Serving East Jordan, Boyne City and surrounding areas

At A Glance

Cadillac girl drowns at Whiting Park

A tragedy at Whiting Park last week claimed the life of a Cadillac girl.

Emergency personnel were called to the scene at Whiting County Park in Eveline Township, west of Boyne City, at approximately 11 a.m. on Friday, Aug. 31, after receiving a report of a drowning.

According to the Charlevoix County Sheriff's Department, witnesses at the scene said that Samantha Rasmussen, age 4, had been playing in the water in front of a campsite with several children, when an adult noticed her missing; she was soon located lying in the water approximately 380 feet down the shoreline. Adults on the scene pulled Rasmussen to shore and attempted to administer CPR when it was determined that she was not breathing.

Ambulance personnel arrived at the scene, and were able to locate a pulse. Rasmussen was rushed first to Charlevoix Area Hospital, and later transported to Grand Rapids, where she died at around midnight on Sept. 1.

In a news release, Sheriff George T. Lasater expressed gratitude for the heroic efforts of those at the scene who performed CPR and the emergency personnel who participated.

Boyne City Ambulance transported Rasmussen, assisted by East Jordan Ambulance's Advanced Life Support.

The incident is being investigated by the Charlevoix County Sheriff's Department.

BCMS to host night for parent orientation

On Wednesday, Sept. 12, the staff of Boyne City Middle School and the PTO will be co-hosting a Parent Orientation Night. Parents are invited to go into their child's classroom(s) for presentations by teachers regarding topics of study to be covered, agenda/assignment books, procedures, and expectations.

The program will begin at 6 p.m. in the school gym with a welcome, the middle school annual report, and a PTO update. From there, parents will be dismissed to "walk through" their student's schedules. The final activity of the evening will be for all parents and staff to enjoy some refreshments and social time in the cafeteria, at approximately 8 p.m.

