

Percy Penfold — Dean of Michigan's Cooperative Creamery Managers

Thirty-nine years of cooperative creamery management, most of them in East Jordan, has earned Percy Penfold title of Dean. Not only is Percy the oldest cooperative creamery manager in Michigan, but he also has aided in building the Jordan Valley Cooperative Creamery to the fourth largest in Michigan.

There are no others in the north half of the lower peninsula. Last year's Jordan Valley sales reached $1,619,824.78. Top year was 1953 when the creamery's sales stood just under $2,000,000.

Percy came to East Jordan from Nashville, started with the local plant in 1931. Its first full year of operation was in 1932 when the firm processed 237,443 pounds of butterfat.

During the last 24 years, under Percy's guidance the creamery has produced 21,000,000 pounds of Valley Lea butter for Michigan and Eastern Markets.

OVER THE BACK FENCE

BY MARSHALL

The good fairys are not coming to one little boy's house. That's because the tooth he planned to put under his pillow was left while he was shopping at Whiteford's. Vern says he picked up a bag and found a small tooth in it and guessed that some lad had just come from the dentist.

Don Whiteford is making a name for himself in overseas baseball. He is playing with the Sculthorpe Bombers. That's the name of an airforce baseball team. Stationed in England, Don is a sparkplug in the baseball outfit that travels around the area meeting other service teams.

What you won't see when you are on the road. Recently a local couple drove out to Arizona. Along the way they kept the names of various places which corresponded with those in the East Jordan area. Here are some of the results:

Rouse's Pure Oil Station, Ft. Sheridan, Ill.
Chas. Brown, Funeral director Barber Shop-Portraits, Rogers Auto Sales, Ranaul, Ill.
Uncle Billy's Studio, Adair's Dairy Bar, Papa Wade's Corner, Slitz on Draught, Natron, Ill.

At 9 a.m. Tuesday morning it was 110 in the sun, and since we are writing this in 95 degree heat, it is most difficult to wax funny on anything like the weather.

The East Jordan Rotary Club is making an effort to supply the tourist park with swings for the children.

The City Council has discussed possibility of installing an overhead stop light at the corner of Main and Mill streets in front of the new bank.

Another stop light may be installed at the corner of M-66 and M-32 when highway improvements are finished.

The new greenhouse on M-66 is rapidly taking shape.

New construction started with a bang a couple of years ago and now it is still going with leaps and bounds. The Presbyterian Church will construct a new building, a new grade school will be built, the new bank is well under way and Mt. Clemens Metal is well under way with a new addition.

With next week's issue the News-Herald goes into its third year under that name. Twenty-

Since its inception the creamery has encouraged and aided the development of northern Michigan dairy farms. The firm has 1,400 farmer members throughout the north.

The creamery has forged rapidly since Penfold took over back during the depression days. The plant has become a major factor in increasing the income of its 1,400 patrons. He started the northern area's dairy development program on a big scale, with the cow population increasing.

Back in 1948 the plant had grown to where larger quarters were necessary. Operations had been carried on in a garage 60 feet by 60 feet, along the lake front.

The new $1,500,000 plant, constructed by Clark Construction Company, of East Jordan, has answered creamery needs for several years, although new processing machinery has been added fairly often.

Percy's dairy interests are not only in northern Michigan but throughout the estate and nation as well.

HE IS vice-president of the Michigan Creamery Owners and Managers Association; and a former director of the Midwest Producers Creameries, of South Bend, Ind.

His knowledge of the dairy and creamery business has given him wide influence throughout Michigan.

Percy's outside interests are shown in his position as Chairman of the Charlevoix County Welfare Commission; and as a partner in Jordan Frozen Food Locker Company. (Thrift Super Market.)

Mr. and Mrs. Penfold's five children have made something of a name for themselves.

Alston is assistant manager of the local creamery; DuWayne is in charge of floor covering for Sears & Roebuck at San Jose, Calif.; Darwin is a field man for the local creamery; Elizabeth (Mrs. Scales) lives in Berkley; and Albert is an engineer for Bethlehem Steel on the S. S. Sparrow Point.

