Property near Boyne River donated to conservancy

The Little Traverse Conservancy (LTC) will dedicate a newly donated preserve on the north branch of the Boyne River on Wednesday, July 15, at 5 p.m. All are welcome.

A 40-acre parcel adjacent to the river and a 160-acre parcel just to its north, were donated to the LTC by the Dr. W. A. and Mrs. EvaBelle Deppa family, who vacation during the summers on their adjacent property.

"The family desired to see the property protected forever. They love the land as it is and they wanted to take action to ensure that it would be forever preserved," said LTC's Director of Land Protection, Mary Kay O'Donnell.

The Deppas requested the preserve be named the "North Branch of the Boyne River Preserve."

The dedication ceremony will be followed by a short ecology hike through the property and down the north branch of the river.

This latest donation adjoins LTC's 40 acre Big Cedar Preserve. The Scollin-Lee property, just inside the Boyne City limits on the river, is also held by LTC.

As with all of LTC's holdings, the Deppa property will have public access.

To get to the preserve, take Thumb Lake Road east, just north of Boyne Falls, and travel about 2 1/2 miles.

Look for the preserve sign on the south side of the road.

Following the ceremony, LTC will speak about land protection options at the Friends of the Boyne River's monthly meeting at 7 p.m. at the Wolverine-Dilworth Inn in Boyne City.

East Jordan Garden Club hosting show

Is your garden promising a bountiful crop? Do you have a knack for floral arranging? Then display the fruits of your labor at the East Jordan Garden Club's annual, non-juried Flower and Vegetable Show.

Or, if you're more interested in just tiptoeing through the tulips rather than picking them, simply stop by the Jordan River Arts Council on Tuesday, July 20, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to enjoy the seasonal floral arrangements and horticultural displays organized by the Garden Club.

You don't have to be a Garden Club member to participate. To find out more, call Paula Martin at 536-0852 or Jan Birckelbaw at 536-7631.

The Jordan River Arts Council will feature art work with a floral motif to complement the garden club show. If you have a piece of art with a garden theme and would be willing to have it displayed during the show, contact Patti Hodge at 536-7982.

The arts center is located at 301 Main St. in downtown East Jordan.

Check under the hood

The engines, upholstery, paint and chrome of more than 100 vehicles were admired by car buffs and passersby during the Jordan Valley Freedom Festival Car Show in East Jordan on Saturday. Turn to page 6 for more photos and a list of winners.

A hall of fame effort

State bowling association honors Rex Judkins

The walls of Rex Judkins home office are filled with pictures and mementos. They capture the many loves of his life. His family. His work. His beloved Detroit Tigers.

There are also framed honors Rex has received over the years.

The walls are so full, some will have to be moved to make room for a new award that deserves a prominent place.

In late June, Rex was inducted into the Michigan State Bowling Hall of Fame by the Michigan State Bowling Association.

He was one of two inductees into the hall of fame this year.

The other was Bill Bunetta, a great bowler in his prime. Bunetta won three state and five national bowling titles. He was also a bowling instructor and television color commentator.

Rex's ticket to the hall of fame wasn't because of his bowling skill. He was a decent bowler. His best average was 165, his high series was 615 and his best game was 258.

And he's been bowling for a long time. He started his sophomore year in high school and continued league bowling through last season. But as he approaches his 65th birthday this fall, he's decided its time to slow down and give up league bowling.

Rather, Rex's induction into the hall of fame was based on his commitment and service to the state bowling association.

Rex has served as a Zone 12 director for the Michigan State Bowling Association since 1974 and was president of the association in 1984-85. During those years he was the mainstay of the association's budget and finance committee and in 1989 he received the Meritorious Service Award

Doing it just for the kids

A weekend of events will benefit Camp Quality

If you missed it last year, don't make the same mistake this year. And if you were there last year, you already know you'll be back.

It's the sixth annual Camp Quality Benefit Weekend from July 16-18.

All proceeds from the fun-filled weekend benefit Camp Quality, a non-profit organization comprised of hundreds of volunteers who offer children and families touched by cancer a week of adventure and year round support.

On Friday, July 16 it's Boyne Meets Broadway... Meets Camp Quality, at One Water Street. The Boyne City High School Drama Department and the restaurant team up to deliver a dinner theater event which has proven to be spectacular in years past.

Saturday, July 17, is the Taste of Boyne Yacht Cruise with hors d'oeuvres and champagne served up from the area's finest restaurants during the two-hour tour.

The Jim Kuhn Memorial — a race of PHRF sailboats competing in several divisions — will also benefit the camp. Donations are taken to improve handicaps. An awards banquet and cookout will be held afterwards in Veteran's Park.

And take your chance at winning a free flight ride for two in the Re/Max hot air balloon. Tickets are available at Re/Max of Boyne.

The fun continues Sunday at Dunmaglas Golf Course for a million dollar hole in one contest.

Also available will be a Camp Quality limited edition Denielle Spohn Moes print, "Sunset in the Park." Only 100 prints were made of the original. All proceeds go directly to the children of Camp Quality.

"It takes quite a bit to keep the camp going," said Eleanor West, the organization's executive director.

In addition to a week of camping at Camp Daggett (Aug. 15-21), Camp Quality offers sailing and ski camps, reunions and other events and support for the children and their families.

All the activities are free and the funds raised help cover expenses.

"It means a lot to them to be able to have these experiences in their lives," West said.

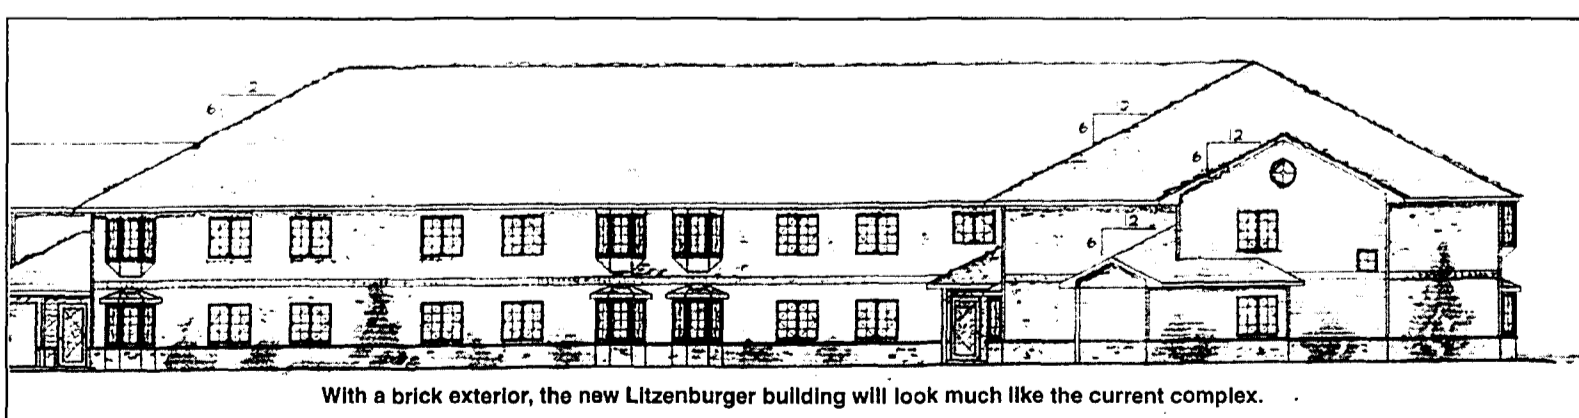

"We feel really blessed," she added of the community's support for Camp Quality. "It's great when groups like this continue to help us out. It just really makes a difference."

For information on the events, call Re/Max of Boyne at 582-2400.

A complete list of events is on page 3.

Rex Judkins joined an elite group when he was inducted into the Michigan State Bowling Association's Hall of Fame. He has been working with the group for the past 25 years and served as its president in 1984-85.

With a brick exterior, the new Litzenburger building will look much like the current complex.

Litzenburger Place making more room

New 30-apartment building gets site plan approval

An ambitious expansion of Litzenburger Place in Boyne City received the blessing of the Boyne City Planning Commission Monday.

The commission approved the site plan for construction of a 30-unit, two story building next to the existing complex. The apartments are for the elderly and physically disabled.

The building will be built on 3.6 acres of 13.5 acres owned by the Boyne City Housing Commission.

The apartments will all be two bedroom and meet Americans With Disabilities Act standards. Three of the apartments are barrier free.

The apartment building will be separate from the existing Litzenburger complex. Access to the building will be off Division Street.

The building will also have an elevator, community room with a kitchen, an exercise room, two small meeting rooms, and a laundry room. The building will also be air conditioned. The exterior will be brick and look much like the existing building.

