Hundred year-old debate resurfaces

"It's a complete horror over there."

That's how Eveline Township resident Ed Reeves describes the current Charlevoix County facilities in Charlevoix.

And that is why he went before the Charlevoix County Commission at its meeting last week with a request to move the county seat from Charlevoix to Boyne City; or at least to put the question before voters.

Geography was Reeves' biggest concern.

"For people on the east side of the county it's a 60 or 70 mile drive. It just makes sense to have it more centrally located," Reeves said, referring to Boyne City's more central location within the county.

Reeves cited the inconvenience and added costs of having the county seat in the western most part of the county as reasons for his request.

"The parking is terrible, even in the off season. During the busy season you can forget about it," he said.

It isn't the first time the Charlevoix County seat has been under dispute. In the spring of 1885 the county seat was moved to East Jordan. Later that year it was moved to Boyne City. Following several years of controversy, the county seat was eventually returned to Charlevoix in 1897 where it has remained ever since. According to the Charlevoix County Clerk's office, state law requires a two-thirds commission vote to put the issue before the voters.

That means that four of the six county commissioners would have to vote for the matter to go on the ballot. That, however, doesn't seem likely after the reaction Reeves got from the commission last week.

"I felt like I got the cold shoulder," he said.

While few people would dispute that Boyne City is more centrally located than Charlevoix, the greatest obstacle to the move will likely be the cost.

If such a move were approved the county would have to abandon its recently renovated facility in Charlevoix and would be faced with the cost of purchasing new property and a multi-million dollar county complex.

Despite the negative response, Reeves said that he hasn't given up hope. He said that he knows a number of people who support the move to Boyne City. He plans to try to organize those people to research both the costs and legal process involved with moving the seat to Boyne City.

"I'm asking for them to give the people the opportunity to vote on it."

The Charlevoix County Commission will meet next at city hall in Boyne City on May 28 at 7 p.m.

Over the top

East Jordan's Amanda Pepin prepares to clear the first hurdle on her way to a third place finish in the 100 meter event during the regional track meet held at Boswell Field last Saturday. Pepin's finish was good enough to qualify her for the state meet on May 31. Pepin also qualified in the 300 meter hurdles.

Bringin' down the house

Demolition began last week on the rear, one-story portion of the Dahlquist Building at 104 Main St. The portion of the second story rear wall that collapsed when a support beam recently gave way is visible in the upper left-hand corner of the picture.

Stadium fund moved More interest, donations anticipated

The East Jordan School Board authorized the transfer of $31,614.17 in Boswell Stadium Endowment Fund assets to the Charlevoix County Community Foundation Monday night.

School Superintendent Chip Hansen suggested the transfer to the board at a meeting in February. At that time he detailed several reasons why such a move might be beneficial.

Currently the fund, which has a balance of about $34,000, is administered by the board and is invested in Certificates of Deposit which earn about a 5 percent interest rate. The community foundation is a professionally managed fund which has averaged a 12.5 percent annual yield over the past two years.

An additional benefit Hansen cited is the tax credit donations to the Community Foundation would offer to potential donors. The foundation is an approved charitable organization in state and federal tax codes. This means a donation of $200 would only cost an individual $44 after the resulting tax credit.

"With this move we can generate twice the interest income, attract new donors and get the board out of the endowment fund management business," Hansen said.

The endowment fund was established about five years ago to pay for future maintenance of Boswell Stadium with the interest it generates.

The remaining balance will be used to fund the irrigation of the practice field next to the stadium. That project is expected to be completed this summer.

The board also accepted several bids for computer equipment to be used in the new middle school and throughout the district. The bids came in at about $38,000 under budget and will include the purchase of 131 PC's with Intel Pentium 200 processors, 13 printers and a CD-ROM Tower System that can be accessed from any computer terminal in the district.

"We were extremely happy with the prices on these bids," Hansen said.

Festival's Canister Day is Friday

The Jordan Valley Freedom Festival Board will be holding its annual Canister Day on May 23.

Canisters will be set up at FMB Northwestern Bank (both locations), Charlevoix Federal Credit Union, Four Corner Market IGA, and Glen's Market.

Volunteers will also be at five locations throughout the city from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Individuals who donate $5 or more will receive their 1997 Freedom Festival button. Patriotic stickers and festival schedules will be given to all donors.

All proceeds from the Canister Day will go towards the Fireworks fund. The board needs to raise $7,000 for the fireworks display that will take place on June 28 at dusk.

Also, this year's parade will feature more bands than ever before. Therefore, additional band sponsors are needed.

If you would like to sponsor a band, contact Lisa Ernst at 536-7916, or the East Jordan Chamber of Commerce at 536-7351. All festival donations can be sent to Jordan Valley Freedom Festival, P.O. Box 435, East Jordan, Mich., 49727.

The Jordan Valley Freedom Festival Board will meet Thursday, May 22, in the Lakeview Manor Meeting Room at 6 p.m. All board members are asked to attend.

Little league pitcher fans 17

The East Jordan Little League Majors may have a future Roger Clemens in their midst. Last Saturday 12-year-old Jon Reese of Burnette Foods struck out 17 batters on the way to a 5-2 victory.

Accounting for all but one out in the six inning game, Jon allowed only one hit and walked just two. The lone hit was an inside-the-park home run.

EJHS on cutting edge with technology class

Jerry Hawes has taught Vocational Business at East Jordan High School for the past 19 years, but this year he volunteered to take on a new challenge with the new Applied Manufacturing Technology class.

For Hawes it was like starting all over again. He was now faced with a mountain of new hardware, software and a new curriculum to teach. And he only had a couple of weeks to get ready before the beginning of school last fall.

"Probably the biggest challenge is learning all the modules which cover a wide range of subjects," Hawes said.

A wide range indeed. The class uses 13 computers each with a different emphasis (module) including Multimedia Production, Laser and Fiber Optics, Road Transportation, Construction and Cad, Power and Energy, Engineering and Structures, Waste Management, Manufacturing and Automation, Aerodynamic Design, Desktop Publishing, Electronic Control Systems, CNC Mill, CNC Lathe.