AN AVID sportsman, Percy and his friends have spent many hunting seasons on his private island in northern Lake Michigan.

As he approaches his 40th year in creamery management, Percy's guidance continues to keep the Jordan Valley Cooperative Creamery near the top of the list of Michigan's co-op creameries.

"Return To Woodshed" Answers Teen-age Problem

"Children of today are no worse than those of 50 years ago," County Probate Judge Floyd Supp told the News-Herald in a juvenile delinquency interview.

"There is, however, this difference," he said. "Now the child is brought to the juvenile court. In older days he took a much shorter trip to the woodshed. And perhaps the woodshed did as much good."

Judge Supp agrees that the old fashioned and time worn phrase, "Spare the rod and spoil the child" is not so foolish after all.

The saying now is coming back to haunt the mothers and fathers who have poo poed it for the last 20 years or so.

Even child educators looking at the big upswing in juvenile delinquency now are turning back and reviving the old song: "Spare the rod and spoil the child."

Judge Supp says that in recent years parents have listened to constant teaching from high places that any discipline of the child by the parents might ruin him or her for life.

NOW IT IS claimed throughout United States the "let them do as they please" philosophy is a major cause of our present high rate of delinquency.

From January 1st of this year to July 1st, there were 14 boys and two girls from Charlevoix county brought to Judge Supp's court.

One boy and one girl were dependent and neglected. The others, all under 17, were brought for offenses of various kinds.

All of these children were school students with but one exception.

But Judge Supp points out that when people speak of the rise in teen-age delinquency they mean children between 17 and about 20 or so.

For his court records show that children under 17 get into less trouble. (The Probate Court does not handle cases where the youth is 17 or over.)

And many times the trouble is the fault of the parents.

In 1954 there were 16 boys and 14 girls under 17 taken to the county juvenile court.

Four of the boys and all of the girls were dependent and neglected children, having committed no offense, but not being properly cared for at home.

HIGHWAYS

The Michigan State Highway department has informed the News-Herald by letter that State Highway M-32 through East Jordan will be improved soon.

Elmer J. Hanna, administrative assistant to Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler, said improvement work on the highway would be let August 24th.

The information came as the result of an inquiry to the department by the East Jordan Businessmen's Association.

The highway department said: "The work on M-32 from Maple Street to East Jordan and Southern Railroad just west of Spring Street in the City of East Jordan, consisting of bituminous concrete on aggregate base and some new curb and gutter, is scheduled for the August 24th, 1955 letting."

THIS MEANS the department will improve the road from where the fraigrrounds road ends east of the East Jordan Cooperative through to the bridge by the Anchorage restaurant.

TO SURFACE M-66 Ferris Company, of Mason, south of Lansing, was low bidder on the construction of 6.47 miles of 22-foot-wide non-skid bituminous surfacing on M-66.

It will cover 3.7 miles from the Antrim Charlevoix county line south in Antrim county; 1.6 miles from the Antrim county line north to the south limits of East Jordan; and 1.07 miles from the south limits of East Jordan to the junction of M-32.

The Ferris Company's bid was $25,067.76 with completion date set for September 15th.

Completion date for the work on M-32 through East Jordan has not been announced.

INDUSTRY

East Jordan has gone a long way in industrial development compared to many other communities, according to James Coates, of Jackson. He is a member of the Consumers Power Company industrial development office staff.

Coates told the East Jordan Businessmen's Association meeting at the Jordan Inn Tuesday night that his office is building an industrial brochure on East Jordan to be used by Consumers Power.

He came here Monday to aid in the development of the association's own brochure which will be used immediately by the industrial committee to help new factory contacts learn more about the city.

In addition to the work of attracting additional industry, the businessmen's association is attempting to secure new state highway signs at Mancelona, Charlevoix and along M-66 in East Jordan.

