

EJ school district repeats appeal

BY DEB SAYGERS HOBBS
Journal Editor

On Thurs., Sept. 28, East Jordan voters will be asked to consider a 1.15 mill levy to pay for a new middle school and renovations to existing school buildings.

The bond issue seeks a $5.3 million loan for the construction, with a pay-back of 15 years. If approved, the average homeowner ($30,000 SEV) will pay another $34.50 per year in taxes.

This is the second time this year the district is appealing to voters for the millage. The issue was defeated March 20 in a close election – the difference between yes and no was only 64 votes.

Data gathered and studied by a facilities review committee comprised of a variety of community members convinced the board that the only practical solution to overcrowding was to expand. Research has indicated the problem will continue to increase.

District superintendent Chip Hansen said the positive aspect of the defeat was that the interest on the bond has lowered since March.

"We were assured by Kemper Securities (a leading public school bonding company) that the present stable rates mean the millage will not exceed 1.15," said Hansen, "and could possibly be as low as 1.0 mill."

The district requested 2.25 mills in March, but a drop in the bond market will benefit voters and the district if the issue is approved this time around. The March bond would have cost the average homeowner $45 annually in new taxes – $10.50 more than the present bond.

The district is asking for exactly the same package as in March, which includes construction of a new middle school, an addition to the high school, and renovations to both the existing elementary and high school.

"Leaf Pickers" converge on East Jordan area

BY DEB SAYGERS HOBBS
Journal Editor

A new festival will make its debut in East Jordan the first weekend of October.

The Leaf Picker Harvest Festival will follow on the heels of East Jordan High School's Homecoming, and take advantage of Boyne City's annual fall festival to attract both residents and visitors to East Jordan for the weekend.

The brainchild of the East Jordan Chamber of Commerce, the festival, planned for Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 7-8, will feature a merchants' open house, a fire department open house, color tours, and exhibits at the Jordan River Arts Council and the Portside Art and Historical Museum.

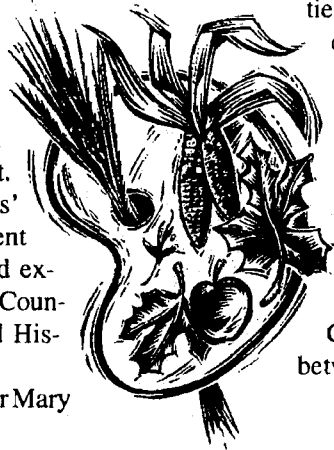

Chamber executive director Mary

Faculak said the festival is an example of how the chambers in Boyne City and East Jordan co-operate. Debbie Thompson, Faculak's counterpart in Boyne City, and Faculak often meet to discuss activities. Last year, when the Boyne City group introduced the Harvest Festival, they invited the East Jordan group to develop their own event for the same weekend.

Even without organized activities last year, East Jordan received the benefits of the nearby festival with an extra influx of visitors that weekend. This year's plans, especially the Color Tour Trolley, demonstrate the teamwork between the two chambers.

The trolley, sponsored by CB North, will shuttle riders between Boyne City and East

Reed sentenced on CSC charge

Former East Jordan School District bus driver Michael Wayne Reed, 39, was sentenced to three to 15 years after his conviction of criminal sexual conduct in the third degree.

