Boyer Rotary Club looking for project to mark 100 years

In 2005, Rotary International will be celebrating its Centennial; in the spirit of service, every Rotary club is being asked to commemorate the event with a project to benefit its community.

The Boyer City Rotary Club is taking on the task, asking the community for input on just what this commemorative project should be. According to chairperson John Polinski, requested projects should be something that will involve labor equity as well as money, and will contribute to community pride.

Those with suggestions are invited to write a letter outlining their idea, to be sent to Boyer City Rotary Club, P.O. Box 219, Boyer City, MI 49712. The deadline for submissions is Nov. 1.

Once the ideas are in, a committee will select the top three ideas, which will then be voted upon by Rotary members.

For more information, call Polinski at 582-7522.

EJ Redhatters planning trip to Mackinaw City

The Ravishing Redhatters of East Jordan are making plans for a bus trip to Mackinaw City on Wednesday, Sept. 17, to enjoy a day of shopping, friendship and fun, as well as attend the show "L'Harmonie" at Center Stage Theatre.

Tickets are still available on a first-come, first-served basis. The cost is $45 per person, which includes bus fare, breakfast, snacks, and the theatre show.

Those attending will meet at the Jordan Valley Express (next to Glen's in East Jordan) at 8:45 a.m. to travel by bus to Mackinaw City. The bus will return to East Jordan at approximately 8:45 p.m. the same day.

Those wishing to attend must register by phone to Ginny Carey at 582-5680 by Tuesday, Sept. 9.

HOTELS ARE PERMITTED IN WATERFRONT MARINA DISTRICT

BC commission approves zoning ordinance change

Boyer City commissioners approved a second and final reading of a zoning ordinance amendment that will allow hotels as a conditional, mixed use in the Waterfront Marina District, at their regular meeting last week.

The finalized amendment included some revamped wording to create guidelines for the amount of retail space required on the ground floor by potential developers in the district. The move, said city manager Mike Cain, was aimed at creating a "tool to allow us to consider hotels in the waterfront marina district."

At the amendment's initial second reading last month, the wording had been altered slightly from the first reading to include a minimum amount of retail space, set at that time at 50 percent on the recommendation of city planning director Tim O'Leary and city attorney Jim Murray, as a "starting point." After determining that 50 percent was likely too high for a minimum, the commission referred the issue back to staff for further research.

Later in the month, the Boyer City Planning Commission passed a recommendation that a minimum of 15 percent be set as part of the ordinance amendment, a move that the City Commission approved last week, with the addition of wording to give the Planning Commission criteria to allow as little as 10 percent. The adopted ordinance then, Cain said, "establishes somewhere between the 10-15 percent range [for retail space]."

Cain added that while talk of a possible hotel at the "Big C" property on North Lake Street, currently under speculation by the Devlon Corporation, has been prevalent at recent public meetings, the ordinance itself is not, in fact, attached to any particular development project. "We don't have a site plan," Cain said of the potential development at Big C. "All we've seen is a marina plan." However, the ordinance means that "we now have a mechanism in place to handle that request, should that request come forward."

Now that the second reading has been approved, the amendment to the zoning ordinance will take effect 15 days from its enactment on Aug. 27.

The Waterfront Marina District includes, primarily, three key properties along Boyer City's waterfront, including Big C, Honeywell, and Garrett's on Water Street.

'Memory Trail Ride' set for Saturday, Sept. 6

■ Horseback trail ride will benefit area residents through the Alzheimer's Association

In its third year, the Memory Trail Ride 2003 is set for Saturday, Sept. 6; after a successful event last year, organizers are looking forward to a better-than-ever turnout. And, of course, the donations to go with it.

"I wish people would come and support it 110 percent," said one of the event's organizers, Kelvin Johncheck.

After a rocky first year, last year the event found its footing, bringing in approximately $3,200 for the cause. "It went over really good last year," said Johncheck, who provides the location at his B.C. Pizza/Rainbow Restaurant in downtown East Jordan. Through his business, Johncheck furnishes the indoor and outdoor facilities for the event, and donates all proceeds from pop sales to the Alzheimer's Association.

The ride, said organizer Robin Gagnon, is an outgrowth of the traditional, and nationally popular Alzheimer's Walk put on through the Alzheimer's Association. By incorporating a horseback trail ride, Gagnon hopes to put a new spin on the tradition, giving potential donors a chance to do something different in the name of a good cause. "A lot of people [who are potential donors] are not into walking," said organizer Laura Hastings, but would instead, perhaps, be interested in a trail ride.

With registration set to begin at 9 a.m., riders, led by Johncheck, will leave at 11 a.m. sharp, to enjoy a leisurely mosey along Jordan Valley trails that include snowmobile trails and private property (with the owners' permission). Riders must bring their own horses to participate in the ride, but those without horses, or who don't wish to ride, can still take part in the all-you-can-eat buffet, which will, at $5.75 per person, also benefit the cause. Live fiddle-and-banjo country music will also be provided, and prize drawings will be held at the conclusion of the event. Proceeds will benefit programs and services for the 6,100 individuals with Alzheimer's disease in the Alzheimer's Association's 11-county service area, including those right around the corner in Grandvue Medical Care Facility.

For Johncheck, participation in the event strikes close to home. "It's not about busi-

It's a SCREAM

■ Organizers gearing up to bring thrills and chills to EJ haunted maze

Though Labor Day is barely in the bag, organizers of "Screams From the Dark," East Jordan's very own haunted maze, are already working themselves into a sufficiently spooky mood.

