East Jordan, Michigan

Are you ready?

Halloween brings out ghosts and goblins

Beware! They're coming! Friday is Halloween, and ghosts, super heroes, and characters of all kinds will be out in area communities to prove it.

Trick or treat hours are 5-8 p.m. in Boyne City and East Jordan, and 6-8 p.m. in Boyne Falls. But local school students won't have to wait until evening to start celebrating.

In East Jordan, the parade begins at 1:30 p.m. at the elementary school. Students will walk down 5th Street, make a U-turn, come back to school and then parade around the building. Following the parade, there are classroom parties. In case of inclement weather, the parade will take place in the school building.

Additional special activities are planned in East Jordan.

Some East Jordan area churches and business are sponsoring their annual Hallelujah Night at the civic center, from 6-9 p.m., for children ages 11 and under. Games, prizes and treats will be included in the party.

As always, to remind everyone to have a safe evening of trick or treating, the following tips are offered by the Charlevoix County Sheriff's Department:

- Parents should escort small children to homes in the neighborhood, visiting only people they know.
- Put safety reflecting tape on children's costumes.

Township holding meeting for surface and mineral owners

Concerned Citizens of Jordan Township is hosting a public meeting for surface and mineral owners.

Speakers at the meeting will include Burton Stanley and agents from Michigan State Cooperative Extension.

Topics include Assessing Property Damage; What Rights do Surface Owners Have?; Well Sites; Sightings of Property Lines; and Assessing and Calculating Site Damages.

The meeting will be held Monday, Nov. 3, from 7-9:30 p.m. in the community room of the Jordan Valley District Library. For any questions or for more information, contact Sue Falco at 536-2729.

This hill behind East Jordan's new middle school was recently alive, not with music, but with the sights and sounds of planting for the future. In the spring, and for many springs to come, the hillside will be bright with the colors of daffodils and crocuses, thanks to an anonymous donation to the school and the hard work of middle school students. Below, seventh-graders Aaron Nichols (front) and Garrett Romero had fun doing their part planting flower bulbs.

STUDENTS PLANT THOUSANDS OF BULBS

Hillside comes alive

Naturalized daffodils and crocuses will brighten the hillside behind East Jordan Middle School next spring, thanks to an anonymous donation to the school.

Middle School Principal Shirley Bishop said a donor from the community gave $1,000 to the middle school with the stipulations that it be used to beautify the hillside and that the students participate in the effort.

With assistance from Marvin's Gardens, of Charlevoix, the donation translated into 3,700 bulbs. Gary Marvin and some of his staff flagged the area to illustrate where bulbs should be planted and instructed every middle schooler present Friday in the proper way of planting the bulbs. Each student had about 10 bulbs to plant.

"Many, if not most, of the kids had not done that before," Bishop said. The students enjoyed having some time outside during a mild fall day learning about fertilizer and perennial bulbs. "They couldn't believe in 20 years they could come back and the daffodils would still be there," Bishop said. "It was a fun and learning experience for the students."

Bishop said Marvin chose daffodils and crocuses for their hardiness and because the deer which live near the middle school campus won't eat them.

Bishop expressed her appreciation both to Marvin's Gardens and to the donor for thinking of the unusual gift. She described the donation as a "wonderful surprise." Bishop said she learned of the gift about three weeks ago and plans began immediately to take advantage of the timing for the fall planting season.

Chili supper is in honor of Jon Easterwood

The East Jordan Firefighters Association will sponsor a chili supper at the East Jordan Snowmobile Club on Mt. Bliss Road, East Jordan, on Saturday, Nov. 8, from 5-8 p.m. in memory of Jon Easterwood.

Fatally injured in an explosion when he was using a torch to cut the top off a 55-gallon drum on Sept. 25, Easterwood died on Oct. 13. He was an East Jordan area businessman and friend to many in the community.

Proceeds from the supper will be used to purchase a park bench that will be dedicated in Easterwood's memory.

The cost for the chili supper is $5 for adults; $4 for seniors; $3 for children ages 5-12; and free for children under 5.

Anyone who cannot attend the supper but would like to make a donation, can do so by sending it to Jon Easterwood Memorial, c/o East Jordan Firefighters Association, P.O. Box 441, East Jordan, MI 49727.

Ambulance service sets new fees

A fee will be charged for each ambulance run in East Jordan, even if a patient is not transported to a hospital.

The city commission approved a request last week to charge $60 for residents and $100 for non-residents for non-transport runs by the ambulance crew.

City Administrator David White said the charges cover the $15 per run paid to volunteers staffing the ambulance, and the cost of running the equipment. The charges associated with transporting patients to a hospital will remain the same.

Michael Haynes was majoring in business in college when one Sunday he heard a piece of music that he had performed with his high school band. He realized then and there that he had to change his major and keep music and the arts in his daily life.

Haynes said his enthusiasm for the arts as well as his ability to relate to students are his strengths as the band director for the East Jordan schools. His goal is to instill in students from grades six through 12 a love for music that they'll carry with them throughout their lives.

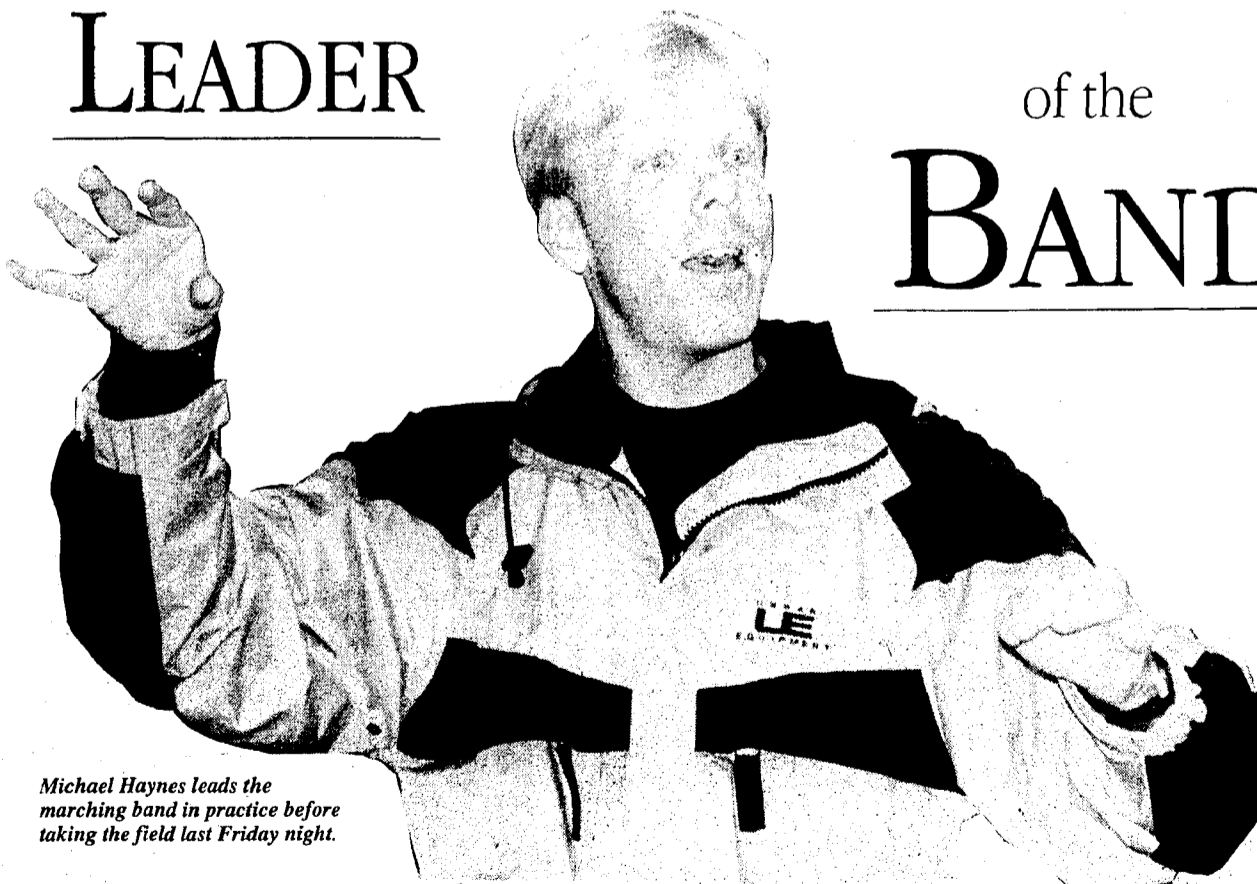

Support for the arts — music as well as other artistic endeavors — in the East Jordan community is exciting, Haynes said. When the adults in the community appreciate the arts, those high standards and expectations trickle down to the students. That's why Haynes feels there is so much potential for the band program in East Jordan.