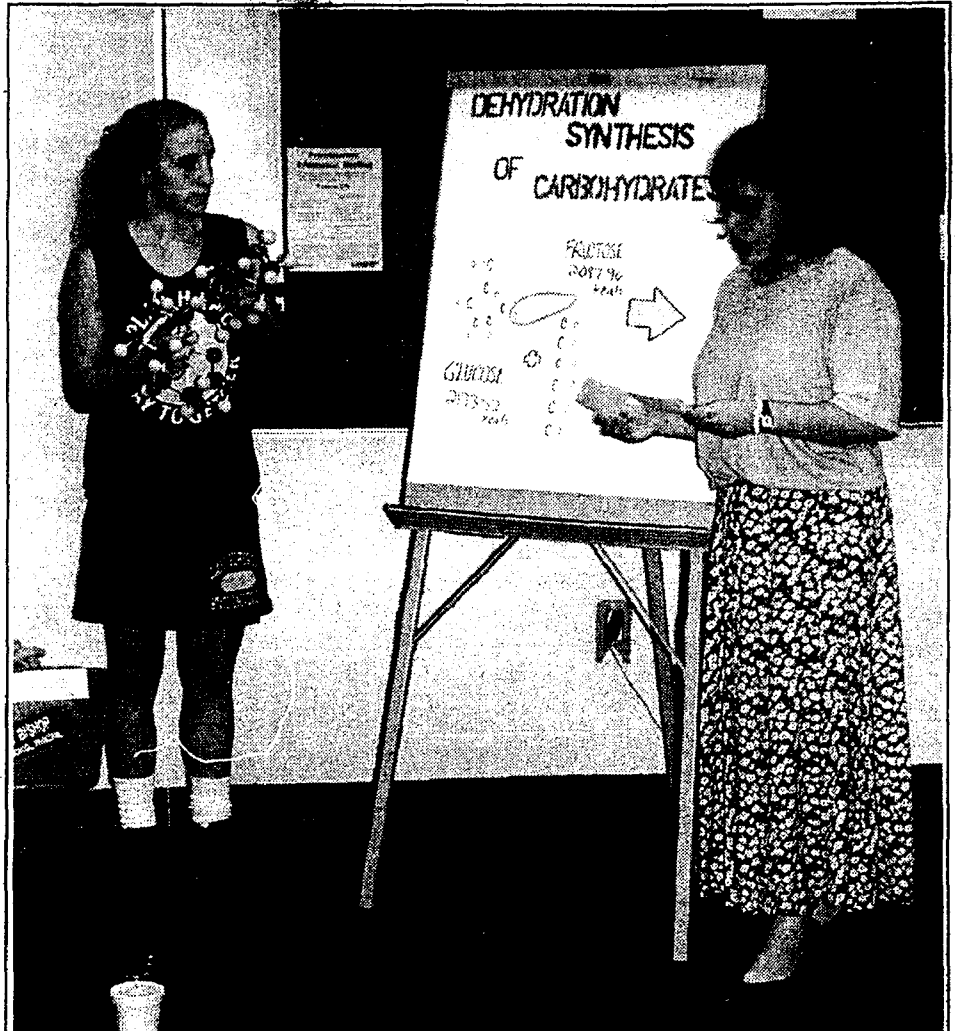

Reed was sentenced during a hearing Sept. 15, before Judge Richard M. Pajtas, in the 33rd Circuit Court, Charlevoix. He entered a plea of guilty, and was convicted Aug. 24.

Reed was accused of having an ongoing sexual relationship with a 14-year-old girl this past spring. He was arrested July 31, after a complaint was filed by the East Jordan Police Department. Reed admitted to police that the charge was true.

Reed, a furniture refinisher with a residence in East Jordan, was employed by the East Jordan School District as a full time school bus driver until his termination July 25, the day after district superintendent Chip Hansen learned of the charge.

Reed was sent immediately to the Michigan State prison at Jackson to begin his sentence. He was ordered to undergo sex offender therapy during his incarceration.

Advancing their knowledge

Two East Jordan High School Advanced Placement Biology students present a lesson on carbohydrates at the Sept. 18 meeting of the district school board. The students, Dawn Meads (left) and Annie Simons, are in a pioneer course taught by Sharon Moeke, designed to better prepare students for advanced college biology courses. The biology course is the first advanced placement in the history of the school, according to district superintendent Chip Hansen.

Community activities planned for homecoming

With Homecoming just around the corner (Fri., Oct. 6), East Jordan High School is gearing up for a flurry of activities.

Activities will pivot around a Community Spirit Rally, Wed., Oct. 4, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., at the Jordan Valley Express Music Center on M-66. This first-ever event will feature the introduction of the fall varsity athletic teams, the Homecoming Court, games, a raffle give-away, and the East Jordan Business Wagon Parade.

The parade of wagons decorated by local businesses, will be judged for originality and community spirit. The wagons will also be welcomed in the Homecoming Parade downtown, Fri., Oct. 6, at 5:30 p.m.

The new event is sponsored by the East Jordan Schools Athletic Department, Sports Boosters, the East Jordan Education Association, and the Chamber of Commerce.

Several community homes and businesses will be seen hosting homecoming floats, in driveways and garages, as they are built during the coming week. Floats will be on display at the Friday afternoon parade, as well as the game.

