Retail spending on recreational boating has more than tripled in the last 15 years, the Boating Industry Association reports. Spending on new and used boating equipment, insurance, fuel, docking and maintenance first topped the $1 billion mark in 1954. In 1967, BIA says, boating expenditures ran $3,000,100,000.

"Mom, what can I do today?" A difficult question, especially on a rainy day, yet Andy Davis, five, seems to have found an absorbing way to fill his time. Helping him cut figures out of foam rubber is Mary Richwine, counselor at the Harbor Point Day Camp. Andy is the son of Mrs. Louis Davis of Shawnee Mission in Kansas.

Below, Beth Summers, another five-year-old, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Summers of Grosse Pointe Park, Mich., ponders her project before starting. (Photos By Jane Culver)
