TEN CENTS

OVER THE BACK FENCE

By Marshall

Michigan apple growers have received a verbal spanking for putting good ones on top and lower grades underneath—a trick as old as time.

The man who said farmers are doing this is a member of the Michigan Department of Agriculture. It's called "overfacing."

And it is charged that this makes it impossible for Michigan to claim the title as the nation's top apple producing state.

This sort of back handed cheating is silly; for Michigan growers are putting on the market very attractive and high quality apples, some of the best in the nation.

A tour of six midwestern states where Michigan apples were inspected on various markets resulted in the slap at our growers. It was discovered that too many farmers are still putting the good ones on top and the poor ones underneath.

Outside of the state it makes all of our growers look like a bunch of dishonest and so on, especially when some buyer says, "Look what the Michigan boys are trying to pull on us."

It is not meant that all Michigan apple growers are trying to push off poor grades on the public. In fact it is probably only a few who are. But according to the old saying, you know what one bad apple can do to the rest of the bunch.

Now is the opportunity for farm magazines to step in swinging with both editorial fists and do what they can to prevent a few farmers from making it tough for the rest—instead of ignoring the situation or pretending it does not exist.

Some 226 country editors said the Post Office should be turned over to private business after a magazine sent out questionnaires asking how the editors felt about the issue.

These editors believe private business could handle the Post Office better than the government has been doing.

And we feel that if the government ever turns over to private business those departments that don't pay their way Washington, D. C. will become a strange place, indeed.

Reminds us of the Charlevoix County Fair and the Ironton Ferry. Is there anyone who wants to start the bidding for these county government concessions?

Secretary of State Dulles recently gave this comparison of a worker's earnings in New York and Moscow:

"For a worker to buy a pound of butter in New York, it takes 27 minutes of work; for a similar worker in Moscow, it takes over six hours of work.

"For a pound of sugar, 3½ minutes in New York; 84 minutes in Moscow.

"For a quart of milk, seven minutes in New York; 42 minutes in Moscow.

"For a dozen eggs, 25 minutes in New York; nearly three hours in Moscow.

"For a cotton shirt, nearly one hour in New York; 22 hours in Moscow.

"For a man's suit, three days in New York; 47 days in Moscow.

"For overshoes, one day in New York; 13 days in Moscow.

"For a woman's wool suit, 22 hours in New York; 22 days in Moscow.

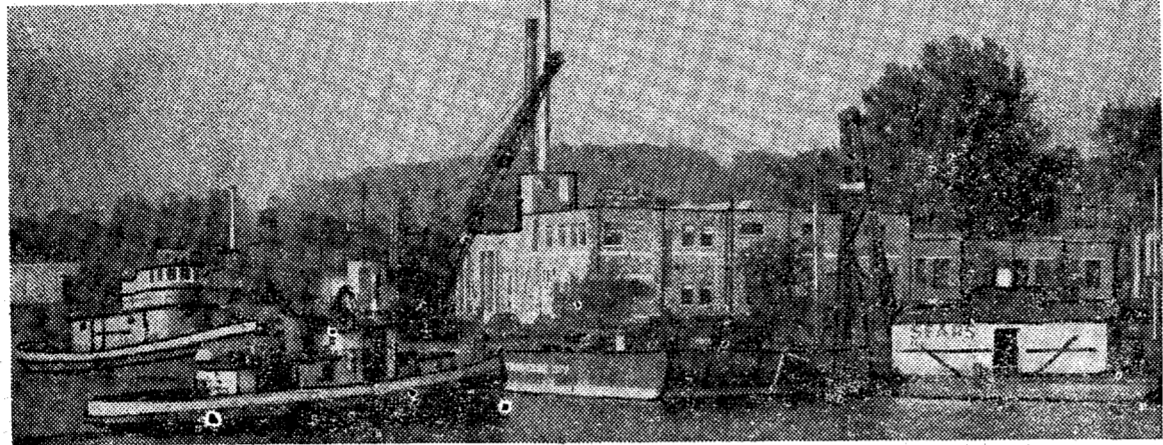

"For a cake of soap, three minutes in New York; 30 minutes in Moscow."

Our night patrolling friend genial Joe Wilkins now is back on the beat following a three week illness. Friends and residents are happy that Joe is around again at night looking after their welfare.