Mon., Oct. 2, is Crazy Hat Day at the schools, and Tues., Oct. 3 is Hippie Day. The community can really help promote school spirit Oct. 3 by following freshman, junior varsity and varsity girls basketball players to the home of Red Devil arch-rivals at Boyne City High School. The games begin at 4:15 p.m.

Wed., Oct. 4 is Beach Day, along with the Community Spirit Rally, and Thurs., Oct. 5, is Opposite Day. Oct. 5 is a dream day for sports fans – the cross country team will appreciate the support of community attendance at the Mancelona Invitational meet, beginning at 4 p.m. The same day, the girls JV and varsity basketball teams meet Traverse City St. Francis in the EJHS gym (6 p.m.); frosh girls basketball players go to Cheboygan for a contest beginning at 6:30 p.m.; and the JV football squad matches up with Elk Rapids in Elk Rapids at 6:30 p.m.

Fri., Oct. 6 begins with a team breakfast at 7:30 a.m. The schools and the community will be showing Homecoming spirit by wearing red and black. Pep rallies will be held at the East Jordan Senior Center at noon, and at Grandvue Medical Care Facility at 1 p.m.

Hey, sports fans!

The East Jordan Journal needs your help. With a limited staff and only so many hours in a day, attendance at games for reporting and taking photographs has sometimes been #101 on our list of 100 things to do

Although our Up North Publications staff sports reporter Steve Puckett does a great job at picking up the varsity games, we would like to report as many other local sports as space permits and do them all, including varsity with a local voice if possible.

Unfortunately, it is just too much for one busy editor/reporter to handle.

That's where you come in. We're looking for some one, or even more than one, person to serve as a sports writer and photographer for the East Jordan Journal — some one who attends many of the games any way — some one who wouldn't mind attending a few more, talking to coaches, and writing about their favorite subject. Some one (or more) who would enjoy writing in-depth articles about outstanding players, or previews of each season.

The best part is this someone (or more) can get free attendance, and get paid for attending the games and telling about what they observe — get paid for doing what they love!

Taking photos at sports events is a great challenge for any one, amateur or professional. But we know a few tricks that can help (and it gets you right up there close to the action!) — so don't let the idea intimidate you.

Same with writing reports. We can help if you don't feel confident — and we are confident you will eventually develop your own special style, even if you've never written in your life!

So if you know someone (or more than one) who might be interested — maybe it's you — just give our office a call at 536-0044.

Who knows? It may be the beginning of a beautiful relationship and a new career!

Reader shares another Miss Print

Editor:

I received the East Jordan Journal, Aug. 30 edition, and after reading the Miss Prints column, I was tempted to ask if you would care to publish this sometime: A Florida friend, who works at a self-serve gas station, said a lady came up to him, after pumping her own gas, and asked, "Do you take Visa cards for gas?" He said, "No, I just take a pill."

I also remember that my brother-in-law, Cecil Ogden, who grew up out at Ironton and later became a botany professor, visited my family in East Jordan several years ago. He used the phone while there, and after he left I noticed he had scribbled this on the note pad I kept by the phone:

Hey diddle diddle I'm watching my middle;

I must take care of it soon,

But the job won't be done, and the battle won,

Till my dish runs away with my spoon.

Frequently, when I'm eating in a restaurant, and the waitress asks if I'd like dessert, I tell her that little rhyme, and it brings a laugh.

Thank you for including my anniversary poem with others in your "special" issue (July 26.) I am the widow of Vaun Ogden and a former East Jordan teacher.

Policeman opposes legislation

Editor:

Please add my name to the list of persons opposed to the passage of HB 4720. The bill, submitted by Rep. Cropsey, would drastically change the current method of determining who should carry a pistol concealed on their person.

The Gun Board, as we know it, would be eliminated. CCW (Carrying a concealed weapon) applicants would no longer be required to show a need to carry a concealed weapon, but would receive a permit issued by the Secretary of State, absent a showing that the person had a mental health or criminal history.

Estimates indicate that the legislation has the potential to add 300,000 persons carrying concealed weapons in the initial year of implementation.

We've got some good news and some bad news...

FIRST, THE BAD NEWS:

Our East Jordan office will close this week, on Sept. 29.

The reason is simple: Despite a steady growth in subscriptions and advertising (the essential components for every newspaper's success), there is simply not enough financial support to maintain an office here at this time.

As any good business person knows, when expenses outstrip income, adjustments must be made or the entire venture may be lost.