Stephen Wiseman of Wiseman Traditional Design is the architect for the project.

The estimated cost of the building is $2.7 million, according to Todd-Sorenson, executive director of the housing commission.

When the initial expansion plans were made public a few months ago the housing commission needed to rezone the property to multi-family and many nearby residents came forward with concerns and the initial request was denied by the planning commission. It was later approved by the city commission.

Those concerns apparently

EDITORIAL

It's time for more volunteers to step forward

Before the Boyne City 4th of July celebration fades off into our mental bank of pleasant memories, one point needs to be made.

The Fourth of July Committee has throughout the years provided a great celebration to the community. It's fun for local residents, part-time residents, resorters, vacationers, and those passing through who just happen to stumble across it.

The whole event is organized by a core group of volunteers whose numbers over the years have been shrinking. This year there were only about 10. For the actual event, many more volunteers step forward to help, but the planning and organizing is left to just a few.

Chances are if the trend continues, the Fourth of July celebration may cease to exist and will become only a fond memory. We may never have to worry about whether or not the 4th falls on a Sunday.

Volunteers are asked to do a lot around a community and more often than not it falls to the same people over and over again. That's what has happened with the 4th of July.

The 4th is too big an event for so few people. They need help. The next celebration is 342 days away. It's not too early to start planning.

Step forward now or don't complain when a few years from now you might be looking for something to do on the 4th.

SOMETIMES GOOD things do happen to good people.

You will never meet a finer, more dedicated person than Rex Judkins. And it's great to see him recognized for the outstanding contributions he has given to bowling, a sport he loves so much.

Since he was a teenager he has participated in the sport and done the tasks few others wanted to do. For the past 25 years, he has been a director with the Michigan State Bowling Association.

He's contributed greatly, not only to the bowling association but the community as well. Probably far more than any of us really knows.

--Hugh Conklin

All of the 4th of July activities were delightful

TO THE EDITOR:

I would like to extend my appreciation to the 4th of July committee for a wonderful day.

Although I stand firm in my belief that the parade could have been on another day than Sunday, I commend them for starting it on time and seeing it was over in time to get to church. It took a great deal of coordinating and planning to make it happen.

The whole day was delightful, in spite of the extreme heat of the day. The fireworks were spectacular this year - hats off to the firemen, and to the community for contributing to the fireworks fund.

Thanks, committee, for your hard work. It is appreciated!

Helen Deming

It was truly a 'great day'

TO THE EDITOR:

I would very much like to thank Ann, Liz, and the entire Fourth of July Committee for a truly great day. Having followed the controversy of celebrating the Fourth of July on its legal day, I found Boyne City to be Mid-America at its best.

To those who participated in the early church services at Old City Park, I applaud you all.

I would be remiss if I did not thank the Boyne City Garden Club; please keep up the good work.

GUEST COLUMN

The real reason for our troubles

By JOEL EVANS

I suppose the last thing anybody wants to hear is another opinion on how to resolve the problems that led up to the Columbine murders and others like it. But as I watched closely the news reports and talk shows pertaining to the problem of children killing children, the opinions given thus far deal only with the symptoms and not the problem.

The following comments by Darrell Scott are worth reading. They are taken from testimony Mr. Scott, father of two victims of the Columbine High School shooting, gave before the House Judiciary Committee's Subcommittee on Crime on May 27:

Since the dawn of creation there has been both good and evil in the heart of men and of women. We all contain the seeds of kindness or the seeds of violence.

The death of my wonderful daughter Rachel Joy Scott, and the deaths of that heroic teacher and the other children who died must not be in vain. Their blood cries out for answers.

The first recorded act of violence was when Cain slew his brother Abel out in the field. The villain was not the club he used. Neither was it the NCA, the National Club Association. The true killer was Cain and the reason for the murder could only be found in Cain's heart.

In the days that followed the Columbine tragedy, I was amazed at how quickly fingers began to be pointed at groups such as the NRA.

I am not a member of the NRA. I am not a hunter. I do not even own a gun. I am not here to represent or defend the NRA - because I don't believe that they are responsible for my daughter's death. Therefore I do not believe that they need to be defended. If I believed they had anything to do with Rachel's murder I would be their strongest opponent.

I am here today to declare that Columbine was not just a tragedy - it was a spiritual event that should be forcing us to look at where the real blame lies!

Much of that blame lies here in this room. Much of that blame lies behind the pointing fingers of the accusers themselves.

I wrote a poem just four nights ago that express my feelings best. This was written way before I knew I would be speaking here today.

*Your laws ignore our deepest needs.
Your words are empty air.
You've stripped away our heritage.
You've outlawed simple prayer.*

*Now gunshots fill our classrooms.
And precious children die.
You seek for answers everywhere
And ask the question "WHY?"*

You regulate restrictive laws.

*Through legislative creed,
And yet you fail to understand
That God is what we need!*

Men and women are three part beings. We all consist of body, soul and spirit. When we refuse to acknowledge a third part of our makeup, we create a void that allows evil, prejudice, and hatred to rush in and wreak havoc.

Spiritual influences were present within our educational systems for most of our nation's history. Many of our major colleges began as theological seminaries. This is a historic fact.

What has happened to us as a nation? We have refused to honor God and in doing so, we open the doors to hatred and violence.

And when something as terrible as Columbine's tragedy occurs - politicians immediately look for a scapegoat such as the NRA. They immediately seek to pass more restrictive laws that continue to erode away our personal and private liberties.

We do not need more restrictive laws. Eric and Dylan would not have been stopped by metal detectors. No amount of gun laws can stop someone who spends months planning this type of massacre.

The real villain lies within our OWN hearts. Political posturing and restrictive legislation is not the answer.

The young people of our nation hold the key. There is a spiritual awakening taking place that will not be squelched!

We do not need more religion. We do not need more gaudy television evangelists spewing out verbal religious garbage. We do not need more million dollar church buildings, built while people with basic needs are being ignored.

We do need a change of heart and a humble acknowledgment that this nation was founded on the principle of simple trust in God.

As my son Craig lay under that table in the school library he saw his two friends murdered before his very eyes. He did not hesitate to pray in school. I defy any law or politician to deny him that right!

I challenge every young person in America and around the world to realize that on April 20, 1999 at Columbine High School, prayer was brought back to our schools. Do not let the many prayers offered by those students be in vain.

Dare to move into the new millennium with a sacred disregard for legislation that violates your conscience and denies your God-given right to communicate with Him.

To those of you who would point your finger at the NRA - I give to you sincere challenge. Dare to examine your own heart before you cast the first stone!

My daughter's death will not be in vain. The young people of this country will not allow that to happen.

GARDEN PATH

Some ideas to get the creative juices flowing

By ANGELA SHULTIS

Okay, it's July, and many of us are probably, for better or worse, done planting for the season. But there are others. I'm sure, who still have space to fill.

And if you're anything like me, your garden has probably turned out a bit differently than you'd originally planned, owing to impulse purchases and unforeseen garden circumstances, so it might be wise to think about what the next logical step is in the continuum that your garden is creating.

By this time, though, you may have also exhausted your garden creativity: after the first long burst of designing, planting and moving, I know I am often feeling, shall we say, uninspired. If you're in need of new ideas, fret not. Following are some garden themes sure to get your creative juices flowing.

• The Bird and Butterfly Garden. This garden will appeal to those whose outdoor interests extend beyond mere vegetation. Choose plants with bright colors and strong scents known to attract winged visitors. Some good selections are Rudbeckia, sunflowers, honeysuckle, impatiens, cosmos, zinnias, butterfly bush, bee balm, coreopsis, sedum "Autumn Joy," yarrow and phlox.

• The Herb Garden. Okay, this is an old standard, but it need not be boring. Many herbs are perennials that will make a nice showing year after year; interplant with common, useful annuals for a well-balanced garden. The traditional form would be formal and symmetrical, but go ahead and do whatever suits you. Also, culinary herbs are not the only way to go: many herbs can be grown for fragrance as well as aesthetic beauty. My favorites are sage, chives, St. John's Wort, lavender, thyme, purple coneflower (Echinacea), bee balm, rosemary, chamomile, golden-tipped marjoram, and anything with a lemon scent.

• The Moonlight Garden. An all-white and silver garden theme may seem bland to some, but plant this garden around a patio or seating area used for late-evening entertainment or quiet relaxation, and you will soon understand the appeal. The white and silver plantings glow in the moonlight, creating an ethereal look, and give your garden the added dimension of after-dark enjoyment. And don't forget fragrance; some plant varieties emit their strongest scents after dark. Plants to try include hydrangea, snowball bush, Nicotiana "Alata," lamb's ears, artemisia, white varieties of clematis, garden phlox, lilies, and peonies, and anything with variegated foliage.

