Stroll the Streets

Harkening back to the days of street performers and busker-type entertainment, the Boyne City Main Street Program has implemented the instructively-titled "Stroll the Streets" event, taking place each Friday night downtown.

The idea, said Main Street promotions committee member Marilea Grom, was to create an event that would encourage folks to extend their time in Boyne City past the dinner hour. "We wanted more people to stick around downtown after they ate, but [at that point] there was nothing to do but stop in a few shops and go home," Grom said. With Stroll the Streets, "we have entertainment for adults and something for kids" each Friday night, the two elements the committee felt "would be the main catch to keep people downtown."

Begun with relatively little fanfare on July 2, the Stroll the Streets event has, thus far, built mostly by word of mouth, and has surpassed all organizers' expectations. "I think we're above what we expected for entertainment and for crowd response," Grom said. "We were hoping just to get two [performers or activities] each Friday, and each Friday we've had more, it's gone above and beyond that. Now we have [musicians] calling and asking if they can come by."

At this point, Grom said, the majority of the talent featured, which includes everything from musicians to spinners to gymnasts, has been volunteer. "We tried to do it with a low budget this year to get it going," she said. "Hopefully next year we'll get some sponsors to bring in even more groups and entertainment."

Stroll the Streets is set to continue to run each Friday through Labor Day, with a wide variety of acts and activities yet to come. On Friday, Aug. 6, Park Street between Water and Ray streets will be closed to vehicles, for kids events, which will include face painting by local artist Martina Oswald, and balloons. Also on

STEEPED IN TRADITION

Boyer City Masonic Lodge boasts a long history of service and fraternity

Even in a humble local lodge like that which houses the Boyne City Masons, a visitor entering for the first time gets a clear sense of the reverence that resides there. Entering the hall, the theatre-style seats that line the walls, the altar on which the Bible lays open, and the stations of honor located on opposite walls, bedecked with prints depicting famous historical masons and other symbols of the brotherhood, all speak to the sanctity and serious nature of that which lies within.

A lodge is not about its hall, however; it's about the men that meet there, that share the philosophy, the brotherhood, of the Masonic Lodge. It is, unfortunately, a membership that has waned in recent years, due in part to the incidentally sluggish flow of information from lodge membership to the community at large, and in part, perhaps, to what amounts to "the unknown" nature of the lodge. With a history stretching back much further than the history of our nation, it is a group, a fraternity, that is steeped in the mysterious reputation of a "secret society." And yet, said Boyne City businessman and lodge member Ed Woelfert, there's no reason that the lodge, and membership in it, shouldn't be accessible and desirable to any man in the community. The benefits, he maintains, are many, and are really no secret at all.

The history of the Masonic Lodge, whose members are also known as "Freemasons," is a winding road, indeed, the origin of which is the subject of much debate amongst both historians and masons themselves. Most likely, according to information posted on the Web site of the Grand Lodge of Michigan, the brotherhood arose from the guilds of stone masons who built the castles and cathedrals of the Middle Ages, possibly influenced by the Knights Templar, a group of Christian warrior monks formed in the 1100s to help protect pilgrims making trips to the Holy Land.

Masonry is said to have taken a number of forms from that time until the 1700s, many of which were underground and about which relatively little is known. In 1717, however, Freemasonry members created a formal organization in England with the formation of the first Grand Lodge. Masonry didn't take long to find its way to the States (still, at that time, an English colony), with the establishment of the first formal lodge in Michigan taking place in 1764. The Grand Lodge of Michigan was formed in 1825; in Boyne City, members came together to establish a local Masonic Lodge in 1882, dubbed "Boyer Lodge," with William Mears as the first Master. Lodge meetings, according to the lodge history, were held on the Saturday evening after the full moon of each month; membership fees a whopping 35¢ per brother, with initiation fees of $1 per brother.

A home for the lodge took a little longer to nail down, with a number of moves taking place over the years. The very first meetings were held on the top floor of the Beardsley Mercantile Store, 27 South Lake St., now the location of the Powder Puff Beauty Salon. The building that once housed the store, and the Mason meetings, was destroyed by fire, after which time the meetings moved to the J.B. Watson Drug Store, located at 101 E. Water St. (where Sunburst Marine now sits). In a run of bad luck, that location, too, was destroyed by fire, necessitating another move to the S.B. Neymark Store on East Water Street. Later yet, meetings moved to the old post office building, 201 E. Water St., later known as the Masonic Lodge Building. Flames once again wreaked their havoc, destroying the building on Oct. 29, 1951. The masons, however, persevered, moving this time to The Odd Fellows Building on Water Street, which now houses Ace Hardware. Finally, the masons, now known collectively as Boyne City Lodge No. 391, moved to their own Masonic Temple Building at 212 N. Lake St., which remains their home today.

It's at this home that the masons meet and follow the practices of generations of masons before them.

Masons, Woelfert said, are essentially "free thinkers and believers in God." Much has been made in recent years about the number of historic figures who have been masons, including George Washington and Benjamin Franklin. "Freemasons are responsible for a lot of the free-

New day

EJ movers and shakers creating event to focus on the great outdoors

Though the details are still in the works, East Jordan community residents and visitors alike will find plenty to do at an upcoming "community day" event.

The concept, according to East Jordan Chamber director Diane Gorkiewicz, is to create an event that incorporates use of all the parks in the community; the event, she said, would encourage awareness of what the community has to offer while combining physical family-friendly activities and a focus on "eco-tourism."

Local businesses will play a big part, she notes, sponsoring certain activities and offering coupons, samples and other special deals throughout the event.

Originally planned as a replacement for the East Jordan Community Picnic, which had been canceled this year, organizers of the new event had initially considered organizing the activity day as an event alternating annually with the two-year old picnic. Plans at that time called for the day to take place on the picnic date of Aug. 28; in the process of working out details with the City and other interested parties, the date is now "to be announced," likely to take place in early fall.

The concept of the event is action-oriented, with plans for organized activities, like walking, biking, street hockey, canoeing and kayaking, in sites such as the Tourist Park, Community Park, the Skate Park, Elm Pointe, and Sportsman's Park.

Other, less intense activities are also in the works, such as a wildlife program to be conducted by East Jordan Garden Club president Shirley

Christmas in July

Al Lawson, organizer of the Boyne City First Presbyterian Church's Christmas Dinner in July, recently presented a check for more than $900 to Terri Powers of the Boyne City Senior Center, representing half of the proceeds of the second annual event. The donation will benefit the building fund for a new senior center currently in the works. More than 240 people attended the July dinner, Lawson said, generating almost $2,000 in funds, split between the senior center and the kitchen fund for the First Presbyterian Church. The dinner is one of two put on at the church each year, with the other held traditionally in December.

Arts Council to host classical vocalist

The Jordan River Arts Council is honored to present Ben Robinson in concert on Saturday, Aug. 14, at 6:30 p.m. at the Jordan River Art Center, 301 Main St. East Jordan.

Robinson, tenor, is a third year voice performance major at the University of Michigan School of Music in Ann Arbor. He studies with George Shirley, a tenor who himself had an 11 year career with the Metropolitan Opera in New York City.

