completely, but had dominated rebounding on both ends of the court.

Still, Ellsworth did not turn over and give up, and by the middle of the fourth quarter had again tied the score.

By now Harvey had put both Archambault and Crozier back into the game, and they both promptly fouled out on calls by the refs. Again the bench had to show their stuff, and did they. After a few swift free throws, Boyerne went on to take the lead and their first seasonal victory at the score of 43-39.

For this second game all of the team got into the picture, trying to compensate for their lost players. Part way into the third quarter, they almost had a repeat situation when Colleen Williams was sent to the floor with a twisted ankle. Fortunately she had returned by the end of the third period raring to go.

Scorewise, Stadt snared the top position with eight points in field goals and six points from freethrows. Following closely was Lucinda Thompkins with six points from field goals and three freethrows. Mary Beth Archambault hit for three field goals, and Lorie Knight tied that score with 2 field goals and two freethrows. Also contributing for the Ramblers was Patty Schmoldt with four points, with Crozier and Williams each adding two points.

The nights top rebounder was Dawn Archambault with 16 rebounds, followed by Lucinda Thompkins with 14, Mindy Stadt with 13, Lorie Knight and Patty Schmoldt both with ten, Amy Weeks with four, Colleen Williams with 6, and Tysh Crozier with five. For a short team, the Ramblers out rebounded their rivals 78-45.

Shotwise, the Ramblers still shot a low percentage of field goals, hitting for only 22%, compared to the Ellsworth rating of 35%. But in contrast, Boyerne shot 72 field goals total, Ellsworth 49. During the game Boyerne connected on 16 shots, Ellsworth 17, and at that ratio it is easy to see how freethrows can make such a vital difference in the outcome.

At the foul line, Boyerne shot 26 times and connected on 11 occasions for a 42% average, Ellsworth, on the other hand, shot twenty-five times, hitting only 5 baskets for 20%.

As the game concluded, Harvey was fairly pleased with the girls and the show they had put on, already to prove themselves among the top contenders in the Michigan-Huron Shores League.

EJ girls take two in opening week

BY DENNIS SKROCKI

The East Jordan girls' varsity basketball squad showed signs of a promising season with non-conference victories over Charlevoix and Boyerne Falls last week.

On Tuesday, at Charlevoix, the Devilettes wasted no time showing who was in control as sophomore Sara Chase, who hit her first three shots from the newly enacted three point range, led an awesome offense that poured in 23 first quarter points while holding the Rayders to just five.

The EJ defense remained strong throughout the second period giving up only nine points. Although scoring only eight of their own, the Devils held a commanding 31-14 edge at the half.

In the second half East Jordan scored 22 and 14 points respectively in the third and fourth quarters while allowing the Rayders ten in each enroute to a 67-34 victory.

The Devils showed strength from the bench throughout the contest as they played most of the game without starter Brenda Drenth, who was in early foul trouble, and Erin Snyder who was out with an injury.

Chase led in the scoring department with 25 points as Kristy Miller canned 15 and Jill Burt and Monica Olstrom each added ten.

Thursday's contest against Boyerne Falls went in much the same fashion as the Devils outscored the loggers 19-6, 15-9, 19-12, and 17-11 to capture a 70-38 victory.

EJ went 29 of 82 from the field and 11 of 15 from the free-throw line. Kristy Miller captured top scoring honors with 27 points as Jill Burt collected 17. Also scoring for EJ were: Olstrom (9), Chase (9), Kris Burt (4), Brenda Drenth (2), and Jenny Malpass (2).

Miller also led the way defensively with 23 rebounds as Kris Burt collected nine and Brenda Drenth crashed the boards for eight. Sara Chase added seven steals in the winning effort.

For Boyerne Falls Carrie Gray led the way offensively with 18 points as Kelly Payton scored ten and Kelly McNew and Nicole Kerridge added three each.

This week the girls will begin conference play at Gaylord St. Mary's on Tuesday before hosting Inland Lakes on Thursday.

Ducks same, geese better for waterfowl hunters

Confirmation of the 1987 Michigan Waterfowl Season has been received from federal authorities, reported officials of the Department of Natural Resources (DNR).

The State will again be divided into three hunting zones—North, Middle and South—with boundaries unchanged from 1986.

The duck season will be 40 days long in each zone of the State, the same as 1986.

In the North and Middle Zones the hunt will be November 14-29 and in the South Zone, November 16-26. The designated waters are printed in the State Waterfowl Hunting Guide due at license dealers by September 15.

The Canada goose hunting season will be much improved this year. The daily bag limit is two birds in most of the state.

The North Zone season begins September 26 and is 40 days long, 2 geese per day, except in Baraga, Houghton, Ontonagon and Marquette Counties where it will continue for 20 days unless a 6,500-bird harvest quota is reached first. A special scaup hunt will be allowed in each zone on designated waters. In the North and Middle Zones the hunt will be November 14-29 and in the South Zone, November 16-26. The designated waters are printed in the State Waterfowl Hunting Guide due at license dealers by September 15.

State biologists are predicting the duck hunting opportunities will be similar to 1986, and the Canada goose hunting will be slightly better than last year. Waterfowl hunters increased to 65,000 last year, up from the 54,000 low recorded in 1982.

Crop Walk set for September 19

Walkers from the three cities of Charlevoix County will converge on Ironton Saturday morning, September 19 during the second annual county-wide CROP Walk for hunger.

Organizers of the project are hoping to exceed last year's net proceeds of $5,290 which was one of the highest totals in the state for a county the size of Charlevoix County.

Registration will open at 8 a.m. and the walk will start at 9 a.m. for participants in East Jordan, Boyne City and Charlevoix. Walkers from East Jordan will register and start from Elm Pointe. Boyne City CROP walkers will start from Advance and Charlevoix's contingent will start from the high school.

All will walk to the former Sonny's Gun Shop property on Highway M-66 located right up the hill from the Ironton Ferry landing. The distance is the same, approximately six miles, from each of the starting points.

At the finish, walkers' pledge cards will be validated and refreshments served. Transportation will be provided back to the starting point for all walkers. During the morning special cars will be patrolling the CROP Walk routes in case anyone cannot complete the trek on foot.

CROP is an acronym for the Christian Rural Overseas Program. Funds collected by the walkers are used not only to provide emergency food for the world's hungry but also outreach assistance in refugee resettlements and education for people on how to help themselves.

Sponsored by 32 member denominations of the Church World Service and Church Women United, the program started with 283 box cars of farm produce donated by farmers and others for the hungry overseas.

It was first run by the Michigan Farm Bureau and many farmers are still actively involved. Since that time more than $8 million has been raised in Michigan and the program has been expanded to include assistance to the poor in this country in emergencies.

Last year's CROP walks in Michigan raised a record $1,274,732, the highest income in its 39-year history. In all, 94 Michigan communities walked for hunger last year.

More information on the Charlevoix County CROP walk can be obtained from Rev. Philip Schairbaum in Charlevoix at 547-5803, Rev. Michael Konklin in Boyne City at 582-7672 and Mary Glenna Malpass in East Jordan at 536-2505.
