Snow? Not yet! Daytime temperatures that ranged from the mid-40s to mid-50s marked the third week of November in the north. While the sun made some appearances (most notably on Tuesday and Wednesday), skies were partly to mostly cloudy throughout the week. Friday saw some of the highest winds in recent memory, downing branches and even toppling some trees. Saturday and Sunday continued the mid-weather trend that's characterized autumn '94, offering outdoor enthusiasts comfortable temps for working or recreation. Although snow-showers are predicted early this week, the forecast calls for a return to the 50s by Thursday. LAST YEAR: Snowfall totaled 8.5 inches – a far cry from 1992's 41.3 inches by Nov. 23!

Senior center celebrates 20 years of service

BY DEB SAYGERS HOBBS
Journal Editor

A large group gathered at the Charlevoix County Senior Center in East Jordan Nov. 14 to celebrate a milestone.

It was the 20th anniversary of the center, and some long-time friends came to help celebrate.

Art Saworski, Commission on Aging director, both then and now, was one of them. He recalled how the operation was completely voluntary, including his own job, in 1974 when 10 people met to form the center.

"I went out door-to-door and found seniors," he said. "I'd ask at every house. 'Is there a senior living here?'"

Saworski said the COA began transporting seniors to the center, which was housed in the East Jordan Community Building right from the beginning, in 1975.

"We started with two leased buses," he noted, adding that the transportation system eventually evolved into the county-wide transit available today.

The poured concrete building was a natural place for the COA to set up shop. Built before World War II by WPA workers, the project was abandoned half-completed when the war began. Saworski said behind some walls there still exist concrete staircases leading to a second floor that was never added.

The building housed the Post Office and Secretary of State office for a time, and also served as a teen center. The city eventually added the Civic Center, and continues to rent the senior center to the COA for $1 a month – the same rent that was negotiated in 1974.

The COA received a state grant to remodel the center and add a kitchen in 1978, but just as work was to begin, a fire gutted the inside.

"The timing couldn't have been better," said Saworski. "It actually made the renovations easier."

By the end of 1980, the seniors were back in the building (they met in the American Legion Hall in the interim), and meals were prepared on site.

Under the guidance of director Jeanette Norton, the center offers daily activities including bingo and a choir, meals five days a week and a monthly Sunday

Extravaganza!

The Jordan Valley Express Music Center was the setting for the first of many successful ventures into the dealership show venue. The East Jordan Area Jaycees sponsored the All Wheel Drive Extravaganza, featuring vehicles from off-road to on-road, entertainment and prizes the first weekend in November. Show chairman Dan Pater said the successful show inspired dealers, the Jaycees and the Express to plan future ventures. Pater and other Jaycee members gathered to show off this Dodge Ram Laramie 2500, one of the many vehicles displayed at the Extravaganza. From left, they are: Russ Peck, Merri-Sue Cardwell, JoAnne Rebec and Dan Pater. Photographed trying out a Yamaha 4x4 Kodiak from Vincent's Yamaha is Michael Cardwell, 3.

Swan City Memories

On August 4, 1908, these cooperage workers stopped for a photo-taking session that included Harold (Rv) Liskum, second from the right. Rv died in January, 1965, long after the cooperage was torn down in 1911. Perhaps our readers can identify some of the others in the photograph.

The East Jordan Cooperage Company manufactured barrel and keg stock that was shipped throughout the U.S. and beyond. The plant was one of 23 factories owned by the Grief Brothers Company, the largest cooperage company in the world.

The East Jordan plant was located along the west side of the Jordan River near the East Jordan and Southern Railroad track (where the present Cooper-age Street runs off M-32). At least 160 workers were employed from 1903 to 1910, and the two-week payroll amounted to $2,334.48.

Workers produced about two railroad cars of barrel staves daily.

The plant was destroyed by fire and rebuilt in 1905. The dry kiln burned in 1910 or 1911, and the mill was torn down and moved to Manistique.

Man arrested in fatality

Charles Shafer, 20, of Traverse City was arrested Nov. 14 following an investigation into an Oct. 23 accident which claimed the life of a Central Lake man.