Recently, Robinson has been a featured performer in leading roles with the University of Michigan Gilbert and Sullivan Society and the Bay View Music Festival. He is a frequent performer at churches in the northwestern Lower Michigan area, and a staff singer and soloist with the Chancel Choir of the First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham, Mich.

Robinson's work is primarily focused on classical music, but he has appeared in leads in musicals in both Michigan and North Carolina, his home state. Most recently, he was seen as Rolf in "The Sound of Music" at Bay View. He returned in early June following a mini-semester in Florence, Italy, where he studied opera and sang the roles of Nemorino in "L'elisir d'amore" and Eurimace in "Il ritorno d'Ulisse de Patria" in a workshop setting.

Art Songs and Arias, American Musicals, and Italian Opera Arias will be rendered during the performance, which includes music by Schubert, Gershwin, Puccini, and Verdi. His accompanist for the evening will be Artie Jones, organist and pianist of the First Presbyterian Church, Boyne City.

A reception for the artist will precede the concert at 6 p.m. Admission is by donation only. For more information call Jane Diller at 582-6399 or Howard Ellis at 536-2152.

Raven Hill offers special day for teachers

There's enough SOUP (Samples, Opportunities, Uses, Programs) for all interested teachers at Raven Hill on Saturday, Aug. 7. Raven Hill will open its doors to area teachers from 9 a.m.-4 p.m., free of charge, to offer an opportunity to pick up some freebies for their classrooms for the coming school year. Teachers will have the chance to see samples of hands-on activities, take advantage of opportunities to pick up free supplies for their classrooms, find new uses for commonplace materials, and get an advance preview of the Center's programs for the 2004-05 school year.

The list of give-away materials fills the alphabet from A to Z, hence the title "Alphabet SOUP." Materials include items as varied as leather, yarn, sailcloth, plastic boxes, wallpaper troughs and plant presses and pipettes; teachers can go back to their classrooms with whatever "tickles their fancy."

Materials and supplies will be "served" buffet style. Teachers can load up their bags and "seconds" are encouraged. Materials will be available on a first come, first served basis.

Program booklets for the 2004-05 school year will also be given out and grant opportunities for both field trips and outreach will have sign-up sheets for interested teachers. Teacher memberships will be available at half the regular price.

"Alphabet SOUP" is being offered in an effort to encourage hands-on activities in science, history and the arts at all grade levels. Teachers can also explore the museum for free, talk with staff about grant program opportunities for their classrooms and enjoy refreshments, when they finish their "shopping." For more information, call Cheri at 536-3369.

A cause for celebration

Northern Michigan community foundations reach a $20 million milestone

It's been just 12 years since this area's two community foundations began. But in that relatively short time, both philanthropic organizations have gained support, grown assets, and made a significant impact in the region.

Now the Charlevoix County Community Foundation and Petoskey-Harbor Springs Area Community Foundation have a special reason to celebrate.

The organizations recently reached an important milestone, when their combined total assets topped $20 million. That's a considerable amount of charitable capital to serve two counties whose combined population barely tops 55,000.

"The success of our foundations is a real tribute to the generosity of people in this area," said Bob Tambellini, president of the Charlevoix County Community Foundation. "Long-time and seasonal residents, newcomers and resorters alike have shown how much they value the natural beauty and quality of life here in northwest Michigan—and they believe that's worthy of their investment."

Maureen Nicholson, who serves as executive director of the Petoskey-Harbor Springs Area Community Foundation, explains that the real benefit of a large asset base can be seen in the foundations' grantmaking.

"As our assets have grown, we've increased our grants to enhance environmental projects, educational and cultural programs, health services, recreational venues, youth initiatives and more. We're working hand-in-hand with this area's nonprofits, schools, and civic organizations to address needs, giving new ideas a try, and nurturing start-up projects too."

A COMMON PURPOSE.

Although community foundations are new to northern Michigan, they've been around for 90 years. Today, more than 650 community foundations exist throughout the country, 60 of them here in Michigan.

While they may differ in size and structure, all have a similar mission: to improve and enrich the quality of life in their area.

To carry out that mission, each community foundation accepts donations and manages them professionally to create a permanent endowment. Over time, the endowment builds, yielding investment income that can be used to make grants. It's that permanence that sets community foundations apart from other charities. "We invest for the future," Nicholson said, "so that generations that follow will enjoy the bounty of this wonderful part of northern Michigan."

Another key feature of community foundations is their focus on local issues. These "people's foundations" are grassroots organizations, led by local citizens volunteers, and in touch with local concerns.

Tambellini said the local connection keeps community foundations flexible, responsive to donor interests, and in touch with a broad range of local needs. Those who give to the community foundation may make a gift for a specific cause, such as land preservation or recreation, or choose to make an unrestricted gift that can be used where it's needed most.

"Donors like being able to do good work, right here, close to home. In making a gift to their community foundation, they can support varied interests, help their friends and neighbors, leave a lasting legacy, realize attractive tax benefits, and—most importantly—give something back to the community that means so much to them."

A SHARED HISTORY.

The two community foundations have followed a similar path during their first decade. Both were launched in 1992 by local citizens who saw the benefits of establishing a permanent source of philanthropic revenue, and both have been nurtured by many of the same benefactors.

The Frey Foundation of Grand Rapids has given the organizations early and sustaining support, helping to underwrite operational costs during critical start-up years. A challenge match offered by the W.K. Kellogg Foundation a few years back created youth advisory committees and allowed each of the community foundations to build $1 million youth funds to benefit children and teens. The Charlevoix County Community Foundation has also received support from the East Jordan Ironworks; and the Kennedy and Offield foundations helped the Petoskey-Harbor Springs Area Community Foundation grow.

But an enthusiastic response from area residents and those who spend their summers in Emmet and Charlevoix counties has given their organizations the impetus to get going.

Within a year of starting, each foundation had laid the groundwork for a healthy endowment. Hundreds of families, individuals, civic groups, and businesses began to set up funds. And, soon after, the two community foundations started to make grants.

A BIG IMPACT.

It's through grantmaking that community foundations really come to life. Wherever you go throughout Charlevoix or Emmet counties, it's easy to see evidence of foundation grants at work.

In Emmet County, grants are supporting a number of important environmental and land-use initiatives such as Emmet 20/20 planning, the Bear River clean-up, a Tannery Creek restoration project, and M-119 Heritage Route enhancements. Other popular programs—from the lively Blissfest music fest and the C.S. Lewis Festival, to a student poetry contest, school mini-grants, the Petoskey tennis courts, renovations at Little Traverse Historical Society, Great Lakes Chamber Orchestra concerts, Harbor

Spring Community Park improvements, and snow-shoes and backpacks to keep kids active in the winter—have received grant support over the years, too.

In Charlevoix County, grants have helped to create heritage gardens at the depot, support substance abuse services through the BASES Teen Center, purchase playground equipment in Boyne City, build basketball courts in East Jordan, expand programs at the community pool, conduct breast cancer outreach, construct tennis courts on Beaver Island, provide emergency medical and dental care for students, renovate the Jordan River Arts Center, host land-use workshops for citizens, and send countless numbers of young people to college—to name just a few.