NOW, THE GOOD NEWS:

Our commitment to the East Jordan area remains unchanged. We will not only continue to publish the only newspaper focused on this community — we will continue to improve it!

For example, in addition to popular features like Sax says ... (a column by East Jordan native Gayle Saxton), Swan City Memories (a pictorial review of the area's past), and Jordan Memories (reader recollections of bygone days) we are currently seeking a sportswriter to bring a fresh focus to our athletic coverage.

And of course, we will continue to provide the in-depth coverage of East Jordan City and School District news that has become the hallmark of this newspaper.

Additionally, to minimize inconvenience for those with advertising needs, questions or comments, our East Jordan phone — 536-0044 — will remain in service. Your clearly identified photographs, articles, etc. can also be dropped off at the EJ Shoppe, 122 Main Street, East Jordan

Re-writing it

A Calendar of Events article in the Sept. 20 issue gave an incorrect location for a free health check-up day, Sept. 30, in Central Lake. The event will take place in the former doctors' office building across from the Central Lake VFW on M-88.

Sheriff reports parking lot crash

The Charlevoix County Sheriff Department investigated a personal injury crash in the K-Mart Plaza parking lot in Charlevoix, Sept. 21.

Banar Singleton, 32, and his wife Christiane, 26, of Charlevoix, were both hospitalized with multiple injuries after they collided head on with a metal and concrete parking sign while driving a 1985 Ford van near the Radio Shack outlet.

Deputy Sgt. Don Sproul reported the couple was transported to Charlevoix Area Hospital. Neither were wearing a seatbelt. The van was totally demolished.

Sproul said the parking lot was not lighted in the area where the crash occurred, and it was raining at the time, approximately 9:50 p.m.

Police commander opposes legislation

National Rifle Association president and United Conservation Club executive director Tom Washington supports HB 4720. He reportedly has said, "An armed society is a polite society."

I disagree with Mr. Washington. Based upon 20 plus years in law enforcement, I do not believe that arming our citizens with concealed weapons will act as a deterrent to crime.

I see few reports of crimes that would have been averted had the victim been carrying a concealed weapon. What I do see are a great many reports (domestic violence, assault and battery, traffic disputes, etc.) where the emotional state of the individual, if combined with a readily obtainable gun, would have made for a far more serious crime, not the prevention of one.

Many, if not most of these, involve alcohol consumption on the part of one or both parties to a dispute, and is yet another factor contributing to an already volatile situation. This factor also raises my concern for the safety of police officers who frequently encounter combative drunk drivers, and the potentially dire consequences that arming these individuals would have.

Grandvue Auxiliary meets for election of officers

Seventeen members of Grandvue Auxiliary met at the facility on Sept. 14. Election of officers was held and the following were installed for the 1995-96 year: president - of Charlevoix will retain her duties for another year.

Helen Deming; vice president - Gloria Grunow; secretary - Linda Mansfield; and treasurer - Jean Korthase. Membership chairman Mary M. Geiken

A program was presented by Cheryl Sothard and Linda Patton of the Grandvue staff. They gave an interesting report on their experiences at the National Workshop for Alzheimer's Disease held in Chicago in July. Those attending the workshop were: Director of Nurses Carol Banfield, S.R.C. Supervisor Linda Patton, R.N. Nancy Carey, Administrator Penny Drury, and Cheryl Sothard and Jeanette Norton of the Activities Department. The auxiliary shared the cost of sending these staff members.

The annual Fall Games Party and Bake Sale will be held at the facility Thurs., Oct. 12, at 2 p.m. Members are requested to bring items for the sale (marked with suggested selling price and identification of the product.) as well as an item for door prizes. Gloria Grunow and Lottie Romanik of Boyne City will be co-chairmen.

obituary

Joyce V. Raymond

Joyce V. Raymond, 78, of East Jordan, died Sept. 24, 1995, at Grandvue Medical Care Facility, East Jordan.

Funeral services were held Sept. 27, at the Paullin Funeral Home, East Jordan. Pastor Lowell L. Anderson of the Charlevoix Assembly of God officiated with interment following at Sunset Hill Cemetery, East Jordan.

Mrs. Raymond was born Oct. 2, 1916, in East Jordan, the daughter of Louis, Sr. and Reva (Porter) Kamradt. On Jan. 1, 1934, in East Jordan, she married Ernest Raymond. He died Jan. 31, 1985.