Michael Joseph Basse, 20, died of head injuries received from falling off the hood of a 1977 Oldsmobile, which was westbound on Ferry Road near the Ironton Ferry.

Based on the investigation of the Charlevoix County Sheriff Department, Prosecuting Attorney Richard May authorized a warrant for negligent homicide. The maximum penalty for conviction of this crime is two years in confinement and/or a $2,000 fine.

Shafer turned himself in to the Charlevoix County Sheriff Department. He was taken before Magistrate David Kurchinski, where a bond of $7,500 was set, and was released after posting the personal recognizance bond. He is reported to be married with one child and expecting a second child in January.

Arraignment in the 90th District Court in Charlevoix is scheduled for Tues., Nov. 29.

After the accident, Basse was rushed to Charlevoix Area Hospital where he was treated before being transferred to Northcote Michigan Hospital in Petoskey. He died five days later as a result of his head injuries.

Circuit court update

Cases pending or decided in the 33rd Circuit Court, Charlevoix:

■ John Nelson Denemy, 46, East Jordan, was sentenced to 90 days in jail, with a credit for two days served, for breaking and entering a garage and stealing a box of returnable bottles.

Denemy was ordered by Judge Richard M. Pajtas to serve two days, with the rest of the sentence held in abeyance. During a 12-month probation period, Denemy must refrain from alcohol use, and submit to breath and urine testing on request. He was also ordered to pay $250 court costs, $40 to the crime restitution fund and $1 restitution to the victim of the B&E. Denemy was sentenced Oct. 12.

■ Barbara Yorlanda Howes, 44, of Schoolcraft, is charged with the murder of Donald-Lee Baker, 49, at Baker's home on Wilson Road in Wilson Township, Aug. 23.

Howes was bound over to circuit court from the 90th District Court, Oct. 20. She has been ordered to undergo psychiatric examination, and is presently awaiting a trial date, which is scheduled to be decided Mon., Nov. 28.

Howes' court-appointed attorney, Gordon D. Boydston of Charlevoix, told the court he intends to present an insanity defense.

The open murder charge is a felony punishable by life imprisonment. Howes also faces a weapons charge of use of a firearm to commit a felony. Also a felony, the charge carries a two-year term consecutive to and preceding any term imposed for the felony. Howes remains in custody in lieu of a $100,000 bond.

■ Sharon Pittiglio, 49, Boyne City, was arraigned Nov. 14 on a felony charge of knowingly and unlawfully appropriating funds for her own or others use while holding a public office. The charge is punishable by up to 10 years in prison or a fine of up to $5,000. She stood mute to the charges and a not guilty plea was entered on her behalf.

Pittiglio is accused of embezzling up to $90,000 from May, 1992, to August, 1994, while serving as the treasurer of Wilson Township.

A scheduling conference to set a trial date was set for Mon., Nov. 28. Pittiglio's attorney is Kevin G. Klevorn of Boyne City. Pittiglio is free on a personal recognizance bond.

■ Daniel Sylvester Puroll, 29, Boyne City, is awaiting trial for the murder of Clark Lee Washburn, 81. The trial is set to begin March 6, 1995.

Puroll is accused of shooting Washburn at his Rogers Road mobile home in Wilson Township. Defense attorney Richard J. Zerafa of Elk Rapids has indicated to the court that an insanity defense will be presented.

Puroll was ordered to undergo psychiatric evaluation, and some evidence from the crime scene is still being evaluated.

The charge carries a possible sentence of life imprisonment. Puroll is also charged with a weapons-felony firearms count. He remains in custody in lieu of a $1 million bond.

EJPD weekly report

■ November 10

At approximately 8:20 p.m., William Erickson, Archie Cole IV, and Thomas Haley were involved in a three-car accident at the intersection of Boyne Road and Division Street.

Erickson was travelling south on Boyne Road in a 1989 Dodge pickup when Cole, traveling west on Division in a 1989 Chevrolet pickup, lost control on the ice and collided with Erickson. After the initial impact, a third vehicle traveling west on Division, a 1994 Chevrolet pickup driven by Haley, lost control and collided with Cole.

All three drivers were wearing seatbelts and there were no injuries reported.