• The Shakespearean Garden. For those of a literary bent, this is an interesting garden to research and create. The idea is to use only blooms that are mentioned in Shakespeare's poems and plays. A few basics to start with are roses, lilies, violets, and marigolds.

• The Family Garden. Though potentially time-consuming to put together, this garden can be a fun family project. Plantings would include only those varieties or cultivars containing some version of names found in immediate and extended family, past and present. For example, my family garden might contain Angelica, Dianthus "Joy," Lamium "White Nancy," and Chrysanthemum "Maria."

These are just a few suggestions, there are many more themes to try. Use these as a starting point, and let your own style dictate what follows. And even if you don't have the time, money, or inclination to plant any more this year, it's never too early to think about what projects you might want to tackle next summer, and prepare your yard accordingly. And who knows, if the deer keep working at the rate they are, we all may have lots of space to fill.

New cutter stopping for a Charlevoix visit

The newly commissioned United States Coast Guard Cutter Frank Drew (WLM 557) will visit Charlevoix Thursday, July 15, enroute to her home port of Portsmouth, Va.

The $14 million cutter was built by Marinette Marine Corporation of Marinette, Wis., and launched on Dec. 5, 1998. On June 17, the 175-foot ship was commissioned into the Coast Guard Fleet and began her maiden voyage.

The cutter is the seventh coastal buoy tender in a class named for famous lighthouse keepers. Her namesake, Captain Frank Drew, was the keeper of Green Island Light Station in Lake Michigan during the early part of the century. The keeper class cutter are designed to replace the Coast Guard's 133 and 157 foot cutters which have reached the end of their usable life span.

The cutter Frank Drew is a technological marvel with its automated engineering controls, satellite based ship control and navigation systems, and state of the art buoy handling equipment. The automation allows a minimal crew of only 18 Coast Guard men and women to operate the ship safely and efficiently in any conditions.

The 845-ton cutter is powered by two Caterpillar marine diesel engines, which utilize steerable Z-drive propulsion units and a bow thruster to provide maximum maneuverability.

Chief Warrant Officer Joseph Floyd is in command of the vessel. After completing the voyage to their new home port, the cutter and crew will be responsible for servicing nearly 400 aids to navigation in the Chesapeake Bay.

The ship will be moored outboard of the Coast Guard Cutter Acacia, in Charlevoix, at city dock on Bridge Park Drive. Free tours will be given on both cutters from 6-8 p.m. on July 15.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Baywinds holding open house

Improving members' return on investment, the appeal of new technology and the aim of solid financial thinking prompted Baywinds Federal Credit Union to build a new facility.

In May, Baywinds Federal Credit Union relocated to 1031 May St., at the corner of May Street and Stover Road in Charlevoix.

Baywinds Federal Credit Union also has branches in Boyne City, East Jordan, Bellaire, and Petoskey.

"With the recent numerous acquisitions, mergers and closings of banks in our area, this event shows a firm commitment to our community that Baywinds Credit Union truly stands apart as a member-owned, not-for-profit financial institution," said chief executive officer David Leusink.

Baywinds Federal Credit Union will host an open house from 5-8 p.m. on Wednesday, July 21. In addition to offering tours of the building designed by Fuller Nichols of Harbor Springs, there will be entertainment to celebrate the evening's festivities.

The new brick and limestone facility, encompassing almost 4,000 square feet of space, has an open design for easy access of services, two drive-through teller windows and network surveillance for customer and employee safety.

"Baywinds Federal Credit Union is here to fill a niche that other area financial institutions couldn't quite do," said Leusink. "Our presence is a testament that credit unions are undoubtedly in control of their own destiny and that our members are the reason for our success."

Kelly Services opens office

Kelly Services, Inc. has opened a new office at 213 S. Lake Street in Boyne City to provide temporary employees and other staffing solutions to area businesses and industry.

The office joins another Kelly branch office operating in Traverse City, and will serve Boyne City, Gaylord, Charlevoix, East Jordan, and Petoskey.

"As our business has grown rapidly in northern Michigan, we determined it would be beneficial to have an office geographically positioned to better serve the area," said Carol Nitz, a Kelly Services manager.

Kelly Services, Inc., provides employees with a wide range of skills, ranging from office and information technology, to legal and scientific. Kelly offers human resource solutions that include temporary services, staff leasing, outsourcing, vendor on-site and full-time placement. Kelly owns and operates more than 1,600 offices in 17 countries.

For more information, contact Kelly Services at 582-1170.

Hall of fame

in recognition of longtime service to the state association.

"I'm just overwhelmed, very humbled," Rex said. "Being from a small town, I'm very honored to be put alongside some of the greatest bowlers in Michigan."

With the two 1999 inductees, there are now 24 members in the Michigan State Bowling Hall of Fame, which started in 1996. There is no building for the hall, just a large plaque that is exhibited at sites of the state bowling tournament and at state association meetings.

The main purpose of the association is to organize and run the state bowling tournament each year. The tournament, which runs for 20 weekends, attracts between 2,600 and 3,000 teams or 12,000 to 15,000 bowlers each year.

Rex's responsibility is to manage the $700,000 budget for the association, of which approximately $500,000 is related to the state tournament.

"I just enjoy it," Rex said. "I enjoy working with figures and took it as a challenge."

Rex's professional career also involved numbers. Until retiring a few years ago, he worked 41 1/2 years in the East Jordan Iron Works accounting department.

His volunteer work with Boyne City bowling goes back even further. His dad was the league secretary back when Rex was in high school, and by the time Rex was a senior he took over the job. He did that for many years and also served nearly 30 years as the local secretary. In those early years the bowling alley, which had just four lanes, was where the Sportsman Bar is now.

BOYNE CITY COMMISSION PASSES FIRST READING OF NOISE ORDINANCE

A calmer, quieter community

A new amendment to Boyne City's nuisance ordinance will address noise in the city.

The noise issue came to the attention of city commissioners in March, on the heels of complaints from surrounding neighbors of the noise caused by the dryer at The Max Car Wash at the corner of Park and Ray Streets.

Since then, the car wash's owner Paul Fairbairn has ordered equipment to buffer the noise and the city has worked with him to establish appropriate decibel readings.

But the issue also brought to light the need for a way to address other noise complaints in the city.

The new amendment addresses noise from building and street construction, motors, mechanical and other general noise.

For instance, noise associated with construction or demolition of buildings and roads is only allowed between dawn and dusk, unless permission is granted otherwise by the city manager.

Unreasonable noise from motors, blowers, fans, dryers or similar mechanisms cannot be emitted more than 50 feet beyond the property boundary.

It doesn't designate specific times or decibel levels that noise must adhere to, but enforcement of the ordinance requires a complaint from someone living or working nearby who is bothered by the noise.

Police and planning department members will not look specifically for violators, said City Planner Tim O'Leary.

But it will be up to these authorized city officials, if they warrant, to deem any loud, unnecessary, unusual or unreasonable noise as violations of the ordinance, upon receipt of the complaint.

The ordinance will not address certain things such as loud mufflers, which are already handled by the motor vehicle code.

A first reading of the ordinance was approved by the commission at its June 22 meeting. A second reading of the ordinance will be held at the commission's Tuesday, July 27, meeting at noon at City Hall.

The public is invited to attend the meeting and give input into the amendment's adoption.

have been addressed. The housing commission invited all nearby property owners to a meeting at Litzenburger last Wednesday to review the project and to ask for input. Only one person showed up and she was interested in renting an apartment rather than raising concerns with the project.

With the site plan approved, the next step for the housing commission is to secure financing. The housing commission hopes a bulk of the needed funds will come from low income tax credits, which are administered by the Michigan State Housing Development Authority. The Northern Lakes Economic Alliance, the Northern Homes Community Development Corporation and the National Development Council have assisted the housing commission in completing the comprehensive and competitive low income tax credit application process.

Other state and private financing is being sought.

The deadline to apply for the tax credits is July 15. A decision is expected in September. "If we are not successful, we will continue to apply until we are," Sorenson said.

Camp Quality of Michigan... Their Story!!!

CAMP QUALITY IS...A week of adventure and year round support for children whose lives are touched by cancer. It's a fulfilled, exciting and rewarding experience for these very special children.

CAMP QUALITY IS...A place of love, laughter, new friends and challenges offered at no expense to campers or their families.

CAMP QUALITY IS...A non-profit organization comprised of hundreds of volunteers of all ages, who attend training sessions and share their time, talent, and treasure. In Michigan, since 1989, Eleanor West has volunteered as the Camp Director. She has led a contingent of volunteers and elicited funds from the community and surrounding area, building a widespread network of public support, sensitivity and understanding, to provide these children a QUALITY experience away from their regular medical concerns.