The students' skills for sight reading, tone and intonation are high, Haynes said. What he wants to focus on is having students work together for a common goal.

"What's lacking that I need to build on is team spirit, morale and pride, and individual expectations for themselves," he said.

Haynes is forming long-term goals for the music program which will give students more opportunities to perform. He hopes his efforts also will translate into higher numbers of students staying in band throughout school, and developing the teamwork and "can do" attitude that make the program a success.

Charlotte Mills, president of the East Jordan Band Parents Organization, describes Haynes as "wonderful" and "enthusiastic." "He's just what the kids needed," Mills said.

The students who participate in band are often those who are also involved in sports and excel in academics, Mills said. Haynes agrees band students are often those who are "shooting for the stars."

"We'll go farther because those are the kids that are driven," Haynes said. "They have the 'I can' mentality that can lead the music program to greatness."

Along with teachers and coaches, Haynes considers himself one part of the puzzle that makes up a student's educational experience. He likes to see players and cheerleaders come off the football field to join the marching band at half-time, even though they can't be in the stands with the pep band during the game. He wants to help students juggle activities so they can be involved throughout the school, because those are the students who will lead others and make the whole program more powerful.

One of his immediate goals is to begin a choir in East Jordan. The program will begin as a club, but Haynes expects to incorporate choir into the curriculum next year. But, the community may not have to wait that long to hear an East Jordan choir perform. He said the club may have a performance before school is out for summer. Once the choir is established, Haynes said it will become a regular component of the concert performances at the school.

The Jazz Band is performing Thursday at 6 p.m. in the new Middle School. A $1 donation is requested of adults. Children will be admitted free, and those wearing a Halloween costume will be given a treat.

Marching Band has completed its performances for the season. The bands are now practicing for their Christmas concerts.

Haynes, who grew up in Florida, said he was drawn to East Jordan for the many advantages of living in northwest lower Michigan. He enjoys skiing, boating and hiking, and spends his summers at the Interlochen Arts Academy, where he is currently director of the Junior Boys program.

Students can't reach too high when others stand on their toes

TO THE EDITOR:

Well, the band plays on. I am attending college in Allendale, Mich., now, but I am concerned with the local politics of my hometown just as much as I am concerned with the politics that affect me in my new interim hometown. I am referring of course to the millage argument that seems to forever plague my hometown.

I graduated from Boyne City High School in the spring of 1989. If we think hard enough, we can remember the state of the public school system in 1989.

Here is a refresher for those who can't remember: there were no buses for the fall semester, we hadn't had a home track meet in a few years (for lack of a track), we learned to type on electric typewriters (yet all the higher education systems in the state were already on to word processors), the computer programming we learned was obsolete by the time I graduated. Essentially Boyne City High School was technologically behind.

At first I was a little jaded over the whole situation, seemingly the only reason we got buses back was because we had inconvenienced the parents and adults so much they were willing to fund buses.

The Foundation didn't exist at this time. There was little or no interest in the state of the school. Well, the times they are a changing. I am thrilled to see the support these kids receive from all the Boosters and the Foundation. It's too bad the voters can't band together as a whole to support these kids and the kids who will utilize this school system in the future.

The way I see it, I want to move back to Boyne City to raise my children (God willing), away from the threats and problems that plague the larger cities and their educational systems, and I would be willing to pay this new millage when I return to Boyne as a homeowner.

The average taxable property value in the Boyne City school district (according to figures from the Charlevoix County Equalization Department) is $40,191.71 ($259,916,308/6,467 parcels). This new millage is for 3.30 mills. With the bus garage this means on average the increase would be $132.63 per year or $11.05 per month in addition to what is already being paid (according to City Hall this is 33.6051 mills homestead and 51.6051 non homestead).

If the issue is truly about the children, then why argue over money at all?

The first thing that I will look at when I choose to buy my home is the school district and the education it offers. I regret to say that with the current state of Boyne City schools I would be forced to look elsewhere, but I don't want to. This is my alma mater, this is my hometown, and God willing, this will be where I'll raise my kids. So why not lay the groundwork, or pave the way for those of us who will return to take positions in the community that are currently filled by people only 10 to 20 years my senior.

Encourage everyone to vote whether for or against, but when you cast your ballot on the 12th of November just remember why you're voting: is it to keep the costs of living in a rural northern Michigan town down, or are we really all concerned about the children who will represent Boyne City in their futures and the education they receive? These children can only reach so far if the community keeps standing on their toes.

