Over the Back Fence

By Marshall

Checking over the news this week we note that Harold Bader, of Bader's Standard Service, has added a new tow truck to his business. The Jordan Valley Co-operative Creamery has installed an 80 foot smoke stack to run their new boiler. Joe Nemecek, former East Jordan grocer, has returned home to become the new manager of the A & P store replacing Al Witte, who has resigned. Several merchants have or are adding a touch of paint to the interior of their stores.

Mrs. Harold Henderson dropped into the office to say that she'd had several inquiries concerning her late husband's guns. She wants residents to know they are not for sale.

Farmers will be interested in knowing that the annual meeting for Members of the Jordan Valley Co-operative Creamery will be held at the East Jordan high school, April 20th.

And then there's people who think they can eat their cake and have yours, too.

They say Hollywood is divided into two classes—those who own swimming pools and those who can't keep their heads above water.

A lady out in North Dakota says we were in better shape when we had more whittlers and fewer chislers.

Many a husband has had that satisfied look wiped off his face with a dish towel.

Fire Sweeps Dairy Farm Near Here

Fire swept the buildings on the 340 acre F. F. French farm four miles west of here early Tuesday morning killing five calves a pig and a horse.

French, working alone, moved 21 milking cows to safety, before help arrived. Fire departments from East Jordan and Ellsworth worked from 1 a.m. until daylight to stop the fire from spreading.

The fire destroyed two barns, 2 silos and an adjoining shed. A large quantity of grain, feed and seed was also destroyed.

Living alone on the dairy farm, which supplied milk to the Jordan Valley Cooperative Creamery here, Mr. and Mrs. French said the loss was partially insured. Cause of the fire was not determined.

Mrs. French is well known in Charlevoix county farm circles belonging to the county extension club and other farm organizations.

East Jordan High School Band Rates Tops In North Michigan

500 Bandsmen To Meet Here For District Concert May 7th

The East Jordan high school band brought honors to its home school when the members earned a number one rating at the district band contest in Petoskey Saturday.

Under direction of Emile Acitelli, the local group was the only class C school in northern Michigan to obtain the opportunity to attend the state band festival at East Lansing, April 25th.

Last year both East Jordan and Charlevoix bands earned number one ratings in class C and went to the state festival.

At Petoskey Saturday, Elk Rapids was tops in class D; Petoskey in class B and Traverse City in class A. Nine class C bands were represented.

Judges for the Petoskey event were from Wayne University, University of Michigan, Michigan Central at Mt. Pleasant and Muskegon.

The class C schools put more bands into the contest than either of the other classes. East Jordan band consists of 34 members.

SPRING FESTIVAL HERE

Director Acitelli announced in East Jordan Wednesday that the city will be host May 7th to 500 bandsmen for the annual northern Michigan spring band festival.

Ten high school band units will assemble here during the morning with a parade in the afternoon and a concert at the high school at night.

With Director Acitelli in charge of the festival guest conductor will be E. C. Moore of Kenosha, Wis.

A similar band festival was held in East Jordan in the spring of 1950.

Acitelli said the northern Michigan band district is largest in the state.

SCHOOL NEWS

Tickets are being sold for the Mystery prize at the Junior play. Tickets are available from any eighth grade or sophomore student. It is sponsored by the Sophomore class.

"Finders Creepers" a three act comedy by Donald Payton was chosen by the Junior class. It is to be presented sometime in April. This play is one of the Maxwell family series.

Try-outs for the cast are now under way and according to John Downing, director, practice will soon begin.

The Acapella Choir and Mixed Chorus under direction of Mrs. Alta Drapeau, will attend the district No. 2 Vocal Music Festival March 28, at Traverse City. All schools earning a high rating will go to state festival at Mt. Pleasant in May.

The high school vocal department has competed at state for three consecutive years.

Robert Gillespe of the Child Guidance Clinic in Petoskey will speak at the regular P. T. C. meeting Wednesday, March 11, 1953, at 8 p.m. in the gymnasium. Refreshments will be served.

Red Devils Dump Harbor

Snapping back with a surprise attack the East Jordan Red Devils dumped Harbor Springs 87-43 Tuesday night in the first Class C play of the northern Michigan 1953 district basketball tournament at Petoskey.

A week earlier the boys from Harbor had tripped the locals in a run-away tilt that had left the Red Devils behind 79 to 66.