She was a member of the Charlevoix Assembly of God, and worked 14 years as a nurses aide at Grandvue Medical Care Facility, retiring in 1979. She enjoyed crocheting, traveling, watching TV, and church.

She is survived by eight children, James E. Raymond and his wife Coral of Omaha, Neb., Eleanor J. Chanda and her husband Lawrence of East Jordan, Philip G. Raymond and his wife Betty of Farmington Hills, Linda L. McKay and her husband Clayton of Central Lake, Louis E. Raymond and his wife Sonya of Charlevoix, Duane A. Raymond and his wife Donna of Wyoming, Richard W. Raymond Sr. and his wife Star of East Jordan, and Douglas K. Raymond of East Jordan; 22 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren; one brother, Max Kamradt of East Jordan; two sisters, Ruth Newmann and her husband Eldon of East Jordan, and Dorothy Mayhew and her husband Clifford of East Jordan; as well as numerous nieces and nephews. She was also preceded in death by one son, Charles E. Raymond, in 1965 and one brother, Louis Kamradt, Jr., in 1988.

Memorials may be given to the Charlevoix Assembly of God.

death notice

Faith Gives the Right Answers

TO CHILDREN'S PROBLEMS

We hear many "horror stories" these days about the problems of bringing up children safely. First, there is the issue of child abuse by excessive physical violence, as well as other forms of it. People must learn the difference between physical abuse and acceptable disciplinary measures; as well as how to prevent child abuse and how to report it. Another agonizing situation is often generated by the children themselves: a tendency toward criminal activity. This is said to be caused in part by the influence of the TV programs they watch, which cannot always be controlled by working parents. For good advice and prayers for your children, talk to the clergyman at your House of Worship. You can find no better source of help.

Red Devils sweep week

Powered by Amanda Pepin and her gang of galloping goal-scorers, East Jordan won a game outside the conference, then inside, boosting team morale and setting the stage for a run at the top of the Lake Michigan Division.

Onaway hosted East Jordan Sept. 19, the Red Devils proving they could be unkind visitors by taking a victory. After establishing a 14-7 first quarter lead, the Devils went cold for a quarter, scoring just four points - but in the same span, allowed the Cardinals of Onaway just six!

Still ahead 18-13 at the break, the Devils doubled their score in the third quarter, then protected the lead to the end, 49-37.

Pepin joined Kristi Loviska in the scoring hierarchy, each with a dozen. Pepin also matched Dayle Looze with seven boards apiece.

East Jordan won the JV game.

Another trip north, this time to Harbor Springs, gave the Red Devils a shot at victory within the division, a task they were more than up to.

East Jordan won every quarter, starting with 16-9 in the first and finishing 14-4 in the fourth, to claim the 52-29 win and creep to within a game of front-runner Charlevoix in the division.

Sara Malpass claimed scoring honors with 11 points, with Pepin adding a timely 10.

It took overtime, but the East Jordan JV team won 43-36, thanks to Jenny Falco and her 14 points, Raissa Schroeder with 12.

East Jordan football hopes continued to take a beating as Lake Michigan foe Boyne City enjoyed making the Red Devils pay for their indiscretions Sept. 22.

Boyne City ran for over 300 yards, scored five touchdowns, and limited the Red Devils offensive efforts in winning 36-6 and keeping their record unblemished at 4-0. East Jordan remains out of the win column.

The Red Devils stalwart squad of Luke McLaren, Shane Swan, Steve Burks and Erik Wiltfong could not find the magic touch this outing, but will endeavor to brighten the upcoming parent night contest with Charlevoix Sept. 29.

Varsity football schedule

9-29 (7:30 p.m.) Charlevoix (Parent Night)
 10-6 (7:30 p.m.) Elk Rapids (Homecoming)
 10-13 (7:30 p.m.) Harbor Springs
 10-20 (7:30 p.m.) Bellaire
 10-27 (7:30 p.m.) Kalkaska

(home games in bold)

Devil runners dominate field

East Jordan won all three sections of its own Invitational Sept. 19, topping eight other teams in the process.

The boys ran to a 35-point total, edging out Mancelona, which had 47. Elk Rapids was third with 65, Grayling had 147 for fourth.

Josiah Middaugh ran past the competition, finishing first at 16:58 for the Red Devils. Following him were; Andrew Otis fourth 17:40, Nate Sothard eighth 18:36, Gary Brooks ninth 18:43, Charlie Hague 13th 18:59, Dave Miller 16th 19:18, and Brad Carey 22nd 19:41.

