The house on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. James Kortanek which was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Pete Northrup was badly damaged by fire Monday. The Fire Department was called about eleven o'clock.

The City Extension group No. 1 met at the home of Mrs. Ida Kinsey, January 3rd. Eight members were present, the hostess served a delicious lunch after which the Chairman, Mrs. Alberta Thacker conducted the business meeting. The Club historian, Mrs. Rose Adair, has compiled a history of the Club since its organization in 1946. She asked that all who have been members to please give her or send her their pictures to put into the book. Material had been purchased by the members for bibs for Grandvue Hospital. Fifty bibs were cut-out and worked on. Mrs. Alberta Thacker drew the mystery gift. The next meeting will be held February 7 at the home of Mrs. Mary Larsen.

Sue Ann LaKies, Frederick Johnson Married Here December 31st

Sue Ann LaKies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard LaKies of Mancelona, Michigan and Frederick Bruce Johnson, son of Mrs. Ruth Johnson of East Jordan, Michigan spoke their wedding vows before Rev. Daniel Axt at the Presbyterian Church of East Jordan, Saturday, December 31st at 4 p. m.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Miss Jerilyn Kennedy of Grand Rapids, accompanied by Jean Slough. Miss Kennedy sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of embroidered nylon tulle over white bridal satin. It was designed and created by the mother of the groom. She wore a pure silk illusion fingertip veil held in place by a pearl cap. White carnations and forget-me-nots tied with pearls on a lace covered Bible formed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. George Wilks, sister of the bride served as matron of honor. Sharon Anderson served as bridesmaid. Tammy Wilks neice of the bride served as flower girl. They all wore identical gowns of red nylon velvet and carried lace baskets of red poinsettia and holly tied to velvet streamers.

Frederick Johnson chose as his attendants his brother, Richard Johnson and Joel Evans. Donald Johnson of East Jordan and Robert Johnson, of Fort Benning, Georgia, brothers of the groom served as ushers.

Mrs. Richard LaKies chose a royal blue wool jersey dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink sweetheart roses. Mrs. Ruth Johnson, mother of the groom wore a rust knitted sheath dress with black accessories and a corsage of bronze mums.

Mr. and Mrs. William Saxton, aunt and uncle of the groom served as master and mistress of ceremonies of the reception held in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony.

Assisting at the brides table were Mrs. Gary Bartlett, Miss Sandy Weesner and Miss Velma Ellsworth.

Out of town guests included those from Mancelona, East Jordan, Grand Rapids, Brethren, Britton, Bellaire and Boyne City and Flint.