As the result of Tuesday night's walk away the Red Devils will go onto the Petoskey court 9 p.m. Friday night to face the winner of Wednesday night's contest between Charlevoix and Boyne City in the district finals.

Last Friday night the Red Devils upset a strong Onaway outfit in a non-conference game 56 to 43. Onaway is rated tops in its own district conference.

Sharing second place with Gay lord in the Northern Michigan Class C conference this season, the Red Devils' 1953 season honors will be decided at Petoskey Friday night in the all-important game of the year.

Having worked with farm groups for many years as a member of the farm press we know that most farm folks are good sports. We mention this because of the heading of the farm page in this issue. The farm page went to press much earlier than the other pages and in error we used the wrong heading.

Local Farm Instruction Now 35 Years Old

A meeting to start another local F. F. A. project will be held at the high school, 2:15 p.m. next Wednesday.

Such farm instruction projects have been under way at East Jordan high school since 1918 under vocational education, and under the Future Farmers of America since 1933.

NEW SOIL PLOT

The farm youths' latest project will be a soil run-off plot to determine the amount of water that runs off different types of soil management. Several plots showing types of soil cover and treatment on a 7 per cent slope will have the water run-off caught in cement tanks. Water and soil in these tanks will be measured and recorded after each rain.

The project is for public observation and will be permanent.

TO NAME COMMITTEE

A special action committee will be elected to carry out the work. Groups to attend the meeting include: the supervised farming committee with Jack Zoulek as chairman; cooperation committee with Ken Shepard as chairman; the community service committee headed by George Nelsen; the Charlevoix soil conservation district board of directors; and members of the agricultural advisory council which include George Klooster and Carl Grutsch.

Richard Schroeder, East Jordan high school F. F. A. advisor reports that such farm projects started here in 1915 when vocational agriculture was first taught in United States.

Among students studying farming here 35 years ago were: Richard Malpass, Carl Ellison, Floyd Liskum, Edwin Barrie, Eleanor Harmon, Lawrence Addis, Bill Doraldson and Iva Dewey.

First F. F. A. instructor here was R. L. Eggert who taught when the local chapter was formed in 1933.

HARRY SAXTON A PROUD FATHER

Five Red Devils Carve Family Name Into Michigan Sports

Neither banker, nor lawyer, nor merchant—but a laborer—a man who lives contentedly below the horizon of fame and fortune.

Such is Harry Saxton, a little man quiet in his ways.

Little would you know that he raised five sons (one daughter) who carved the name of Saxton into Michigan's athletic history.

From 34-year old Red Devil coach, Gayle, who is well known to the northern Michigan sports world, down to 21-year old Robert, an Alma College Junior, Harry Saxton can be proud. For today it is Bob who carries of the name of Saxton at Alma.

"SAXTON COLLEGE"

They say at Alma that the school could well be called "Saxton College" so well known is the family name.

All five Saxtons went into the sports world via the East Jordan Red Devil route. They are: Gayle, 34; Richard, 31; Bill, 24; Chuck, 26; and Bob, 21.

All except Richard, who today is a pharmacist in Little Rock, Ark., went to Alma and made a name for themselves in sports.

PLANNED TO COACH

Richard set out to be a coach, spending 3 1/2 years at Michigan State where he earned freshman numerals in baseball and basketball. After that he went to Ferris at Big Rapids for his pharmacist work.

Red Devil Coach Gayle taught school 4 years for the Army in Chicago and coached 2 1/2 years at Carson city before returning to East Jordan. Here he has made a real name for the school in northern Michigan sports competition.

A 1948 Alma Graduate, Gayle earned 4 letters in varsity football and two in basketball. He received his "masters" from the University of Michigan.

Working for his masters at U of M now is Bill, a 1950 graduate from Alma. He coached at Hillman high school for one year and will return to athletic instruction.

Presently coaching at Fitzgerald high school in Van Dyk, near Detroit, is Chuck, a 1951 Alma graduate. In college he was most valuable in basketball and baseball. He also played football there, earning four letters in all three.

HONOR STUDENTS

Both Gayle and Chuck are listed in "Who's Who" for America's School and University Honor students.