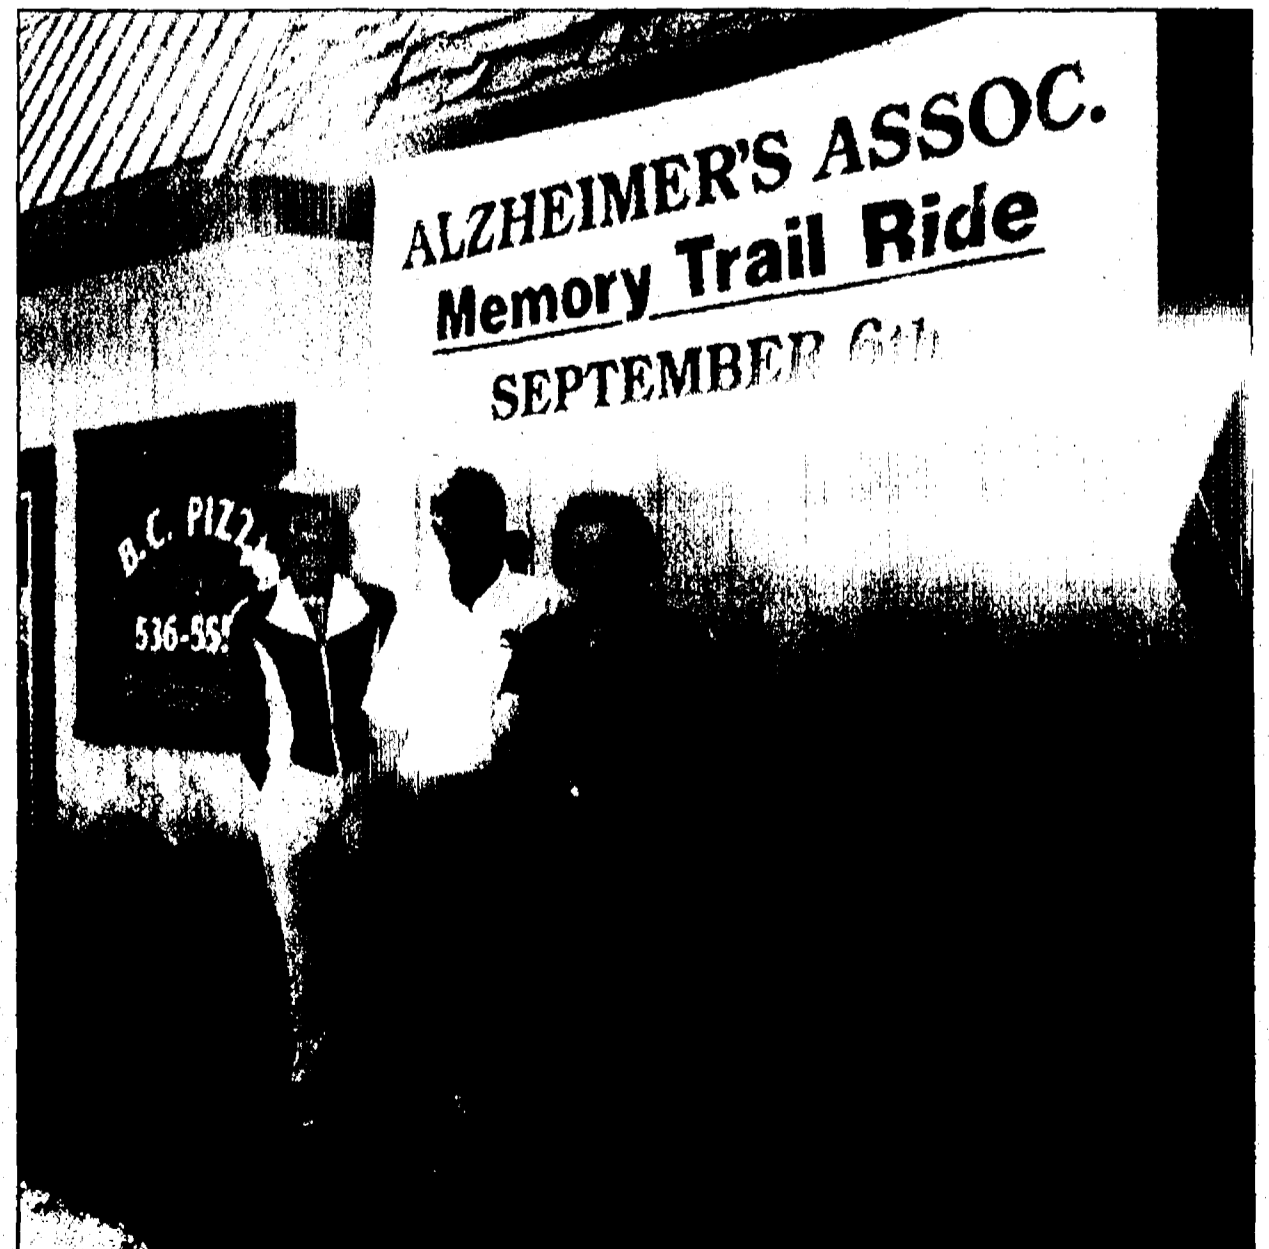

The second annual event, set for Oct. 24 and 25 this year, is a fundraiser for the Jordan Valley Freedom Festival, and has been by all accounts an over-the-top success. In its fledgling year, 2002, the event netted $1,900 in support of the festival, with more than 40 volunteers clamoring for a chance to take part in creating the mayhem and madness of a Halloween maze.

The excitement generated by the event, said Freedom Festival vice president and haunted maze mastermind Larry Oliver, is "contagious." "I've had people out garbage-picking [throughout the year] for items, those things that make it spooky," he laughed.

Conceived of last year after a string of disappointing fund-raising efforts, the haunted maze struck a chord with the community, and beyond, attracting visitors from Gaylord and Traverse City as well as from a multitude of communities in the local area.

With features ranging from a cemetery to a witch's kitchen to a "cornfield" filled with ghouls and goblins, the haunted maze boasts not only a festive atmosphere, but fills it with a number of costumed local folks.

Golf scramble raised funds for EJ Rotary

The East Jordan Rotary Club held its sixth annual Shotgun Golf Scramble on Friday, Aug. 22, at the Mallard Golf Club in East Jordan.

Low score for this year's event was seven under par, won by the team of Steve Goebel, Ron Vogt and Mike Bos.

The threesome won a round of twilight golf at Bay Harbor Golf Club in Petoskey.

The afternoon's event concluded with a steak dinner cooked by Arnold Smith of the Mallard.

Proceeds from the annual golf scramble support a variety of East Jordan Rotary projects throughout the year.

Car crash sends six to the hospital

A three-vehicle accident sent six to the hospital in Eveline Township on Monday night.

According to the Charlevoix County Sheriff's Office, at approximately 9:15 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 1, a disabled 1986 Chevy Blazer was parked on the shoulder of the southbound lane of Ferry Road, pointed south.

On the shoulder of the southbound lane pointing north a 1993 Chrysler minivan was parked; the occupants of both the minivan and the Blazer were working to get the Blazer running, when a 1996 Buick station wagon driven by a 77-year-old East Jordan man traveling south on Ferry Road struck the rear of the Blazer, causing it to hit the minivan.

Several individuals were injured in the accident, according to the Sheriff's Department, including a 13-year-old girl who was standing between the Blazer and minivan at the time of the impact, becoming pinned between the two vehicles.

She was transported to Charlevoix Area Hospital, where at press time she was in intensive care, being treated for injuries to both legs and a head injury.

Also involved in the accident were a 33-year-old female from Levering, a 34-year-old male from Charlevoix and a 43-year-old male from Harbor Springs, all of whom were behind the minivan retrieving tools from the van at the time of the impact.

The female was thrown away from the van; she refused treatment at the scene.

The two males were thrown to the ground, with the van rolling on top of them.

The 34-year-old was transported to Charlevoix Area Hospital where he was treated for neck and back injuries, and released; the 43-year-old male refused treatment.

Also injured were the 77-year-old driver of the Buick, his 76-year-old female front seat passenger and a 76-year-old female rear seat passenger. The driver was transported to Northern Michigan Hospital, treated for cuts on both arms and released; the front seat passenger was transported to Northern Michigan Hospital, where she remains hospitalized for a laceration to her head and a chest injury.

The Buick's rear seat passenger was transported to Northern Michigan Hospital, treated for lacerations to her head and leg, and released.

At the time of the accident, the minivan was also occupied by three children from Charlevoix; two boys, ages 9 and 14, were uninjured, while a girl, age 9, received a minor bump on the head.

Alcohol is believed to have been a factor in the accident, which remains under investigation.

The Charlevoix County Sheriff's Department was assisted at the scene by the Boyne City EMS, East Jordan EMS, City of Charlevoix EMS, and the East Jordan Fire Department.

OTHER LABOR DAY weekend accidents included:

• On Saturday, Aug. 30, at 5:45 p.m. the Charlevoix County Sheriff's Department responded to a dirt bike personal injury accident on Kuzmik Road.

According to Sheriff George T. Lasater, David Kanka Jr., 31, of Roseville, was riding his dirtbike on Kuzmik Road, when his front tire hit a rock as he was coming down a hill; Kanka then flew over the handlebars, striking his head on a rock and losing consciousness for a moment.

Kanka was transported to Otsego Hospital by Boyne City Ambulance.

According to Lasater, Kanka was not wearing a helmet, and alcohol was a factor in the accident.