Bond election rhetoric hides important issue

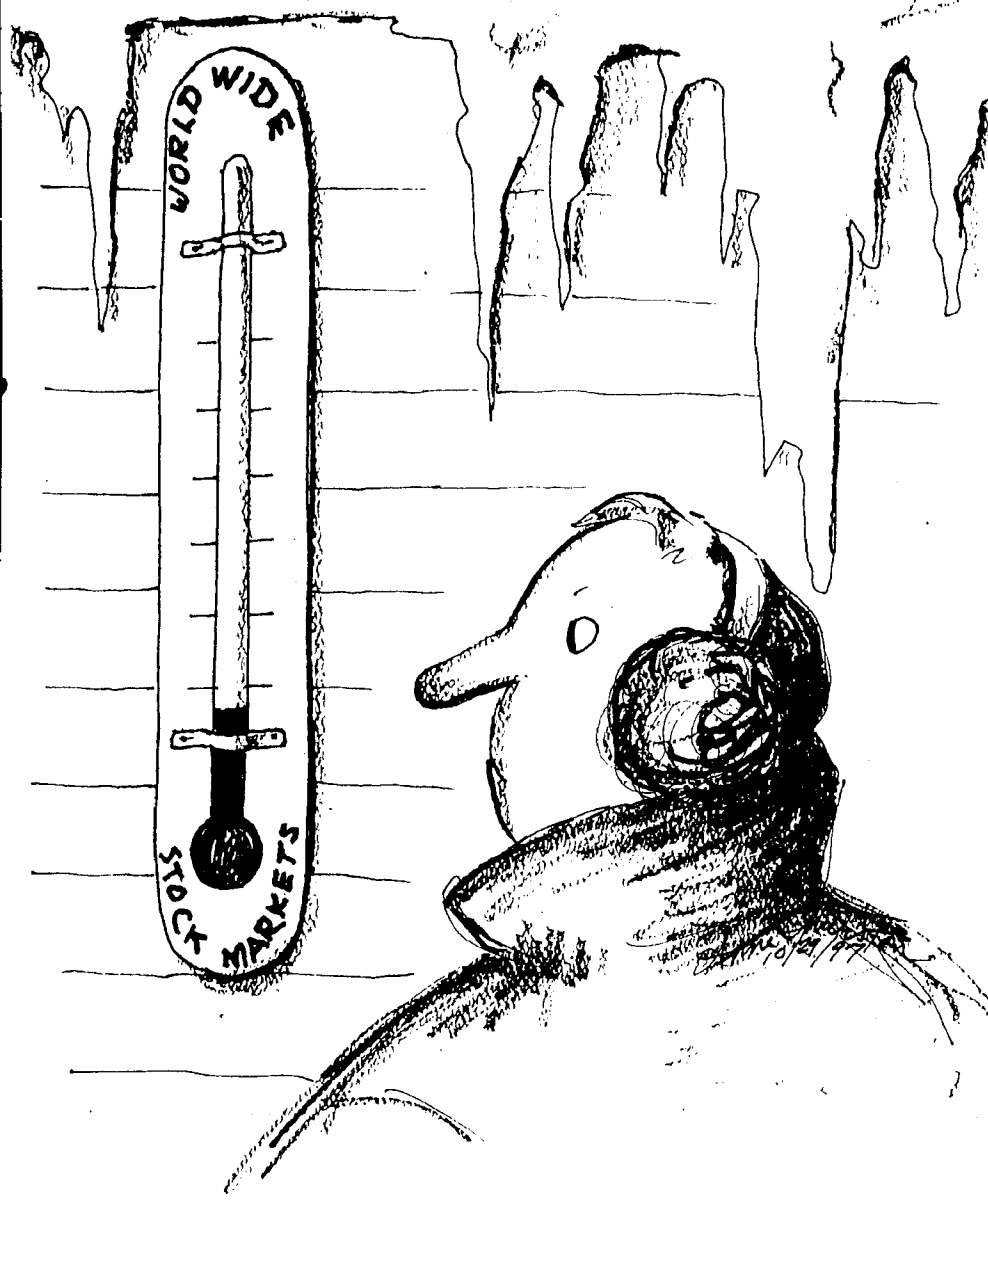

TO THE EDITOR:

The rhetoric concerning the new school millage vote has become too ugly and personal and has diverted attention from what is the most important issue in this election, our children! We now need to refocus our attention to what is best for the children, not personalities or politics. The point of the millage is to improve our schools for our children's future needs, not for the school board or the superintendent or the community group.

If you wish to retain the status quo in our schools and see our schools become further and further out of date then simply vote no on Nov. 12. However, if you wish for your child and all the children in Boyne City to catch up to our modern technological era and have a school the entire city can be proud of, then vote yes and tell your friends to vote yes on Nov. 12. The children of Boyne City will thank you for it.

A SUDDEN COLD SNAP!

Volunteers come to the rescue in times of crisis

TO THE EDITOR:

I have always known that our northern Michigan communities could be counted on to come to the rescue in times of crisis.

Recently I have seen kindness and generosity in action. While upgrading the playground at the Boyne City Nursery Center, a parent volunteer stumbled upon our septic tank with his front loader. Needless to say it was not a pretty picture.

Fortunately there were no injuries, however, the Nursery Center was out of commission for several days. To our rescue came Carl and Phyllis Bradley of Bradley Septic Tank Service and Rich LaVanway of Jordan Valley Concrete. Not only did they donate their services, they also paid the fee for the required permit.

Losing sight of what is really important

TO THE EDITOR:

Once again we are losing sight of what is important, and that is our community's youth.

You ask what it is, that those of us that are supportive of the school, can't understand about no! It is, for at least the last 10 years the educational system in Boyne City has needed to be updated and we can't understand why you can't see the importance of this! No one has anything to gain either monetarily or otherwise, in asking you to bring our educational standards up to the 21st century. Only the children will profit, by having the tools to succeed in today's world, and become productive individuals to help support our community. We have for the most part, an excellent educational staff to guide our students, please give them the tools to execute their jobs, and make our students competitive in today's world.

The nay sayers who are spouting their rhetoric are the same ones who were doing so 25 years ago when I was attending Boyne City's schools. No matter what proposal is brought to our area, they will always find something to dispute. Regardless of how good or important the proposal is, everything will, in their minds, be a negative.

If you haven't, please, I beg of you become more informed on the issue through reliable sources. Investigate what our facilities now have to offer and what the community group has recommended. Don't our youth deserve the best we can provide? Then execute your right to vote on Nov. 12 and vote for our children and for those of generations to come.

A MOM'S LIFE

A sure way of getting attention

By CINDI PLACE

In the past, our household was a relatively quiet one. We didn't raise our voices too much, not even in anger.

Both my husband and I learned long ago that "the look" accompanied by silence would communicate volumes to any errant child. And since the kids were little themselves, their voices weren't too annoying even when they became excited.

But lately, I've wanted to use a whistle. Everyone seems to want to express their opinion on the subject at hand at the same time. And when one of the children can't be heard, he'll simply talk a little louder. With four children and two fairly opinionated adults in our home, that has become a recipe for hearing loss.

Family discussions used to be pleasant, quiet times when we, the parents, shared our wealth of knowledge and experience with our sweet little darlings. Now, for better or worse, we can get into some pretty heated debates about everything from global warming (Mom, we just have to quit using that hair spray) to whether our country's founding fathers meant a teenager's need to "grow" when they addressed the issue "pursuit of happiness."

And now, these "little darlings" have begun raising their own voices. I remember when our kids were just starting school and they would come home to tell us that their teacher had "yelled" at them. But after checking out a few of these episodes we realized that, for our children, anyone who corrected them firmly was "yelling." And, considering their genetic makeup, it's no wonder that they don't like to be "corrected!"

The other night, we were sitting down to a late, but at least all-together evening meal. The outside activity level of our family gives new meaning to the word "evening." As the conversations became louder and louder, our youngest child slapped his hands over his ears and let out an attention-getting scream. Figuring that he was frustrated with the noise level, I started to quiet everyone down.

Then we proceeded to explain that yelling and screaming wasn't really an acceptable way to get his point across. "Why not, mom?" this brave little child asked. "It works."

School's enrollment numbers were exact

TO THE EDITOR:

In response to the letters to your paper, I need to clarify a couple of things.

First, Mr. Waldner was under the impression that I mistakenly included the alternative education students in my previous letter. Well, I did not. The numbers I printed were the exact actual numbers of warm bodies in the classrooms on the official count day of Sept. 24, 1997. Here they are again with the number of Alternative Ed. students included this time: 489 in the E.S.; 488 in the M.S.; 449 in the H.S.; 16 attending Hemmingway Academy; 28 attending Porter Creek Academy; 18 attending Great Lakes Academy; and 9 attending night school.

Now that we've cleared that up, we need to address the fact that Michigan does have a Homestead Tax Credit to those who qualify. Mrs. Stolt is under the impression that there is no such thing. She obviously has a fair amount of experience being a treasurer, unfortunately it was probably before 1994 and Proposal "A", which made her treasurer books practically obsolete. The most simple way to compute if you qualify for a rebate on your income tax sheet is to take your gross household income (say $30,000), multiply it by 3.5% (.035), this would equate to $1050. If your total property taxes exceed this amount you would qualify for a rebate of 60% of the overage up to $1200 if you are under 65, and 100% of the overage up to $1200 if you are 65 or over. Anyone wishing to calculate their exact tax, can call 582-2606 and I will gladly assist you in any way I can.

A big thanks to Mrs. Stolt, Mr. Waldner, and the community, for allowing me to clarify these two misconceptions. Thanks for your time, and don't forget to vote on Nov. 12.

