Mr. Marshall Sayles, Editor The East Jordan News East Jordan, Michigan

Dear Mr. Sayles: I wish to express the sincere thanks of the Council and myself for the very fine publicity your paper has been giving our council and for the wonderful time that was enjoyed by our members at our annual meeting last Friday.

The wonderful work you and Mrs. Sayles are doing in East Jordan is sure to have a tremendous impact on not only East Jordan but all of Michigan as well.

I would like a subscription to your fine paper and am enclosing check for same.

Sincerely yours, Cressy C. Campbell, Sec. Northwest Michigan Industrial Development Council.

Mr. Marshall Sayles, Secretary East Jordan Businessmen's Ass'n East Jordan, Michigan.

Dear Marshall: The City of East Jordan certainly knows how to extend a welcoming hand. The people with whom I talked in attendance at the recent meeting of the Northwest Michigan Industrial Development Council were all impressed with the special edition of the newspaper, the East Jordan industrial survey compiled by Bill and Doris Huckle, the special place mats, and identification ribbons and the amount of enthusiasm that your people displayed in organizing your industrial development program.

We were all happy to see East Jordan get its industrial program underway and I am sure with the same amount of enthusiasm that you have shown over the past several weeks and the same amount of intelligence a successful program can be developed. The organization of an industrial program is not always proof that an industry is going to come into the community immediately.

It's a long, hard pull and I hope that the citizens of East Jordan realize that there can be many false hopes and disappointments before an industrialist makes up his mind to choose any one particular community. We estimate that one out of about one hundred prospects we contact actually makes a move and it takes on an average of one year and a half to complete a single project.

I know that your Merchants Association and your industrial committee are aware of the long, hard pull that is ahead. One of the problems that is bound to arise is the dissemination of information to the community which will cover the activity of your industrial development group.

Particularly, the officers of your Industrial Development Fund, without revealing any confidential information about prospects. The problem is really one of confidence. The people in the community and subscribers to the Industrial Fund must be impressed with the fact that the officers handling the industrial promotion for the program were placed in their position because they were the individuals in which the community had a great deal of confidence.

And, even though they are working with the community's money, there are many times when they will not be able to reveal the name of a prospect or all of their activities. There are many reasons why a prospect does not want his identity disclosed or even the fact that he is in the community disclosed to outside sources.

In the first place the mere rumor of someone's interest in the community may result in the price of real estate rising. In the second place the news that a prospect is looking over the state may upset any labor relations program that the prospect may have in his present location.

In the third place, since so many prospects are just shopping around it is futile to get the community excited about everyone that makes an inquiry about buildings or building sites. Certainly the group in charge of the program should keep track of all inquiries that come to their attention so they can defend themselves against any false accusations about the way their program or funds are being handled.

Editorial An Open Letter

Federal Communications Commission Washington, D. C. Dear Sirs: In regard to closing the Western Union Telegraph Company office in East Jordan, Michigan.

(1) Western Union has had no telegraph office in this city for several months. Incoming and outgoing telegrams must be telephoned to Charlevoix, 15 miles away.

(2) Some families in our rural area do not have telephones. Incoming telegrams to them are received in the mail from Charlevoix 24 or more hours late. If Western Union has no agent in this city the service to these people will be worthless. In some cases when incoming wires are of a serious nature, this could be dangerous.

(3) The city of East Jordan has two weekly newspapers, four industrial plants, is the headquarters of the East Jordan & Southern Railroad and is located in the center of the finest resort and agricultural section of northern Michigan.

The city's population is about 2,000; our trading area includes about 4,000 persons. During the summer months, June, July and August, when our resort season is on, this population figure is nearly double.

The closing of our Western Union office will not give these people nor this area adequate public wire protection or service.

(4) The East Jordan News wishes to protest the manner in which this subject was brought to the attention of the East Jordan residents. (Subject: closing of the East Jordan Western Union Office.) The official advertisement (a 3-inch display ad) asking for objections to the commission, if anyone had any, was published in a Petoskey daily newspaper, 25 miles away.