■ November 14

William Crick reported someone backing into his vehicle, a 1993 Chevrolet wagon parked in the Rainbow Bar parking lot. Crick made the report at approximately 2:30 a.m.

Debra Peck reported at approximately 1:05 p.m. that her 1994 Dodge was parked on Main Street when an unknown vehicle attempted to park in front of her and sideswiped the driver's front side of her vehicle.

■ November 16

Vera Rebec reported at approximately 2:32 p.m. that an unknown vehicle backed into her 1989 Chevrolet while parked in the Glen's Market parking lot.

A deer crossed into the path of a 1989 Pontiac driven by Judy Petoskey at approximately 11 p.m. Petoskey was driving on south M-66 when she struck the deer with her passenger side front fender. She was wearing a seatbelt and reported no injuries.

Decorating contestants sought

The East Jordan Chamber of Commerce will once again sponsor a window and home decorations contest to be judged the week of the annual Festival of the Bells.

Both merchants and homeowners are invited to participate. Winners will be announced at the Community Night festivities, Thursday night, Dec. 15, at the Senior Center.

To enter, fill out a form with the name, address and description of the decoration and location. Forms may be obtained from the chamber office or CB North and FMB Northwestern offices.

The entry deadline is Tues., Dec. 6, with judging to take place Sat., Dec. 10, for homes, and Mon., Dec. 12, for businesses.

Bazaar and bake sale planned

The VFW Ladies Auxiliary Post 7580 will hold a Bazaar and Bake Sale Sun., Dec. 4, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the post hall on M-32 in East Jordan.

The kitchen will offer chili, soup and sandwiches, as well as hamburgers and hotdogs. Craft items including toys, dolls, clocks, and other handmade gifts will be available, as well as cookies, candies and other baked goods.

Tables are available for renting at $10 each. Call 544-6311 for more information or to rent a table.

Safety program offered

A snowmobile safety class will be offered for young people age 12 to 15, by the VFW Post 7580, East Jordan, on Sat., Dec. 3, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Those completing the course will receive the permit required for the age group to ride a snowmobile on any property but that owned by parents. The course is free and includes a free lunch.

For more information, contact Sue Carey at 544-6311.

Boyne City holiday activities

• Boyne City's annual Santa Parade will be held Fri., Nov. 25, at 7 p.m. Santa will come to town with elves, reindeer, carolers and more. Line up begins at 6 p.m. on S. East Street, Boyne City. All are welcome to participate.

• The Trees and Wreaths of Christmas will be held in Santa's Toy Shop, 207 Water St., from Sat., Nov. 26 to Sat. Dec. 10. A silent auction on the trees and wreaths will benefit Community Christmas Baskets and the Boyne City Food Pantry.

• Boyne Avenue Greenhouse will host a Christmas Open House from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Sat., Dec. 3. Refreshments, prizes and bow-making demonstrations will be part of the festivities. During the same day, the Holiday Hobby Craft Show will be held at Boyne City High School and the United Methodist Church will host their "Christmas Bazaar and Luncheon."

• A Christmas Trolley will offer evening rides and tours of area homes, Dec. 15-17, and Dec. 21-23. The ride is free and begins at 7 p.m. at Santa's Toy Shop, 207 Water St.

Community Thanksgiving eve service

The east Jordan Ministerial Association Annual Community Thanksgiving Eve Service will be held on Wednesday evening, Nov. 23, at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church (corner of Third and Williams Street).

The service will last an hour and will include short meditations by Father William McKeon, of St. Joseph Catholic Church, Rev. Robert Herbon, retired Lutheran pastor and Rev. John Morkin, retired Nazarene pastor. A free will offering will be taken up, with proceeds benefitting the East Jordan Ministerial Association Emergency Relief Fund.

Everyone is invited to come and give thanks to God for all his goodness and gifts.

Auxiliary invites all to shop

"Great Christmas items" will be sold Sun., Dec. 4, when the Ladies Auxiliary of Post 7580 hold their Bazaar and Bake Sale from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Highway M-32.

Besides the toys, dolls, clocks and many hand-made items offered for sale, the kitchen will be open to sell soup, sandwiches, chili, hamburgers and hot dogs.

Booth space for setting up the day of the event is still available for $10. Call 616-544-6311.

