Charlevoix county residents are the eatingest people! They ate more food during the month of March than the people in any one of the following counties: Cheboygan, Emmet, Antrim, Otsego and Kalkaska.

During March, Charlevoix county was number one in food sales in Northern Michigan. Cheboygan county was second and Emmet county third.

That's a twist-a-roo hard to figure. For there are 3,000 more people in Emmet county than in Charlevoix county. Yet Charlevoix people paid $2,650 more for food during March than the people of Emmet county.

That's figured from state sales tax collections for March. Charlevoix county turned in $9,768 in food sales tax, while Emmet turned in $8,973.

These sales tax returns were for 332 dealers in Charlevoix county and 393 in Emmet county.

Emmet county is always way ahead of Charlevoix in other sales, however. They are automotive, apparel, building, lumber and hardware, furniture general merchandise, specialty and miscellaneous retail items.

This is something of a mystery and a clue to this mysterious business may be shown in the sale of non-retail items. For there again, Charlevoix county is ahead of Emmet. The state collected $1,703 more in 8 percent non-retail sales tax for Charlevoix county than Emmet.

The question is: If Charlevoix county residents buy more food and more non-retail items than the people of Emmet, how come they don't purchase more other retail items than our good friends to the north of us.

The answer seems to be that they do! But we could be wrong. However, the people of Charlevoix county must spend as much or more money annually than the people of Emmet. That's what these figures point to. But our residents are not spending it all in Charlevoix county.

They are buying their food and non-retail items at home. Official figures show this. Much of the rest of their money finds its way to dealers outside the county.

It is plain that food is the most important item in our daily living. And it is a good basis upon which to judge the wealth of the people in a given area.

And when the people of Charlevoix county spend more for food than any other county in the north, it follows that Charlevoix county is as financially well off or maybe more so than the residents of these other counties.

It is well that the month of March is taken as an example. For it is a non-resort month. A month when sales tax collections show how much year-around residents are spending here.

If all our county residents spent their entire annual incomes within the county, our financial standing or rating would be amazing; and many people probably would adjust their thinking about the importance of this county to the north country as a whole.

Bowman Opens Used Car Lot On West Side

Bright lights have come to the West Side with the official opening of Bowman's Used Car Lot at the corner of Bridge and Water streets.

"Bo" Bowman of Charlevoix, who has other lots in that city and at Mancelona, said this week, he will have 15 to 20 used cars on the new lot at all times.

The land was leased from Art Rouse of Boyne City and developed for the used car lot. Bowman said 350 loads of gravel were used to fill in the corner area and that 20 trees had to be removed. Eventually the area will be blacktopped.

A modern 12x16 foot office building has been constructed on the lot, where Bowman himself will be located. He has been in the used car business for one and a half years.

These cars, which carry a guarantee, will be serviced at the firm's body shop and garage in Charlevoix.

Bowman has six car salesmen including Coach Del Terrill of Charlevoix, and Jim Bowman, a son, who is a member of the varsity football squad at University of Michigan.

Max And His Boys . . .

How do you win a state tennis championship? It isn't easy. You learn this when you are informed Red Devil players are using school courts all summer long and last year right up to November 8th.

Six or seven months of constant playing have paid off for the local boys and proves that persistence, determination and the will to win are powerful combinations.

The squad has brought a long sought honor to their home town. That's a state athletic title.

It has been a quarter century since any Class C conference school in this area won a state championship. Harbor Springs grabbed the State C basketball title back in 1929.

THE CURRENT title injected East Jordan's name into the state sport news, increased local enthusiasm for tennis, and focused the attention of Michigan Class C tennis teams on the East Jordan squad's activities for the coming year.

Max Damoth and his Red Devil tennis squad rate a special salute from the residents of East Jordan.

THE MICHIGAN 4-H Club Foundation is still working on plans for a Northern Michigan 4-H Club Center. Location, however, has not been announced. State 4-H representatives were in Charlevoix county several months ago checking sites and talking with city officials. The Foundation is receiving contributions and working on a $5,000,000 goal with which to carry out 4-H developments.

WHERE CAN YOU catch those big muskies in Northern Michigan? The Conservation Department says you'll have to go where there are not many pike. For pike and muskies are natural enemies. But fair catches of muskies can be made in Indian River, Torch River and in Elk and Round Lakes in Antrim and Grand Traverse counties. One sportsman insists there's one musky living under the bridge across the Jordan River, but that the old fellow refuses to bite.

