

HEADING FOR THE HILLS - After teaching kindergarten in East Jordan for 24 years, Mrs. Adeline Bowerman is retiring to enjoy the great outdoors. Here she's leading her class in a rehearsal for a Mother's Day skit presented last Friday.

K teacher retires to enjoy wilderness

EAST JORDAN - Mrs. Adeline Bowerman, who has been a kindergarten instructor at East Jordan Elementary School for 24 years, and a teacher for 33 years, announced that she will be retiring this June so that she and her husband can "enjoy the American wilderness."

"... We have driven through many of our states and taken in the highlights; now we want to take the back roads, camp, fish, and see the natural beauty of our country," she explains. "Our first plans are to bicycle a part of the Wisconsin Bikeway."

"We have many hobbies," she continues, "archery, canoeing, lapidary, painting, reading, sewing, etc., so I'm sure we'll enjoy having some time to do these things."

"Mrs. Bowerman has given of herself 100 percent to every child she's taught," Elementary School Principal Don Peters commented. "She'll be missed at school."

Besides her school activities, Mrs. Bowerman was responsible for starting Girl Scouting in East Jordan and has been the heart of the program for 17 years since. She is a 25 year member of the Jasmine Rebekah Lodge, and is a member of the Methodist Church. She has directed the children's choir at the church for 20 years.

Fun-A-Lot

BOYNE CITY - The Fun-A-Lot Club met recently with Mrs. William Seals to play bridge. Mrs. Doug Anthony subbed.

Winning first prize was Mrs. Al Wolff; second, Mrs. Jim Fairchild and low, Mrs. Joanne Carpenter. Floating prize went to Mrs. Doug Anthony and door prize to Mrs. Larry Martin.

Mrs. Jim Fairchild will be hostess, May 15th. wf

Hold junior high Career Day at East Jordan

EAST JORDAN - Some 200 eighth and ninth graders at East Jordan High School will have an opportunity to look into their future occupations here Thursday at a multi-faceted "Career Day" presentation in the school gym.

The two hour program features 27 local resource persons talking about 21 different occupations. Students have the opportunity to choose those study sessions that interest them the most.

Before the meeting breaks up into the study sessions, the entire group will listen to two guest speakers and Principal John T. Winter, who will serve as master of ceremonies. The guest speakers are Jim Shepard, director of vocational education for the Char-Em Intermediate School District; and Arthur Bultman, director of admissions at Muskegon Business College.

Resource personnel include: Donald Stokes, agricultural;

State Police Lieutenant Vaughn Blake, Charlevoix County Sheriff Philo Sumner, and East Jordan Police Chief Joe Hammond, law enforcement; Walter Thorsen and Richard Schuler, machine trades and tool and die; army, navy, air force, and marine recruiters; Madeline Dinu, law; Harley Burris, conservation; Glen Campau, plumbing and heating; Bob Christensen, peace corps; Mrs. Decker, beautician; Rex Judkins, bookkeeping; Guy Vallance, television repair; Bill Hauck, engineering; a representative from Jensen's Animal Hospital, veterinary medicine; Tom Sheridan and Tom Galmore Sr., auto mechanics; Larry Gee, building trades; Mr. Cunningham, art; Dwight Smith, music; Elaine Savory, nursing; high school principal John Winter, secondary teaching; elementary school principal Don Peters, elementary teaching; and Arthur Bultman, secretarial.

Hospital News

CHARLEVOIX - The following patients were admitted to Charlevoix Hospital:

Charlevoix: Joseph Jorah, James Woodward, Albert Seger, Sr., Dorothy Trost, Orlin Cunningham, Gerald Russell, Donna Washegesic and Helen Selfridge.