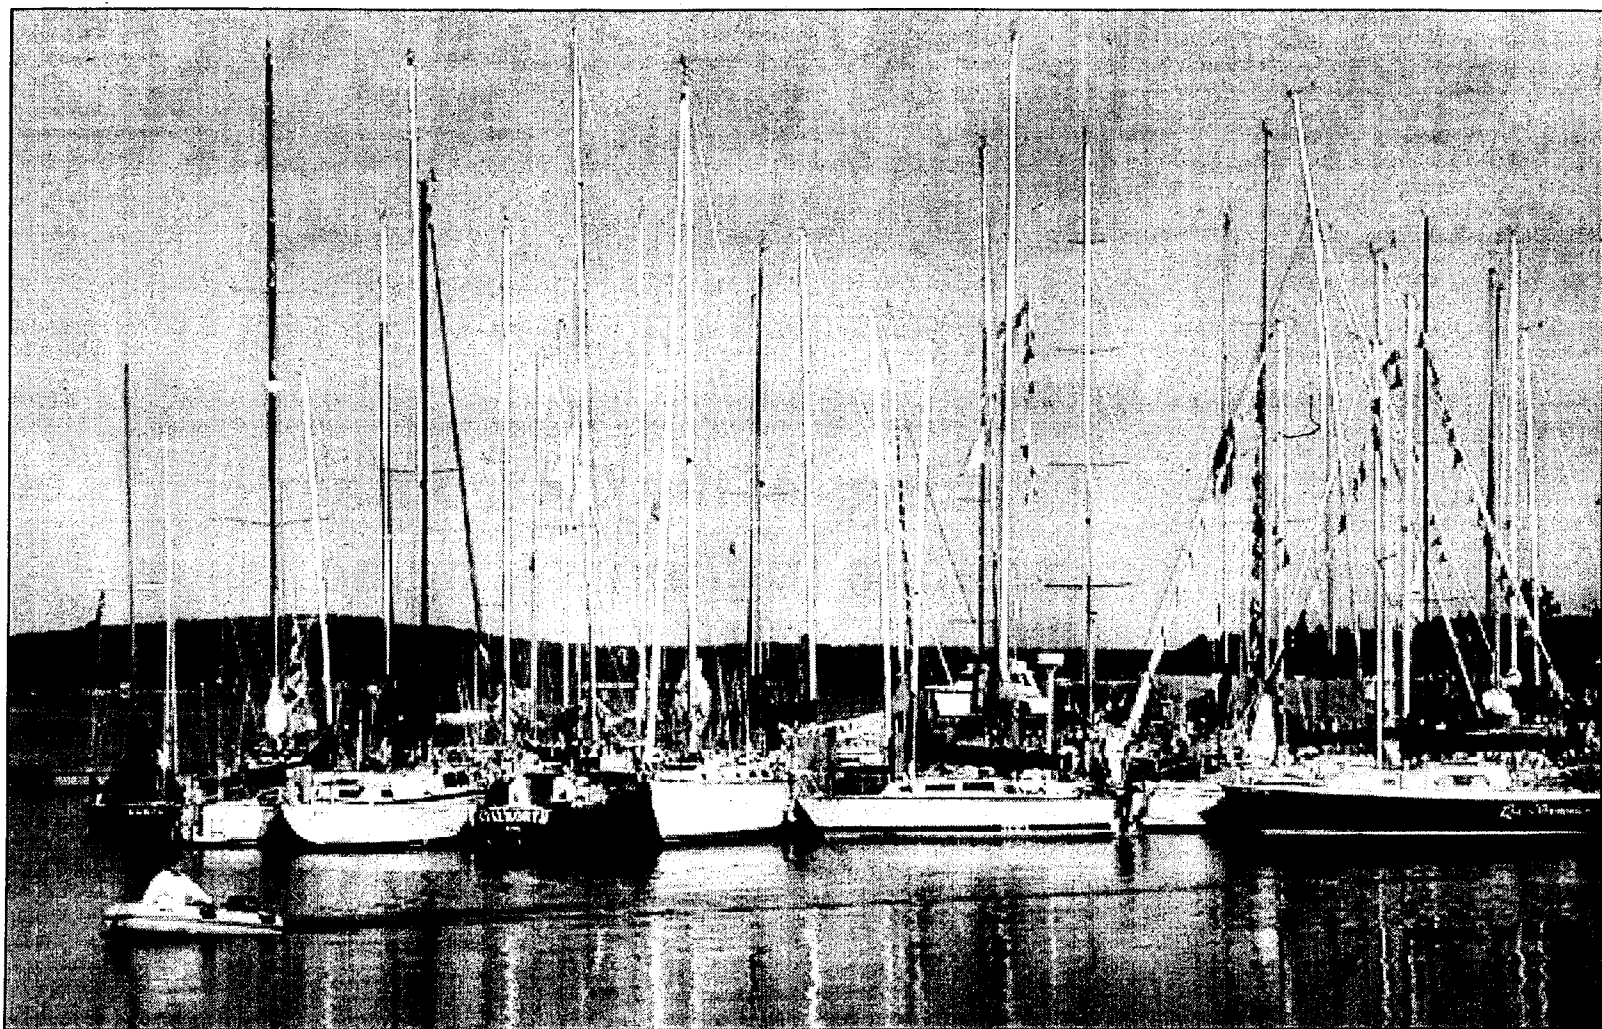

Because this program is for parents, participants should not bring along their children.

For more information, call the school at 439-8200.

Smooth sailing

Participants in the annual Red Fox Regatta on Lake Charlevoix sailed into the city marina in Boyne City on Saturday afternoon, despite a marked lack of wind to fill their sails; many sailors were forced to motor or paddle in to town. Breezes were a bit stiffer on Sunday, in time for the boats to continue on the second leg of the race, back to Charlevoix.

New ambulance director knows department well

Barbara Mathers is no stranger to her new job.

She started just last week as the full-time ambulance director for Boyne City, but Mathers has been with the department since 1985, and has served as the assistant director for six years. For the past several months she has filled in as director while a search was conducted to fill the position left vacant when Henry Erber resigned.

Now the interim label is gone and Mathers is the department's first full-time director.

"I have a lot to learn, but I felt I could do a good job," Mathers said. She was one of seven candidates for the position.

According to City Manager Eric

Strahl, by creating the full-time director position, the city hopes to accomplish two goals. The first is to upgrade to advance life support. That process will begin this week when five members of the department begin attending paramedic classes at North Central Michigan College. The class meets two evenings a week, some Saturdays, and involves 600 hours of clinical work.

Two members of the department already have paramedic status but six members need it for the department to be advanced life support certified.

The advanced certification will allow the department to administer more care in emergency situations.

The other goal is to ease the scheduling conflict during the day when it is sometimes difficult to have volunteers available.

"That's the tricky part of the scheduling," Strahl said.

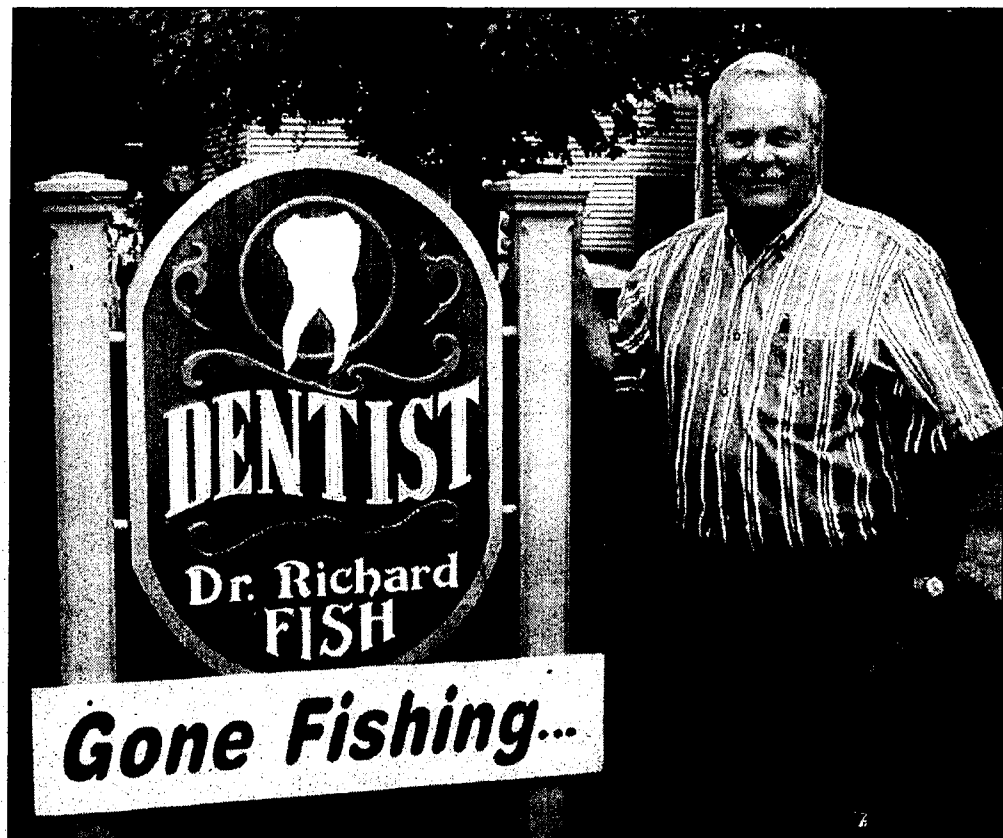

Mathers, who is an LPN, will oversee a department which has 13 licensed personnel and nine drivers, a number which fluctuates due to the stress of the job.