THE RECENT enthusiasm to produce more strawberries in Charlevoix county is dulled somewhat by early frosts. But the state crop as a whole now being harvested is larger than last year's. Biggest Northern Michigan strawberry plantings are around Traverse City and Cheboygan. Michigan's total acreage is largest east of the Pacific coast among late producing states.

THOSE "HDA" signs around Northern Michigan mean that the areas are "health department approved." Although the sign doesn't mean the resort or motel is the last word in modern convenience, it is a reassurance on health and safety. During June the Health Department will check everything from room ventilation to bathing beaches at 5,000 Michigan summer resorts.

LAWYERS SAID CLAIM VALID

North State Indians Asked $200,000,000 From U.S. Gov.

How much are Lake Michigan's islands worth? Back in 1913, five hundred Ottawa and Chippewa Indians were asking the U.S. government for two hundred million dollars for taking them away.

These islands included the North and South Manitous; North and South Fox; Beaver Island with its cluster of lesser islands; Mackinac Island and Bois Blanc.

An attorney spent two years preparing a claim to file for the Indians.

Indians claiming the land resided at Charlevoix, Petoskey, Mackinaw City and Sault Ste. Marie.

The Indians were trying hard to get the money because a little earlier the government had paid some tribes $200,000 on a similar claim.

The claim involving the islands was the largest made by the Indians against the government.

The claim hinged upon the interpretation of the treaty of 1833, between the government and 12 tribes, including the Northern Michigan Ottawas and Chippewas.

It was supposed under the terms of the treaty that the red man had signed away all rights to land where South Chicago is now located, to all the Great Lakes islands and to unrestricted fishing rights in lake waters, as well as other property of enormous value in Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois.

But it was claimed that through faulty wording of the treaty and through oversight, the islands were not included in the treaty.

In 1913, through the U. S. Court of claims the Indians were attempting to obtain the money for the property of which they had been deprived for two generations.

The News-Herald has no information showing that the government paid $200,000,000 for these islands.

Several attorneys working on the claim said it was the most gigantic claim ever entered against public domain by Indians. But they also said the claim was valid.

Gradual disbanding of the tribes posed a problem. It was necessary to locate all direct descendants of the chiefs of the tribes named in the claim-a big job. But it was done.

The Indians' attorneys in presenting their huge claim against the United States called attention to the fact that the deprivation of the Indians of their fish rights took from them their principal food—fish.

And since they couldn't get their main food, they wanted the money, —$200,000,000.

Al Rogers, Jr. To Visit Europe For Third Time

Sergeant First Class Alfred G. Rogers, Jr., of East Jordan, will soon leave Atlanta, Ga., for Fort Knox, to join the Third Armored Division.

The division is slated to sail to Europe this winter as part of "Operations Gyroscope." This will be the Sergeant's third tour of duty on the Continent. Most of the six and one half years he spent overseas he was stationed in Germany. It was in Frankfurt-am-Main, Germany, that he met and married his wife, Helene, in 1949.

When she joins her husband in returning to the land of her birth, however, it will be as an American citizen. She received her final papers and took the oath of allegiance to the United States at a ceremony in the District Federal Court House at Macon, Ga., last week.

Before adopting Sergeant Rogers' country she adopted his mother's name, Erdine, for her own middle name.

Sergeant Rogers, a member of American Legion Post 227 in East Jordan has been an instructor in the Reserve Officers' Training Program (ROTC) at Georgia Military College, Milledgeville, Ga., for the past three years.

Don't argue with this baby!

All Chevrolet's competitors and most of the high-priced cars tried it recently in official NASCAR* trials—and took a licking!

Met the champ! The new Chevrolet "Turbo-Fire V8" — the most modern V8 on the road today. Here's what happened—

Daytona Beach, NASCAR Acceleration Tests Over Measured Mile From Standing Start. Chevrolet captured the 4 top positions in its class! 8 of the first 11! And on a time basis Chevrolet beat every high-priced car, too—but one! But wait!—this is just the beginning!

Daytona Beach, NASCAR Straightaway Running. Open to cars delivered in Florida for $2,500 or less. Chevrolet captured the first two places, 7 out of the first 11 places!