These state signs will give the direction of East Jordan and number of miles. Others will be "business district" arrows on the north and south approaches to the city on M-66.

The association members are working with area resort owners in an attempt to aid them with their business and development problems.

Chairman Donald Clark announced that the group's board of directors has authorized construction of six new benches to be placed in Veteran's Memorial Park.

In addition the group is offering whatever aid is needed to help the Jordan River Sportsmen Club carry out its program of development the river area.

More than 90 degree heat Tuesday night resulted in only a small number of association members attending the monthly meeting.

Chairman Clark has announced that next month's dinner-meeting will be held for members and their guests.

Presbyterian Church Plans $35,000 Bldg.

A $35,000 youth educational building is being planned for fall construction by the East Jordan Presbyterian Church.

Guy Watson, chairman of the church building committee, said plans are being drawn but that a sketch or blueprints are not ready yet.

The new building will be located on church property between the church itself and the manse. It will be connected with the church by means of an underground passage, but not on the surface level.

Hugh Gidley, chairman of the board of trustees, said all plans are not official yet but that the church is working toward their early completion.

It is expected that the contract will be let this fall and it is hoped construction will be completed this winter.

PLANS TO construct the new building have been underway for some time. It will be 32 x 54 feet square and contain rooms for Sunday School and other meeting rooms needed by the church.

Funds for construction have been raised by subscription.

AID NORTH STATE DEVELOPMENT: A sub-committee meeting in East Jordan recently developed a broad outline for the guidance of the newly formed "Northern Lower Peninsula Development Committee."

The outline is incorporated in a brief historical sketch giving the steps leading to the setting up of the new north state development group. Members' names will be announced soon.

In the above photo are A. E. Steinbrecher, manager, Northern Michigan Electric Cooperative, Inc., Boyne City, chairman of a committee that set up the new development group; and Marshall Sayles, publisher, East Jordan News-Herald, a committee member.

The development group grew out of a series of area meetings (aided by the State Department of Economic Development) and will attack northern Michigan problems found in the following fields: industry, education, agriculture, land use, finance, public relations, recreation and transportation.

THE EAST JORDAN RECREATION will open for northern Michigan bowling September 1st, with Andy Anderson again as manager and with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil C. (Ode) Walker, as new owners. Announcement of the sale of the alleys to the Walkers was made this week by Lysle Johnston, receiver for the business. He was appointed receiver by Circuit Judge Charles L. Brown about a year and one half ago.

The new owners have long been East Jordan summer visitors and have a cottage near Rogers Bridge along the Jordan River. Mr. Walker is an industrial arts teacher at the Hamtramck high school and Mrs. Walker is a homemaking teacher at Cass Tech. high school in Detroit.

Walker said Tuesday that several repairs will be made to the building which include repainting the racks, remodeling the heating system and repainting the front. It is expected the work will be done before opening this fall.

Walker will remain in East Jordan until September 1st. One of the most active bowling alleys in the north, the recreation regularly plays host to leagues from many surrounding cities. —Photo by Huckle

Rites Held For Job Jackson Oldest East Jordan Resident

Funeral services were held July 25 at Watson Funeral Home for Job A. Jackson, 97, who was said to have been the oldest living man in East Jordan and one of the oldest residents.

Born March 8, 1858 at Kewanna, Indiana, Mr. Jackson came to East Jordan in 1902. He was preceded in death by his wife the former May Smett in April, 1930. They were married in Indiana.

Mr. Jackson was a member of the Missionary Church.

East Jordan was a small town on the banks of the South Arm when Mr. Jackson arrived 53 years ago. He had seen the community change from a rugged logging area to a resort community and now to a modern city of factories, new resorts and places of business.

Rev. Thompson officiated at the services with burial at Sunset Hill. Bearers were: Fred Bockover, of South Bend; Forrest Muma, of Charlevoix; Marion Jackson, of East Jordan; Claire Stevens, of Ann Arbor; Donald Stevens, of Grand Rapids and Albert Jackson of Mt. Clemens.