"The goal of the class is to give students exposure to a wide variety of manufacturing technologies," Hawes said.

Students normally work in groups of two or three on each station and typically spend 15, 80-minute sessions on each section.

Hawes said that most students will be able to get to nearly all the stations.

Students keep both written and electronic logs of the work that they do in each module.

The program is not limited to the computers, though, as nearly every section has its own "hands-on" kit to go with it.

The program's $100,000 price tag was funded in part by the recent bond issue, Char-Em Voc-Ed funds and the district's general fund.

In recognition of his efforts with the new program, Hawes was recently presented with a plaque from Great Lakes Training System, the company who installed the computer system.

The program is the first of its kind in any high school in the state. Hawes said that there has been a great deal of interest from other districts.

"We've had at least a dozen schools come through and look at what we've done," he said.

Hawes said that the school plans to eventually offer the class as a 10th grade elective. Students can then use the class as a springboard into more specialized classes in their 11th and 12th grade years.

"Overall the program is going well. It's really starting to come together. I'm learning as we go."

East Jordan High School Technology Education teacher Jerry Hawes was presented with a plaque from Great Lakes Training Systems in recognition of his efforts in the school's new program which is the first of its kind in the state.

Has the meaning of Memorial Day been lost?

By ANDY ANDRICK

Has Memorial Day, this special day of remembrance, been lost on the American people? Many veterans believe so. It's a sacred day to all war veterans; none need to be reminded of the reason why Memorial Day must be commemorated.

But what about the general public, and more importantly, future generations? Do most non-veterans really recognize the importance of May 30?

Changing the date merely to create a three-day weekend has undermined the very meaning of the day. No doubt, this has contributed greatly to the general public's nonchalant observance of Memorial Day.

Judging from what Memorial Day has become — simply another day off from work — the answer is a resounding no. Perhaps a reminder is due then. And it is the duty of each and every veteran to relay the message.

Sacrifice is meaningless without remembrance. America's collective consciousness demands that all citizens be aware of and recall on special occasions the deaths of their fellow countrymen during war time.

Far too often, the nation as a whole takes for granted the freedoms all Americans enjoy. Those freedoms were paid for with the lives of others few of us actually knew. That's why they are all collectively remembered on one special day.

This should be regarded as civic obligation. For this is a national debt that can only be truly repaid by individual Americans. By honoring the nation's war dead, we preserve their memory and thus their service and sacrifice in the memories of future generations.

They came from all walks of life and regions of the country. But they all had one thing in common: love of and loyalty to country. This bond cemented ties between them in times of trials, allowing a diverse lot of Americans to achieve monumental ends.

We remember the loss of loved ones, a sense of loss that takes group form. In essence, America is commemorating those who made the greatest sacrifice possible — giving one's life.

Means of paying tribute vary, pausing for a few moments of personal silence is available to everyone.

Attending commemorative ceremonies is the most visible way of demonstrating remembrance. Placing flags at gravesites, marching in parades, sponsoring patriotic programs, dedicating memorials and wearing buddy poppies are examples.

Whether done individually or collectively, it is the thought that counts. Personal as well as public acts of remembering are the ideal. Public displays of patriotism are essential if the notion of remembering war dead is to be instilled in the young.

As America's 12 million war veterans fast disappear from society's landscape, there are fewer and fewer standard bearers left to carry the torch of remembrance. Such traditions will live on only if there is a vibrant movement to which that torch can be passed.

A MOM'S LIFE

Young boys, there's nothing quite like them

By CINDI PLACE

There's something really special about little boys.

Maybe it's their unique sense of humor and the way they view life in general. Or it could be that you can usually know what they are thinking just by watching their facial expressions. I suppose all children have some of these characteristics, but I find them especially prevalent in our three young sons.

Where our daughter would automatically shy away from gooey, gross things like snakes, bugs and green slime, our sons, on the other hand, find these same features exciting. I can remember several episodes where the boys took great delight in chasing their only sister around the house with some disgusting rubber creature. And we have an awful lot of those things around here. What, I wonder, ever happened to GI Joe and Snoopy toys?

And, have you noticed that boys have a distinctly different aroma? It's sort of a combination of dirt, sweat and the smell of being outside. I love hugging those guys just after they've played a game of basketball. It's like you can inhale all their energy in one big sniff!

I love watching our youngest son playing by himself, or rather with his entourage. He will gather all the creatures, alive and otherwise, that he can find and then create a kingdom of his own. This little guy can carry on a conversation with just about anything. The other day I found him nose-to-nose with our pet beagle, hanging on to the poor dog's head so that he had the animal's undivided attention. The beagle kept trying to turn away, but whatever was on the child's mind, he intended to make his point clear before he let the animal free.