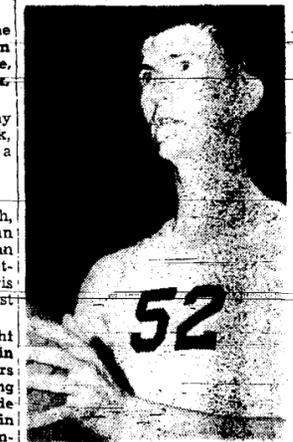

Young Bob has been manager of the varsity football team at Alma for two years. He played varsity basketball this year in addition to being manager. He hopes soon to be a coach.

Serving in World War II were: Gayle, a sergeant in detached service; Chuck, a tech-sergeant in the army of occupation in Germany; Richard, a first lieutenant in field artillery and Bill, an air-force corporal.

Harry Saxton's sons served a total of 14 years in the service of their country.

Four coaches—one pharmacist. Harry Saxton, a laborer, can be mightily proud of them.

Death Takes Johnny Knight Charlevoix Mayor

A heart attack early Tuesday took the life of Charlevoix's mayor, 45-year-old Johnny Knight, who had just been nominated without opposition for another term.

Knight, secretary of the Charlevoix Development Council, and member of the Northwest Michigan Industrial Development Council, died at his home in the Belvedere Club. He was well known in East Jordan.

Last fall Knight was defeated by Louis Anderson in the race for state representative from this district.

Services had not been arranged at press time.

Editorial Desiderata

(From the Carpaco Bugle)

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember that peace there may be in silence. As far as possible, without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly and listen to others, even to the dull and the ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons; they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others you may become vain or bitter, for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with dark imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God. And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace in your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy. — Author Unknown.

STRAIGHT FROM THE FIELD FARM GOSSIP COLUMN

(Compiled and Edited by the News Staff)

(Reprinted from the East Jordan News editorial page, October 9, 1952.)

Let no man scoff the farmer, for he has undertaken the most important task known to mankind—production of the food that keeps us alive. Without our commercial farmers our standard of living would greatly decrease. His task he loves and with pride and dignity he carries it out—knowing its importance and often turning a deaf ear to idle words to the contrary.

And turning about, let no farmer underestimate the importance of our local merchants. For they perform services, which if absent would work strife and hazards into your daily lives.

A poor harvest year is as much concern to our local merchants as is a major city improvement to the farmers. Our lives are inter-locked and the burdens and joys of development affect us all.

Thus the continued growth of our community depends much upon the support of the surrounding farmers who take advantage of the services offered by our merchants. Farmers attending East Jordan Schools churches and civic meetings have a big stake in the development of the community. And the merchants must be ever alert to serve their rural neighbors. In many ways neither can progress without the other.

As a trading center for rural folks in this section of Charlevoix County, East Jordan cannot be paralleled. It is a "hub" city easily accessible to most farmers, who when they arrive to shop are served as efficiently in our stores as anywhere.

There is nothing more welcome in any community than a good farm-city relationship and in those areas where this has been achieved the feeling of friendship and security is greatly increased.

With Your COUNTY FARM AGENT

By Ed Rebman

Grass will be enthroned as king of profitable farming as farm folks join Michigan State College extension specialists in the 1953 Winter Grass Institutes, Ed Rebman, county agr'l agent said. These institutes are a follow-up on the Grass Day's held last June and are being held only in those counties that held a Grass Day in 1952. Ways to gain profit from pasture, to improve storing of silage and how to use forage feeds to best advantage will be discussed at the institute.

Farmers from Charlevoix and other neighboring counties in this area will gather, at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, March 12 at the Lincoln School Gymnasium located one block northeast of the junction of U. S. 31 and M 131 in Petoskey.

A motion picture, dealing with all phases of grassland farming and provided by the College Grass Day Committee will be shown from 9:30 to 10:15 a.m., according to R. S. Lincoln, the host county agr'l agent. The morning program will also include discussion on "Soil Management for Higher Forage Yields" by E. D. Longnecker, Soils Specialist; "Managing Forage Crops for High Quality" by D. L. Clananah, farm crops specialist, and "Harvesting and Storing Forage for High Quality" by R. G. White, agricultural engineering specialist.

Luncheon will be served at noon by the school hot lunch department for 75 cents per plate. All people attending will register and have an opportunity to purchase luncheon tickets as they arrive. Included in the long lunch hour from 12 to 1:30 p.m. will be a chance to see grass, hay, silage and allied exhibits and the judging of grass silage and hay samples brought in by farmers.