On the girls side, Holly Petkewicz ran second to Central Lake's Amie Shay - Shay winning with 21:31, Petkewicz next in 22:34. The other top Lady Devil runners finishers were Emily Niewendorp sixth 23:23, Renee Perreault 12th 24:43, Anne Salo 13th 24:46, Beth Purvis 19th 26:07.

In the junior high race, Chris Bearden won with a 10:36 timing. Dan Tison was fifth, Micah Middaugh sixth, Kevin Penzien seventh, Tam Leach 10th and Jesse Hahn 12th.

Free health screening offered

Free health screening will be offered Sat., Sept. 30, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the former doctors' office building on the corner of Park and M-88 in Central Lake, across from the V.F.W.

Charlevoix Area Hospital and the Central Lake Lions have teamed up to provide blood pressure, diabetes, and cholesterol tests to anyone over 18 years of age. The tests are free, due in part to a grant from the U.S. Health Care Financing Administration.

Although fasting prior to the tests is not required, it is recommended that participants do not eat or drink anything for 8 to 10 hours prior to the test. However, if you have eaten, it will be taken into account when results are delivered.

The tests are being offered as a part of the Northern Michigan Healthy Heart Coalition's activities throughout northern Michigan. District Health Department No. 3 will be offering cholesterol and blood pressure screening tests at their Charlevoix office on Fri., Sept. 29, from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Cost for the Health Department tests is $10. Contrary to other releases, Charlevoix Area Hospital will not be offering tests in Charlevoix.

Did you know?

More than 41 percent (15.5) million of the 37.7 million Americans age 60 and older performed some form of volunteer work in the past year. The 65-69 and 70-74 age groups have the greatest percentage of volunteers, 46 and 45 percent respectively.

Grief workshop for men

Men who have experienced a loss will have help in dealing with their grief at a special "Men in Grief" workshop Thurs., Oct. 5, from 7 to 9 p.m., in the Charlevoix Area Hospital classroom.

John Chuchman, certified pastoral bereavement counselor of the North Country Hospice, will conduct the workshop. Caregivers, and both men and women in grief are invited. The program is sponsored by Charlevoix County Hospice, District Health Department No. 3, North Country Hospice, and Charlevoix Area Hospital. Please call the Hospice office at 536-2842 if you would like to participate in the free program.

Boating safety course

Charlevoix Coast Guard Auxiliary will offer a course in Boating Skills and Seamanship on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m., beginning Tues., Oct. 17 and ending Nov. 7. Classes will be held at the Great Lakes Gas building at 300 Bay Street, Petoskey.

Cost for the series is $22, which includes a manual and student guide. Included will be such topics as boat handling, safety and legal requirements and navigation rules. For further information call John Hasenko (526-7312) or Roger Tyrrell (536-2417.)

Parenting education and support group

The Women's Resource Center provides a year-round group designed to meet individual parenting needs through discussion, videos, networking, literature and peer support. The group meets on Fridays from 1 to 2 p.m., at the WRC office, 423 Porter Street, Petoskey.

Because subject matters change weekly, parents can come to all or only specific programs. It is necessary to register initially by calling the WRC at 616-347-0067. Cost is based on a sliding fee scale, with scholarships available. On-site child care is also available for children 2 1/2 through 12, however, arrangements and payment must be made by the parent in advance. Children one year or younger may attend the group with parent. For further information or to register, contact the WRC at 616-347-0067.

Blood pressure clinic

The East Jordan Family Health Center's blood pressure clinic will be held Wed., Oct. 4, from 10:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Please register at the upstairs reception areas. This community service is free to the public.

Garden Club elects officers

"Patience, lots of patience. That is the most important element of the art of drying flowers," Addie Richter told the East Jordan Garden Club at their Sept. 17 meeting.

"Pick the day the bees arrive on that flower," was Mrs. Richter's second most important key to dried flowers that retain their blooms. Discussing various methods of drying and which plants were the best for drying answered many questions on this popular craft.

Mrs. Richter's program followed a business meeting in which the record attendance at the August Flower Show, "Endangered Mother Earth," was applauded. Members thanked Marjorie Best for chairing this year's show, which she called "a learning experience." She noted those who had been especially helpful to her.