• On Monday, Sept. 1, at 2:46 p.m. the Charlevoix County Sheriff's Office responded to a one-vehicle personal injury traffic crash on Flagg Road near M-66 in South Arm Township.

According to Deputy Sheriff George R. Lasater, Tyson Potter, 21, of East Jordan was injured when he lost control of the 2000 Chevrolet Malibu he was driving.

Potter's passenger, 39-year-old Matthew McClanaghan, also of East Jordan, was also injured in the crash.

Both were transported to Charlevoix Area Hospital by East Jordan Ambulance Service.

The Sheriff's Office was assisted at the scene by the East Jordan Police Department and the East Jordan Fire Department.

The crash remains under investigation.

Relay delay in Boyne

■ Questions over sign at high school mean 24-hour relay will be delayed indefinitely

After weeks of limbo, the Boyne City School Boosters and Boyne City Foundation For Educational Excellence have announced their decision to cancel the 24-Hour Relay fund-raising event originally scheduled for September.

The event, which would have raised funds for an electronic sign to be located at the entrance of Boyne City High School, had been set for Sept. 13; however, unresolved issues regarding the placement of the sign between the City of Boyne City and the Boyne City Public Schools have left the organizations between a rock and a hard place.

"The Boosters and Foundation are successful in their fund-raising efforts due to the support of the community," said Foundation president Pete Friedrich. "The City represents our community, and we cannot proceed without them."

In planning for the electronic sign, which would display not only school activities but community events, the school district requested approval for a zoning variance from the Zoning Board of Appeals.

The variance was needed since the sign, as designed, would not meet zoning requirements. The Zoning Board of Appeals turned down the school's variance request.

While a recent State Supreme Court ruling has indicated, in the opinion of the school district's attorneys, said schools superintendent Jim Cooper, that schools are not subject to the zoning restraints that would apply to other "businesses," the district still wishes to work with the City in resolving the issue. "We are an exception [to the zoning regulations] simply based on what we are, a public school," Cooper said. "We understand [however] that the city can't open that door . . . and I respect that."

According to city manager Mike Cain, the City is likewise committed to finding a way to work the issue out amicably. The question, Cain said, "is whether [the City] has jurisdiction in that area. The current opinion is, we may not, and we're checking into that."

Trees Please

Tree-lined streets are as American as apple pie and baseball.

A tree can provide:

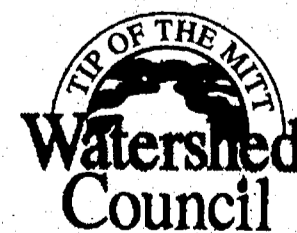

- ◆ Shade in the summer
- ◆ Traffic noise reduction
- ◆ Songbird nesting spots
- ◆ Clean air
- ◆ Wind protection in the winter

Trees can also help when there is too much rainwater. They can help rainwater soak into the ground and keep your soil from washing away into the lake. Stormwater is not treated or filtered.

Trees can increase property values as well. Make an investment in your home, community, and clean air and water - Plant a Tree.

Spaces are still available for Leaf Peekers

The ninth annual Leaf Peeker Craft Show will be held Saturday, Oct. 18, from 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

Originally planned to be held at the East Jordan Elementary School, the ongoing school construction project has necessitated a move to the East Jordan Middle School.

As always, the event will feature unique arts and crafts from a variety of artists, as well as the popular Leaf Peeker Cafe.

Spectator admission is $1 for the event. Applications are still available for crafters interested in participating.

For more information, call the East Jordan Area Chamber of Commerce at 536-7351 or visit www.ejchamber.org.

The event, billed as a trail ride "taking steps to end Alzheimer's Disease," is something that an enthusiastic Gagnon hopes to see grow and expand in the future, possibly requiring a larger venue at some point; even so, the event's point of origin will always be its home.

"This is an East Jordan event," Gagnon said. "This is where it started, it needs to stay here."

who are rendered nearly unrecognizable by their get-ups, and, indeed, savor the anonymity of playing their parts.

"Last year, no one recognized Laura Hansen," Oliver noted. "She wouldn't let anybody call her by her name. She was 'Victoria.'" Such enthusiasm has been found at all levels of the event, including visitors simply making their first trip through the maze. "There was one lady who came out and said to me 'I want to be part of this next year, get ahold of me'" Oliver said.

Volunteers, in fact, are more than welcome, not only for their time and energy but for new ideas. "That's what makes it get bigger and bigger," Oliver said. Those interested in helping out in any capacity, from planning to construction to working in the maze itself, are invited to attend this season's first organizational meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 10, at 6:30 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Jordan Valley Freedom Festival office in East Jordan City Hall.

"We had more applications than we had appointments," Cain said, "so it was a tough decision." While it was decided that the board would currently stand at nine members, the State statute for Downtown Development Authorities, which is being utilized to govern the formation of the Main Street Board, allows for anywhere from nine to fourteen members.

"We held off on other appointments to give this new board a chance to gel," Cain said. "We stayed with the same size as the old DDA, but if we decided in the future, we can add additional members later."

According to Cain, the group will likely hold their "inaugural meeting" this week.

A first order of business will be to begin the selection process for the Main Street Program manager.

Earlier this year, Boyne City was selected as one of four communities in the State of Michigan to participate in the state Main Street Program, implemented through the Michigan Economic Development Corporation. The Main Street Program is a national initiative developed by the National Historic Trust, merging historic preservation with economic development through four main elements: design, organization, promotion, and economic restructuring.

The program has been utilized in commercial districts nationwide over the last 20 years, cumulatively generating more than $12 billion in new investment, with a net gain of more than 193,000 new jobs and 51,000 new business in more than 1,200 communities.

LETTERS

September is Childhood Cancer month

TO THE EDITOR:

Awareness of childhood cancer is the focus of Childhood Cancer Month, which is observed in September. More than 12,000 children are diagnosed with cancer each year.

Despite remarkable progress in treating childhood cancers, more children die of cancer than of any other disease, including asthma, diabetes, cystic fibrosis, congenital anomalies and AIDS, combined.

The Childhood Cancer Gold Ribbon has become the unifying symbol for childhood cancer awareness, symbolizing the precious nature of all children and the golden flame of hope that burns brightly for childhood cancer patients, survivors, families and caregivers.

As a mother of one young patient said, "Our children are our gold...and we should honor them."

The Childhood Cancer Gold Ribbon was created by Gigi Thorsen in 1997, in honor of her daughter, Kelsey (1989-1996).

The Childhood Cancer Gold Ribbon has become the unifying emblem for all who are dedicated to advancing research, comprehensive treatment, advocacy, emotional and supportive care and follow up to benefit children and adolescents with cancer and their families.

Wear the Childhood Cancer Gold Ribbon proudly to show you support for these young patients, survivors, their families and caregivers and to honor those who lost their lives to this disease.

To request your Childhood Cancer Gold Ribbon please visit: www.ChildhoodCancerAwareness.org or contact the foundation at 1-800-458-6223 ext. 182.

NEIGHBORS

By NANCY NORTHUP

A DOUBLE ROUND of applause goes out to Barb Mathers and the ambulance crews for all their help here at Litzenger Place during Tuesday's power outage. Even with a back up generator here, there were several that needed extra oxygen supplied, which these dedicated people helped with. Sticking around throughout the day, until receiving other emergency calls, they even helped distribute food orders, taken up by thoughtful residents, Phyllis Tison and Mabel Knapp. Also helping in the community room, keeping hot coffee some how was Mac Horn and Phyllis Sheehy, who provided trays of sliced banana bread, from her own freezer, and butter.... along with several others, checking different apartments—a real day of "neighbors helping neighbors." Greatly appreciated too—was the crate of Bananas from the unknown donor, and distributed to all residents—keeping much needed potassium levels up. With much appreciation and thanks, we salute all of you for a much more pleasant time during this memorable blackout day of 2003!