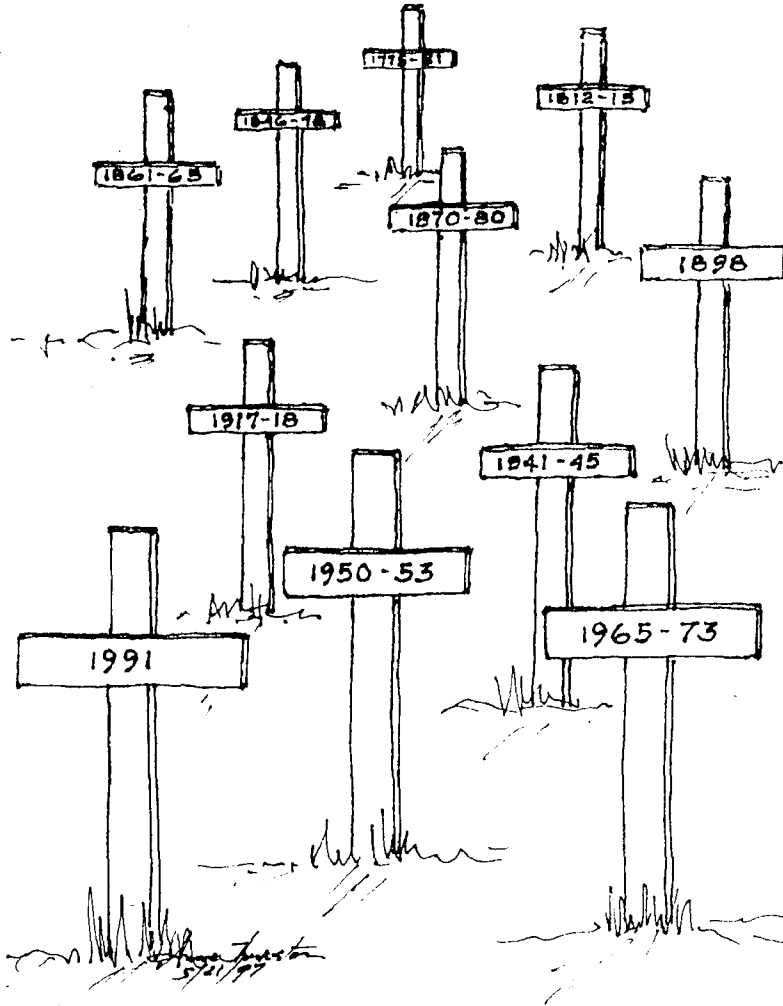

I've never seen such a sad look on such a silly dog! Of course, minutes later when our son headed into the kitchen for a snack, his faithful companion wasn't far behind.

That's another thing that amazes me about our sons. The amount of food they can consume in a short amount of time is terrifying. I can remember when ordering dinner from a fast food restaurant was just that...fast. Now, it actually takes considerable amount of time to place our order.

I should have had some warning of things to come when one of our sons was only a few years old. He had a habit of waking up in the middle of the night, hungry. We tried serving him a pretty hefty snack just before he went to bed, but he would still wake up at 2 a.m. searching for food. In utter self-preservation, and because I really needed my sleep, I began making a peanut butter and jelly sandwich and leaving it wrapped on my night stand. After that, until the child could sleep walk to the kitchen himself, he would come into our bedroom, wolf down his snack and quietly return to bed. Talk about midnight feedings!

Watching our boys grow up has been an exciting and challenging experience. Their differences make them so very interesting. Every day, as I enjoy their enthusiasm for life and revel in the way they see everything as a challenge, I also pray that they will grow up to become wonderful young men and lead full, productive lives. And that they never quite forget how to be little boys.

THE PRICE OF OUR FREEDOM

Reflecting on the school bond election

TO THE EDITOR:

Disappointed, yes. Discouraged, No. Some wise person said once, "Nothing worthwhile is ever easy." And so it is with the effort to help the young people of Boyne City receive an education that will serve them in THEIR lifetime.

The Community Group has heard the reasons behind the "NO's" and have seen the lack of motivation on the part of those who believe "YES" but fail to exercise their right to be a registered voter and to vote their belief.

The Community Group wants the children and youth of Boyne City schools to know that they will pursue the vote until a better education is in place for each of them. It also wants the parents of those children to know that the Community Group stands behind them in recognizing the changes that must occur within the Boyne City schools to allow the upgrading of their education. The Community Group remains responsible to the many seniors who, having received their education at someone else's expense, believe in the need for education, including continuing education for themselves, even though it must be paid for through taxation.

The Community Group is deeply appreciative of Gen Varnum and all those who answered her call to work with the electorate. The Community Group also is very grateful for those community members, groups and businesses who dug down in their pockets to finance all of the Group's mailings and printings. For despite what is believed by many in the community, neither the school's administration nor its Board of Education contributed one penny to the Community Group. Nor did they in any way orchestrate its decisions or its efforts.

This has been entirely a community effort and will continue to be. The Community Group's interest in the education of our youth in no way reflects an endorsement of the current administration nor of all members of the Board of Education.

The Community Group's goal remains the same. It is now actively setting in place a second opportunity for the electorate to vote for improved education for its youth. In light of the ever-escalating cost of building, time is important. The Group is dedicated to continue its work with the Paullin Group to bring an improved education to every child in the Boyne City School District.

An unexpected act of kindness restores faith

BY STEVE ZUCKER

"Kids these days!!" is an expression uttered by adults with a frequency seemingly proportionate to the person's age. Often statements of this nature are merely a symptom of what has come to be known as the generation gap; a phenomenon that has likely existed as long as humans have.

But in recent years it has gone to another level. So often we hear in the media, at the local coffee shop, or in our own conversations, talk about how today's youth are disrespectful, irresponsible, and lacking manners, integrity, and morals.

But then it isn't all that surprising when we constantly see and hear stories about drugs, gangs, teen pregnancy, poor scholastic performance, and juvenile delinquency.

These problems certainly exist, and certainly pose a considerable threat to today's kids, but often it seems to be all we hear about.

I, too, have been known to have a cynical opinion or two on the subject; but my faith in the future was restored somewhat last Tuesday morning when I walked into a local convenience store for a healthy breakfast of — well I'd rather not say.

When I brought my items to the counter, a thorough and repeated search of my wallet revealed, much to my chagrin, that I was without cash.

I stepped back to allow the others waiting in line to pay while I made another fruitless search of my wallet and pockets. As I joked with the clerk about my embarrassment and was just about to return my items to the shelf, a young man, perhaps 13 or 14, who had been in line behind me politely said, "Excuse me sir, do you need some money?" as he offered me two dollars from his wallet.

Surprised by the lad's offer, I replied, "That's O.K., but I appreciate the offer. Thanks!"

As I left the store somewhat embarrassed and still hungry, I thought about how uplifting it was to encounter this type of charity. What made the offer noteworthy wasn't the magnitude, but rather the sincerity; especially from someone of that age. At the same time, it occurred to me what a shame it is that this type of behavior is noteworthy because it is (or is perceived to be) the exception rather than the rule.