From this action it appears to us that whoever placed the ad did not want too many East Jordan residents to see it and hoped for a minimum of objections to the Federal Communication Commission.

We respectfully request that members of the Commission give some consideration to the points made herein.

Sincerely, Marshall Sayles Publisher The East Jordan News

Steer Profit Is In Finishing Experts Say

The top sale dollars always go for the well-finished animal—no matter what the beef market trend, advises George A. Brannan, in charge of beef cattle at Michigan State College. Feeders rushing steers to market without proper finish are cheating themselves. If they sell for fear of a market drop, they lose money by forcing their steers into a lower grade, he explains, and at the same time they help depress the market. He cautions, however, that it does not pay to hold steers from sale when they are finished for their grade.

Our Industrial Progress

Eveline Orchard Is High In State Apple Production

Local Fruit Concern Helps Area For Nearly Half Century

Detroit residents consume about 20,000 bushels of East Jordan - grown apples each year.

One of the oldest companies in this area, the fruit firm was organized back in 1910 when C. D. Woodbury, of Lansing and L. R. Taft, of East Lansing, incorporated for $40,000.

Since that time the firm has grown until it produces about 65 percent of all the apples harvested in Charlevoix county.

HAS 400 ACRES

Following the firm's organization and the securing of 400 acres of land, A. L. Darbee was named manager of "Eveline Orchards" and has kept that position ever since.

Apples and cherries were the crops harvested when the company started its northern Michigan operation 43 years ago.

MANY VARIETIES

Main apple production is about 6,000 bushels of McIntosh with other varieties being Red Delicious, Cortland and Wealthies.

There are 120 acres of apple trees, 10 acres of sour cherries, 5 acres of sweet cherries and 5 acres of strawberries.

Best years of the firm were in 1946 and 1947, with 1952 being best for quality and price, but production was down then.

RANKS HIGH IN STATE

An interesting sidelight on production figures of the Eveline Fruit and Land Company is shown in the fact that the firm produces more apples than any one of 35 Michigan counties.

This information was found in report of the 1950 United States Census of Agriculture published by the United States Department of Commerce. And, thus, "Eveline Orchards" is another of the important northern Michigan companies, located in East Jordan, and contributing to the financial and physical health and welfare of this section of Michigan.

Tooth Decay Reduced By Fluorides

The fluoridation of public water supplies to reduce the dental decay attack rate both in primary and permanent teeth has received the approval of the Michigan Department of Health following a seven-year experiment made in Grand Rapids.

This statement of policy on the fluoridation program was made after the experience with the controlled study of fluoride supplementation in Grand Rapids revealed the value of the procedure.

The most recent data shows that there has been a greatly reduced dental decay attack rate both in the primary and permanent teeth of the children in Grand Rapids consuming the supplemented water since January 1945 when the study was initiated.

Reductions as high as 53 percent in the primary dentition and 66 percent in the permanent teeth of six-year olds has been obtained.

Grand Rapids is one of 24 communities of all sizes in the State of Michigan now adding fluoride compounds to the public waters.

As the result of this study and the reports from many other studies in other states, the Michigan Department of Health and the local Health Department recommends the supplementation of all public water supplies in the state deficient in fluoride.

School Districts Authorized To Borrow Funds

The East Jordan Rural Agricultural School and the Boyne Valley Rural Agricultural district have been authorized by the Michigan municipal finance commission at Lansing to borrow funds in anticipation of the state school aid payments.

The Commission acted under a new law permitting such borrowings passed recently to tide the school districts over a financial crisis caused by delays in receipt of the usual advance state payments.

The districts are authorized to issue 5 per cent notes for the amounts listed: East Jordan School District, $9,500; and Boyne Valley, $8,297.

State Conservation Department Gives Ice Fishing Rules

Lansing — Dozens of new communities will pop up in Michigan this winter, like mushroom, though by spring all will dissolve with winter's ice and snow.

The main industry of these communities will be fishing. Though some by-industry include relaxation, sport and a general quickening of the fisherman's spirits.

But the conservation department points out that ice fishing from these shanty communities will be limited as usual by doctrines set forth in the fish law digest.