Daytona Beach, NASCAR 2-Way Straightaway Running Over Measured Mile. Open to cars from 250 to 299 cu. in. displacement. Chevrolet captured 3 of the first 5 places!

Columbia, S. C. NASCAR 100-Mile Race on half-mile track. Very tight turns. Chevrolet finished first!

Fayetteville, N. C. NASCAR Late Model Event. Chevrolet again finished first. Because of even tighter turns the driver chose to run the entire 150 laps in second gear! Yet no overheating or pit stops!

These facts you can't laugh off. Sales leader. Road leader. A crowning achievement of Chevrolet and General Motors. Try a Chevrolet... and live in a land of going-away where you win all the arguments! Soon, maybe?

Way, way ahead!

PIG SLUMP ENDED IT!

What Happened To Ironton's 800 Happily Employed Men?

If anyone told you there were 800 men employed at Ironton you'd wrinkle your nose and scoff.

Perhaps there isn't now. But at one time Ironton was known around the United States for its famous and important Pine Lake Iron Company, which employed, believe it or not, 800 men! The men of Ironton put their brains and brawn into much of the vast Union Pacific Railway, for much of the iron to build the rails came from the firm at the narrows of Lake Charlevoix.

IT WAS one of the pioneer iron furnaces of Great Lakes region, operating a smelter, battery of 30, or more, charcoal kilns, its own lumbering outfit, a large company store, a boarding house, its own tug and ore boats, and its own railroad spur from Ironton to the main line in Charlevoix.

Yes, Ironton had its day! The 800 men were housed in company-built dwellings arranged in orderly streets west and north of the plant. The firm owned timber on most of the great stands of hardwood along the south shore of Lake Charlevoix. The iron from Ironton was recognized on the market as one of superior quality and the firm boasted of that fact.

THE COMPANY was organized and financed by Robert Cherrie 76 years ago. For 15 years the boys whooped it up at Ironton.

The furnaces were sputtering, the mills were singing the boats were puffing and the railroad train clicked 'em off on the way to Charlevoix.

And then it happened! After 15 years of top rate production United States nose dived into a panic. It was the slump of 1893—sixty-one years ago.

The price of pig-iron was slashed over night. The huge Ironton operation was scuttled in short order. Eight hundred men were out of work.

ROBERT Cherrie's Pine Lake Iron Company fell into the hands of a receiver.

The plant was wrecked and salvaged. The workmen's houses were torn down. And all Ironton settled down to do what it could to survive.

Today, 61 years later, the community is one of the finest resort and fishing areas in all of Northern Michigan. Quiet, peaceful and pleasant, it retains few landmarks to remind one of the roaring days when iron was king at Ironton.

Stars Honor Past Matrons

The last summer meeting of Mark Chapter 275, O.E.S., because of a confliction of dates, was held at the Masonic Temple Monday evening, June 6th.

Following the closing of the Chapter session, Worthy Matron Mary Ellen Taylor conducted a beautiful ceremony, honoring the Past Matrons and the Past Patrons who were present. These included: Ida Rhuling Kinsey, 1912 and 1913; Ella Carson Clark, 1922 and 1927; Amanda Shepard, 1928, 1929, and 1930; Alice Smatts, 1932; Anna Sherman, 1935; Mabel Secord, 1937; Lorene Wade, 1940 and 1941; Edith Swafford 1944, 1945 and 1946; Mary McKinnon, 1949; Violet Bustard, 1953; Alice Sherman, 1954 and William Sanderson, 1933-1955.

The group was escorted in two lines to the West, led by Conductress Minnie DesJardines and Blanche Bulow, acting as Associate Conductress. The Worthy Matron read a fine tribute to those who have sat in the East, then Carol Howe, accompanied by Alta Drapeau, sang a clever paraphrase of "Long, Long Ago," the theme being "Not So Long Ago."

The group was then led to the East where the Conductresses pinned dainty corsages of rosebuds and ferns on each.

After being seated on the side-lines, Carol Howe sang the first verse of "Memories," after which the Chapter room was darkened and an impressive candle-light ceremony was presented by the five Star Points, robed in white: Adah, Edna Nielsen; Ruth, Irene Wright; Esther, Florence Stucker; Martha, Donna Anderson; and Opal Hastings, substituting for Violet Bustard, Past Matron, as Electa. Mrs. Howe then sang the last verse of "Memories."