Because many area nonprofit programs serve both Emmet and Charlevoix counties, the two foundations may collaborate on some grant proposals such as those that support Crooked Tree Arts Council, the Women's Resource Center, Raven Hill, Challenge Mountain, and area-wide smoking cessation and prevention programs. Since the community foundations began making grants, they've distributed more than $8.6 million throughout the two counties.

"It's amazing to see how much good a small grant can do to help a nonprofit program," Tambellini said. "And, when you think of what our combined $8.6 million in grants means to two counties with fewer than 56,000, you get some sense of our impact. On a per capita base, each of our community foundations is larger than the one serving New York City!"

LOOKING AHEAD.

While they continue to build their endowments and increase grantmaking, both community foundations are working toward becoming self-sustaining. Each has a campaign underway to create a permanent fund that will support administrative and operating costs.

As they've grown, the foundations have also developed expertise in serving as community leaders and problem-solvers. "More and more people now look to our foundations as catalysts for change and facilitators for new initiatives," Nicholson said, noting work on area park development and countywide planning projects. "By acting as a neutral sounding board, we can often bring together the right mix of donors, donors, and financial resources to make things happen."

Whatever the future holds for our region, one thing is certain: the Petoskey-Harbor Springs Area and Charlevoix County Community Foundations will be part of the action. "We're here to make a positive difference now, and for years to come," Tambellini said. "It's a great privilege to serve our communities, and to help change things for the better. We're excited about all that lies ahead."

PREVENTING ATHLETE'S FOOT
Athlete's foot is a condition caused by a fungus. Sweaty socks and snug, unventilated shoes create a breeding ground for the fungus. To prevent athlete's foot, alternate wearing at least two pairs of shoes that fit well. Keep feet clean and dry them thoroughly after washing, especially between toes. Change sweaty socks often and wear sandals when possible. Ask your pharmacist about products to treat athlete's foot.

are three performances by the Boyne City Middle School Drama Club and music by the Alpine Kitchen Band from Gaylord. The evening will also give folks a chance to leave their mark, with a mural-style Main Street poster on hand for people to paint and color as they walk through town.

In the weeks to come, Oswald will be back painting faces, and students from the Boyne Area Gymnastics will return for an encore performance as well. The future also holds performances by the Boyne City High School jazz band and stilt walker and comedian Wayne Oliver, as well as a watercolor art show, to name a few.

It's an event that benefits not only visitors to downtown, but the merchants as well. "We thought we were going to have to ask people to stay open later," Grom said, to participate in the event which runs from 6:30-9 p.m. "But we've had no problem. The retailers stayed open automatically. I think it's working positively for them."

Presidential honor

Community members gathered last week at an open house to honor longtime Boyne Valley Garden Club president Betty Shaver for her dedication and service to the community. Shaver recently passed on the torch, after serving as president for 10 years, but remains integrally involved with the club, which beautifies Boyne City each summer with colorful plantings around the community. Pictured here with Boyne City city manager Michael Cain, Shaver was honored with a certificate of appreciation from the City, as well as the placement of a park bench in Old City Park bearing her name, courtesy of her fellow garden club enthusiasts.

Changes in AD position bring up questions

TO THE EDITOR:

As a concerned taxpayer, I'm trying to figure out why the Boyne City Public School Board of Education is changing the athletic director position at the high school. Kirk Kujawski has held that position for the last two years and the previous five years as assistant athletic director. The athletic department and overall athletic program appear to be operating efficiently with Kirk acting as director. Our athletic facilities have received many high praises under his leadership; he works well with coaches and officials, and thinks what is best for kids when making administrative decisions. Upon reading his employee performance evaluation as athletic director for the previous year, he received high ratings in all categories. Kirk was asked and will speak at an upcoming session with other members of the Michigan High School Athletic Association, through the North Central Officials Association. Topic: Communication Between the Athletic Department and Sports Officials.

Now, for an unspecified reason, some of our school board members decided that we should look at 'expanding the position' of the athletic director. They instructed the superintendent to post the position within the school district and see who was interested. An interview committee consisting of the high school principal and assistant principal, middle school principal, and two varsity head coaches looked at the three candidates. Kirk Kujawski was the unanimous choice by the committee. Their recommendation was forwarded to the superintendent, who also recommended retaining Kirk as athletic director. Keep in mind, that combined, this group has almost 100 years of educational experience and distinguishing what is best for kids. The school board rejected the recommendation. This decision was not made at an open school board meeting in July, rather during a closed session after the public was excused from the general meeting. Todd Derenzy was subsequently offered the position.

When doing a cost/benefit analysis of this situation, I see that the cost to the taxpayers for this change of position will be $30,000 to $50,000, with the benefit to our kids and the community unspecified.

I realize several tough decisions are made by our school board every day and that much time and energy can be spent with little reward. I would hope that this topic will be addressed by our school board president during the August 9 meeting, so the community can rest assured that the correct decision was made with our kids in mind.

Theresa Satmary

Editor's note: According to Boyne City schools superintendent Jim Cooper, the interview committee did recommend retaining Kujawski, but only if the athletic director's position would remain as it was, a stipend position. Responding, however, to the school board's decision to expand the athletic director's position the interview committee then recommended industrial arts instructor Todd Derenzy, who was subsequently hired for the position. Now structured as a half-time/half time post, Derenzy teaches part of the day and attends to athletic director duties for the remainder of the day, an arrangement that Cooper said would not have been practical for Kujawski's present position as grounds supervisor. When Kujawski took the position four years ago, Cooper notes, following the departure of student success coordinator/athletic director Steve Beyer, the stipend nature of the position was intended to be a temporary condition, pending future budget and district needs considerations. "We really appreciate the fact that [Kujawski] stepped up, knowing this job could change at any time, knowing we could expand it, he stepped up and did an admirable job," Cooper said. "I can't say enough about his work ethic or what he did for us. I think though, considering all of the circumstances involved in expanding the program, this was the best choice the board could make." The new arrangement, Cooper continued, makes sense from an instructional standpoint as well, with the hiring of another half-time industrial arts instructor making it possible for the district to offer an additional section of classroom instruction, a move that has been under discussion over the course of the last two years. "A lot of variables played into this decision," he said. The changes, Cooper added, were discussed in open session at the regular school board meeting in June, with action taken at the July meeting.

Supreme Court ruling puts United States back "Under God"

TO THE EDITOR:

It seems that every time we listen to the radio or watch the TV, the media talking head reporting the daily events almost always tries to give us the perception that all is doom and gloom and that the end is near. But we must remember that all this negative information usually comes from a liberal view point which is meant to be socialistic and controlling.

That having been said, I would like to give you a positive view point which may have been overlooked by most of the media. We're still "UNDER GOD!" School children can continue to say "one nation under God" when they quote the Pledge of Allegiance — thanks to a ruling by the Supreme Court of the United States on June 14, Flag Day. Justice Sandra Day O'Connor agreed with the majority opinion, writing, "it is unsurprising that a nation founded by religious refugees and dedicated to religious freedom should find references to divinity in its symbols, songs, mottoes, and oaths. Eradicating such references would sever ties to a history that sustains this nation even today."