A discussion on "Feeding Forages for Greater Profit" will open the afternoon program at 1:30 p.m. This discussion will be led by Donald Murray, dairy specialist and W. L. Finley animal husbandry specialist.

Of special interest from 2:30 to 3:00 p.m. will be a round table discussion on Profitable Pasture Production. Farmers on the panel will include James Griffin and Everett Shepard of Harbor Springs, Kenneth Bare and Robert Williams of Petoskey and Stanley Vorce, Cross Village. Charles T. Lathers of Brutus will be the panel leader.

Farmers should choose their hybrid seed corn to fit their own locality and growing conditions, according to Ed Rebman, Charlevoix county agr'l Agent.

Recent tests completed by the Michigan State College farm crops department show that varieties vary in production in different parts of the state, Rebman says. The best test of a hybrid's performance is to compare it with other hybrids under equal soil and climatic conditions.

Farmers may obtain a copy of Cooperative Extension Folder F-67 on "Corn Hybrids Compared, 1953" from their county agricultural agent or by writing to Bulletin Office, Department of Information Services, Michigan State College.

"It is better to choose an early corn instead of a late one for grain," Rebman said. "This means a hybrid that is of average or drier-than-average moisture content."

The advantage of a good early maturing hybrid for grain use are: Maturity before killing frosts yields usually equal to late hybrids in Michigan, lower moisture for harvest when the weather is still good and there is time for fall plowing of stubble.

Rebman added that later hybrids are usually better for use as silage. "The later hybrids which have good grain yields generally produce more fodder and yield more silage per acre," he said. The early dent stage, when most of the kernels have dented, is the best time for silage harvest.

Rebman said that planting two or three kinds of hybrids sometimes offers a degree of "crop insurance" if one hybrid runs into unfavorable weather, the others may come through with a good crop.

Penfold On Mid-West Creamery Board

Three members of the Jordan Valley Cooperative Creamery, of East Jordan, attended the 20th annual meeting of Mid-West Producers' Creameries at South Bend, Indiana, February 26th and 27th. Those representing the local creamery were: President William Parsons, of Charlevoix; vice president Frank Bur, of Cheboygan, and Percy Penfold, manager of East Jordan.

Penfold was named to the Mid-West organization's board of directors at the meeting. The local creamery is a member.

Pickle Packers Elated Over Large Output

Among the ten major vegetables consumed by the nation, the greatest percentage of increase in dollars paid to growers during 1952 was racked up by cucumbers for pickles, according to F. Olney Brown, statistical officer for the National Pickle Packers Association.

He pointed to figures of the United States Department of Agriculture, showing a 1144 per cent increase during 1952, as compared with ten year period of 1941-50 inclusive.

And that, in turn, compares with an average of only 42.2 per cent increase for other vegetables during those same years.

Pickles, Brown noted, have moved upward into the third spot among vegetables on the basis of national consumption. The top spot of 1952 was held by peas, with 32,000,000 cases of 24/2's. Corn was next with 30,000,000 cases.

Then came pickles with 28,000,000 cases.

Other vegetables trailed behind this "Big Three" Caravan.

In addition, Brown said, that while the traditional tendency for larger pickle sales in the Spring and Summer months still prevailed last year, there was a noticeable increase of sales during 1952 for the Fall and Winter, indicating a trend toward more even "year around" pickle sales.

Farm Machines Jump 60 Per Cent

Farmers have been buying more and more machinery during the past 10 years, and are now using 60 per cent more machines and power than a decade ago.

Since Jan. 1, 1941, the number of tractors on farms has increased 150 per cent, the number of motor trucks 120 per cent, milking machines, 225 per cent, grain combines 300 per cent, and corn pickers 300 per cent. Industrial research has promoted the trend toward machinery by developing machines to offset the shortage in farm workers.

Love That Kitchen Range!

Your kitchen range needs a little loving care to live a long, happy life, reminds Evelyn Zwemer, MSC home management specialist.

Your stove has a glass-like finish that is durable but won't stand up under mistreatment. Wash the stove with warm soap and water—but only when the surface is cold, not hot.

Miss Zwemer suggests that if food spills on the range while you are cooking the most convenient and safe way to clean it up is with a paper towel and not a damp cloth.