The ceremonies closed with the presentation in the East of five Life Members—Ella Carson Clark, a charter member, having been initiated July 6, of 1900 at the time the Chapter was instituted; Ida Rhuling

It's A Boy!

Kinsey, initiated April 5, 1901; Grace Keenholz, August 20, 1908; Rae Keenholz, Milford, April 12, 1911; Edith Ramsey Simmons, February 19, 1919. The tables in the dining room for the luncheon that followed were beautifully decorated, the centerpiece being a large white cake bearing the Star emblem and surrounded by a wreath of green, which had been made for the occasion by Opal Hastings of Ellsworth.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Handle With Care
Tractors are like horses—or mules—in more ways than one. They can be pretty tricky if you don't handle them right.
Too many tractor accidents happen because of carelessness. The day grows hot and drowsy, the job grows monotonous—and bing! Someone forgets to throttle down when making a turn, or something, and there's a bad spill.
Credit Slim Hartman's missus for the fact that there's never been tractor trouble on their place. Midway through every morning and afternoon she brings him snacks. "He'll stay on the alert," she says, "if I get him off the tractor for ten minutes."
From where I sit, carelessness can cause plenty of harm in our off-the-job personal lives, too. For instance, suppose a neighbor prefers a glass of beer with supper. You might not share this particular preference with him—but if you're careless about protecting his right to choose, your own freedom of choice is in danger of being "plowed under."

Keep Picnic Out Of Trunk

Car Trunks often turn into hot boxes, so the Michigan Department of Health hopes you'll find someplace else to store that picnic lunch.

When the sun is hot, the department said, the trunk makes an "excellent incubator" for any bacteria which may be in the food. And by the time you reach your destination, "the food may be teeming with these organisms and loaded with invisible poison."

While few deaths in Michigan are linked with food poisoning, the health department said it is "quite common" and can be very severe.

East Jordan Cleaners

Page 7 * East Jordan News-Herald * Thursday, June 16, 1955

SINCE OL' DIZ mentioned a few ball players' pet superstitions on the air recently, there has been so much comment that I decided to explore the subject further. The results are extremely interesting.

Tiger Manager Bucky Harris puts a resin bag with two fingers when the team is in trouble. If we're winning games, he insists on the same player writing down the line-up that Bucky dictates for the umpire. But the moment we lose, he has a different player write it down.

Bucky is a good housekeeper and dislikes scraps of paper littering the dugout. He's always picking them up.

Speaking of scraps of paper, Bobo Newsome, the former Tiger pitcher, hated seeing them around the mound and wouldn't pitch while they were there.

So it was bound to happen: Doc Cramer, then our center-fielder, tore up a score card and littered the mound as he trotted to the outfield.

Bobo, now a Baltimore radio announcer, made a big show of refusing to pitch until the ground crew had cleaned up the debris.

Another of Bobo's superstitions was touching the foul line with his right forefinger on the way to the pitching box.

Raye Boone never kneels in the batter's circle, always just outside of it. Bill Tuttle wears the same sweatshirt when the team is winning and the same shorts when he's hitting consistently.

Our trainer Jack Homel, opens a pair of scissors and jabs the points in the direction of the opposing pitcher if he thinks the enemy hurler is doing too well against our batters.

Ferris Fain has a superstition that many others subscribe to. When he sees a white horse, he licks his thumb, presses the thumb against the palm of his other hand and then pounds the dampened palm with his fist. This is supposed to bring him many base hits.

Ol' Diz never stepped on a foul line, always picked up my glove with the left hand and never walked between the catcher and the umpire when going to at.

The two most universal superstitions in baseball are never allowing bats to get crossed in the bat rack and never putting away the bats until the game is over — no matter how many runs you are ahead.

Harvey Kuenn is convinced that chewing tobacco helps his batting.

At the trainer's insistence, Harvey gave up the habit in the spring of 1954 and bet him $100 he wouldn't renew it. Thereafter he couldn't buy a hit.

Finally, in desperation one day, Harvey took a chew and got three-to-four. He continued to chew and wound up the season with a .306 average.

Harvey lost a hundred bucks but more than made it up in his 1955 Hickory and Horsehide contract.