Also highlighted in the case was the fact that our founding fathers established this nation upon a belief in God, not government, and numerous historical references of how the founders wanted to acknowledge our nation's religious heritage were chronicled. By dismissing this case and eradicating the appeals court decision, the Supreme Court of the United States removed a dark cloud that had been hanging over one of the nation's most important and cherished traditions: acknowledging via the Pledge of Allegiance that our freedoms in this country come from God, not government and students across America can begin the new school year in the fall by reciting the Pledge of Allegiance including the phrase "under God" — I know that things are hard everywhere these days and I don't know what the future holds for young Americans, but I believe there are some things worth sacrificing for — things like family, faith and freedom and I know that as long as we keep standing up for what is right and good, and keep fighting for freedom and justice, there is hope for the future.

Of the more than 16 million men and women who served in the U.S. military during World War II, more than 400,000 died. The inscription on the national memorial to those who served during the Second World War reminds us how important it is to continue to take up the struggle and sacrifice in order "to perpetuate the gift our forefathers entrusted to us: A nation conceived in liberty and justice."

Friends of the Boyne seek support from public on effluent issue

TO THE EDITOR:

In response to the Boyne City City Commission's decision to discharge the effluent from the new wastewater treatment plant directly into the Boyne River, the Friends of the Boyne River (FOB), embarked on an effort to investigate the decision and to try to determine an alternative plan that would be less unpleasant aesthetically and less hazardous environmentally. This process has consumed many man-hours and incurred significant financial liability. The FOB learned that this was a complicated problem requiring reasoned and informed action. Reasonable people can have honest differences of opinion.

In pursuing this action FOB employed the assistance of an environmental attorney and a wastewater treatment consultant. Many individuals, conservation groups, environmental organizations, and associations have expressed various levels of support. This support has been in the form of verbal encouragements, written letters, and to a lesser extent financial help.

One of the major hurdles has been the decision of the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality to support the City's position. This has been in spite of being contrary to the MDEQ's vision statement and contrary to department goals. It has resulted in a rush to judgment and is being appealed to the Director of MDEQ.

The issues are important to all. There may be human health concerns that would result from wastewater effluent discharged into the river and flowing downstream through town. If there are human health concerns resulting from the discharge near the beach then why wouldn't there also be health concerns in the river. The river may lose its current status allowing "full body contact" to a status allowing only "partial body contact." Additionally, the long term sustainability of salmon and trout runs in the river can be threatened by contaminants that are not removed by the treatment process. The ultimate result of the FOB's intervention cannot be known at this time.

In order for the FOB to continue activity on this issue it will need substantial financial support from all parties that believe in this cause. There is a broader issue. The precedent determined in this case can have widespread effect in the entire State of Michigan and could protect other valuable water resources.

The Board of Directors of the FOB urges interested parties to step forward and contribute financially to the FOB's Effluent Fund now. We are also interested in public comment. If you cannot contribute financially, we still urge you to give us your comments.

Contributions to The Friends of the Boyne River's Effluent Fund are fully tax deductible. The FOB is a tax-exempt nonprofit conservation organization under the 501 (c) regulations of the IRS. Make contributions payable to: Friends of the Boyne River, Effluent Fund.

DOWNTOWN

'Sense of place' is all about the people

By C.P. MACMALLARD

Yogi Berra was asked recently about his marriage, which has flourished for over 50 years. He said: "Carmen and me have a good time together, even when we're apart." Mr. Berra's English teacher must have cringed, but the rest of us knew exactly what he meant. A group of folks were chatting about our town last week and someone said "Boyne City has a sense of place." We all seemed to understand this, just like Yogi's comment, but afterward I began to wonder how I would explain the phrase to someone who didn't get it. We all have a sense of self; we know who we are and if we like who we are, we tend to be happy and contented.

But can a town have a sense of self? Certainly the buildings can't, even though diverse and well kept buildings tell us something about the people in the town. The people can't have the sense of place because the town means different things to different people. As with all towns, many of us agree on a few things, a few agree on many things but we all agree on nothing. But whatever a "sense of place" is, it must be unique to the place in question. And, of course, most places have no sense of place at all. Has anyone ever felt a sense of place at Wal-Mart or in an airport?

Mrs. MacMallard and I, along with the kids and a few grandchildren, took in the festivities over the Camp Quality/Boyne Thunder weekend. We were sitting on the lake's edge in the park as the boats came roaring by. And we, like everyone else, were waving enthusiastically. Mrs. leaned over to me and said: "Why are we waving, don't you feel like sort of a doofus waving at a bunch of race boats?" "Well, no," I said. "It's fun and it seems like the right thing to do. Besides, the people in the boats are waving back!"

The next morning I overheard a conversation between one of the organizers and the skipper and crew of one of the really big boats. The racers were ecstatic about the whole event. They enjoyed the racecourse, the stops, especially at Beaver Island and Bay Harbor, and the parties and dinners in Boyne City. They were most complimentary of the degree of organization, planning and forethought that went into the event; and they really enjoyed the town and the people. To my great surprise, they even mentioned that, on the parade lap, everybody on shore was waving at them!

So I guess a sense of place begins with buildings but it also requires people who like the place, and are happy and contented to be there. And if they want to wave at race boats because it's fun, they do even if some of them feel like doofuses.

TRIVIA: Sometimes I wonder about some pretty trivial things and I figured that you kind readers might be able to help. I've been wondering what a rambler is, and how our sports teams came to be called the Ramblers. If you know the answer, please drop me a line at The Citizen-Journal, P.O. Box A, Boyne City, MI 49712, or e-mail to citizen@voyager.net.

Jordan Valley library grateful for Scout help

TO THE EDITOR:

Recently Boy Scout Troop #1627 from the Clawson/Royal Oak area spent a week in northern Michigan camping, swimming, and doing volunteer work in area communities. The Jordan Valley District Library was pleasantly surprised to be a 'recipient' of some of that volunteer energy.

These young men and their adult leaders worked very hard to improve the appearance of our grounds. We were amazed at how much yard waste could be put in garbage bags in less than an hour! We are grateful for the work they did and we congratulate their home town, their scout leaders, and their families for raising young men who voluntarily help those who are not their next door neighbors!

doms we have in the western world," he notes. While members are required to believe in God, they are not required to believe in the same God. And, in fact, Woelfert notes, members are "not allowed to discuss religion and politics at the lodge." The belief, then, is more of a critical philosophical component for further pursuing the education of a mason than a matter up for debate. "You can encourage reverence for God without discussing the finer points of a religion," he said.

The principle behind freemasonry, he said, is simple; it's a "fraternity and a brotherhood, looking out for one another." The mission? "To make good men even better." How? Woelfert points to the various "degrees," or levels, earned by members once initiated into lodge membership. Achieving the degrees means undertaking an education through the various texts and teachings contained within the freemason tradition, utilizing symbols, allegory and example, aimed at imparting a high standard of ethics, honesty, and character. "As degrees go, you learn things," he said. "One of the most important things you learn are our symbols," which include such masonry tools as a compass and square. Masons often wear a ring with the square, compass, and letter G, to remind them in their daily lives what they've learned behind closed doors in the lodge.

So why the secret rituals? Though the specifics of their rites and practices are not made available to the general public, that doesn't mean that there's anything unsavory about them. "It teaches," Woelfert said simply, noting that the rituals, and the secrecy surrounding them, reinforce the bond between the men, and the meaningfulness of that bond. Service, too, is a part of the bond of the masons, exemplified by the Shriners, a component of the Freemasons, who run free hospitals for sick children around the country. In Boyne City, service has translated recently, for the most part, to fund-raising for scholarships for local students. Though regular dinners have fallen to the wayside, to a certain degree, Woelfert said that's something that will soon change.