Shanties must be marked with owner's name and address in letters at least two inches high. Shanties must be removed before the ice breaks up.

Safeguard your family's health by clearing out old medicines in your medicine cabinet now, urge Michigan State College home management specialists.

READIN' WRITIN' and 'RITHMETIC

FIRST GRADE Mrs. Stokes

The year is half over. We have learned quite a bit this semester. We have read ten or twelve pre-primers and part of our primer. We can count to 100 by 1's, 5's and 10's, and to 20 by 2's. We can write our numbers. We can do manuscript writing nicely. We know most of our letters and what they say.

We enjoy stories, poems and records. We learn songs.

Eleven of us had perfect attendance this marking period. We are Marie Compo, Ruth Combest, Karen Clark, Louis Dunson, Bobby Dunson, Leslie Hitchcock, Joanne Kraemer, Marie McWatters, Peggy Nelson, Carol Nyland, Jane Slough and Velma Sweet.

FIRST GRADE Marion Brooks

Our second semester begins today, Monday, January 28th.

Donald Reich is missing his second week of school with red measles.

Those who were not absent during the past six weeks period are: Linda Bundy, Shirley Crawford, Merry Eaton, Jim Goebel, Terry Lord, Susan Prebble, Charles Reed, Carol Richards, Eddie Williamson and Bonnie Gee.

Linda Bundy, Jim Goebel and Susan Prebble had perfect attendance during the semester.

Patty Clark returned to school after staying home for a week with a burned arm.

The Squirrel Class is beginning the "New Fun with Dick and Jane" and the Foxes have earned "Guess Who."

We are all reading "The Wishing Well" during our story hour and are enjoying it very much.

SECOND GRADE Agnes Johnston

A second Weekly Reader test was given to us last week. Most of us are showing improvement in our reading.

During our language classes we are learning many things about our new president, Dwight D. Eisenhower. We think it would be fun to visit him in his new home, which is the White House in Washington, D. C.

"All ready for Winter" by Leone Adelson is the book Mrs. Johnston is reading to us. The story tells us how all the different animals prepare for winter.

We are learning how to make good oral sentences. We find that we must think of a good beginning word in our sentences. In another week we will try writing our sentences correctly.

Carol Pales brought to school a story book library consisting of sixteen complete books for us to enjoy.

Last Friday the first semester of school ended. Those who were neither absent nor tardy during the first semester are: Donald Bowerman, Jerry Holley, Harry Howard, Bruce Shepard, Nancy Steuer, Charlene Sweet, and Louise Walton.

Those who were neither absent nor tardy during the last six weeks are: Donald Bowerman, Michael Bennett, Thomas Breakey, Dale Cutler, Linda Healey, Jerry Holley, Harry Howard, Marilyn Hughes, Bruce Shepard, Nancy Steuer, Charlene Sweet, Ella Mae Tousey, and Louise Walton.

THIRD GRADE Marie Hughes

We started the second semester with three children absent and one less in our enrollment so that now we have 35 children in our room. All of us were sorry to have Carol Shedira leave us. We will miss her. We hope she will write to us.

We made get-well cards for Donna who is in the hospital at Charlevoix. We are all so sorry she is ill, but we know she will be well soon.

Jean Combest brought us a big bouquet of pussy willows. We were so surprised to see them on such a cold day as Monday was.

Group One is beginning the second basic reader "More Streets and Roads." Group Two are just beginning "Streets and Roads." Group Three are finishing "Somebody Soon." Group Four are in the middle of "Friends and Neighbors," the second grade basic book.

We had 17 out of 37 who had perfect attendance the last six weeks period. The following children did not miss a day during the first semester: Mary Boring, Paula Burull, Tommy Derency, Jane and Jean Graham, Patrick Greenman and Keith Holley.

Billy Gardner brought his finger paint set to school. He made a nice picture for us and it looked like so much fun that we are going to try making some for our art class this week.