Meeting explores power of gratitude

Many have seen how radically a grateful heart can change one's whole outlook and experience. They've found that a willingness to focus on the God-given goodness in one's life, instead of on what one lacks, brings an understanding of how trustworthy God's omnipotence is. As a Christian Science hymn puts it, "A grateful heart a garden is, where there is always room for every lovely Godlike grace to come to perfect bloom" (Christian Science Hymnal, No. 3).

In the spirit of love and gratitude, the members of the Christian Science Society, 205 Clinton Street, Charlevoix, invite the community to join in giving special thanks to God. The service will be held on Thanksgiving Day at 11 a.m. A special lesson-sermon from the Bible and from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy will be read.

This year's reading includes helpful perspectives on gratitude.

During the service, there will also be time for Christian Scientists to express gratitude for the ways in which they have experienced God's grace during the year. As in past years, Thanksgiving coincides with National Bible Week, November 20-27, 1994, as declared by the Laymen's National Bible Association in New York City. Free parking and child care for those too young to attend will be provided at the service, and no collection will be taken.

The parable of laborers in the vineyard

By Anne F. Messerschmidt

"For the kingdom of Heaven is like unto a man that is an householder which went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard"

The beautiful fall season has finished showing off the famous colors we are noted for here in northern Michigan. All of God's resplendent and bounteous beauty reminds us of the song, America The Beautiful. God is so good, so majestic, all-knowing and so kind.

I think of harvest time; a time of gathering the bounty, and so vineyards come to mind, as does this parable about laborers in the vineyards. Jesus tries to make His followers understand what the Kingdom of Heaven is like.

He tells of an owner of a vineyard who goes out early in the morning and hires some workers. They are each to earn one penny for the day's work. Later at noon and again in the afternoon, he hires more workers, promising them the same.

Finally, near the end of the day, he goes and hires yet another group saying "Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that ye shall receive".

At quitting time the workers lined up for their pay. Those who started work first were angry upon learning every man was to receive a penny regardless of when he started to work in the vineyard. Seems like our real, secular world, doesn't it?

They continued to loudly complain but the owner would not change his mind. He insisted it is his money and he can distribute it as he sees fit and so he does.

The Kingdom of Heaven is like the laborers. Whether we accept it soon or late, we each are loved with a love that is timeless and has no logical order whatsoever.

Being fair or unfair, just or unjust has nothing to do with it. Once we are in the vineyard, the reward is the same for each of us. So remember: our Heavenly Father's love does not have to be earned.

Receive today salvation for the gift is free and it is never too late for God's bounty and everlasting love.

Anne Messerschmidt is a 73-year-old "joyous Christian." Readers can expect to see more of her writings in future issues.

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

We All Share in God's Harvest

"When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field to its very border, neither shall you gather the gleanings after your harvest... you shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner..."

— Leviticus 19: 9-10

The great storyteller O. Henry (William Sydney Porter) wrote in his tale, "Two Thanksgiving Day Gentlemen," that "Thanksgiving Day... is the one day that is purely American." While it is true that Americans have institutionalized the day from the time of the Pilgrims, it is obvious from God's admonition to Moses that He intended all should benefit and be thankful for the bounteousness of His harvests. Traditionally, Thanksgiving is a day of sharing, with family or friends, especially with those less fortunate. The meaning could not be more clear: God wanted all to partake of the riches He has provided from the earth.

Fifth-grade experiment was full of hot air

Mr. Peters' fifth grade class at East Jordan Elementary School recently designed home made hot air balloons and on Nov. 15, they floated them.

The class constructed the balloons out of tissue paper and glue with paper clips at the bottom for ballast. The perimeter of the balloons was about four feet and they were about three feet tall.

The purpose of the experiment was to show that when air molecules are heated they move around really fast, making the air in the balloon less dense than the air outside of the balloon, so that it will float.

To heat the balloon, they were held over camp stove with a chimney of coffee cans for two minutes. Then they were released and the students recorded how many paces they went, how long they floated and an estimated height they rose to. The best launch was recorded at 113 paces from launch site. It floated for 45 seconds, and rose to a height of approximately 60 feet.

The balloons weren't big enough to carry people, but they were still a lot of fun.