Surviving are one son and five daughters: Marion Jackson, of South Bend; Mrs. Dan Swartz, of Charlevoix; Mrs. Amber Muma, of East Jordan; Mrs. Ralph Klooster, of Charlevoix; Mrs. Charles Stevens of Charlevoix; and Mrs. James Peters, of Detroit.

Also 21 grandchildren, 41 great grandchildren and six great great grandchildren.

All of the sons and daughters attended the services in addition to a large number of friends and relatives.

Librarians from all over the state gather there yearly for four days of concentrated study arranged by Michigan State Library. One librarian from Indiana comes every year during her vacation, because Indiana does not have such a plan for her librarians. She says she would not miss it for the world. The chance to learn what other librarians are doing, and hear able leaders discuss the problems we have to face makes it all a very worthwhile program.

Venetian Night In Charlevoix This Week End

All roads will lead to Charlevoix this weekend as visitors flock to the Northern Michigan resort community for the annual Venetian Night weekend festivities Saturday and Sunday climaxed by the Venetian Night Boat Parade on Round Lake at 9 p.m. Sunday.

The coronation of the Venetian Queen, Joyce Cunningham, at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, will be one of the highlights of the entertainment packed weekend. William Ramsey, director of the Plymouth Kiltie Band of Detroit, which will appear in concert during the weekend, has been invited to crown Queen Joyce during the coronation ceremony in East Park.

A concert by the Kiltie Band and a water show on Round Lake by Jimmy Ries and his Aquamaids and a softball game at Kipke field at 5 p.m. with the Charlevoix All-Stars meeting the former state Champs, the Fortunato Bros. of Mt. Pleasant, will conclude the Sunday afternoon entertainment.

The Sunday evening program will begin at 7 p.m. and will feature the Kiltie Band and Dancing Lassies, sea chantees by the Camp Charlevoix Boys' Chorus,

Well Known Ministers Will Be Guest Preachers At Presbyterian Church

This coming Sunday morning, July 31st will be the beginning of the guest minister program in the East Jordan Presbyterian Church. This has been one of the outstanding contributions the Presbyterian church makes to this area of Michigan. Over a number of years this program has had some of America's outstanding ministers in its pulpit. The public is cordially invited and urged to attend these services each Sunday morning.

July 31st.—The pulpit will be filled by the Rev. C. Ransom Comfort, pastor of the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian Church, Louisville, Kentucky. Dr. Comfort has had a rich, rewarding experience in the ministry. During World War II he served as a chaplain. Since then he has been pastor of this largest Presbyterian Church in Louisville. We are happy to welcome him to our pulpit.

August 7th.—The pulpit will be supplied by, Dr. William B. Lampe, Pastor of the West Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, Mo., for many years. Dr. Lampe has served on many of the National Boards of our church, and was elected the Moderator of our church in 1945. He comes as an old friend to this community having spent summers in our midst. His vitality as a preacher and his fine Christian character is always a blessing to those who hear and know him.

August 14th.—America's number one preacher, Dr. George A. Buttrick will again be the guest minister. Dr. Buttrick for many years, served the Madison Ave. Church of New York but during this last year he has been called to Harvard University as the Preacher to Harvard University and Minister of the Memorial Chapel, of Harvard. His vast contribution to the Christian Church through his writing, lectures and his own personality seem unlimited. We are happy to welcome him again to this pulpit.

August 21st.—The Rev. Harry Rine DeYoung, pastor of Redford Ave., Presbyterian Church of Detroit, Mich. will be the preacher. Dr. DeYoung comes to us as a good friend, having appeared in this pulpit on other occasions. His church is a rapidly growing one in size and influence in the Detroit area.

August 28th.—The pulpit will be filled by one of our own laymen, Elder John Seiler, who always has a message of sterling worth for all to hear.