It's A Boy

Mr. and Mrs. Niles Hill are announcing the birth of a son, Edward Niles. He was born October 27th at Sparrow Hospital in Lansing and weighed seven pounds ten ounces. Before her marriage Mrs. Hill was Shirley Rebec, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rebec of East Jordan.

Lay Pipe For Disposal Plant

An Appeal

Your elected representatives, the City Council and those associated with the problem of disposal of the City sewage have encountered considerable opposition in bringing about the installation of a proper sewage treatment plant and collection system for our City.

This is our problem as citizens of East Jordan. It was thought a small article in addition to what has previously been written might clarify the situation and (we hope) promote cooperation with the furthering of this project.

The facts of the case are these: The project has been planned by a registered engineer according to the demands of the State of Michigan. These plans were altered according to the wishes of a previous council and again according somewhat to the demands of the various citizens' organizations. Efforts are being made to make this plan compatible as possible to all concerned. Surely it will be impossible to please everyone, especially if costs are to be kept down.

The job was advertised and bids taken on the approved plan. The contract was let to the lowest responsible bidder. One part has been sublet.

We must admit the project cannot go thru without some disruption of traffic and some unsightly mess in various parts of the town. We trust this will be temporary.

We therefore appeal to you, the good citizens of East Jordan, that you will bear with us and help put this project thru promptly and with the least expense compatible with a good job. We feel that when the project is completed it will in the long run be a huge benefit to our City healthfully, financially and aesthetically.

Rotary And Businessmen Sponsor Halloween Party

The East Jordan Rotary Club and East Jordan businessmen are again sponsoring a Halloween Night at the High School this coming Saturday evening, October 31st.

It is the sincere hope of the men who sponsor this night of fun that it affords young people of this community an opportunity to have fun which does not fringe on vandalism and the thoughtless destruction of property.

Cider and doughnuts will be served to all students, grade school and high school. The evening program will appeal mainly to grades seven through twelve. While the younger set of fun makers are out "Trick or Treating," the older students will participate in sets of competitive games, masquerades and square dancing.

Further information will be passed out to school students this week so that they may organize into various squads for the games. Cash prizes will be given to the classes who have the greatest percentage of attendance and number of points won in the games.

The public is invited to observe the festivities and join in on the square dancing. The program will begin at 7 o'clock and end at 12.

Again it is the hope of the businessmen that parents and students alike be aware of the purposes of this program.

Know Your American Legion

Membership in The American Legion is strictly limited and is based on honorable and active service during World War I or II or the Korean War. Throughout the length and breadth of this great land, there are only a comparative few who can get into the American Legion. Membership is an honor and a privilege. You may well be proud of your membership and may be proud to extend an invitation to a veteran to become a member.

The American Legion stands for the highest American principles; its members are going forward, hand in hand, for God and country. Comrades in service, comrades now, we are pledged to "uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America, to promote peace and good will on earth and to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness."

Pages could be written about the accomplishments of The American Legion. You are already familiar with some of them and space will not permit them to be set forth in any detail. The following, however, are some of the high points of this great organization.

Scarcely had the Armistice been signed in November 1918, when steps were taken looking towards an organization of American veterans of the World War. In September, 1919, a charter was granted to the American Legion by Congress.

On October 29, 1942, the Congressional Charter of The American Legion was amended to include in American Legion membership honorably discharged veterans of World War II. It was amended again on December 28, 1950, to include in American Legion membership honorably discharged veterans of the Korean War.

One of the big jobs of the organization has been finding jobs for unemployed veterans. During the depression of 1922, The American Legion found 500,000 permanent and 200,000 temporary jobs for ex-service men. Hotels and lunchrooms were opened in many cities and more than one million dollars was spent for relief work. It has subsequently aided in other unemployment situations.

(To Be Continued next week)

Beagle Club

Police Ride In Class

The Michigan Press Association's board of directors has declared that the body does not favor any federal subsidy to help with mailing costs.

The press association represents Michigan daily and weekly newspapers, including the East Jordan News-Herald.

The resolution stated:

"First, the board of directors of the Michigan Press Association, Inc., wishes to state emphatically its conviction that Michigan newspapers do not favor or seek a federal subsidy to cover cost of second class mailing of newspapers.

"Second, we believe congress should review and determine what part of present postal services constitute public service and what part should be paid for by postal users.

"Third, we favor improvement of the postoffice department through modernization of methods and equipment as proposed by the Hoover commission on reorganization of federal government. We are confident that such modernization will result further savings by reduction of operating costs."