The ounce-of-prevention advice works best when it comes to oven care, the home management specialist believes. Get in the good habit of using large enough baking dishes so that food cannot overflow. Escalloped potatoes are especially likely to boil over, so use a generous baking dish. Put a cookie sheet under the pie you are baking.

Aluminum foil lining in the bottom of the oven does make for easy cleaning, but the foil is an unnecessary expense and it does interfere a little with the heat in the oven. A dish of ammonia in an open overnight will loosen dirt and make cleaning a simple process next day. But, here's a tip, don't leave plants in the kitchen the night you give your oven the ammonia treatment—plants will around ammonia fumes.

Real work and time saving features are coming in late model kitchen ranges, Miss Zwemer reports. Look for gas stoves with a glass window on the table top that enables you to see the product baking in your oven without even stooping or opening the oven door. A new electric range feature is an electric unit which is immersed in a kettle of fat for deep fat frying.

Established alfalfa-brome, alfalfa-brome-Ladino and Ladino-brome pastures that suffered winter damage should have 200 to 300 pounds of 0-20-20 fertilizer per acre this spring, advises Dr. Milo B. Tesar, farm crops specialist at Michigan State College.

ORCHARD NOTES

By C. Fairman

The Mackinaw Bridge In Relation to Fruit Transportation

Early tomatoes and strawberries from southern Michigan are the earliest fruits to go to the Upper Peninsula and of course all fruits need to be transported as fast as possible. Most of the upper peninsula fruit trade coming to our section needs fast transportation. They are on a job, have a store, or are on farms putting up hay and only have a limited amount of time to drive down and buy the fruit for their trade. According to the estimated increase in population, especially southern Michigan and other sections, the ferry system would not be able to take care of the trade three years from now. Many businessmen with a limited amount of time are now delayed. Farmer vacationers and other vacationers going on a short vacation would have more time to spend up north. Nearly all the people living in the upper peninsula want the bridge.

Farming, industry, and all business would greatly increase in all sections of the upper peninsula, especially the eastern half. Long distance traffic would also increase.

The bridge would be paid for sooner than expected. Some ferry boats could be used after the bridge was built. Some of the boats could be used for travel to other points and islands. There would be more winter travel. There would be less restaurant and over night trade at St. Ignace and Mackinaw City on account of no delays or wasted time.

It is hard to estimate the great increase in travel that we would have after the bridge is completed. It would be way beyond our present expectations. It would bring more wealth to my farm and more wealth to a great many other lines of business.

Transportation of fruit pickers could be added. Many are now transported by the grower's trucks. While being in the fruit transportation of soldiers, trucks and other army vehicles. In the name of progress, let's get the bridge.

Creamery Aids Farm Youth

Northern Michigan 4-H club achievement day programs have for years been aided by the Jordan Valley Cooperative Creamery. Giving the farm youth loan of equipment for demonstrations as well as other assistance, the creamery aids them whenever possible.

Future Farmers of America have also been assisted by the creamery. The cooperative furnishes butter for the FFA dinners and supports their programs in many ways.

State Bank Aids Local Farmers In Many Ways

Both farm youth and older farm folks throughout this area have been aided through efforts of the State Bank of East Jordan.

For several years the bank has cooperated with young farmers by making it financially possible for them to enter calf scrambles at the Charlevoix County fair. In addition the institution has supported accredited students from this area who have taken farm short courses at Michigan State College.

In discussing national Farm Day next Sunday, bank officials say a large majority of their loans are direct to farmers on cattle, machinery and real estate.

And it is said that the State Bank of East Jordan is truly a "farmers bank" where financial advice and aid is contributing to the development of agriculture in this area.

Dolores Cayas Weds John Rude At Muskegon

The marriage of Dolores Cayas and Willis B. Rude took place in the rectory of the St. James Church, Muskegon, February 11. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cayas of Muskegon. The bridegroom is the son of John Rude, East Jordan.

The wedding ceremony was read by Rev. Ernest Bernott, before a fireplace mantel graced with mixed flowers.

The bride wore a grey flannel suit with navy accessories and her flowers were white roses.

Mrs. Desire Lambert, sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid. She wore a dress of grey jersey with navy accessories and a corsage of harmonizing flowers.