Others were: Charlotte Miner, Steve Miller, Delores Evans, Elaine Olds, Heidi Lillis, William Haddix, Judith Muma, Marian Hartwell, Steven Evans, Kimberly Blekkenk, and Mickey Holley, Boyne City; Edna Shepard, Elizabeth Robertson, James Halliday, and Jennifer Monear, East Jordan; Kit Wheeler, Winifred Morgan, Roger Vanniman, and Hatti Vanderslick, Ellsworth; Helen Lavanway, Gerald Marshall, and Barbara Christenson, Central Lake; Clifford Willson, Bellaire; and George Murphy, South Carolina.

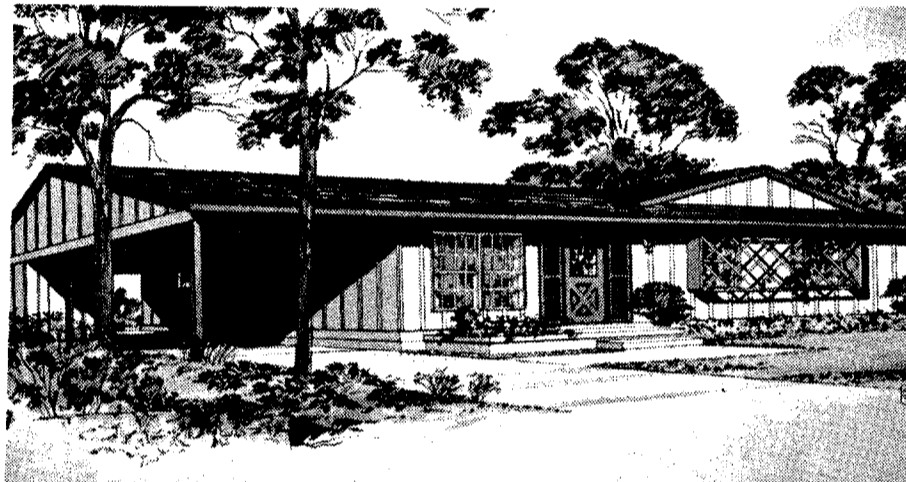

The following patients were discharged from Charlevoix Hospital:

Charlevoix: John Lachman, Clarence Bartlett, Linda Tunison and Baby, Samuel Supernaw, Antoni Kasiewicz, Elroy Deszel, Gerald Russell, Dorothy Trost, and Linda Benoit.

Others were: Mary Ann Gee and Baby, and Marie Sheppard, East Jordan; Roy Cope, Jr., Delores Evans, Judith Muma and Baby, Heidi Lillis, and Elaine Olds, Boyne City; Phyllis Jensen and Kathleen Randall, Ludington; Kit Wheeler and Lisa Shooks, Ellsworth; John Baar, Gaylord; William Derenzy, Central Lake; and Ruth Ann Hawkins, Hastings.

Charlevoix Hospital reports the following birth:

A son was born May 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Patrick G. Muma of Boyne City.

The Bentley

Crowning Achievement through Excellence of Design

KINGSBERRY HOMES
BOISE CASCADE CORPORATION

THE JUST RIGHT HOME FOR YOU AND YOUR FAMILY.

Put this beautiful home on your lot for only $16,874⁰⁰ in frame construction. Features included are board and batten siding, drywall throughout, plumbing, wiring, heating, wood insulated windows, cupboards, GE drop-in range, vinyl inlaid and carpet through-out.

(Carport as shown - slightly more)

F.H.A. - V.A. - MGIC and Farm Home Financing available.

YOUR LOT MAY BE ALL THE DOWN PAYMENT YOU NEED TO MOVE INTO THIS HOME.