Only the negative seems to surface

TO THE EDITOR:

We are writing this letter to encourage all to vote yes for the upcoming bond proposal. There seems to be a disproportionate amount of negative misinformation that makes it to your column and we would like to provide some positive facts for voting 'yes'. We feel that a new school is very essential for the positive growth for all of Boyne City and for an adequate education for our children. Every parent of a school aged child should not have second thoughts about this proposal as each and every student K-12 will benefit immediately from this much needed construction project and technological upgrades. And to all persons living in our community, we must not lose sight of what the intent of this proposal is for; it is trying to provide our children with the necessary tools to go out in today's work force and competitive world.

Old buildings can be retrofitted for technology, but only to a limited degree. Our school system is in need of upgraded vocational, technological and academic facilities so that all of our students' needs can be met. New technology requires new additional space (irregardless of the head count disputes). We cannot ignore the fact that in the shadows of the beautiful new middle school addition, are the six mobile units, housing approximately 25% of our middle students each day giving us a daily reminder of our inadequate space. Not to mention the mobiles at the elementary school and the required regular use of the First Presbyterian Church basement.

No one likes tax increases, but please realize that by comparison this millage gives the Boyne City taxpayers a very healthy return for each tax dollar spent. An example is the Johannesburg-Lewiston School District. They have shown a commitment towards educational excellence and have undertaken major renovations including additional classrooms, gymnasium, office spaces and general overall upgrades in technology and facilities. What is astonishing about their project is that the taxpayers of that district accepted a millage increase nearly equal to ours but are only receiving less than half the money. In real dollar terms, their 2.65 mills increase only gave them $9.4 million and theirs, too, is spread over twenty years. With our proposal of a 3.3 mills increase, the Boyne City Schools would receive over $20 million. That equates to $6.5 million per each mill increase as compared to Johannesburg-Lewiston where they get only $3.55 million for each mill increase. We are fortunate that we live in a very beautiful lakeshore area that allows a large transient population to help finance a large portion of our schools. Most districts don't have this luxury. Another example closer to home is the East Jordan School District. They recently dedicated a new middle school with a 3:1 student/computer ratio.

Many of the letters have had the flavor of "What was good enough for me, should be good enough for them." There have been no major renovations at the high school since the school was built almost forty years ago. Just think for a moment, what things were like then. The mentally or physically impaired children did not even attend school and some were even institutionalized. The major discipline problems at that time were gum chewing and talking out of turn in class. In contrast, today our schools are required to service all students with special needs from birth to age twenty-six. Schools also deal with a high percentage of At-Risk students with problems that may include drug/alcohol dependencies, teenage pregnancies, learning disabilities, mental and emotional impairments. So when making your decision, please make it an educated one and base it on today's educational standards and the needs of today's students.

Unfortunately when bond issues come forward only the negatives seem to surface and we forget the positive aspects of what supporting education can produce. Please consider the above information. Our family is new to the community and hold no prejudices to the past practices in Boyne City. This allows us to be very objective. This vote should not be about teachers, administrators, salaries, or any other agenda. And the adult political arena that has formed needs to be set aside. The bond issue should only focus on its original intent of providing an adequate education for our children today. It is inevitable that a new school will need to be constructed. Prices just keep on skyrocketing and the longer we wait the more it will cost. We have a choice of investing in our children now, guiding them towards becoming productive and self maintaining adults, or we can pay our monies into the numerous subsidy programs later.

An old Chinese proverb says:
If your plan is for one year, plant rice.
If your plan is for ten years, plant trees.
If your plan is for a lifetime, invest in children.

Please invest in our children and our community by voting 'YES'.

John and Chris Warstler

The bottom line isn't money

TO THE EDITOR:

I'm amazed at the amount of effort that certain people will spend in telling you what they don't want, but never offer any solutions.

They say that all of their intentions are to save the community from cheats and liars but never once come through with an idea that will accomplish anything. For the last seven millage attempts, it's always just "no."

If you think that the people who get behind these millage proposals do it because they don't have anything better to do, think again. It's always the same -- the ideas are all wrong and the leadership stinks -- but never have any of those people offered a solution other than "no".

It seems to me that most agree something needs to be done to upgrade our buildings and eliminate the portables and many more benefits that this proposal addresses.

The bottom line isn't money, it's love. The love of my children and my children's children.

Pat O'Brien

Questions about vote need answers

TO THE EDITOR:

If you live in or around Boyne City, these numbers will interest you. They are not imaginary numbers but are a matter of public record coming from a Michigan Department of Treasury document titled APPLICATION FOR PRELIMINARY QUALIFICATION OF BONDS. This 40+ page document, dated Sept. 11, was prepared by the Boyne City School District in order to receive authorization to hold the millage election coming up next month.

There will be two proposals on the ballot. The first one is for $19,965,000 (that's just shy of twenty million dollars) to cover a new high school, remodeling the existing three buildings and "developing and improving playgrounds, playfields, and sites, and relocating the tennis courts and baseball field." The second proposal is for $830,000 and it is for the purpose of "acquiring a site for and constructing a bus garage."

Why two proposals? Especially since the second one is only 4% of the big one. With no architectural drawings and no engineering specifications that is only a portion of any prudent estimator's contingency factor. Your guess is as good as mine but mine sees it as an insult to the intelligence of the district voters. You get the idea, give the yokels something to turn down and we'll get what we want - an awful lot of money to spend!

But let's continue, from the same document. This time we'll look at how the costs are allocated by individual buildings and at the "most likely" student populations they will serve.

K-3 Building (currently Elementary School at 51,670 square feet)

Now K-4 with 513 students
Projected K-3 with 372 students or 27% fewer
Cost to remodel - $1,100,748
Note: 3 portable classrooms to be abandoned

4-5 Building (current Middle School at 43,460 square feet)

Now 5-8 with 462 students
Projected 4-5 with 182 students or 61% fewer
Cost to remodel - $884,588. This does not include the existing debt of $2,000,000 for the brand new gymnasium-cafeteria.

Note: Though the 6 portables are not mentioned in the document, I feel sure the intention is to abandon them.

Middle School (current High School with 87,350 square feet)

Now: 9-12 with 434 students
Projected: 6-8 with 287 students, 34% fewer
Cost to remodel: $4,280,067

Note: This proposal includes 2,000 square feet of new construction to increase the size of the building to 89,350 square feet.

High School (new building with 119,395 square feet)

Projected: 9-12 with 554 students, 5% more
Cost to build - $14,323,177

Note: This new building is 37% larger than the current high school.

Yes, I know... if you add the costs it comes to more than the millage request, $623,580 more, but those are the numbers in the document. Included are architect's fees of $762,329, within normal range for this size project, but there is another cost item for each building labeled "Adm" and these charges total $864,879. Does this cover part of the Paullin Group's fees? Is this the way that the Paullin Group supposedly saves money for their clients? Do we need an Educational Consultant to tell us that we have to spend twenty million dollars on buildings and equipment to educate a projected 8% fewer students five years hence? These are only a few of the questions that need to be answered before we approve a 42 million dollar debt that today's students will have to pay back tomorrow. That is if they can find a job here in Boyne City.

Boyne Falls school's future is topic of community meeting

The third in a series of community meetings on the future of Boyne Falls School is Wednesday, Oct. 29, at 7 p.m. in the school gym.

The first meeting, held last spring, was to explain to community members the overall problem facing the school since the passage of Proposal A.

At the second meeting, held in September, options the school's planning committee is considering were presented. Unanswered questions from the first meeting were also addressed.

At Wednesday's meeting, community members will be asked what options they have for the future of the school.

Community meetings are also planned in November and December. The planning committee hopes to make a recommendation early next year on what option to present to the school board. Those presented so far include making Boyne Falls a K-8 school, making it a K-6, or keeping it a K-12.