Arthur Rude, brother of the groom, served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, the brides mother chose a purple dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was served to 25 guests at Cottage Inn. The bride's table was centered with a bouquet of seasonal flowers and a three tier wedding cake.

The newly married couple will make their home in Muskegon after they return from their wedding trip to Chicago. The bride will continue work with Maikofor Moore and DeLong. The groom, a graduate of East Jordan high school and an alumnus of University of Michigan, is employed in the office of Central Paper Company, Inc.

LEGION Auxiliary News

The Legion Auxiliary Unit 227 held a semi-social meeting Tuesday February 24 at the Legion Home. President Lillian Bennett conducted the meeting. It was decided that the Auxiliary will hold a Bake Sale to raise money for the kitchen fund. Eva Peterson was appointed chairman of the sale. Following a short business session the meeting was adjourned and the rest of the evening was spent playing cards.

It seems that the Champion pinocle player of the Auxiliary so far is Marie Woodcock. She has won first prize both nights cards have been played. So if there are any members who think they can play pinocle and haven't been attending the semi-social meetings it is about time they did and challenge Marie. A lot of the girls are just learning to play so if you do not know how to play come and learn. Me hope to make these social nights really a lot of fun. A nice lunch was served by the hostess Margaret Kenny, with Lillian Bennett assisting her and everyone had a fine time.

Next Auxiliary meeting Tuesday, March 10. Be sure and attend.

IMP-LINGO

By THE DCP

Hi, Jordan.

Did you hear about the band getting a first division rating? That means we go downstate and I can't wait! I always go along to give moral support.

Denny W. and Fred D. seem to be getting mighty interested in Boyne City—couldn't tell you their names for sure because Fred keeps changing his mind, but they are darn cute 'til girls.

I saw that orange stocking cap drifting thru the halls again.

I can't wait for that winter formal idea to get going. I hear it will be around St. Patrick's day and you can bet your life I'll get there and give a first hand account the week after.

Wait 'til Girl's basketball gets started—they'll probably draw mammoth crowds. With hotshots like Bev K. on the team, they'll do okay.

I heard the Elsworth girls were waiting for the E. J. team after the Onaway game. Now, I wonder why.

That green hair business is a wonderful idea. Not only is it a beautiful color, but green is restful, so your eyes don't get as tired staring at the back of the person sitting in front of you. Or if you are like me and sit on top of people's heads for better observation you'll agree it's just like sitting in a bunch of soft grass.

I sure was glad to see that Jim S. had the rest of his hair trimmed—that first style made you wonder.

Sally S. ought to start charging for haircuts. She gave Pat C. a neat trim.

Whoops—time's short! Be good because I'm always around.

4-H Club Leaders Make History Here

Charlevoix County 4-H club leaders made club history when they gathered at the East Jordan Evangelical Lutheran Church annex for their annual meeting, February 24.

Sixty-four of the 79 county leaders turned out for the event, K. C. Festerling, district 4-H club agent said.

Mrs. Robert Straw, of Charlevoix, was named president of the Leaders' Club for 1953. Others elected were: Mrs. Agnes Healey, vice-president; and Mrs. Homer Nason, secretary-treasurer both of East Jordan.

Two youths from Charlevoix Joyce Fiedler and Joe Martin-check were awarded paper weights made especially by Michigan Farmer Magazine for the all around 4-H club girl and boy. Joyce has been active in 4-H work for eight years and Joe, 7 years.

Other awards went to Carolyn Stoel, (a baking set for being the county winner in cereal baking) and Jean Swanson (a table service for six and table cloth) for her outstanding work in cereal cooking. The awards are made possible by General Mills.

Leader club president Mrs. Henry Erber, of Boyne City, conducted the meeting. A recreation period was directed by six leaders of the Peninsula 4-H club. They recently attended a recreation school at Bellaire and reported some of the latest games and entertainment for 4-H club members.

A report on the State 4-H council at Lansing was given by Mrs. Paul Hufford, president of the Association. She represents the northern section of lower Michigan on the state council.

Program activities followed a chicken dinner given the leaders for their service to 4-H work.

Mrs. Leatha Larsen and Mrs. Sadie Liskum looking at the National 4-H Club clover award pins presented to them by K. C. Festerling at the annual meeting of the Charlevoix County 4-H Leaders Club in East Jordan. The pins were presented for 16 and 17 years of active leadership in club work.