In addition to covering her 6 a.m.-6 p.m. shift, Mathers will also have an office in city hall and will maintain office hours as much as her schedule allows. Her salary, according to Strahl, is $35,000 a year.

Chuck Witte, a long-time member of the department, was appointed assistant director.

A long-time member of the Boyne City ambulance department, Barbara Mathers is already hard at work as Boyne's first full-time director.

After 39 years, Dr. Richard Fish is hanging out the "Gone Fishing" sign at his Boyne City practice, heading for retirement and, hopefully, a big catch.

Long dental career comes to an end

A new line has been added to the sign at Dr. Richard Fish's office in Boyne City. It reads: "Gone Fishing."

If there was more room on the sign, a few more lines could be added, like: "Gone house building," or "gone woodworking," or "gone antiquing," or "gone to be a grandpa."

Any of them fits for Dr. Fish, who last Thursday afternoon saw his last patient after a 39-year dental career.

He decided last spring it was time to retire. "A number of my contemporaries had retired and I got to the point where I wanted to make some changes," he said.

"I have a lot of interests and other things I want to do. I'm going to miss it but I'm anxious to get on with my life."

Unlike some retired persons he knows who have too much idle time, there won't be a shortage of things to do in Dr. Fish's life.

First up is a fishing trip to Canada. When he returns he plans to begin getting ready to build a new house near Advance. It actually will be a traditional barn and he will have his home on the second floor and the main floor will be a work area.

He also will continue working in antique restoration and may assist local artist Glen McCune on some projects. He will continue his association with Vacation Properties Real Estate Company in Boyne City, and of course, there's always fishing.

He also plans to continue serving on the Charlevoix Area Hospital Board and Raven Hill Discovery Center Board.

Dr. Fish moved to Boyne City 37 years ago. He graduated from high school in Battle Creek, earned his bachelor's degree from Albion College and went to dental school at the University of Michigan. After two years in

Library looking to the future

By NANNETTE MILLER
Director, Boyne District Library

This has been a year of big changes for the Boyne District Library. We recently received news of yet another change. Based on population growth as recorded in the 2000 census, we are now a Class III library instead of a Class II library. WOW! But what does this mean?

Libraries in Michigan are divided into class sizes based on population served, ranging from the smallest, Class I libraries which serve from 0 - 3,999 people, to Class VI libraries which serve 50,000 or more people. When the Boyne District Library was formed in 1996 the population of the service area was based on the 1990 census figures, 6,081 people, which made it a Class II library (serving 4,000 - 6,999 people). The 2000 census data shows the population of the library's legal service area to be 7,173, which puts us into the next class size, Class III which serves 7,000 - 11,999 people. GREAT! But what does this mean?

Different class sizes have different requirements for hours of accessibility and library personnel. Class II libraries are required to be open to the public a minimum of 20 hours per week, but Class III libraries have to be open a minimum of 30 hours per week. We are already open 50 hours per week so we do not have to make any adjustments there. We also exceed the education requirements for the director and support staff, and will continue to do so until our service population tops 11,999 and the director needs a different kind of master's degree. That's lucky for me, but again, WHAT does this mean?

We come to funding. The state of Michigan funds libraries on a per capita basis. This means we will receive State Aid for 1,092 additional people for the next 10 years until the 2010 census figures are calculated. That increase adds $546 per year to our annual budget, IF we actually get the mandated fifty cents per person, which does not look likely at this time. We can expect about $3,500 from the state next year. Another way the state "pays" for libraries is through a provision in the constitution that gives a portion of penal fines collected in the county to libraries located in that county. Penal fines are monies collected by the courts for fines, traffic tickets, court costs, etc. Personally I have a bit of trouble with the idea that the worse the citizens in Charlevoix County behave, the better off the library will be. Penal fines are also under constant attack by other state organizations that want a share of them for other purposes. The only reliable form of funding for libraries is a voted millage, but even that shrinks every year because of the Headlee Amendment. Our voted millage is .75, but we will only actually collect just over .70 mill this year, and that number will continue to decrease.

The Boyne District Library is bigger and better than ever. At this time we cannot count on the state for much in the way of funding, and we do not want to increase the tax burden of every person living in the district. Help us secure the future of our new library — give to the Endowment Fund.

FALL FEATURES AND EVENTS at the Boyne District Library include the following:

September is National Library Card Sign-Up Month - the Boyne District Library and the Boyne City Elementary School Library will be working together to encourage students and parents to get their library cards.

Preschool Storytime - Tuesdays, Sept. 18 through Oct. 16, at 10 a.m., open to all area children ages three through five. Pre-registration is required.

Fall Family Fun Night - Wednesday, Oct. 24, at 6 p.m. Entertainment will be Ron Fowler, children's librarian at the Petoskey Library. The evening will include stories, songs, refreshments and take home craft kit. All area families are invited - children are encouraged to come in costume.