"Kids these days," indeed.

Can't the city do 'just a little bit more'

TO THE EDITOR:

This is a letter to protest the time it has taken to repair Groveland Street. The street has been torn up since Nov. 1, 1996. No one has worked on the street in the last couple of weeks. It is almost impossible to drive down it in a car. The bumps, ruts, and pot holes have wreaked havoc on everyone's car who lives on the street, let alone the people who just drive down the road. Most people have had to have new exhausts put on their cars, front end alignments and all other kinds of repairs. This letter is a letter of protest with signatures of people living on Groveland. Please do something to correct this problem. Six months of bad roads is just a LITTLE TOO MUCH!!! We've been told that the city is doing the best they can. Let's try to do JUST A LITTLE BIT MORE.

School-to-Work is the way to go

TO THE EDITOR:

I am enclosing a letter to the editor from Saturday's issue - 5/10/97 - of the Traverse City Record Eagle. This mirrors exactly what I think our school system should be promoting.

The following figures are generally accepted as being about right: 65 percent of high school graduates go directly into the labor/service force. The other 35 percent go on to higher education. Out of this 35 percent about 20 percent will finally end up in the professions. The other 15 percent will find their way back to the labor/services force making this force about 80 percent of the graduates.

Now if the school administrator, Community Groups and school boards are truly interested in helping ALL the students they might pick up this ball and run with it. They could count on at least 65 percent support but really should get 80 percent or even the full 100 percent.

Keep the above figure in mind as you read Matt Meador's excellent letter.

Everett K. Sayles

Thank you for the two Record-Eagles articles about the School-to-Work initiative "Great workers" of April 17 and "Learning the mechanics of a career" of April 18. In the first article, a student said "It is really good experience for us. I think all students should have something like this." It is important to note that all students do have access to programs like this through the regional School-to-Work Initiative. The second article discussed the new Automotive Technology program. This program is also part of School-to-Work, although this was not mentioned.

The School-to-Work Initiative is a partnership between business, labor, government, education and community organizations that helps prepare students for the future through career exploration and on-the-job training experiences. School-to-Work encourages career exploration and preparedness for all students, regardless of age or academic level. It is beneficial for all students to explore careers and determine where their interests lie before their first day on the job.

Learning first hand what talents and skills are needed for different careers, through mentoring, job shadows and internships, students gain an appreciation for the applicability of their academic subjects and may become more motivated once awakened to the relevancy. Students who are goal-oriented and know where their interests lie will be more attractive candidates for college admission and jobs and are more likely to succeed in both these settings. School-to-Work empowers students and helps them find their niche in the working world.

Businesses benefit as well, as students become more familiar and competent in the working world. Each year over $30 billion is spent training and retraining employees, and this staggering number could be decreased through an educational focus on career exploration.

We urge parents, educators, community members, and businesses to support the regional School-to-Work Initiative and to encourage all students to participate.

Matt Meador, executive director. School-to-Work Initiative

Will Friday the 13th be lucky for you?

Charlevoix Hospice auction this year has the usual plus a beautiful 'black cat'

How lucky do you feel?

Charlevoix County Hospice hopes you feel good enough to challenge suspicion by attending its annual fundraiser on Friday, June 13th at Boyne Mountain.

This year's event, besides falling on Friday the 13th, will be highlighted by an opportunity to win an elegant, black 1949 Jaguar.

"The evening's auction activities will build a crescendo of excitement with bidding on donations of art, entertainment, services and manufactured goods from area commerce and artisans," said Margaret Lasater, executive director of Hospice.

The big moment will be drawing the winning raffle ticket for the Jaguar. Only 200 tickets are being sold. Each ticket costs $100.

"The Hospice auction always mixes fun and surprises with the concern for a serious cause," Lasater said. "There is something for everyone: door prize raffles, an extensive silent auction, and an energetic and varied live auction. There are plenty of munchies and a cash bar to keep bidder energy levels up."

The auction begins at 5 p.m. Tickets are $15, and can be purchased at Boyne Country Books in Boyne City, The Clothing Company in Charlevoix, and Busy Bridge Gifts and Antiques in East Jordan, or hospice volunteers and board members. For more information about the auction or Jaguar drawing, call the Hospice office at 536-2842.

Legion has a fresh paint job

Ernest Peterson Post #228 of the American Legion is sporting a bright new interior paint job thanks to the generosity of several Boyne City businesses.

The paint was donated by the Paint Depot, owned by Patti and Jon Jasinski, and the Benjamin Moore Paint Company.

Jim and Janet Shepherd of Shepherd's Painting donated their services painting the interior of the Hall. Their helpers were Jeff Shepherd and Jeff Froate.

Certificates of appreciation were presented to all volunteers.

Horton Bay UMC men leading fundraising efforts for sniffer-tracker dog

Horton Bay United Methodist Men are working with area churches to raise money for the purchase of a "sniffer-tracker" dog used to find lost children or fugitive individuals in Charlevoix County.

The dog presently working will soon be retiring. The estimated cost for a new dog is $5,500.

If you are interested in helping, contact John Harrison at 3839 St. Louis Club Road, Petoskey, 348-8210, or Ed Williamson at 05587 Boyne City Road, Charlevoix, 547-6388.

Plays picked for children's theatre festival

Three new plays — all fairy tales — have been selected for Jordan River Arts Council's sixth annual children's theatre festival to be presented at East Jordan High School this summer.

"The Real and Rightful Princess," a musical based on Grimms' "The Good Girl," is scheduled for performances on June 19, 20 and 22. The script and music were written by Massachusetts playwrights and composers Shari Ajemian Craig and Sarah Newcomb. Terri Warnos will be the director.

"The Happiest Kingdom," also a musical, will be performed on Aug. 7, 8 and 10. The script and music, written by the late Phyllis Mann, were submitted to JRAC's play writing competition by the playwright's daughter, Cathy Nowka of East Jordan. The play was previously produced as a school production in Plymouth. Adele Sell will be the director.