A fourth meeting will be held Tuesday, Nov. 25, at 7 p.m. in the school gym.

Gas line break

A broken gas line created a few tense minutes in downtown Boyne City late Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 21. A main gas line, which serves businesses on Ray Street, was damaged while work was being done on a sewer line installation, according to Fire Chief Henry Erber. Due to the volume of gas escaping three homes on East Main Street were evacuated and a Charlevoix County Transit bus was used to shelter residents who had to leave their homes. The situation was under control in less than 45 minutes and there were no injuries reported.

B.C. POLICE REPORT

The Boyne City Police Department handled 92 complaints during the past week. Among them were:

- A report of a stolen Southern Bell cordless phone from an East Main Street apartment on Oct. 20.
- A camera and car phone were reported stolen from a vehicle sometime between Oct. 17-19.

- A break-in to a residence on Bay Street was reported, and property damage was evident, according to police.

- Officers arrested a subject for fleeing/reckless driving/0-tolerance second offense/DWLS second offense on the evening of Oct. 24.

Hospice plans several events in honor of National Hospice month

November is National Hospice Month, and Charlevoix County Hospice and Northwest Michigan Community Health Agency Hospice (formerly known as District Health Department No. 3 Hospice) have several events planned.

On Nov. 3, the Michigan Hospice Organization has planned a "Bells for Hospice" to create statewide awareness of hospice care. "We are asking the churches, synagogues and public places to ring bells or offer a moment of silent reflection, at noon on this day in celebration of the caregivers, the families, and the patients who benefit so much from hospice care," said Margaret Lasater, executive director of Charlevoix County Hospice.

"We are asking the churches here in Charlevoix and Antrim counties to please participate in this very meaningful event."

Hospice will be holding a celebration at Northwest Michigan Community Health Agency, 202 W.

Garfield, in Charlevoix on Monday, Nov. 3, starting at 11:30 a.m. and everyone is invited to attend.

Other events planned are:

- Nov. 17, at 7 p.m., in the Community Room at Charlevoix Area Hospital, Hospice will be offering a program "Handling the Holidays" for all those who have experienced a loss and would like some help in how to handle these special days.

- Nov. 23, Hospice will be holding its annual Memorial Service to commemorate all patients it has served and lost this past year. "We do encourage anyone who has suffered a loss to attend this very meaningful service," Lasater said. It will be held at the East Jordan First Presbyterian Church, 207 Williams St., at 4 p.m.

For more information, contact Lasater at 536-2842, or Helen Curtis, Northwest Michigan Community Health Agency Hospice Supervisor, at 547-6092.

NEWS FROM CITY HALL

By SUE HOBBS

THE STREET CREW began leaf pick up in earnest this week. There are still a lot of totally green-leaved trees. Although we are behind schedule, city crews will continue to pick up leaves.

"NO PARKING" signs have been installed in areas along the shoulder of Lakeshore Drive where the lake is close to the edge of the street. Possible cost-effective solutions to keep the street safe and halt erosion are still being looked at.

AT THE SUGGESTION of Chief Howard, several city staff members will walk the downtown area and carry radios to assist in the patrol on Devil's Night in an effort to reduce vandalism.

A JOINT MEETING of the city commission and parks and recreation advisory board was held on Tuesday, Oct. 28, to review options for the location of the snowmobile trail at Avalanche.

FOLLOWING REVIEW of the work to extend sewer on Marshall and Lakeshore Drive, it was decided to angle the line in order to lessen the impact on the paved portion of the street. It now appears that only one lane of Marshall Road will need to be dug up.

yes, please consider making a donation to this year's Buck Pole.

The buck pole is very well attended and brings a lot of people downtown. We could use donations of money or gift certificates for prizes to make this event bigger and better than past years. Contact the Chamber of Commerce at 582-6222 if you would like to contribute to this event.

Health Circle moves

Health Circle has recently gone through an expansion and relocation. Located in Boyne City for the past four years, the business offers massage therapy by Jeffery Uloth and mental health counseling by Nancy Holton. In its new location at 222 S. Lake Street, the business has a new line of vitamin and herbal supplements, teas, candles, bodywork tools, and music tapes for health and relaxation.

A series of classes on herbology presented by local herbalist and author Joyce Pierdino and a stretching and toning exercise class led by Debbie Edwards will be offered beginning in January. Nancy Holton and guest speakers will offer presentations on various topics related to improving both physical and mental health.

Health Circle has expanded to offer wellness packages to businesses. "We are very excited about our new expansion," says Nancy Holton, psychologist at Health Circle. "Now we can offer more services as well as good products to help people feel better. It's important that people feel good mentally and physically so they can enjoy more of life."

Area chamber directors meet

The Boyne City Chamber of Commerce hosted the Northwest Michigan Small Chamber Alliance meeting in Boyne City on Oct. 24. The Alliance consists of Boyne City, East Jordan, Cheboygan, Indian River, Harbor Springs and Mackinaw City Chambers of Commerce.

The Chamber Executive Directors meet each month to discuss chamber issues and achievements and ways for the alliance to benefit its members.

The meetings begin with each chamber telling one or two good things that happened at their Chamber since the last meeting. From there, the discussion is aimed toward one particular issue that the Alliance has agreed upon, such as programs of work, board retreats, job descriptions, policies and procedures or fundraising.

"It's a way to brainstorm with others in your line of work," said Debbie Thompson, Boyne City Executive Director. "The networking from these meetings inspires us."

IN HIS FIRST VARSITY START, JASON CLARK THREW FOR THREE TOUCHDOWNS

Red Devils give it their best shot against Kalkaska

One thing about the East Jordan Red Devils, they sure can make a game exciting.

And they never give up. Playing without their starting quarterback Chris Murray, who's out for the season with a broken foot, and starting guard Josh Evans, who also suffered a season-ending injury, the Red Devils pushed Kalkaska to the limit before losing Friday night, 42-27.

Jason Clark, in his first varsity start, filled in admirably for the injured Murray, connecting on five of 12 passes for 103 yards and three touchdowns.

Kalkaska jumped out to an early 6-0 lead, scoring on their first possession of the game, but then the Red Devils settled down and from that point on Kalkaska knew it was in for a tough game.

"Our kids just never give up," said coach Allan Peterson. "They just keep working. They are a wonderful bunch of kids."

Their biggest problem, which is no fault of their own, is their size. To be exact, their lack of it. On Monday, Peterson weighed the players, and he was, at just a shade over 200 pounds, heavier than all but two of his players.

Kalkaska, on the other hand, was big. "We just got overpowered again," Peterson said. "It seems this is the kind of team we have trouble with. Big teams that can push us around."

Despite all that, East Jordan still had a chance to win the game. And after the Red Devils amazing comeback against Harbor Springs a few weeks ago, you had to believe it was possible.

But on a chilly late fall night, in front of parents' night crowd, it was not meant to be.

Trailing 6-0, the Red Devils took advantage of a Kalkaska turnover when Mike Mazzella picked up a fumble and ran it 42 yards before he was tackled on the 10. A few plays later, Dillon Antaya went in from the two. The extra point was good and East Jordan was up 7-6.

Kalkaska came back and scored twice to lead 20-7 just before the half. But with 1 1/2 minutes remaining East Jordan took the kickoff and had a strong return, giving them good field position. As time was winding down, Clark connected with Bluhm who was tackled at the one on what should have been the last play of the half. Kalkaska, however, was penalized on the play for roughing the passer so East Jordan got the ball on the one with no time remaining. A half, or game, cannot end on a defensive penalty.

With no time on the clock, Clark went back to pass and found Bluhm in the end zone. The extra point was good and East Jordan trailed 20-14.