KAI KIPAPA and her dad, the Rev. Andrew Kipapa were Monday night dinner guests of Betty Kelts, as a small family farewell to Kai, who returned to her home and family in Hawaii on Thursday.

ANOTHER ROUND of applause goes out to Ashley and Kayla Reidel of Boyne City, who each recently donated 11 inches of their hair to the Locks of Love Foundation.

AN "AWARENESS PLUG IN" message for adult recipients of the Family Independent Agency is to get letters of concerns out to your congressmen or women or even to Governor Granholm before Oct. 1. That is the deadline given for cutting adult dental services. It is believed that the same cuts will end assistance for hearing aids, podiatry and chiropractic services. Speak out—let your voice be heard or your words read, as to how this important state issue would affect you, personally.

BOB AND SHIRLEY MATHERS of Boyne City enjoyed a visit from her sister, Sandy Sniegowski of Ludington and niece Kathy Fisher, who were here to pick up her daughter Kristen and friend Jeremy, who had spent the week at Camp Quality.

JUDY SHIOTELIS took her mother Helen Elder home to Marquette last week and stayed a few days to get her settled.

JEAN ODGERS, Sue Perry and Cathy Kessler were blessed with a visit from their friend, Catherine Angeli, from Iron River this past weekend. They enjoyed a wonderful dinner at our own Monte Bianco's.

JEANETTE AVERY of Boyne City and Jean Tornaga of Roscommon have returned from a trip to Chehalis, Wash. They spent a week visiting with another sister, Betty Kelly and her husband George Kelly. It has been seven years since they had seen her and it was their first time to go to the west coast to visit her. A highlight of the trip was a day spent visiting Mt. St. Helen's. George, recently retired from the Washington State Wildlife and Fisheries Department, was very knowledgeable of the area. He was working as an officer at the time of the volcano eruption in 1980, and helped during the rescue operations. He was able to tell about a lot of history and information on the replanting and rebuilding of the area. Both sisters agreed it was definitely a beautiful place to visit!

AN INTERESTING "Show and Tell" time this past week came from Anne Jenkins of Boyne Falls, who stopped by bearing an antiquated dress, matching bonnet and purse worn by her mother, Anna Homme of Canby, Minn.

(Dec. 1895/May 1969) Being well received, she has shared these precious memories with many, having pictures and stories to tell about the outfit, especially made for the 75th Jubilee Celebration of Canby in 1954, and its being worn by four generations, her mother, herself, her daughter Julie Nadon and granddaughter, Chelsea Belle Nadon. Considered an antique, it will soon be on display at the historical museum in Canby.

JOHN AND VICKI TAYLOR of South Lyon, Mich. were here camping for the weekend and to enjoy some golf games with Vicki's father Victor Ayers.

JEAN KORTHASE is now at home and feeling much better after having spent a week in the Charlevoix Area Hospital and an additional week with daughter Nancy and Bruce Lawson out on the farm. Nancy and Bruce spent this Sunday and Monday in Caseville with daughter and son-in-law, Kristen and Ken Robinson, with all visiting the home of the senior Ken Robinsons. Meanwhile, back in Boyne on Sunday, Debbie Korthase and Jean enjoyed the morning of church at Christ Lutheran and then were joined by husband and son Bill Korthase for lunch at the Beach House.

RICHARD DUNSMORE of Redford Township was here over the beautiful Labor Day weekend visiting his family as well as joining the throngs of people participating in the many community events.

JOHN AND DIANE HALE have returned to their home in North Carolina after having spent a month vacationing at the Wee House in Horton Bay and enjoying the beautiful weather and many friends there as well as those in the Boyne area.

Students around area will 'Get Charged!'

Great Lakes Energy Cooperative has teamed up with Touchstone Energy and the Discovery Channel School to help local middle school students throughout the Great Lakes Energy service area develop a more in-depth understanding of electricity.

The new Get Charged! program is being introduced this fall to 65 area middle schools, including Boyne City Middle School, Boyne Falls School, Charlevoix Middle School, East Jordan Middle School and Concord Academy in Boyne.

It was developed by the Discovery Channel School, provider of educational materials to schools nationwide.

The program — which provides basic information about electricity, how it works and how to use it — will be administered through Great Lakes Energy Cooperative, which is part of the Touchstone Energy Cooperative group sponsoring this new educational initiative.

Middle school students in grades five through nine will take part in the program, which will provide a variety of educational tools — including videos, CD-

ROMs, a Teachers Resource Guide, student activity books and other collateral materials — all at no charge — to augment the existing curriculum.

Great Lakes Energy Cooperative is launching the Get Charged! program to give students a real-world understanding of power, the purpose of electricity, and the important role electric cooperatives play in delivering the "juice" that runs their everyday lives.

"We are delighted to provide these materials to local schools," said Steve Boeckman, President and CEO of Great Lakes Energy Cooperative.

"This program is the latest in our ongoing school safety initiatives that we have provided for many years."

Drawing on Discovery's award-winning programming for much of its content, the curriculum and materials used in the Get Charged! program were developed specifically by Discovery Channel School for classroom use and comply with National Science Education Standards.

Discovery Channel School products have been developed by the world's most respected brand for

The Get Charged! program represents a first-time partnership for Discovery with a non-educational entity to provide content directly to schools.

"Lots of kids are still in the dark about electricity," said Paul Thomas, vice president, Discovery Education.

"We're delighted to partner with the Touchstone Energy Cooperatives to help get kids energized about power."

Since the late 1930s Great Lakes Energy Cooperative has provided energy services throughout Michigan. Currently, Great Lakes Energy serves more than 119,000 consumers statewide with electricity and other services such as propane and heating and cooling services, Internet service and long distance phone service.

A Get Charged! kit is available to be checked out for home-school use by contacting Great Lakes Energy at 1-888-485-2537, ext. 1313.

BOYNE CITY'S BARBARA WEISS OFFERS SOLDIERS IN IRAQ

A taste of home

As a military mom for more than 20 years, Boyne City's Barbara Weiss is used to long separations from her son, Randy Weiss, a Boyne City High School graduate who is now an Air Force Master Sergeant in the 606 Squadron.

But when Randy was sent to Iraq, she knew that the conditions that he, and his fellow soldiers, were facing were likely the worst they'd had to endure. "It's just dust," said Barbara. "They had no place to eat. They all got very sick."

Not one to sit back and do nothing, Barbara did what she could, initially sending care packages of toiletries to the soldiers.

Before long, however, Barbara decided that the troops would benefit from a little taste of home. "I sent foods like beef jerky, hard cookies, anything that would keep," she said. "They were really hungry for banana bread, but [with three to four week delays in getting mail], it wouldn't keep."

It wasn't just for Randy, though, that she sent the supplies; even after her son returned to his station in Germany, Barbara, at his request, continued to ship out care packages to the soldiers he'd left behind in Iraq.

"He asked me to continue to send [packages] to the troops," Barbara said. "He knew I would do it."

While her son's deployment to a war zone has been difficult, it's been a help, said Barbara, to be able to do something useful. Not to mention, have the chance to indulge a personal passion — baking.