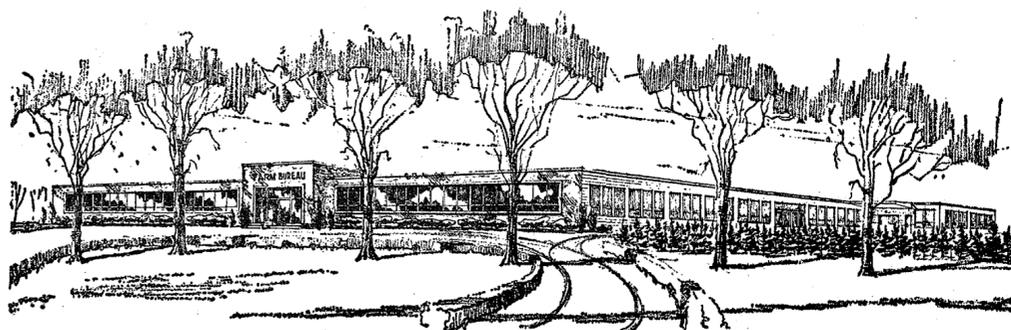

Beginning July 31st and continuing through August and the first Sunday in September, our Sunday Church School will not be meeting. We will begin again on Sept. 11.

A very fine program was seen and heard last week at the Women's Annual Summer Tea. The program, a one-act play given by some of the members of the Wednesday Circle, entitled "That Heaven of Freedom," was well done and well received. The offering went to the support of Medical Missions.

A new Farm Bureau Office Building in Lansing has been completed and is now being occupied. This is the realization of a hope and a dream of many years. Farm Bureau members and their families are invited to an open house on August 10. Tours will be conducted through the building. Speakers in the afternoon will be J. F. Yaeger executive vice secretary of Michigan Farm Bureau and C. L. Brody executive Vice President of Michigan Farm Bureau. Plans have been made to entertain a large crowd. A circus-size tent has been engaged for a basket picnic at noon.

a concert by the Charlevoix Marine Band, directed by C. A. Odmark, songs by the Teensters, a girls' trio, and selections by the comedy pantomime quartet, the Four Kooz. Dr. Walter Hoffman will be Master of Ceremonies.

The colorful Venetian Boat Parade will begin at 9 p.m. Sunday with more than 25 gaily decorated boats, following a variety of themes with lights and Japanese lanterns parading about Round Lake under a canopy of fireworks. Spectators will watch the parade and fireworks from the terraces which form a natural amphitheatre around the inland lake.

The Kiltie Band will appear in concert Saturday evening with a variety show climaxing the evening's entertainment. Rodney Creede will be Master of Ceremonies.

Remember the Smorgasbord at the Methodist Church, Thursday, August 4th. All you can eat for $1.50 for adults and 75c for children.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid is sponsoring their annual cherry pie and home made ice cream social Saturday, July 30th at the Evangelical Lutheran Church Annex from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Marriage Unites Audrey Crawford and Medrick Gagnon On July 9th

Audrey Crawford and Medrick Gagnon were united in marriage July 9th at the Evangelical Lutheran Church in East Jordan. Pastor Dale Larson officiated at the ceremony in the presence of close relatives.

The bride wore a white mauve taffeta ballerina length gown trimmed with nylon tulle. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a Dutch cap of taffeta trimmed in seed pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of red roses and white carnations. The maid of honor was Joan Kenny, a friend of the bride. She chose a yellow taffeta ballerina length gown fashioned with an overskirt of net and ribbon. Her bouquet was also colonial style of blue and white carnations.

Kenneth Gagnon, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose dress with white accessories and the groom's mother wore a flowered dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pale pink carnations.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was held at the South Arm Grange Hall with about 150 relatives and friends attending. Those who presided at the reception were Virginia Crawford, Irene Crawford, Helen Crawford and Lorraine Gagnon, all sisters of the newly married couple, and Elaine Dvoracek and Ruth Crozier, friends of the bride.