'Evenings at the Gazebo' series creates a lifetime of memories

TO THE EDITOR:

If you know me you know my history of working with children for the past 26 years, and I can't think of a better gift than bringing music into the lives of our children of Boyne, as well as visiting children.

Each week as I observe toe tapping, hand clapping, laughing, smiling faces, I am so pleased to be a part of that whole picture.

I'm writing this letter to thank all of you, who make this happen each Wednesday night in the Old City Park.

Thank you to Barb Polinski who answers all my questions. Our musical talent this year ... Boyne City High School Drama and Jazz Band, John Warstler, Dave Eggebrecht, and Leanna Collins, Clarity, Nelson Olstrom, Northern Nites, Petoskey Steel Drum Band, Walloon Lake Praise Band, Dr. Goodhart's Home Remedy, and Tanglemere.

To our local businesses and individuals, without their donations this event would not be possible... Ed and Glory Barden, Cherie Wescott, Korhase Insurance, Boyne Country Books, Citizens Bank, Huff Pharmacy, Boyne City Dairy Queen, Chipman Refrigeration, Ed's Electric, Xi Gamma Sorority, Bob Mathers Ford, Van Dam Marine, Honeywell, Boyne Country Visitors Bureau, Subway, Arch Wright, Stafford's Hospitality One Water Street, Industrial Magnetics, Boyne City Ace Hardware, Boyne City Rotary, ReMax of Boyne, and Boyne Valley Garden Club. Last but not least, a big thank you to all of you who come each week, residents and visitors, to support the concerts by your presence, as well as your donations.

Together we promote music, a sense of community spirit while providing a lifetime of fond memories of Evenings at the Gazebo!

Thanks again,
Cindy Kujawski

These flowers that grace the bridge in Boyne City are just one of the many ways the Boyne Valley Garden Club keeps things looking bright all summer long.

Big thanks to Boyne Garden Club

TO THE EDITOR:

A 21-gun salute to the Boyne Valley Garden Club and to any other people involved in the gorgeous flowers planted all over Boyne City.

The Chamber of Commerce building, the public restrooms, the bridge, the post office, by the river and park -- they have all been breathtakingly beautiful all summer.

I know the many visitors to Boyne City have been as impressed as I have.

I appreciate and thank you for your effort!

Exceptional Riders to begin fall season

The Exceptional Riders Program starts its fall season on Sept. 11 and classes meet every Tuesday through October. The program, which offers hour-long classes for physically, mentally and emotionally challenged of all ages needs volunteers.

"Again this year we have been invited to ride at Bay Harbor Equestrian Club and we are very excited about using their facilities and horses," said program director Barb Lane. Students are taught to ride a horse, not just taken for a "pony ride." A volunteer horse leader and, depending on the student's ability, one or two side walkers assist each student.

"Handicapped persons often lack confidence in their own abilities," Lane said. "Put that person on horseback and they gain a new perspective. For some it is a newfound mobility. For others it is the challenge of controlling such a large and powerful animal, and the physical and emotional rewards appeal to all. For the volunteer, the smiles of joy you see on the students' face warms your heart for days after."

Several factors make the program a success she said, but the most important is volunteers. Every session requires approximately 30 volunteers to lead horses, assist the students and help with many other jobs around the barn and class area. We also need financial support from our community. Exceptional Riders is a non-profit, charitable organization. There is no fee for these classes but students need to arrange their own transportation.

For more information or to volunteer, call Lane at 347-3300.

Local speakers to give presentations at Sacred Sparks

On Saturday, Sept. 8, Charlevoix author and artist Kim Left and herbal specialist Margaret Beck will present free programs at Sacred Sparks in East Jordan.

At 1 p.m., Left will read from her recently published book, "The Day Rue Flew," an illustrated book which tells a delightful tale of a reluctant fairy named Rue, under the Faery Canopy at Sacred Sparks. Left will autograph copies of her book following the reading.

At 2 p.m., Beck, co-owner of Great Hill Herbs, will offer a presentation entitled, "More Than Just Pretty Skin." Margaret and her daughter Beth Anne Haigler of Maryland own and operate their home-based business in East Jordan, offering organic dried herbs and a popular line of body care products. Beth Anne is a certified Herbalist and Aromatherapist, a mother of three and a manager of a health care business in Maryland.

Beck will speak on the idea that lovely skin begins on the inside. She will expound on the principal "you are what you eat," and share information regarding herbs and their benefits as they apply to certain skin-related problems.

There is no charge for these events and refreshments will be served; all are welcome. For more information, call 536-2704. Sacred Sparks is located at 5070 Mt. Bliss Road, East Jordan.

County CROPWalk set for Sept. 29

The 18th annual Charlevoix County CROPWalk will be held on Saturday, Sept. 29.

Local coordinators for Boyne City, East Jordan and Charlevoix recently met with Johanna Balzer, associate director of Michigan Church World Service/CROP to set goals for the 2001 Walk. Organizers hope to raise $18,000 and have 138 walkers. Special award pins will be earned by walkers who raise $150 or more.

CROP Walks are interfaith, community events, part of the outreach of Church World Service, the disaster relief, development, and refugee resettlement ministry of the Church World Service. Walkers are urged to ask family, friends, and co-workers to sponsor them for the event. Sponsor envelopes are available from local churches. Though most of the funds raised will be used by Church World Service in overseas relief and development work, 25 percent is returned to the communities in Charlevoix County to be used by the local food pantries.