"The Poet Who Wouldn't Be King," by Grosse Pointe playwright Maria Menozzi, will be performed on Sept. 18, 19 and 21. Abbey Adler will be the director.

The winning scripts were selected from new and unpublished plays submitted from playwrights around the United States and Canada. They have been cast with more than fifty child and teenage actors who recently auditioned for the three directors.

The productions will be partially funded by the Michigan Council for the Arts and Cultural Affairs, the Cheboygan Area Arts Council and the Malpass Family Fund.

Dear FMB Customers,

As you know, FMB will become a part of Huntington Bancshares, Inc., in the fall. Here's what it will mean for you.

First, you'll continue to experience the positive aspects of FMB because Huntington shares our values, our spirit, and our commitment to customers.

The headquarters of the new Michigan region of Huntington will be located in Grand Rapids. So, you will still be able to

- bank with your familiar community bankers, the people you've come to know and trust.
- get local decision-making on loans and product pricing, right here in Michigan, where you live and work.
- enjoy the benefits of our Honest Value, straightforward approach to everything we do.

In addition to all the smart reasons why you chose to bank with FMB, you'll see significant improvements in three key areas:

1. You will have more ways to bank. From Niles to Sault Ste. Marie, from Holland to Detroit, you'll have 133 places to do your banking. Finding an ATM, for example, will be even easier. You'll also be able to do your banking through our expanded web site.

2. You will have more financial products to choose from. For example, the Huntington Access Account increases convenience and easy access to money for busy, active people. Business customers will enjoy the benefits of greatly expanded cash management and international banking capabilities.

3. You will benefit from the lending capabilities of a larger company. For example, a higher legal lending limit will allow us to better serve the borrowing needs of our business customers.

We've been very successful, due in large part to your support, and we thank you. We chose to affiliate with Huntington because it puts us in a stronger position to deliver the best in financial products and services to you now and in the future. I am confident that as this affiliation takes shape, you will continue to see our combined solid commitment to the community.

For now, you don't need to do anything. We will talk with you regularly to make sure you're aware of the new opportunities coming your way. However, we will be happy to answer any questions you may have. You can call us at 1-800-FMB-8458 or stop in and talk to your FMB banker.

Sincerely,

David M. Ondersma

Library expands summer hours

By NANETTE MILLER

The Boyne District Library has set its hours for the summer. The library will be open more evenings, and for the first time in many years, on Friday. Starting Tuesday, May 27, its hours will be: Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m.-8 p.m.; Friday and Saturday, 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

Be sure to stop in at the library to fill out a Library Services Survey. As we plan for the future we want to know what the community would like the library to provide. Many exciting changes are taking place already, with many more in progress. We have received a grant for a public use Internet access computer, which should be arriving soon. We have begun work on the automation project, and have been working on sprucing up the appearance of the library.

The children's Summer Reading Program registration is going on now. The program will kick off on June 21 with "Kite Day," where each child will learn about kites and actually build a kite to take home. Pre-registration is required. A new addition to the program this year is Reading Bingo for children age 10 and older. Call or come in to the library to find out more details.

A big "Thank You" to all of the faithful volunteers who helped make the Book Sale a success. Another Book Sale will be held during Sidewalk Sales in July.

(Nanette Miller is the librarian for the Boyne District Library.)

One of the features of Mike and Mary Long's new home is a deck which overlooks the Boyne River. The Building Trades Class will host an open house May 28 from 4-9 p.m. The home is located at 810 State St.

BCHS BUILDING TRADES CLASSES HAVE HELPED WITH MANY HOMES BUT NONE LIKE THIS

Students find a real challenge

For 28 years, the Boyne City High School building trades class has been building houses in the community.

But none of the previous 27 houses compare to the home students have been working on this year.

"This by far is the biggest and most challenging," said Tom Neidhamer, instructor of the building trades class.

The home is owned by Mike and Mary Long, and Nord Schroeder is the contractor. Students in the building trades class have worked on the house since the beginning of the school year and will continue until school ends. The home is not yet complete, but the Longs hope to move in sometime next month.

The building trades program will host an open house on Wednesday, May 28, from 4-9 p.m. at the Longs' home, located at 810 State St. in Boyne City.

The contemporary home is 3,800 square feet, has four bedrooms, three bathrooms, a spacious kitchen and dining area, a master bedroom suite, a full-size walk-out basement, a two-car attached garage, and a spectacular view of the Boyne River.

With a styrofoam block basement, in-floor radiant heat, and 6-inch walls, the custom home is also very energy efficient.

Between 20 and 23 students, including two from East Jordan, have worked on the home during the year. They work for 2 1/2 hours in the morning and then return to school. Unlike building trades programs at other schools where students work in a classroom environment, the BCHS program offers students on-site training.

"Students get a real-world experience," Schroeder said.

Students literally learn from the bottom up, starting with the foundation, to framing to finish work. What work students, under the direction of Schroeder and Neidhamer, can't do, is subcontracted out. Usually that includes plumbing, heating and electrical, but this year students installed the in-floor heating system and it was their first year of working on a basement.

"Every year students work on a unique aspect of building," Neidhamer said.

The public is invited to attend the open house. "This has been a real accomplishment for the class," he said.

Exchange program looking for homes for students this summer

Would your family like to learn about another culture this summer?

If so, Lois Haske of Southfield and Boyne City has a program that may interest you. Haske is a local representative for Nacel, an organization that has been operating a student exchange program in the United States and Europe since 1957.

The organization, which began as an exchange between English students in New York and France, takes its name from the French word "nacelle" which means the basket of a hot air balloon, and is intended to represent the adventurous spirit of the program's participants.

Last summer more than 4,000 Nacel exchange students were hosted by American Families. The students are mostly between the ages of 15-18 and most are from France and Spain. The students typically spend four weeks with a host family in July or August. All of the students speak English.

The only cost for host families is room and board. Students bring their own spending money.

Haske said, "It's a really great opportunity for both the host families and the students."