The opening day of the Eff and Dee Variety Store will be announced soon. The newspaper's masthead above the front page reads: "The Enterprise" and below it is: "South Arm, Michigan, Thursday, February 16, 1899.—Editor."

Letter Box: Reader Says Old Enterprise Never Published In South Arm

Dear Editor:
 Just read a paragraph in "Over the Fence" column for October 15.

The "old Enterprise was never printed on the west side of the lake where the village of South Arm was located, as indicated by you.

It was founded in Boyne City by Budd and Garrison in September, 1880; sold to E. N. Clink and moved to East Jordan April 7, 1882 to the second story of Fletcher Empey's grocery store that stood where the Duck Inn is now located.

William F. Palmiter bought a half interest in it April 14, 1883; October 11, 1883 Mr. Clink leased his share to Thomas F. Nelson. November 18, 1883 the building and printing office burned. Publication was suspended until February 21, 1884 when Mr. Nelson bought Mr. Clink's share.

Later he and Mr. Palmiter sold the paper to Charles Dixon who, in turn, sold it to C. L. Lorraine early in 1891. It was located in the building at the end of Main Street where the Drenth Lumber Company had their office until it and their warehouses burned.

The only newspaper printed over in South Arm was a small sheet printed by Andrew Sufferin. He learned the trade from Mr. Lorraine but they didn't get along too well so Andy decided to start one of his own. He got hold of a small press somewhere and set up business in the rear of Jacob Bisnett's general store across the street from where the Eveline Orchards warehouse is now.

His paper was small but deadly. It ended by Mr. Lorraine and the sheriff coming over and locking the place up. That night Andy, whose home was in Ellsworth, came over, climbed thru a window and, by the light of a small kerosene lamp, wrote, set up and printed his last issue, the last words being, "I'm printing this for you while the sheriff and "Old Whiskers" (Mr. Lorraine wore a full beard) are pounding on the barred door, trying to get in and stop me."

"SHERLOCK".....

After receiving your letter we checked with Mrs. Ed Kamradt, formerly Martha Lorraine. She is the daughter of Roy Lorraine and granddaughter of C. L. Lorraine.

Mrs. Kamradt agrees with you that the as far as she knows the Enterprise was never published on the west side of the lake. However, we checked again with the old issue of the Enter-

East Jordan Weddings:

NEMECEK - VALLANCE

Miss Ruth Ann Nemecek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nemecek, Sr. of East Jordan, became the bride of John Edward Vallance, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vallance, also of East Jordan on October 17, 1953. Rev. Father Klimowicz of Elmira read the double ring ceremony at Nuptial Mass at 9:00 a.m. in the St. John's Catholic Church.

Louis Jofsek, organist, accompanied the choir with traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose white slipper satin for her gown with nylon lace pleats and top. The fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara crown, and she carried a bouquet of red and white roses. The maid of honor was Esther Nemecek, sister of the bride. Her gown was of peacock blue nylon net over taffeta with a short veil of the same material. Anna Puroll, bridesmaid, wore an American Beauty dress of nylon net over taffeta fashioned identically with the Maid of Honor's. Both carried bouquets of yellow pom-poms.

Sam Bricker served as best man and Jerry Nemecek, brother of the bride, seated the guests. Following the ceremony, a breakfast was given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nemecek, Jr. at the Peninsula Grange Hall.

At 8:00 p.m. a reception was given, also at the Peninsula Grange Hall. A four tier wedding cake was served to 250 guests.

The newly wedded couple took a trip to the upper peninsula and returned October 22nd. The bride's traveling attire was a gray suit with red accessories. The couple are making their home in Muskegon.

WOODCOCK - GIBBARD

Miss Barbara Woodcock became the bride of George Gibbard, Jr. on October 17th at 12 o'clock noon at St. Joseph's Rectory. The double ring ceremony was read by the Very Rev. Father Malinowski.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodcock of East Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. George Gibbard, Sr. of Pleasant Valley.

The bride's gown was of imported French nylon chantilly lace over cameo pink satin, fashioned with an Elizabeth collar. It had a full ballerina length skirt and fitted sleeves which tapered to points at the wrists. She wore a hat made of pink cameo satin and a fitted cape of satin covered with lace to match the gown. Her flowers were pink and white roses. A single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, was her only jewelry.