CAMP QUALITY IS...An opportunity for YOU to make a difference...to make the world a better place.

Ann was born on Jan. 7, 1918 in Detroit, the daughter of Emmet and Mary Northmore Sheahan. She was educated at the University of Detroit and was an interior design artist. Her husband Stanley Wollenberg preceded her in death July 20, 1996.
Survivors include one son, Robert (Jacqueline) Wollenberg of Boyne

City; a daughter, Elizabeth Wollenberg-Palmer of Seattle, Wash.; and a granddaughter, Zachera Wollenberg of Boyne City.
Stackus Funeral Home in Boyne City is in charge of arrangements. The family suggests memorials be directed to Boyne City High School Drama Department, Charlevoix County Humane Society, or to Charlevoix County Hospice, c/o Stackus Funeral Home, 417 Elm St., Boyne City, MI 49712.

Eliene W. Rouse

Eliene W. Rouse, 80, of Boyne City, passed away Thursday, July 8, 1999 at Grandvue Medical Care Facility in East Jordan. Her funeral was held Monday, July 12, at Stackus Funeral Home in Boyne City. The Rev. Kathy Cadarette officiated, with burial in Maple Lawn Cemetery in Boyne City.
She was born Oct. 20, 1918 in Traverse City, the daughter of John and Elinora Allison Lyon. She graduated from Traverse City High School. In 1937 Eliene was crowned National Cherry Queen. She married Arthur Rouse the following year. Eliene worked for Gocha's Casuals for over 20 years. She was very active in the Charlevoix County Republican Party as well as serving on the Social Service Board for over 19 years.

She will be missed by her two sons, L. Clark and Arthur "Bud" Jr., of Boyne City; daughter Kristin Shassberger of Grand Rapids; three grandchildren, Michele, Rebecca and Scott; three great-grandchildren Katie, Allison and Jason. She was preceded in death by her husband, Art, in 1991, her parents; four brothers, Arthur, Bernie, Elmer, and Charles; and four sisters, Melvina, Ethel, Ruby and Doris.
The family suggests memorials to Grandvue Medical Care Facility or Charlevoix Area Hospital.

Cora (Corky) Fox

Cora (Corky) Fox, 62, of Wyoming, and formerly of Boyne City, died July 9, 1999 at Metropolitan Hospital in Grand Rapids, after a lengthy battle with several health problems.
Her funeral was held Monday, July 12, at the Stackus Funeral Home in Boyne City. Burial was in Sunset Hills Cemetery, East Jordan.
Corky was born Cora Lee Clark in East Jordan on Aug. 20, 1936. She moved to Grand Rapids as a teenager, returning to the East Jordan area in 1968. She worked for United Technologies, formerly know as Essex Wire. After the plant closed, she returned to the Grand Rapids area to be near her children.

One of Cora's greatest pleasures was being a grandmother. Cora had many great friends in the Boyne City area. She enjoyed being near her children, but she always missed her friends up north.
Cora is survived by three children, Carol Heintzelman of Greenville, Mich., Gary Heintzelman and Lynda (Charlie) Edsall, of Grand Rapids; and two grandchildren, Catherine Elizabeth and Charly Renee Edsall.

Built on FAITH

Built without debt, East Jordan Baptist Church is completed after three years

A preacher and a bulldozer seem an unlikely pairing, but lack of experience driving the machine didn't deter the Rev. Mike Allen from loading and hauling 1,300 yards of dirt to construct the new East Jordan Baptist Church. And a commitment to building the facility economically kept him pushing onward.

On Sunday, July 18, more than three years after the Easter Sunday, 1996 groundbreaking of the East Jordan Baptist Church, Allen and his congregation will celebrate its completion with a dedication ceremony.

Actions such as Allen's dirt delivery have not only kept the church solvent but debt free as the finishing touches were applied last week.

When Allen, the church's pastor, heard the price they'd have to pay for fill dirt needed for construction, he found and purchased a 1970 five-yard dump truck and a 1960 bulldozer with a bucket on the front.

Although the dump truck's lights, turn signals and brakes didn't work, the hydraulics and engine did.

"I was going to put a sign up front that said 'wanted, fill dirt,'" Allen said.

Instead, he stuck an East Jordan Baptist Church sign on the side of the truck and did it himself.

The church may have never been built at all, had he not heeded the words of his wife, Kay Allen.

The property on Ontario Street where the new church sits, has been owned by the church for 16 years. When a party approached the church about purchasing two of the lots, it agreed to sell.

Kay, who Mike describes as practical and the organizer, said "I thought that property would be used to build a church."

"I knew the Lord was speaking to me," Mike said. And they kept the lots.

The old church on Water Street was sold for cash in 1996. Services continued to be held at the old church for six months then were temporarily held in the basement of the Allen's own home. That fall they moved to the basement of the new, partially built church and on Easter Sunday of this year, three years to the date they broke ground on the church, the first service was held in the sanctuary.

Though its construction has come in bits and pieces, almost all of the work and financing has been donated by church members.

"When we needed the money, somehow it just came," Allen said. "We haven't asked outside (the church) or got loans. We felt the Lord would supply us."

When he found the bulldozer, he didn't have the $1,000 to purchase it. Shortly thereafter, a woman from the church called and said she had $1,000 to donate. His prayer was answered.

When it was no longer needed, the dozer was sold for $1,000.

"Now that $1,000 is taking care of (the cost of) the handicap ramp in the front," Allen said.

"I never cease to be amazed how the Lord works and how He worked with us here," Allen said.

Members, under a licensed contractor, installed windows, siding and plumbing. Allen, with a maintenance background, wired the church and installed the boiler.

And like so many other items throughout the construction process, the boiler came at a reduced price. While Allen estimated it would cost $1,800 to $2,000 for a boiler, a brother of a church member happened upon a new one in Traverse City that a supplier wanted to get rid of. It would cost $600 including delivering.

Only the carpeting remained to be installed inside the church's sanctuary last week, just in time for a dedication ceremony this weekend.

"I told the folks (church members), and $600 came in," Allen said.

Allen had no qualms asking two engaged couples who wanted to get married in the church to help install — for free — drywall in the sanctuary prior to their weddings. They did.

And a man required to do community service through the corrections department spent 80 hours grading and then donated and planted trees and also rocks from his own property for landscaping.

The remainder of the 4,000 yards of fill not hauled by Allen, came from Main and Echo streets, from the contractors working on streetscape and other infrastructure work.

Even the church building sign was hand made and donated.

If products weren't donated, members came through with financing.

"We did not do anything in the church until we had the money in hand," Allen said.

Built as a 48 X 48 ft. square, the church was not constructed in a traditional rectangular shape, making it easier to attach additions if need be in the future.

It is two and a half times larger than the old church and includes a kitchen and daycare room in the basement and an office, study and classroom upstairs. It is estimated to be worth $240,000. But much less than that was spent to build it.

Last week carpeting was installed in the sanctuary. The only major projects remaining to be finished are the handicap ramp and the parking lot. Money has not yet been secured to pave the lot.

The congregation will celebrate its completion at the homecoming and dedication ceremony on Sunday, July 18. All are invited.

Services, beginning with Sunday School at 9:45 a.m., will last through noon. A luncheon will be served from noon-1:30 p.m., and a dedication service with speakers and special music will be held from 2-4 p.m.

The church is located at 812 Ontario St. in East Jordan.

Guitarist performing at Aten Place

Lucy Webster will perform at Aten Place on Saturday, July 17, at 8 p.m.

The singer and songwriter's music has been described as being able to move hearts and minds to new emotions and that it is an open journal ready to read.

She has been compared to a younger Joni Mitchell in her writing and alternate guitar tuning renditions, but the music is her own.

Her latest CD is entitled "In My

She resides in Walker with her husband and soundman John. They have one son.

The concert is a non-profit production with a $5 donation at the door provided as compensation to Webster. There are no sales of food or beverages on the property. Bring your own refreshments.

Aten Place is located 1/2 mile south of Cherry Hill Road on Old Mackinaw Trail in Boyne Falls.

Holocaust survivor speaking at New Beginnings

Rose Price, internationally known speaker and survivor of Nazi concentration camps, will be in Boyne City on July 21 at 7 p.m. to speak at New Beginnings Assembly of God Church. Price will talk about her five years in Nazi camps during World War II.

"Rose tells the miracle of the power of forgiveness as she returned to Germany to be a speaker at a conference in Berlin," said New Beginnings Pastor Russ Hager.