FOURTH GRADE Jean Strahl

The boys and girls are now enjoying the skating rink everyday. Jane Dunson, Peter Knudsen,

John Neuman, Sharon Sweet and Judith Jankoviak have had perfect attendance in our room for the first semester.

Friday morning the children made some pretty birthday cards for Suzanne Stinchcomb. Suzanne treated the boys and girls with some lovely cupcakes.

Last week was an exciting time for the children. They made an interesting bulletin board of President Eisenhower and his family Tuesday they listened to President Eisenhower's speech. They were very impressed hearing the new president.

In science, we have been discussing winter friends and how we can help. Several youngsters have feeding places for the birds at home.

FOURTH GRADE Grace Galmore

Those having a perfect attendance record for the first semester are: Gary Craig, Douglas Hayden, Yvonne Elzinga, Donald Johnson, Dick McKinnon, Linda Murphy, Avette Reed, Beverly Snyder and Ronald Sulak.

We have an arithmetic chart on the board on which we will show the results of individual checking in addition, subtraction and multiplication. We find it hard to remember how to borrow or carry or the tables which we have learned previously.

The new committee in charge of the February bulletin board is Duane Raymond and Douglas Hayden.

In Social Studies Linda Murphy is chairman of the committee to make an exhibit about England. This is the beginning of a project to study the countries of the first peoples to settle in America.

FIFTH GRADE Sadie Liskum

Five children of our room have been neither absent nor tardy during the first semester of school. They are: Theora Evans, Floyd Holley, Judy Neme, Billy Scott, Christine Thorsen.

We are getting into the study of the Central States, the Food Basket of our country. Since Michigan is in this group, we find it very interesting.

Our reading has been centered around conservation for several weeks. We are doing some extra reading on conservation, and our written English involves a good many conservation facts. Each of us will make a notebook to exhibit on Achievement Day.

Mrs. Annear works with our girls on Tuesday morning to help them with their 4-H sewing. This week they are working on darns.

While the girls are with Mrs. Annear in the lunch room, the boys work in crafts with Mrs. Liskum. Last week the boys made cases of felt for glasses. This week they are working with paper mache.

FIFTH GRADE Elizabeth Mosher

The following pupils have been neither absent nor tardy the first semester: Joanne Clark, Diane Dougherty, Kay Kamradt, Alfred Nelson and Bruce Ouden.

We are beginning to study the Central States in Social Studies. The boys and girls who received literature from those states have placed it on the bulletin board.

We have been reading about the solar system in science.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION FORMED

Representatives from different groups in the community met at the Banks School Thursday evening, Jan. 22, and organized the new Banks Athletic Association. This group was selected to serve as a committee to investigate and further the plans for the lighted Athletic Field for the community.

The association has elected Henry Smith for chairman, John DeYoung for vice-chairman, Grant Hastings Secretary and Peter John Drenth, treasurer.

Several local groups have pledged financial support and other organizations will have an opportunity to do so.

At the January meeting of the Banks PTA last week Tuesday, it was decided that the PTA could serve as a collecting agency for funds for the field from members who wished to contribute. Marvin Elzinga, Walter Rood or John DeYoung will accept these donations.

The next meeting will be held February 5 and you can watch your papers for further details.

HONORED AT SHOWER

Mrs. Ethan Edson was hostess at a pink-and-blue shower, Thursday eve, Jan. 15 in honor of Mrs. John James. Mrs. Minert Veenstra and Mrs. Peter Jake Drenth were assistant hostesses.

The evening was spent playing games after which Mrs. James opened the many lovely gifts. A delicious lunch was served by the three hostesses.

Rainbow School Chatter

By JUDY and SALLY

Thursday night — Freshman Class party—just like old times! But we'd be willing to bet that here's a class that is really going places—and we're all for it!

The lecture last Monday night on "Western Europe" was a very good one. Mr. Bretton really knows what he is talking about. These series of lectures will be a great benefit to anyone who is interested in world affairs.