The bride's going away costume was a navy blue suit with white accessories. After a short honeymoon in the upper peninsula, the couple are making their home on M-66, south. The bride is employed as receptionist at the Jordan Valley Cooperative Creamery and the groom is employed at the Ken Diller Lumber Co.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Modern Science Finally Catches Up With Grandpa

I got put in my place the other night. Deserved it, too. My father-in-law said we were due for bad weather. "Birds are flying low," he reported. "That means a storm."

I started to josh with the old gentleman about being superstitious. Then my nephew Jim, on vacation from college, pipes up. "Granddad's right," he says.

"At least, that's what they say at school," Jim goes on. "The heavy air you get before a storm forces insects down low—so high-flying birds have to swoop along the ground if they want to eat."

From where I sit, there's probably sound reasoning back of most old sayings... back of anything people have learned to believe in. Take the idea of a stitch in time saving nine—sparing rods and spoiling children—of drinking hot milk, or a refreshing glass of beer, at bedtime. You may not hold with any of these beliefs yourself... but it's not smart to give them the "bird."

Orchard Notes . . .

In writing articles on cherry prices at the factory, I do not feel that it pertains to the East Jordan factory nor probably not too much to the growers. In talking to our top man at Traverse City regarding set cherry prices originating in New York, I find apple growers or any grower's associations where prices are set are quickly investigated by the government. Word comes that the canners will be investigated or charged with price setting, or joining together conspiring to set prices.

There are many reasons why the New York and Traverse City canners desire a low price. Some of them have lost large sums of money and naturally want to get some of it back.

In other words, our entire cherry industry is in a tail spin. There will be less advertising and less of other things. This will last two years and then there will be a change which will start in 1956. Conditions will then gradually improve.

Locally, we ourselves and some other growers did not pin all of our hopes on the Montmorency. It is the only fruit crop that the grower has no control over.

Locals . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Fiala of LaGrange Park, Illinois spent the weekend with their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Stanek and other relatives.

Mrs. Rollin Jones and son Gerald of Flint were weekend guests of Mrs. Etta Jones.

MORE KNOCK-FREE POWER FOR EVERY MAKE OF CAR

Sun Oil Company is years ahead of the industry in new catalytic refining facilities

New 360-foot Houdrflow refining unit—one of several at Sun's refineries. Together with other advanced catalytic refining facilities, they are keeping Sun years ahead of the industry. They enable your Sunoco dealer to offer a new gasoline—New Blue Sunoco with more knock-free power for every make of car.

Beats other premiums in power tests

In scientific laboratory tests the New Advanced Blue Sunoco outperformed typical premium-priced gasolines because of its cleaner burning. It maintained higher engine power longer under conditions duplicating the kind of driving you do most of the time. Testing method observed by an independent laboratory. Make your own 10-gallon test.

No. 69 GOOD PASSING SPEED IS 15 MILES FASTER

Sometimes passing the car ahead is like getting a tooth pulled. It is a painful process so you better get it over as soon as possible.

Experts say that in passing another car it is best to go 10 to 15 miles per hour faster than the car you are passing. If you go only 5 miles per hour faster it will take too long to get by and you are in that "head-on" lane too long. If you travel 20 miles per hour faster your top speed gets so high you will have trouble recovering if an emergency develops. It does not take much to put your car out of control at 70. No single factor is responsible for astounding Al Kaline's spectacular surge in batting prowess. This on the word of 20-year-old Al himself, who discusses his phenomenal hitting as impersonally as an engineer studying a blue-print.

Here's what young Mr. Kaline believes has contributed to making him the major league's leading hitter:

Added weight. Since marrying his high school sweetheart, Louise Hamilton, last winter he has gained almost 15 pounds.

Stronger wrists. He did lots of push ups and pull ups and swung a heavy bat in a gym all winter.

Better knowledge of opposing pitchers. Just out of Baltimore's Southern High School last year, Al needed almost a full season to learn what kind of stuff enemy flingers had and how and when they used it.