"We're planning to do some dinners again, first to benefit the building association and then for scholarship funds," he said. The hope, Woelfert added, is to build a schedule of dinners, and even lunches, around events held in Veterans Park, located directly across the street from the current hall. The lodge is also planning to make the hall, which includes a lower level kitchen and dining area, complete with a nearly 100-year-old pool table, available for rental to the community.

And though there's a contingent of longtime masons working diligently to maintain the Boyne City lodge, new members are always needed to assure the vitality of the organization. Woelfert, in his early 40s, became a member owing in part to the fact that his father was a member. Though he didn't know exactly what would happen as he looked to be accepted into the group, he said, "I know it was okay for him, it was okay for me."

Though many are local businessmen, members come from all walks of life. Woelfert advises those interested in membership to simply get to know a mason, and talk to him about it.

Those seeking membership need to petition the lodge to do so, requiring the signatures of two members. Then, he said, lodge members will visit with the potential member to "make sure the lodge is right for you."

For more information on becoming a member, call Ed Woelfert at 582-1234 or 582-3562; Fred Ley at 582-7270; or Gene Farley at 582-2424.

Officers are sworn in at the Boyne City Masonic Lodge, above. Though the specifics of the rites and practices of the organization are kept secret, the membership in the fraternity is open to men from all walks of life, throughout the community.

Vollbach. While the details are still coming together, the intent is clear, Gorkiewicz said, quoting the event slogan. "Explore East Jordan, one park at a time." The idea, she said, "is to show both residents and visitors that there is something cool to do in East Jordan."

The planning of the event has also provided a prime example of an effort fulfilling the chamber's mission of promoting partnerships as well as the natural beauty of the East Jordan area. "If any event ever personified the mission statement, this is it," Gorkiewicz said, noting that organizers are a cross-section of education leaders, business professionals, and chamber volunteers.

More details on the event will be announced soon.

For more information, or to get involved, call the East Jordan Area Chamber of Commerce at 536-7351.

AS FOR THE Community Picnic, the event is taking a break, but may be back in the future, with some new additions, and even a new focus.

Combining the picnic elements with a "Heritage Day" concept has been discussed, according to chamber director Gorkiewicz.

The picnic was originally conceived of in 2002, the brainchild of chamber board member Teresa Stanek, who envisioned an old-fashioned, summer festival atmosphere harkening back to East Jordan's early days.

The event first took place in August of 2002, coinciding with a ribboncutting, "grand opening" of the newly-constructed East Jordan Community Park on M-32, and featuring a cookout, homemade lemonade and ice cream, and old-time favorites including a watermelon eating contest and a dunk tank.

Though Stanek took the helm for a couple of years, the intent was always that another organization might step up and take the event over in the future. Thus far, no single group has done so, though components of several organizations have recently, Gorkiewicz said, expressed an interest in working on such an event in the future. "There's been a lot of interest in building on the heritage aspect," she noted.

For more information, or to take part in the planning of a future community picnic/heritage day event, call the East Jordan Area Chamber at 536-7351.

To the Staff of Dr. Bleiberg,

I was in unbearable pain when I came there. Nothing worked. I was getting pain shots every day, and also on pain medication. My doctor heard of your pain clinic in Mt. Pleasant. I said I would give it a try, since we were getting nowhere with the other medical places I tried. Thanks to Dr. Bleiberg, he was able to get most of my pain out and under control. Now I am able to live a better life. Thank you for all your support.

Sincerely,
Marie Rachuba

Section 5. Issuance of Series 2004 Bonds; Details. The Series 2004 Bonds of the Issuer, to be designated WATER SUPPLY AND SEWAGE DISPOSAL SYSTEM REVENUE BONDS, SERIES 2004 are authorized to be issued in the aggregate principal sum of not to exceed Eight Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($8,500,000) or such lesser amount as shall finally be determined by order of the MDEQ for the purpose of paying part of the cost of the Project, including the costs incidental to the issuance, sale and delivery of the Series 2004 Bonds. The Series 2004 Bonds shall be payable out of the Net Revenues, as set forth more fully herein. The Series 2004 Bonds shall be in the form of a single fully-registered, nonconvertible bond of the denomination of the full principal amount thereof, dated as of the date of delivery of the Series 2004 Bonds, payable in principal installments serially as finally determined by the order of the MDEQ at the time of sale of the Series 2004 Bonds and approved by the Authority and an Authorized Officer. Final determination of the principal amount and the payment dates and amounts of principal installments of the Series 2004 Bonds shall be evidenced by execution of a Purchase Contract (the "Purchase Contract") between the Issuer and the Authority providing for sale of the Series 2004 Bonds, and the Authorized Officers are authorized and directed to execute and deliver the Purchase Contract when it is in final form and to make the determinations set forth above.

The Series 2004 Bonds shall bear interest at a rate of two and one-eighth percent (2.125%) per annum on the par value thereof or such other rate as evidenced by execution of the Purchase Contract, but in any event not to exceed the rate permitted by law, and the Mayor and City Clerk are authorized to execute and deliver the Series 2004 Bonds in accordance with the delivery instructions of the Authority. The Bonds shall be signed with the manual or facsimile signatures of the Mayor and City Clerk and shall have the Issuer's seal impressed or printed thereon.

The Series 2004 Bonds principal amount is expected to be drawn down by the Issuer periodically, and interest on the principal amount shall accrue from the date such principal amount is drawn down by the Issuer.

The Series 2004 Bonds shall not be convertible or exchangeable into more than one fully-registered bond. Principal of and interest on the Series 2004 Bonds shall be payable as provided in the Series 2004 Bond form set forth in this Ordinance.

The Series 2004 Bonds or principal installments thereof will be subject to prepayment prior to maturity with the prior written approval of the Authority in the manner and at the times as provided in the Series 2004 Bond form set forth in this Ordinance.

The City Clerk shall record on the registration books payment by the Issuer of each installment of principal or interest or both when made and the cancelled checks or other records evidencing such payments shall be returned to and retained by the City Clerk.

Upon payment by the Issuer of all outstanding principal and interest on the Series 2004 Bonds, the Authority shall deliver the Series 2004 Bonds to the Issuer for cancellation.

Section 6. Registration and Transfer. Any Bond may be transferred upon the books required to be kept pursuant to this section by the person in whose name it is registered, in person or by the registered owner's duly authorized attorney, upon surrender of the Bond for cancellation, accompanied by delivery of a duly executed written instrument of transfer in a form approved by the transfer agent. Whenever any Bond or Bonds shall be surrendered for transfer, the Issuer shall execute and the transfer agent shall authenticate and deliver a new Bond or Bonds, for like aggregate principal amount. The transfer agent shall require payment by the bondholder requesting the transfer of any tax or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to the transfer. The transfer agent shall not be required (i) to issue, register the transfer of or exchange any Bond during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before the day of the giving of a notice of redemption of Bonds selected for redemption as described in the form of the Series 2004 Bond contained in Section 18 of this Ordinance and ending at the close of business on the day of that giving of notice, or (ii) to register the transfer of or exchange of any Bond so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of Bonds being redeemed in part. The Issuer shall give the transfer agent notice of call for redemption at least 20 days prior to the date notice of redemption is to be given.