Ethel Wilson, friend of the bride was maid of honor and Peggy Thomas, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Both wore ballerina length gowns of Nile green nylon tulle over a Nile green strapless taffeta gown and net stoles. Their flowers were yellow and white mums. Jack Wilson, friend of the groom, served as best man and Ivan Davis, cousin of the bride, was groomsmen.

The bride's mother chose a wine colored dress with black accessories for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother wore a gray suit with black accessories. Both wore corsages of yellow mums.

A reception, given by the bride's parents, was held during the evening at the American Legion Hall. The bride's table, covered with a white linen cloth, was centered with a four tier wedding cake baked by the bride's mother. Baskets of pale pink mums also decorated the table. Suebell Shepard, Ethel Wilson and Mrs. Dorion Gibbard served the wedding cake, while Mrs. Barbara Cutler and Mrs. Barbara Pearsall poured the coffee.

Traditional wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Leon Beals throughout the reception. She also accompanied Margaret Blossie, soloist, who sang, "Always."

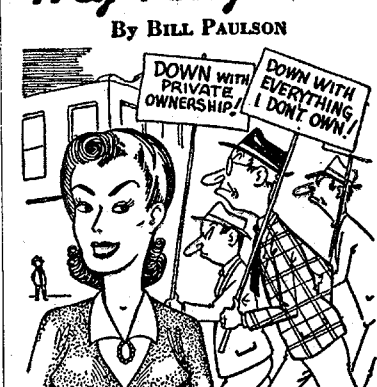

Master and Mistress of Ceremonies were Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Thomas, sister and brother-in-law of the bride.

Following the reception, the couple left for a short trip in northern Michigan. The bride chose a gray dress with red trim and accessories for her going away.

Mr. Gibbard, who attended school in Central Lake, is now employed at Continental Motors in Muskegon as a stock cashier. Mrs. Gibbard, a graduate of the class of 1952 of East Jordan High School, was recently a telephone operator in Muskegon.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. Woodcock of Richland; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Taylor of Gaylord; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gibbard of Petoskey; Mr. and Mrs. Lyn Gibbard of Ann Arbor; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pardie of Central Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Petrie of Boyne City; Miss Jean Harrison of Saginaw; Miss Margaret Blossie of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Drenth and Miss Ruth Wilson of Grand Rapids and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beals of Lansing.

SCHOOL HI-LITES

KINDERGARTEN

Alice M. Neaman

Most of our members who have been absent because of chicken pox, are back in school.

We are looking forward to the Halloween party in the room on Friday. We have our masks almost all made for it.

This week we are learning a new Halloween song and a new game called Squirrel and nut.

Our girls are having added fun in the doll corner with dress up clothing and our boys have long boards for racing their little cars. On our discovery table gourd, a bird nest, and another caterpillar have been added.

Gerry Donaldson, LeRoy Clark and Phillip Goebel brought pumpkins for the room.

FIRST GRADE

Reuhama Foote

It was so nice to have our mothers and fathers come to visit our room. We hope they were happy with our work that they saw. Many of them laughed when they saw the funny masks that we made.

We have something new and alive in our room. Can you guess what it is? Two gold fish. We named them Johnnie and Bonnie. Leon said that he would like to feed them so we gave that job to him.

We are glad that we are going to have a parade Friday. We probably will scare everyone in town. We have three birthdays this week. They are Paul Neme-

Francis Burdo and Rita Shepard.

SECOND GRADE

Agnes Johnston

We were happy to see so many of our mothers and fathers in our room at "Open House" last Wednesday evening.

We are enjoying reading from our Weekly Readers. We learned that New York City was 300 years old.

Steady progress in spelling is a goal that we are striving to attain. We are all going to try and have six perfect spelling papers in our November spelling booklets.

Our "News Time" last week brought many interesting stories about pets we have at home.

We are having a good time with the new library books Miss Scott brought to our room. We are learning books are our friends and we should take good care of them.

Billy Darbee and Danny Kent brought the first jack-o-lanterns to school. They have been the center of attraction the last few days. We will light the jack o'-lanterns Friday and have them lighted during our party.

RoxAnne Schroeder and Patty Clark each brought a rocking chair for our library center. James Goebel, Billy Darbee and Frances Wilson each brought a pretty little rug to use in our library.