Boat Owners Warned Of License Law

Is your boat more than 16 feet long? If so you must pay for a boat license. They are available at the county clerk's office at Charlevoix.

If you ignore this new state law which went into effect on Monday, you are subject to a $100 fine.

The only boats exempt from this new law are those less than 16 feet long or which are at all times propelled solely by muscular power.

That means a rowboat more than 16 feet long must be licensed if you attach an outboard motor.

The warning was made this week by the Michigan State Waterways Commission and will be strictly enforced.

Money collected from these licenses will go solely for the building and improvement of docks harbors and other navigational facilities.

Some of this money was spent in East Jordan last year to construct a new city dock.

Other money has and is being spent at Cheboygan, Charlevoix, Boyne City, Harbor Springs and other Michigan lake towns.

Northern Population Is Increasing

Gaylord Has Highest Growth In 20-Year Population Study

Which Northern Michigan city was "the fastest growing town in the north?" That's for the 20 year period from 1930 to 1950.

Gaylord, as many people have already guessed. For Gaylord's population increased by 644 people or 39.6 percent.

Anyone who knew Gaylord 20 years ago and then visited the city today does not have to rely upon these figures. Expanding population and community improvement there is self evident.

Next in line with the highest percentage of increased population is East Jordan; although Charlevoix added 764 people with a 15.5 percent hike in population.

Next comes Petoskey with an increase of 728 people for a 14.3 percent increase. Boyne City's percent of increase was the same as Petoskey's, with an actual population increase of 378.

Alpena's population increased the highest of any Northern Michigan community, 969, which was only an eight percent hike.

Grayling is at the bottom with the addition of 93 people and only a 4.7 increase.

Including rural residents, Charlevoix county increased about 1,500 in 20 year period.

These figures were compiled before the northern industrial trend had really gotten underway; and prior to the huge increase in resort activities.

There has been no official population count between 1950-1955, a period of changing times in the north.

MANY NORTHERN factories (now employing a total of hundreds) were not here in 1950. In addition, many of the older plants have jumped employment rolls. These facts hold true for Charlevoix county especially.

The county's actual population increase is anybody's guess. But a check of city and rural construction permits, state sales tax collections, real estate transactions, school enrollments and bank accounts, would reveal a decided population boost within the last five years.

Population shifts depend almost entirely upon employment; and in Charlevoix county there has been a steady employment rise for the past five years.

How To Test Silage For Moisture

Juices from grass silage are too valuable to be gushing out of the silo onto the ground, claims Charlevoix county agricultural agent Ed Rebman.

S. T. Dexter, farm crops specialist at Michigan State College, has devised a quick test to find out the moisture content of the silo. He uses a block and absorbent paper with the chopped grass between. By stepping on the block with different weights you can simulate the pressure at different heights in the silo.

A bulletin describing the test and the pressures that should be used is available at the MSC bulletin office. Just write for Article 34-47.

Elk Rapids Football Is Tops In U.S.

Elk Rapids' six-man football team has brought honor to Northern Michigan as one of the most outstanding squads in the nation.

It has been ranked third in the nation on both offense and defense in a national magazine. Elk Rapids was rated with the highest over-all score achieved by any team.

Ranked among the top ten six-man football outfits in United States, Elk Rapids received 46.8 on offense and 9.3 on defense.

The listings were published in the 1955 Annual Six-Man Football Magazine published at Baltimore, Maryland.

The team copped the six-man football title in the Northern Michigan Class D circuit last year and also topped the league in 1952.

Here's how individual players were ranked according to Elk Rapids Coach John Charles Thomas:

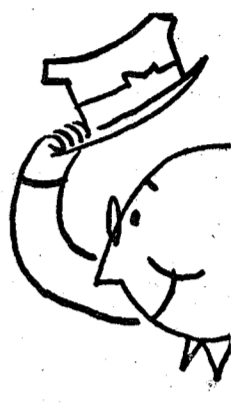

Gerald Krajnik, second top pass receiver.

Johnny Merchant, seventh in pass interceptions.

Robert Carleton, sixth recovering fumbles.

"You'll never 'find' time for anything; you've got to make it!"

We got along with this . . .

until we did something about it OURSELVES!

We were still using lanterns on the farm 20 years after our relatives in town were enjoying electricity. Just a couple of country miles kept us from the modern comforts and the time-saving, work-saving benefits of electric power.