"I love to bake," she said, and "all the [soldiers] want to have something homemade."

For now, Barbara has suspended her baking activities, again at the request of her son, who said that the recipients were due to return to Germany soon.

Randy, for his part, is staying put in Germany as well, for the time being, with his wife Lisa, and five-year-old son, Ryan.

Though as a longtime military family, the Weisses know that deployment comes often without warning, they're hopeful that Randy, who will retire in a few years, is out of Iraq for good.

"I hope he stays back," Barbara said.

Crooked Tree Arts Center to hold auditions for jazz vocal group

The Crooked Tree Arts Center will hold auditions for a new musical ensemble, The Crooked Tree Jazz Voices, on Saturday, Sept. 13, from 1-3 p.m. at the arts center.

Voice students from Charlevoix and Emmet counties, ages 14-18, are invited to audition.

Those auditioning must bring sheet music or a back-up CD or tape; accompaniment will be provided.

The Crooked Tree Jazz Voices will meet weekly and rehearse music for the jazz repertoire arranged for three-to-six part harmony in the style of vocal groups such as Manhattan Transfer and Take 6.

Singers will learn jazz and contemporary vocal styles, with continual instruction in proper vocal technique, elements of harmony and choral blend, and jazz vocal soloing and improvisation.

The academic year will be divided into two terms, each culminating in a short concert, highlighting the group's accomplishments. Crooked Tree Jazz Voices director Jim Owen grew up in Petoskey, studying music privately and participating in Petoskey High School's award-winning choir and band programs.

After graduating from the University of Miami with a degree in Studio Music and Jazz Voice, he spent five years in California as a solo artist and as a member of a small jazz vocal ensemble working throughout the San Francisco Bay Area.

Upon returning to northern Michigan, Owen established himself as one of Crooked Tree Arts Center's music instructors, teaching jazz, classical and musical theatre techniques to voice students of all ages.

Support for the Crooked Tree Jazz Voices is provided by the Crooked Tree Arts Center's Gerber Music Education Program.

For more information, call the Crooked Tree Arts Center at 437-4337 or visit www.crookedtree.org.

The Crooked Tree Arts Center is located in downtown Petoskey, at 461 E. Mitchell St.

Boyne District Library summer reading program a big success

Laugh it up @ the Library was the theme for the Boyne District Library Summer Reading Program this year.

More than 80 children, ages preschool through fourth grade participated in each week of the program, sharing jokes and riddles, listening to stories, and making crafts.

As a special event, Acting Up Theatre of Grayling presented a two-man show entitled "Laugh It Up ... Please," featuring a safari hunter, hyena, and a witch doctor.

Each child who participated in the summer reading program received an Achievement Award for a Kid's Meal from Subway and a free order of Crazy Bread from Little Caesar's. Other area businesses donating prizes for an end-of-summer drawing included Sunburst Marine, Blockbuster Video, and K-Mart.

This year, summer reading program coordinators

Dava Maat and Geri Barber were assisted by staff member Jenna Raber and volunteers Jenny Jolin and Dee Reiher, as well as many parents.

"The summer programs wouldn't be possible without parents, the community and our volunteers," Maat said.

Children's programming will continue throughout the fall and holiday season. Upcoming events will include a Family History

Day, a Fall Family Fun Night, Preschool StoryTime, and Holiday Crafts for Kids.

For more information about programming at the Boyne District Library, call 582-7861.

Boyer City American Legion

At the regular meeting of Ernest Peterson Post 228, held Aug. 7, a letter was read from the Boyer City Fire Department asking the Post to help with their annual country music show. It was decided to purchase a quarter page ad at a cost of $100.

The Post Honor Guard performed military funerals for Jack Cyr and Arthur Haselhuhn and Veteran of the Month ceremonies for Jason Snyder and Alvin Gardner.

Chaplains Gondzar and Cosier reported on area veterans who are sick, disabled, shut-in or have answered the final call, having made numerous visits to homes and Grandvue Medical Care Facility. The Commander stated that everyone who participated in the Polish Festival Parade had done an outstanding job.

On Sept. 5-7, the Service Officer Dean Kleinschrod and the Commander will attend the State Service Officers School at Higgins Lake.

On Sept. 10 a dinner will be prepared for a reunion of Archie Kleins' WWII Navy demolition unit to be held at the Post.

The State Fall Conference will be Sept. 26-28 in Warren, Mich. and will be attended by at least two members of the Post.

The Commander encouraged everyone to contact all area veterans regarding getting them to sign up with the VA health care system, even if they don't need to use it now, and get into the VA computer system before the VA sets a quota and stops taking applicants. All honorably discharged U.S. veterans regardless of when or where they served or whether they have a service connected problem or not, are eligible to use the VA health care system, but only if they sign up.

The next regular meeting will be held on Sept. 4 at the Post Home and will be preceded by the Veteran of the Month ceremony at 6:15 p.m. followed by a potluck supper.

Grandvue Medical Care Facility Auxiliary

The next meeting of the Grandvue Medical Care Facility Auxiliary will be held on Thursday, Sept. 11, from 2-3:30 p.m. at Grandvue in East Jordan. This month's program will be presented by Amy Mayes, Grandvue's registered dietician.

To have news of your club or organization included in The Citizen-Journal, call 582-6761, or e-mail us at citizen@voyager.net. Our deadline is Friday at 5 p.m. Information will be printed on a space-available basis.

Off to a good start

■ With a new coach at the helm, the East Jordan Red Devils start the season off with a bang, earning a 27-0 victory at home over Central Lake-Ellsworth

By PHIL TROMBLEY
Sports writer

The coaching career of Kris Ernst opened on a positive note as East Jordan defeated Central Lake 27-0 last Friday.

"It was a great way for the team to open the season," Ernst said. "Hopefully we can continue to build on this first win."

East Jordan running back Alan Arnott rushed for 106 yards on 12 carries and scored two touchdowns to lead the offensive attack.

Quarterback Tom Krause went seven for 13 passing in the game for 56 yards. Krause also ran for 55 yards and one touchdown.

The Red Devils opened the scoring with a nice six-play drive in the first quarter that was capped by an Arnott 45-yard scamper into the end zone.

Later in the quarter, Krause completed a two-yard TD pass to Josh Sheridan to make it a 14-0 Red Devil lead after one.

In the second quarter, Arnott scored his second touchdown with a 24-yard run to make it a 20-0 ball game at half time.

Krause accounted for the final touchdown with a 15-yard fourth quarter dash.

On the defense side of the ball, the Red Devils controlled the line of scrimmage limiting Central Lake to only two pass completions and controlling its rushing game.

Willie Skrocki led the team with 14 tackles and one sack; Nate Page had 10 tackles; and Reece Bartlett added nine.

Running back Brad Rogers led the Central Lake offense with 92 yards on 28 carries.

"They are a bigger school and they proved that they had the talent by playing better," said Central Lake head coach Adam Grybauskas.

"I thought we looked better as the game went on, though. It was a tough opener but we hung in there and showed some improvement."

The Red Devils will be looking for their second win of the season when they travel to Mancelona Friday.