The children who will work on the Halloween party Friday are: Harold Snyder, Catherine Goebel,

THIRD GRADE

Adeline Bowerman

We were glad to see many pumpkins on the fence showing that we had several visitors to our room at the open house PTC meeting.

Tommy Breakey was eight years old on October 25th. He brought a candy bar treat for his classmates. Peter Zoulek was eight on October 20th and for the occasion, his mother brought lovely cup cakes with candles and apples for each one. For both boys we played the Happy Birthday record and played the game the record told us about.

One day last week we had a hornet's nest for our science study. The outside wrapper was off so we could see the interesting construction of the nest. On Monday Robert Donaldson brought a huge nest which showed how it had been hung on to a small twig. Miss Scott is helping us find some books to read more about bees, hornets and wasps.

One beautiful day last week we took a science walk looking for signs of fall. We could identify several kinds of trees by the leaves. We can tell the difference between black oak and white oak leaves and we know the difference between soft and hard wood trees.

Mrs. Hilda Cook and sister Mrs. Mary Larson are visiting relatives in Battle Creek and Bellevue.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Shepard of Birch Run visited his mother Mrs. Alice Sheppard of last week end.

FREE BUTTER!

Mr. Dairyman! Walter Page, New York dairy consultant, says if every farmer buys one extra pound of butter a week, he will soon be getting his butter FREE!

HOW COME?
 If this were done, 1,750,000 lbs. of butter would be taken off the commercial market each week. Soon there would be reflected a 15 to 20c per cwt. increase in the price paid for milk and producers would get their butter free, because of the increased price.

 To help start you, we will GIVE A FREE pound of Valley Lea butter with each purchase this week of 2 or more bags of dairy ration, soybean oilmeal or linseed oilmeal.

THIS WEEK ONLY! COME AND GET IT!

East Jordan Whips Gaylord Now Second In Conference

East Jordan's Red Devils found little difficulty in racking up a 20 to 0 score against the Blue Devils of Gaylord on the local gridiron Friday afternoon.

East Jordan's win and Mancelona's loss to Charlevoix Friday night moved the locals into second place in the north state C standings.

The Red Devils held Gaylord from getting into scoring position until the final quarter when they moved to East Jordan's 15.

In the first quarter halfback Ray Gee pumped around end for a 30 yard gallop to score. Keith Evans kicked the extra tally.

In the second quarter Bobbie Rombach went across from the 5. East Jordan's third touchdown came in the last quarter when Keith Evans plunged over from the three. He kicked two of the extra points.

East Jordan and Charlevoix wins kept the Red Rayders on top of the heap in the C loop with the locals moving up into second place, a slot held by Mancelona before their two crumbling defeats.

Final season wins for both teams will result with the Rayders and Red Devils in first and second place respectively among 1953 north state C squads.

Red Devils Travel To Harbor Springs Friday

The second place Red Devils will take to the road Friday night to meet the Harbor Springs Rams on their own field.

The Rams are recovering this week from a 21 to 0 defeat at the hands of Boyer City.

The Boyer outfit ran up three touchdowns while keeping Harbor's pass attack under control.

Boyer scored on the third play after they got the ball. Rothenberger went over from the one. Other scorers were: Chuck Taylor on a safety, Mert Erber on a 28 yard sprint and Florenski raced from the 19.

At Charlevoix Friday night the Rayders took complete control of the first half against a fighting Mancelona outfit. Charlevoix's speed and Mancelona's ineffective passing attack cost the Ironmen many yards and a couple of touchdowns.

Charlevoix moved fast when they got the ball, moving to Mancelona's 25. Bennett heaved to Albright on the 10 and scored.

Other points were made by McDermott smashing over for the second score, Mol caught a toss in the end zone; and with Smith kicking the extra points the score was 20 to 0 at half time.

Charlevoix's scoring ended in the third when Jolliffe went over from the three.

The Ironmen came to life at this time with Derrer going over from the eight and with Dalton catching a pass for their second score.

Petoskey St. Francis squeezed out a one point victory over a scrappy Pellston team, 13 to 12.

Right halfback Glenn Aurrand chalked up Pellston's scores on 12 and 22 yards runs in the first and second quarters.

Scoring for St. Francis were Budek, on 2 touchdowns and Ulrich for the game-winning extra point.

Orchard Notes

By C. Fairman

SPRAY FOR WHAT YOU HAVE

Perhaps the peach grower has only had to spray a dormant spray for leaf curl. Then scale may appear in certain blocks. Nothing can be done about it on the occurring year; however, the grower can apply material for peach scale the following year and keep his peaches free of blackmarks.