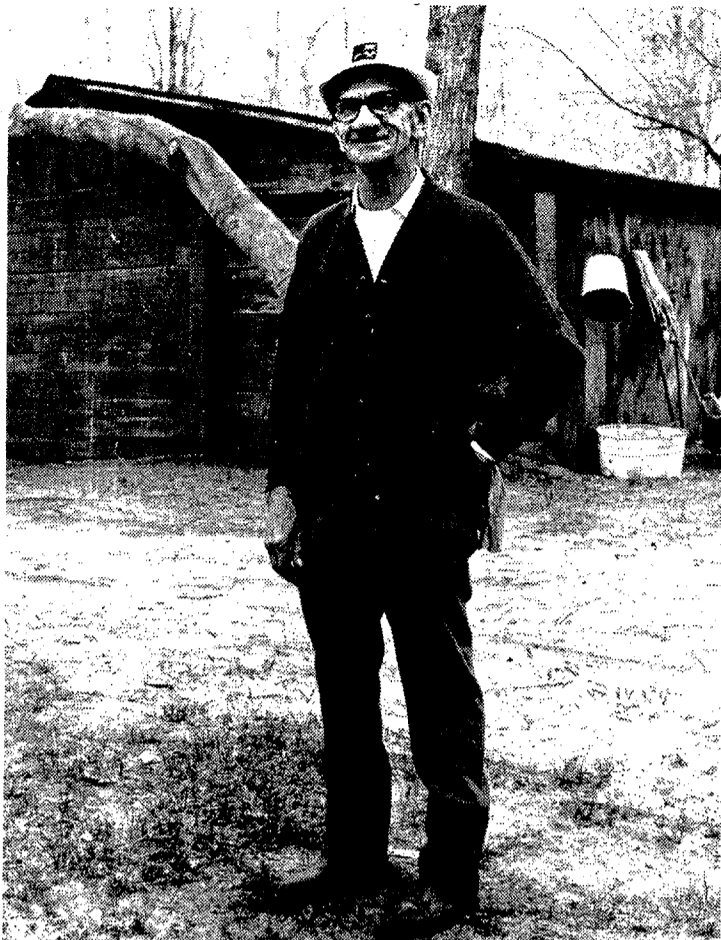

Mills Cabin Mills

1230 Boyne Road
Boyne City, Michigan 49712

PHONE: 616 - 549 - 2431

20-30-1t

OLDEST WALKER? - Believed to be the oldest hiker Saturday is August F. Lew, 73, of Traverse City, formerly of East Jordan. He stopped for a while at Whiting Park to work out a charlie horse.

ORGANIZERS - Among the young dignitaries at the pre-walk ceremonies Saturday were (from left) Butch Wright, Donna Bennet (last year's coordinator) Lynn Downing (this year's coordinator), John Harris of Touchstone, and Bill Ashley, adult advisor for the walk.

Target Walk

BY MIKE READY

EAST JORDAN - An estimated 750 walkers treated blisters and sore muscles with first aid spray and hot baths Saturday night after participating in the 26 mile Target Walk for Development from East Jordan to Boyne City to Charlevoix.

Not everyone completed the 26 mile trek. The spirit indeed was willing but the feet hurt.

There was lots of good conversation, a congenial community spirit, and several interesting sidelights every mile, a few of which can be seen on these picture pages.

BEGINNING THE WALK - An army of hundreds of walkers, most of them young, head out from Boswell Field along M-32. As the walk progressed, the line got thinner and thinner as some dropped out, some sped ahead, and others lagged behind.

CHECKPOINT TWO- Sherry Meredith of East Jordan was ready to stamp walking cards at checkpoint #2 in Boyne City.

PRACTICING for the Appalachian Trail. When asked why she was lugging a cumbersome backpack, "Charlie" Pearsall of Harbor Springs, explained that she is practicing for a 250 mile hike along the Appalachian Trail in June. Charlie says she's no novice -- she and a friend back-packed Europe last summer.

A LITTLE DESENEX- Linda Smith, 15, of Charlevoix, thought a little powder would help her feet. "Sure I'll make it all the way," she said here at the first five mile checkpoints.

COOLING THEIR FEET - Walking in the lake along a portion of the stretch from Boyne City to Charlevoix are Linda Williamson and Cheryl Vallance, both 14 and from East Jordan.