In the 2000 walk, 139 walkers raised a best-ever $19,050. Each of the food pantries in Boyne City, East Jordan and Charlevoix received $1,587 for local use in combating hunger.

Boyne City walkers leave from Whiting Park for the approximately six-mile hike to Ironton where they will meet with East Jordan walkers who start from Elm Pointe. All walks start at 9 a.m. with registration beginning at 8:30 a.m.

"We walk because they walk" is the CROP Walk motto, referring to the millions of people around the world who must walk for food, for shelter, for water and for survival.

For more information on volunteering to walk or to sponsor a walker, call Diana Walls in Boyne City at 582-6485, Marge Teske in East Jordan at 536-3128 or Kay Smith in Charlevoix at 547-2920.

NEW FACES IN THE CLASSROOM

As the school year begins, The Citizen-Jordan Journal will profile new teachers in area schools. This week, we feature new staff in the East Jordan School District. Next week, we'll meet new teachers at Boyne City, Boyne Falls, and Concord Academy Boyne.

Greg Bowden is the new math teacher at East Jordan High School. He is a 2000 graduate of Alma College and taught one year at Saginaw Swan Valley, where he was assistant football coach and head track coach, for one year. His wife, Shelly, is the new sixth grade teacher at East Jordan Middle School. In his first year in East Jordan, Bowden said he is looking forward to getting to know his students and the community.

Kathryn Budd is the new East Jordan High School special education and U.S. Government teacher. She has a bachelor's degree from Western Michigan University in psychology/communication. She has her teaching certificate from Spring Arbor College in psychology/social studies and a Master's from Michigan State University in special education. Her experience includes being a classroom aide at Mason Public Schools for three years, an arts and crafts instructor at Interlochen, special education teacher at Chesaning Middle School for two years and special education teacher at DeWitt High School for three years. Budd, who is single, said she is "looking forward to working with such a high energy group of educators who have one goal, to increase student success."

Angela King is the new East Jordan Middle School language arts teacher. She has a Bachelor of Science degree in education with a major in English and a minor in psychology. She did her student teaching in Australia. King, who is engaged, said she is "looking forward to a great year with a wonderful staff and enthusiastic students."

Shelly Bowden is teaching sixth grade math at East Jordan Middle School. Last year she did her student teaching at Winn Elementary School teaching kindergarten. Her husband, Greg, is teaching math at East Jordan High School. Bowden said she is "really excited to meet my students and get involved in the community."

Nathan Tarsa is teaching manufacturing technology and German at East Jordan High School. He is a graduate of Central Michigan University where he majored in German and minored in math. He also attended Michigan Technological University where he earned a bachelor's in scientific and technical communication, an Associate's in electrical engineering technology, an advanced foreign language certificate, and a master's in rhetoric and technical communication. His experience includes teaching German at Michigan Technological University, student teaching and substitute teaching at Traverse City Central High School and East Junior High School, and working as an electronic technician for the Siemens Corp., in Germany. He is married and has four children. He said he is looking forward "to being an integral part of this top-rated school district and to becoming acquainted with the students and community."

Paul Nachazel is the new eighth grade math teacher at East Jordan Middle School. He received his Bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan and received his master's from Grand Valley State University. Prior to coming to East Jordan he taught math and science for seven years at Northview Crossroads Middle School. His wife, Elizabeth, will be working as a teacher's aide at the middle school. Nachazel said he is "looking forward to becoming an active member of the community."

Bob Essenberg is teaching algebra and transitional math in grades 7-12. He is a graduate of Spring Arbor College and Ellsworth High School. Before coming to East Jordan he taught high school math and computers for eight years at Allendale High School and math for one year at Concord Academy Antrim. He and his wife Kate, have one son, 15-month-old Cole. Essenberg said he is "looking forward to developing relationships and becoming part of this energetic team of students, staff and community members who are committed to excellence in education, student development and community involvement."

Mary Anderson is teaching kindergarten at East Jordan Elementary School. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan-Flint. She taught preschool/ kindergarten for eight years at the Davison Montessori Academy and one year substitute teaching in East Jordan and Boyne Falls. Her husband, Chris, is the district forester for Emmet and Charlevoix counties. Anderson said she is "looking forward to getting my classroom involved with the community. I am excited to be a part of the learning environment of East Jordan."

Kristin Schmoke is teaching first grade at East Jordan Elementary School. She is a graduate of Hillsdale College where she earned her bachelor's in elementary education, early childhood and physical education. Before coming to East Jordan she spent two years teaching preschool at the Women's Resource Center in Petoskey. Her husband is Chris. "I've heard really wonderful things about East Jordan Schools," Schmoke said. "I'm excited to be a part of the schools and community. I look forward to having my own classroom this year."

Dan Ziebarth is teaching first grade at East Jordan Middle School. He received an associates of art degree in child development from Grand Rapids Community College and his Bachelor's degree from Western Michigan University. Before coming to East Jordan he taught first grade for two years at Newaygo. He and his wife Sarah have two children and are expecting their third in late October. Ziebarth said he is looking forward to working with the Four Blocks program and his students.

Lots of changes at Boyne City Preschool

Several changes are occurring at Boyne City Preschool.

First, the school has changed its name from Boyne City Nursery Center to Boyne City Preschool, and it has hired Renee Gibbs as the new program director.

Gibbs, who will serve as program director and teacher, has been with the center for two years and will be graduating from NCMC in December with a degree in early childhood.

Theresa Schneider will be co-teaching with Gibbs.