The same goes for worms. After worms appear at ripening dates the grower tries to find out which one it is. The oriental fruit moth, Japanese Beetle, Curculio or codling moth and other materials are selected to combat the various pests. This may require varied materials to fit each pest.

If neighboring peach orchards do not spray properly a few insects creep in despite anything. The point to bring out is that you will first have a certain pest before you know it. Then on the following year do your best to combat the pest or pests.

100 Hens Will Throw Off 22 Quarts Of Water

Farm engineers at MSC play a big role in helping poultrymen keep laying - house litter dry in cold winter months.

A flock of 100 hens will throw off about 22 quarts of water a day in body wastes and respiration and wet litter means dirty hen feet in the nests, making dirty eggs.

Insulation and ventilation go hand-in-hand in laying houses. Insulation helps in the job of raising the inside temperatures so the air will absorb more moisture; ventilation moves the wet air out and brings fresh air in—but without a draft.

For flocks of birds up to 500, and in the "A" shaped type house a straw loft does a good ventilation job—if there is about three feet of straw and the warm moisture-laden air can get up through with the aid of louvers. For a flock of 500, there should be a louver in each end of the gable roof, each with about 20 square feet of area.

Positive ventilation with electric fans is best for flocks over 500 in number. Exhaust-type fans should be near the ceiling on the south or east side of the house, and each fan should have adequate intakes; they can be controlled thermostatically.

Extension Bulletin 317, "Ventilation for Michigan Laying Houses," is available from county agricultural agents and the Bulletin Office, MSC.

Corn Harvest Safety Odds Are Figured

If you are a careless operator of a mechanical corn picker, your chances of getting injured are 50-50 in the next five years.

If you are an average operator, your chances are one in 25.

If you are a safe operator, there's one chance in a million that you might be hurt.

Those are the chance figures compiled by the National Safety Council.

But if you are going to be a safe operator, there are a lot of details in handling a corn picker that need attention, says Howard F. McColly, agricultural engineer at Michigan State College. He lists these:

The machinery must be in good condition to start with and kept that way.

Keep shields in place and remember to stop the picker for adjustments or to remove clogs.

Always wear close-fitting clothing. One of the most dangerous pieces of clothing is the six fingered glove. That extra thumb originally was intended for hand-husking.

If you're operating a self-propelled machine, don't reach for levers when the picker is in operation.

Be careful about fire. Keep husks cleaned away from the exhaust of the tractor and keep a fire extinguisher handy.

Don't operate the machine when you're tired. Change off with another operator or stop and rest. There can be a loss of fingers, hands and legs, even death, as the result of one moment's carelessness.

Don't shoot that mad dog!

Dr. William S. Preston, at the U-M Pasteur Institute, warns that chances for diagnosing rabies are immeasurably greater if the dog is brought in alive.

If you have been bitten, or if you discover a mad dog on the prowl in the neighborhood, don't obey your first impulse and start firing away at the animal. Call the police or humane society.

The situation is altered, of course, if the animal is attacking a victim viciously. In such a case, immediate destruction of the dog may be unavoidable.

Lab technicians have a better chance of discovering Negri bodies in an animal which has died of the disease than in one which has been killed before the disease takes its course. If Negri bodies are not found microscopically, a suspension of brain tissue is injected in mice. The mice then are observed. If rabies is present, it usually kills the mice in eight to 12 days after injection. Dr. Preston says that controlled laboratory observation gives everyone a break. If the suspected dog is shot before diagnosed as rabid, he may have been destroyed needlessly. And the victim may have undergone the strenuous Pasteur treatment needlessly.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

It's the Principal of the Thing!

Every autumn our High School has a contest to see who can get the most ads for The Recorder—the school magazine. The winner becomes honorary Principal for a day.

Skip Roberts won last week, and his first (and only) official act as "Principal" of the school was to announce in a loud, clear voice: "I hereby declare today a school holiday!"

Knowing Miss Gilbert, the real principal, it was no surprise to me that she laughed as hard as anybody else... and said to go right ahead.

From where I sit, it's no wonder our youngsters think Miss Gilbert's such a wonderful person (even though they know they'll have to make up that day). Her tolerance, her friendly way with people of all ages reflect in everything she does. For instance, at my house Miss Gilbert prefers tea but always respects my preference for a glass of beer. As a real person... in any community, Miss Gilbert belongs at "the head of the class."