EARLY SIGNS

But long ago there were signs of Kaline's big league potential. Back to those days on the sandlots when he played as many as three games a day. To his years in high school when he batted,

Mobile Lab In Petoskey This Week

E. H. Crippen, M. D., Secretary of the Northern Michigan Medical Society, announced today that the Mobile Brain-Wave Laboratory of the Michigan Epilepsy Center, a Michigan United Fund member agency, will be in Petoskey July 28 thru August 2 to provide physicians with specialist laboratory facilities for their epileptic patients.

The Brain-Wave machine, known as an EEG (short for electroencephalograph), is used to study behavior of brain cells. EEG examinations, one part of the diagnosis in convulsive disorders, will be conducted at Little Traverse Hospital. Patients must be given appointments through their family physicians according to Frank S. Perkin, M. D., President of the Michigan Epilepsy Center's Board of Directors.

Doctor Crippen pointed out that adequate medical and social care can help eighty out of every one hundred epileptics to lead relatively normal lives. Prompt medical care, he said, is the first step toward conquering epilepsy, which is a major community health problem affecting more than 60,000 persons in Michigan today. Doctor Crippen noted that epilepsy often begins in childhood, and that it often lasts throughout a person's lifetime. However, he said, the attack itself is a symptom like headaches or coughing are symptoms of varied conditions.

Following the EEG tests, neurological examinations will be conducted in Petoskey by Z. Stephen Bohn, M. D., Medical Director of the Michigan Epilepsy Center.

well enough to become a regular. He worried particularly over the cunning slow ball pitchers.

OFF WITH A BANG

Former Manager Freddie Hutchinson told Ol' Diz last year that if Kaline hit .270 he would help the team. Al played virtually the entire season and wound up with a .276 average and four home runs.

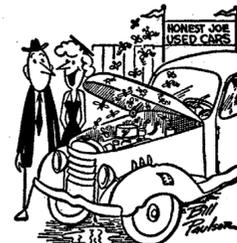

This year, of course, he started off with a bang and kept up the noise all season, his batting average as of this writing around .370 and his home run production in the twenties. Not to mention all those hits and runs batted in.

What makes this all the more amazing is that Al now rarely gets a good ball to hit. Pitchers are too wary of him, Boston's Willard Nixon being the only one still giving him any trouble.

Kaline not only likes playing the Hickory and Horsehide game for Detroit but living here as well. He's renting a place in suburban Oak Park and hopes to winter here if the right off-season job comes along.

Return To Woodshed

"IT IS MY opinion," Judge said, "that parents should know where their children are at night, with whom they associate and definite rules of conduct should be built from infancy."

What about the hue and cry over comic books, movies and some television programs?

Judge Supp says: "There seems to be an increasing lack of moral cleanliness in modern mediums of entertainment."

So he blames much of the youth's troubles upon the older people.

And what about adequate care for those children who need the services of the state for correction or readjustment?

"There is no question as to poor services for the care of children in the past and even at this moment," Judge Supp said.

But it is hoped that the five child care bills passed by the last Legislature will be of great help.

These bills provide: That if the county spends in child care a sum equal to 15 cents on each $1,000 of the State equalized value of the county for the preceding year, the state will grant to the county $1,800 which will constitute a part of the child care fund.

When that sum is used, the State will match child care expenditures in the counties.

THE ACTS also provide that the county shall pay one-half of the cost of keeping a child from that county at Boys Vocational School, Girls Training School and the Michigan Childrens Institute.

Before this, all expenses of these institutions have been paid by the state, with no charges being made to the county.

"It is hoped," Judge Supp said "that this will prevent the commitment of many children to one of the three agencies and result in the child being placed in a suitable boarding home."

This is a new and radical change from previously existing methods. But a new and better era is dawning for the neglected, dependent or delinquent child.

But to keep the child from having to appear in juvenile court is the main issue.

And Judge Supp says parents are to blame for much of the delinquency.

He thinks major causes for delinquency in Charlevoix county are:

- (1) Letting children do as they please.
- (2) Instruction to parents that discipline will ruin the child's life.
- (3) World War II and the Korean War.
- (4) Fathers and mothers working at the same time.
- (5) Mothers who are unable to cope with their children and let them have their own way.
- (6) Lack of self discipline in many adults and failure to teach courtesy and the rights of others as the child matures.