Assisting them will be classroom aid Sue Wangeman.

"On behalf of Boyne City Preschool I would like to welcome all of our families to an exciting and fun-filled new school year," Gibbs said.

"As director and teacher I'm looking forward to working to meet the diverse needs of both families and children enrolled. The goal of our early childhood curriculum is to help children become enthusiastic learners. Children learn best by doing, hands on actively exploring the world around them."

"Renee has a lot of enthusiasm and it's spreading," said board president Julie Wellman.

According to Gibbs, board members and parents are all excited for this year to start. "We must be on the right track with what parents are looking for, because our enrollment has increased this year already," said board member Amy Beilas.

The pre-school has classes for 3- and 4-year-olds and Young Fives.

The school offers scholarships for families in need of financial assistance, and accepts FIA payments.

For more information on classes or to register, call Gibbs at 582-7131.

the Air Force, he moved to Boyne.

"I always wanted to go to a small town," he said, and being a part of a small town, he believed, meant getting involved.

He did just that. He served as president of the Boyne City Chamber of Commerce, was a school board member for 10 years, was active in the Rotary Club, and served in leadership positions with the First Presbyterian Church. He was also on the FMB board of directors and helped get Aten Place started seven years ago.

He and his wife Janet, who is in the advanced stages of Alzheimer's, also raised three children: Roni, who lives in Boyne City with her two children; Kyle who lives in Kalamazoo; and Corey who lives north of Grand Rapids.

"I love the community," said Fish. "I have a great number of friends here. It is not likely I will move."

When he started his practice, there were few dentists in Boyne and some of the smaller communities did not have any. Patients came from a wide area. And several of those patients he saw in the first year, he saw in his last. "Patients come and go, but we have many from the first year. It was a tight nucleus."

One of those early patients was Carol Snyder. She saw Dr. Fish the first year he was in practice. Then in 1984 she went to work for him and has been his full time office manager. "He's always been so fair to patients," she said. "He's well appreciated."

Club News

Boyne City American Legion

At the Aug. 2 meeting of Ernest Peterson Post 228 of Boyne City it was reported that Camp Quality requested the Post take charge of the flag raising to begin their week of activities. Maxine Hough reported that out of three students only one, David Conaway, will attend the Student Trooper program in Lansing this year and that the plaques for the Tabs For Tots program have been engraved and will be delivered to the schools.

John Mathers reported that bingo is doing well and making enough money to pay the bills and cover the cost of the Post programs.

Fred Gondzar gave a report on area veterans who are sick or disabled or had passed away since the July meeting. Graves and registration chairman Maxine Hough explained plans to start updating all listings soon. The commander is taking names and sizes for Post, Auxiliary and Squadron jackets which will be ordered after 12 requests are received. The Commander asked that the entertainment committee complete its work on the house rules and schedule so that the Post can be opened to area veterans for recreation.

The next meeting is Sept. 6.

Cool cars

Over the weekend, some snazzy cars, along with some old-time rock and roll, made the Labor Day Cruise In and Car Show an event to remember. After the downtown cruise in on Friday, cars were on display for judging in Veteran's Park. Below, Barry Ewing of Grand Ledge and Boyne City had his nationally recognized custom 1933 Ford at the event. Here, he talks cars with Boyne resident Les Whaley. Proceeds from the show, organized by Great Lakes Motor Works, benefit local groups and organizations.

So far so good for 2-0 Ramblers

The Boyne City Ramblers make their home debut this Friday when they host Benzie Central, and if the Ramblers like their own field as much as they do the road, home fans should be in for a treat.

A quick start and a strong finish gave the Ramblers a 35-20 non-conference win against Rogers City last Friday and a 2-0 record heading into the final key warm-up before they start Lake Michigan Conference play.

The Ramblers wasted little time in scoring. A 50-yard Ryan Amesbury to Kyle Gibbons pass staked the Ramblers to a 6-0 lead. Rogers City turned the tables and scored on its next possession from 30 yards away, tying the game.

A Boyne City interception was returned for a Rogers City score, and with the extra point Rogers City led 13-6. It was the same song and verse a short time later when Rogers City intercepted another pass and returned it for a touchdown and a 20-6 lead.

"It was the turning point of the game," was how coach David Hill described the next score, a five-yard Ben Hausler jaunt followed by Amesbury's successful two-point conversion just before the half, decreasing the lead to 20-14.

Out of the locker room for the second half, Dustin Moore bolted for 45 yards, deep into Huron territory. A trading of turnovers kept the ball in Boyne City hands, and moments later, Kyle Gibbons was in the end zone once more, this time from 19 yards out.

Amesbury added the PAT and Boyne City was back on top, 21-20.

After pinning the Hurons back deep with the kickoff, the Ramblers used the ensuing field position to set up a 43-yard touchdown by Dustin Moore. Tim Wellert's extra point gave the Ramblers a 28-20 win.

The final score came from Gibbons once more, this time a 77-yard punt return with the key block delivered by Greg Ordway to spring the run. Wellert's extra point gave the Ramblers their 35-20 victory.

Dustin Moore ran for 108 yards, adding a pair of interceptions on defense. Ben Hausler had 58 yards rushing, Kyle Gibbons finished with 89 yards on four catches.

Defensively, Paul Sumani had 11 tackles, as did Hausler, with AJ Spaay and Wellert collecting nine.

On the junior varsity side, Boyne City built an 18-6 lead en route to an 18-14 win.