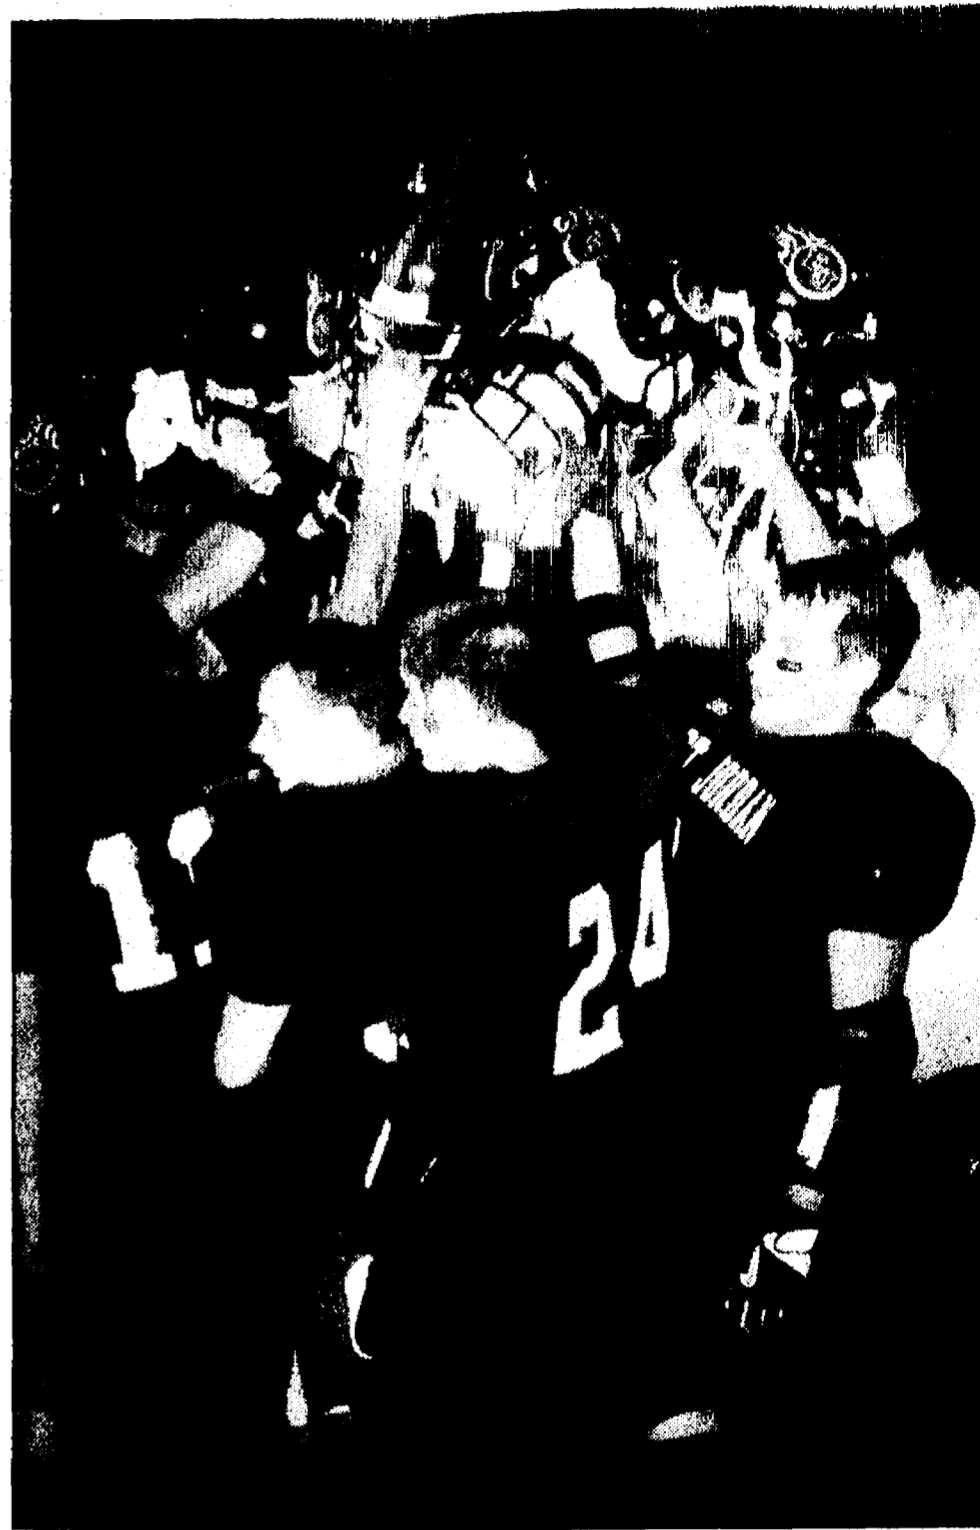

The non-conference match up with the Ironmen kicks off at 7:30 p.m.

IN JUNIOR VARSITY action, running back Dallas Dougherty and quarterback Justin Cooper powered the Red Devil JV team to a season opening 20-0 shutout win over Central Lake last Wednesday.

Dougherty gained 150 yards on 26 carries and scored a pair of touchdowns, while Cooper passed for 83 yards and rushed for 35 more as the Red Devils scored in the second, third and fourth quarters to get the win on the road.

Josh Cooper got the third East Jordan touchdown.

"Our kids played well offensively with 272 yards rushing and 133 yards passing," said coach Duane Cutler. "They did a very nice job moving the job well."

The Red Devils showed true team spirit last week, as they hustled to a 27-0 win over Central Lake-Ellsworth in their season opener. Leading the offensive play for East Jordan was running back Alan Arnott who rushed for 106 yards on 12 carries and scored two touchdowns. On defense, Willie Skrocki led the team with 14 tackles and one sack.

East Jordan head coach Kris Ernst gives his players a few words of wisdom during last week's game. Ernst, an Alma College grad, was hired this summer to head up the Red Devils football program.

Defensively the Red Devils were led by Cooper with 11 tackles, Andrew Streufert with 10 tackles and Cooper who had one interception.

The defense also recovered three fumbles in the contest as Eric Hansen, Mitchel Bartlett and Cody Thayer each picking up one dropped ball.

Lady Ramblers down Suttons Bay in season opener

By PHIL TROMBLEY
Sports writer

The Boyne City varsity basketball team got the season off to a winning start last Tuesday with a solid 65-49 victory at home over Suttons Bay.

The Lady Ramblers utilized strong bench play to overcome early foul trouble and everyone contributed in the win, according to Boyne City head coach Maurie Tomkins.

Boyne City scored 14 points in the opening quarter and followed that with a 13-point second quarter to take a 27-19 lead into the locker room at the half.

The Ramblers picked up their offense in the second half, scoring 38 points. Kim Foster led the team with 12 points, while Lyndsay Tomkins and Whitney Spaay each added 11 points.

Suttons Bay's Kate Kerr led all scorers with 17 points.

The Boyne City offense put in good numbers shooting 62 percent from the free throw line and 43 percent from the field.

Next up for the Lady Ramblers is an away game at Benzie Central tomorrow night and an away game at Charlevoix next Tuesday night. In junior varsity action, Boyne City handed Suttons Bay a 59-17 thumping.

Three Lady Ramblers scored in double figures, led by Molly Hausler with 17 points, Holly Stanek with 13 and Haiili Friedrich with 10.

Adding to the offensive barrage were Courtney Cambric and Emma Clemens with eight points each.

"Defensively we played really well," said coach Tim Hardy.

"This team is small in size, but big in heart, and they all play hard."

Ramblers bring home a victory

By PHIL TROMBLEY
Sports writer

The Boyne City varsity football team opened the season last Friday with a trip to the Superior Dome in Marquette to take on Newberry, coming away with a 25-14 victory in the non-conference match-up.

"It was a real good experience for us," said Boyne City head coach Dave Hills. "It's a special place to play and the fans as well as the kids enjoyed it."