The program also offers opportunities for American students to become exchange students as well. Haske said that spots are still available for this summer.

For more information, or if you are interested in becoming a host family, contact Lois Haske at 582-2285.

BUSINESS

Helen Thomason is the owner of Nature and Co., located at 104 S. Lake St. in downtown Boyne City.

Nature and Co. opens with a world of discovery and science

One of the greatest assets for residents in Charlevoix County is the abundance of nature that surrounds us. Indeed, it is the reason that many people chose to live in and visit this area.

Whether you are a nature lover who is looking for new ways to learn about the environment or a parent looking for ways to make learning about nature and science fun for your children, beginning May 23, Boyne City's Helen Thomason may have just what you are looking for. That's the day when she will be opening her new business, Nature and Co. at 104 S. Lake St. in Boyne City.

Thomason's establishment will feature nature and environmental products, science and discovery projects, stunt kites, teaching supplies and natural wonders as well as rain forest jewelry, stuffed animals, aroma therapy, astronomy and space, telescopes and microscopes.

Although the store's main focus is feeding the mind, Thomason hasn't forgotten food for the body. While visiting the store, patrons can relax with a cup of coffee from Roast-n-Toast of Petoskey, a slice of pie from Traverse City Pies or a Broadway Bagel.

Once the business gets going Thomason plans on hosting special events contests and workshop which will include such things as designing and racing balloon powered model cars, dissecting owl pellets and several activities in coordination with the Raven Hill Discovery Center. She also plans on offering conferences for teachers.

Thomason, who moved to Boyne City in February from Springfield, Ohio, says that her interest in science and education springs from her extensive background in education. While living in Springfield she taught fourth grade and later became an elementary school principal.

She added that she got the idea for a nature store from similar stores in Ohio that she and her children often visited.

"The whole idea of the store is to make science fun," she said. Nature and Co. is open Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m.-8:30 p.m. and Sunday from 1-5 p.m.

Pam Greetis buys Moes Gallery

Pam Greetis never thought about buying Moes Gallery in downtown Boyne City until someone made the suggestion to her one day.

She didn't think about it too long before deciding to do it. "It just seemed like the right thing to do," Greetis said. So she left her job with the city several weeks ago and went into the art gallery business.

"I have no regrets about it," said Greetis, who worked five years as a secretary for the city. "It's all falling into place. The support has been incredible."

And most importantly, "it's fun."

Greetis purchased the gallery and framing shop from Boyne City artist Deneille Spohn Moes, who started the business about five years ago. The two Boyne City natives were classmates in school and graduated in 1976. Deneille's work will still be on display at the gallery.

The name of the business has been changed to Lighthouse Gallery and Gifts. It's located at 113 Front St. and is open daily, except Tuesdays, from 10 a.m.-8 p.m.

The Boyne City Area Chamber of Commerce will welcome the Lighthouse Gallery with a ribbon cutting on Thursday, May 22, at 4 p.m. A grand opening is Saturday, May 24, from 10 a.m.-8 p.m.

The gallery, Greetis said, will try to emphasize local artists, giving them a place to display and sell their work. Lighthouse Gallery also does framing and matting.

After five years working at city hall, Pam Greetis has taken on a new challenge at the Lighthouse Gallery.

Residents at Grandvue Medical Care Facility enjoyed champagne and hors d'oeuvres while they listened to the musical stylings of the Rhythm Kings at the Senior Prom last Friday night. The theme of the evening was "Springtime in Paris."

A true 'senior prom'

Grandvue residents celebrate 'Springtime in Paris'

A mid-May snow may have been coming down outside the windows, but spring was in the hearts of residents at South Arm Township's Grandvue Medical Care Facility as they hosted their very own "Senior Prom" last Friday evening.

With the theme "Springtime in Paris," the prom marked the culmination of Nursing Home Week.

The evening began with a prime rib dinner followed by music and dancing in the activity room. The music was provided by the Rhythm Kings trio who took requests throughout the evening.

With help from several area merchants, the ladies got ready for the big evening with professional make-up and hair styling, and wore corsages and formal gowns while the gentlemen got shaves and haircuts and sported their snazziest duds and boutonnières.

Throughout the week residents enjoyed several events including a Mother's Day Tea, an antique show, an antique car show, an indoor mushroom hunt, and activities with Boyne City second graders.

Grandvue Activity Director Cheryl Sothard said, "The idea for this came from the residents. We had a dinner theater here last year and the residents really enjoyed that. We are really grateful for all the area businesses and individuals who helped us out on this."

NEIGHBORS

By NANCY NORTHUP

A NOTE OF BEAUTIFUL penmanship came in this week, telling me about a recent and enjoyable visit by Harold and Lucy Price, as they spent a few days in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, with their daughter, Penny Petrusky and her family. Some of their good times were spent attending baseball games, in which their grandson, Ryan Petrusky, played. During one of the games, it is believed that he set a school record by hitting 3 home runs. Each one went 400 feet. Ryan is a 6 foot, 180 pound sophomore, who is currently hitting .470.

LITZENBURGER PLACE residents extend heartfelt sympathies to the families of their former neighbor, Barbara Magee, who died this past Saturday at the Boulder Park Terrace in Charlevoix.

BETHEL BYE and daughter Sherry Bye Stock were among those attending the May 10 mother and daughter dinner, which was hosted by the East Jordan Lion's club. Bethel and Sherry are the wife and daughter of this year's club president, Cliff Bye. Another highlight of the evening - a four-generation gathering was celebrated, with the attendance of Bethel's sister-in-law, Betty Grosser of Ellsworth, her daughter, Darlene Bolser of East Jordan, and her daughter Melanie Fehrlen and daughter Victoria Fehrlen!

B.C.H.S. GRADUATE of the class of 1997, Jessica Bryan, was honored with an open house by her parents, Bob and Judy Bryan this past Sunday. In spite of the nasty weather, there was a great turnout of family and friends for a fun time under the tent. Future plans for Jessica are continuing her job at the Country Star for another year, with tentative plans of then attending Grand Rapids Community College.