East Jordan's Alan Arnott shakes off a Mancelona defender in Friday's game. Arnott put in a powerhouse performance for the Red Devils, scoring three touchdowns.

East Jordan romps

The Red Devil football team got back in the win column, traveling down M-66 to Mancelona for a game Aug. 30.

After a disappointing loss to Central Lake in their opening game, the Red Devils came alive for a 38-14 win over Mancelona.

The game was taut for the first quarter, with neither team gaining an advantage. Then came the second quarter and the attack of Alan Arnott. Arnott scored three times, from 13 yards away, then added a 47-yard burst, completing his quarter with a 13-yard run.

Robert Grover contributed a two-point run and the Red Devils were suddenly in comfortable shape in the locker room, 20-0.

Grover continued his efforts to start the second half, bursting across the goal line from 55 yards out on the second play of the half for East Jordan. Grover continued the second half spree with a two-yard run early in the fourth quarter, and Matt Huver capped the scoring with a 34-yard run for a 38-0 lead.

Mancelona picked up a pair of scoring passes for a final margin of 38-14.

Arnott finished with 122 yards on 11 tries. Grover was close behind with 114 yards on 14 carries. Huver ended with 93 yards.

Tacklers of note were Scott Murray with eight, Bryan Diller grabbed seven, Kevin Roberts nabbed six and Bill Tison had five.

The Red Devils take on the neighboring Charlevoix Rayders Friday, in another happy meeting of Lake Michigan teams, this taking place in the friendly confines of East Jordan's home field.

IN JUNIOR VARSITY action Wednesday, East Jordan defeated Mancelona 40-0. The Red Devils scored early and often building a 28-0 lead after the first quarter.

"This win was a direct result of great teamwork from everyone involved," said coach Todd Derenzy.

Scoring the Red Devils were Josh Sheridan, Richard Derenzy, and Kyle Peters with four.

Red Devils split in opening week

East Jordan put its 2001 Red Devil basketball team on the court for the first time against Mancelona, then Gaylord St. Mary's last week, and the result was a split decision.

With Mancelona in town for a game Aug. 28, the Red Devil defense did the trick early and often, frustrating the young Mancelona team into turnovers and missed shots.

On offense, Courtney Hammond and Anne Olsen took care of most of the scoring, combining for 25 of the Red Devils' first half 30 points as East Jordan enjoyed a 30-6 lead at the break.

Mancelona found the basket in the second half and played the Red Devils fairly even the rest of the way, falling 54-23 at game's end.

Leading the Red Devil's brigade was the dynamic duo of Hammond and Olsen. Hammond had 24 points, eight steals, eight rebounds and four assists. Olsen had the best night of her career, according to coach Dan Pepin with 18 points and nine rebounds.

IN JUNIOR VARSITY action, East Jordan earned a thrilling 34-30 win. Jessica Skop and her 13 points led the team.

Kari Skop and Brittany Havron each added six points.

Boyne City makes progress in tough loss to Petoskey

The first game was not inspiring, but the second, despite the outcome, proved a much better gauge of the overall team for Boyne City and its Rambler girls basketball team this season.

Rogers City hosted Boyne City Aug. 28, and the Hurons proved to be unkind to their guests, running away and winning 56-28.

"We had 30 turnovers," said coach Michele Deming. "We didn't handle the ball well at all."

The highlight for the Ramblers was Michelle Metzger with seven points.

The other highlight was the JV outcome, a 52-18 victory. Kim Foster scored 14, Hannah Decker netted 11 and Carleen Gaither scored 10 in the romp.

Thursday's match with Petoskey was a much closer battle. The Rambler offense showed up and had an opportunity to prove itself, which it did time and again. Alas, Petoskey also had an offense, and it proved to be just slightly more potent, 63-50.

"We played considerably better," Deming said. "We handled their press well, and I'm very pleased with the effort. We were much improved from Tuesday's effort."

Kriste Gaither led the charge with 24 Rambler points, Lyndsay Tomkins with nine.

The junior varsity won a thriller by a point, no other details were available.

Loggers go 3-0, win Tip-Off

It was a nice start to the season for the Boyne Falls Lady Loggers, stopping Alanson to begin the year, then winning the Alba Tip-Off Tournament, but the real tests are still down the road.

The season began with the Alanson Lady Vikings coming to the Log House Aug. 28.

The visitors were placed under pressure from the outset, and despite an occasional burst, the Loggers were in control at the half, 30-16. By game's end, the Loggers had amassed a 73-37 victory total.

"We played very well," said coach Doug Tippett. "It was a nice surprise to play as effective as we did." He was also pleased with the team's balanced scoring. Kim Wagner had 27 points, Amanda Raphael added a strong 19, Jenny Kuhn delivered 14, and Kayla Reynolds added eight.

The JV contest really wasn't, either, as Boyne Falls, despite just five girls, shot the lights out and won 50-19. Megan Pernicano scored 20, sister Annie added 12, Missy Anthony scored 12, and Mary Vantilburg netted 11.

At the Alba Tip-Off Thursday, Boyne Falls won its opener against Northern Michigan Christian Academy 67-14. The Lady Loggers were never challenged, leading 20-4, 44-6, and 57-6 at the breaks.

Stephanie Dzwik led the team with a 17-point effort, Kim Wagner had 12 points and Emily Korthase scored eight. Cindy Bayer added a three-pointer in the second quarter as every player scored.

Alba was the opposition in the final, having moved past Wolverine 34-19 in the other semifinal.