The Ramblers came out like a team ready to play and they put together scoring drives of 16, 10 and six plays to jump out to an 18-0 lead before Newberry could get started.

Running back Nick Sulak scored on a one-yard dive and an eight-yard run to cap the first two possessions of the game, while Dillon Olmstead hauled in a 19-yard pass from quarterback Tyler Daniels for the third score.

Daniels was three for three, for 69 yards during the third scoring march which began on the Boyne City eight yard line.

Newberry did not get on the scoreboard until the fourth quarter when Chad Rahily scored on an 80-yard touchdown pass. The Ramblers quickly dampened the comeback effort with Sulak's third rushing touchdown of the night from three yards out.

The second Newberry touchdown came in the final minute of the game on a second Rahily touchdown reception.

"It was a typical first game," said Hills. "We've got some things to improve on, but I thought that Newberry was a good ball team."

Reed Ameal led the Rambler rushing attack with 129 yards on 17 carries. Sulak added 77 yards rushing on 20 carries. Daniels completed four of seven passes for 72 yards.

Outstanding defensive performances were turned in by Brenton Rozycki with 13 tackles and Paul Simeri with 12.

Olmstead (seven tackles, one interception), Buddha Sweet (six tackles), Ameal (four tackles, one interception), and Trevor Mapes (three sacks, one interception) all chipped in to the defensive effort.

This Friday the Ramblers travel to Rogers City for another non-conference battle.

EJ splits first two games on the court

By PHIL TROMBLEY
Sports writer

The East Jordan girls varsity basketball team opened the season last week with a 78-53 loss to Cheboygan at home on Tuesday, but the ladies bounced back with a win on the road over Ellsworth by a 79-44 score.

Cheboygan had two players in double figures to lead the Chiefs to the lopsided win as Ashley Ptasnik tossed in 22 points and Cailie Moore added 14 points.

East Jordan was led by Courtney Hammond with 28 points and 12 rebounds in the game, while Jessica Roberts had seven steals.

Sierra Roberts led the Lady Devils in the Ellsworth win with 32 points and Hammond was right behind with 31 points to spark the East Jordan offense.

Tomorrow the team travels to Gaylord St. Mary's and next Tuesday Elk Rapids visits for the first conference game of the season.

THE JUNIOR VARSITY team got a split in its two games last week when they defeated Ellsworth 35-27 and lost to Cheboygan 53-23.

"We had some trouble with their press and that took us out of our offense," said coach Liz Huyck, "but we played much better in the second game."

A pair of freshmen led the team in the season opener against Cheboygan as Kristi Wermer scored eight points and Kayla Hines score seven points.

Hines led the way against Ellsworth with 16 points, including three 3-pointers in the first half, and sophomore Megan Warnos added seven points and 12 rebounds in the game.

Lady Loggers lose to Northport

By PHIL TROMBLEY
Sports writer

The Boyne Falls girls basketball season got underway in a disappointing fashion last Tuesday as the team lost the home opener against Northport, 42-30.

Northport led the contest 7-4 after a slow first quarter and led by a 19-9 score at half time before putting away the game with a 19-point outburst in the third period.

The Lady Loggers outscored Northport 11-4 in the final quarter, but could not pull out the win in the end.

Kellie Kondrat led the team with eight points, nine rebounds and one steal in the game, while Megan Pernicano tossed in seven points, grabbed five rebounds and swiped a pair.

Annie Pernicano also had a good outing with six points, six rebounds and three steals.

Northport was led by a pair of players in double figures as Megan Hocht scored 19 and Katie Stillin added ten points. The Lady Loggers will be home for their next two contests when they will host Traverse City Christian tomorrow night and Central Lake next Tuesday.

Ramblers fall to Rayders in conference soccer action

By PHIL TROMBLEY
Sports writer

The Boyne City varsity soccer side dropped its first conference match of the season last Thursday when Charlevoix scored five goals in the first half on the way to overpower the Ramblers by a 7-3 score.

All of the Boyne City goals came in the second half of the contest as Dan Sutton scored on an unassisted effort in the 11th minute.

Ollie Ryan added an unassisted goal in the 22nd minute and then scored again in the 32nd minute on an assist from Sutton.

Despite the loss, coach Nick Baic was encouraged by the way his team performed, considering how inexperienced the squad is.

"They put in a lot of effort," said Baic.

"They need to get used to this level of competition, but I think that they will get there."

FALL SOCCER PREVIEW

EJ soccer joins Lake Michigan conference

By PHIL TROMBLEY
Sports writer

The East Jordan varsity soccer team has several solid players returning this year, but graduation took its toll on the leadership from last year and a new set of leaders is set to emerge. Captain Patrick Teske is the lone senior on the squad which includes five juniors, five sophomores and seven freshmen. "For all practical purposes this is a second year team," said coach Peter

Elliott. "This holds out hope for the future of the program in that we can grow for several years."

Sophomore goalkeeper Mike Meads is returning to anchor the defense with Teske and junior Jim Gee pairing up on the defensive line.

Sophomore Brandon LaCount and junior Justin Fazio are two strong playmakers in the front line and they will spearhead the Red Devil offensive attack.

Elliott is also looking for good things from first-year players Ryan Peterson, Steve Nowka and Jeff Keyser.

East Jordan will play in the newly formed Lake Michigan Conference soccer league which will provide some good games and building rivalries.

The Red Devils opened their conference play last week against Elk Rapids and they will host Boyne City next Monday for their second league match up.

EAST JORDAN SOCCER SUFFERS TWO SHUT-OUTS IN FIRST WEEK

The East Jordan soccer team traveled to Cheboygan for the first match of the season last Tuesday and the team was dealt a sound 20-0 tromping by the home team.

"This game was definitely a test of character to see what players would keep on pressing hard in spite of being defeated so soundly," said East Jordan head coach Peter Elliott.

"This was the first 80-minute game for many of the players and we elected not to get 'mercied' to get some experience."

Mike Meads played well in goal despite the high number of goals, according to Elliott. Meads made 34 saves in the game with several coming on breakaways.

The fullbacks made some saves of their own in front of Meads with Jim Gee getting a pair and Pat Teske and Ryan Peterson each getting one.

Elliott noted that Drew Oliver, Tim Selonke and Aaron Fish played with a lot of heart, and freshmen Michael Carter, Jeff Keyser and Benson Massey pitched in with a lot of enthusiasm when they were in the game.

"As the old saying goes 'quitters never win and winners never quit,' and these young men never quit tonight," Elliott said.

On Thursday the Red Devils played host to Elk Rapids and were overwhelmed by the performances of Jeff Guntzville and Kyle Bury who scored three goals apiece to lead the Elks to a 10-0 shut-out win.

Labor Day Diversions

Labor Day weekend in Boyne City is always a busy time, and this year was no different, with a multitude of events making the Boyne Area a truly lively place to be.

DALMAC RIDERS

Riders on the DALMAC (Dick Allen Lansing to Mackinaw bike ride) passed through Boyne over the weekend, adding their own bright hues to those already decorating the town.