New officers were elected for 1995-96. They are: president - Shirley Butcher; vice president - Anne Dingman; secretary - Gladys Sattler; and treasurer - Evelyn Gidley. They will be installed at the Oct. 21 meeting. Members thanked outgoing president Thelma McKinnon.

After a question and answer session with Mrs. Richter, the meeting concluded with refreshments, hosted by Jan Birckelbaw and Betty Rison.

Did you know?

Michigan potatoes are grown all the way from Monroe County in southeast Michigan to Iron County in the upper peninsula. When pioneers moved into Michigan, potatoes were one of the first crops planted. In 1780, over 2,800 bushels were planted in Detroit. By 1837, when Michigan became a state, potato fields dotted the map.

Jordan, with two trips on Saturday and one trip on Sunday. Saturday afternoon, trolley riders will have the opportunity to judge a scarecrow competition between merchants in both towns.

While on an hour layover in East Jordan, visitors can enjoy a Merchants Open House both days. Several merchants are planning contests for the weekend, as well as offering special values.

The festival also coincides with the regional and state finals of the Ultimate Cowgirl Pageant, hosted by the Jordan Valley Express Music Center. Regional finals take place at 2 p.m., Saturday afternoon, and Michigan state finals will begin at 8:30 p.m. that evening.

This is the second year the pageant has been hosted by the East Jordan business. It is expected to attract many contestants and visitors from across the region.

The Jordan River Arts Council Gallery, at 301 Main St., will present an exhibit featuring artistic renderings of the Jordan River, as well as other works with a nature or wildlife theme. A closing reception is planned for Sat., Oct. 7, from 2 to 4 p.m.

The Portside Art and Historical Museum will be open to visitors from 1 to 4 p.m., Sat., Oct. 7. The museum, located at Elm Pointe on North M-66, houses a large and varied collection of historical artifacts from the East Jordan area, as well as the gallery of Purchase Prize works of art from the annual Portside Art Fair.

A Leaf Picker's Breakfast at the East Jordan Sno-mobilers Clubhouse on Mt. Bliss Road will help visitors and residents alike start off Sunday with a hearty meal. Breakfast will be served from 8 to 11 a.m.

Wrapping up events Sunday evening, the East Jordan Fire Department will host an Open House from 6 to 8 p.m. The event will help the fire department kick off Fire Prevention Week.

Organizers hope the festival will become an annual event, and perhaps encourage further strengthening of the bonds between East Jordan and Boyne City.

"We know it's to the benefit of both our towns to keep visitors in this county," said Faculak.

Howes pleads guilty to murder

A Schoolcraft woman faces life imprisonment for the murder of an East Jordan man in August, 1994.

Barbara Yolanda Howes pled guilty to second degree murder late Tuesday, Sept. 19, before Judge Richard M. Pajtas of the 33rd Circuit Court in Charlevoix. Howes was charged with open murder and felony firearm possession in connection with the death of Donald Lee Baker, 49, at his Wilson Road home, in Wilson Township.

Baker was found dead by a Charlevoix County sheriff's deputy early in the morning of Aug. 23, 1994. Howes admitted shooting Baker with a shotgun, claiming it was an act of self-defense. The two had broken off a relationship a few days earlier, and Howes said she was returning to the home to pick up her things. She brought the loaded weapon with her.

She was arraigned two days later, and was held on a $100,000 bond. She was not able to obtain release and has been housed at the Charlevoix County Jail since then.

Howes was scheduled to face a jury trial on Oct. 9, but accepted a plea bargain instead. According to prosecuting attorney Mary Beth Kur, if the case had gone to trial with a charge of open murder, the jury would have the option of convicting Howes of first degree murder, second degree murder, or manslaughter.

Charlevoix County Sheriff George T. Lasater was consulted about the plea before Kur accepted. Kur said he agreed the charge of second degree murder was appropriate, "in light of the facts and circumstances surrounding the case."

Conviction on the charge carries a penalty of life, or any term of years. A sentence hearing is set for Mon., Oct. 9, at 9 a.m.

The Homecoming Parade, beginning downtown at 5:30 p.m., will progress to Boswell Field, where the gates open at 6:30 p.m. The Homecoming royalty will be announced at halftime of the 7:30 p.m. varsity football game against the Elk Rapids Elks.

Alumni are welcome to attend the Homecoming Dance at the high school gym, following the game.