Obviously not suffering an emotional letdown, Kalkaska took its first drive of the third quarter and scored. On their next series, Kalkaska gave East Jordan another break with a bad snap on a punt. East Jordan recovered inside Kalkaska's 20 and on the next play, Clark connected with Josh Luck to make the score 26-20.

The excitement and pride of Parents' Night in East Jordan Friday are evident on the young faces of Jennifer and Samantha Reiland, as they stand next to their sister, Suzy Moore, a varsity cheerleader.

Kalkaska increased its lead to 34-20 just seconds into the fourth quarter, but again East Jordan bounced back and scored when Clark hit Bluhm with his third touchdown pass of the night with about six minutes remaining.

On the next series, East Jordan's defense did its job and forced Kalkaska to punt from its own 20.

Unfortunately, it was a 69-yard boot that rolled all the way down to East Jordan's 11 yard line. Unable to move the ball, East Jordan punted and Kalkaska scored its final touchdown with about a minute remaining.

Offensively, Bluhm had 49 yards on 11 carries, while Antaya had 34 yards. Defensively, Amos Skrocki had 16 tackles, Erik Wiltfong 11, while Wilson, Mazzella and Luck had nine.

Despite the loss, Peterson said the team "is not down at all" and is looking forward to Friday night's game against Elk Rapids. East Jordan, now 4-4, can secure a winning season with a victory.

It's hard enough punting a football without a big lineman rushing at you full speed. Just ask Dillon Antaya, who somehow got this kick off without it being blocked. On this punt, the big guy didn't put the brakes on soon enough and ran into Antaya, which resulted in a first down for East Jordan.

Spanish Club raising funds for trip

The East Jordan High School Spanish Club will be selling products from Human-I-Tees Company to raise funds for an educational trip to Mexico in June.

Spanish 2 and 3 students plan to spend eight days in Mexico, exploring Mexico City, Taxco and Acapulco.

T-shirts, hats, canvas bags and stuffed animals are among the company's products the students will sell. Human-I-Tees donates 20 percent of its profits to environmental organizations. Each product celebrates wildlife in natural settings.

Representatives from the Spanish Club will be at the high school lobby with product samples on Thursday, Oct. 30, from 7-8:30 p.m. and on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 4-5 from 3-7:30 p.m.

They will answer questions and take orders at those times. The promotion ends Nov. 6, and delivery is expected before Thanksgiving.

Good shot

Heather Hammond, 13, of East Jordan shot her first deer Oct. 6 on Drummond Island. Her dad sparked her interest in bow hunting, and this was her second year of it.

Band parents support picks up where school leaves off

Students who participate in band are typically multi-faceted in their extracurricular interests, said Charlotte Mills, president of the East Jordan Band Parents organization.

Band students usually are also involved in sports and often excel academically, Mills said. Perhaps because the discipline it takes to learn an instrument carries over into other activities as well.

"Over the years, it's almost a proven fact," Mills said. "We want to encourage that."

Band Parents is an organization that picks up supporting band students where the school leaves off, Mills said. She and a handful of other parents of band students raise money and organize events to benefit the middle school, high school and jazz bands in East Jordan. Over the past four or five years the group has helped send students to Blue Lake, a summer band camp, has organized clinics and hosted the recent Marching Band Expo when Thirly Field in Traverse City had a conflicting event. The band parents purchased the black slickers that are worn during inclement weather, and they've helped one student travel to Europe to play in an international band.

The Band Parents are currently selling raffle tickets which will add up to prizes for more than a dozen winners. The top prize is a hand-made quilt. Other prizes include dinners for two at One Water Street and the Dilworth, and more. The winning tickets will be drawn at the high school Christmas Concert, 7 p.m., Dec. 18, in the East Jordan High School Auditorium. Winners do not need to be present to win.

Raffle tickets are available through the parents of any band member, from Mills or from band director Michael Haynes. They sell for $1 each or 6 for $5. For tickets, call Mills at 536-7901 between 6:30 a.m. and 9:30 p.m.

Mills is hoping the activities of the Band Parents will generate more participation in the group. Anyone with an interest in music is invited to join the group.

The Band Parents group typically meets the first Wednesday of the month at 7 p.m. in the high school band room. The November meeting, however, is scheduled for 7 p.m. Nov. 6 due to a conflict with conferences.

Life's chores

In almost every town, you will find a bank, car wash and gas station. Those were three of the businesses set up for the recent Transportation Day at the East Jordan Co-op Nursery School. For the day, students brought their bikes to school and rode through the "mini" town with stop signs, street lights and business. Stopping to do some business at the bank was Jessica Bulmann, who received some money from teller Andrea Meads. And exiting the car wash on his clean bicycle was Trenton Bradley. The nursery school is for children 3 and 4 years old, and classes are held Monday through Friday mornings.

Smiling faces

April Wakeham and her pleasing pumpkin took first place in the Pumpkin Contest, one of the activities held during the recent Moonlite Madness festivities in East Jordan. Other winners in the Pumpkin Contest were: second place, Cassie and Connor Huckle; third place, Ken McPherson; and honorable mention, Courtney Fender. Rich Clark won the Scavenger Hunt, and Mitch Jarazel won the Guess the Number of Coins Game.

All abuzz about reading

Boyer City Elementary School was alive with excitement and activity Friday while students celebrated RIF week's theme "Buzz into Reading." Glenn Hindbaugh and Nancy Hellman of Boyne Falls shared their knowledge of bees and bee keeping with students, and a total of 444 hours and 10 minutes of reading was recorded by school students during the week. Gathered around beekeeper Glen Hindbaugh were Alisha Gibbons, Dana Cope, Chelvia Walker, Chenelle Capp and Regina Davis. Librarian Karen Kruzel said the school received a grant sponsored by Waldenbooks and Border's for $300 this year to buy more books for RIF Day.

CLUBS

Monday Study Club

The Monday Study Club met on October 20 at 1:30 p.m. at the Lakeview Village Community Hall with 18 members present.

The program topic, "Women of Note," was given by Olive Bernier. She reviewed a book written by Joanna Stratton entitled, "Pioneer Women," which covered a time span of over four decades, beginning in the early 1800's in Kansas.

These pioneer women endured a vast array of hardships throughout their lives and the majority died before their time, due to the fact they virtually worked themselves to death.

Many arrived in Kansas after a long journey by wagon. In the western part of Kansas, wood for house building was for the most part unattainable, so homes were constructed of sod. Some homes were even just dug out holes in the ground.

Fierce winds frequently destroyed crops and vegetable gardens. Flour would become scarce and cooking for their hungry families became a relentless and harsh challenge. A few sheep were essential in order to be able to make clothes for the entire family.

Medical doctors were virtually unavailable and women had no other choice but to deliver their own babies if their husbands were away in search of work.

Some of the many other hardships these women endured over the years included prairie fires, assaults by wolves, a bad crop producing year and invasions by armies of locusts.

It was the unanimous opinion of all Monday Study Club members present that they had no wistful longing to have been pioneer women.

The next meeting will be at the same location on November 17 and Shirley Roisen will focus on the life of Marie Curie.

NOW IT'S BOYNE'S TURN TO PULL A MAJOR UPSET

Ramblers battered and bruised

Rambler fans at Charlevoix last Friday went home in shock after the Rayders pulled off the upset of the year with a 20-14 win over Boyne.

Emotions were high for Charlevoix not only because of the fierce rivalry between the two teams, but they wanted to have a good showing before the 1977 undefeated Rayder team, which was honored during the evening.

"It was important for us to have a good showing," said Charlevoix coach Todd Klinger. "The kids wanted to play a good game against Boyne City and before the 1977 team. This made our whole season. We played virtually error free football with only one turnover."