LABOR DAY CAR SHOW

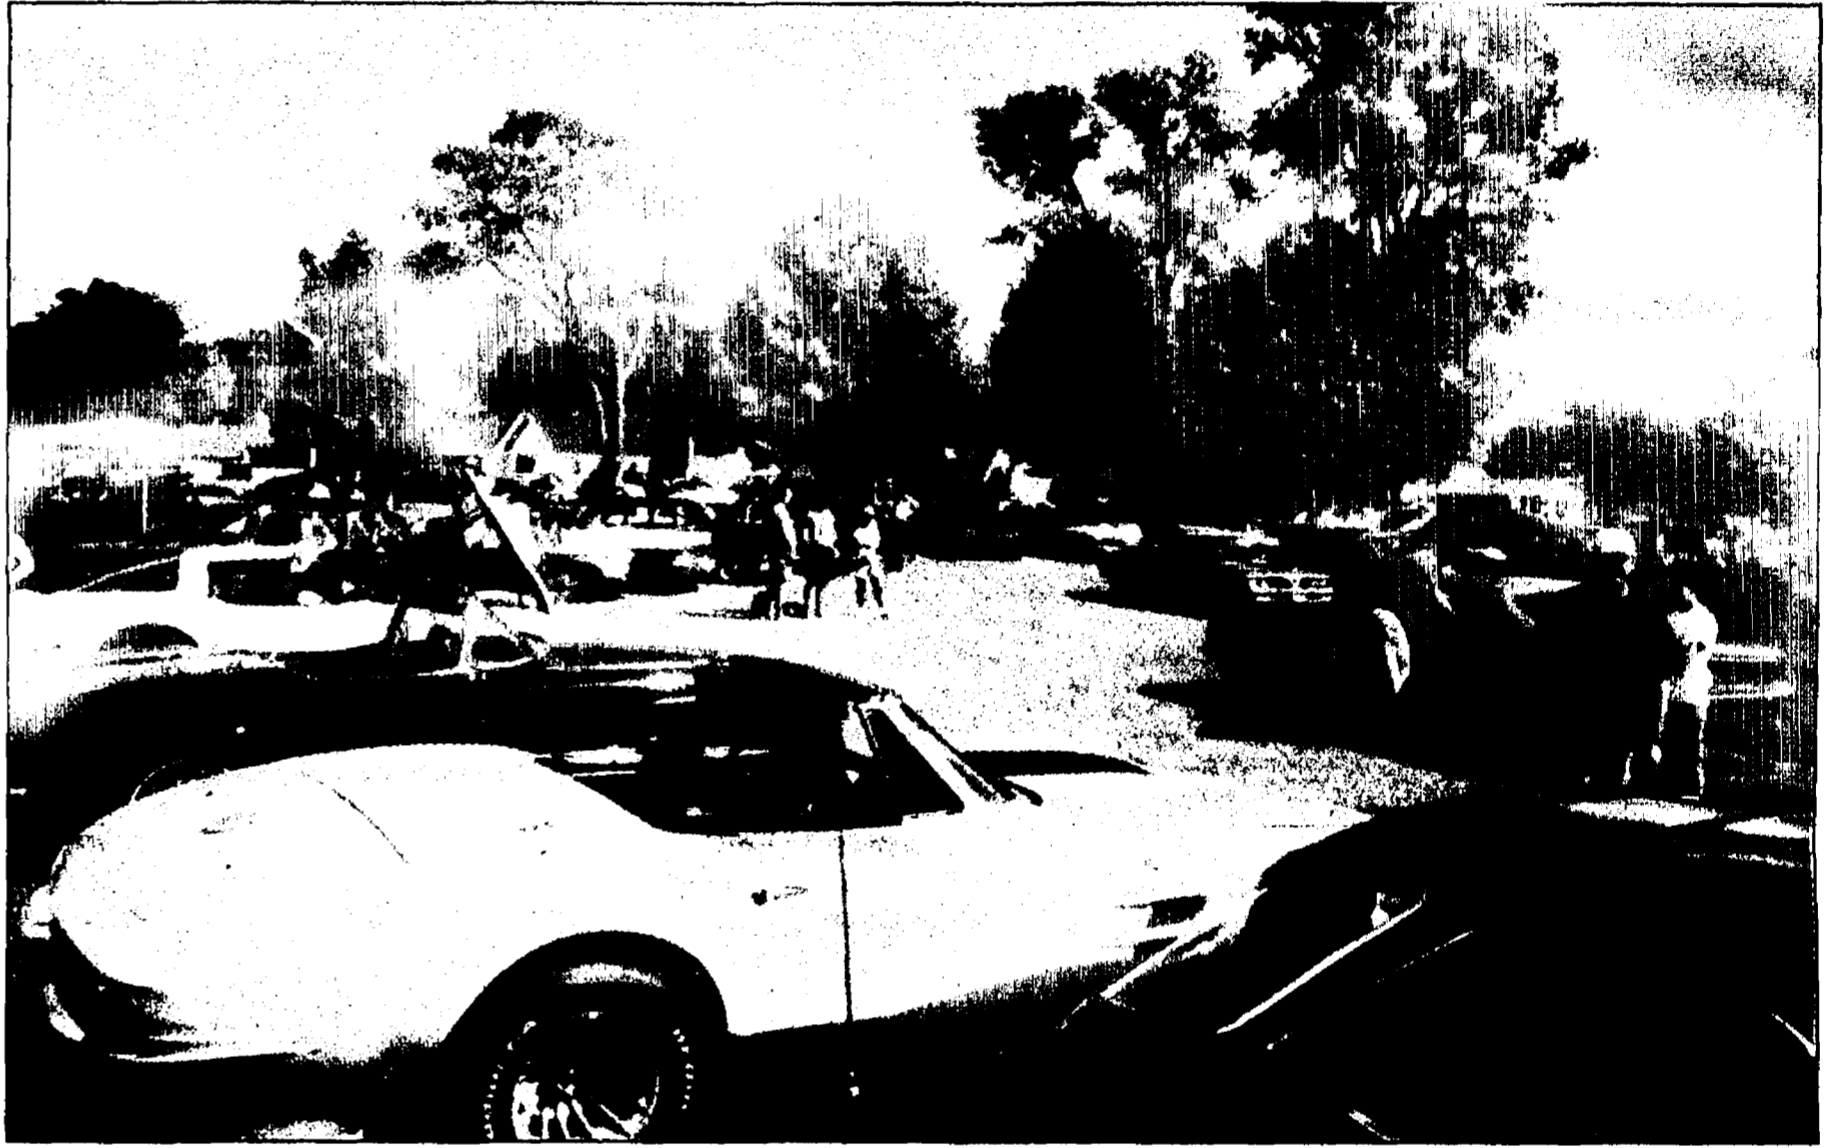

For many car enthusiasts, it's all in the details, like this intricate paint job at right.

RED FOX REGATTA

Each Labor Day, sailboat enthusiasts gather for the Red Fox Regatta, filling the marina at Boyne City with bright colors and, in this case, beautiful reflections.

The Labor Day Car Show is an end-of-summer tradition in Boyne City, bringing in some of the classiest classic cars around. The event is not just fun, it's also a fund-raiser, with proceeds benefitting charitable organizations in the Boyne area. Car show organizers also utilize a portion of the proceeds to award scholarships to deserving area students. This year, the show proved to be bright as ever, with colorful cars matched by bright sunny skies.

BOYNE CITY DRAG RACES

In its first year, the Boyne City Drag Races, held at the Boyne City Airport, attracted more than 1,000 people. At left, a line-up of potential racers holds examples of a variety of vehicles arriving for the races. Boyne City Police Chief Randy Howard (in the yellow vest) gave instructions to racers before the event. The drag races are anticipated to become a yearly tradition, in cooperation with the Labor Day Car Show, to make Boyne City the auto-lovers Labor Day destination. Proceeds from the drag races will benefit the airport and the Boyne City Police Department.