The transfer agent shall keep or cause to be kept, at its principal office, sufficient books for the registration and transfer of the Bonds, which shall at all times be open to inspection by the Issuer; and, upon presentation for such purpose, the transfer agent shall, under such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, transfer or cause to be transferred, on said books, Bonds as hereinbefore provided.

If any Bond shall become mutilated, the Issuer, at the expense of the holder of the Bond, shall execute, and the transfer agent shall authenticate and deliver, a new Bond of like tenor in exchange and substitution for the mutilated Bond, upon surrender to the transfer agent of the mutilated Bond. If any Bond issued under this Ordinance shall be lost, destroyed or stolen, evidence of the loss, destruction or theft may be submitted to the transfer agent and, if this evidence is satisfactory to both and indemnity satisfactory to the transfer agent shall be given, and if all requirements of any applicable law including Act 354, Public Acts of Michigan, 1972, as amended ("Act 354"), being sections 129.131 to 129.134, inclusive, of the Michigan Compiled Laws have been met, the Issuer, at the expense of the owner, shall execute, and the transfer agent shall thereupon authenticate and deliver, a new Bond of like tenor and bearing the statement required by Act 354, or any applicable law hereafter enacted, in lieu of and in substitution for the Bond so lost, destroyed or stolen. If any such Bond shall have matured or shall be about to mature, instead of issuing a substitute Bond the transfer agent may pay the same without surrender thereof.

Section 7. Payment of Bonds; Security. The Series 2004 Bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable from the Net Revenues, and to secure such payment, there is hereby created a statutory lien upon the whole of the Net Revenues which shall be a first lien to continue until payment in full of the principal and interest on the Series 2004 Bonds payable from the Net Revenues, or, until sufficient cash or Sufficient Government Obligations have been deposited in trust for payment in full of the Series 2004 Bonds then outstanding, principal and interest on such Series 2004 Bonds to maturity, or, if called for redemption, to the date fixed for redemption together with the amount of the redemption premium, if any. The statutory first lien referred to herein shall be of equal standing and priority as to the Net Revenues with the Outstanding Bonds. Upon deposit of cash or Sufficient Government Obligations, as provided in this paragraph, the statutory lien shall be terminated with respect to the Series 2004 Bonds, the holders of the Series 2004 Bonds shall have no further rights under this Ordinance or the Outstanding Ordinance except for payment from the deposited funds, and the Series 2004 Bonds shall no longer be considered to be outstanding under this Ordinance or the Outstanding Ordinance.

Section 8. Bondholders' Rights; Receiver. The holder or holders of the Bonds representing in the aggregate not less than twenty percent (20%) of the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding, may, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, protect and enforce the statutory lien upon the Net Revenues of the System, and may, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, enforce and compel performance of all duties of the officers of the Issuer, including the fixing of sufficient rates, the collection of Revenues, the proper segregation of the Revenues of the System and the proper application thereof. The statutory lien upon the Net Revenues, however, shall not be construed as to compel the sale of the System or any part thereof.

If there is a default in the payment of the principal or interest on the Bonds, any court having jurisdiction in any proper action may appoint a receiver to administer and operate the System on behalf of the Issuer and under the direction of the court, and by and with the approval of the court to perform all of the duties of the officers of the Issuer more particularly set forth herein and in Act 94.

The holder or holders of the Bonds shall have all other rights and remedies given by Act 94 and law, for the payment and enforcement of the Bonds and the security therefor.

Section 9. Management; Fiscal Year. The operation, repair and management of the System and the acquiring of the Project shall continue to be under the supervision and control of the City Commission. The City Commission may employ such person or persons in such capacity or capacities as it deems advisable to carry on the efficient management and operation of the System. The City Commission may make such rules and regulations as it deems advisable and necessary to assure the efficient management and operation of the System. The System shall be operated on the basis of an operating year which shall coincide with the City's fiscal year.

Section 10. Rates and Charges. The rates and charges for service furnished by and the use of the System and the methods of collection and enforcement of the collection of the rates shall be those in effect on the date of adoption of this Ordinance.

Section 11. No Free Service or Use. No free service or use of the System, or service or use of the System at less than cost, shall be furnished by the System to any person, firm or corporation, public or private, or to any public agency or instrumentality, including the Issuer.

Section 12. Fixing and Revising Rates; Rate Covenant. The rates now in effect and the rate increases to be placed into effect are estimated to be sufficient to provide for the payment of the expenses of administration and operation and such expenses for maintenance of the System as are necessary to preserve the System in good repair and working order, to provide for the payment of the principal and interest on the Bonds as the same become due and payable, and the maintenance of the reserve therefor (as hereinafter provided) and to provide for all other obligations, expenditures and funds for the System required by law and this Ordinance. The rates shall be fixed and revised from time to time as may be necessary to produce these amounts, and it is hereby covenanted and agreed to fix and maintain rates for services furnished by the System at all times sufficient to provide for the foregoing.

Section 13. Funds and Accounts; Flow of Funds; Bond Reserve Account. The funds and accounts established by the Outstanding Ordinance are hereby continued, the flow of funds established by the Outstanding Ordinance, as amended, is hereby continued, and the applicable sections of the Outstanding Ordinance, as amended, relating to funds and accounts and flow of funds are incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth.

The Bond Reserve Account in the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund (the "Reserve Account"), as established by Section 13(B) of the Outstanding Ordinance, shall be increased to an amount equal to the Reserve Amount for the Series 2004 Bonds. The Reserve Account shall be funded in an amount equal to the Reserve Amount for the Series 2004 Bonds within seven (7) years from the date of the issuance of the Series 2004 Bonds through equal annual deposits to the Reserve Account. Interest on the Bond Reserve Account shall be transferred into the Bond and Interest Redemption Account once the Reserve Account has been reached.

Except as otherwise provided in the Outstanding Ordinance, the moneys or other funding sources credited to the Reserve Account for the Series 2004 Bonds shall be used solely for the payment of the principal and redemption price (if any) of and interest on the Series 2004 Bonds as to which there would otherwise be a default or on the final maturity date for the Series 2004 Bonds. If at any time it shall be necessary to use moneys credited to the Reserve Account for such payment, then the moneys so used shall be replaced from the Revenues first received thereafter in the Receiving Fund which are not required to be deposited in the Operation and Maintenance Account of the Bond and Interest Redemption Account established pursuant to the Outstanding Ordinance. All of the other provisions relative to the use of said Reserve Account, its maintenance and other details relative thereto, shall remain as specially set forth in the Outstanding Ordinance.