Boyne City coach Pat Klooster was a member of that 1977 team and this loss was hard for him to take.

"This has got to be the worst loss for me," Klooster said. "Charlevoix let out all the stops for this game. They had nothing to lose and they were playing for pride. I think their emotions carried them a long way. We were prepared to play them. I don't think we were looking past them to next week's game. They just played with all their emotions and we didn't. They deserved to win."

The Ramblers scored on their first possession using just six plays to reach the end zone when Scott Karaszewski went in from the six-yard line for a touchdown. Quarterback Matt Johncheck added the 2-point conversion on a keeper for an 8-0 lead.

Boyne City came right back on its next possession with another score and it looked like the Ramblers were going to have their way with the Rayders. Chuck Stanek made a brilliant leaping catch on a Johncheck pass for a 26-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter.

It wasn't long after Stanek's touchdown that disaster struck for Boyne City. Stanek got hit hard on a quick slant over the middle, buckling his knee and knocking him out of the game and more than likely the rest of the season.

"It hurt us to lose a player like Chuck," Klooster said. "We were already depleted on our defensive line with the loss of Dave Cadarette. Dave will be in the hospital for about three weeks because of complications from an earlier injury. Charlevoix's coach took advantage of the situation and took their plays towards Chuck's

'This has got to be the worst loss for me. Charlevoix let out all the stops for this game. They had nothing to lose and they were playing for pride.'

side. Chuck's a mainstay on offense and defense."

To make matters worse, Boyne also lost junior defensive lineman Nathan Howell in the third quarter with a leg injury.

"They smelled blood after that and went in for the kill. We couldn't stop their running game," Klooster said.

Charlevoix scored with 30 seconds left in the half for the first score on Boyne in more than three games. Quarterback Steve Felter found Steve Speigle in the end zone for a six-yard touchdown pass. Colin Carr kicked the extra point bringing the Rayders to 14-7.

The second half belonged to Charlevoix as it held the Ramblers to just 12 offensive plays the rest of the game including only four in the fourth quarter. The Rayders accomplished that by hanging on to the ball and plodding 95 yards up the field using 21 plays in the third quarter to score its next touchdown. Junior Colin Carr scored from the one-yard line then kicked the extra point to tie the game at 14-14.

Carr carried the ball 38 times for 167 yards. He also played safety on defense.

"Our offensive line played great. We were able to control the football and not let their offense on the field. We played as a team," said Rayder coach Todd Klinger.

With six minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, Charlevoix again slowly plodded up the field using 13 plays before quarterback Felter scored on an eight-yard run with 43 seconds left for a 20-14 lead. Boyne tried to no avail to score before time ran out, sending the Rayder fans into a frenzy.

Offensively for Boyne,

A thorn in the side of Boyne City all night long was Colin Carr, brought down here by Bill Case. Carr carried the ball 38 times for 167 yards.

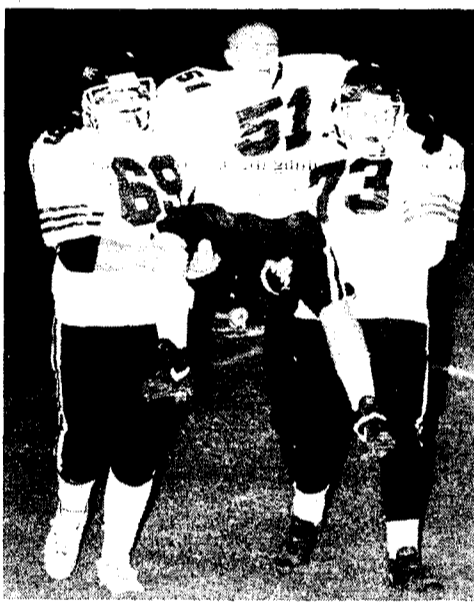

Karaszewski led the rushing with 52 yards on 10 carries. Ryan Seelye added 45 yards on 11 tries while Johncheck completed 2 of 9 passes for 54 yards. Tony Amato caught one pass for 31 yards while Stanek had the touchdown reception.

Defensively, Howell had an interception. David Miller had 11 1/2 tackles while Travis Garrett had five. Bo Reinhardt and Jesse Belford each had four.

Boyne City (5-3 overall, 4-1 conference) travels to Traverse City St. Francis this Friday.

"Hopefully, we can rebound and have a good game against St. Francis. We could still be co-conference champions with a win. I could live with that," Klooster said.

St. Francis comes into the game ranked number one in Class C and will be looking to avenge last year's 14-10 loss to the Ramblers. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Red Devil boys' team qualifies for state meet

One more race is on the schedule for the East Jordan Cross Country team and it could be the biggest of the season.

The East Jordan boys earned a trip to the state meet with a second place finish at the regional meet last Saturday at Benzie Central. Since the team finished in the top three, every member of East Jordan's squad qualified for Saturday's state meet to be run at Michigan International Speedway.

The girls, led by Holly Petkewicz, finished fifth overall. Petkewicz finished 20th, with a time of 21:14, to qualify for the state meet for the third year in a row. "She's had quite a career for us," said coach Dennis Snarey.

The boys were led by Mark Penzien, who finished eighth overall with a time of 17:06. Just six seconds behind was Chris Bearden, who finished 12th. Micah Middaugh was 18th, Charlie Hague 29th, Tarn Leach 30th, Kevin Penzien 33rd, and Matt Shaw 38th.

Benzie easily won the boys' meet with 19 points, followed by East Jordan with 97 and Mason Central with 100. Nineteen teams competed.

"The boys actually didn't run very well Saturday," Snarey said. They can run much better, but we still managed to get a second.

"It was just one of those days. It's out of our system. Now we can run much better at state."

The entire team of the top three finishers qualify for the state meet, and the top 20 individuals also earn a ticket to the meet. East Jordan will leave Friday and will race Saturday morning at the track famous for car racing.

"It's been a great year for both the boys and girls," Snarey said. "We're excited."

It's the first time in at least four years East Jordan has qualified a team for the state meet. "We've been close every year, but this year we did it," Snarey said.

For East Jordan's girls, Emily Niewendorp was 25th overall with a time of 21:45. She was followed by Catey Moses, 27th, Beth Purvis, 34th, Debbie Bacon, 45th, Cassie Krause, 96th, and Kristine Nelson, 113th.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Defense, free throw shooting give Red Devils the edge

East Jordan avenged its loss to Boyne City earlier in the season on the basketball court by downing the Ramblers 64-57 last Tuesday in East Jordan.

The lead changed hands numerous times throughout the game, as the Red Devils led 16-14 after the first quarter and 31-29 at half-time. Boyne built up a 49-43 margin with one quarter left to play, but the Ramblers, as fans have seen time and time again this season, just couldn't hang onto the lead.