Well, East Jordan has done it again. The Solo and Ensemble Contest in Charlevoix January 24, last Saturday gave the High School Band the individual ratings they have been waiting for, and they were not disappointed. Following are the ensembles that participated:

Brass Quartet
Brass Sextet
Trumpet Duet
Two Clarinet Trio
Sax Quartet
And the solos:

Carol Klooster, French Horn
Fred DeHaven, Trombone
Bey Klooster, Sousaphone
Shirley Murphy, French Horn
Louise Ostrom, Bass Clarinet

The accompanists, Carol Gilpin and Ted Scott, were commended by both judges for their accompanying for the solos and ensembles.

Adjudicators for the Contest were Mr. Don Jackson, Assistant Professor of Bands, Michigan State, and Mr. Keith Stein, also of Michigan State. Jackson judged the Brass instruments, Stein the Woodwinds.

The ratings given the solos and ensembles were very encouraging. The Brass Sextet, and the Trumpet Duet both got "1" ratings, the highest ratings given. The other ensembles and solos, while not getting the "1" rating, were given encouraging comments. Now the band stops, rests a minute, and starts in on the numbers for the May Festival. Good Luck, Band!

IMP-LINGO

By THE IMP

Hi, Jordan—

Seems as tho I could sleep for a week—wish some certain school principal could take a hint and call it off for a week or two!

Have you noticed that Clinton C. has some attraction in Ellsworth lately? Could it be that there is a certain girl over there?

Last Wednesday as I was sitting in English I noticed a certain C. G. trying to copy from the board—now what is this?

I'm a little late (just a little) but congratulations, Junior High, on your game with Freshmen! I forgot to tell you last week. (Or the week before last!)

Here's a newsome twosome... J. D. and Alan S.?

That was a fine Amastar program last night, the contestants were right on the ball. (No pun meant—) The A Capella Choir can pay for a few more choir robes now.

The time is getting closer for the Senior Class production of Huckleberry Finn. And from all the talk (and I might add work) it will be something to see.

And now we have a triangle. Jr. Sr. Jr.! Can anyone guess who? I know.

The basketball games, Pellston and Charlevoix! That's quite a schedule for one week! And now practices, class and group pictures, lectures, pep rallies, add a pinch of fun, mix well, and what do you have? Cheesey, huh?

Tips On Lighting

"Do you know that the light from a window is cut by one third when both side draperies and glass curtains are used?" asks Mary Shipley of the textiles, clothing and related arts department at Michigan State College.

Miss Shipley goes on to point out that most rooms can ill afford to lose that much light. As a solution, she suggests using draperies that extend out over the wall, which allows more light to enter and also makes the window look larger and gives a more spacious feeling to the room.

A new trend today is to combine the glass curtain and drapery panels into one by using a sheer printed fabric, says Miss Shipley. The new curtain fabrics on the market today must be made into curtains full enough to provide privacy and yet sheer enough to allow light to enter. She suggests that these patterned, sheer fabrics should have a fullness at least twice the width of the window; three times the width would be preferable.

Valances, cascades and other decorative treatment of a window are light-stealers, too. Be sure to put such material high above the window so all the light can enter, or to the side so that only the wall is covered, not the light-giving window.

Cottage style curtains are back in style, Miss Shipley reports, and they are as attractive as many traverse type curtains. These cottage curtains will provide both privacy and light because the bottom panels can be left closed while the top portion can be pulled back to admit the light. She suggests using non-transparent material for cottage type curtains in rooms where privacy is needed.

WACKY WALKERS

UMBRELLA DELIA believes the driest distance between two points is the fastest one. She is always in a hurry with her head tucked under an umbrella. She can't feel the rain or see the traffic so why should she worry? Despite her umbrella, Delia will make a sudden splash in traffic.

David, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bennett of East Jordan, underwent a tonsillectomy at the Charlevoix Hospital Saturday. He returned home Sunday.

Local Men Attend Conventon

Rev. Edward DeHaven, John Seller, Burl Braman, Bill Porter and Bill Graugl leave today to attend the 5th annual convention of the National Council of Presbyterian men to be held at the Palmer House in Chicago on January 30, 31st and February 1st. Approximately 2,500 men representing all the states of the Union, Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico and Chile will be there.