Section 14. Bond Proceeds. From the proceeds of the sale of the Series 2004 Bonds there shall be immediately deposited in the Bond and Interest Redemption Account an amount equal to the accrued interest and premium, if any, received on the delivery of the Series 2004 Bonds. The balance of the proceeds of the sale of the Series 2004 Bonds when received from the Authority shall be deposited in a bank or banks, designated by the City Commission, qualified to act as depository of the proceeds of sale under the provisions of Section 15 of Act 94, in an account designated CONSTRUCTION FUND (the "Construction Fund"). Moneys in the Construction Fund shall be applied solely in payment of the costs of the Project, including any engineering, legal and other expenses incident thereto and to the financing thereof. Payments for construction, either on account or otherwise, shall not be made unless the registered engineer in charge of such work shall file with the City Commission a signed statement to the effect that the work has been completed in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor; that it was done pursuant to and in accordance with the contract therefor (including properly authorized change orders), that such work is satisfactory and that such work has not been previously paid for.

Any unexpended balance of the proceeds of sale of the Series 2004 Bonds remaining after completion of the Project in the Construction Fund may, at the discretion of the Issuer, be used for further improvements, enlargements and extension to the System, if, at the time of such expenditures, such use is approved by the Michigan Department of Treasury, if such permission is then required by law. Any remaining balance after such expenditure shall be paid to the Bond and Interest Redemption Account and may be used for the purpose of purchasing Series 2004 Bonds on the open market at not more than the fair market value thereof, but not more than the price at which the Series 2004 Bonds may next be called for redemption, or used for the purpose of paying principal of the Series 2004 Bonds upon maturity or calling Series 2004 Bonds for redemption.

Section 15. Bond Form. The Series 2004 Bonds shall be in substantially the following form:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
STATE OF MICHIGAN
COUNTY OF CHARLEVOIX
CITY OF BOYNE CITY
WATER SUPPLY SYSTEM AND SEWAGE DISPOSAL
SYSTEM
REVENUE BOND, SERIES 2004

REGISTERED OWNER: Michigan Municipal Bond Authority
PRINCIPAL AMOUNT: Seven Million Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($7,400,000.00)
DATE OF ORIGINAL ISSUE: September 23, 2004

The CITY OF BOYNE CITY, County of Charlevoix, State of Michigan (the "City"), for value received, hereby promises to pay, but only out of the hereinafter described Net Revenues of the City's Water Supply and Sewage Disposal System (hereinafter defined), to the Michigan Municipal Bond Authority (the "Authority"), or registered assigns, the Principal Amount shown above, or such portion thereof as shall have been advanced to the City pursuant to a Purchase Contract between the City and the Authority and a Supplemental Agreement by and among the City, the Authority and the State of Michigan acting through the Department of Environmental Quality, in lawful money of the United States of America, unless prepaid prior thereto as hereinafter provided.

During the time the funds are being drawn down by the City under this bond, the Authority will periodically provide to the City a statement showing the amount of principal that has been advanced and the date of each advance, which statement shall constitute prima facie evidence of the reported information; provided that no failure on the part of the Authority to provide such a statement or to reflect a disbursement or the correct amount of a disbursement shall relieve the City of its obligation to repay the outstanding Principal Amount actually advanced, all accrued interest thereon, and any other amount payable with respect thereto in accordance with the terms of this bond.

The Principal Amount shall be payable on the dates and in the annual principal installment amounts set forth in Schedule A attached hereto and made a part hereof, as such Schedule may be adjusted if less than $7,400,000.00 is disbursed to the City or if a portion of the Principal Amount is prepaid as provided below, with interest on said principal installments from the date each said installment is delivered to the holder hereof until paid at the rate of two and one-eighth percent (2.125%) per annum. Interest is first payable on April 1, 2005, and semiannually thereafter and principal is payable on the first day of April commencing April 1, 2006 (as set forth in the Purchase Contract) and annually thereafter.

The Bonds may be subject to redemption prior to maturity by the Issuer only with the prior written consent of the Authority and on such terms as may be required by the Authority.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this bond, as long as the Authority is the owner of this bond, (a) this bond is payable as to principal, premium, if any, and interest at the designated office of [J.P. Morgan Trust Company, National Association,] or at such other place as shall be designated in writing to the City by the Authority (the "Authority's Depository"); (b) the City agrees that it will deposit with the Authority's Depository payments of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on this bond in immediately available funds by 12:00 noon at least five business days prior to the date on which any such payment is due whether by maturity, redemption or otherwise; in the event that the Authority's Depository has not received the City's deposit by 12:00 noon on the scheduled day, the City shall immediately pay to the Authority as invoiced by the Authority an amount to recover the Authority's administrative cost and lost investment earnings attributable to that late payment; and (c) written notice of any redemption of this bond shall be given by the City and received by the Authority's Depository at least 40 days prior to the date on which such redemption is to be made.

Additional Interest

In the event of a default in the payment of principal or interest hereon when due, whether at maturity, by redemption or otherwise, the amount of such default shall bear interest (the "additional interest") at a rate equal to the rate of interest which is two percent above the Authority's cost of providing funds (as determined by the Authority) to make payment on the bonds of the Authority issued to provide funds to purchase this bond but in no event in excess of the maximum rate of interest permitted by law. The additional interest shall continue to accrue until the Authority has been fully reimbursed for all costs incurred by the Authority (as determined by the Authority) as a consequence of the City's default. Such additional interest shall be payable on the interest payment date following demand of the Authority. In the event that (for reasons other than the default in the payment of any principal obligation purchased by the Authority) the investment of amounts in the reserve account established by the Authority for the bonds of the Authority issued to provide funds to purchase this bond fails to provide sufficient available funds (together with any other funds which may be made available for such purpose) to pay the interest on outstanding bonds of the Authority issued to fund such account, the City shall and hereby agrees to pay on demand only the City's pro rata share (as determined by the Authority) of such deficiency as additional interest on this bond.

For prompt payment of principal and interest on this bond, the City has irrevocably pledged the revenues of the Water Supply and Sewage Disposal System of the City, including all appurtenances, extensions and improvements thereto (the "System"), after provision has been made for reasonable and necessary expenses of operation, maintenance and administration (the "Net Revenues"), and a statutory lien thereon is hereby recognized and created that is of equal standing and priority with the lien created in Ordinance No. A-83 of the City in favor of the City's Water Supply and Sewage Disposal System Revenue Bonds, Series 2003 (the "Outstanding Bonds").

This bond is a single, fully-registered, non-convertible bond in the principal sum indicated above issued pursuant to Ordinance No. A-83 and Ordinance No. A-86 (the "Ordinances") duly adopted by the City Commission of the City, and under and in full compliance with the Constitution and statutes of the State of Michigan, including specifically Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended, for the purpose of paying part of the cost of acquiring and constructing additions, extensions and improvements to the System.

For a complete statement of the revenues from which and the conditions under which this bond is payable, a statement of the conditions under which additional bonds of equal standing may hereafter be issued and the general covenants and provisions pursuant to which this bond is issued, reference is made to the above-described Ordinances.

This bond is a self-liquidating bond, payable, both as to principal and interest, from the Net Revenues of the Water Supply and Sewage Disposal System. The principal and interest on this bond are secured by the statutory lien hereinafter mentioned.

Youth-focused crisis intervention workshop offered by Char-EM ISD

Chip, a 16-year-old sophomore, is a large, well-developed young man. He has few friends and delights in aggravating his teachers, fellow students, and other adults in his life. Chip constantly steals small objects from the classroom and his peers, leaving them in places where they are sure to be found and he is caught. He often does not complete classroom assignments and roams off-task while on the computer. He rarely helps at home when asked.