AID YOUTH ON THE FARM Two East Jordan Teachers Receive National 4-H Club Recognition

Two East Jordan school teachers, Mrs. Sadie Liskum and Mrs. Leatha Larson who spent a total of 33 years as 4-H club leaders have been recognized for their outstanding devotion to farm youth activities in this area.

The national 4-H club clover award was presented them at the annual meeting of the Charlevoix County 4-H Leaders' Club held in the East Jordan Evangelical Lutheran Church annex February 24.

The award pins were given to the ladies on the eve of National 4-H Club Week when club members receive national recognition for their achievement.

The pins were donated to 4-H by the New York Central Railroad, a firm long associated with the farm youth movement.

In making the presentation K. C. Festerling, district 4-H club agent said Mrs. Liskum has been active in 4-H leadership work for the last 16 years and Mrs. Larsen for 17 years.

Work of the 4-H club in the East Jordan school is outstanding in Charlevoix County. Festerling said.

Bluegrass and Junegrass pastures should have 40 pounds of nitrogen per acre, advise Michigan State College specialists, for more pasture days from April 15 to July 1.

The year-long ban on Canadian beef and cattle shipments to the United States ended March 1, 1953, and Michigan State College marketing specialists expect that will end shipments of New Zealand beef.

Once-over tillage has proven it can give as good or better yields with less seeded labor than conventional tilling methods. Michigan State College specialists suggest more farmers give it a try.

Set Hearing For Cherry Men In Grand Rapids

A hearing will be held by the Michigan Department of Agriculture in the Pantlind Hotel, Grand Rapids, Michigan, Thursday, March 12 to discuss the department's regulation requiring compulsory grading of all red tart cherries sold for processing.

The hearing to be conducted by Director Charles Figy will start at 10:30 a.m.

The regulation was promulgated by the Department of Agriculture in the spring of 1952 following requests received from both growers and processors.

The regulation makes it unlawful to sell red tart cherries for processing unless such cherries have been graded by Federal-State inspectors.

The hearing will be for the purpose of hearing testimony on whether the regulation should remain as now written, or whether changes should be made in it.

Any grower or processor may attend the hearing and offer such information as he may have.

Sports Talk

by LEON BARTLETT

Hi, Sportsfans:

The regular basketball season is now completed, and it turned out to be a well finished season. The Red Devils tied with Gaylord for second place in the conference bouts with 8 wins and 4 losses. With three non-conference wins and one non-conference loss this brings the Red Devil percentage well above average. The two main scoring players this season were Warren Frank who scored high in ten games and Keith Evans who scored high in the other six. All in all the East Jordan Red Devils had quite a successful year with some very close exciting games.

Some teams in the conference that were rated tops were beaten by other teams who were on the bottom. Harbor Springs sure surprised a lot of people, and they will be hard to beat in the tournament.

The final standing of the class C Conference are as follows: Charlevoix, 11 wins and 1 loss; East Jordan and Gaylord, 8 wins and 4 losses; Harbor Springs, 7 wins and 5 losses; Boyne City, 4 wins and 8 losses; Mancelona, 3 wins and 9 losses, and Pellston with 1 win and 11 losses.

In final games last week, Charlevoix won from a visiting Gaylord team 69 to 58. Bennett and Davenport took the scoring title for the Rayders and kept them ahead throughout the game. Larry Northey was high for Gaylord. At Mancelona, Harbor Springs defeated the Ironmen in a close game with the final score 49-45 but with quarter scores all ties. Stan Pifer scored 21 points for the Rams and Dick Derrer 17 for the losers. Another conference game saw Boyre City trouncing Pellston 56-25. Don Arner scored 25 points for the Ramblers and Johnny Schaeffer scored 8 for Pellston. East Jordan played the only non-conference game of the week when they beat Onaway 56-43 with Warren Frank leading the Red Devils to victory with 20 points. Onaway is considered one of the top teams in their conference and is favored for tournament material.

Mrs. Galmore

Last week we organized a citizenship club with Gerald Peters, Beverly Snyder and Loretta Hawley chosen as officers. They decided, in the first meeting last Friday, that we would work on improvement in courtesy and workmanship.