"It was a blast!" claimed class member Steve Kempton and Mr. Peters.

Havencrest resident marks 100 years

BY DEB S. HOBBS
Journal Editor

Sunday, November 27, will be a special day at Havencrest Adult Foster Care home, when Winifred Stankowski turns 100 years old.

Ciocia ("aunt" in Polish), as she is known by her family, nephew Arthur Jarvis and his wife Joanne, came to this country from Poland when she was a child of about eight. She lived alone in her home in Detroit until just 18 months ago, after a marriage that lasted 60 years.

The Jarvis' brought Ciocia to East Jordan to live near them when they retired in the area.

Ciocia doesn't enjoy answering questions, but did admit the youthful appearance of her skin comes from daily use of Oil of Olay. She still sees and hears relatively well and enjoys watching television and sometimes playing games.

Amy Poole, who works at the home, attributed Ciocia's good health to a hearty appetite.

"She still enjoys eating," said Poole, "and she likes everything."

Although Ciocia said she wants a regular day for her birthday, her family and friends will have trouble resisting the temptation to make a fuss, and will ply her with cake, presents and a little party. Perhaps they will even get her to answer a few questions!

Norman and Jennie Bartlett - then and now

Bartletts celebrate 60th anniversary

A quiet dinner at the Argonne in Charlevoix with their children and grandchildren marked the 60th wedding anniversary of Norm and Jennie Bartlett of East Jordan.

Norman Bartlett and Jennie Skroeki married Nov. 10, 1934, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church parsonage, Father Milnowski officiating. A huge reception followed at the Jordan River Club at Grave's Crossing.

"My father-in-law furnished the spirits, so everybody in town came," recalls Norm. "There were about 500 people there."

The Bartlett's have four sons: Leon, Gary, Wayne, and Steven, all of East Jordan, and a number of grandchildren.

District library receives Internet grant

The Northland Library Cooperative in Alpena, which provides services to Charlevoix County, has been awarded a $99,149 grant for an Internet training center, state Rep. Beverly A. Bodem announced today.

The 106th District lawmaker also said the Jordan Valley District Library in East Jordan received a $6,000 award to help gain access to the Internet system. The grant will provide a package that includes basic hardware, software, telecommunications support and an E-mail account.

"This is exciting news for northern Michigan. Thanks to these grants, area residents will be linked with the technologies of tomorrow," said Bodem, R-Alpena. "Such a system has the potential to allow widespread access to information for students, teachers, workers and employers throughout our region."

The federal grant for the library cooperative will fund an Internet training center that will help member libraries become proficient in electronic networking and its application.

The program's long-term goals are:

- providing state-of-the-art facilities where libraries can develop the skills necessary to use and teach others to use global telecommunications networks such as Internet

- establishing centers within local communities where residents can learn about and experiment with new technologies

- serving as a resource center for other types of libraries, schools, and governmental agencies in need of training

"Public libraries are the logical place for people to learn about the information superhighway," Bodem said. "Gaining access to both the technology and the necessary training will be a tremendous step forward."

In its first year, the Library of Michigan's Internet Training Center program will fund seven proposals, placing permanent centers in seven local communities. This will provide more than 220 public libraries in Michigan with access for training.

Thanksgiving delights

By Paul Beauvais

Children have a special perspective on life – a combination of innocent observation and sunny confidence captured here when we asked their advice on how to cook some traditional holiday goodies. The recipes came from members of Diane Frykberg's kindergarten class at East Jordan Elementary School, as did the exuberant art work that accompanies them.

Pumpkin Pie

Put lots of sugar in it. Put some salt in it – I think four. Add a little bit of water. Put it in the oven for seven minutes. That's it.

Christopher Crain

Pumpkin Pie

Mix it up with sugar and spice. Then put it in the oven for just a couple of hours. Then you take it out. Then you stir it. Then you pat it like a cake. Then you put syrup with a cherry on top.

Megan Kishefsky

Pumpkin Pie

You cut the lid open and get out all the seeds and stuff. Then you would mash it until it's really soft. When it's all done you take it out of the oven and it's a pumpkin pie!