LARRY WILLIAMS of Boyne City was scheduled to undergo surgery at Northern Michigan Hospital on Tuesday.

ELSIE KLEINSCHRODT, formerly of Litzenburger Place, is now a resident of Grandvue.

HERB AND BETTY GRIFFIN returned to their East Jordan home over the weekend after a vacationing visit with relatives in Missouri. Unfortunately, Herb was hospitalized while there, due to a heart attack and surgery. They made the trip home in three days, with their son doing the driving. Cliff made the trip okay but will be needing further treatment.

A "WELCOME TO LITZENBURGER PLACE!" goes out to Amanda Sue Evans, who moved in over the weekend.

ANNE JENKINS and daughter Myra returned over the weekend, after wintering in Florida. Leaving Zephyrhills, Anne joined Myra in New Orleans for a few days of sight seeing and they continued on to Branson, Mo. and took in a few shows, before traveling on for visits in Kansas and also in Anne's home town in Minnesota as well as many other places, before stopping at daughter June and Jim Morey's home in Ionia, before the last stop of Kuzmic Road...and happy to be home!

MARY BROWN of Boyne City, returned to the Charlevoix Area Hospital this past week.

IT WAS THE WEDNESDAY after Mother's Day and they all came. Around 90 of the young and old attended the Mother's Day Supper at the United Methodist Church in Horton Bay. The delicious meal was prepared by Mary Rickard and her daughter-in-law, Angie, and served by the men of the church. Guest speaker was the well known area artist, Denielle Moes, who explained her success as the results of her daydreams. It was also an evening of church awards. A new award, the Shining Light, which honors work done in the church and in the community, was presented to Rita Johnecheck, and special missionary awards for 25 years of service, went to Irene Johnecheck, of Camp Daggett Road, and Betty Bradley of Horton Bay Road.

VERSA FINEOUT of Walloon Lake still remains a patient at Northern Michigan Hospital.

ANOTHER "AFTER MOTHER'S DAY" event was held on Friday night at the Boyne City Free Methodist Church. There were 54 enjoying the colorful decorations and program of the Lavender & Lace Tea.

GEORGE HUTZLER and Gail were initiated to their Michigan return from Florida this past week as they drove through "snow in the air" in Lake City, as they made it home to Boyne City!

GARY AND MAXINE ARGETSINGER of East Jordan celebrated his birthday over the weekend by attending the special Bill Cosby Show held in the Soo!

ALBERT NAHINU JR., son of Albert and Lei Nahinu of Petoskey and grandson of Andrew and Jo Kipapa of Boyne City was dedicated this past Sunday at the Trinity Fellowship Church, with Pastor Paul Wise officiating. Attending god-parents were Jeff and Kim Ferguson. A family celebration dinner followed, at the Kipapa home.

WILLIS PLANCK of Walloon Lake is recuperating at his home after being hospitalized this past week in Petoskey, due to a stroke.

Pitchers throw their best stuff

When two strong pitchers go to the mound, the bats usually go quiet.

That's what happened at Alpena last Friday when Boyne City traveled east to face the Class A school.

In game one, Alpena defeated the Ramblers 5-1, while in game two Boyne City lost 1-0.

The second game of the twin bill was a classic pitchers' duel. On the mound for the Ramblers was Jason Richards and for Alpena it was Ryan Krueger.

Richards allowed only two hits over five innings, struck out five and did not allow a walk. Krueger was equal to the task, allowing only two hits, one to Jason Richards and the other to Dean Fiel, while striking out nine and walking one.

In game one, Don Richards was on the mound for Boyne City and took the loss. He went 5 2/3 innings, allowed six hits and walked one. Doug Archey came on in relief and pitched 1 1/3 innings.

Boyne City had four hits in the game, led by Jason Richards with a single and double and the team's only RBI. Don Richards and Derek Price also singled. The difference in the game was two, two-run homers by Alpena.

While the weather was less than cooperative last week, Boyne City did manage to play Charlevoix last Tuesday and the Ramblers earned a sweep, winning 5-1 and 6-2.

In game one, the Ramblers took an early lead on Matt Dhaseleer's two-run home run in the second inning. They increased their lead in the third when Don Richards doubled in two runs and then scored. Doug Archey singled in Boyne's final run in the fifth.

Jason Richards was the winning pitcher for the Ramblers, allowing only three hits, striking out eight and walking one.

Offensively for the Ramblers, Don Richards had two singles and a double, while Jeremy Andrews, Dean Fiel and Doug Archey each had a single.

In game two, Don Richards was the winning pitcher. He allowed eight hits, struck out four and walked one.

Don Richards also helped his cause at the plate with a double and a single and two RBIs, while Jeremy Andrews, Dean Fiel, Jason Richards, Wade Liest, Derek Price, and Scott Karaszewski each had a single.

The Ramblers, now 13-6, were scheduled to be back in action Tuesday, hoping to make-up a rain date with Elk Rapids. On Thursday they host Onaway and Friday they host East Jordan.

Molly Bricker looks smooth as rounds the corner on her leg in the 3200m relay at Saturday's regional meet hosted by East Jordan.

Red Devils qualify 6 for state meet

Five members of the East Jordan Girls Track Team qualified for the state meet in four events as the team took seventh at the Regional Track Meet held at Boswell Field on Saturday.

Amanda Pepin qualified in both the 100 meter hurdles and the 300 meter hurdles, taking third and fifth respectively.

Jenny Goebel jumped 5-0 in the high jump to secure her spot at the state meet. Goebel's was the lone first place finish for the Lady Red Devils on the day.

The 1600 meter relay team of Goebel, Jenny Falco, Jennifer Doebel, and Catey Moses also qualified for the state meet placing fifth and setting a new school record with a time of 4:19.65.

Suzi Malpass also performed well, taking fifth in the 100 meter hurdles and sixth in the 300 meter hurdles. Pepin took fourth in the long jump, and Moses took fifth in the 400 meter dash.