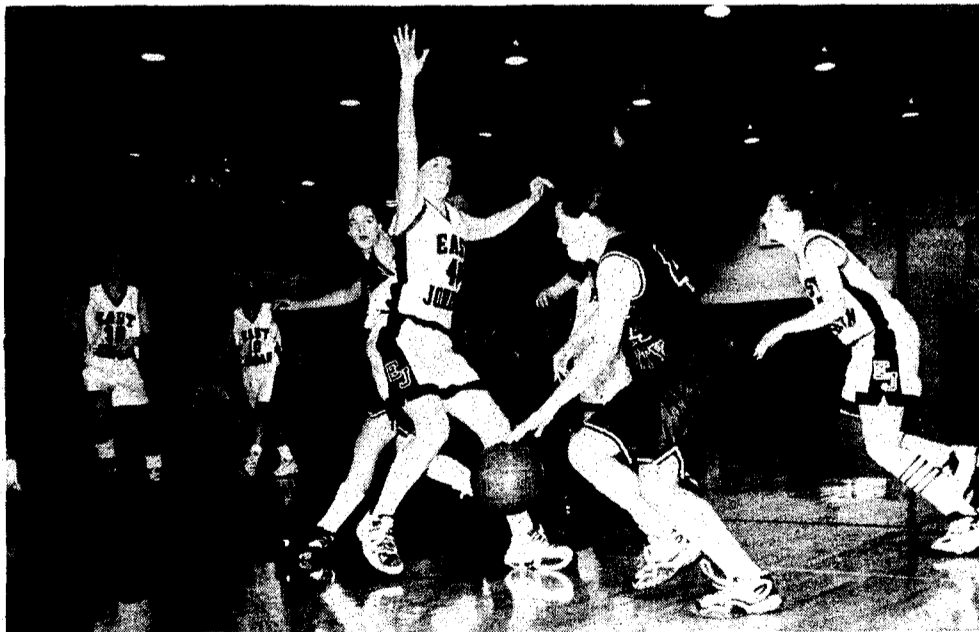

"This is the third game in a row," said Rambler coach Tom Neidhamer, "that we have done some good things, but we haven't learned how to finish games."

Neidhamer also gave credit to East Jordan, and rightfully so. Raissa Schroder scored 16 points to lead four players in double figures. Rachel Boss put in 15, Jenny Goebel 12, and Jenny Falco 11.

East Jordan coach Steve Hines said two keys to his team's victory were its strong fourth quarter defense, which held Boyne to eight points, and its strong free throw shooting. For the game, East Jordan shot 74 percent from the charity stripe.

For the Ramblers, Katie Bernthal paced the team with 23 points. Katie Jo Dhaseleer added 15 including three three-pointers and April Roberts chipped in with eight.

Boyne City will return to the basics in preparation for the remainder of the season, which continued Tuesday against Elk Rapids and then Boyne City's Katie Bernthal tries to drive the baseline against the Lady Red Devils' Ember Ransom.

Thursday in Mancelona.

"We have to work on a lot of little things. If it was one noticeable thing to do, we could fix it, but there's not a simple solution. We're going back to the fundamentals, but at the same time focusing on things to help prepare us for Elk Rapids."

After its victory over Boyne City, East Jordan played a strong Kalkaska team Thursday, losing 66-58.

"I thought we played well even though we lost," Hines said. "We were within six points twice, but couldn't get any closer."

He said his team is playing better now than at any time during the season.

Goebel led the team with 23 points while Boss had 10. Top rebounders were Goebel with 11, Boss with nine, and Ember Ransom with eight. Falco led the team with eight assists while Suzie Malpass had three.

"Jenny Flaco had an outstanding game, both on offense and defense," Hines said.

The Lady Red Devils' 40 points in the second half was also the team's highest total for a half this season.

East Jordan, now 7-8 overall and 3-5 in conference, played Harbor Springs Tuesday, and will be off on Thursday night.

In the junior varsity contest, Boyne prevailed over East Jordan with a five-point victory, 40-35. As usual Nicole Kurtz led Boyne with 19 points. In the freshmen game, Nikki Peck put in 18 points, and Ellie Neidhamer 14 to give the ninth graders a 57-37 triumph over the Red Devils. Leading scorers for East Jordan were Jessica Peverall with 10 and Linda Slough with 8.

"The freshmen and sophomores are taking the court with the attitude that they are going to win," Neidhamer said. "They are working hard and have good athletic ability. I'm real happy with the teams and the coaching staff."

The frosh hosted Inland Lakes Tuesday, and then will head into their final two games next week.

Lady Loggers top Wolverine

After having to leave the game last Tuesday night against Harbor Light because of an injury, Penny Marchinkewicz made a big comeback Thursday against Wolverine.

She scored 21 points and hauled down 29 rebounds to lead the Lady Loggers to a 64-21 victory over Wolverine.

Against Harbor Light, Marchinkewicz was injured when she fell to the floor in a pile of players and was the unfortunate one to be on the bottom of the stack. Her head hit the floor and as a precautionary measure she was kept from playing the rest of the game.

At the time, the Lady Loggers were ahead, but a short time later they lost the lead. They regained the advantage at 37-36 but quickly fell behind and ended up losing 69-50.

One bright spot for Boyne Falls was the play of sophomore Sara Skop who led the team with 21 points. Skop also had a strong game against Wolverine, scoring 14 points.

Every Lady Logger played against Wolverine and every player scored, much to the delight of the parents' night crowd. Andrea Kondrat had an outstanding game, coach Ken Doty said, leading the team with 12 assists.

After their split last week, the Loggers are now 8-7 overall. On Tuesday they had the unenviable task of hosting Ellsworth, the top-rated team in Class D.

Boyne jr's keep on winning

Boyne City's junior varsity football team improved to 7-2 with a crushing 36-8 win over Charlevoix last Thursday as sophomore quarterback Josh Bush threw for two touchdowns.

Bush found Noah Stanek all alone in the first quarter for a 44-yard scoring pass. Norman Moore converted the 2-point conversion for an 8-0 lead. Still in the first quarter, Moore set up the next score with a 26-yard run to the one yard line. Casey Simmons took it in from there for a 14-0 lead.

The second quarter saw Simmons bull his way in from the six-yard line for a 20-0 lead before Bush hit Moore with a 56-yard strike. Moore added the conversion play for a 28-0 lead at the half.

In the third quarter, the Ramblers added a safety on the Rayders for a 30-0 lead. Charlevoix then added its lone score on a three-yard run by Brian Cornett. Quarterback Adam Wood hit Cornett for the 2-point conversion.

On the ensuing kick-off, Moore brought the crowd to its feet with an electrifying 67-yard kick return for the final score of 36-8.

For the Ramblers, David Suttle was his usual nasty self on both sides of the ball while defensively, Cliff Gregware, Dan Washburn, Cody Belford, Luke Reinhardt, Nate Wolf and Aaron Belcher had outstanding games.

Offensively for the Ramblers, Bush passed for 157 yards on eight completions, while Stanek caught five passes for 76 yards. Moore carried 17 times for 144 yards while also catching three passes for 81 yards.

Offense shines in Red Devil and Kalkaska jr shoot-out

East Jordan's and Kalkaska's junior varsity teams put on an offensive show and when it was over, Kalkaska edged the Red Devils, 40-36.

The Red Devils' Kyle Bjorem had an outstanding game, scoring three touchdowns, one 2-point conversion, and rushing for 159 yards.

Nate Swan rushed for 109 yards and scored a 2-point conversion.

Quarterback Ken Slough connected on touchdown passes of six-yards to Mike Wladischkin and 35 yards to Kris Lifer.

"We struggled defensively, but our offense was great," said coach Todd McNitt.

"Kyle gets better each game. Our offensive line made good holes, then he fought for everything else."

The Red Devils, 5-3, close out the season against Elk Rapids Thursday at home.

Defensively for the Red Devils, Lifer had 13 tackles, Justin Weisler 11, Rusty Steinhoff 10, and Ben Johnson, Wladischkin and Swan each with 7.

Boyne City Schools' "YES" Voters YOU'RE VICTIMS

Of hired school officials' classroom fictions. Of elected school board members' naive belief therein.

School documents prove that present k-12 students actually only number 1,368 - without subtracting some 76 students absent each day.

That, originally, our schools were built to comfortably teach 1,690 students each day.

School officials ignore those numbers. Instead they try to hide their long-time mismanagement of classrooms - badly misused, as few as three students in some; many others for nonteaching uses - plus their buying of those unneeded and inexcusable portable classrooms.

Now they demand nearly $37 million to correct their mistakes.

A fraction thereof would do it. Say, a couple of million, or less.