Amanda Watson

Pumpkin Pie

Put salt on it. I don't know what else to put on it. Put the other kind of salt on it. Then you put some jelly on it. That's how you make it. Then you bake it and it's done.

Dustin Hill

Roast Turkey

Cut off all the skin. Add a little bit of pepper. Put it in the oven for five minutes. Take it out and you eat it.

David Marr

Roast Turkey

Add salt, pepper (a little bit). I know you have to cook it a little bit. Take it out. Eat it.

Joseph Gomery

Roast Turkey

Cut it up. Put it in the oven and cook for 10 minutes.

David Sweeney

M & M's
Put chocolate on the side of the pie. Then put green beans in it. Then eat it.

Tonya Robtoy

Roast Turkey

Put a monitor in the turkey while it's cooking. Put things in a bag while it's cooking, and that's it.

Brian Iverson

Roast Turkey

First put it in the oven, and then you take it out of the oven and put it in the microwave.

Angela Sewell

Roast Turkey

You put it in the oven. When it's done, you get it out.

Karina Hosler

Roast Turkey

You put it in the oven. Put some salt on it and sugar, and then you eat it.

Amy Huskey Kile

Pumpkin Pie

You get the inside of a pumpkin. Get the crust at the store. You put it in the oven for a minute. You pull it out. Then it's done. You eat it.

Thomas Pentecost

Roast Turkey

Catch a turkey. Chop off its head. Put stuffing in him in a big pan. Check it to see if it's done. If it's not done, you put the juice that's in the pan on top of the turkey. When it's done, take it out and slice it in half and put it on a big plate. Then it's ready to eat.

Brandie Boike

Pumpkin Pie

One cup baking powder
One cup water
One cup crackers

You bake it inside the pumpkin for one hour. Put it in the oven. That's all.

Daniel Sanchez

Pumpkin Pie

One pail of water – dump it in. Put one scoop of flour in it. Then eggs, just one. Then put the water in with the eggs. Then put frosting in it. Put eggs with the frosting and stir it up. Put it in the oven and let it bake for a while – five minutes. Give it to everyone.

Jessie Evans

Roast Turkey

First catch the turkey. Then you put stuffing in it. Then you let it cook for about 45 minutes. Then everyone comes over and then you eat the turkey.

Noah Dodge

Pumpkin Pie

Put one pumpkin in the pumpkin pie. Put three cherries, one lemon, two grapes and four raspberries. Cook it for five minutes. Take it out of the oven. You can eat it.

Lady Devils reach district semi-finals

BY S.F. PUCKETT
Sports Writer

A slow starting year finished just two steps shy of complete redemption for the East Jordan Red Devil Ladies, who put together a strong run at the end of the year and hope to carry that memory and ability over to the next season of opportunity.

East Jordan began its tourney run Monday the 14th in Harbor Springs' Class C district, drawing the host Rams. Harbor posted a 16-13 lead after a quarter and held sway to the half, 28-27, before East Jordan came alive and assumed a 45-40 margin with a period to go.

Harbor came roaring back to tie the game with the seconds clicking away, when Kristie Loviska picked up the ball and tossed in a triple attempt as the clock sounded, sparking a joyous melee with her team and sinking the Rams in the process, 60-57.

Loviska finished with a team high 15 points, along with Amanda Pepin, while Kristina Ruhling added an important 11 to the total.

The win pushed the Red Devils into a Wednesday semifinal against Charlevoix. For the first quarter, East Jordan had reason to cheer as the Red Devils took a 10-9 lead. By the half, Charlevoix had supplanted the gap and created one of their own, 19-17; at the three quarter break, the Red Rayder lead was 36-30.

East Jordan stayed within six, to 47-41 with three and a half minutes to go, when the Red Rayders scored the next nine points to seal the win, 56-51, the Devils finishing with the last ten points of the game. Amanda Pepin scored 16 in the game. Kristina Ruhling scoring 13. "We had a strong finish, the second half of the season was like the whole year could have been," Concluded Coach Steve Hines. "We hope the winning attitude at the end of this season showed and will carry over to next year."

Charlevoix went on to win the district Friday over Mancelona, 58-42.

Thanks to a visit from Rosalind Westcott (formerly Mrs. Vern Bundy), we now have the identifications of some of the ladies pictured in the Women's Rights Convention of 1918.