Although adults are aware of Chip's passive-aggressive behavior, he still gets them extremely agitated and they react aggressively. Because of his behavior, Chip spends a good portion of each day out of the classroom and in the principal's office.

One day after a confrontation, Chip was sent to the principal's office and immediately began verbally assaulting classroom staff. He was generalizing what had happened, making it clear that this proved the uncaring nature of every adult in his life.

How would you react in this situation?

A special type of training, Life Space Crisis Intervention, offers parents and other adults an array of tools to respond to a child/student's chronic pattern of self-defeating behavior.

Offered by Charlevoix-Emmet Intermediate School District, Life Space Crisis Intervention (LSCI) is a five day workshop geared toward anyone who works with youth - probation officers, school personnel, counselors, foster care workers, court officers, and others. The workshop will be offered 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Aug. 19, 20, 23, 24, and 25, at Char-Em ISD in Charlevoix. Educators and those who work with youth within the Char-Em ISD service area are not charged to attend the mandatory five days of the workshop. Those outside Char-Em ISD are charged $250. Continental breakfast, lunch, and materials are provided to all participants.

According to LSCI co-trainer James Marquoit, the foundation of LSCI is based on developing a caring relationship with the student/youth.

"It all stems from the belief that a student in crisis - regardless of how angry, depressed, fearful, or anxious - wants to tell his or her story and be understood and respected. Once this occurs, the opportunity for personal insights, new skills, and responsibility can follow," said Marquoit, principal of Char-Em ISD's Orion School, a center-based program for students with severe behavioral issues.

Although "Chip's" name is fictional, his story is real, Marquoit and Koehler said. With LSCI training, school personnel and other adults in his life learned to stop engaging in conflict, listened to what Chip was saying, and became more interested in helping rather than "hurting" the youngster through what Chip considered to be their disinterest in him.

Chip graduated, completed court restitution, and is holding a full time job. He speaks of the intervention by adults trained in LSCI as the turning point in his life. He finally felt emotion come forth after realizing that adults could understand his plea for help - expressed through destructive behavior - and were willing to care and help him.

"Having a focus outside the superficial behaviors of troubled youth has given both staff and children a feeling of hope and severely limited the unending cycles of conflict that seem to surround many of these children," Marquoit said.

Information about registering for the workshop is available by calling Diane Heinzelman, Char-Em ISD Special Education Director, at 547-9947. The deadline to register is Aug. 12.

Make time for better health, for the rest of your life

By Ernie Harwell

People often express amazement when they learn that I missed only two broadcasts in my 54-year career as a professional sportscaster, while also writing a couple of books, a weekly newspaper column and dozens of songs recorded by artists such as

Mitch Ryder and B.J. Thomas.

They're always quick to ask how I did it, how I found the time. I didn't. I made the time. I still do. Though I retired last year, I'm still writing columns. I'm doing baseball vignettes for the Fox network. I speak to groups across the country. I'm a health and fitness advocate for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan. Who knows? I might even write another book.

While time is important, good health is even more crucial. So I'm always on the lookout for ways to have more of both. There's really no ideal time to exercise. It's up to you to decide when to make time for exercise. And need I remind you; there's no time like the present.

And please remember to take care of your health before it's longgggg gone!

Ernie Harwell, "the voice of the Detroit Tigers" for more than four decades, retired after 55 years behind a major league microphone. Today, at age 86, Ernie's days are filled with serving as a health and fitness advocate for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan, public appearances, writing, traveling and taking long walks with "Miss Lulu," his wife of more than 60 years. His latest book, a collection of his baseball columns entitled "Life After Baseball," is available at local bookstores or by calling 1-800-245-5082.

Speakers kick off a busy week at the Harvest Barn church

Two national speakers will be in East Jordan at Harvest Barn Word of Life Church the week of Aug. 8.

First, recording artist, songwriter, author and minister Mylon LeFevre will be at Harvest Barn at 10 a.m. on Sunday, Aug. 8. LeFevre has recently released a new book, "How Blessed Do You Want to Be?" and a CD, "Bow Down." Before beginning to preach around the nation, LeFevre led the Christian rock group Mylon and Broken Heart. He recorded his first song, "Without Him," at age 12.

Through the years, LeFevre has released 12 CDs and is the recipient of a Grammy and two Dove awards.

His ministry is based in Fort Worth, Texas.

Wayne Cochran, of Miami, Fla., is igniting a series of services at Harvest Barn Word of Life Church, at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 11, and 7 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 13.

At 1 p.m. Friday, Aug. 13, Cochran will lead a group of local bikers on a ride that will start at the church, the former Jordan Valley Express on M-66, and travel to and from Mackinaw City. The ride will culminate in East Jordan with free grub on the grill for all riders. Cochran's final service in East Jordan begins at 10 a.m. on Sunday, Aug. 15.

Cochran may have been flamboyant and even wild in his nightclub appearances years ago, but his contributions to American popular music can't be laughed away.

He left home in Thomaston, Ga., in the mid-1950s to get his foot into the music industry door. The son of a millhand, he became one of the first white singers to perform, and expand upon, soul, and rhythm and blues.

Cochran and his C.C. Riders toured the U.S. performing rhythm and blues classics as well as C.C. Rider originals like "Goin' Back to Miami" and "Last Kiss."

Today, Cochran still loves to rock and performs those same hits as he ministers around the nation.

For more information on either speaker, call Pastor Bridgette Criner at 536-2870.

CLUBS & ORGANIZATIONS

American Legion Post 228

At the regular meeting of Ernest Peterson Post 228, held July 1, thank you cards were read from the family of Lyle Ross for conducting his military funeral and from teacher Michele Deming for use of our Vietnam VCR tape for her class.

The Honor Guard conducted three graveside services, two Veteran of the Month ceremonies, Memorial Day services at eight locations, and a Flag day disposal ceremony at Veterans Park.

Chaplain Cosier reported on area veterans who are sick, disabled, shut-in or have answered the final call.

The Service Officer reported on assistance given veterans or their families regarding grave markers, flag holders and flags, acquiring and filing forms.

The Adjutant reported that membership stands at 155 of which 46 have paid their 2004-2005 dues.

A discussion was held concerning organizing an AmVets post to act and meet with the Legion Post. Any honorably discharged veteran who served in the U.S. military after Sept. 15, 1940 would be able to join. Past Commander Evans will get more facts and report at the next meeting.

The Tabs for Tots were collected from area schools in the following amounts: Boyne Falls, 128 lbs; Boyne City, 65 lbs.; Orion Center, 28 lbs.

The plaques will be inscribed and returned to the schools.

Troop Support Officer Maxine Hough reported on care packages and local publications informing the public as to special needs of members serving in Iraq and addresses to send letters of support to our troops.

The next regular meeting will be held Aug. 5, at the Post home at 7:30 p.m. and will be preceded by the Veteran of the Month ceremony at 6:15 p.m. followed by a potluck supper. Care package donations are being accepted at the Post on Tuesdays, from 3-10 p.m., to be sent to our troops in Iraq, and continued public support is requested.

To have news of your club or organization included in The Citizen-Journal, e-mail items to citizen@voyager.net, or call 582-6761. Items will be printed on a space-available basis.