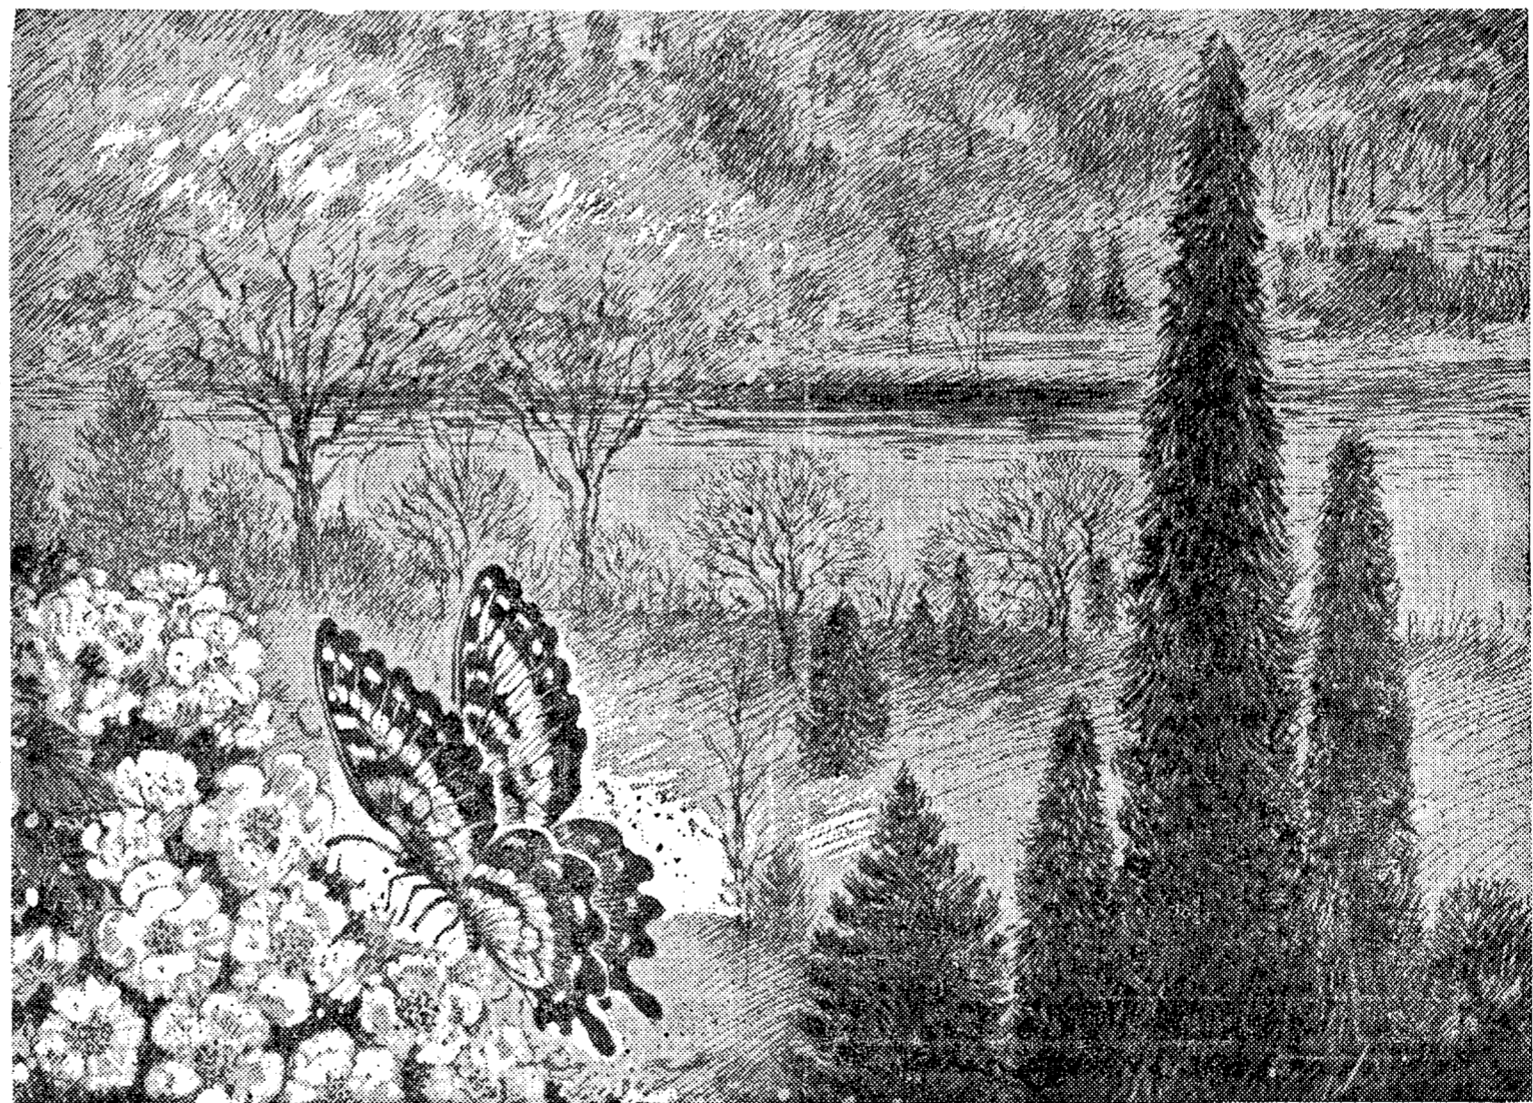

We might still be doing chores by lantern light, using our backs instead of electric motors, if we hadn't organized co-ops to get the job done. In the few years since our co-ops took over, most farms in the country have been totally electrified.

The rapid change in farm living because of electricity seems almost a miracle . . . but near miracles are possible when many people with a common need work together for their common good . . . through cooperatives.

Whatever the great advances of the coming years may be, cooperatives can be used to distribute the benefits of such progress to the greatest number of people.

Here's a letter from Jim Raymond. Long time no hear from Jim. His address is A-2c James Raymond, AF. 1642 57-29 3917th Supply Sqdn. APO 12 New York, New York. Hi Marshall:

First I want to thank each and everyone in East Jordan who are making it possible for us men over here to get the News-Herald.

It sure is something to look forward to each week.

I'm working 24 hours per shift and have 48 hours off. Not a bad deal. I'm still working in refueling, but we have been taking it pretty easy the last few months. We only have around 20 planes on this base, but we'll be getting more later.

I like the duty here, but what they call "Jolly Old England" they can have—even if it has been nice weather for the last two days. Never know when it will rain, in fact it is raining outside now.

Here I am talking about England and I'm going to marry a girl from here. We got engaged on the 24th of May. No set date for the wedding yet.

I see by the paper that Don Whiteford is in Jolly England. How do you like it, Don? I'm stationed about 80 miles from you. This base is called East Kiskadee, almost like E.J. I was going up and see Bill Anderson month before last while I was at Fairford. But will see him one of these days. We will be going back together.