"Getting five girls to qualify in four events for the State Meet makes the coaches very proud," said East Jordan coach Dennis Snarey. "Our 1600 meter relay team ran a personal best by 10 seconds."

In preparation for the regionals, 12 area schools competed at the East Jordan Rotary Invitational Track meet last Wednesday. The East Jordan Girls team finished third with 73 points behind Harbor Springs with 80 and Inland Lakes with 79.

Amanda Pepin continued to shine as she took first and set a new meet record in the 100 meter hurdles with a time of 16.52, took first in the long jump, 15-2.75, second in the 100 meter dash, 13.42, and second in the 300 meter low hurdles, 51.60.

Jenny Goebel took first in the high jump, 5-0.

Suzi Malpass took third in the 100 meter hurdles, 17.47 and the 300 meter low hurdles, 52.72.

Catey Moses took third in the 200 meter dash, 28.38.4, and fourth in the 400 meter dash, 1:05.72.

Holly Petkewicz took fifth in the 3200 meter run, 13:32.49.

The 1600 and 800 meter relay teams finished fifth and sixth respectively.

The lone state qualifier from the boys team was Jim Malpass who tied for second place in the high jump.

The state meet will be held on May 31 in Comstock Park. The conference meet will be held at Boswell Stadium on Wednesday.

EJ hosts softball, baseball tourneys

In the district draw for baseball and softball tournament held at East Jordan High School on Monday, Charlevoix will face Mancelona in pre-district action on May 27 at 4 p.m.

The winner of that game will face Boyne City on Saturday, May 31. The winner of that game will meet the winner of the East Jordan-Harbor Springs game for the District Championship.

All games will be played in East Jordan.

WEATHER KEEPS THEM IDLE

Lady Ramblers split, then sit

The Lady Ramblers earned a split with host Charlevoix last Tuesday by coming back with an 11-4 win in the nightcap after dropping the opener, 4-3. Boyne City's record is now 4-4 in the conference and 7-7 overall.

The Ramblers played well despite losing the opener, as pitcher Abbey Roberts gave up just four hits and two walks while striking out two. Winning pitcher Jenny Eveleigh was just as good as she gave up five hits, one walk and struck out six.

For Charlevoix, Mandy Barrett, Amanda Eaton, Julie Gregory and Lyndsay Blechel all had hits. Hitting for Boyne were Sara Bobowski with two singles, Katie Dhaseleer doubled while Roberts and Brandy Barrens each singled. Bobowski had five stolen bases.

In game two Boyne held on to a 4-3 lead until the sixth inning before breaking the game open with seven runs keyed by a bases-loaded-triple by April Roberts.

Leading hitters for Boyne were Katie Dhaseleer and Abbey Roberts with three hits each. Katie Bernthal tripled and singled while April Roberts, Treana Fiel and Heather Bingham each had two singles. Bobowski had a single and a stolen base. For Charlevoix, Lisa Wheat had three hits while Blechel, Eaton, Eveleigh, Julie Gregory, Angie Potter, Jamie Gowell and Kelly Torga each had singles.

Abbey Roberts got the pitching victory allowing 10 hits while striking out four and walking three. Eveleigh took the loss as she allowed sixteen hits. Eveleigh had six strikeouts and walked none.

Boyne City sat idle all week with another rain-out this past Monday. The next scheduled game is at home this Wednesday against Onaway.

Tracksters had a busy week

By CHRIS WINKLER

As the track season is about to come to a close, Boyne City competed in three big meets last week, including the Petoskey-Kiwanis Relays on Tuesday, the East Jordan Rotary Invitational on Monday, and the regional meet in East Jordan on Saturday.

The Petoskey Relays were exactly that: almost entirely relay events, except for the high hurdles and the 100m dash. The mixed 1600m relay team of Jackie Cyr, David Miller, Ashley Schrader, and Kurt Lockman placed third. Michelle Sulak, Sara Bargas, Alison Polack and Ann Gaudard teamed up in the girls 400m relay to take third.

The rest of Boyne's medalists finished in fourth. They are: Sulak, Beth Stackus, Josh Bernthal, and Chuck Stanek in the long jump relay; Sarah Vincent, Miller, Gaudard, and Lockman in the mixed 1200m relay; Alanna Simonsen, Nicole Kurtz, Gaudard, and Cyr in the girls 800m relay; Lockman, Miller, Nick Dixon, and Sean Ku in the boys 800m relay; Lockman, Josh May, Dixon, and Ku in the boys 400m relay; and Cyr, May, Gaudard, and Andy Douglas in the mixed sprint medley.

The East Jordan Invitational was scheduled to be run on Monday, but due to the weather was moved to Wednesday. Overall, the girls and boys both finished 10th out of the 12 girls teams and 13 boys teams competing. For the girls, Kurtz and Cyr picked up fourth place in the 100m hurdles and 800m run, respectively. Cyr broke the four-year old school record held by Melissa Williamson by about a second. Gaudard was fifth in the 100m dash, as was Sulak in the long jump. Sulak was also sixth in the 100m hurdles. The 400m relay finished sixth as well.

On the boys side, Ku was second in the 100m dash. Stanek placed third in the high jump, and Lockman picked up sixth in the 400m dash. The 3200m relay rounded out Boyne's scoring with a sixth.

The regional meet is what qualifies teams and individuals for the state meet, which will be held May 31. The only qualifier from Boyne is new school record holder, Stanek, who won the high jump. The other medalists were George Grunder in the 800m run, and the 400m relay team, who each took sixth.

For the girls, Cyr smashed her three-day old record by six seconds by running a 2:29.69 in the 800 to finish fourth. The qualifying time for state was 2:29, so she narrowly missed a chance to go. But she is just a freshman, so there will be plenty more chances for Cyr. The 800m relay team of Simonsen, Kurtz, Gaudard, and Cyr finished sixth.

The team will be at the conference meet in Charlevoix May 21, followed by Charlevoix's Twilight Meet of Champions May 27.