Twenty people contributed to our exhibit of Michigan products which we have had for the past two weeks. We also have a mural showing chalk pictures of events in Michigan History. Gerald Peters drew one of Father Marquette and some Indians. Sharon Hughley, one of Cadillac and the fort that he built at the place that later become Detroit, Barbara Kortan, one of Mossback Amelia and a bear picking berries on opposite sides of a bush, and Don Derenzy a logging scene.

Our next exhibit will be of pictures of early East Jordan. This is to prepare us for the spring operetta which will be glimpses of the past in our home town.

Larry Schumaker gave a report on the book "Bill Clark American Explorer," during our geography class. It was the story of the Lewis and Clark expedition. Larry gave a fine report. Also in geography we have been working on maps. After studying the claims and settlements of the early English, French, Dutch and Spanish colonists, we made maps to show the lands they claimed. Monday we were happy to welcome Ronald Klooster into our

Martha Vandenberg, Ellsworth, Weds. David Potter At Atwood

The Atwood Reformed Church was the setting for a lovely wedding Friday evening, February 27th when Martha Vandenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Vandenberg of Ellsworth became the bride of David Potter of Charlevoix. Rev. H. Fikse, pastor of the church, officiated at the simple ring ceremony performed before the candlelighted altar decorated with palms, evergreen boughs and clusters of wedding bells.

Mrs. Hans DeYoung, organist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. James Vandenberg who sang "Always" before the entrance of the bride party and "I Love You Truly" just before the vows were spoken. She also sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt following the speaking of the vows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white bridal satin gown, fashioned with a fitted bodice, featuring a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves coming to a point-over-the-wrist with a full gathered skirt ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a tiara of simulated pearls and rhinestones. She wore a strand of pearls and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations centered with pink rosebuds.

Esther Heeres, cousin of the bride was her only attendant and she chose a mint green formal of net over taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of pastel pink carnations. Franklin Potter of Charlevoix, a cousin, assisted the groom as best man and Nathan Boss and Ted Potter, also of Charlevoix, seated the guests.

The men of the bridal party wore white carnation boutonnieres. Mrs. Vandenberg wore an aqua crepe street length dress with white and black accessories for her daughter's wedding, and the groom's mother chose a deep teal blue crepe street length dress with black accessories. Deep rose carnations formed their identical corsages.

At the reception following the ceremony Richard Hoffman, master of ceremonies, introduced Hans DeYoung who led in the singing of old familiar tunes with words to fit the occasion, and Mrs. Grant Hastings who gave a humorous reading.

June Brown and Mary Lou DeVries were in charge of the gift table. Each guest received a piece of the three tiered wedding cake iced in white and topped with a miniature bride and groom and wedding bell arrangement. Lunch was served by members of the Ladies Aid and young people of the church.

After the reception, the young couple left on a wedding trip (destination unknown) and on their return will reside in the farm home in the Barnard Community.

Those from a distance who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Takens and daughter, Sharon, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jeltama and son, Miss Lou Ann Brown and friend all of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Floyd Wilbur and children of Grand Blanc, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Throop of Kamiak, Idaho, and Mrs. Levi Moulton of Blanchard, Michigan.

Out State Insurance Agencies Should Be Examined Carefully

Companies and organizations not licensed by the department of insurance are not required to file annual reports with the Michigan Department of Insurance and are not subject to its examination. This does not prohibit mail order solicitation.

Many citizens, it was said, consider any insurance organization making any solicitation in Michigan to be licensed by this state. But many, they say, wisely contact their local insurance agents or the state department to inquire into the finances and reputation of the insurance mail order concern.

The state of Michigan does not recognize an automobile insurance policy under the provisions of the Financial Responsibility law if the company is not licensed in the state.

Mail solicitation by the American Automobile Owner's Safety Ass'n., Kansas City, Missouri, has created inquiries concerning financial status and reputation, it is claimed. Not being licensed in Michigan the department made inquiry of the Missouri Division of Insurance and the following was received.

The association is not an insurance company and is not licensed by the Missouri Department. It is acting in a soliciting capacity for a newly organized reciprocal, the Automobile Owner's Insurance Underwriters, which is now under Missouri jurisdiction.

Ni-Hard
In the field of alloy cast irons an upward trend of use was observed in specialty products such as Ni-Hard in mining equipment. Following successful trials, Ni-Hard is being increasingly adopted for mill liners and grinding balls in the cement industry in Great Britain and elsewhere abroad.