Against Alba, the Loggers fell behind early 2-0 to the host Wildcats.

They would never trail again.

Boyne Falls used solid pressure to force turnovers, then used potent offense from a variety of resources to score the next 13 points, taking a 15-4 lead after a quarter.

Alba would cut the lead under 10 just twice the rest of the game as Boyne Falls kept the pressure up and simply moved the lead up bit by bit until the end was a 43-28 win.

"It was a nice start for us. Now we need to prepare for Mackinaw City (and the rest of the league)," Tippett said.

Kim Wagner scored 11 to lead the Loggers, taking All-Tournament and MVP honors. Jenny Kuhn added eight points and was All-Tournament. Other All-Tourney members were Katherine Rusnell and Mandy Massey of Alba, Rachel Kilbourn of Wolverine and Amanda Fosmore of NMCA.

Boyne Falls now kicks into Northern Lakes play with Alba Thursday, Sept. 6.

The Lady Loggers will test their 3-0 record against Alba on Thursday.

A RARE DUAL GHIA EARNS GREAT LAKES MOTOR WORKS

High praise in Pebble Beach

Imagine driving down the 18th fairway of Pebble Beach Golf Course in southern California — in a car. A very fancy car.

John McLeod, manager of Great Lakes Motor Works in Boyne City, had that opportunity a few weeks ago when he and Mike Stowe were at the Pebble Beach Invitational Concourse d'Elegance Car Show, described by many as the most prestigious car show in the world.

McLeod and Stowe were driving a 1958 Dual Ghia, a car owned by Stowe and rebuilt by McLeod and his crew at Great Lakes.

The Dual Ghia was hand-made in Italy by the Ghia company and built in Detroit by Dual, thus the name Dual Ghia. Only 99 of the cars were made and they were mainly sold to the "Hollywood elite," according to McLeod. The car purchased by Stowe was first owned by Hoagey Carmichael.

Getting to the Pebble Beach show doesn't just happen to anyone; participants are by invitation only. "When our car got invited, it was like winning the Super Bowl," McLeod said. "It's an honor. To be able to build a car at that level and be invited, we were elated."

The "we" includes Dave Leitou, who was team leader for the project. He led the effort of the entire crew at Great Lakes in the rebuilding project.

Rebuilding the car took more than a year. It arrived in boxes and slowly and meticulously was rebuilt. Since it has a hand-made body, no two cars are the same meaning several pieces had to be manufactured.

The research time involved prior to even starting on the project was just as extensive. "The research time was incredible," McLeod said.

Just how the show would work was something of a mystery to Stowe and McLeod, who learned as they went. "We didn't even know what our class was [until we got there]."

The Pebble Beach show is divided into classes and the cars selected are put in categories by the show's organizers. The show boasted a grand total of 100 entries, and the Ghia was one of five cars in the Post War custom coach work class. "The other four cars were absolutely amazing to us," said McLeod.

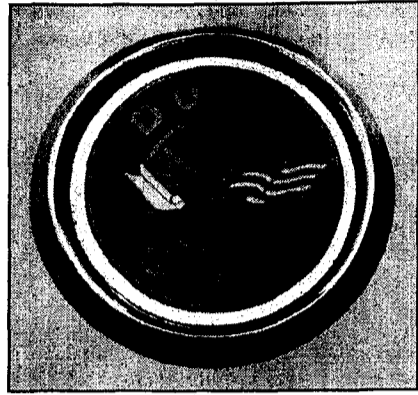

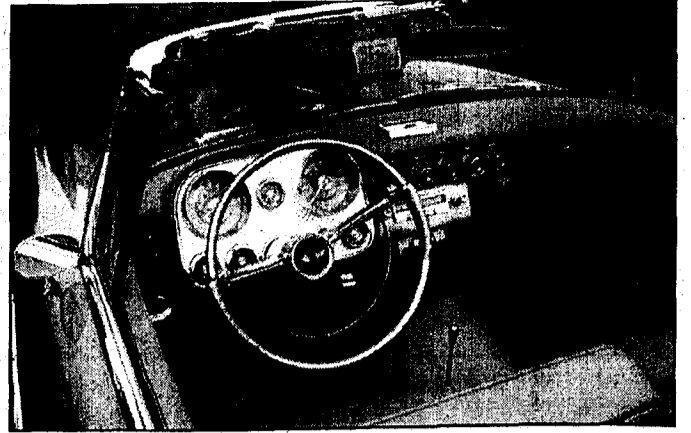

The actual show was held Sunday, Aug. 19, but the festivities surrounding the event carried on for a few days. There was a black tie gala dinner, along with other smaller car shows and races.

The day of the show started with the cars being prepped and then a group of five judges went "stem to stem" checking it out.

When they were finished, the effort of Great Lakes Motor works earned high praise along with a second place trophy.

"It was really unexpected," said McLeod. "We're happy."

Much of the beauty of a fine auto is in the details, and the Dual Ghia is no exception. Each car has a hand-made body, and thus no two cars are exactly the same.

HEALTH TIPS FROM MEDICAP PHARMACY

Check Your Cholesterol (Part I)

The National Cholesterol Education Program has released new cholesterol guidelines. They recommend more aggressive cholesterol-lowering treatment and better identification of those at high risk for a heart attack. Those at high risk include those with heart disease, diabetes, or multiple heart disease risk factors. They also recommend everyone over 20 years of age should have his cholesterol checked every five years. This means a complete profile including LDL, HDL, and triglycerides, as well as total cholesterol.