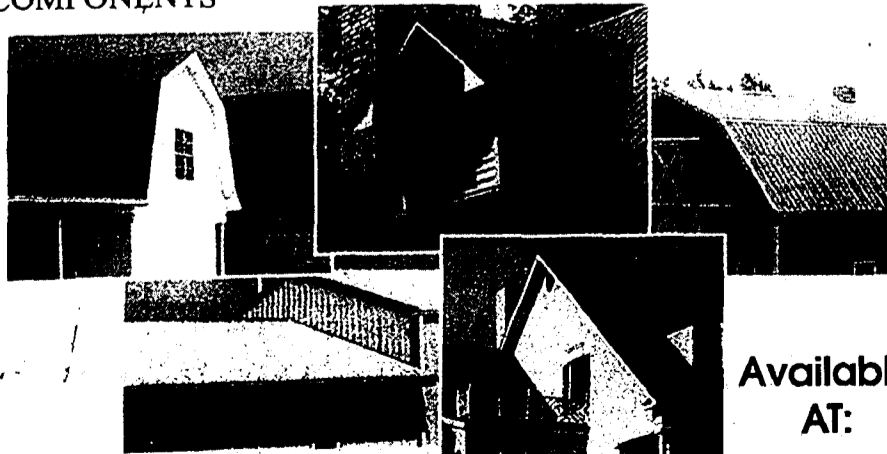

"Following her message six former Nazi concentration camp guards came forward and asked for forgiveness. Through the power of God she was able to forgive these men, including one that served at the very camp that she was interned in."

Refreshments will be served following her presentation. An offering will be taken. For more information contact the church at 582-6022.

Art on wheels on display

It wasn't a traffic jam on Main Street that brought curious lookers to East Jordan's downtown Saturday, but it was the 110 automobiles lined up for the Jordan Valley Freedom Festival Car Show.

Sunshine and the tunes played by the Rawhide and Funtown bands made for a festive day. This was the fifth year for the show and organizers said it was the best yet.

Organizers thank all the sponsors, and Duane and Debbie Chappuis for the use of their downtown building for registration. Those donating their time were Tim Hoffman, Brandon Fulson, Mike Peck, Tootie Bartlett, Amy Sherman, Carolyn Barnett, Barb Worgess, Carol Galmore, Mary Faculak, and Brandy Thompson.

Boyne chamber hosting swing dance and auction

The Boyne City Area Chamber of Commerce will host "Dancin' to the Hitz" at One Water Street on Aug. 13 from 7-11 p.m.

The evening will include swing dancing under the stars to the sounds of big band music played by D.J. Big Daddy.

Along with hors d'oeuvres catered by One Water Street, there will be a dig for real gemstones and plenty of door prizes and auction items.

Some of the auction items will include a log cabin kit from Matelski Lumber, a bench from Bonny View

Cottage Furniture, assorted golf and ski packages, fine art, catered dinner parties, a family reunion vacation retreat and much more.

Proceeds will benefit the chamber building fund.

Only 100 tickets will be sold. They are $40 each and can be purchased at Boyne Country Books, CindiFranco's Cool Stuff and at the Boyne chamber office.

For more information or to charge your ticket to Visa or MasterCard, call 582-6222.

Raffle winner takes the cash rather than a horse

Holly Goethals was the winner of a Wertz Warrior's horse raffle to benefit the Michigan Winter Special Olympics. She chose the $1,000 cash prize instead of the 4-year-old Gelding and 100 bails of hay.

The Boyne City resident bought the winning ticket last week from Kim Rotermund, owner of Jake's Place and fundraiser for the Special Olympics.

"It's nice that it stayed locally," Rotermund said of the winnings. "It shows that not only are you benefiting others, but you get the benefits too."

Goethals who said she'd never won anything in her life, bought one $5 ticket and also split the cost three ways ($3.34) with two co-workers, to purchase three more tickets for $10. She won with that ticket.

"When you're planning for a wedding, it couldn't have come at a better time," said Goethals, who will marry in November.

The winning ticket was drawn on Saturday at the Green Lantern in Alba and $3,500 was raised altogether in the raffle.

Jake's Place sold $530 worth of Holly Goethals, with son Hunter, chose the $1,000 prize in a Michigan Special Olympics raffle which was coordinated in part by Kim Rotermund, right, of Jake's Place in Boyne Falls.

tickets which will go toward the Boyne Falls pub's goal of raising $5,000 this year for the cause, with 20 percent of the funds remaining in Charlevoix County.

Jim Addis of East Jordan donated the horse as well as the $1,000 if no one wanted the horse.

Rotermund will host two more fundraising events this summer for Special Olympics. The first, during the Boyne Falls Polish Festival Aug. 5-8, will have Addis donating horse-drawn hayrides for donations. The second event, a turkey and pig roast, will be held Aug. 21 at Jake's Place.

NEIGHBORS

By NANCY NORTHUP

MORE HOLIDAY NEWS came in from the home of Mary and Ray Gove of the Boyne Falls area. What started out being a family barbecue ended up like a "first time in a long time" reunion. Attending were her sisters, Margaret Compton of San Diego, Calif., and Dorothy Barkley and husband Ralph of Brookville, Fla., and her brothers, Bob and Donna Pratt of Clio, and Dennis and Connie Pratt of Meridian, Idaho, and their son Chris of Indiana, and they were joined by the Gove children: Terry and Bill Coughlin and family of Clawson, Tammie and Vince Antonpulos and girls and Steve and Lynn Gove and children, all of Royal Oak, Jim and Leslie Gove and children of Jacksonville, Fla., and Jill and Mark Chasetz of Clawson and many more "drop-in" guests.

PAULA AVERY of Kansas City, Mo., was also in Boyne City a few days before the holiday, visiting her parents, Bill and Jeanette Avery.

A WARM "WELCOME NEIGHBOR" goes out to Elaine Rennekamp and Florence Hoelzley, both of whom moved into Litzemburger Place over the weekend.

BILL AND MAE BRIDGE of East Jordan have returned from their Pennsylvania travels. A safe trip and good weather let them enjoy relatives there and also stops in New York, Niagara Falls, and St. Catherine's in Ontario.

LISA AND RANDY LUEBKE and family of Boyne City enjoyed a vacation week of camping in the Porcupine Mountains.

META ZINCK has returned home from a long vacation. She traveled to Grand Rapids to see her sister Maxine and husband and her daughter Brenda and family. While there, she took in a West Michigan Whitecaps game at Old Kent Park. She left Grand Rapids for El Paso, Texas, with her son Mark and his wife and her grandson Andrew. In El Paso, she stayed with her son Paul Zinck and his family for two weeks. They went to New Mexico and Mexico and had a great time visiting, since she hadn't seen her grandson Duncan in four years because they were living in Belgium.

THE BOYNE CITY High School class of 1947 held its 52nd reunion on Sunday. "We're still 39!" said my caller, with a laugh. About 22 came from Durand, Flint, Traverse City, East Jordan, and locally for a fun and delicious meal and beautiful afternoon at Veteran's Park.

MICHELE SHALER, daughter of Frank and Connie Shaler and Stephen Seelye, son of Karen and the late Tim Seelye, all of Boyne City, were married at St. Matthew's on Saturday before 350 guests. An evening dinner reception, with 550 friends and relatives sharing this beautiful time was held at Boyne Mountain Civic Center. Guests came from California, Florida, L'Anse and many other points throughout Michigan. After a honeymoon trip to Florida's Disney World, the newlyweds will be at home in Boyne City, and building a new house on Dietz Road.

THELMA WILLIAMS of Boyne City enjoyed a visit from her grandson, Gary Roberts, wife Kim, and children, Rochelle, Loren, and Adam of Dearborn. This was a first time visit for Great-grandma to get acquainted with Adam, who will be a year old in August.

DOUG AND SHERRY DRAKE entertained a group of 60 for a pig roast on Saturday at their home on Drake Road. It was a fun time of combining a party in honoring Doug's birthday, their son Kipp's graduation from Central Michigan University, their son Eric's new job, and Grandma Margaret's birthday.

BUD AND JOANNE SEVERN and son Gregg of Clio spent the week here at their home on Stanek Road.

LITZENBURGER PLACE residents are pleased with Friday's arrival of new patio furniture, located in the entryway from the East Division Street guest parking lot. The table and chairs and glider on the patio overlook the beautiful brick bordered perennial garden.

SCOTT SUTLIFF returned to Berkley, Calif., on Monday evening, after flying home to attend the wedding of Michelle Shaler and Steve Seelye on Saturday. He spent the short visit here with his parents, the Oral Sutliffs and sister, Sheri and Kevin Fitzpatrick and family.

VERONICA TOUMEY of Troy and her sister Helen Barnes of Grand Rapids spent several days visiting their Boyne City sister, Mary Coonrod. Highlighting their visiting, eating out, and shopping together was the July 8th birthday celebration of twin sisters, Mary and Helen. Mary's grandson, Ervin Skop and children of Cedar Springs also stopped in, with a birthday cake, gifts and cards.