I don't know of anybody else over here from E. J. If any of you do, please put their address in the News-Herald for me. I will try and look them up.

I am running out of words. So I will close until next time. So you all take it easy around E. J. I will see you in about 11 months or so.

Just an old trooper from E.J. Jim Raymond

Ivan Davis is on his way back to see these grand and glorious United States from overseas. He'll be back soon. Another GI returned recently. He's Bob Saxton. He's in E.J. now, talking to old friends and planning college next fall.

Here's a letter from Marvin

B. Frank. He is out of service and living in Denver. His address is 1575 So. Hazel Court.

Marvin says: It was of great help and interest to me while in the service to know what was taking place while I was away. I extend to you my heartfelt thanks for your kindness and thoughtfulness in sending the paper to me while I was in the service.

May your good work be greatly rewarded and bring you much happiness. Am certain that those still in the service are greatly pleased that you are doing this for them.

The cherished memories of the city of East Jordan will some day, I am sure, make me return to the place of my youth. Tell Warren Frank, Jr., if you see him, that I said Hello. Trust that his stay in Korea will be short and interesting to him.

May your city continue to grow and prosper in the future as it has in the last few years. Am glad to hear that the city is civic minded and that there are men with a mind to the future still there and interested in what takes place in the fine city they have been a part of.

Thanking you again for your kindness and wish the best of everything to you and your paper. Trust that you will continue to send the paper to the boys that are still in the different branches of the service.

Sincerely yours, Marvin B. Frank

That's all the info we have on servicemen for this week.