The photo, from the collection of Bill Huckle, was published in our Oct. 26 issue.

According to Rosalind, quite a number of her relatives were promoting woman's right to vote. They included her grandmother, Anna Willard Warden; great-grandmother Josephine Bowen; an aunt, Ottie Warden Sheffels; a family friend, "Grandma" Hayner; and Josephine Bowen's daughter-in-law (name unknown).

Rosalind is also instrumental in a new feature to be introduced next week, Jordan Memories. Taken from columns written by Rosalind for the East Jordan News-Herald and the Mancelona Herald decades ago, we think the feature will be an enjoyable saunter down memory lane, especially for our Jordan Township readers.

Editor's nightmare #712: Sometimes our intended headlines are discarded or altered during production because of length or other reasons that only come up as the actual paper is laid out.

Because the production staff doesn't actually write the stories, and doesn't have time to read them, mistakes sometimes appear in the headlines.

That was how the city of East Jordan turned into a village in print. Your hometown newspaper has always known that East Jordan is a city — the fastest growing city in Michigan! With hope, now our production staff knows it, too!

USDA reorganization begins with name change

The reorganization of the United State Department of Agriculture began with the official change in name of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) to the Farm Service Agency (FSA).

"There will certainly be more in the future than name changes, but that is the first step," said Jim Byrum, acting state executive director of the new Farm Service Agency.

Byrum who was head of the Michigan ASCS, points out that with the exception of a few very minor programs, everything that ASCS has been doing for years has been transferred to the Farm Service Agency. As the reorganization moves forward, the farm loan program from the current Farmers Home Administration and responsibility for crop insurance, including writing catastrophic crop insurance, will also be included in the duties of the FSA.

"In the immediate future, Farmers won't see much difference at the county level, though," Byrum continued.

"We like this new name," Byrum said, "It describes what we do — provide service to farmers!"

Isaacs pleads guilty to Mancelona bank heist

BY KEITH MATHENY
Contributing Writer

An area resident became a convicted bank robber Nov. 21, after admitting to two counts of armed robbery in 13th Circuit Court in Bellaire.

Paul Isaacs, 28, pled guilty to the robbery of FMB Bank in Mancelona June 15. He could now face up to life in prison on either robbery charge.

In a plea agreement, a felony firearms charge against Isaacs was dropped. If convicted on that charge, a minimum two-year prison sentence would have been mandatory.

"We believe he'll be serving longer than that, anyway," Antrim County Prosecutor Charles Koop said.

Isaacs stood before Circuit Court Judge Philip Rodgers, Jr. and gave his account of the June 15 bank robbery prior to the judge accepting his guilty pleas.

"On the morning of June 15, I was having some personal problems, some financial problems," Isaacs said. "I left the house. I didn't know what I was going to do."

Isaacs got in his car and took off driving, taking with him a .22 automatic pistol and a loaded ammunition clip. "I was debating whether to kill myself," he said.

When he reached Mancelona, Isaacs pulled into the bank, stuffing the pistol into his belt but leaving the clip in the car. He accosted one female bank employee, sitting at a desk near the door. She led him to the cash drawers, where he took money. Pointing his gun at a female bank teller, he took money from her cash drawer as well.

The judge pointed out that because of the recent passage of Proposal B, Isaacs will have no right to automatically appeal his conviction. A pre-sentence investigation will now take place before Rodgers makes a decision on imprisonment.

Koop said more cash was taken from the bank than Isaacs admitted to stealing. Isaacs testified in court that he took about $5,000. Koop said bank audits have revealed a larger amount missing. About half of the stolen money was recovered when police arrested Isaacs in Detroit June 22.

"I would be inclined to trust the bank on the amount taken, rather than a convicted felon," Koop said. "We will ask at sentencing that full restitution be made."

Did you know?

The first Thanksgiving Day to be designated by presidential proclamation was for Nov. 26, 1789, when George Washington declared a day of general thanksgiving for the adoption of the constitution.

In 1863, Abraham Lincoln, by proclamation, set aside the fourth Thursday in November as a day of thanksgiving. That tradition has been generally adhered to throughout the United States ever since.