SKIP CROMP and her two daughters, Merry Jo Baxter and Vicki Roberts, held a 75th birthday party, honoring their husband and father, Frank, this past Saturday. Thirty-six people attended, including two nieces from Florida, Judy Morris and Jean Etzler and her husband Bill. Relatives and friends also came from Ohio, Virginia, Paw Paw, Grand Rapids, Marquette, Cement City, Waterford, Oxford, and Petoskey, as well as neighbors from Springwater Beach. Frank got many silly and some sentimental gifts and cards. "Everyone had a wonderful time and we all thanked God when the rain stopped," said Skip.

ROXANNE SKORNICA and Tom Wilson of Flint spent several days here visiting his brother, Don Wilson and wife

Norma on Stanek Road. Other visitors were Keith and Michelle Ellison of Clio.

EVERETT SAYLES returned on Saturday, after having spent the holiday week in Flint with his daughters Mary and Sally.

JUNE AND JIM MOREY of Ionia and son Jeremy, who has now completed his four-year tour of duty with the U.S. Marine Corp, were here on Saturday, to visit mother and grandmother, Anne Jenkins. Anne's son, Gary Wade Jenkins of Reno, Nevada, is also here for an extended visit. His wife and family will be joining him in 10 days. Anne and the Moreys recently attended the high school graduation of Nolan Lewis, son of Robert and Marsha Webb Lewis in Sterling Heights. Nolan is now attending a nearby technical school studying computers.

ANNA TAYLOR, the daughter of Lyle and Rita Taylor of Boyne City, was honored with a bridal shower on Saturday at the Horton Bay United Methodist Church. Many friends and relatives attended the lovely party for Anna, who will become the bride of Tom Frascione on August 7. Hostesses were Karen Williamson, Cindy Johncheck, and Margaret Kuzmik.

MATTHEW SHALER, 14, son of David and Deanna Shaler, of San Diego, Calif., flew here to spend three weeks with his grandparents, Frank and Ann Shaler and visit aunts, uncles, and cousins. David, his dad, came a week later, to spend two weeks visiting his parents, brothers, and sister and their families, and to attend his 26th class reunion. Also here for six days was Ann's sister and her husband, Mollie and Jerry Collins of Hendersonville, N.C. All attended the beautiful wedding of Michelle Shaler and Stephen Seelye on July 7.

LEONA AND CHARLIE STANEK recently hosted a party that started out as a surprise celebration of the June 11th and 25th wedding anniversary of Bonnie and Ron Olund, and became a celebration for all the June weddings of those attending. Celebrants were Betsy and Rick Olund, 22 years on June 1; Shonnie and Dale Holzschu, 23 years on June 26; Leona and Charlie Stanek, 52 years on June 28; and Barbara and John Imel, 31 years on June 29. Also attending were Bud and Jannine Sevorn, and Dan and Norma Wilson.

JOHN AND VELDA GODFREY of East Jordan celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, July 11. The marquee on the Dilworth Hotel "Jack and Velda: 50 Great Years!" greeted the more than 40 attending. It was a wonderful cocktail and dinner event enhanced by pianist Steve August. The four children, grandchildren came from Atlanta; Winston Salem, N.C.; Walpole, Mass.; and the wider family came from all over. It was the first time in over 20 years that they all had been together at the same time. "It was wonderful!" said Jack. "And the Dilworth was the best place to have it!"

The sound of drums will fill Old City Park next Wednesday for the Petoskey Steel Drum Band concert.

Steel drum band in concert at the gazebo

The Petoskey Steel Drum Band will be playing in Boyne City's Old City Park on Wednesday, July 21, at 7 p.m. for Evenings at the Gazebo.

Steel drums were invented about 65 years ago in Trinidad/Tobago. The first instruments were very crude but as the art form grew so did the skill with which the instruments were made. Today, the instruments are finely tuned by heating and pounding the steel to the desired shape and pitch.

Common instruments include the leads (soprano), seconds (alto), cellos (tenor) and basses. The "engine room" consists of drums, cymbals, cowbells, brake drums, whistles, etc. Those attending should bring their own chairs. In case of rain the performance will be held at St. Matthew's Church, 1303 Boyne Ave. For further information call 582-7522.

Conservancy taking field trip to Malpass and Davis preserves

The Charlevoix County Land Conservancy will host a summer field trip to the Malpass and Davis preserves in South Arm Township on Saturday, July 17.

The public is invited to attend. In summer, the river banks of both preserves are lined with wild roses and Sweet Gale, and it's not uncommon to see Kingfishers, Great Blue Heron, and Red-Wing-Blackbirds.

All participants should meet at 10 a.m. at the South Arm Preserve of the St. Clair-Six Mile Lake Natural Area, 3 1/2 miles west of East Jordan, just off the Ellsworth/East Jordan Road (just up river from Tapawingo and Rowe Inn). The walk will not be strenuous.

A car pool will leave the conservancy office at 108 Park Ave., in Charlevoix at 9:30 a.m. Early birds will gather at 8:30 a.m. to explore the thoughts of Matthew Fox.

For more information call the Charlevoix County Land Conservancy office at 237-9335.

Vintage car show at Bay Harbor a benefit for Northern Michigan Hospital Foundation

Some 87 vintage automobiles will be spotlighted during the Bay Harbor Concours d'Elegance on Saturday, July 17.

The public portion of the show will take place from 2-5 p.m. in the new Bay Harbor Marina District.

By strict definition, a Concours d'Elegance is a celebration of the automobile as a work of art. The field of 87 entries for the Concours d'Elegance is comprised of seven classes, including antique and vintage (up to 1924), pre-war (1925-1942), post-war (1943-1972), early sports (1943-1955) and late sports (1956-1972).

Tickets for the public portion of the show from 2-5 p.m. are $5 at the entrance to Bay Harbor Marina District. Proceeds from the event benefit the Northern Michigan Hospital Foundation's efforts to improve the health and quality of life of community residents.

Programs such as the Foundation's Read to Succeed program, which distributes books to parents and their youngsters as they visit area pediatricians' offices, and the Wellness Wagon mobile health van, which provides free and reduced cost health services to area residents, will benefit from the fundraiser.

The public is also welcome to stroll the streets of the new Marina

District while viewing the automobiles, and purchase a poster of original art work, commissioned for the Concours d'Elegance.

Artist Tom Hale painted one of the world's great classic automobiles, a 1932 Duesenberg, Model J, in the distinctive setting of the Bay Harbor Marina District.

Legion team earns a split at tourney

Boyne USA's American Legion team split four games at the Petoskey-Indian River baseball tournament this past weekend.

Boyne played at Indian River on Friday and defeated a team from Shelby by the score of 11-5.

Boyne USA then lost to Midland in game two Friday and lost to Marquette on Saturday before bounding back to beat Traverse City in game four.

"Altogether we had a good tournament," said coach Ted Karaszewski. "Except for the game against Midland, we competed very well. The kids are hitting the ball real well."

Against Shelby, Boyne pounded out 14 hits in support of winning pitcher Brent Van Steddum.

"Brent did another great job pitching," Karaszewski said. "He was in command and got stronger late in the game."

Hitting for Boyne was led by Charlevoix's Matt Huron with a home run and two singles.

"Matt looks real comfortable at the plate. He's going to be a real good ballplayer for his coach (Scott Kelly) next year. He's doing a great job for us," said Karaszewski.

Ryan Fiel had a double and two singles, Jeremy Andrews had a double and a single, Van Steddum and Dan Arner each had two singles, while Josh Bush doubled. Shay Hutchison and Nick Karaszewski each singled.

Game two against Midland was no contest as Boyne USA lost 20-0.

"We didn't compete well against them," Karaszewski said. "They are one of the top teams in the state and we just were not in their league. Still, it was good experience to play a team of that caliber."

Boyne managed three singles, one each by Hutchison, Andrews, and Van Steddum.

Hutchison, Karaszewski, and Josh Bush all pitched. In game three against Marquette, Boyne lost 12-5 in a six-inning contest.

"This was a game we could have won. We played well against them. We were only down by one run in the fifth, 6-5, but we gave up too many walks when we least could afford to. Those walks came back to haunt us because they were followed by big hits."

Bush was the losing pitcher as he gave up 5 hits and 10 walks.

Offensively for Boyne, Karaszewski, Van Steddum, and Chet Raymond had two singles each. Bush doubled and Andrews singled.

Game four saw Boyne USA avenge an earlier season loss to the Traverse City Trojan High School team, winning 7-5.

"This was a good team we beat and the win showed our players that they can compete with the big towns," Karaszewski said.