State Farm Doctor To Retire, Ask For Applicants

After 21 years of service to the Michigan Department of Agriculture, Dr. Albert W. Judd, 62, will retire as assistant State Veterinarian because of ill health.

Dr. Judd came to the Department's veterinary work as TB inspector on Sept. 1, 1932, after having conducted successful veterinary practices for a quarter century. He began at Bear Lake and later moved to Beulah. On May 7, 1950 Dr. Judd was advanced to the position of Assistant State Veterinarian.

Qualified, experienced veterinarians who might be interested in the post should communicate with George S. McIntyre, acting director of the Department, well in advance of Nov. 9 when the Agricultural commission will interview applicants at its meeting in the Lewis Cass building, Lansing.

Pearsall Called Back To Head County Fair

Claude Pearsall, county fair president for many years, last week was called back into the board's top position to take charge of the 1954 fair.

Last year Claude acted as vice president while William Cole, of Boyne City, reigned as president.

Ed Rebman, of Boyne City, long time fair secretary, has also stepped down.

The fair board elected 1954 officers in this manner:

Pearsall, president; Richard Schroeder, East Jordan FFA teacher, secretary; Dan Bennett, East Jordan, vice-president; Jess Smith of Charlevoix, second-vice president; and Archie Murphy, East Jordan, treasurer.

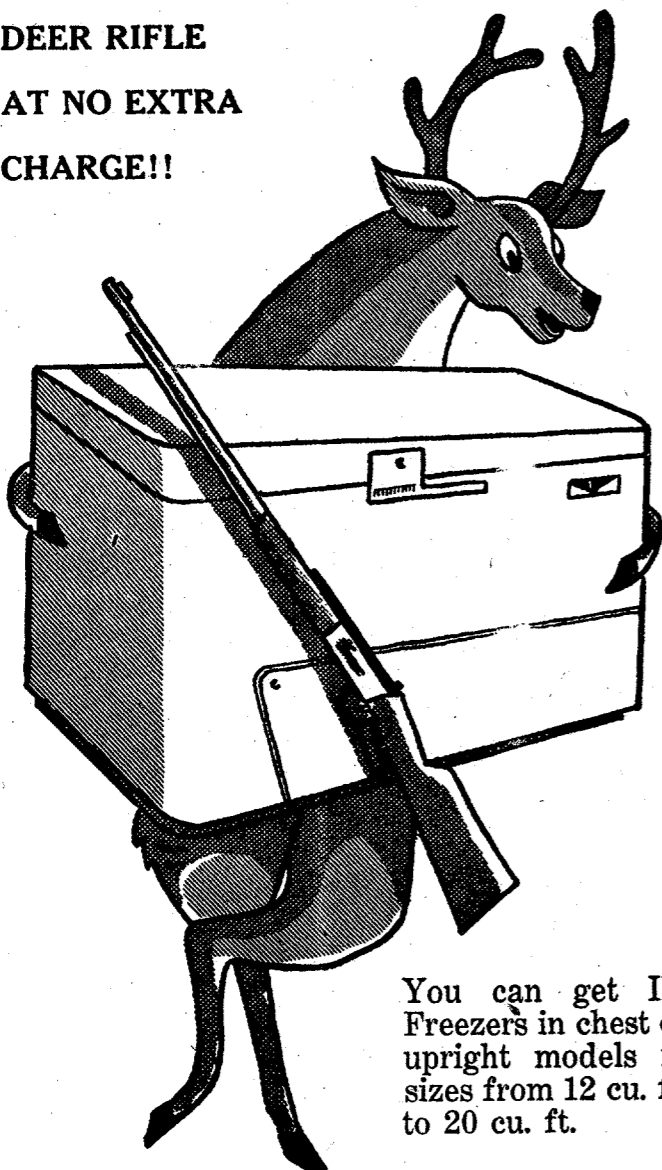

Big plans for the 1954 fair will be worked out by President Pearsall and Secretary Schroeder.

There now is greater support for a paid secretary-manager who could operate two months before the fair and act in cooperation with and in addition to the elected secretary.

Harold Totten, of the Charlevoix Courier, a board member, is pushing the paid secretary idea. His plan is gathering backers and some board members feel that county supervisors would rather