JUDGE SUPP says: "It does not appear to me that there is much need for additional facilities for children in Charlevoix county."

"They have school yards, their own back yards and the beaches and woodlands for play."

"If the child has had proper training at home in the elements of sportsmanship, fair play and

East Side Is Tops In Junior Softball League

The East Side trounced the Cubs 15 to 4 on Monday night of this week to take over sole possession of first place in the six team Junior Softball League. The East Siders now have a record six wins and one loss. The Cubs and Northenders are tied for second with identical 5 won and 2 loss records.

In Monday night's important contest, Robert Murray gave up but five hits as he hurled the East Side to victory. Brintnall of the winners and Sherman of the Cubs each connected with round trippers in the abbreviated five inning affair.

With seven games played to date, the standings are as follows:

East Side	6	1	.857
Northenders	5	2	.714
Cubs	5	2	.714
Phils	3	4	.429
West Side	2	5	.286
Lakers	1	6	.143

Next week's games line up as follows:

Monday — 6:15 p.m. West Side vs Phils; 7:15 p.m. Cubs vs Lakers; 8:15 p.m. Northenders vs East Side.

Wednesday — 6:15 p.m. Cubs vs West Side; 7:15 p.m. Phils vs East Side; 8:15 p.m. Northenders vs Lakers.

Methodist Church To Hold Annual Smorgasbord

The combined organizations of the Methodist Church of East Jordan will hold their fourth annual bazaar and smorgasbord. The bazaar will run for two days, August 3rd and 4th.

Serving starts at five in the afternoon and will continue until all are served. The bazaar will feature home baked goods, home made candies, jams and jellies, pickles, canned fruits and vegetables and fancy work.

By popular request the headliners at the smorgasbord will be roast turkey and cherry pie with other dishes too numerous to mention. Those desiring tickets are asked to contact L. B. Karr or Rev. Robert H. Moore.

Freeze Raspberries For Jam

It's the berries—frozen raspberry jam, that is. Because it is not cooked, the jam (it can be made from frozen or fresh fruit) must be kept frozen for long storage or refrigerated for short storage.

With frozen jam you need no longer spend long summer hours over boiling kettles to save fruit when it is ripe. Now you can freeze the fruit and make up the jam as needed by the family and as the job fits your schedule.

The Human Nutrition laboratories of the U. S. Department of Agriculture developed the jam to increase the use of fresh fruit. It has under-gone practical home kitchen testing in which homemakers made the jam in their own kitchens and then sent samples to the laboratory for testing.

Home economists at Michigan State University describe the jam as having delicious fresh-fruit flavor, bright natural red color and a texture jellied just enough to hold its shape and spread well. And the making of it is so easy and quick.

$36,628 Paid County Residents In One Month

Social security benefits amounting to $36,628 were paid to 829 persons in Charlevoix county during December 1954, the last month for which complete figures are available, according to the Social Security Administration. This is an increase of about 40 percent over Dec. 1953, when 692 persons were paid $26,120.

Only monthly benefits actually paid are represented by the figures. Lump-sum death benefits and monthly benefits which were suspended because beneficiaries had earnings in excess of permitted amounts are not included.

A total of $26,233 was paid to 494 retired workers; the balance was paid to the families of retired workers and eligible relatives of workers who have died. The average payment to retired workers in the 15 counties served by the Traverse City district office was $54.98, while the national average was $59.14.

A continuing increase is anticipated due to additional persons being qualified, but even without a substantial increase, benefits paid in 1955 will exceed $440,000. The relaxation of the legal requirements which permits benefit payments to be made to qualified workers over age 72 regardless of the amount of their earnings, and also permitting a beneficiary to earn up to $1,200 in a year without losing any of his monthly benefits, is expected to have a substantial effect on the amount of social security benefits that will be paid this year.