Ellsworth's Raymond was on the mound for Boyne USA scattering 9 hits, allowing 5 runs, walking only 3 while striking out 7.

"Chet showed a lot of heart and competitiveness out there," Karaszewski said. "He battled for every out and got the strike out when he needed it."

Matt Huron led the offense with three singles while driving in 5 runs. Fiel added a double and two singles. Steve Bush homered, Karaszewski added two singles, while Arner and Van Steddum each singled. Arner and Fiel each scored three times.

Boyne USA hosts Grayling this Wednesday at 5:30 p.m., then plays in the Cadillac tournament this Saturday. On Sunday, Boyne hosts South Haven at 1 p.m. at the Boyne City High School field. There will be a barbeque between games.

Macker champs

The Boyne City 11 and 12-year-old team of (clockwise from upper left) Tyler Kruzell, Grant Ameel, Brad Erickson, and Josh Klevorn went undefeated at the recent Gus Macker tournament in Gaylord to win their division.

State's best golfers competing in Tournament of Champions

For the eighth straight year, Boyne USA Resorts will host the Tournament of Champions sponsored by Detroit Newspapers.

The Pro-Am tournament will be played Saturday and Sunday. Monday begins the 54-hole stroke play tournament, which concludes on Wednesday, July 21. Play begins at 8 a.m. each day.

The tournament with its unique format of men, women, juniors, and seniors is rich in tradition. Boyne USA Resorts honors that tradition by hosting the prestigious tournament on the challenging Alpine and Monument courses at Boyne Mountain.

Winning last year's Tournament of Champions in dramatic play was John Dalcobbo, a teaching professional from Forest Akers in East Lansing. He birdied the 18th hole to force a sudden playoff with the 1997 champion Tom Harding. The sudden death playoff lasted four holes before Dalcobbo made a remarkable birdie to become the 1998 Tournament of Champions winner.

This year's tournament promises the same thrills and suspense as the 1998 tournament. Players include big Michigan names like J.R. Roth, last year's Michigan PGA winner; Tom Harding, the 1997 Tournament of Champions winner; Larry Mancour, this year's Michigan PGA Super Seniors winner; and Stacey Slobodnik, Woman State Amateur.

With a total prize purse of $110,000 and $20,000 going to this year's winner, spectators are sure to see world-class golf competition at the 1999 Tournament of Champions. Admission and parking are free with a shuttle service on and off the course.

Boyne All Stars earn berth in finals

The Boyne City All Star 11-12 year old girls beat Gaylord Monday night 14-4, advancing them to the district finals against Huron Shores.

Pitcher Monica Cornell won her second complete game of the tournament, striking out 11 and giving up two hits.

The team collected six hits including triples by Cadie Britton and Whitney Spaay.

Boyne Defeated East Jordan on July 7, 27-1, with Cornell on the mound and defeated Gaylord on July 10, 11-3, with Cadie Britton pitching.

They will face Huron Shores Wednesday, July 14 at 6 p.m. at Huron Shores, and again on Thursday, July 15, at 6 p.m. in Boyne City. If a tie-breaker is needed, it will be played at a neutral site.

Results from other Boyne City and East Jordan all stars were not available.

All female crew ready for Jim Kuhn race

By BOB MUNN

Last week the focus of the nation centered on the World Cup Soccer finals in Pasadena, Calif.

Eleven young, determined American women defeated the Chinese team to become world champions.

This Saturday in Boyne City, determined women will test their skill and grit against a predominantly male active racing event on Lake Charlevoix.

The occasion is the annual Jim Kuhn Memorial Race and the Camp Quality Fundraiser under the auspices of the Boyne City Yacht Club.

The women's team will be entered in this event which features two races in one: The Jim Kuhn Memorial Race, a sanctioned handicap race; and the Camp Quality Fundraiser race, determined by time and credited with points accumulated through donations. This popular annual event brings entries from yacht racing clubs in northern Michigan, including Little Traverse Yacht Club, Charlevoix Yacht Club, and the sponsoring host, the Boyne City Yacht Club.

This all-women team, recently formed, may be handicapped by accumulated sailing experience but they have an unusual advantage going for them -- their boat, "Thunderbunny."

The racing boat classed as a scow is a no-frills, dedicated, racing machine. The "Thunderbunny," while being exceptionally fast, requires constant attention -- its handling characteristics demand precision execution. Each crew member is constantly on alert to respond to the skipper's commands. The all-female crew is living up to the reputation this sensitive type of craft demands.

Competitive sailing on Lake Charlevoix is undergoing a startling change. Good luck ladies -- the focus will be on you.

(Bob Munn is a charter member of the Boyne City Yacht Club and one of the organizers of Saturday's race.)

Summer-ize Your Hearing Aids!

Summer weather is rough on hearing aids. Increased activity, heat, higher humidity and perspiration can add significant amounts of moisture to a hearing aid. Loss of clarity, distorted sound quality, intermittent loss of function, and even outright failure can result.

The Dry & Store™ hearing aid conditioning system is designed to help those suffering from hearing loss hear even better and prolong the life of their hearing aids. It works by removing the moisture that causes problems. Easy to use and affordable, it sanitizes and deodorizes as it dries. Want to enjoy ALL the sounds of summer? Invest in a Dry & Store and summer-ize your hearing.

East Jordan Historical Society mapping out old school buildings

Old East Jordan school buildings will be the topic of the East Jordan Historical Society's program on July 15 at 7 p.m. at the museum at Elm Point.

Joe Hammond will bring his photo collection of the old buildings from the East Jordan School District and Antrim County, and the society will begin assembling a map of where the buildings stand or used to stand.

A completed map, which will eventually include area cemeteries as well, will be on display at the museum once completed.

The public is invited to attend.

Family affair

Great-great-grandmother Naomi Davis and great-grandmother Sue Miller, both of Boyne City, grand-father Gary Kurtz of Hudsonville, and Mindy Kurtz of Kentwood, mother of 7-month-old Trenton, gather for a five-generation picture.

FAMILY'S ROOTS RUN DEEP IN COUNTY

From all over, the Heaton came

(Editor's Note: The Heaton Family Reunion was held over the 4th of July weekend. Following is a summary of the family gathering.)

By HYLON HEATON III

A year of planning came to fruition over the holiday weekend for the Heaton Family. It began with the 4th of July parade. Chip Heaton and family of Clark Lake, Mich., designed a parade float. It was decorated in true patriotic fashion with help from Clarissa (Heaton) Ames of California, daughter Jessie (Stanhope) Bergholz of Arizona and Clarissa (Heaton) Wright of Frankford, Mich. Fifteen strong marched in the parade; the float led by a white convertible carrying the senior family members. A loud speaker blared out Sousa Marches and told how the Heaton Families have been involved in the life of Boyne City over the past four generations.

Many of the Heaton Family attended the United Methodist Church of Boyne City following the parade, sporting red, white, and blue "Heaton Family" T-shirts.

The family then gathered at Whiting's Park for dinner and the reunion party.

Family members from as far away as California and Florida attended. Freda Judkins of Boyne City was elected Queen of the Day, being the oldest family member at 89 years. Miranda Gilbert of Flint, was chosen as princess, being the youngest family member at six months. She was in attendance with mother, Gail and father Jeremy and three sisters, all under the age of five years. Best storytellers were Patty Sue Heaton of Clearwater, Fla., and Clyde Heaton of Clinton Township, Mich.

The Heaton family celebrated a colorful heritage that includes a famous Hollywood cowboy, Tom Mix, farmers, loggers, and a saloon owner who also served as a deputy sheriff of Charlevoix County. Peggy Haig of Grand Haven told of Donny Hait, who "rubbed shoulders" with such famous people as Ernest Hemingway and President John Kennedy. The Heaton family ran the Boyne City theater through the depression years and into the late 1980s. At one time they sold family tickets for 25 cents and one pound bags of popcorn for a penny.

Dr. Hylon Heaton Jr., in attendance with wife Vivian, served on the Boyne City School Board, sang tenor in the local Barbershoppers, and for 34 years practiced veterinary medicine in Boyne City. Hal Hill of Charlevoix, a founder to the Boyne City Chamber of Commerce and past mayor of Charlevoix, was in attendance with his family. Hal's wife Wanda claimed the honor "Daughter of the American Revolution" via the Heaton/Norton Line.

Patsy Grose, attending with her husband and daughter from Traverse City was the only attendee who could claim Heaton Family membership via two separate lines; the brothers Tim and Lozelle Heaton. Wanda (Heaton) Warezak attended her Boyne City High School Reunion with her husband Ron, before organizing the food for the Heaton Reunion on Sunday.

Wanda and sister Emilie Kosa of Miami, Fla., spent this past week vacationing in the Boyne City area. Tragedy did mar their reunion visit, when their 28-foot boat caught fire and sank in Lake Charlevoix. Fortunately, all aboard had disembarked before the fire occurred.

(Hylon Heaton III is a veterinarian from Flint who attended the reunion with his family.)

Boyne 4-H offering llama program

Boyne City 4-H is offering a new llama program for children ages 9-16.

Youth will learn to care for, show and train llamas and alpacas, but do not need to have their own llama to participate.

Nel Vickers of Maplewood Farms on the Boyne City-Charlevoix Road will lead the program which will meet weekly at the farm.

Those with interest or questions can contact Vickers at 582-6740.

Arts council sponsors fiber workshop

Registrations are now being accepted for the Sept. 18 workshop with Judi Warren, nationally known fiber artist, quiltmaker and author of "Fabric Postcards."

The day-long workshop is part of the "Rare Threads" fiber arts show which will run Sept. 4-30 at the Jordan River Arts Council.

For more information on the workshop or to register, call JoAnn Dalto at 582-2867.

CITY OF BOYNE CITY COUNTY OF CHARLEVOIX

SECOND READING AND CONSIDERATION OF ADOPTION OF Ordinance No. A-28 Amendment No. ___, an ordinance to amend the Boyne City Zoning Ordinance, Waterfront Overlay District.

At a regular meeting of the City Commission of the City of Boyne City, County of Charlevoix, MI in said City on 29 June 1999, at 12:00 noon, the First Reading of the following Amendment___ TO ORDINANCE No. A-28 was held and approved.

THE CITY OF BOYNE CITY HEREBY ORDAINS:

Section 1. Purpose.

The purpose of this ordinance is to maintain a scale of residential development that was historically appropriate for Boyne City and for Northern Michigan, to support the goals within the Comprehensive Plan and the goals of the annual goal setting sessions, to maintain the aesthetics of the shoreline from the water and to prevent a walling effect between the lake and backlot properties.

Section 2. Amendment of Section 3.95 C. §. 3.95 WATERFRONT OVERLAY REGULATIONS C. ZONING AND USE REGULATIONS:

Permitted and Conditional Uses shall be those uses permitted in the respective Zoning District(s) in which a proposed project lies with the exception, in the Waterfront Overlay District, additional two family and multi family residential dwellings shall be prohibited. Action to create this Waterfront Overlay District shall not be interpreted to create nonconforming structures and uses which were existing at the time of enactment of this amendment to Ordinance A-28. Those lawfully existing two family and multifamily dwellings shall be subject to, and still have to conform to, the requirements of each respective zoned district in which property is located. Those aforementioned existing structures will be allowed to be reconstructed and updated on the existing foundation, but not expanded.

Garages, decks and open porches, which meet the requirements of each specific zoned district, may be added to those multifamily and duplex structures, which were lawfully existing at the time of enactment of this amendment, and are located in the waterfront overlay district.

Notice is hereby given that the Second Reading and Consideration of Adoption of Amendment___ to Ordinance A-28 will be held at the City Commission Meeting on Tuesday, 3 August, 1999 at 12 noon in the City Managers Office, 319 North Lake Street. A copy of the entire text of this amending ordinance is available at the City Clerk's office at the above address during normal business hours. This amendment shall be published within ten days following final enactment and shall take effect fifteen (15) days following final enactment. The Public is invited to attend this meeting and give input into the adoption of Amendment___ to Ordinance A-28.

Future of cross country at BCHS under review

The fate of varsity cross country at Boyne City High School will be decided no later than Aug. 9, by which time school superintendent Dana Compton and athletic director Steve Beyer will offer a recommendation regarding its status to the school board. At its regular meeting Monday night, the board responded to a request by volunteer coach Andy Place that cross country become a conference-recognized sport and be funded at around $2,500 per year. Considered a club sport currently, a coaching position and other costs are not paid for by the district. "The bigger point is funding a sport that is not very expensive, and fills a lot of needs and gaps," Place said, such as offering an alternative to those who can't or don't want to play other sports.

Compton said it's not the money that's most important in his mind, but that the school develop a consistent plan for all the activities. While both Compton and Beyer are supportive of maintaining cross country as a varsity sport, Compton said there are several issues to look at before making a recommendation.

Girls basketball coach Tom Neidhamer expressed his concern for expediency, since some girls look to make a decision to join the basketball or cross country team this week. In other business the board:

- Unanimously elected the following officers: President Kathy Anderson, vice president Marty Moody, secretary Jerry Kelts, treasurer Jill Rowley.

- Hired Lisa Krosnicki as the district's business assistant.

Wagbo offering willow chair making class

What does a rustic willow chair class have to do with peace? Very little, unless you ask the staff at Wagbo Peace Center.

"First, bringing people together to learn or create something builds community," said the Center's Administrative Director Tracy Meisterheim. "Second, bending freshly cut willow whips into a functional and beautiful chair connects people's hands with the land, which is the first step in appreciating our role in the natural world."

And conflict resolution? "That's one of the main program areas at Wagbo, and the willow chair class helps provide funding," she said.

If you're interested in building your own willow chair this summer, one class will be offered July 30 and 31 for $150 and an extra $45 if you'd like to bring a friend to assist you.

Class size is limited, no special skills or tools are required. The registration deadline with fee is July 26.

For registration or more information, contact Tracy at 536-0333.

Polish Festival hits 25-year milestone

It's been 25 years since organizers in Boyne Falls first erected the polka tent and elected an honored citizen, a grand marshal and the only queen the Polish Festival ever saw.

Years later, many of the traditions have endured, and even though a few things have changed, one thing hasn't — and that's all the fun that falls on Boyne Falls during this special weekend.

With 6,000 people flocking to the town's first festival, and with attendance doubling to 12,000 in its second year, its reputation has grown as one of the finest in the state.

In its first year, it honored the township's centennial. The next year it celebrated the nation's bicentennial. Since then it's become a tradition that involves the whole community, with civic and school groups doing their part with money raised going back into the community to support local causes.

And this year to celebrate its history, all former honored citizens, grand marshals, little miss and misters, and the one and only queen Judy (Matelski) Elzinga, will be invited back to help celebrate the event which will run from Aug. 5-8.

Though there will not be an honored citizen and grand marshal this year, Roslyn Fiel has been chosen as this year's Little Miss and Luke Rypkowski as Little Mister.

Mixing the past with new ideas means kicking things off an evening earlier than usual on Thursday, Aug. 5, with an "Oldies But Goodies" night under the Polka tent. The tent will open at 5 p.m. and instead of a polka band, an oldies band will play tunes from 7-11 p.m.

Other new additions to this year's festivities include a semi-professional rodeo at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday and Friday. A youth parade, open to all children, will march down the streets on Friday at 5 p.m. Sunday will bring a shoot-out beginning at 7 a.m., at On Target Archery in Boyne City. And Rusty Wallace's race car will be on display all weekend.

But some things should never change, and that means the polka tent will be back Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Pony and horse pulls, mud-runs and horseshoe pitching tournaments will be back again too. Friday is youth day and Sunday is senior citizen day.

Suspect faces numerous charges regarding construction site thefts

Riley Felton Agee, who is suspected of several property thefts in and around Boyne City, was arraigned last week in 90th District Court on several charges.

Agee, 50, of 05417 Camp Daggett Rd., Boyne City was arrested June 25.

Initially he was charged with one count of breaking and entering a building with intent to commit larceny. Last week more charges were added. They include:

- Two counts of stolen property - receiving and concealing $1,000 or more but less than $20,000. The crime is a felony and punishable by up to five years in state prison and/or a $10,000 fine or three times the value of the stolen property.

- Four counts of stolen property -

- receiving and concealing $200 or more but less than $1,000. The crime is a misdemeanor and punishable by up to one year in county jail and/or a $2,000 fine or three times the value of the stolen property.

- One count of receiving and concealing stolen property less than $200. This offense is a misdemeanor punishable by up to 93 days in county jail and/or a $500 fine.

Agee's arrest was the result of a joint investigation by the Boyne City Police Department, Michigan State Police at Petoskey, and the Gaylord State Police Criminal Investigation Division Team.

He allegedly stole construction tools and equipment and other items in the spring of this year.

Last Thursday, a preliminary exam was scheduled on the breaking and entering charge. Agee appeared with his lawyer, Susan Graham of Petoskey, and waived his right to have the hearing within 14 days of arraignment.

The judge arraigned Agee on the new charges, then scheduled all the pending felony cases for a preliminary hearing and the misdemeanor cases for pre-trial conferences at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 20.

The judge set Agee's bond at $6,000, with 10 percent allowed with Agee required to wear a tether and be restricted to his home upon release from jail.

Agee was not in jail Tuesday afternoon, according to the Charlevoix County Sheriff's Department.
